LIBERALS 193 SEATS

Fraser Retains Seat By 241 Clapper Leads In City; White Returned In Hastings

Noted Hockey Player Lacked Strength In Rural Sections

Peterborough contributed one of the 24 Ontario seats to the Progressive - Conservative party in the federal elections Monday with a plurality of 242 for Gordon K. Fraser over the Liberal candidate, Aubrey V. (Dit) Clapper, and J. H. Miles, representing the CCF.

The total vote from the 95 polling subdivisions in Peterborough West was:—

Fraser	10,939
Clapper	10,698
Miles	2,796

The last poll to report, that at Windover's House in Cavendish township, gave Clapper 26 votes, Fraser 25 and Miles 10.

According to available figures which were revised on the basis of the deputy returning officers' reports, Clapper received majorities in the city of Peterborough and the townships of O'onabee, Ennismore.

The municipalities in the Fraser column were Lakefield, Harvey, Smith, North Monaghan.

G. K. Fraser's 10,939 Monday was 2,255 votes fewer than the combined 13,494 polled by his opponents.

Comparison is suggested the results of the 1945 election in which Mr. Fraser won with a majority over his opposition.

The returns for that election were:

G. K. Fraser	10,949
R. M. Glover (Lib)	8,181
Mrs. Lorna Thomas	2,512

Mr. Fraser's majority was 256 over the combined vote of the Liberal and CCF candidates.

Gordon K. Fraser was generally recognized as a doughty standard-bearer for the Progressive-Conservatives and their new leader, Col. George Drew. It was his third general election, having won the two preceding it with evidence of greatly enhanced strength in the constituency.

Liberals Hopeful

Liberals had kindled their hopes and confidence in the fine personality and reputation of Dit Clapper and the spirited campaign he conducted in the short five weeks at his disposal his appeal to the public for their support.

He succeeded in reducing the Fraser plurality from 2,768 four years ago to 242, but in the mean-

War Ace Duke Munro Bows to Lawyer In Hastings-Peterboro

MARMORA, June 28 (By Staff Writer)—George S. White, Progressive Conservative member for Hastings-Peterborough since 1940 was returned at the polls in this riding on Monday with a substantial majority. At noon today 87 of the 101 polls throughout this scattered riding which stretches from Burleigh Falls in Peterborough county on the west to the eastern boundary of Hastings county on the east and Stirling on the south to the most northern point of Hastings County in the north.

With the 87 polls heard from George S. White polled 5,856, J. W. "Duke" Munro, Liberal 4,071 and J. Haffey, CCF 612 votes. The 14 polls to come are scattered throughout the northern part of the riding and in the north of Belmont and Methuen townships.

From the very first as the polls reported Mr. White took the lead and was never headed off. As the Hastings county polls reported his gains increased and then as the Peterborough county end came in Munro came in stronger but seldom carried a township.

With returns still incomplete more than 65 per cent of the riding's 16,000 voters cast a vote.

Practically the entire Hastings county section, Stirling, Rawdon township, Huntingdon, Deloro, Marmora and Lake, Marmora Village, Madoc Village Madoc Township, Tudor and Cashel, Limerick, Wollaston, Bancroft, Dungannon Monteagle and Herschel all gave White majorities while Faraday gave a lead to Munro.

In the Peterborough county end White carried Dummer township 305 to 250 Burleigh and Anstruther 171 to 160, Norwood 307 to 302, Munro took Havelock 275 to 246, and Asphodel 342 to 293.

Central Area Remains Only Tory Belt

Central Ontario, from Lake Simcoe to Frontenac County has become the Tory rump of Canada. As a result of Monday's elections, in which thirteen Central Ontario ridings returned six PC's, all members of the last House of Commons, one-quarter of all the Conservative members-elect of Ontario, one-tenth of all the Conservative members-elect in the whole of Canada are in one central Ontario band from Simcoe North to Prince Edward-Lennox. Peterborough is in the centre of this remarkable band. Peterborough West returned G. K. Fraser with a majority of 242.

Here is the Conservative rump in Central Ontario with the candidate's majority, and his majority in 1945 shown in brackets: Simcoe North, J. H. Ferguson, 947 (1,932); Victoria, C. W. Hodgson, 361 (818); Peterborough West, G. K. Fraser, 242 (2,768); Hastings-Peterborough, G. S. White, 1,629 (2,650); Prince Edward-Lennox, G. J. Tustin, 1,450 (2,886); Frontenac-Addington, W. R. Aylesworth, 1,002 (2,375).

These six continuing Tory strongholds, though as the reduced majorities show, the fabric is not as strong as in 1945, stretch in a continuous band from Lake Simcoe to the St. Lawrence river.

Seven of the thirteen central Ontario ridings went Liberal. Two had been Liberal before—Simcoe East and Parry Sound-Muskoka. This latter is a new riding, a combination with Parry Sound, in which the member has been J. M. MacDonnell, financial critic of the Conservative Party. Mr. MacDonnell was ousted in the redistribution.

Liberals Win 56 Seats In Ontario

PC Standing Reduced From 48 Members To 25 In New House

TORONTO, June 28 (CP) — The Liberals, riding a new flood tide of fortune, today hold 56 of Ontario's 83 seats in the Commons.

Part of a cross-country sweep by their party in Monday's general election enabled them to cut Progressive Conservative holdings from 48 Ontario seats in the old 245-seat Commons to a scant 25 in the new 262-seat House.

CCF representation remained at one riding and one Independent-Liberal was elected. The lone CCF member is J. W. Noseworthy, veteran political skirmisher, who regained York South.

George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, won re-election in Carleton, an Ottawa area riding. In Peel, near Toronto, Gordon Graydon, regarded as the party's expert on international affairs, was returned.

Veteran PC's Beaten

The Liberal victory sweep cost several veteran Progressive Conservatives their seats. J. M MacDonnell, Progressive Conservative financial critic, lost out to hockey player W. K. (Bucko) McDonald in Parry Sound-Muskoka. And in Toronto Davenport, John R. MacNicol went down to defeat after 19 years in office, beaten by 25-year-old Paul Hellyer.

Forty-five years of Conservative representation ended in Ontario Rosedale with the victory of Charles J. Henry, Liberal, over Harry Jackman. Mr. Henry was a long-time members of secretarial staff of former Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

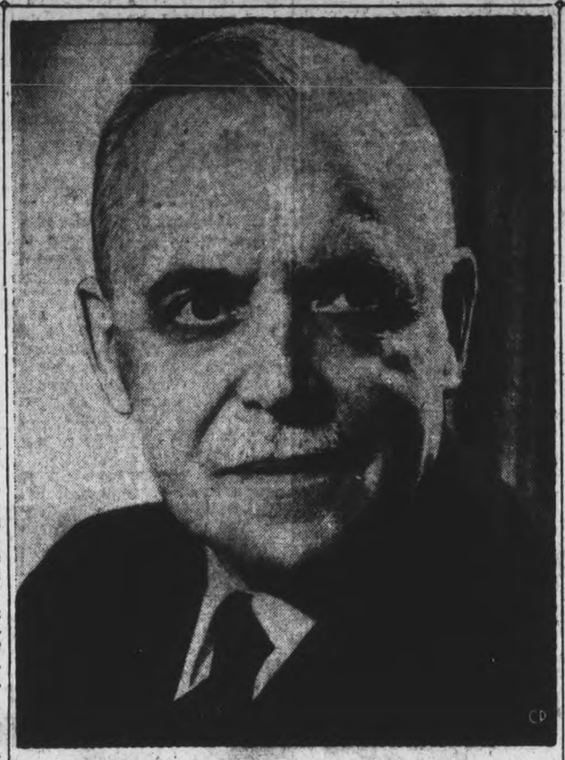
The Liberals captured the newly-created Northern Ontario ridings of Timmins and Sudbury and held the Lakehead, Nipissing, Timiskaming and Rainy River ridings as well as Algoma East and Algoma West, elsewhere in Northern and Northwestern Ontario.

All the cabinet ministers representing Ontario ridings—External Affairs Minister Pearson, Trade Minister Howe, Revenue Minister McCann, Transport Minister Chevrier and Resources Minister Gibson—were re-elected.

All the women candidates in Ontario, in common with those in other provinces, were beaten. They were Mrs. Ellen Fairclough, Progressive Conservative in Hamilton West; Myrtle Morrison, CCF, in Frontenac-Addington; and Ruth Radford, Liberal, in Toronto Broadview.

Some sports figures fared little better. A hockey player, A. V. (Dit) Clapper, Liberal, lost to Progressive Conservative G. K. Fraser in Peterborough West. Walter Martin, former Davis Cup tennis player from Saskatchewan, ran as Liberal candidate in York East and lost to R. H. McGregor, Progressive Conservative.

More successful was Lionel Conacher, Canada's greatest all-round athlete, who won Toronto Trinity for the Liberals from L. W. (Larry) Skey, Progressive Conservative. In doing so, he defeated Tim Buck, national leader of the Labor-Progressive party.



ENDORSED BY THE ELECTORS at the polls throughout Canada on Monday was the Liberal government headed by the Prime Minister, Rt. Hon. Louis Stephen St. Laurent, shown above, who assumed the party leadership last August.

Record Liberal Victory Tribute To Doughty Leader

By DOUGLAS HOW
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, June 28—(CP)—It was Uncle Louis' election all the way. No one could deny that today any more than they could deny the political dynamite in the campaign Prime Minister St. Laurent charted and fought in his own way, going to the people in his own fatherly way, talking to them quietly of peace and a fair share for all in villages and towns and cities from one ocean to the other.

Veteran reporters who followed him for thousands and thousands of miles said no Canadian prime minister had ever tried anything like it before.

He said there were no major issues and he made it stick. He went into villages and small towns he probably had never heard of and dozens of them said they hadn't seen a prime minister in years. He spoke 10 and 12 and 13 times a day until his throat gave out and then he rested and came back for more.

But above all he let the people come near him so they could hear him talk and see his face and decide "if you think you can trust me..."

So bilingual that his French flowed into his English without a halt or hitch, inevitably immaculate, powered by the energy accumulated in 67 years of a model life, he spoke a campaign that was largely one of quiet words, that championed the Liberal past and Liberal policies.

But they were words sparked fairly often by eloquence and by drama. There was profound emotion when he went home to his native village of Compton, Que.; courage when he went into big, tough Hamilton and said Labor should have its fair share but should not dominate the land; something approaching religious fervour in the reaction to him in French-speaking eastern Ontario.

And one night particulary, at Owen Sound, his voice caught fire as he retorted to Tory advertisements intimating he was not a good Catholic and not a good French-Canadian. Reporters found themselves so awed by his sudden, burning eloquence that their pencils missed what he had said He spoke of religious tolerance, of the values of a religious people with such powerful conviction that night that his predominantly-Protestant audience sat hushed and moved until he had had his say and then they cheered his words.

Orders Premier To Face Charge

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., June 28 (CP) —Premier Joseph Smallwood was ordered in Magistrate's Court today to answer charges that he intimidated voters in the federal riding of St. John's West.

Magistrate Hugh O'Neill ruled that his court is competent to hear the charges laid two weeks ago by W. J. Browne, successful Progressive-Conservative candidate in the riding in Monday's election.

Counsel for Mr. Smallwood argued earlier that the charges should be thrown out as "abortive." He also declared that the Canadian Criminal Code still has not been proclaimed in the new province and there could be no legal penalties imposed under the Dominion Elections Act.

Mr. Browne laid the charges on behalf of four citizens in the south coast district of Ferryland who quoted Mr. Smallwood as saying no public money would be spent there unless they voted for the Liberal candidate, Gregory Power.

The Ferryland voted strongly for Mr. Browne in Monday's polling.

Crush Conservative Machine In Avalanche Of Votes For New Canadian Record

Quebec Gives St. Laurent 68 Seats C.C.F. loses 13 in Saskatchewan Conservatives Win 42, A Loss Of 24

By GEORGE KITCHEN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent and his victorious Liberals today moved confidently into another five years as Canada's governing party in the wake of the greatest political triumph in the history of this Dominion. Monday, with a smashing general election victory that was as breath-taking as it was decisive, they captured 193 of the 262 seats in the new House of Commons to command an unprecedented parliamentary majority of 121 votes.

Putting "1949" into an impressive roll of Liberal election victories over the past 14 years—1935, 1940, 1945 and 1949—they reduced the Socialist C.C.F. to minor-party status and crushed the hopes of George Drew's Progressive Conservatives that they might this time regain the Federal power they lost in 1935.

Early today, when the final votes were counted and the last seat won and lost, the party standing fell into this Liberal-dominant pattern:

Liberals, 193; Progressive Conservatives, 42; C.C.F., 12; Social Credit, 10; Independents, four; Independent-Liberal, one.

By contrast, this was the standing after the 1945 election for a 245-seat House:

Liberals, 118; Progressive Conservatives, 66; C.C.F., 28; Social Credit, 13; Independents, eight; Independent-Liberals, seven; others, five.

As Canadians voted in record numbers, the government rolled up roughly 50 per cent of the popular vote, with the Progressive Conservative total just over 30 per cent and the C.C.F. between 13 and 14 per cent.

Get 25 In Maritimes

It was an election triumph that outdid any previous political victory on Canadian record. It built up swiftly on the eastern seaboard, where the government captured 25 of the 34 Maritime through Quebec and Ontario and constituencies, steam - rolled rolled steadily westward, province by province—Manitoba, Saskatchewan, British Columbia.

Only in Alberta, where the Social Crediters have held provincial power since 1935, did the Liberals fail to emerge as the dominant federal party. But, even there, they reduced the Social Credit holding—from 13 to 10—as they won five seats. The Progressive Conservatives retained two.

Elsewhere across the land, the Liberals were unbeatable.

They trimmed the C.C.F. decisively on their own ground—in Saskatchewan. Here, where the C.C.F. held 18 seats in the last House, the Liberals drove them out of 13 to raise their own riding—total to 15, leaving the C.C.F. with four and the Progressive Conservatives with one.

But it was old Quebec, the traditional Liberal stronghold, that built the foundation for the government victory — electing Liberals in 68 of the province's 73 seats. The Progressive Conservatives won two ridings and Independents took the other three.

Traditionally-Conservative Ontario gave the Liberals 56 seats where they had held only 34 before and cut the Progressive Conservative strength from 48 to 25. One riding went C.C.F.; another Independent-Liberal.

Newfoundland Liberal

Newfoundland, the virgin political territory which was voting in a Dominion election for the first time, elected five Liberals and two Progressive Conservatives; Prince Edward Island three Liberals and one Progressive Conservative; New Brunswick eight Liberals and two Progressive Conservatives, and Nova Scotia nine Liberals, three Progessive Conservatives and one C.C.F.

All the four major party leaders—Mr. St. Laurent, Mr. Drew, C.C.F. Leader M. J. Coldwell and Social Credit Leader Solon Low—came through with personal victories in their home ridings.

Mr. St. Laurent's 19 cabinet ministers and their parliamentary assistants also were returned along with Hon. Gaspard Fauteux, Speaker of the last Commons.

Tim Buck Out

Tim Buck, the pint-sized Communist leader, and all of his 17 Labor-Progressive party candidates were defeated.

Say "Reaction" Repudiated

OTTAWA, June 28 (CP) — A "repudiation of reaction" as represented by the Progressive Conservative party, rather than a "repudiation of principles of the CCF," was the way the Canadian Congress of Labor summed up the swing of Monday's election.

In a statement issued from CCL headquarters, president A R. Mosher and secretary-treasurer Pat Conroy said "the Congress does not in any way regard the results of the federal election as a repudiation of the principles of the CCF."

The statement continued: "they are basically a repudiation of reaction as represented by the Pro-

St. Laurent Has Biggest Margin

By The Canadian Press

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, who led his Liberal forces to a landslide victory, also rolled up the biggest personal winning margin in any of the 262 seats at stake in the Federal election.

The prime minister was returned to his Quebec East seat Monday by a thumping plurality of 17,942 votes, compared to his winning margin of 10,768 in the 1945 election. He gained 26,051 votes compared to 8,073 for his nearest opponent, Progressive Conservative M. Drouin. The third candidate polled only 1,404 votes.

P. E. Cote came closest to matching his leader's winning margin when he was re-elected in Montreal Verdun-La Salle with a plurality of 17,157 in a five-way fight with CCF, Progressive Conservative, Independent and Union of Electors opponents.

George Drew, who saw his Progressive Conservative forces shrink to 42 from 69 at dissolution of the last House, nevertheless was easily returned as opposition leader. He won Carleton riding, near Ottawa, by a plurality of 4,308 over CCF and Liberal opponents.

CCF Leader M. J. Coldwell won his Saskatchewan riding of Rosetown-Biggar by a plurality of 3,207 over Progressive Conservative

332 Candidates To Lose Deposits

By The Canadian Press.

The Federal Government will collect probably more than $67,000 in deposits lost by candidates in Monday's election.

Compilations by the Canadian Press showed that 332 candidates in the field of 847 probably will lose the $200 deposits each was required to post when nominated. At least three others who withdrew from the contest after nomination day may also lose their deposits.

This compares with the all-time high of $92,400 in the 1945 election when 462 contestants in the record field of 952 forfeited their deposits by failing to poll one-half the vote of the elected members in their constituencies.

Leading losers by parties were: CCF, 118; Progressive Conservative, 97; Union of Electors, 50.

Berlin Rail Tie-up Ends After 38 Days

BERLIN, June 28—(AP)—Berlin's 38-day rail tieup came to an end today as strikers went back to their jobs and the Russian-directed management resumed control of the West Berlin stations.

The management prepared to direct test runs over the tracks which had been idle since May 21, when 14,000 anti-Communist employees struck.

U. G. O. leaders reported this morning that the Reichsbahn headquarters building in the United States sector was closed Signs advised workers to report at the new offices in the Russian sector.

U.S. Company Makes Movie About Dominion

OTTAWA, June 28 — (CP) — Ottawa went into the movies last week A United States film company (RKO-Pathe) moved in on the capital for three days to shoot scenes for a picture to be released early this fall in a "This Is America" series.

The film, which has as its working title, "The New Canada", shows the Dominion as an industrial nation as seen through the eyes of a new Canadian applying for citizenship. The part of the new Canadian is played by Conrad Nyenhuis of Ottawa, formerly from The Netherlands and now area trade officer for the trade department.

Crowd scenes were played by civil servants and housewives.

Accept For $20 Diamond Ring

The story of how two lads took a man's diamond ring they had stolen from Ostrander's Jewellers to Tal's Snack Bar on Park St. and received a $20 loan on it from Mr. and Mrs. Talbot Battle, was told in city police court today. Mr. and Mrs. Battle were acquitted on a charge of retaining the ring knowing it to have been stolen.

After the couple had elected trial by a higher court a preliminary hearing was heard by Magistrate W. R. Philp, K.C., who ruled there was no prima facie case to take before a judge.

Frank Thomas, who had pleaded earlier with Robert Young to stealing the ring, told the court he had taken it to the snack bar and had asked Mrs. Battle for a loan of $20 in exchange.

Took It For Alteration

Harry Bowen of Bowen's Gift Shop, Charlotte St., said that Mr. Battle had taken the ring to him to have it altered in size to fit himself.

Thomas said that Mrs. Battle had asked him if the ring was stolen and he had told her it was not, and that he had obtained it in Toronto.

Detective Sergeant John Stevenson said that when he had questioned Mr. Battle about the ring he had shown him a note signed by Thomas stating that he was holding the ring against the $20 loan. The detective said Mr. Battle had told him he had asked for the note to prove that it was only a loan "in case anything was wrong."

The magistrate ruled that it was only natural for the Battles, who knew the boy well and understood his financial position, should make enquiries as to whether the ring had been stolen. It did not infer that they were suspicious about it.

Morton Knox, manager of Ostrander's identified the ring and said it had been priced at $250. Asked by W. J. A. Fair, K.C., defence counsel, how much the ring had cost Ostranders, he said $135.

Won't Unload Canadian Ship

LONDON, June 28 (Reuters)—Stevedores and dockers of the London's Royal Group of Docks, who stopped work in sympathy with striking Canadian seamen, decided today to go back to work Wednesday but refuse to unload any Canadian ship.

This decision was taken at a stormy strike meeting outside the docks early today.

The men——about 2,000 strong—were addressed for an hour by Canadian strike leaders, dock strike leaders and a union official.

The resolution to return to work was carried unanimously but they decided to wait until tomorrow morning to give strikers at another dock time to take similar action.

Two Officers Court-Martialed

HALIFAX, June 28 — (CP).—Separate courts-martial of two senior Canadian naval officers were scheduled to open here today. The hearings arose from the grounding of the aircraft carrier Magnificent off South-western Nova Scotia June 4, when 200 feet of her bottom was ripped out.

The officers are Commodore G. R. (Gus) Miles, OBE, of Rothesay, NB, and Lt.-Cmdr. W. D. F. Johnston, native of Barnstead, Surrey, England.

Each officer faces four similar charges. Commodore Miles was Magnificent's commanding officer when the Canadian capital ship grounded on what an officer aboard that flat-top called a "submerged, uncharted rock" off White Point Beach, 70 miles from Halifax. Cmdr. Johnston was the carrier's navigating officer.

The charges were released in Halifax on Monday by a naval court of inquiry. They said the officers:

"1—Negligently or by default stranded HMCS Magnificent.

"2—Negligently or by default hazarded HMCS Magnificent.

"3—Negligently or by default suffered HMCS Magnificent to be stranded; and

"4—Negligently or by default suffered HMCS Magnificent to be hazarded."

While Comomdore Miles appeared to-day, the hearing of Cmdr. Johnson was scheduled for Wednesday.

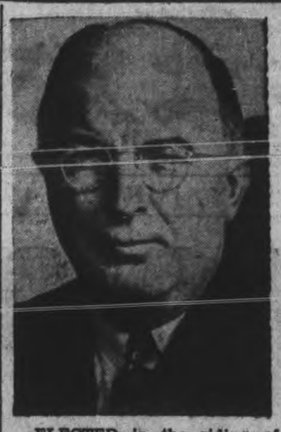
Durham was taken from the veteran Conservative C. Stephenson by J. M. James, with a majority of 244. Hastings South, formerly held by G. H. Stokes went Liberal under F. Follwell, whose majority was 2,293. Kingston City was taken from the Conservatives by a new campaigner, the young W. J. Henderson, who secured a majority of 1,948. Dr. F. Robertson took Northumberland by a majority of 804, Ontario had been CCF. The Liberal candidate W. C. Thomson in that Oshawa riding secured the seat with the substantial majority of 2,713.

Conservatives have lost ground in Central Ontario but the core of it is still solid Tory—six ridings in a row, a band across the heart of Ontario. This is now the chief strength of the Conservatives in Ontario and in the whole Dominion.

TRAFFIC HEAVY

Traffic was heavy downtown Monday night, as motorists from the CGE picnic at Nicholls Oval, and the ball game in Ashburnham funnelled into the downtown section from the north and east. The fire at the cement block plant on Water Street north added another traffic tangle for the over-worked traffic officers, but in all the lines of cars, the motorists were orderly, and no accidents of any consequence were reported.



ELECTED in the riding of Ontario Walter C. Thomson redeemed the riding for the Liberals from the CCF who captured it in a by-election held earlier in the year.

Reds Accuse Vatican Staff

PRAGUE, June 28 (AP) — Czechoslovakia's Communist government today accused members of the Vatican's diplomatic staff here of subversive plotting against the State.

The direct attacks upon the Holy See's representation here were made in official statements and articles in the controlled press. Some diplomatic quarters regarded the statements as a highly significant development in Czechoslovakia's church - state fight.

The sources noted especially an attempt of the government to liken the situation here with what it called the "Vatican-Mindszenty plot against the Hungarian People's Republic."

The informants said the attacks might mean the Czechoslovak government planned to demand the recall of the alleged "plotters" or might even be building up a case for severing diplomatic relations with the Vatican.

Hog prices were unsettled this morning. The previous close was $30 for grade A and $29.60 for grade B1.

Spring lambs were $1. higher at $28. Good light sheep were steady at $11-$13.

North Bay MP Will Carry Lots Of Weight

NORTH BAY, June 28—(CP)—There's a new worry in the Liberal camp here today and the question is: Can Jack Garland get a seat in the House of Commons: The problem is not one of votes. Garland got plenty of those Monday. But his supporters are worried over whether Ottawa has a seat big enough to accommodate their victor's 500 pounds.

Carrying that quarter-ton hulk about requires a sizeable waistline and Garland has just that. Here in the North Bay city council chambers where Jack Garland is an alderman, they have a special chair for the portly pop producer.

In the Garland home most of the furniture is king-sized and reinforced to keep the popular fat man from crashing through. His new car has a special front seat twice as big as the ordinary seats so that the wheel won't disappear into Jack's protruding stomach.

Despite his size, 31-year-old Garland is one of the most active men in North Bay.

An enthusiastic sports fan, he has sponsored various hockey, baseball and softball teams in the city and occasionally takes to the field himself, a baseball bat disappearing like a match-stick into his big fists.

His supporters say "he's going to carry more weight in the Liberal party than anyone else in Ottawa."

and Liberal opponents, even party strength plummeted to 12 from 32 at dissolution. Social Credit Leader Solon Low had a tighter squeeze but held a clear 400-vote edge in a four-way fight in his Alberta riding of Peace River.

With all Mr. St. Laurent's cabinet ministers returned, several won by whopping pluralities of more than 10,000. Among the leaders were Postmaster-General Bertrand, who won Montreal Laurier by a margin of 13,271 Works Minister Fournier, who swept Hull by a plurality of 11,287; Fisheries Minister Mayhew, who won a three-way fight in Victoria by a margin of 10,633, and Health Minister Martin, who gained a clear margin of 3,505 over the nearest of his three opponents in Essex East.

OBITUARIES

MRS. FRANK T. MACE

Mrs. Frank T. Mace, 451 Water St., died suddenly at her residence Monday. A life resident of Peterborough, she was born Hannah Victoria, daughter of John Bell and Hannah Greer Bell.

Mrs. Mace is survived by her husband, Frank Theodore, and one brother, George Bell, of Carrot River, Sask. A second brother, Joseph Samuel Bell, died three months ago.

She was a member of St. John's Anglican Church, and the WMS of that church.

The body is resting at the Kaye Funeral Home, for service in St. John's Church Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. Ven. Archdeacon W. P. Robertson will officiate and burial will be in Little Lake Cemetery.

MRS. PETER BRUCE JOPP

Funeral services for Mrs. Peter Bruce Jopp, 56, were held Monday at 1 p.m. from the Kaye Funeral Home. Rev. W. B. Greenwood of the Full Gospel Pentecostal Church officiated. Burial services were held at 3.30 p.m. at the Bancroft Full Gospel Pentecostal Cemetery. Rev. W. B. Greenwood again officiated, assisted by Rev. W. Stevenson of the Bancroft church.

Pallbearers were B. R. Rowland, J. Correll, T. Lewis, A. Hodgin, E. Martin and S. Martin.

Mrs. Jopp, a member of the Full Gospel Pentecostal Church, was born in Bancroft and spent most of her life there. She came to Peterborough three years ago.

MICHAEL G. LEAHY

Requiem mass was celebrated for Michael George Leahy, farmer of lot 4, concession 8, Douro, who died in a Peterborough hospital, in St. Joseph's Church, Douro, by Rev. J. J. McCarthy at 9 a.m. Monday.

Mr. Leahy had lived all his life in Douro township. A large number of relatives and friends attended the mass and burial service in St. Joseph's Cemetery where Father McCarthy said the graveside prayers.

Pallbearers were John Allen, Fran and Joseph Leahy, Roland Bradfield, W. Buckley and Jerry Douglas.

RUNAWAY CAR

After Reginald Viney, 601 Rubidge St. had left his car parked on Dublin St. this morning, it ran down the street and collided with an oncoming car driven by Cyril Cockerill of RR 1 Peterborough. The front left fender and grill of Mr. Cockerill's car were damaged to the extent of approximately $45 and the runaway car was not damaged.

gressive Conservative party and its leader, George Drew. It is evident that a great many voters, in their anxiety to avoid any possibility of electing a government farther to the right than that provided by the Liberal party.

"They were afraid that the CCF could not obtain sufficient support to form a government, and in spite of their desire to endorse the principles and policies of the CCF, they felt that the chief objective in the election was to defeat George Drew and his party in the most decisive manner possible."

Last night Percy Bengough, president of the Trades and Labor Congress, expressed satisfaction with the election results and extended the TLC's "congratulations to the Prime Minister on the victory he has won."

TOTAL VOTE 24,372

Total vote in the Peterborough riding Monday was 24,372, according to the incomplete returns from the polls. The official total in 1945 federal elections was 21,642. The increase yesterday was approximately 2730. Proportion of voters who used their ballots was roughly three-quarters.

WINS MOTOR

Even though it was Election Night, the Peterborough Fish and Game Protective Association held a record meeting during which a membership draw was staged for an outboard motor. It was won by Arnold Butcher, 526 Stewart St., and was drawn by Mrs. H. P. White.

M. B. Chenhall Widely Mourned

Funeral services for Martin B. Chenhall, ARCO, organist of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church for 27 years, were held Monday at 2 p.m. at St. Paul's. Rev. W. A. Smellie officiated, and burial was in Little Lake Cemetery.

Pallbearers were John Anderson, William Saunders, Charles Clarke, George East, George Coleman Jr. and Earl Powers. A large choir, composed of the present group at St. Paul's, and many former members, sang the anthem, "Crossing the Bar".

Martin Bodinner Chenhall, born in England 75 years ago, had a brilliant musical career. His first venture into the field came at the age of five, when he held music sheets for the village band leader in Cramlington, Northumberland, England. When he was twelve, he started practising on an organ his uncle persuaded his mother to buy.

Mr. Chenhall had his first chance when the village organist took sick, filling in for him. He graduated from the Royal College of Organists in 1899, and took his first engagement at St. Andrew's Anglican Church, Newcastle.

He married soon after this and moved to St. Joseph, Missouri.

Mr. Chenhall stayed there only two years, moving to Sage Chapel at Cornell University, Ithaca, NY.

Mr. Chenhall's Canadian career started in Cobourg in 1917, then St. Thomas, and finally in Peterborough in 1921. While here he was engaged in musical concerts, competitions, operettas with the Collegiate, and light operas.

He was for years the organist for several local lodges, and was active in many local social activities. Mr. Chenhall retired from the organ at St. Paul's last October.

The Peterborough Ministerial Association and the Peterborough Curling Club, along with other societies, were represented at the funeral.

Hodgson Wins In Close Tilt With McNevin

LINDSAY, June 28 (Special)—Clayton Wesley Hodgson, popular Haliburton lumberman and Progressive Conservative nominee was returned as Victoria's representative at Ottawa Monday as a record of 75 per cent of the 28,000 voters turned out to give him a slim margin of 745 over the Liberal candidate, Bruce McNevin of Reaboro. With 16 polls to report Hodgson totalled 10,192 and McNevin 9,447.

The election was one of the closest in years. With the lead shifting several times, Mr. McNevin, who has served this enlarged riding of Victoria, Haliburton and North Ontario for ten years, didn't concede Mr. Hodgson's election until 11:30 p.m. with 16 of the 129 polls still to report.

The winner, first elected in 1945, gained his strength in the north around his Haliburton home while McNevin was stronger in the south-east parts of Victoria. In the remaining polls only a few votes separated the close contestants with Hodgson having a slight margin in most.

The last minute CCF candidate 23-year-old Gordon Milling of Lindsay, ran a ragged third, and lost his $200 deposit. A Toronto University student and president of the Varsity CCF Club, Mr. Milling's vote of 553 enables him to return to college to continue his fourth year studies in political science and economics.

The nine polls in the town of Lindsay gave Hodgson a majority of only 183, much less than in 1945. One of the oldest voters in the riding was Dave Anderson of Haliburton, who went to the polls despite sig 94 years.

Seek Missing Boy

VAL D'OR, Que., June 28 (CP)—Gillis Grey, 16, who disappeared after learning he had failed to pass in school, today was sought in the bush near East Sullivan Mines. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Grey, notified police of the boy's disappearance Monday and 14 experienced bushmen started searching for him.

14 Vacancies In Senate On Election Day

OTTAWA, June 28—(CP)—When Prime Minister St. Laurent went to the country in Monday's general election with 14 vacancies in the senate it was an almost-unprecedented action in Canadian politics. Usually, all the senate seats are filled before an election.

It probably was an indication of his confidence that his government would be returned. Six of the vacancies are in Newfoundland, and eight are in the other provinces.

Probably he felt that while his party would be victorious, some of the old stalwarts might fall by the wayside and he wanted vacancies in the upper house for them. But all these old warhorses came through as winners.

The speculation now is that while these veterans won again, the Prime Minister may feel the party still owed them a debt of gratitude and may elevate them to the safety of the Upper House.

There are three vacancies in Ontario and names mentioned as probable choices to fill two of them have been Joseph Bradette, re-elected for Cochrane, and L. O. Breithaupt for Waterloo North.

Two vacancies are in Nova Scotia and J. R. Kirk, memberough, G. B. Isnor for Halifax and H. B. McCulloch for Pictou have been mentioned for the senate.

J. E. Matthews who defeated John Bracken, former National Conservative leader in Brandon might be the likely man to fill the Manitoba vacancy if the Prime Minister decided to reward veterans.

The other vacancies among the old provinces are one each in Prince Edward Island, Alberta and British Columbia And Liberal sources said they believe these will be filled by persons outside the Commons.

CCF To Rebuild Organization

Immediately after J. H. Miles had conceded the election in Peterborough West CCF workers started talking of rebuilding the organization for future elections both provincial and federal. Mr. Miles had conceded the election shortly before 9 p.m. when it became evident from the results of the polling booths that it was to be a two-way fight between Mr. Fraser and Mr. Clapper.

Both Mr. Miles and his campaign manager, Clayton Fee, think the CCF organization must do a great deal of work in the riding. They both felt that more financial support is badly needed.

Up to the last moment at the CCF headquarters everyone was in good spirits but gradually the hopelessness of their winning overtook this feeling of joy. Talk turned to the Liberals and the Conservatives and the majority in the headquarters were against the Drew body. Figures in the Peterborough riding between Fraser and Clapper were watched closely.

Some in the committee room felt at first they would gain the support of the people in the south polling sections. But the results were disappointing.

The first riding of the telephone was a complaint. A commercial traveller said he and his wife were not allowed to vote at a polling booth on Stewart St. The booth, they said, closed at two minutes to seven.

First returns from the polling booths came at 7:18 when poll No. 49 reported 22 votes for Miles, 73 for Fraser and 47 for Clapper. This started the ball rolling until it came to a stop with the concession at 9 p.m.

Truck Clips Bus Backing Downhill

Failing to make the Hunter St. hill in East City, a truck driven by Karl E. Fowler, 563 Brioux Ave. backed into a city bus driven by George E. Henderson, 608 Water St. Monday morning.

Mr. Fowler had change gears twice, but his truck had slowed down too much to make a third change. The truck rolled back a few feet and smashed into a bus which had stopped behind.

The bus driver had seen the truck having difficulty and had stopped. When Mr. Henderson saw the truck coming back at him, he backed up, but was stopped by a parked car.

There was no damage to the truck and the front of the bus was dented a little. Constable John Morrow investigated.

Bowmanton Wins Contest

ROSENEATH, June 28 (ENS)—A special service was held at Fenella United Church on Sunday morning, when the Rev. R. C. White, pastor of the church, presented a shield to Burton Roberts, teacher of the Bowmanton school, his pupils having won the most points in memorizing Bible verses in a competition between the schools of Roseneath district. This shield was donated by Fred G. Lewis, Roseneath. Mr. Roberts received it on behalf of his pupils.

The pupils of Bowmanton school assisted with the service. Miss Elizabeth Bates recited the memory verses from Galatians; Miss Eleanor Sandercock, the 23rd psalm; the Misses Valda and Audrey Hutchison sang a duet with Mrs. Burton Roberts as accompanist.

The individual pupils receiving prizes were: 1st Elizabeth Bates, Bowmanton; 2nd John Winkworth, Roseneath Senior room; 3rd Marie Sandercock, Fenella.

The five schools competing were, SS No. 2, Mrs. Fred Lewis, teacher; SS No. 3, Mrs. Louis King, teacher; SS 1 and 29, Mrs. Reginald Crego, teacher; Bowmanton school, Mr. Burton Roberts, teacher and Fenella school with Mrs. Verona Brisbin, teacher.

Three Townships Hold Convention

HAVELOCK, June 28 (ENS)—Miss Elizabeth Kerr, girls' work secretary of the Ontario Religious Education Council, Toronto, was guest speaker at the Seymour, Percy and Belmont Religious Education convention held recently in Havelock United church.

Miss Kerr led in the discussion of various Sunday School, Church leadership and youth problems at the afternoon session and brought an inspiring message at the close of the evening session entitled "Are You More Than a Sign-Post?".

Captain Viola Hunt of the Salvation Army, Campbellford, told how vacation schools for children might be conducted for a week or more each summer.

Mrs. Yanis Pikelis of Havelock, formerly of Latvia sang two solos in the afternoon and Frank Pollock and his family played instrumental music in the evening with Mr. Pollock playing the violin, Barbara the organola, Marina the guitar, Donald the pipe organ and Mrs. Frank Pollock accompanied on the piano.

Minister Shows Films

The Rev. R. D. Duncanson of Knox Presbyterian Church spoke on Visual Aids in the evening and showed a film strip and moving picture and demonstrated with flannelgraphs.

An educational panel was presented in the evening on Getting Teachers and Training Them. The Rev. H. G. Lester of Warkworth introdueced this feature and was assisted in the presentation by Mrs. Allen of Warkworth, James Watson of Havelock and R. W. Umphrey of Trent River.

The president, Ray McCulloch of Campbellford, presided at both essions, and the Rev. Percy Lambert of Campbellford presided at the supper table.

The Rev. F. R. Vanderburgh gave the address of welcome and the worship services at the afternoon and evening sessions were conducted by Havelock United Church Sunday School and Trent River United Church Sunday School respectively.

Supper was served by the Women's Association of Havelock United Church.

Peterborough West Unchanged?

The information which we have at hand as we write is not sufficient to give ground for any comment upon the election as it affects the Dominion. We shall confine ourselves to a few remarks about the local contest. In many tabulations which we have seen the note relating to this riding reads "Peterborough West, unchanged". A closer look at the situation, however shows that there has been a considerable change here, though not of sufficient strength to change the political complexion of Peterborough West. In the city the greatest number of votes was polled by the Liberal candidate, Mr. Clapper; it was in the rural areas that Mr. Fraser kept his strength. Peterborough city showed the influence of the sweep which affected the country as a whole; it was the rural part of the riding which did not feel that surge.

• • •

Mr. Fraser's victory may be attributed to his skill and indefatigability as a campaigner. He never allows his riding to forget him, and in this he shows himself to be a wise and provident campaigner. The local Liberals rarely bestir themselves except when an election approaches, and it must be clear to them by now that elections can not be won in that way. Mr. Clapper, a young and vigorous campaigner, did a good job during the few weeks that he was at it, and took the fullest advantage of the current of feeling which ran through the country during those weeks, and he very nearly defeated Mr. Fraser. But well established and experienced campaigners cannot be defeated so quickly. We predict, however, that if Mr. Clapper wants to stay in politics in Peterborough, he will win this seat in the next general election without any difficulty.

• • •

Mr. Miles increased the C.C.F. vote by roughly 300—no small accomplishment. He was an assiduous campaigner, and he has brought his party's strength up to a greater number than it has ever known before in this riding. As a political feat, this deserves congratulation.

• • •

Mr. Fraser, of course, deserves congratulations as the undefeated champion, and as a remarkably able campaigner. Mr. Clapper must be congratulated on a near miss if such a thing is permissable in politics; to have carried the city is no small feat for a beginner in politics.

Limited Grandeur

In its issue of Saturday last the Ottawa Journal publishes a most interesting article by Harold Spence-Sales, an architect and town planner, in which he comments on the Greber Plan for the development and beautification of Ottawa. One point which he makes which is important is that too much planning can kill a city as a place to live and do business. If every street is an avenue ending in a public building, and if there are too many gardens, monuments and vistas, a city may be as unhandy to live in and as displeasing in its effect as if it lacks these things entirely. The business and shopping section of a city ought to be as compact as possible, to save useless running about. And there is an attraction about a busy street which is not to be overlooked.

Mr. Spence-Sales also says that "a small city can only support a limited amount of grandeur". This interests us, because we believe that Ottawa's development is giving a lead to other Canadian cities, our own among them. His statement appears to us to be true; ornamentation must be used with taste and discretion, or it becomes a nuisance. Nevertheless, we cannot think of any Canadian city at the moment which is overloaded with grandeur, and we would not like Mr. Spence-Sales' remark to be used as an excuse for a continuance of haphazard and tasteless building, for foolish economy in the design of public buildings or for skimping on parks.

There are perhaps twenty cities in Ontario which, like Peterborough, are called "small provincial cities". In another century they will be much larger than they are now, and if their growth is carefully watched and their design supervised, they will be beautiful cities. But if they always think that beauty is a prerogative only of the largest centres they will never be anything but overgrown country towns. A small city can support only a limited amount of grandeur, but the limit is not as easily reached as many people think at present. No city worthy of the name is so poor that it cannot support two or three fine streets, half a dozen good buildings, and half a dozen large and handsome parks. No city should feel that half a dozen fine pieces of sculpture, and a fountain or two, are beyond its reach. Some very small cities in Europe manage to support these things, and we are richer than they.

Beauty in cities is not accidental; it is planned. Beautiful surroundings encourage civilised and happy living. We do not ask Ottawa to turn itself into a museum, but we do ask it to give a generous lead which other Canadian cities can follow. "A limited amount of grandeur" is all very well, but let us not relax and decide that we cannot have any grandeur at all.

New Pupils By The Hundreds Of Thousands

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics has reported that by 1953 about 600,000 pupils will be added to the 1,800,000 now in elementary schools in this country and that by 1959 the high schools, which now are crowded in their attempts to cope with a million pupils will have another 800,000; that is, the high school population will have increased 80 per cent in the next decade.

These figures are not pulled out of hats. The children are here now. The figure for the elementary schools is more accurate than that for High Schools, since school attendance at mid-teen age is not compulsory. However, the estimate is made with an eye to the present trend of increasing high school attendance.

More than a million extra pupils within a decade! Where on earth are they all going to be accommodated? School boards and Department of Education officials will not be surprised by the figures, and already have done much worrying and some planning in order to be able to meet the demand. The taxpayer will feel it, for new schools, more teachers (18,000 is the estimate of the additional number that will be required) and the equipment cost money. The point is that this matter of new schools and more teachers is not a bridge to be crossed when one comes to it. The gap is already known, it has to be bridged in preparation for the advance of these tens of thousands of new pupils, unless they and the educational standards of the country are to suffer grievously.

The New House

The House of Commons whose members were elected yesterday will be the largest Canada has had. There are 262 seats, compared with 245 in the last House. The increase was not due entirely to Newfoundland's entry. The 1941 census showed both a total increase in population and a shift in the weight of population made redistribution necessary and an increase in the number of seats advisable. Legislation was prepared to this end in 1942 but delayed until after the war. The Redistribution Bill was passed in 1947 following constitutional amendments provided for by the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

Here is the distribution of seats in the last Parliament, and in the new:

	Last House	Next House
British Columbia	16	18
Alberta	17	17
Saskatchewan	21	20
Manitoba	17	16
Ontario	82	83
Quebec	65	73
New Brunswick	10	10
Nova Scotia	12	13
Prince Edward Island	4	4
Newfoundland	—	7
Yukon	1	1
Total	245	262

For the first time since Confederation in 1867 the province of Quebec will not have 65 seats. The 65 Quebec seats have been the constitutional measure by which representation in other provinces has been determined. Now the standard is 73.

However justifiable the present increase in Parliament's size, further increases as the total population expands may not be entirely desirable. A House of Commons whose members were as numerous as workers in a large factory would be unwieldy, difficult for the carrying on of debates, and not more democratic than a smaller membership even though each member represented larger territory and more constituents.

Records Of Shakespeare's Plays

By LENA SONGER

THE poetical and dramatic character of the plays of Shakespeare has given them such a universal appeal that it is not surprising that there is a growing demand for gramophone records made in Britain which reproduce these famous works in the English language. It was not until 1945, after the end of World War II, that the idea of making records of Shakespearean productions was realized when the "Shakespeare Memorial Theatre Series" of gramophone records was launched as a new venture.

✧ ✧ ✧

OWING to the technical difficulties of this kind of work only three plays have been recorded so far: "Richard II", "The Tempest" and "The Merry Wives of Windsor." They were performed by the Festival Company of players, who appeared at the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre at Stratford-on-Avon, the poet's birthplace.

✧ ✧ ✧

THE Oriole Record Company, which is the exclusive maker and distributor of these records, has managed to get "The Tempest" and "The Merry Wives of Windsor" into three double-sided records, while four are needed for "Richard II". Each recording lasts between 30 and 45 minutes.

✧ ✧ ✧

MOST of the recordings were made during actual performances at Stratford and only one or two of the scenes were recorded in the London studio. The greatest care was taken to retain the natural style of the productions, and sound effects were reduced to a minimum. The studio specialists were in complete agreement with the Stratford performers that any "star" production would have reduced the value of the recordings, the aim of which is to reproduce Shakespeare in as pure a manner as possible. The main consideration, therefore, was to obtain a recording of a performance which should be on a high level in the Stratford tradition.

✧ ✧ ✧

THE venture was a great success. As the recordings are in the English language, it is natural that the exported records, four-fifths of the total output, should be sent mainly to English-speaking lands such as the United States, Australia, New Zealand, Canada and the Union of South Africa. The United States, where the study of Shakespeare's work is so widespread, has taken the keenest interest in these records. About one hundred United States colleges use the records in classes, while the Library of Congress in Washington has a complete set.

✧ ✧ ✧

INTEREST in the records is not limited to students of the drama; theatre players and producers welcome this unusual opportunity of comparing their own interpretation with those of Stratford. For persons who do not yet know the plays of Shakespeare there is a brochure which accompanies the records. This gives a synopsis of the play and detailed descriptions of the scenes. This year it is hoped to add to the list of plays, but the recordings will depend, of course, on the programme of the Shakespeare season at Stratford.

Last of the "Chimney Boys"

Everyone who has read Kingsley's "Water Babies" will remember the touching sketch of the little "chimney boy" whose curious job it was to run up and down the insides of the capacious chimneys of England and help the chimney-sweeper do his job.

Many a long year ago this barbarous practice—which sometimes included lighting a small fire to drive the youngster up the flue—was abandoned. It came as a surprise therefore to learn from The Times of London that one "chimney boy" still survives. He is Mr. Joseph Lawrence, now aged 104, believed to be the oldest man alive in England. Judging by his picture he is a burly, well-preserved man, a little bulky for chimney work doubtless and perhaps not as nimble as he was when he descended the wrong chimney by accident and, naked save for a coat of soot, found himself in a lady's bedroom. He skipped quickly up the chimney again to stop the shrieks.

Young Lawrence changed occupation when the law forbade the practice. He became a gas worker at Henley and is now retired with his memories of how, at the age of 12, he gave up being a newsboy and became a chimney sweep's 'prentice.—Montreal Star.

Frankenstein As Poet

The thinking machine is apparently following a line of cultural evolution similar to that which men took before it. For example, two of these machines lately have been evaluated in terms of their literary capacity.

One under construction in California is said to be able to translate foreign languages. But another, of British origin, was discussed the other day by a professor who said that neither it nor any other machine could write a sonnet.

But both the claim for the California machine and this attack on the British one set extremely high criteria for judging the thinking machine's place in intellectual society. Indeed, the ability to write a sonnet was almost the ultimate test of a man in the Elizabethan era, and few there are today who could measure up to it (or would want to). But the builders of the British machine say it might be found able to even to write a sonnet. They would not, however, vouch for mere human capacity to appreciate a sonnet written by so intellectual a machine.

Quiet Of The City

A citizen of Cornwall who has spent a good deal of money and effort in building a Summer cottage in which he and his family can relax, has uttered what we think is a justifiable complaint. He has acquired new neighbours recently, whose idea of relaxation is a party which starts late in the evening and goes on until the early hours of the morning, with laughter and song in abundance. Since Summer cottages are never noted for their sound-proof qualities, our friend is considering moving back to town to get a rest.

Letters To The Editor

VOTE FOR WHAT?

Sir: An editorial appeared in Friday night's paper urging the people to get out and use their right to vote. You seemed astonished by the fact that approximately nine thousand eligibles did not use this right.

In Saturday's paper another editorial appeared which ended up by saying, "Don't be an idiot—vote".

In my opinion, most of the people who vote are the idiots. They have no more idea than fly what they are voting for.

How many people know what the score is as far as politics are concerned? Perhaps those nine thousand people are like myself. They will honestly admit they know nothing about them and see no point in voting for something which they do not understand. In my estimation they are the people with some sense and not the idiots.

I do hope this letter will not put us on opposite sides of the fence, as I usually agree one hundred per cent. with your editorials.

Although I find it difficult to put down on paper what is in my mind, I have often thought very seriously of making a hobby of writing letters to the Editor, to express my views on various subjects which I am interested in.

To me, voting for something which I do not understand is like buying a horse without seeing it.

Hoping you see my point of view, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

"BEWILDERED".

REMEMBERS PETERBOROUGH FRIENDS

Sir: Do you think anyone would write to me? I am 45 years old, and my daughter 20 years of age, and we both have happy memories of your lovely town. My daughter being only 5 years old when we left in 1935.

I'm afraid it was the swimming and the Detroit funnies, she remembers best, but I remember so many things, and am quite homesick to see and walk down your wide, clean streets with their avenues of trees. How lovely trees can be, when one is deprived of them. We don't see even a blade of grass all the year round. We can go into the country on Sunday but ten thousand other folks have the same idea, and queuing for 2 or 3 hours is no fun.

I remember Little Lake and Inverlea river, the happy hours we spent swimming there, in glorious sunshine—months of it. And your nice shops. I never passed Woolworths or the Metropolitan, they always had such pretty summer dresses, only $1. I remember one Christmas spending $25 all in one go, the lovely things I got, a doll, doll's pram, sweet kiddies' clothes, dresses, very fine silk stockings, oh and heaps of lovely things. Why I still feel good thinking about it and that was 15 years ago. And I remember Loblaw's help-yourself shop. What would I give to walk round there now. Fancy getting all the sugar one wants and seeing tins of pineapples and pears, bananas by the pound, thick chunks of ham and eggs.

Then there were the people of Peterborough, just casual friends mostly, but all very nice. There's St. Joseph's Hospital, how kind and good, were the Nuns and nurses, especially Nurse Kelly, bless her, and Dr. Young and Dr. O'Brien. I owe them much, and money, I'm ashamed to admit. I was Dr. O'Brien's first Caesarean operation in 1931. I remember the jolly policeman, Jack Dainard, Mike Costello of the American Hotel, a rough diamond with a big heart. My good friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ossy Morrison, they lived down the bottom of George St. Then there was Emmett Sheehy, the lawyer on George St. I hope he came back safely from the war, then little Jimmy Conway, who ran a garage on Hunter St.

Then the high pressure salesmen, were they good. There were Mr. Bisson, Fanning and Wood, they would bury you and dig you up over and over again, to sell an insurance policy. I remember my Beatty washing machine, my greatest friend in the home. I'll never be able to wash by hand again. Maybe you wonder why I ever left Peterborough. My father sent for me, to nurse my mother. When she died, war came, my brothers went. I could not leave dad alone, two years ago he died. We were still set on coming to Peterborough. When we came across a three-month-old baby girl. No one wanted the dear little soul, and now at 21 months of age, she is our greatest happiness, and we love her dearly, even though keeping her means our return to Peterborough is off for good. That's why I think the next best thing would be letters from people living in Peterborough, especially the very old, because so many are ill and alone, with families and friends gone. Then babies, they trust you so, and bringing them up good, you know you have done at least one worthwhile job. The in-betweens, make one smile the things they say and do, and if on some points, you try good advice, your wasting your time. Yes, one sees one's self all over again, as a kid, there are no bad children, only bad parents.

So, should any one write to me, I promise to answer all letters? Please forgive me, for taking up so much of your valuable time, and should you be so kind and print my letter, I would be most pleased in any case. I want you to know a big part of my heart will always be in Peterborough, because my son, born in St. Joseph's Hospital, 1931, died 10 months later, and is laid to rest in your Little Lake Cemetery. I remain,

Yours sincerely,

(MRS.) MARY BUCHANAN.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

And when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the Lord appeared to Abraham, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God; walk before me, and be thou perfect. (Gen. 17: 1.)

And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the Lord; and I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them.

And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers. And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant.

Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgements: and I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am the Lord your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for an heritage: I am the Lord. (Ex. 6: 2-8.)

Faith In Character

The Times Literary Supplement remarks that according to one of his assistants, the late Lord Baldwin preferred character to intellect. If so he only shared the commonest of English prejudices. The national faith in character, however, is far more complex, both in origins and implications, than is generally supposed.

It consists in much more than a vulgar contempt for brains, and it influences affairs of even greater moment than the choice of public servants.

The Englishman's belief in character reflects his assumption that habits are more important in life than rational decisions and prejudices more trustworthy than convictions.—Winnipeg Free Press.

Houde Winner By 85 Votes

QUEBEC, June 27 — (CP) — Mayor Camillien Houde today became the only non-Liberal to win a seat in Montreal when he captured Papineau as an Independent. The colorful mayor was battled right to the wire by J. A. Meunier, Liberal candidate in the newly-created riding.

The coplete and corrected count from all 154 polls gave Mayor Houde 12,719 votes to 12,634 for Mr. Meunier—a plurality of 85. J. E. Cadieux of the CCF had 529 votes and W. Kendall, Progressive Conservative, 577. Both lost their deposits.

It was the first time in three attempts that Mr. Houde had succeeded in winning election to the House of Commons.

He long has been active in Quebec provincial politics and during the war was interned for violations of the Defence of Canada Regulations.

King Delighted Over Victory

OTTAWA, June 28 — (CP) — Former prime minister Mackenzie King said Monday night he was "delighted" at the Liberal victory.

He commended Prime Minister St. Laurent on his "splendid leadership" and said too much credit could not be given his successor for the victory, which marked the approval of the electorate for the Liberal administration over the last fourteen years and particularly since 1945.

The decisive Liberal victory, Mr. Mackenzie King said, would strengthen Canada's position in other countries.

John T. Hacket, KC Beaten In Stanstead

QUEBEC, June 28 — (CP) — John T. Hackett, KC, only straight Progressive Conservative member elected from Quebec in the 1945 general election and one of Canada's most prominent lawyers, was defeated in Stanstead Monday by Liberal L. E. Roberge. Labor-Liberal and Union of Electors candidates trailed in the four-way fight.

CCF Leader Coldwell Returned In Rosetown

REGINA, June 28—(CP)—M. J. Coldwell, CCF Leader, was re-elected in the Saskatchewan constituency of Rosetown-Biggar in Monday's Federal election. Mr. Coldwell, who has represented Rosetown-Biggar since 1935, won over Liberal and Progressive Conservative opposition.

Liberals Take Eight OF NB's 10 Seats

FREDERICTON, June 28—(CP)—The Liberal party won eight of New Brunswick's 10 seats in Monday's Federal election, retaining all seven held previously and making a gain in Saint John-Albert. Progressive Conservatives retained Royal and Victoria-Carleton.

Find Miner's Body

FRACKVILLE, Pa., June 28 — (AP)—A rescue crew Monday night recovered the body of one of two elderly coal miners trapped underground after a sudden fall of rock. The body of Joseph Romanosky, 68, was found covered with rock and dirt after hours of tedious digging. Little if any hope is held that his companion, Joseph Vinski, is alive.

Cards Lose To Cubs 6-4 Still Game Behind Dodgers

By JOE REICHLER,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

The majors are headed for an attendance decline from last year's record breaking totals, comparative figures showed today.

With most of the 16 clubs having played nearly half their 77 home games, a check revealed that only six clubs are ahead of last year's figures.

Through games of Monday night a total of 8,588,438 fans paid to watch the teams in action, as compared to the 8,965,152 who saw the same number of games in 1948. That is a drop of 376,714.

At this rate, the majors are certain to fall approximately 1,000,000 behind last year's record figure of 20,943,345.

Cleveland Indians have suffered the biggest drop, having drawn about 145,000 fewer fans than in '48 at a corresponding date. Cincinnati, Detroit, New York Giants and Philadelphia Phils are others which have fallen 100,000 below last year's figures.

Pittsburgh Pirates show the biggest gain, 160,000 more than last year.

The Cardinals drew a night game crowd of 13,178 in the only regular game played in the majors Monday, but the fans were doomed to disappointment as Chicago Cubs beat the Redbirds 6-4 The defeat prevented the Cards from tying the Dodgers for the league lead. Instead, the Redbirds are now a full game behind the Brooks.

Needed Help

Johnny Schmitz hung the defeat on St. Louis, but needed help from Walt Dubiel in the seventh.

The Yankees defeated the Giants in an exhibition game at Yankee Stadium, 5-3, when Kirby Higbe walked two men with the bases loaded in the eighth to break a 3-3 tie.

Joe DiMaggio, the Yankees' ailing outfielder, playing his first game of the season, went the full nine innings and declared his injured heel gave him no added pain. He failed to get a hit in four official times at bat.

Mickey Owen reinstated catcher, playing his first game for Brooklyn, singled in the ninth and scored the winning run as the Dodgers defeated Cleveland Indians 4-3 in an exhibition game at Ebbets Field.

Philadelphia Phils routed the Athletics, by a one-sided 19-2 score and Cincinnati defeated Detroit 10-4 in other exhibition tilts.

Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m., mixed rink tournament. Draw from the board.

Friday, July 1, Dominion Day, the annual mixed rink tournament for the Ovaltine Trophy. It's open and the fee is $5.00. Chairman Robert Gamble would like your entry now.

Foresters Loop

Last week saw the wind-up of the middle section of the schedule with the Post Office nosing into second place putting the A & P right in third place. Post Office wound up their end by defeating the Canadian Canoe in two games. A & P lost out to the Canoe in a hard fought game. The Foresters took their game easily. Coming into the home stretch in the last month of this schedule should prove close if not too many are caught away on holidays.

On July 16 this loop will have at their annual tournament at least three teams from the Oshawa district. These teams will represent the Canadian Order of Foresters League in Oshawa district, who operate an eight-team men's league and a six-team ladies' league.

New week's games are:
July 4—COF vs Can. Canoe.
July 6—A & P vs Post Office.
July 7—Can. Canoe vs COF.

Team standing:

Police Take Win

Police defeated the Bankers 17-8 last night in a Civic Softball League encounter. They ran in one run in the first, one next time up, then four, with seven scoring in the fifth, one in the sixth, and three in the seventh. The losers got a run in the first, three in the third, and four more in the sixth. Four fanned on each side.

The teams:

Police — Chambers 1b, Cook p, Hope ss, Crough 3b, Niziol 2b, Trainor c, Aggis rf, Montgomery lf, Mesley 2b.

Bankers — Ethier 2b, Robinson 1b, McNevin 3b, Rollins p, Stillman rf, Brooks c, Bailey cf, Brown ss, Simms lf.

Marines Win By 14-4 Over Lindsay

Marines took a 14-4 Girls' Softball League victory over Lindsay at the Bowl last night before a fair-sized crowd. It was a slow joust with Marines finishing strong to tally six runs in the ninth and run up the count. The Lindsayites got a bad game out of their systems, while the Outboards turned in a pretty good effort. Lindsay used two hurlers, as E. Whittaker went the route in neat style for Marines. There were not many strikeouts on either side.

M. Owen, M. Chase, V. Mitchell and B. Larmer looked best for both sides defensively. M. Hehan and M. Hill hit homers and led their team at bat with three bingles apiece. H. Deyell topped Lindsay at the plate with three for five. The heat seemed to affect the players at times and slowed the game up.

The teams:

Marines — A. LaPointe 2b, M. Downer 2b, V. Mitchell 3b, B. Larmer ss, M. Walling lf, M. Hill cf, E. Smith rf, S. Curtis c, E. Whittaker p, M. Behan lf.

Lindsay — H. Deyell 2b, P. Graham 1b, D. Wakelin c, M. Chase ss, M. Dawkins rf, D. Wood cf, P. Richard lf, M. Owen 3b p, F. Reynolds p, M. MacDonald 3b.

Primeau To Succeed Clapper As Coach?

TORONTO, June 28 (CP) — The Globe and Mail said last night in a sports page story that Joe Primeau, successful coach of senior and junior teams is in Boston to discuss contract terms with Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League.

The story said it was learned on good authority that the centre star of the Toronto Maple Leafs' famous kid line of the early 30s would probably sign a contract today. Primeau was not available for comment.

If Primeau signs he will take over the duties of Aubrey (Dit) Clapper, who retired last season.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Following their decisive OLA senior "A" victory over Hamilton Tigers, who were Dominion champs last year, the Petes are being taken more seriously by other squads. Various complimentary things have been said of them the past several days. It does not follow that the Creighton crew will sweep ahead now with win after win—no, they'll suffer setbacks again—but it does indicate their possibilities. And it gives promise that they'll make a playoff spot in their first season up. We feel confident of that, barring a series of injuries. The club goes to Mimico tomorrow night, and takes on Owen Sound here this Friday.

Toronto Tely had this to say: "Petes not only pulled the biggest upset of the senior lacrosse season with a 25-12 win over the second-place Hamilton Tigers but they also removed themselves from the cellar. They moved ahead of Weston and have now won four of their last 13 games for eight points. Four fights broke out and Elmer Lee, just back from a game suspension, was jugged again along with Lou Vitarelli for match penalties. Leo Testero maintained his fine display as Petes' spark-plug with a dashing five-goal spread. Jack Foote and Bobby Thorpe also caused no end of Hamilton confusion as each recorded four goals."

Stars In The Making

Couple of juvenile lacrosse drills tonight, Queen's and Firestones at seven and eight. Wednesday at 6.15 p.m., Hughes bantams play All Saints, with Cavanaugh midgets going on next against the Irwin-Godson gang. Three tilts Thursday night, too, in Miller Bowl as the big PMLA really gets going. Legion bantams meet UE at 6.15, then American midgets mix with Kiwanis, and juvenile Silvers go against Queen's. Jack Foote is busy with the little guys during the daytime periods, also. Tadpoles and peewees drill Thursday and Friday with the teams picked Friday morn and aft. Lots of future lacrosse material here in the making this summer.

* * * * * *

Under a columnist Tely heading "Old Soldiers", Bunny Morganson writes: "Eddie Murphy, Peterborough's Mr. Baseball, is still giving out with a major league performance at second base for Peterborough's current entry in the reorganized Central Ontario Baseball League." This will come as a surprise to the Petes' scrappy manager—former starry shortstop but now riding the bench except for the odd tilt and running the club. And no doubt Bob Crowe, local second-sacker, will be surprised, as well. Manager Eddie has the Petes in first place now in the COBL, a game and a half up on Oshawa Merchants. Petes play Batawa in Belleville this Saturday.

Zulus Proved Lulus

House of David bewhiskered ballsters are coming to town this Thursday night at 8.30 in Riverside under the arcs. They've got a real good set of lights—none of this cheap business—with standards 40 feet high and plenty of bulbs. And the Petes take on Canisius College in a twin afternoon bill (just one admission) on Friday, July 1. Two and four bells. We're glad to see some sports lined up for the holiday as a great many folks don't go out of town on a holiday. A fair fray last eve, with the color Zulu Giants gaining a 6-5 exhibition win o'er the Petes. Lowrey pitched okay and Foley and Garvey went best at bat for the locals.

* * * * * *

CGE colleens took a 3-0 triumph over Ashby's at the Bowl last evening in as neat a contest as you'd wish to see. Mary Perrin pitched swell ball to edge Doris McFadden in a fine flingers' duel. This game went just 55 minutes and kept the crowd quite interested throughout. Marines mauled Lindsay 14-4 in a slow struggle, though it was reasonably close till the Outboards' six-run outburst in the ninth canto. Lindsayites weren't up to their usual standard in this one. Three tilts scheduled for tomorrow night, Ashby's going to Lindsay, while Bowl battles are: Marines vs. Woollens, and CGE vs. Westclox.

Petes Shaded By Giants In 6-5 Tussle

The Zulu Giants pulled out a 6-5 exhibition baseball win over the Petes before a fair-sized crowd in Riverside Park last night. The colored visitors, who staged a bit of shadow ball in the seventh, turned in a snappy display to enliven things on a hot night. The Petes trailed all the way, but came on with one of their belated rallies to score a couple in the ninth and make the final count close. They had a little edge on the visitors in pitching and fielding but not in the hitting department.

Joe Lowrey threw a good game for the Murphyites, fanning eight and walking but one, though he gave up four more hits than Ruffing on the Giants' slab. The winners pulled off one neat double play. Swift led them at bat with three for five, one a double. Tommy Foley topped the Petes at the plate with a triple and a double in three official appearances. Fred Garvey got two for four, including a double.

The box score.

Bethany Victors

BETHANY, June 28 (ENS) — In the East Durham Baseball League, Chris Cummiskey and his Bethany boys played at Pontypool on Monday night, the score being 9-5 for Bethany. Red Edmunds, pitcher, was injured and will be out for the next two games.

The return game in Bethany Friday night was full of surprises. John Payne's Pontypool boys had the lead in the beginning with the score 10-2 in their favor at the end of the fourth inning. In the sixth the score was tied, winding up with a final score of 12-11 for Bethany.

The senior girls played their first game of the Eastern Fastball League series against Bailieboro on their home field Wednesday night with a winning score for the Bethany girls of 23-10.

By The Canadian Press

Ezzard Charles, the new heavyweight champion recognized by the National Boxing Association, will fight anyone next summer who can provide a $100,000 guarantee.

That's the word from Charles' co-manager Jake Mintz. At Pittsburgh Mintz wants to make the Cincinnati Negro's title unanimous—at least in the United States.

The New York State Boxing Commission did not recognize Tuesday night's bout in which Charles took a 15-round decision from Jersey Joe Walcott.

Mintz said he plans to see the New York Commission about holding Charles' first title defence in New York.

At New York, welterweight champion Ray Robinson, worried over getting stale kept out of the ring Monday while Kid Gavilan, the Cuban challenger, boxed six rounds in another tune-up for their title bout. Two two meet in a 15-rounder in Philadelphia July 11.

Robinson, who has his camp at Pompton Lakes, N. J., weighed weight limit—Monday and his handlers feared he was shedding weight too fast in the heat.

At New York, a new boxing organization came out swinging today with the assertion it was ready and willing to buck Madison Square Garden for the New York fight fan's dollar. The ambitious newcomer to the promotional wars is the American Boxing League, Incorporated, backed by an amusement park director, Jo Wiseman, and David Charnay, one-time head of the dissolved Tournament of Champions (T of C.)

From Chicago comes word that Eddie Robinson 29-year-old Washington Senators first baseman, appears a cinch to be in the American League starting lineup for the 16th annual all-star baseball game in Brooklyn, July 12. Robinson, who played with Cleveland last year and led the league in fielding with a .994 average, holds an advantage of 338,426 votes over his nearest rival, the Tribe's Mickey Vernon. Vernon went to Cleveland from the Senators in the swap that included Robinson.

Electrics Take Victory From Ashby's

CGE yanked out a 3-0 victory over Ashby's in a nifty Girls' Softball League number last evening in the Ashburnham Bowl. It was one of the best games of the season, going just 55 minutes, and tight all the way. Mary Perrin's pitching made the little difference as she threw six-hit ball and fanned nine. M. Batley helped a lot in her fielding, and she hit a homer, as R. Boyce led CGE at bat with three for four. D. McFadden also pitched nice ball with five strikeouts, while D. Callan pulled in a fine catch to stop a couple of runs, and E. McFadden led at bat with two for four.

This was good girls' softball all the way, both sides showing plenty of hustle and the score 2-0 till the final frame. Few runners got aboard through walks, and the crowd enjoyed it. The Electrics deserved their triumph, but it was close enough to be real interesting right till the last out.

Leafs Defeat Newark Bears 10-3

By The Associated Press.

How can a batter drive in three runs in one time at bat without making a base hit?

Sound impossible? Well, it happened Monday night in the second game of the Montreal-Jersey City International League doubleheader.

The Little Giants won the opener 7-4 and were trying to make it two in a row over the Royals. They loaded the bases with none out in the second inning. Left fielder Neil Watlington rapped what appeared to be a double, scoring all three base runners. He failed to touch first, however, and was declared out, thus getting credit for three runs batted in without so much as a base hit.

Those runs were enough to give the Giants a 5-3 victory in the second game and a sweep of the twinbill. Andy Tomasic and Red Hardy were the winning pitchers. Pat McGlothin and Dan Bankhead were the losers.

George Byam's two-run homer in the 11th inning gave the league-leading Buffalo Bisons a 6-4 victory over Baltimore. The Bisons tied the score in the eighth when Lonnie Frey banged his first home run this season with two mates aboard.

Clubbing Bill Woop and Harry Schaeffer for 15 hits, including seven extra base blows, Toronto Maple Leafs socked the Newark Bears 10-3. Oscar Judd gave up eight hits for his sixth victory.

Plenty of Fun
ON THE BLUE WATER HIGHWAY

The Blue Water Highway is Number 21 starting just east of Sarnia. It parallels Lake Huron's shore, north 150 lovely miles to the Bruce Peninsula, Owen Sound and the Georgian Bay district. Every type of accommodation and vacation fun can be found on the way. There are resorts, cabins, hotels, camping grounds—you can rent a boat or take a cruise, swim at sandy beaches, fish the lake or inland streams—and enjoy the varied scenery. From Owen Sound take Highway 26 for Barrie—10 for Hamilton and 6 for Guelph. Write the Blue Water Highway Association, Sarnia, Ont., for holiday plan details.

In Ontario we have a holiday paradise . . . let's do all we can to encourage visitors from across the border. Published in support of the tourist business by John Labatt Limited.

TIME TO GET BUSY MAKING JAM AND JELLY

For Quick, Easy Sure Results Take Your Choice of CERTO or "CERTO" Crystals

Jam and jelly-making need not be a chore. The sensible, modern way to do it is with the help of CERTO or "CERTO" Crystals. Both are fruit pectin—the natural substance in fruit that makes jams "jam" and jellies "jell" — extracted and concentrated for efficient jam and jelly making. The name "Certo" is a trade-mark.

Please yourself which you choose . . . some prefer the liquid — some the crystals. Each ends guesswork and tedious long-boiling. Each gives sure results if you follow the instructions exactly.

Why CERTO Fruit Pectin or "CERTO" Crystals Make Better Jams and Jellies ... Easier ... Quicker

1. VERY SHORT BOIL. When you use CERTO or "CERTO" Crystals you need only a ONE-MINUTE full, rolling boil for both jams and jellies. Such a saving of time and work!

2. MORE JAM OR JELLY. Very little juice has time to boil away as it does in old-fashioned, long-boiling. You get up to 50% more jam or jelly from the same amount of fruit.

3. FRESH-FRUIT TASTE . . . COLOUR. The lovely taste and colour of the fresh fruit stay in your jams and jellies because the boil is too short to spoil the one or dull the other.

4. NO GUESSWORK. With either CERTO or "CERTO" Crystals you get tested recipes — a different one for each fruit. Follow them exactly and you'll have no failures.

Crush Conservative

weary but happy, standing on the steps of his home on Quebec's broad Grand Allee told an election-night crowd that it was a "brilliant" victory, and grinned.

"It is a great comfort to see that Canadians feel I am still able to render service to the population in spite of the old age which some have attributed to me."

The crowd cheered.

The victory was heart-warming, too, for Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King, the ailing former Prime Minister who handpicked Mr. St. Laurent for the Liberal leadership, and saw his choice confirmed at a national party convention last August.

At Ottawa, he expressed his "delight" at the result.

For Mr. Drew, the 55-year-old, hard-hitting former Premier of Ontario, whose colorful campaign had raised Progressive Conservative hopes for victory, his party's setback meant more spadework for the future.

In a formal statement from Ottawa, he called upon his supporters to start "building immediately for the future."

Mr. Coldwell, 61, whose hopes had been for a CCF official opposition in the new Commons, said at Biggar, Sask., that his party will continue to fight for the policies in which it believes.

No Women Elected

This will be the first stag Commons since 1921. Fifteen women candidates were defeated and along with them went Mrs. Gladys Strum, the prairie housewife and mother who held the Saskatchewan constituency of Qu'Appelle for the CCF in the last House.

Only one of the many Liberal members of the last Chamber who ran in this election was defeated. He was E. O. Bertrand, who lost to an Independent-Liberal in Prescott.

One of the defeated Progressive Conservatives was John Bracken, the one-time Manitoba Premier who took over leadership of the Progressive Conservatives in 1942 when they held only 39 seats and guided them to victory in 66 ridings in the 1945 vote. He was defeated by a Liberal in the Manitoba riding of Brandon.

While familiar faces were missing, there was new blood for the new House.

Camillien Houde, the broad-waisted flamboyant mayor of Montreal, won Montreal Papineau, a new seat, in his third bid for election to the Commons. Running as an Independent, he defeated three other candidates.

In Ontario, J. W. Noseworthy, the CCF-er who won a 1942 by-election in York South, defeating Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen only to be trounced himself in 1945, came back again in the same riding.

Members of the armed services—permanent force men and reservists in training—voted for candidates in their home ridings in special polls held last week. This provision covered an estimated 50,000, though many were expected to vote at the civilian polls instead.

The service vote, which will not be known until July 2, could conceivably alter a narrow-margin civilian victory in an individual riding. This happened three times in 1945, when 750,000 service personnel were eligible and 300,000 voted.

time J. H. Miles improved the CCF position by several hundred votes, while the Prog.-Con. total vote was only 35 more than four years ago. However, the fact is that Mr. Fraser retained his Peterborough seat by turning back the challenge of two strong candidates, and goes back to Ottawa for his third term in the Commons.

The decision of the electors of Peterborough gathered interest for a while Monday evening when the results from the polls were piling up, but after the first hour and a half the Fraser march to victory was being gradually and thickly overshadowed by the Liberal sweep throughout the country."

G. K. Fraser picked up a plurality of 168 in the first five polls, 38 on Driscoll Terrace, Ashburnham, but even there the margin was small: Clapper 93; Fraser 89; Miles 25. Then Poll No. 14 on McDonnel St. revived Liberal hopes with: 115 for Clapper; 71 for Fraser, and 34 for Miles.

The first half hour's count showed Fraser in front by around 200.

In that early stage of the incoming of returns from the polls, No. 3 at 777 George gave Mr. Fraser 224 to Clapper's 157, a resounding addition to the Progressive Conservative column. Still, the count for the first 27 polls at headquarters was Clapper 2201, Fraser 2291, Miles 490. There was encouragement for the Grits in that whittling of the margin, but the next ten polls helped restore the Fraser spread to 187 votes: Clapper 3456; Fraser 3643: Miles 834.

Changes along the course were only of minor effect. With 40 polls in, Fraser had 4718 to Clapper's 4577, a majority there of 141.

Poll No. 50 on New Romaine St. brought the three candidates more closely together than at any other of the 95 polling places. It gave Clapper 93; Fraser 80 and Miles 91.

Neighborhood sympathy was reflected in the vote at poll No. 54, Armour Road, giving Clapper 239 to 156 for Fraser and 48 for Miles.

No material alteration occurred in the final stage of adding the results. With 90 polls in Fraser had a plurality of 126, which increased to 166 with the next two, 94 polls returned him above the 200 margin level.

Bracken, Former Head Of Tories, Defeated

BRANDON, Man., June 28 — (CP)—John Bracken, former Progressive Conservative national leader and candidate in the Brandon constituency, said Monday night following his defeat by Liberal candidate J. E. Matthews that "it's a victory for the Liberals. What else can I say." He declined further coment.

Mr. Bracken was premier of Manitoba for 20 years before he resigned to accept the Progressive Conservative leadership. He relinquished that post last fall to George Drew.

Asked if he would be retiring from politics, Mr. Bracken said "we might leave that question for the interim."

"Satina in my starch makes children's clothes 3 times easier to iron!"

writes Mrs. Kenneth Irwin of Toronto, Ont.

"I prefer Satina because it adds gloss but no shine to fabrics," writes Mrs. Irwin. "Also, starch never sticks to the iron, so sleeves of shirts and dresses never stick together. Satina in my starch makes children's clothes 3 times easier to iron."

VOL. XCVIII, No. 149 — TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1949

Election Crowd Delighted With Cartoons

By PETE McGILLEN

Election bulletin service at the Peterborough Examiner took a strictly modern twist Monday night when Gordon Bailey, staff cartoonist at The Examiner, gave his impressions of the results in picture form to the crowd of bulletin readers.

The crowd assumed such proportions as the evening wore on that Chief of Police John Thompson dispatched two constables to keep the people on the sidewalk. But even the constables were licked, the crowd overflowed a quarter of the way across Hunter Street, registering approval with guffaws of laughter as each new cartoon appeared.

Before 10 o'clock, the entire huge plate glass window facing Hunter Street was covered with posters, along with the election results.

One in particular, a caricature of George Drew singing: "Gee, but I'd like to see that Old Gang of Mine," was a crowd pleaser.

It was a new departure in the election bulletin service, in keeping with the times. The people want pictures, they want laughs. They got both, along with up-to-the-minute election statistics on The Examiner windows on Monday night.

Clapper Carried Most City Polls

Dit Clapper carried 35 of the 62 polls in the city. Gordon Fraser collected 51 of the 94 polls in the riding as a whole... Two of the Douro polls were as emphatic in their Liberalism as was the rest of the country as indicated in the summary of the nation's summary....

Mr. Arthur McClellan, returning officer, planned a fast service to the press agencies in reporting the progress of the balloting. As it turned out, some of his deputies apparently telephoned the Examiner, and carried their figures to electoral headquarters an hour behind schedule. Several had to be routed out of bed finally to get official figures.

Custom evidently gives priority to the Examiner in reporting from the polling places, but in the final reckoning the Examiner has to "check" with the official figures, the poll returns by the deputies to the returning officer.

There must have been 15 or 20 of the 95 polls that were content with reporting to the Examiner, and unintentionally ignoring election headquarters. As a result of that oversight, it was past 11 o'clock before the Examiner felt satisfied with the official verification of the figures from 94 polls.

Mr. McClellan will tabulate the poll returns next Monday for the official vote in Peterborough. That means he will list and count the poll results as supplied by the DRO'S. But the boxes will not be opened for the counting of ballots. That recourse takes place only when an official recount is demanded.

MAIN ST. TOPICS

TRAFFIC WARNINGS

Traffic signs of children at play in Inverlea Park are to be placed on Parkhill Road by the direction of the Board of Works last night.

FEWER SUMMER MEETINGS

Board of Works recommended last night that for July and August the council meet on the first Monday and the Board and the finance committee meet on the last Monday of the month.

GRASSLAND WEATHER

No mention of rain appeared to-day in the probabilities of the weather for Wednesday, Grassland Day, at the farm of F. W. Rowland, adjacent to Central Smith Creamery on the Peterborough-Lindsay Highway.

A FRASER BASTION

The Lakefield area of the riding gave Gordon Fraser a majority of 310 votes. Five polls included three in the village and two in its Smith vicinity, Young's Point, and The Maples on the highway, both of which gave Fraser substantial support.

FORFEITS DEPOSIT

J. H. Miles, CCF candidate in Peterborough West loses his $200 deposit, because according to electoral law a defeated candidate who polls less than half the number of votes of the successful candidate must forfeit his deposit. Mr. Miles polled only a quarter of the total vote secured by Mr. Fraser.

97 PER CENT POLL

Not wanting to let their chance to vote slip by, 97 per cent of the residents in the areas of polling booths 62A and 62B turned out to vote Monday. Conditions under which they voted were not as good as in other places in the city. The streets are not as yet paved and there are no sidewalks. Most of the families in the areas are veterans' families.

Little Girl, 3 Drowned 8 Inches Water

A combined accident and drowning claimed the life of three-year-old Mary Margaret (Sally) Begley at Cedar Glen on Sturgeon Lake, Monday noon. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Begley, 478 Wellington St., she was visiting at her grandparent's summer home.

At 11.45 a.m. a group of children, including Sally, were playing on the waterfront about 100 feet from the cottage. All the children excepting Sally went back to the cottage at noon and her mother searched for her and found her lying at the shoreline in about eight inches of water.

There was a bleeding laceration on her right temple which seemed to indicate to Mrs. Begley that the child had fallen on the rocks was stunned and toppled into the water. She tried artificial respiration immediately and was assisted in this by two fishermen who came along.

Half Mile To Phone

It was a half-mile to the nearest telephone and Dr. W. D. Thomas of Bobcaygeon was called and came at once. He found that the child had expired an hour before his arrival and he pronounced her dead. Dr. W. C. Blackwell of Lindsay also attended the case.

Besides her parents, Sally leaves a brother, 7, and three younger sisters, Barbara Anne, 6, Brenda, 4, and Betty, one year. The family attend St. Peter's Cathedral.

Funeral will be held from the Burrows' Funeral Home, Lindsay, on Wednesday to St. Mary's Church where a Mass will be said at 10 a.m. Burial will be at St. Mary's Cemetery.

A CLOSE BATTLE AT THE POLLS in Peterborough West riding on Monday night re-elected Gordon K. Fraser, Progressive Conservative, by a thin margin of 242 votes. Cement Block Factory Razed Damage Placed at $15,000

Fire razed the main buildings of the Peterborough Block Supply, 14 Langton St., between 9 p.m. and 10.30 p.m. Monday night. Damage is estimated by the co-owners of the business to be between $10,000 and $15,000. It is reported the insurance on the buildings does not cover the total extent of the damage.

Shortly after 9 p.m. Norman Brown returning home noticed flames in the rear of the building. He called to Mrs. John Masters, whose husband is a fireman, to call the Fire Department.

Flames from the burning building could be seen two and a half miles away. Magnesium plates, used to keep the hot bricks apart, started to burn, giving a display similar to that of a May 24. The plates were being used as an experiment by the owners. There were two to three dozens in the main building.

Firemen In Action

Firemen trained one line of hose from the water main at the top of Langton St., on the fire at the front of the main building. Unable to get at the fire sufficiently they went to the top of the hill at the back of the business. There they put out the fire in the frame building used for holding cement.

From there they worked around to the front of the building gradually putting out small pockets of fire. Reaching the front of the building they tried to save what they could but the fire had too good a start. Nothing was left but the burning wooden framework and the blackened machines.

The fire in the main building was quickly brought under control. When water touched the hot magnesium plates huge white flames flew into the air lighting up the area for many feet around.

When the fire was well under control, the large skip which had been high above the main frame building was resting on the mixer in the building. The welding equipment was twisted. Other machines were hardly recognizable. Hydro wires had been taken down by employees of the Utilities Commission shortly after the outbreak of the fire.

Equipment Total Loss

Jack Buchanan and Les Mountney, the proprietors, believe the equipment in the main building to be nearly totally destroyed. In there was an air compressor, welding machine, two block machines, a skip, a mixer and other brand new machinery. A small wooden building at the rear of the business was gutted.

The exact cause of the fire is unknown. But at the time a steam boiler was still going from the day's activity. Mr. Buchanan suggested this as a possibility.

The building is situated on the north side of Langton St. in Smith Township. This caused the local fire department to do special duty. Provincial police directed traffic along the highway, cars being parked on both sides for half a mile. People believed at first that Queen Mary hospital was ablaze.

Three years ago Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Mountney started into the block business on a small scale. Only last year they enlarged, buying expensive equipment. Lately they have been employing 10 men. Business was just beginning to show a good profit after a number of mishaps during the past two years.

Get Big Loot

KITCHENER, June 28 (CP) — Thieves who entered the Kitchener wholesale grocery premises here Monday night took a quantity of cigarets and tobacco valued at $1,500. Police are investigating.

First Returns Frighten Fraser Cohorts

A crowd of more than 200 supporters Monday night jammed PC headquarters to watch the poll-by-poll election results come in as Gordon K. Fraser was elected MP for Peterborough West. Mr. Fraser, first elected in 1940, is now entering his third consecutive term of office.

Well-wishers were tense as the results were read showing that in the city ridings the Liberal candidate was running nip-and-tuck with the PC standard bearer.

The first poll to report was No. 29 at 7.10 p.m. James Juby glanced at the slip and announced: "Clapper 102, Fraser 62, and Miles 14." There was a dead silence until a couple of other polls were read subsequently indicating a favorable trend.

But the initial poll threw a fright into some Conservative supporters that did not entirely wear off until Clapper conceded the election about two hours later. All conceded that it had been a hard, clean electoral battle but "too close for comfort."

The party headquarters was so hot that the crowd was kept busy mopping their brows and fanning themselves with whatever could raise a breeze. Some of the keener supporters kept a running count on the Fraser majority over his nearest opponent until the election was finally conceded.

Lakefield Cheered

At times the two candidates were so close that a poll showing but a few favorable votes was roundly cheered. As the urban balloting became known and the Fraser lead slowly increased the crowd became more and more confident of another Conservative victory.

Lakefield was given three loud rounds of applause as the three polls showed a decided pro-Fraser figure. "Good old Lakefield," shouted one enthusiast from the rear of the hall, and the hubbub that followed showed that the crowd shared his sentiments.

At approximately 9 p.m. James Juby, president of the local PC Association, mounted the platform and announced with a broad grin that according to radio reports Dit Clapper had conceded the election.

This statement was received with thunderous cheers by the many Fraser supporters who had braved the heat to be present when their leader was returned by the electorate for the third consecutive time.

Mr. Fraser waved his hand in greeting as the applause continued.

A Tough Contest

"It has been a hard, hard fight, against all kinds of difficulties," he said, "but we in Peterborough have made it. We know too, that Gordon Graydon and George Drew have been elected, and at least three candidates in Newfoundland. In the next House there will be Conservatives from all over Canada."

He paid tribute to his present staff who made his election possible, and to "all the people who have dug in to help."

While photographers' bulbs popped he posed with Mrs. Fraser who removed her hat before being roundly bussed by her jubilant husband. The spectators loved it and applauded louder than ever.

"I really felt that Mrs. Fraser wanted me not to run again," he said, "but I decided to run because of George Drew, one of my best friends—and one of the best friends that Canada has."

The crowd began to sing "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow," and rounded it off with three cheers and "a tiger".

"I couldn't have done it without my helpmate," he stated as he introduced Mrs. Fraser to the audience for a few words.

"Nobody knows more than I do how hard my husband has worked for Peterborough and the whole Dominion," said Mrs. Fraser. "It is only with your help that he can carry on and do the job that he has to do."

As the cheering subsided Mr. Fraser announced there would be a victory celebration in the Empress Hotel and he invited all his supporters to join him there.

Before he left his headquarters for a broadcast he was met by the defeated Liberal candidate, Dit Clapper. Clapper walked up to Fraser, extended his hand and flashed a smile as he said: "Congratulations, Gordon old boy."

"Thank you, Dit," replied the victor, "you're a darn good sport."

The Tory supporters once again raised a cheer as the two competitors of but a few minutes before congratulated each other on "a clean fight" and a lack of personalities in the hard fought election battle.

'We Made Nice Fight Of It' Dit Clapper Tells Liberal Party Workers

Liberals spent a chaotic evening Monday at party headquarters in Peterborough as they gathered to hear the returns. At times it looked as if Dit Clapper would win in his first political battle. At other times there were minutes of complete silence as the tide turned in favour of Progressive Conservative Gordon K. Fraser.

At 9:01 Dit Clapper walked through the throng to the front of the committee room and said, "I hate to say this, but it looks as if Gordon K. Fraser has won. We made a nice fight of it."

Next time, Dit said, with his well-known grin, it will be a different story. I'm sorry we couldn't have won this one. The cheers which he received thundered through the hot sticky rooms sounding more like cheers given to a victorious man, than to a loser.

As soon as he and Arthur Lewis, president of the Peterborough Liberal Association, could get free from the enthusiastic party members, they walked down the street to the Progressive Conservative headquarters and congratulated Mr. Fraser.

Mr. Fraser introduced him to the dozens of Conservatives still in the hall as a darn good sport. Mr. Fraser called for three cheers for the defeated candidate and led the cheers himself.

The first poll to report to the Liberal committee rooms was number 72 bounded by Charlotte, Sherbrooke, Aylmer Sts. and the river. The deputy returning officer of the poll was Herb Martin. The poll was under the chairmanship of Mrs. James Coursey.

This first poll gave a slight majority to Mr. Fraser, but the next poll exactly evened the count. From there on it was see-saw battle all the way.

At 8 p.m. one Liberal supporter was willing to bet $1,000 that Dit Clapper would win. By 9 p.m. he was glad no one had taken the bet.

Fought To Last

Dit, who as a hockey player fought until the final whistle, was unwilling to concede the election for some time, but finally saw he couldn't hope to make up the votes he was trailing.

From appearances, Dit won some votes in his defeat by the manner he accepted that defeat. Many of the Conservative supporters were visibly impressed when Dit walked into Mr. Fraser's headquarters with a smile on his face and ungrudgingly offered his congratulations.

The disappointment Liberals felt about their candidate's losing was considerably eased by the sweeping victory the Liberals scored across the dominion.

Fight At Cathedral

PARIS, June 28 (AP) — Fists flew today at the Cathedral of Notre Dame. When relatives of Philippe Henriot attended a mass on the sixth anniversary of his death about 300 Communists staged a demonstration that wound up in a fight before police intervened. Henriot was Vichy Minister of Information. He was assassinated June 28, 1943.

Council Tells Commission Move Tot Lot

The Board of Works and the Recreation Commission are at odds on the location of the Kinsmen Club's tot-lot at Inverlea Park.

Originally it was placed by the Club next to Park Hill Road, and because it is a special playground for children it was regarded by the council and its parks committee as a hazard to them as being too close to the street line. Several instances of children running from the lot into the line of traffic were reported, and the council decided that it should be moved farther into the park.

Recently the Recreation Commission discussed the proposal, reaching the conclusion that the playlot should remain where it is. Members of the council at the board of works meeting Monday night restated their dissatisfaction with the placement of the lot, and instructed City Clerk Outram to write the Commission that for the safety of children and to remove an element of hazard the totlot should be moved farther into the park from the present adjacency to the street line.

Examiner's Fair Report Commended By CCF

J. Howard Miles, CCF candidate for Peterborough West in the Dominion election Monday, said today that he, his party, and his coworkers were very appreciative of the fair and accurate coverage given them by the Examiner during the weeks preceding the election.

Mr. Miles said that the coverage given all parties was fair, and that there was no partiality shown on the part of the Examiner at any time. He stated that in other years the reporting of political meetings and activities, particularly for his party, had never been so fair, but that this time "we have absolutely no kick coming at all."

Youth Drowned Swimming In Otonabee River

Peter Errett, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Errett, recently of Prescott, was drowned Monday at approximately 2:10 p.m. at Wenonah Camp on Highway 28. Don Drumm Jr., Akron, O., guest with his parents at the tourist camp, was at the waterfront when he noticed the inner tube that Peter had been playing with, floating out about 50 feet in the river. He notified his parents who went down to the water immediately and another guest, Gerald Foster, swam out and located the youth and brought him ashore.

Firemen Capt. Garnet Brown, William Bloom and G. Reynolds arrived at the camp ten minutes later with complete water rescue equipment and commenced artificial respiration with the aid of an inhalator. Dr. H. G. Carleton, coroner, also attended the scene and after an hour of attempted resuscitation the doctor pronounced the boy dead.

Mr. Errett purchased a frozen food locker business in Lakefield about a month ago and stayed at the Wenonah Camp while looking for permanent living quarters. His children visited him week-ends and according to the camp operators, Peter had been there about a week.

Besides his parents he leaves two sisters, Margaret, 17, and Jean, 20.

Prime Minister Gets Big Hand From Admirers

QUEBEC, June 28 (CP) — This old capital city Monday night acclaimed the second French-speaking Canadian Prime Minister since Confederation.

Slightly flushed and wearing a broad smile, Prime Minister St. Laurent got a thundering ovation when he came out of his home on Broad Grande Allee Avenue shortly after nine o'clock as news of the Liberal sweep of the country came in.

Thousands massed in front of his home and cheered and hundreds of autos splashed with pictures of the Prime Minister and bunting tooted their horns.

Escorted to St. Fidele parish, in his own riding of Quebec East, the Prime Minister had to be assisted by a half dozen police officers as he pushed through crowd waiting for an hour to hear his first words of victory.

Spoken in French ,they were: "Thank you my friends."

"Brilliant Victory"

The crowd, not giving him a chance to continue, raised a big cheer. Then he said: "It is a brilliant victory."

"It is a great comfort to see that Canadians feel I am still able to render service to the population ,in spite of old age which some attribute to me," Mr. Laurent said with a broad grin. The crowd cheered again.

The St. Fidele parish playgrounds, a whole street block, was jammed to capacity.

The 67-year-old Prime Minister, his white hair shining under the platform lights, recalled for his Quebec East constituents that it was 70 years ago that this same Quebec riding had given Canada a Liberal Prime Minister —Sir Wilfred Laurier.

"I am told I have a majority of 15,000, this shows that the province is attached to the Liberal doctrine," he said.

Mr. St. Laurent who repeated his words of thanks in English then turned the microphone over to happy Mrs. St. Laurent who said with emotion:

"Thank you, from a full heart."

Prefers Movies To Career On Stage

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, June 28 (AP). —A 27-year-old tenor from Philadelphia, has had offers to sing at the Metropolitan Opera House ever season for the last four years.

To everyone's amazement, he has turned the chances down. And now Mario Lanza tells why.

"The Met. is based on snobbishness," he says. "And if there's anything I hate it's snobs."

Lanza's objections are more than social. It's also a matter of moola.

"They expect you to stay in New York for the entire season from Fall until Spring," he told me, "just in case something happens and they need you in a hurry.

"That means they might be taking out of your pocket $50,000 which you might be making on a concert tour.

No Money

"And you can't make big money at the Met. The top salary is $950 for a performance for the biggest draws — Pons, Peerce, Tibbett, Melchoir and a few others."

The tenor has ideas about the operatic crowd, too.

"You have never seen such temperament," he emphasized. "The movie business here is competitive, but it is nothing like opera. Everybody is cutting throats and trying to impress how great they are.

"That is stupid, especially for tenors. Caruso records can still be heard. Let's face it — who can be greater than the greatest?"

Even so, Lanza would some day like to play the Met.

On Top Now

"But on my own terms," he insisted. "I am not going to sing there now and have them say, 'He has a good voice, which may develop,' or 'He is exceptional for an American tenor'."

Lanza is sitting on top of the heap right now. He can earn $1,500 on a concert and $2,000 for a radio date. His first film, "That Midnight Kiss," will be out in the Fall.

Hay Crop Hard Hit

TORONTO, June 28 (CP) — Ontario's hay crop has been reduced by frost and drought to between 30-50 per cent of normal, officials of the Provincial Department of Agriculture said Monday. Last week's rains were too late officials said, to aid the hay crop in many sections of Ontorio, but they did revive burned pastures and will help fall wheat and coarse grains.

Bridgenorth School Field Day, Picnic

School was let out at Bridgenorth Friday afternoon in order that the children could enjoy the gala picnic and field day held by the Bridgenorth Home and School Association.

Mrs. Earl Blwett, convener, and her committee had strung flags across the field and gaily decorated bicycles and doll carriages in a parade provided a variation of color and interest for about 150 spectators. Many whistles blew during the afternoon, as whistles were given all the preschool children attending. Refreshments were served to all by Mrs. E. Whitehill, social convener, and her committee.

Midway in the program, teachers Mrs. D. L. Robertson and Mr. K. McLeod were called to receive gifts from the children in appreciation of their year's work and best wishes for the future, as they are leaving this school. Douglas Blewett and Don Lillow made the presentations.

Gifts were given the girl and boy with most perfect school attendance for the year, Sylvia Nicholls and Gordon Murray. Winners of prizes for the best decorated bicycles were Alice McKay and Eric Seidel. Those who had the best decorated doll carriages were Patsy Ball, Marilyn Murray and Terry Findlay. A small gift was given each contestant in the doll carriage parade.

Champion girl for the events was Sally Hartman with a total of five points. Don Lillow captured the boy's championship with a total of 10 points. Mary Hartman was winner of a contest for guessing the nearest correct number of beans in a jar.

Winners of events were as follows:

George Whitehill; girls—Faye Harding, Dale Chappell.

Group 2, boys — Gordon Murray, Michael Smith; girls — Lucille Beaulne, Phyllis Heard.

Verdict To Bolster Cabinets' Hand Says St. Laurent

QUEBEC, June 28 — (CP) — Prime Minister St. Laurent Monday night broadcast the following message on the outcome of the federal election:

My fellow Canadians:

I am naturally delighted at the result of my first general election as national leader of the Liberal party.

I thank you sincerely for the wonderful expression of confidence you have given today to the government—your government—of which I have had the privilege since last November, to be the head.

The decisive verdict you have rendered will strengthen the government in carrying out the program we laid before you during the election campaign.

We shall continue to strive resolutely for peace and prosperity and, with peace and prosperity, for the fundamental aim of the Liberal party—which is to ensure to all Canadians, in every province, of every race and creed and class, and of all political parties, the closest possible approach to equality of opportunity and to a fair share of the bounties with which providence has endowed our favoured land.

I wish to congratulate individually each successful Liberal candidate and thank all our friends who helped them achieve that success.

Those who were unsuccessful this time and their friends will rejoice in the victory of the party and continue to work with the rest of us for the full realization of Liberal policies.

Expresses Thanks

I should like also to thank the thousands of Canadians from one ocean to the other for the warm welcome I have received everywhere in my travels since I became prime minister; and I am sure my fellow citizens in the older provinces will join me in expressing appreciation of the truly marvellous reception I was given by our fellow-Canadians in the province of Newfoundland.

The welcome they accorded to the prime minister of the nation of which they have so recently become a part promises well for the future of the greater Canada of 1949.

It will continue to be, as it has always been, my highest ambition to contribute something to the strengthening of the spirit of harmony and goodwill and co-operation between English and French-speaking Canadians which is the one sure foundation of our unity as a nation.

It is my conviction that the vote of confidence of today will strengthen that unity. And now that you have given to my colleagues and to me the vote of confidence for which we appealed, I wish to repeat the promise—which is my only election promise—to give you the best service of which I am capable. And I make, with assurance, the same promise for the able and devoted colleagues who, with your endorsement, will continue to share with me the responsibility—and the high honor—of carrying on the government of Canada.

Coldwell Declares CCF Will Continue Its Fight

BIGGAR, Sask., June 28—(CP)—M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader, said Monday night his party will continue to fight for the policies in which it believes.

"The CCF has not made the substantial gains we hoped for but I believe we have consolidated our support upon a solid foundation of intelligent co-operation for the building of a better Canada," he said in a statement.

election in his own constituency ed Prime Minister St. Laurent on

The CCF leader, who won re- of Rosetown-Biggar, congratulat- the overpowering Liberal victory and said he hoped the people of Canada will have all they desire under their new government.

Mr. Coldwell's statement:

Canadians have spoken in a democratic manner today. We accept their verdict in that spirit. May I take this opportunity of wishing my fellow countrymen all they would desire under their new government. I wish to couple with this my congratulations to the prime minister and his party upon whose shoulders great responsibility now rests again.

Consolidate Support

The CCF has not made the substantial gains we hoped for, but I believe we have consolidated our support upon a solid foundation of intelligent co-operation for the building of a better Canada. This means that we shall continue to fight for the policies in which we believe and to which the democratic world is turning. Thus in the not too distant future I believe the Canadian people will be glad that the CCF has been built.

Today we have lost in a Liberal sweep. May I now say that I believe grave problems face this country. The economic outlook is far less bright than it has been in recent years. I am certain that neither the policies adverted by the Liberals or the Conservatives can give our people the standard of living they expect and deserve.

It will be our duty to continue to advance our policies in the interests of the ordinary, plain people of Canada.

I wish to thank all those who support our cause today and to express my regret that several of my former colleagues were defeated. One other thing I would like to say is that whatever mistakes were made in this campaign will be rectified in the next year or two. We shall use the next few years to strengthen our organization and to serve the Canadian people so that we may serve them better in the years to come.

Interesting Sidelights On Liberal Landslide

HALIFAX (CP)—W. F. Carroll, former Justice of the Nova Scotia Supreme Court, won as Liberal candidate in the Nova Scotia riding of Inverness-Richmond. He defeated Progressive Conservative Dan Lewis MacDonald brother of Liberal Premier Angus L. MacDonald of Nova Scotia.

QU'APPELLE, Sask., (CP) — Mrs. Gladys Strum, CCF, only woman member of the last Parliament, was defeated in Qu'Appelle constituency as were the other 14 women candidates. Mrs. Strum 43-year-old former teacher was defeated by A. Dewar, Liberal.

OTTAWA, (CP)—Two of three holders of the Victoria Cross who sat in the last House of Commons will sit in the next Parliament. Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, Progressive Conservative, was returned in Nanaimo, and Veterans Minister Gregg won York-Sudbury, Lt.-Col. Cecil Merritt, the third VC, lost out to a Liberal candidate in Vancouver-Burrard.

TORONTO, (CP)—Paul Theodore Hellyer, who will be 26 on Aug. 6, defeated J. R. MacNicol, Progressive Conservative, in Toronto Davenport and will be the youngest member of the new Parliament. MacNicol held the seat for 19 years. Hellyer, a Liberal and a native of Waterford, Ont., graduated this year in Arts from the University of Toronto.

TORONTO, (CP) — Thomas Langdon (Tommy) Church, Progressive Conservative veteran of political campaigns since the turn of the century, was re-elected in Toronto Broadview with a plurality of more than 1,000 votes over 25-year-old Ruth Radford, Liberal candidate.

BOWMANVILLE, (CP)—John James, 38-year-old red-haired part-owner of the Canadian Statesman won his feud with his uncle-partner. John James, a Liberal, won Durham constituency, despite his partner, Progressive-Conservative George W. James, who controls the 95-year-old weekly's editorial policy and banished John to a back-room as "production manager." John defeated his Progressive Conservative and CCF opponents.

VANCOUVER, (CP) — Mrs. Grace MacInnis, daughter of J. S. Woodsworth, founder of the CCF, was defeated as CCF candidate in Vancouver South by Liberal A. Laing. Mrs. MacInnis had hoped to form a parliamentary husband-and-wife team with husband Angus MacInnis who was re-elected in Vancouver East.

QUEBEC, (CP) — Ludger Dionne, Quebec textile manufacturer who set off sharp controversy when he brought 100 displaced Polish girls from Europe after the war to work in his St. Georges de Beauce mills, was defeated in Beauce riding by R. Poulin, Independent. Mr. Dionne was Liberal member for Beauce in the last Commons.

NORTH BAY, (CP)—J. R. (Jack) Garland, former Ottawan and active in North Bay civic politics, retained Nipissing for the Liberals. J. L. Gauthier, who sat for Nipissing in the last House, ran and won in Sudbury, formerly part of the Nipissing riding, which was split by redistribution. In Nipissing, Mr. Garland polled more than 10,000 votes defeating his Progressive Conservative opponent by a majority of 6,000.

MONTREAL (CP) — Montreal Cartier provided a lively fight between Harry Binder Labor Progressive, and Maurice Hartt Liberal member of the last House, with Mr. Hartt winning re-election. Cartier returned Fred Rose in the 1945 general election as the only Labor Progressive ever to sit in the House of Commons. When Mr. Rose was sentenced to penitentiary for espionage activity a by-election was held in March, 1947, and Mr. Hartt won.

VANCOUVER, (CP)—Ralphy Campney, Liberal, scored a surprise landslide in the key seat of Vancouver Centre, easily outrunning Hon. Harry H. Stevens, the 72-year-old Progressive Conservative warhorse who returned to the political arena after a nine-year retirement. Mr. Stevens, three times a minister, would have made his 30th appearance in the Commons if he had won.

VALLEYFEILD, (CP)—Liberal R. Cauchon won Beauharnois from Progressive Conservative and Union of Electors candidates in a three way fight. For many years the seat had been held by Maxime Raymond, originally a Liberal who became leader of the Bloc Populaire party during the war. Mr. Raymond did not run in the 1949 election.

Quebec Gives Solid Backing To St. Laurent

QUEBEC, June 28 — (CP), — This largely French-speaking province got behind Canada's second French-Canadian Prime Minister in Monday's Federal election and helped to return Rt Hon. Louis St. Laurent to office with an overwhelming majority.

In one of the party's greatest triumphs in this traditionally Liberal province, the Liberals took 68 of the province's 73 seats and had a chance of taking another on a recount. Records indicated that the party's greatest triumph was scored in 1921 when it won all the 65 seats then established. It won 61 out of 65 in 1940, and 60 out of 65 in both 1925 and 1926.

For this election the province's representation was increased from 65 to 73 under the 1947 Redistribution Bill.

The Progressive Conservatives elected two men, one by a narrow margin in Trois Rivieres and another by a majority of 312 in Labelle. Three Independents, including Mayor Camillien Houde of Montreal, who stood as a candidate in Montreal Papineau, were elected.

P. E. Gagnon, the Independent member of the last Commons for Chicoutimi, retained his seat and R. Poulin, another Independent, defeated Ludger Dionne, Liberal member for Beauce in the last House. Other Independents of various stripes, including Adrien Arcand, former leader of a Quebec Fascist group, were defeated. Union of Electors, which had 50 candidates in the field, and the CCF which had 20 candidates, failed to win a seat.

In Trois Rivieres an official recount appeared likely. The returning officer first declared Wilfred Gariepy, the Liberal candidate, elected with a majority of 13 votes. Later, he said that with 130 of 133 polls heard from Leon Balcer, Progressive Conservative, had a majority of 55. The count then was 9,757 for Balcer and 9,702 for Gariepy.

Speaking in Quebec after the party's triumph was conceded, Mr. St. Laurent said "it is a brilliant victory." The 67-year-old lawyer who took over the Prime Ministership last November said: "It is a great comfort to see that Canadians feel that I am still able to render service to the population in spite of the old age which some attributed to me."

Drew Calls On Supporters To Build "Strong Party"

OTTAWA, June 28 — (CP) — George Drew Monday night called on Progressive Conservative supporters to start "building immediately for the future."

He said the Liberals had been returned by a "decisive majority" in Monday's federal election but "we will start immediately to build a strong party for the service of our country."

Mr. Drew issued a formal statement from his office at national Progressive Conservative headquarters here as a crowd of party workers and supporters milled around outside. Mrs. Drew and his two children—Edward, 11, and Sandra, nine—were in his office with him.

Mr. Drew's statement said the Progressive Conservatives will support the Liberals "in everything they do which is to the advantage of our people and our country. We will oppose everything that should be opposed. We will start immediately to build a strong party for the service of our country.

"The Progressive Conservative party has a great role to play in the future as it has in the past."

John McDonald, defeated Liberal candidate in Carleton where Mr. Drew won re-election to the Commons, came to party headquarters in downtown Ottawa to congratulate the Conservative leader on his victory.

Mr. Drew and Mr. McDonald were photographed together shaking hands. When a photographer suggested that Mr. Drew put his hand on McDonald's shoulder. Mr. Drew smilingly objected. "Let's have a perfectly natural picture," he said.

At a brief press conference, Mr. Drew was asked if "you're going to go ahead." He replied "I've never done anything else."

Asked about the statement's reference to building a party, Mr. Drew said "there's not much doubt about what I mean about that."

Back To Two Parties

Mr. and Mrs. Drew listened to early returns in an Ottawa hotel suite. Then they drove to Carleton constituency committee rooms where Mr. Drew told workers the election signified a return to a two-party system of government. He stayed at the Carleton committee rooms long enough to thank his workers then went on to national party headquarters.

Text of Mr. Drew's statement:

The people of Canada have made their decision and the Liberal party has been returned by a decisive majority. We will support them in everything they do which is to the advantage of our people and our country. We will oppose everything that should be opposed. We will start immediately to build a strong party for the service of our country.

The Progressive Conservative party has a great role to play in the future as it has in the past.

I do want to take this opportunity to thank all those who have worked so hard for the principles we supported in this election. To all those who have extended such a great kindness to my wife and myself during the campaign, I wish to extend our warmest thanks.

I would also ask those who have supported our party in every riding to start building immediately for the future. To the young people particularly, I would urge still greater political activity in the interests of Canada and the great challenging future of the country that we love.

The bride and groom were accompanied by the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Davis of Omemee.

The bride wore a grey gabardine suit with navy and white accessories and a corsage of blaze and white moss roses.

After the ceremony they left on a honeymoon trip through the United States, and will return by Niagara Falls and London.

They will live at Springbrook.

Reeves-McIlmoyl

In Young's Point United church the Rev. George Kelly performed the marriage of Dorothy May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis McIlmoyl, Young's Point, and Harry Gordon Reeves, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Reeves, Buckhorn.

Miss Iris Whalon of Peterborough was soloist, and sang "Through the Years" before the bride entered the church, and "I Love You Truly" at the signing of the register. Mr. James Jones played the wedding music.

The bride's gown and train were of white satin with an inset yoke of lace. Her veil of French embroidered net was caught to a beaded headdress and fell to train length. She carried red roses. Given in marriage by her father, she was attended by her sister, Miss Isabell McIlmoyl, who was frocked in mauve taffeta styled with off-shoulder neckline and sull skirt. She wore matching gloves and a veil in fingertip length and carried yellow roses.

Mr. Gerald Reeves was his brother's groomsman. Ushers were cousins of the bride and groom, Mac Gordon and Charlie McIlmoyl.

The reception was at the bride's home where her mother received in flowered silk jersey with white straw hat and corsage of red roses.

Going-away later the bride was wearing a turquoise flowered silk jersey dress, white hat and gloves and corsage of red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeves will live at Deer Bay.

Piano Pupils Of Elsie Flett Give Recital

Piano pupils of Elsie Chambers Flett entertained with a recital of their work Friday evening in the public library auditorium. Proceeds realized are for the Gliddon Memorial Scholarship Fund. The teacher received a bouquet of flowers presented by the pupils at the closing.

Highlighting the program were the trios playing at one piano. Marjorie Harvey Katharine Stuart, and Nancy Wood played the opening number, Ken Cairns, Peter Goold and John Phillips, and Dorothy Kitchen, Jane Stuart and Joanne Veenman also entertained. Duetists were Jane Stuart and Lorraine Bullied, Beverley Goodman and June Bullied.

Joan Chamberlain and Ruth Pitchford each played a group of selections. Two numbers were played by Bob Turner, Beverley Goodman, Jane Stuart, Joanne Veenman, and Katharine Stuart.

Other soloists were Allison Johnston, John Phillips, Verne Hope, Nancy Wood, Lorna Raper, Peter Goold, Marjorie Harvey, Ken Cairns, Helen Scott, Lorraine Bullied, Dorothy Kitchen, Spencer Hope and June Bullied.

Patterson-Grant

The marriage was solemnized in St. John's Anglican Church, Bancroft, by the Rev. Mr. Wright of Kathleen Sadie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Grant of Maynooth and George Henry Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Patterson of Peterborough. Vases of iris and peonies decorated the church and Miss Marjorie Lamb presided at the organ, playing "I Love You Truly" at the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace over satin with net yoke trimmed with pearls, fitted bodice and long sleeves and a very full skirt. Her full length veil of tulle was caught to a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried American beauty roses. Mrs. Walter White, matron of honor, wore pale blue figured marquisette with matching hat and gloves and carried pink carnations. Miss Bernice Grant, bridesmaid for her sister, had a pale mauve frock with bodice of French lace and skirt of nylon net. She wore a matching veil and gloves and carried pale pink carnations.

Mr. Ralph Grant, brother of the bride, was groomsman.

A reception was held at the bride's home with her mother receiving in a black crepe dress with matching hat, assisted by the groom's mother in brown with white accessories. Each had a corsage of roses.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a white suit and red accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson will live in Peterborough

M. Rome's Pupils Of 3 Schools In Piano Recital

A pleasing recital by Miss Marguerite Rome's piano classes of King George, Queen Alexandra and King Edward schools was presented Monday evening in the King Edward School kindergarten room. Miss Rome directed the pupils in an interesting demonstration of their work which included a quiz on various points of theory, transposing, rhythmic drills, phrasing dictation and a rhythm band number with Wilfred Lentz conductor.

Mrs. Fred Shaw, chairman, welcomed a large audience of parents and friends.

A corsage of roses was presented to Miss Rome by Gail Hamilton of King Edward School who opened the program by playing "O Canada".

Mrs. W. H. Smellie Compares Church Groups

Mrs. W. A. Smellie delighted the Friendly Group of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church Ladies' Aid with an informal talk about the various organizations of St. John's Kirk, Perth, Scotland, where her husband is minister, but is presently exchanging pulpits with the Rev. C. G. Boyd. Mrs. Smellie was guest speaker at the regular meeting in the Guild Room Friday evening. She gave comparisons as to the size and function of the groups. She spoke of the outdoor picnics enjoyed here as unpopular in Scotland because of uncertain weather conditions.

Guest vocalist was Miss Olive Rome who sang two pleasing numbers with accompaniment by Miss Marguerite Rome. Devotions were led by Mrs. W. Steinkrauss. Mrs. T. G. Tully, group leader, gave a reading. Miss A. Ingram was pianist for singing of hymns.

Members having birthdays in June were in charge of refreshments served from a lace covered tea table centred with a bouquet of white peonies and pink and turquoise candles in crystal holders. Mrs. E. Mahood poured the tea and servers were Miss F. McNaughton, Mrs. E. M. Piper and Mrs. H Ball.

Dr. Wm. Yelland To Wed In Fall

Of interest here is the engagement just announced by Dr. and Mrs. Jackson H. Barnett, Chattanooga, Tenn., of their daughter, Miss Martha Barnett, New York, to Dr. William E. C. Yelland, Washington, DC, formerly of Peterborough. He is a brother of Dr. H. M. Yelland, 18 Charles St., and Mrs. G. Y. Webber, 618 Rubidge St.

Dr. Yelland, research chemist, in Washington since 1945, is noted for his work in textile chemistry, warp sizing, industrial application of starch and proteins, and assistance in the wartime investigation of mustard gas. He has been highly honored with memberships in various Societies and fraternities during his career, and is a member of the Canadian Club of New York.

His fiancee has achieved some success in journalism and is active also in the field of graphic arts, studying theory of modernist painting and the craftsmanship of portrait painting. Miss Barnett has also been active in politics. Her wedding plans are for October.

Kennedy-Kimble

In the United Church, Bobcaygen the marriage took place of Ila Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kimble of Bobcaygeon and Ross Raymond Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Kennedy of Peterborough. The Rev. S. Littlewood officiated, assisted by the Rev. R. Bick, uncle of the bride.

The church was decorated with pink and white peonies, banked with fern. Mrs. Bick, the bride's aunt, played the wedding music, and Mrs. Ross Williamson of Peterborough was soloist. She sang "I Love Thee" and "I'll Walk Beside You."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of white slipper satin with graceful train. Her fingertip veil was of embroidered net and was caught to a crown of seed pearls. She carried red roses.

Bridal attendants were Mrs. Lillian Morrow of Peterborough and Miss Joyce Kimble of Bobcaygeon. They were quaint frocks of bengaline in pastel shades of lilac and green, mittens of the same material and crownless bonnets. Adell Cochrane, flower girl, was similarly dressed in yellow. All carried bouquets of yellow and pink roses.

Groomsman was Claude Kimble, brother of the bride. Ushers were Max Marshall and Maurice Campbell.

The reception was held at Whyte House where the bride's mother received in a dress of ice blue with navy accessories and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother, also receiving, wore grey with white accessories and corsage of red and white carnations.

On a wedding trip to Detroit the bride travelled in a powder blue gabardine suit, navy and white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy will live at 207 Dublin St.

MRS. HAROLD SIDNEY BELFRY (centre) the former Murilla June Craft, who was married Saturday in Mark St. United Church, is seen with her attendants. Miss Ruth Harrison, cousin of the bride, is on her left, and her only sister Mrs. Robert Russell (Muriel) is at the right.

Downer-Brooks Nuptials Held

In St. James' United Church Saturday afternoon the Rev. F. W. Craik solemnized the marriage of June Betty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brooks, and Donald Douglas Downer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Downer, all of Peterborough.

The church was decorated with canterbury bells, other summer flowers and fern. Mrs. C. Renaud, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. A. McLaren who sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the bride entered the church, and "Because" during the signing of the register.

The bride wore a tailored suit of blue grey gabardine, white picture hat and white accessories and carried a ring of pink roses. She was given in marriage by her father and attended by her only sister, Miss Rolene Brooks who was wearing a navy suit with matching picture hat and accessories and carrying red roses.

The groom was attended by his brother, Eldon Downer, and ushers were Thelbert Downer and Robert Breadman.

A reception was held at the home of the groom's parents. The bride's mother was receiving, wearing wine jersey dress, picture hat and white accessories and corsage of white roses.

The bride and groom left later on a trip to Toronto, Niagara Falls and Buffalo, the bride travelling in a pink silk jersey dress with white accessories and corsage of pink roses. They will live in Peterborough.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Wealth Not Happiness Love Priceless Quantity

DEAR MISS DIX: Please advise me. A wealthy man is madly in love with me. He is burdened by a wife and four small children whom he has ceased to love. He could give me all the luxuries a woman craves. I dearly love a poor but hard-working man and it will be years before he could give me anything more than a living.

Dorothy Dix

What shall I do? E.

ANSWER: If you want to be happy, marry your poor sweetheart and save your heart and your soul.

Unless you are as hard as a rock and are utterly lacking in conscience you will never find any contentment in a home, no matter if it is a palace, that you have built on the ruins of another woman's home. I have seen many women try it, but I have seen it yet seen one who was sitting pretty in a house that she knew belonged by rights to a sister woman.

Always the woman is thinking of that other woman of whom her husband wearied and wondering if he will forsake her some day for a younger and fresher face. Always she is thinking that he abandoned the children he had brought into the world and wondering if he would turn his back on her children as casually as if they were so many alley cats.

Of course I can understand how alluring to a poor girl are fine clothes, a fine car and a fine house and idleness. The things she has always wanted and has never had. She thinks it would be perfect bliss not to have to get up in the morning and punch a time clock in a store or office. Not to have to stand behind a counter or pound a typewriter. Above all, to be able to buy imported finery instead of selling it.

But did you ever think, my dear, how little money really buys? After you have filled your stomach with food and put a pretty dress on your back and ridden until you are tired in a car, what will money buy you that you want? You can be as lonesome in a palace as you can in a hall bedroom if you have no congenial person with whom to spend the time. You can be as bored by a rich old man as you could by a poor one. Your heart can ache for love under silk as desolately as it could under cotton.

Believe me, my child, a bungalow or a two-by-four flat that you share with the man you love will have far more happiness in it than a mansion on the avenue where you spend your evenings yawning in the face of a sugar papa for whom you care nothing, under whose touch you shiver instead of thrill and who represents nothing to you but the price at which you sold yourself.

Far better send the old man back to his wife and children and marry the young one who cannot give you luxuries, but can give you the most priceless thing in the world—love.

DEAR MISS DIX: I have a friend, a bachelor of 45, who was an illegitimate child and who says that he will never marry so that when he is dead the stigma upon his name will be eliminated. He quotes: "The iniquities of the fathers shall be visited upon the children unto the third and fourth generation." What is your opinion of the position of the illegitimate in the sight of God and the eyes of the world? GEORGE.

ANSWER: I think that God must look down with a particularly pitying tenderness on illegitimate children, because they are made to suffer so cruelly for a sin they did not commit, and I consider that there is nothing more inhuman and nothing of which we should be so heartily ashamed as the attitude that we miserable, weak, erring mortals, guilty of so many wrongs ourselves, take toward these unfortunates.

Certainly lack of charity and kindness can go no further than making a poor little innocent child pay the price of its mother's frailty and putting upon it a stigma that follows it through life, but fortunately we are getting more tolerant and broad-minded and the bar sinister is not the shame now that it used to be. In some states laws have been enacted that give an illegitimate child the right to share in his father's estate. And the children of unmarried mothers are not the outcasts that they once were.

I think that your friend takes the status of his birth too seriously, and that the fact tha he has made a fine man of himself is of much more imporance than if he had had a regular father.

DEAR MISS DIX: I married a man I worshipped, but the more I loved him the colder he became. My devotion made him think that he must be a very demon with the fair sex and he became a philanderer and finally left me. Now I am married to a man of whom I am merely fond and he worships me. Time has taught me that the way to keep a husband is not by spoiling him and loving him too much, for no man can bear a woman's worship without a growing sense of independence and indifference.

A man cannot be chased any more after marriage than before unless you want to chase him out the front door. I am happy because I do not worry and work myself into a stew as a woman will when she is not sure of her husband. Nor do I wonder where my darling is if he is fifteen minutes late for dinner. I do not suffer the heartache of working and cooking all day to make him comfortable and then have the One and Only sarcastically ask what I've been doing to make myself look like such a rag. Nor do I have the disappointment of wearing my prettiest frock to the theatre and then have husband admire the stunning brunette two rows ahead of us all evening.

So I say that it is better for a woman to be loved than to love.

ANSWER: The proof of the pudding is in the eating and no one can doubt that there is great happiness and peace in a wife knowing that she is IT with her husband and that she doesn't have to make any special effort to hold him and that he never sees any of the platinum blondes that he encounters in his daily walks abroad and in his office.

But sometimes it isn't all cakes and ale to be the favorite wife. Nothing is more boresome than to be loved by a person to whom you are indifferent and there are no kisses so flat as those from the lips that leave you cold. The woman who loves may have her anxieties and her jealousies and her moments of torture, but she also has her hour of rapture and something in her life that makes it full of interest and that keeps her on her tiptoes.

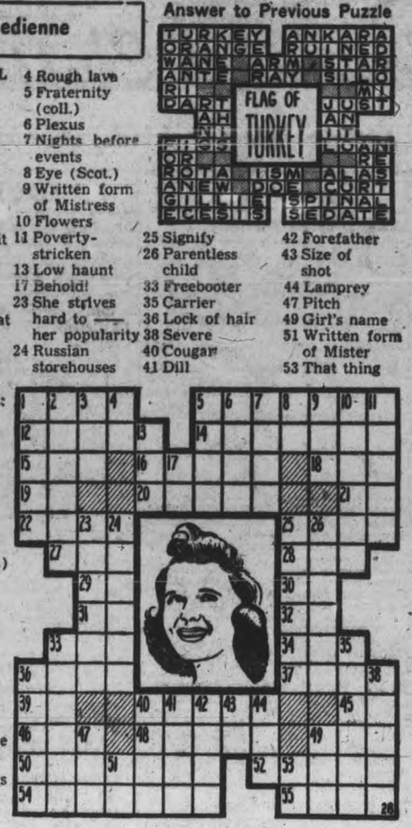
Answer to Previous Puzzle



Inspector, will not have to try the High School Entrance examinations this week. Mrs. Fred Lewis is the teacher. These boys are the first at Roseneath school in a number of years not having to take the final examinations.

YPU presented the play "The Little Clodhopper," in Warsaw on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kelly, Jr., were guests on Saturday of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson of Baltimore.

Mrs. W. J. Lennox and daughter Cheryl of Campbellford were guests during the weekend of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Webb.

Miss Merla Braithwaite, teacher at Springville school, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Braithwaite.

Mrs. Frank Brown and daughters Aureen and Nelda were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ferguson.

6—In Memoriams

YOUNG— In loving memory of our dear father, who passed away June 28, 1946.
His thoughts were all so full of us,
He never could forget,
And so we think that where he is
He must be watching yet.
As angels keep their watch up there,
Please, God, just let him know
That we down here do not forget—
We love and miss him so.
—Ever remembered by Daughter Margaret and Son-in-law John, Granddaughter Marlene.

YOUNG—In loving memory of a dear husband, George Young, who passed away June 28, 1946.
A wonderful husband, father and aid;
One who was better God never made,
A wonderful worker, loyal and true,
One in a million, that, husband, was you.
Just in your judgment, always right,
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all you knew,
A wonderful husband, that husband, was you.
—Lovingly remembered by his wife.

YOUNG — In loving memory of George Young, who passed away three years ago today.
Gone, dear father, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face,
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
—Lovingly remembered by son George and daughter-in-law Shelly.

WEEDS

NOTICE is hereby given to all Occupants and Owners of Property within the City of Peterborough that the provisions of the Weed Control Act will be rigidly enforced.

Section 4 of the Weed Control Act states: "Every occupant of land or if the land is unoccupied the owner shall destroy all weeds designated noxious by the Regulations as often in every year as is sufficient to prevent the ripening of their seed."

Occupants and Owners of Land are advised to exercise great care in destroying all noxious weeds before they mature seed. If these precautions are not taken the Weed Inspector may exercise his authority and may enter on property for the purpose of destroying noxious weeds.

The co-operation of everyone is solicited in a general cleanup of noxious weeds.

A. E. CHALMERS,
Weed Inspector.
June 28th, 1949.

Lineman Electrocuted

DESBARATS, Ont., June 28 — (CP)—Harold Robinson, 27-year-old lineman, died Monday when he grabbed a power line carrying 4,000 volts and was electrocuted. Robinson was working on a Great Lakes power company job erecting a new line near Maclennan, about 40 miles east of Sault Ste. Marie when the accident occurred. An inquest was ordered by Dr. J. E. Gimbly, district coroner.

Free Ice Cream At School Picnic

About 150 pupils and parents enjoyed the annual Queen Elizabeth School picnic held at Nicholls Oval.

It was sponsored by the Home and School Association and the sports were in charge of the teachers. A free ice cream cone was given each school child.

Prizes for perfect attendance were presented to Tommy Young, Ardele Smith, Ruth Orbell, Carl McMillan and Harold Smith, by Principal Ezra Ball. On behalf of the pupils, teachers, and members of the Home and School Association, Jane Jarvis presented Mr. Ball with a leather travel alarm clock. He is leaving at the end of this term.

A booth in charge of some of the Home and School Association members provided soft drinks, ice cream, and other refreshments for the children.

Following are the race results:

Houde Sensitive

MONTREAL, June 28—(CP) — At this late date—and after his election to parliament too—it turns out Mayor Camillien Houde of Montreal is touchy. When his election to the Commons was made known early today newspaper cameramen came around to his home. Mayor Houde remembered a photograph taken of him during the election campaign which showed him shirt-sleeved and so great of girth as to make a California redwood feel like a child. His edict: No pictures.

Still Unconscious

LONDON, Ont., June 28 (CP) Struck by an auto on Saturday, three-year-old Margaret Prudham still was in critical condition in hospital today. She has not regained consciousness since the accident.

Nine Recounts Said Possible

By The Canadian Press.

The possibility of recounts loomed to-day in at least nine Federal riding where the winning candidates squeezed through with margins tight enough to give their opponents hope of upsetting the verdicts.

Progressive Conservatives were declared winners in five of the tight-squeeze constituencies and Liberals in three. The ninth is held by Mayor Camillien Houde of Montreal, who ran as an Independent in the new seat of Montreal Papineau.

With all 154 polls reported, the Mayor held a bare 85-vote edge over his nearest opponent. He polled 12,719 votes Monday compared with 12,634 by Liberal J. A. Meunier.

The closest margin reported was in the Ontario riding of York West, where Progressive Conservative A. R. Adamson was declared elected by eight votes. He polled 18,595 votes compared to 18,587 by Liberal K. Thompson.

Other ridings were Progressive conservatives were declared elected by slim margins include:

Brant-Wentworth: J. A. Charlton re-elected by 6,728 votes against 6,691 for Liberal J. A. Talfer, with George Cox, CCF, trailing with 2,254.

Middlesex East: N. O. White re-elected, polling 9,202 votes against 9,153 for Liberal F. O. Kime; M. Stewart of the CCF trailing with 2,759.

Voting Had No Effect On Toronto Market

TORONTO, June 28 (CP). — Mining issues were pushed downwards by slightly increased selling pressure here to-day. The Liberal victory in Monday's election had little apparent effect on the market. A few industrials moved narrowly, tending to weaken in mid-session.

Golds began to show easier tendencies in yesterday's session. Junior producers continued downwards as losses broadened over a wider list of issues and ranged up to 20 cents. Seniors were quiet.

Almost all base metals trading were depressed by steady selling. Consolidated Smelters lost 1½ at 83½ and Noranda was down ¼. Labrador, United Keno Hill, Falconbridge, and East Sullivan showed losses up to 35 cents.

The election result barely created a ripple on the industrial board. A few issues opened fractionally higher but had their gains whittled away in mid-session.

May Despatch Abbott To UK Finance Talks

OTTAWA, June 28 (CP) —The government likely will decide Wednesday at its first post-election cabinet meeting whether to send Finance Minister Abbott to London to attend Commonwealth economic and financial discussions early in July.

A government source today said the decision would depend on what Canada considered she would be able to accomplish at the discussions.

He confirmed a London report that all the finance ministers of the Commonwealth have been asked to attend the emergency talks to discuss the United Kingdom's deepening economic crisis.

"The problem is mostly one which concerns the sterling area," the source said. "It is one which Canada can do little about, since it deals with the shortage of dollars—both Canadian and United States."

Rolls Across Road To Pay Election Bet

TORONTO, June 28 (CP) — Mel Ward, 250-pound member of the Progressive Conservative Association in suburban Long Branch, today paid off an election bet by rolling across Lakeshore Road near his home.

"Just like the Liberal machine steamrollered the country," he said.

More than 100 onlookers stopped traffic on the busy thoroughfare and formed a line through which the loser half rolled, half crept, across the street. He also had to walk through the village sporting a high silk topper and cane.

To Represent Britain

LONDON, June 28 (AP)—Britain today named W. I. Mallet, an assistant undersecretary in the German department of the foreign office, to represent her in new four-power talks on an Austrian independence treaty. He replaces James A. Majoribanks, who a foreign office spokesman said is "indisposed."

Returns Short Waved

MONTREAL, June 28 (CP). — Canadians were not the only ones who heard the Dominion's election results over the air. The CBC International Service said to-day the results were broadcast in Spanish, Portuguese, and English to Latin America and a special broadcast was beamed to the South Pacific for Australia and New Zealand.

From Navy To Calf Nursery Press Women End Triennial

By JEAN STENTON

VICTORIA, BC, June 28—The Canadian Women's Press Club's Triennial ended in a blaze of glory Saturday night. As a special honor the lights of the city glowed for the newspaper-women for several hours.

The legislature buildings overlooking the harbor shone in the velvet blackness like a fairy castle. The turrets, walls, doors and windows were completely outlined by thousands of tiny lights. So was the harbor buildings, strings of green, yellow and red lights were strung for blocks on the main streets. Victoria maintained Vancouver's standard of hospitality.

Navy tradition was shattered on the fifth day of the Triennial when nearly 100 press women invaded the HMCS Crescent which had returned from duty in China the first week in June. The salty crew of the destroyer bore up nobly under the assault — even cakes with pink icing being served at afternoon tea.

Cruise On Destroyer

Many of us enjoyed the cruise in comfort seated under one of the huge guns in the stern. This was in sharp comparison with its mission to Shanghai where the ship was ordered in February to protect the interests of the Canadian Nationalists threatened by the Chinese Communist armies.

This veteran ship thrives on action. Halifax to Victoria the flag fell into the water. Sailors were ordered immediately to run up a new one—as such an accident is bad luck. One hour later the warship ran headon into a 60 mph gale. We were ordered below deck with the ship rolling badly. But there were no seasick victims. Those who braved it out on the deck were pinned to the walls by the blasts.

It was too rough to land at Victoria, so the ship went to Esquimault. With only one hour to get ready for the Government dinner the navy again came to the rescue. They sent the press girls in navy buses to the Empress Hotel. In three-quarters of an hour the first girls were moving down the reception line. One of the navy officers invited to the dinner could not recognize the glamor girls as the DP-appearing waifs he'd landed an hour before.

Formal Dinner

The C.W.P.C. members were entertained at a formal dinner by the British Columbia Government. The delightful occasion was highlighted by the presentation of the Memorial award medals to Lotta Dempsey of the Toronto Globe and Mail for 1948 and Dorothy Howarth of the Toronto Telegram for 1949.

A scenic drive was arranged by the Victoria Automobile dealers Saturday afternoon. The girls were taken past the lovely waterfront at the Uplands and Oak Bay to the Butchart Gardens and the Observatory. Our car was "pinched" for speeding, but such was the power of the press that the officer forgave us and waved us on our way. That's a sample of Western hospitality.

During their stay in the capital the C.W.P.C. were guests at a picnic given by the two newspapers, the Times and the Colonist, on the Experimental farm. The menu included the best strawberry shortcake this side of Ontario. After dinner we were taken on a tour of the farm where they have many unusual trees and flowers, but no cattle.

A la Chinese

One of the Vancouver highlights was the 10-course Chinese dinner given by the Vancouver Sun. The women had had luncheon at noon, dinner at 5 p.m. and faced the 10 courses (and polished them off) without a qualm. Their tongues and their appetites worked overtime. Following the banquet a delightful Chinese fashion show was presented. Beautiful old Chinese gowns were modelled by four pairs of sisters. Elaborate, brocaded satin dresses illustrated the grandeur of bygone days.

One of the most enjoyable experiences of the trip was a drive through the Fraser Valley and a visit to the Fairmeade Farm, owned by Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Glaspie. This Hollywood show place comprises 240 acres with beautiful grounds and a swimming pool, usually not seen outside the movies.

Calf Nursery

But the prize item was the "nursery"—for calves. It is just like a hospital, but painted blue to keep out the flies. The babies there during our visit ranged from three weeks to nine months. Ultra-violet ray lights were suspended over the stalls and there is air conditioning in the summer and heating in the winter.

The Glaspies are believed to be the largest importers of Jersey cattle in Canada and their herds are famous. Their fine horses are under the care of an ex-R.C.M.P. man—Sgt.-Major Tim Griffin.

Never was there such kindness and hospitality showered on the delegates at a conference as the C.W.P.C. received in this most western province. Nobody could do enough for the members. It will go down in the records as the best triennial ever held.

Feminine Touch Missing 14 Women All Defeated

By The Canadian Press

For the first time since Agnes Macphail startled political diehards by winning Grey-Bruce in 1921, the House of Commons will lack the feminine touch.

The single representative of her sex in the last House, Mrs. Gladys Strum, CCF member for Qu'Appelle, went down before the Liberal onslaught in Monday's election, and not one of the 14 other women aspirants could make the grade.

Several made a fight of it. Mrs. Strum, who lost to Liberal Austin Dewar, stayed close to the winner in early return and finished 1,500 votes behind.

Even closer was Mrs. Dorothy Steeve, another CCF standard-bearer, in the British Columbia constituency of Burnaby-Richmond. One of the last seats to be decided, it finally went to Liberal T. Goode by a scant 327 votes.

Ruth Radford, 25-year-old Liberal candidate, fought hard to unseat the veteran T. L. Church in Toronto Broadview. The Progressive Conservative MP held his seat by a 1,200-vote margin.

Others didn't come as close. Marguerite Marchildon, a cousin of Phil Marchildon, Canadian-born baseball pitcher with the major league Philadelphia Athletics lost her deposit in Simcoe East, where she ran on the Union of Electors ticket. Mrs. Bessie Keating, CCF, fared no better in Marquette, Man. against Justice Minister Garson.

But women will still have a voice on Parliament Hill. Unaffected by their sisters' setbacks, two will be in their accustomed seats in the Senate for the new session. They are Senators Cairine Wilson, a Liberal and Iva Fallis, a Conservative, both from Ontario. Just possibly, Prime Minister St. Laurent may feel badly enough about the situation in the Commons to augment femal representation in the Red Chamber.

No woman has ever made a comeback after losing her Commons seat. But Miss Macphail may turn the trick some day. Defeated in the 1940 general election, she now is an active member of the CCF opposition in the Ontario Legislature.

Seek Missing Youth

VAL D'OR, Que., June 28 (CP) —Thirty of western Quebec's most experienced bushmen joined the search today for 16-year-old Gillis Grey, believed lost since Saturday in the bush near East Sullivan Mines. Whistles at Lamaque and East Sullivan Mines, three miles apart, blew at 15-minute intervals so the boy might be guided to safety.

Entire Family Meets For 39th Wedding Day

WARSAW, June 28 (ENS). — Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Payne celebrated their 39th wedding anniversary recently. The entire family was home for the occasion and 34 sat down to a well-laden table which was spread on the lawn.

The couple received many beautiful and useful gifts among which was a studio couch and two chairs to match.

The evening was spent playing euchre. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carveth, Mrs. Ida Darling, Mr. Melvin Carveth, Mrs. Roland Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Payne and Faye, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hammon and family. Mr. and Mrs. Burill Payne and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Fife, Mrs. David Davidson, Diana and Gerry, Mr. Irwin Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Eadie and family, and Miss Marion Hubble.

Women Fight Reds

RANGOON, June 28 —(AP)— The Burma army radio said today an "Amazon Corps" of fully-armed Karen women is fighting beside the menfolk in a clash with rival rebel forces near here. The government-controlled radio said the Karen men and women are fighting Communists and renegade groups of the White-Band Peoples Voluntary Organization at Okkan, 60 miles northwest of Rangoon.

Car Runs Wild

TORONTO, June 28 (CP). — Thomas Comba, 53, suffered bruises and scratches Monday night when his car plowed through two fences, clipped off a hydro pole and rolled down a 30-foot incline on the outskirts of the city. Police said he suffered a seizure while driving and his car mounted the curb out of control.

Visiting Clergy Attend St. John's Diamond Jubilee

BANCROFT, June 27 (ENS)—St. John's Anglican Church celebrated the 60th anniversary of its founding at the week-end with special services on Saturday and Sunday. The 10 a.m. choral communion opened the two-day celebration with the Rev. C. S. Wright as celebrant and preacher. The evening service was largely attended by members of the congregation as well as visiting clergy and friends from various points in the Diocese.

THE REV. C. S. WRIGHT, incumbent of St. John's Anglicon Church, Bancroft, had many fellow clergymen to help conduct Diamond Jubilee celebrations of the founding of the church at the weekend. One of the many visiting clergymen was the Archbishop of Ontario, the Most Rev. John Lyons of Kingston. Former incumbents of St. John's were also at the church for the celebrations.

The Archbishop of Ontario, the Most Rev. John Lyons of Kingston was present and the Rev. Canon Stout, rector of Gananoque, was pretcher at this service.

Clergy Attending

Other visiting clergy were: Archdeason of Ontario, the Venerable Arthur Smith of Belleville; Rev. J. M. Brownlie, Rural Dean of Hastings and Marmora; Rev. Canon T. Leach, superannuated and second incumbent of St. John's Church; Rev. A. S. McConnell, rector of Trenton; Rev. G. Hope Swayne, rector of Picton; Rev. J. Cantrell, incumbent of Marysburg; Rev. A. F. Dowdell of Maynooth, who was organist for the anniversary services; Rev. W. L. Simmons, rector of Athens; Rev. W. McDonald, rector of Combermere; Rev. W. A. Smith, incumbent at Madoc, and Rev. R. F. Gardam, rector of Wolfe Island.

The service commenced with the processional hymn, "Praise My Soul the King of Heaven." The choir preceded by the cross bearer, Floyd Twa, and followed by the clergy, the Archbishop and Chaplain, walked in procession from the Parish Hall to the Church.

The service was sung by the Rev. C. S. Wright, incumbent. The first lesson was read by the Rev. R. F. Fardam and the Rev. J. Cantrell read the second lesson. Both clergymen were former incumbents of the church.

The hymn, "We Love the Place, O God," followed the third collect. The general prayers were said by the Rev. W. L. Simmons, also a former incumbent at Bancroft.

Before the Rev. Canon Stout went to the pulpit, the congregation sang the hymn "Now Thank We All Our God." The text of the Canon's sermon was, "Lo I am with you always."

Choir Sings Anthem

After the Ascription the choir rendered the anthem "His Name Is Excellent." During the announcements, welcome was given to all visitors and mention was made of the special thanksgiving offering for the day. The beautiful flowers on the altar were the gift of Mrs. Marjorie McCaw of Belleville in memory of her son Francis, was was killed in action March 29, 1943, while serving with the RCAF over Europe.

The Church Wardens, R. W. Blatherwick and R. C. Wiggins. assisted by the two Sidesmen, D. C. Wiggins and R. G. Kellar, carried the alms to the sanctuary steps, where they were presented at the altar by the Archdeacon of Ontario, who then lead the congregation in the General Thanksgiving.

The congregation remained kneeling while the choir sang the devotional hymn "God Be In Thy Head." The Archbishop pronounced the Benediction from the steps of the altar and the service concluded with the recessional hymn "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones." The prayer at the west door was said by Rev. J. M. Brownlie.

At the conclusion of the service more than 200 people gathered in the new Parish Hall for an "At Home" and it official opening.

The incumbent, as chairman, called on the People's Church Warden, Mr. R. W. Blatherwick, to welcome the guests and members to the social hour and participation in the joyous Jubilee Services.

Parish Hall Opened

Officially opening the hall, the Archbishop said that the uses of the hall should be in character worthy of the work and honor of the Rev. Allen Anderson of Stirling.

Greetings were received from the Rev. Grant Sparling of Belleville, Rev. Allen Anderson of Stirling, Rev. E. N. Grant of Augusta, Rev. Minto Swan of Portsmouth, Rev. J. Creegan of Prescott, who all expressed their regrets at their inability to attend. A number of the clergy present expressed their appreciation of the work of St. John's congregation and the fine Parish Hall.

Two members of the first confirmation class of St. John's 60 years ago when the church was consecrated by the late Archbishop Lewis, are still active members of the church. Walter E. Wiggins, former church warden spoke of the progress made throughout the 60 years and of the devotion of the members of the church.

Miss Alice Mullett, the other lifelong member, was conducted to the stage by Mrs. R. W. Blatherwick, convener of the committee for the At Home. Miss Mullett cut the appropriately decorated 60th anniversary cake which cake topped off a buffet luncheon served by the committee. The hall was decorated for the special event.

Preparations for the Jubilee celebrations have been shared by a large number of the congregation for several months, under the supervision of the incumbent. the Rev. C. S. Wright of St. John's Church.

Friday morning, 8 and 10 am., Holy Communion on the Festival of St. John the Baptist was celebrated by the Rev. R. F. Gardam and the Rev. C. S Wright respectively

In the evening the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation was conducted by the Archbishop of Ontario. Twelve candidates were presented for the Laying On of Hands. In his address the Archbishop mentioned the important aspects of confirmation as considered by the Lambeth Conference in England last year which he attended. A large congregation was present for the confirmation service.

Urges Precautions

TORONTO June 28 (CP) — Highways Minister Doucett of Ontario Monday warned motorists to take extra precautions this week-end since Dominion Day, July 1, falls on Friday and United States Independence Day, July 4, on Monday. Mr. Doucett said open stretches of road should not be regarded as speedways but as an intermission easing the strain of driving in heavy traffic.

Gets $36,000 Back

BRANTFORD, June 28 (CP) — Jacob Rosenzweig, Polish DP who arrived here recently with $36,000 in United States currency, said Monday he realized the money from the sale of property in Poland after the Second World War. The money was turned over to the RCMP recently when one of Rosenzweig's suitcases was found broken into in a railroad station Monday. He deposited the money in a bank.

Tram Operators Hurt

TORONTO June 28 (CP) — Two Toronto street car operators suffered severe injuries Monday night when their trams collided head-on in east Toronto. Police said one tram went through an open switch. Albert Phillips, 42, suffered multiple cuts and possible fractured skull and Clifford Newans, 33, abrasions and possible internal injuries.

Girl Dies After Car Collides With Train

LINDSAY, June 28 (CP). — Pretty 18-year-old model Elsie Pryor, of Toronto, was killed when the car in which she was riding struck a Canadian Pacific Railway Havelock to Bobcaygeon train at a level crossing on No. 7 Highway east of Lindsay.

The driver of the car, A. S. Davies, 43, also of Toronto, suffered bruises. Davies, a partner in the Toronto clothing firm, Fashion Hall, had just completed showing clothes modelled by Miss Pryor at Lindsay and was proceeding to Peterborough when the car crashed into the tender of the train. Miss Pryor was tossed 30 feet from the car and was scalped when she hit part of the train. Davies was half thrown from the bady smashed car which swerved around but stayed on the highway.

"I saw the car coming very fast over the knoll," said the train fireman, Bill Smith, of Toronto, "but before I could yell, Engineer Frank McKay of Havelock had the brakes on." Parts of the fender and hood of the car were scattered around the scene of the accident."

Four Seamen Stabbed In Fracas

Six Arrested After Rival Unions Battle In Tavern

PORT ALBERNI, BC, June 29 —(CP). — Four seamen were stabbed, two seriously, when rival union groups Tuesday night battled in a downtown street.

Two other men were treated for minor wounds, and six men were arrested. Police refused to disclose the names of the injured men.

The seamen are members of the striking Canadian Seamen's Union and the rival Seafarers' International Union (AFL).

The fight started in a downtown beer parlor, and then spread to the street before police could break up the battle.

The SIU crew men were from the S.S. Triland, which docked here a few days ago after being strike-bound in Vancouver. The other seamen, police were told, were off the CSU-manned S.S. Canim, bound for Vancouver.

Windows in the beer parlor were smashed, tables overturned and chairs, glasses and bottles flew through the air at the height of the fight.

Collapse on Street

When police arrived the battle was in full force on the sidewalk. Four of the men were down, suffering from stab wounds as the others battled in the street.

The two groups were drinking in the parlor when suddenly the "glasses flew in all directions," said an eye-witness. A remark made by one of the sailors "started the trouble."

Police called taxis to take the injured to hospital from the glass-littered sidewalk.

Early to-day no charges had been laid against the six men arrested.

"They are held pending questioning," said an officer at the BC Provincial Police Station here.

CHARIOT OF THE FUTURE—Teardrop shapes, diamond wheelbase patterns and low-slung design are the accents on cars of the future on display at the Oakland, Calif., International Auto Show. The ultra-streamlined Tornado Special, top, makes Marceline Matlock look twice as tall as she actually is. The 18-foot-long racer is only 41 inches high. Don't try to figure out the wheels on the American-made Gordon car, shown below, with Sherry Stevens. The teardrop-shaped job has four independently sprung wheels set in a diamond pattern. This gives the sleek car a 42-foot turning radius, half that required by a standard car. The specially-made number is for special pocket-books too. Building cost: $5,000, not including labor.

Lovers Forced To Drink Poison

CHICAGO, June 29—(AP)—A 17-year-old girl today died in an automobile under circumstances which police said were unexplained. Her male escort, speechless from the effects of a poison he said was forced upon the girl and himself by two men, was under treatment in a hospital.

The dead girl was Joan Coward and her companion, Arthur Marino, 27, who had been courting the girl a year.

Police said Marino drove up to the Riverdale Police Station at 5.45 a.m. Unable to talk, Marino pointed to the rear seat where the girl's body, with shoes and stockings removed lay partly on the back seat. Police summoned an ininhalator squad which worked over the girl for 45 minutes but was unable to revive her.

A bottle partly filled with ammonia was found in the car, police said. There were bruises on the young woman's head, face and neck.

Although unable to speak, Marino informed police by notes that two men had forced them to drink from a bottle. He said the men came upon them while he and Miss Coward were seated in Marino's parked car near suburban Riverdale.

Claim 375 Strikes Fired By Communists

BERLIN, June 29 (AP) —The anti-Communist Berlin Railway Union charged today that the Soviet-controlled railway management has started reprisals against men who took part in the crippling 38-day rail strike.

The Union said 375 men were fired without notice. The 14,000 strikers reported back to work yesterday. The strikers had gone back to work on the promise that there would be no reprisals against the workers.

Rail traffic remain stalled, meantime, while crews worked to repair damage caused by the long stoppage.

Hope For Tax Agreement To Expand Social Security

OTTAWA, June 29—(CP)—The first session of the new, Liberal-dominated parliament will open in September, it was indicated Tuesday. Post-election speculation pointed to a renewal of Federal attempts to reach a financial and taxation agreement embracing all 10 provinces to open the way for broadened social security.

As Prime Minister St. Laurent prepared to preside over a cabinet meeting today, a wide wield of potential legislative and administrative action opened up amid the accumulation of election results.

The field encompassed the possibilities or probabilities of Cabinet reorganization, Senate appointments and reform, international commitments under the Atlantic Pact, further steps towards full national sovereignty and others.

The largest conjecture surrounded the practical prospects arising from Mr. St. Laurent's repeated campaign statements that the fundamental Liberal aim is the widest possible distribution "of the good things of life" and his related pledge to keep striving for "a complete system of social security."

Plan To Freeze Funds Of Unions

SYDNEY, Australia, June 29—(AP)—Federal and State governments today prepared drastic special laws to deal with a national emergency brought on by a strike of 24,000 coal miners.

The New South Wales Legislative Assembly in a night session passed an emergency bill giving the State Government wartime powers. The bill is expected to pass the Legislative Council tonight.

The measure will authorize the government to take over or control any property or search any premises necessary to deal with the crisis. It will effect 3,000,000 persons.

The miners went on strike Monday. They demanded a 15-per-cent pay rise and a 35-hour week instead of the present 40-hour week.

In Canberra, the National Government is rushing through a law to freeze union funds. This is aimed at preventing miners from receiving financial aid from other unions and may curb union plans for a long strike.

All Stocks, Except Golds, Dip Lowest In 4 Years

By FRANK KAPLAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, June 29 (CP)—All groups, except golds, slid steadily downward, touching the lowest price level in more than four years on the Toronto Stock Exchange during the first half of 1949.

Continuing uneasiness in the international situation and declining business prospects in the United States helped push prices lower, following a year of steady increase in 1948.

Golds were an outstanding exception in the general decline, reflecting the best prospects in industry since the end of the Second World War.

The dip in the other three major groups — industrials, base metals and western oils — was fairly steady for almost five months. However, heavy pressure late in May sent the market here reeling to the lowest price level in 4½ years.

More than $1,000,000,000 was lost in the market value of listed stocks compared with the first six months of last year.

Golds turned strongly upwards in April, to show a gain of some 15 points but lost 10 points in the following two months to finish the six months, ahead only five points.

The other three major groups touched their high points of the six-month period early in January. Industrials hit 157.36 on the index Jan. 14 as activity boomed on the Exchange. Base metals hit 109.98, Jan. 14 before beginning their decline.

Fears of a depression in the United States influenced prices and industrials declined slowly during the remainder of January, through February into mid-March.

Improving production costs, better labor supply and increased earnings by key producers in the gold industry attracted considerable investment income during the six months as investors moved out of the other groups

"Go Slow" Plan Threatens Railway Chaos

LONDON, June 29 (CP) — The decision of the National Union of Railwaymen to "work to rule," beginning Sunday midnight, threatens traffic chaos on Britain's nationalized railways.

It means a gentle "go-slow" policy with men also refusing to work overtime and allowing freight to pile up at depots throughout the country.

The slowdown is in support of the union demand for a 10-shilling ($2) weekly wage increase. Management has offered raises of two to three shillings for lower-paid workers.

Negotiations between the Union and railway executive are scheduled to continue today. Observers consider management unlikely to be in a mood for further concessions with the go-slow threat hanging.

"Working to rule" means going by the 340 separate rules in a blue-backed rule book issued to train crews, track workers and other employees.

Although the rules have been theoretically in force for decades, few railway men know them in detail. They always have taken more practical short cuts. Now they will take time out to study the rules.

The rules which will be rigidly followed include

Guards (conductors) and platform attendants will ascertain before the train starts that no smoking is going on in non-smoking campartments.

If requested, employees must assist ladies travelling alone in selecting an appropriate compartment.

Track men will refuse to couple cars while the train is in the slightest motion.

Closer Supervision OfCellsRecommended

GUELPH, June 29 —(CP)—A Coroner's Jury inquiring into the police cell death of Mrs. Margaret Dell on June 23, returned a verdict Tuesday night finding the woman had died from suffocation and burns caused by smoke and flames from a rubber mattress on the cell cot. Burned matches were found in the cell when the fire was extinguished.

The jury recommended that the city police cells be transferred from the city hall and incorporated in the adjoining police station to provide for continuous supervision of prisoners.

Farm Hand Runs Amuck With Rifle

Third Man Shot At In Car, But Unhurt; R.C.M.P. Nab Gunman

SELBY, Ont., June 29 (CP) — One man was killed and another dangerously wounded when John Nelson, a 20-year-old itinerant farm hand ran amuck with a .22 calibre rifle today on a farm in this Eastern Ontario centre five miles north of Napanee.

Elijah McQuaig, a farmer and former reeve of Richmond township, died shortly after Nelson pumped several bullets into his body. Ron Ross, 18-year-old farm worker, was wounded three times.

Nelson was captured shortly after RCMP officers joined residents of the farm community in a search for the young man who has worked on the farm of Ephriam Robinson, near here, for the last three months. Details of the capture were not immediately available.

Dr. W. E. Burns of Napanee gave Ross first aid at the farm field scene of the shooting and accompanied him to a Kingston hospital. Harry Thompson, another district farmer, passing the field at the time, also was fired upon. Bullets shattered the rear window of his automobile and he dived out of the seat uninjured.

Expert Says Hospital Lacks Supervision

WINDSOR, Ont., June 29 (CP) —Arthur J. Swanson, Canadian hospital expert and business administrator at Toronto's Western Hospital, testified before a Royal Commission today that "there was a definite lack of top level supervision," at Metropolitan General Hospital.

Mr. Swanston was first witness called when Judge Eric W. Cross, one-man Ontario Royal Commission, resumed hearings into General Hospital administration.

Mr. Swanson said he found a "definite laxness," particularly in the ignoring of certain basic business principles. He said the manner of making purchases at Metropolitan left much to be desired. The hospital expert found that records were not kept in detail.

4-Day Lockout At Plant Ends

TORONTO, June 29 (CP) — Settlement of a union-management dispute at the Ferranti Electric Co., plant in suburban Mount Dennis was announced today by Labor Minister Daley of Ontario.

Following his announcement the four-day lockout, instituted by the Company after workers walked out to hold a union meeting on company time, was ended and the 400 plant production workers returned to work.

Meanwhile company union officials are negotiating a new contract. The union is demanding a reduction of their present 43½-hour week, with no reduction of take-home pay.

Coal Boats Create Darkness Over Town

OAKVILLE, June 29 (CP) — Oakville is having its own form of smoke and train whistle trouble, town council was told Tuesday night.

Councillor Fred Turner said "a blanket of smoke" often makes it "as dark as night downtown" when coal boats are unloading in the harbor. Members agreed and discussed framing an anti-smoke by-law similar to the one defeated last year.

A by-law prohibiting blowing of train whistles in the town limits received its third reading.

Opposition to the law came when a member said "I would like to know who is going to take the blame if the wig-wag fails to work whistles cannot be sounded and someone is killed there."

No More Clutter

NEWPORT, R.I., June 29 —(AP) — Timmy Sullivan Tuesday was ordered by a court to clean up the clutter around his house—an eyesore that Timmy's neighbors have been unable to lessen, even by promising him a trip to Florida. Sprawled in the yard around the house are heaps of second-hand possessions waiting to be sold—a monumental lumber pile, old glass, old crockery, old stoves, a dressmaker's dummy. Judge J. E. Mullen granted petition of Mrs. Peyton Van Rensselaer—Sullivan's socially-prominent neighbor—restraining Timmy from adding to the clutter.

25,000 Dockers In London To Go On Strike

LONDON, June 29 (Reuters)—Leaders of London's dockers said today they will call out all the 25,000 dockers in this busy port.

The 4,000 dock workers who went on strike Sunday returned to work this morning, but quit after 15 minutes, claiming an employers' lock out.

Dock officials denied there was a lockout. They reported 42 ships were idle today in the Royal group of docks and the Surrey docks, compared with 30 Tuesday, and that 6,900 men were idle.

The strike action is in sympathy with members of the Canadian Seamen's Union who repudiated an agreement reached last week with Canadian ship owners, claiming the owners had "double-crossed" them over the terms of settlement.

The striking dockers Tuesday had said they would resume work on ships in the Port of London, excepting Canadian-owned vessels.

One dock worker said that a call to work the 9,034-ton ship Beaverbrae, owned by Canadian Pacific Steamships, Limited, was not answered by the men and that no further calls were made to work other ships.

But Port employers announced they are "ready and willing to employ men for any work available in accordance with the terms of the dock labor scheme."

Milk Supply Low

KITCHENER, June 29 (CP)— Due to dried up pastureland and dwindling water supplies Kitchener and Waterloo dairies have had to engage suplementary milk producers.

Normally the ten dairies serving the city get their milk from about 180 producers. Now they are well over 200. The supply is getting shorter every day said Dr. C. K. Mader, public health veterinarian with the Kitchener Health Department. Dr. Mader said a heavier consumption of milk due to the hot weather and berry seasons has contributed to the situation.

Seek Hit-Run Car

OTTAWA, June 29 (CP) — Police today combed the area for traces of a car with a smashed grill and radiator which Monday night struck and killed 17-year-old Frederick Herbert of suburban Gloucester Station. The accident occurred on the highway near Uplands Airport south of here. The driver of the car did not stop, but left the youth's body lying in the centre of the road.

Royal Commission Rejects Government Control Of Press In Great Britain

Urge Establishment of General Council Of The Press On Voluntary Basis; Deny Suggestions of Political Bias

LONDON, June 29—(Reuters)—The Royal Commission on the Press today recommended that a general council of the press be voluntarily created to safeguard freedom of the press in the United Kingdom. The Council's duties also would be to maintain and improve the standards of the press and foster its integrity and responsibility toward the general public.

The Royal Commission, in a 250,000-word report which took 26 months to complete rejected all proposals for government control of hte press. It denied suggestions that political bias constantly operated in the industry. The commission found no evidence of pressure by advertisers to obtain omission or insertion of news items and it considered unnecessary any legislation to break up "chains" of newspapers.

Allegations along these lines were part of the case of left-wing interests in the Labor Party and in the section of the press supporting the Labor Government when the commission's appointment was under discussion in 1946.

The House of Commons voted in October, 1946, for an investigation into "the finance, control, management and ownership of the press." The government-appointed the commission and it began its work in April, 1947.

"Inferior To None"

The commission held that the British press was "inferior to none in the world" and that "both those who own the press and those who are employed on it would universally condemn the acceptance or soliciting of bribes."

But it found that in selection of news there were some instances of bias or distortion involving the line of policy pursued by the proprietor. The commission also criticized sensationalism and intrusion into private affairs by the press.

The commission, whose report now goes to parliament where it will be studied and debated, suggested that the general council of the press should consist of at least 25 members representing proprietors, editors and other journalists and having lay members amounting to about 20 per cent of the total, including the chairman.

In recommending formation of a general council of the press, the commission report said objects of the council would be to safeguard the freedom of the press, to encourage the growth of a sense of public responsibility and public service among all engaged in journalism.

Chairman of the commission was Sir David Ross, provost of Oriel College, Oxford, and an authority on arbitration.

Commission Members

Its members included J. B. Priestley, author and playwright who resigned after a short time, Sir George Alexander Waters, editor for 20 years of the Scotsman, the leading Scottish daily newspaper; R. C. K. Ensor, historian, barrister and journalist formerly of the Manchester Guardian, Lady Violet Bonham Carter, eldest daughter of the former prime minister, the late Earl of Asquith.

Expect Prague To Cut Link With Vatican

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

PRAGUE, June 29 —(AP)—A diplomatic source said today Czechoslovak police had forcibly entered the automobile of a Vatican diplomatic representative at Kosice, in Slovakia.

The informant, close to Vatican representatives here, said the incident occurred Tuesday night. The source described the police action as "rude and violent" and said a protest had been lodged with the foreign ministry against "this violation of the rights of a diplomat."

(An informed source in Vatican City said the Vatican expects its diplomatic links with Prague to be severed soon by the Czechoslovak government.)

Strife Spreads

The reported police interference with the Vatican representative highlighted another day in the spreading strife between the Roman Catholic church and the state.

According to church sources, Czechoslovakia's Communist rulers have started censoring the sermons of Catholic bishops and imposing a gag on those who attempt to criticize the government.

The action apparently foreshadowed a campaign of restriction against services inside Roman Catholic churches. Those services thus far have been relatively free although often under surveillance.

Rumors persisted in Prague that Archbishop Joseph Beran, the country's primate, had been formally arrested. The archbishop failed ot appear at a service for ordination of new priests, but an informed source said Beran had not planned to participate and that he still was in his palace under a police surveillance which was imposed two weeks ago.

Guard In Court Advised By Jury

PORT ARTHUR, June 29 (CP) —A coroner's jury recommended here Tuesday night that someone with the authority and ability to deal with emergent situations should be on duty during sittings in all courts.

The recommendation was contained in the verdict of the jury quiring into the deaths of Judge Bruce J. McKitrick and Mrs. Irene Gray, who died June 21 following a shooting affray in the judge's Juvenile and Family Court.

Mrs. Gray's husband, William, took his own life after firing shots at his wife and the judge. He had appeared in court to answer a non-support charge laid on behalf of his wife and two children.

Diaper Dye Causes Deaths Of Four Babies In Florida

LAKE WALES, Fla., June 29—(AP)—A fifth new-born babe was fighting today to stave off the strange "blue tinge" death that stalked through a hospital nursery here, claiming four lives.

Latest victim of the illness, marked by come-and-go blue skin discoloration, was 11-day-old Edward Lamb, Jr.

The five infants became ill June 21, just a few hours after using a batch of diapers marked with a new identification ink containing aniline dye, a coal-tar derivative. The first baby succumbed Saturday.

The State Attorney-General's office which began an investigation, observed that the same kind of ink was used by the hospital on surgical towels early in April without ill effect.

The death of the babies followed almost on the heels of a warning in the American Medical Association Journal that 72 cases of poisoning from coal-tar derivatives dyes and five deaths had been reported.

In an editorial, the Journal said the prevention of such deaths "is simple. If the diapers are boiled after they are stamped and thoroughly dried before use, the dye becomes fixed and absorption does not occur."

Pays Bet By Wearing Pyjamas, Rubber Boots

BRAMPTON, Ont., June 29 — (CP) — Johnny Donaldson, of Brampton, went for a walk in his pyjamas and rubber boots Tuesday night and had a band and several hundred spectators for company.

He was pushing fellow townsman Bill Goddard down the main street in a wheelbarrow as payment on an election bet. The band and spectators were added attractions.

Nationalists Bomb Shanghai

Fear Casualties Will Be Heavy; Area Cordoned Off

SHANGHAI, June 29.—(AP).—Low-flying Nationalist bombers today blasted the crowded Chapei district of Shanghai, killing at least two persons and injuring upward of 100. Police and rescue workers dug the injured out of blasted buildings hours after the planes completed their mission.

Machine guns blasted away at the leisurely flying bombers but had no effect.

Hospitals reported at least 70 seriously injured had been received.

Authorities cordoned off several city blocks and would permit no entry.

At least two Liberator type planes dropped below low hanging clouds in an attempt to hit the North Railroad Station and the rail freight yards on Maarkham Road.

Seymour Topping, Associated Press correspondent who tried to reach the area, said the bombs smashed a path through the crowded section and unquestionably many casualties resulted.

The planes remained overhead for more than an hour.

They made leisure runs on the area, droppinga few bombs at a time. At no time did they appear to have loosed their entire bomb load.

Bombs also were dropped in the southwestern section of the city near Lunghwa airport.

There was no attack on the harbor or shipping.

ONE MINUTE NEWS ABOUT JOHNS-MANVILLE

Sure Cure For Basement Bother

In Summer, many homeowners are annoyed by two basement nuisances. One is dampness due to dripping from cold water pipes. The other, a long wait at upstairs taps for water to run cold.

These complains can be corrected easily by a Johns-Manville pipe insulation called "Wool Felt." It is made for cold water lines in the basement. It provides a neat, uniform appearance. It stops the drips and keeps pipes cold — which means cold water quicker at taps.

Johns-Manville Wool Felt Pipe Insulation is low in cost, takes but a few hours to install, and last a lifetime. For complete details, write Johns-Manville, 199 Bay St., Toronto, or see your plumbing and heating contractor.

Carrier Captain Dismissed From Command

HALIFAX, June 29 (CP)—A second navy court martial opened here today following one which Tuesday night dismissed Commodore G. R. (Gus) Miles, OBE, Canada's senior officer afloat, from command of the Aircraft Carrier Magnificent.

The court martial, which also sentenced the 47-year-old native of Rothesay, N. B., to be reprimanded, convicted the flat-top's Captain of "negligently or by default suffering" the Carrier to be "hazarded" and "stranded" off Nova Scotia's south shore June 4.

The court acquitted Commodore Miles on two other charges of having hazarded and stranded the carrier by negligence or default.

Today, Lt.-Cmdr. W. D. F. Johnston of Barnstead, Surrey, England, navigation officer aboard the carrier when she piled up 70 miles southwest of Halifax, faced similar charges at a separate court martial. It was expected that a verdict would be reached by tonight.

The court was cleared after all evidence was taken. Then Commodore Miles, who has been to sea for 33 years, was recalled to find his sword, resting on a polished table before the five judges, pointing toward him in token of conviction.

The court's decision said in part:

"At 19.29 hrs. (7:29 p.m. ADT June 4) the ship was to the northward of the planned track. This was known to the accused. He took no steps to correct this course or reduce speed."

Royal Commission

The two journalist members, Sir George and Ensor, dissented from the proposal that the general council of the press should include lay members.

The commission found that apart from the case of the Daily Herald which supports the Labor government, the only political party with a daily newspaper attached to its interests was the Communist party, the policy of which was expressed by the Daily Worker.

"There are," said the commission, "newspapers whose raison d'etre is neither commercial, political nor personal but merely to be themselves, to maintain a certain tradition and ot preserve a particular character.

"The Times, the Manchester Guardian and the Observer are among them and the fact that two of these are owned by trusts while a third enjoys similar safeguards, illumines the character not only of the papers but also of these forms of ownership."

Appeal Denied

TORONTO, June 29 (CP) — Appeal of Joseph Vernon Welch of Aylmer, Ont., against a conviction for manslaughter in connection with the death of his wife was denied here Tuesday. Welch was originally charged with the poison murder of his wife, Florence, at Aylmer in August, 1947. The jury found him not guilty of murder but guilty of manslaughter. His appeal for a new trial was granted and he was again found guilty by Mr. Justice W. F. Schroeder and sentenced to 10 years.

Hope For Tax

bec were seen as cues for a renewal of attempts to negotiate with those two provinces the sort of financial agreements that now have been accepted individually

The 10th is Newfoundland which Mr. St. Laurent has predicted will shortly come to terms.

Mr. St. Laurent said on the hustings that a general conference with the "Premiers of the provinces" will be held at least by 1951 to discuss a renewal of the five-year agreements now involving seven provinces. It is conceivable that it could be put ahead to 1950 or earlier if there is a chance of full agreement.

The major unfilled objectives of the 1946 proposals are contributory systems of old age pensions and health insurance, both requiring agreements with the provinces.

From the legislative standpoint the spring budget that initiated the heavy tax cuts now in effect still needs parliamentary ratification and should get it without trouble once the Commons meets.

Mr. St. Laurent is expected to revamp his Cabinet, possibly widen it, take in at least representatives of Toronto and Alberta and send some of its present members to the Senate, the Bench or the diplomatic corps.

Can Shed Tunics

TORONTO, June 29 (CP) — For the first time in Toronto's history, police officers will be allowed to shed their tunics during the summer months. The new uniforms will be dark blue trousers and light blue shirts.

English Exports To Canada Most Since War

OTTAWA, June 29 — (CP)— United Kingdom exports to Canada hit their highest point since the end of the war during April but Britain still was left with a deficit of $33,400,000 on her month's trade with Canada.

The figures were disclosed tuesday by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics as British officials moved to meet a new trade crisis by calling a conference of Commonwealth finance ministers.

The bureau's trade report showed also that Canada had an overall deficit of $2,400,000 in foreign trade for April, compared with a deficit of $11,600,000 in April last year. It left the Dominion with a deficit of $3,000,000 for the first four months of this year, compared with a surplus of $83,400,000 for the same period last year.

There was no indication that Finance Minister Abbott will attend the meeting in London next month to discuss the critical dollar shorage in the sterling area. It probably will be discussed today at the government's first post-election cabinet meeting.

Debit Increases

Canada had a deficit of $65,100,000 in trade with the United States during the month, bringing the debit balance to $197,900,000 for he first four months of the year—$41,000,000 more than at the same time last year.

Britain sold Canada goods worth $30,120,000 during April, $28,300,000 in March and $24,600,000 in April, 1948. For the first four months of both years, the totals were $106,800,000 and $85,700,000 in 1948. Canadian exports to Britain were $63,000,000 in April compared with $44,000,000 a year ago. For the first four months they were $202,500,000 and $220,000,000.

Canada's total of exports and imports was $483,000,000, 9.3 per cent higher than in April, 1948. Total trade for the first four months was $1 813,800,000, an increase of 6.2 per cent.

April imports from the U.S. were $177,300,000, against $159,500,0000 in April, 1948 The four-month totals were $659,900,000 and $584,600,000. Exports increased by $1,000,000 to $110,000,000 and for the four months they were $455,800,000 compared with $421,900,000.

153 Entries Made For Ontario Title

TORONTO, June 29—(ENS)—Harold Banks, secretary of the Ontario Golf Association, announced today that 153 entries nave been filed for the Ontario Amateur championship to be played at the Westmount Golf and Country Club at Waterloo July 6-9. Entries now have been closed.

Play starts with a qualifying round at 7:30 a.m. July 6 which will produce 32 starters for the championship flight and another 32 for the first flight. Two 18-hole rounds of match play Thursday and Friday will pave the way for 36-hole match play finals Saturday.

Britain Facing Showdown On Marshall Aid

PARIS, June 29 (AP)—Britain today faced a showdown with other Marshall-plan countries on how trade should be conducted among the powers of Western Europe.

The seven-member consultative committee of the organization for European economic cooperation met this morning and the full 19-country organization was scheduled to meet later in the day in an effort to reach agreement.

The stakes in national prestige and perhaps even national economic stability seem large in comparison with the immediate dollar stakes.

Last week the top economic experts of Britain, France and Belgium met in Brussels but could not settle their differences. It was a question of the others not being able to reach an agreement with Sir Stafford Cripps, Britain's chancellor of the exchequer.

W. Averell Harriman, United States ambassador-at-large for the Marshall plan, has been sitting in as observer at the meetings.

The question is whether each country will make its own trade agreements with the other countries singly, or will all the countries set up general principles, agree on their currency relationships and then take steps toward multilateral trade.

Britain, while favoring the theory of multilateral trade, is in the position of defending bilateralism. Sir Stafford Cripps feels the time is not yet ripe for multilateral trade. He is fearful it might have an adverse effect on Britain's already precarious financial position.

The specific point up for decision is an extension of the Intra-European payments scheme—a complicated system by which traditional creditor countries extended credits to traditional debtors. In return the creditor countries received Marshall plan dollars to cover the credits. The intra-European payments plan expires Tuesday.

Plan To Discuss Dollar Troubles

LONDON, June 29 (AP)—The financial chiefs of Britain and the United States will get a chance to discuss Britain's dollar troubles in a man-to-man talk.

A British treasury spokesman said today that John W. Snyder, United States treasury secretary, will see Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, during Snyder's forthcoming tour of European capitals. The spokesman said he did not yet know the date of the meeting.

Sir Stafford and representatives of other countries receiving Marshall Plan aid are at present in Paris, trying to thresh out a new scheme for currency grants among themselves to stimulate intra-European trade.

The British Chancellor is fighting a United States-backed Belgian and French proposal that would require Britain to surrender more of her dollar reserves, which have been described as already below the danger point.

The Conservative Daily Mail says today Snyder had decided to come to Europe earlier than originally planned so as to meet Sir Stafford and to be on hand if the Paris talks should fail.

The newspaper's political writer said the talks between Sir Stafford and Snyder "will be a continuation of a series of exchange at high level between London and Washington in the last 72 hours."

Whites And Negroes Fight At Bathing Pool

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP) —A series of fights between whites and Negroes occurred yesterday near Anacostia Park swimming pool.

Police said one man was taken to hospital. The fights started when one boy jostled another.

There were about 100 whites and 20 Negroes in the vicinity of the pool.

Says Russians Trying To Convert Japs

WASHINGTON, June 29 — (AP)— United States State Department officials said today Russia is pushing an active, calculated campaign to communize Japand from within Latest apparent evidence was the return to Japan of 2,000 war prisoners chanting communist songs on their arrival.

On the basis of Tokyo reports, officials here forecast that 93,000 others whom Moscow has promised to free this year likewise will turn out to be well-schooled in Soviet ideology.

As other signs of Russian intentions, United States officials noted:

1. Soviet attacks on Japanese government efforts, backed by Gen. Douglas MacArthur as Supreme Allied Commander, to cope with strike disorders.

2. Communist attempts to control key communications and railway unions.

3. A campaign to promote trade between Japan and Communist China.

This view of Russian aims was outlined to a reporter after Congress received a gloomy United States army report on current prospects for Japanese recovery.

Tracy Voorhees, Assistant Army Secretary, urged a full $1,000,000,000 appropriation for government and relief in occupied Japan, the Ryukus Islands, Germany and Austria for next year. The House of Representatives cut the funds to $925,000,000.

The return to Japan of Communist indoctrinated prisoners from Soviet captivity is giving the State Department much the same concern that was voiced in Tokyo when the first 2,000 arrived Monday. Officials said no decision has yet been reached on how to deal with the problem.

Monday's arrivals declared they were all pledged to join the Communist Party in Japan. The parts in this year's elections polled nearly 3,000,000 votes and increased its seats in parliament

Soldier Remanded On Charge Of Bigamy

BELLEVILLE, June 29.—(CP). —Harold Long, 25-year-old member of the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps at Kingston, Tuesday was remanded one week for sentence on a charge of bigamy.

Police said Long went through a form of the marriage ceremony with a Belleville district girl early this month although he had a wife and two children in Toronto.

Twenty People Sick

COBOURG, June 29 (ENS) — Twenty cases of communicable disease were recorded by the Northumberland and Durham Counties Health Unit for the week ending June 25. This was revealed in the weekly report of the unit. Of these there were 12 new cases of chickenpox, all being in the townships, with the exception of two cases in Campbellford. Seven cases of red measles were listed and one of mumps, all in the rural sections.

Committed For Trial

ISLINGTON, June 29—(CP)— Thomas C. Williams yesterday was committed for trial by a higher court when charged with theft of 1,000 shares of mining stock. Two others, Jack Lee and William McClung, accused of being William's aides, drew suspended sentences. They were accused of obtaining stocks from Arthur Deeth of suburban Etobicoke by fraud.

Potatoes Bigger

TORONTO, June 29—(CP)— Slightly bigger new potatoes will be marketed in Ontario as a result of a new minimum size established by the Department of Agriculture. The minimum now is 1⅞. It formerly was 1½. The change was made at request of the Fruit and Vegetables Growers' Association.

Drope Leads By Ten In Campbellford

CAMPBELLFORD, June 29.—(ENS.—After weeks of active campaigning by the two old-line parties, election returns in Monday's voting gave R. Earle Drope, Progressive Conservative, a slim majority of 10 votes over Dr. Fred Robertson, Liberal, in Campbellford and a majority of 174 votes in Seymour township. Out of approximately 2,178 eligible voters in town, 1,836 exercised their franchise and 1,336 cast their ballots in the township out of a possible 1,586 voters.

Following are the results in Campbellford and Seymour:

Retiring Principal Receives Pupils' Gift

ROSENEATH, June 29 (ENS) —At the conclusion of Roseneath School term on Monday, Mrs. Fred G. Lewis, retiring principal, was presented with a tablecloth by the pupils in recognition of her untiring efforts. An address was read by Miss Freida Broadworth and the presentation was made by Carol McMillan on behalf of the school.

Mrs. Lewis spoke of her pleasant associations with the pupils. She does not intend to teach next year.

Plan Development

TIMMINS, June 29—(CP)— Plans for development of the Porcupine area were discussed Tuesday night at the inaugural meeting of the Porcupine Chamber of Commerce. Officials said they hope plans for the district would bring it back to its former position in the business world in the province.

HAVE YOU $10 in U.S. FUNDS?

If you have more than $10 in U.S. cash you should turn it in to your bank, in exchange for Canadian dollars, without delay. Existing regulations make it illegal for any Canadian resident to retain in his possession more than $10 in United States cash.

HERE'S THE REASON

Canada must have the U.S. dollars spent here by tourists in order to make them available for the payment of imported goods and services needed to keep production and employment at a high level.

Start Building New Centre; $50,000 Needed

COBOURG, June 29 (ENS) — Final legal formalities of municipal nature for the start of the new $150,000 recreational centre, were carried out Tuesday by the town council. The agreement between the town and the building committee was passed, as incorporated in the by-law as well as the by-law authorizing issue of the $50,000 debentures which will represent the grant of the ratepayers.

Counting the town grant, pledges, cash on hand and government grant, there is around $90,000 on hand and Mayor Joe Smith said that the contractor was willing to start with that amount at present available.

It is planned to get the building started and then go after the remaining $50,000 needed for he artificial ice. Councillors Frank Lapp and William Cooper opposed the agreement because it was $50,000 more than the estimate when the people voted the grant in 1947.

Some Thoughts On The Election

It was the scope of the Liberal victory rather than the victory itself, which provided the surprise of the election. The Liberals were confident of victory many weeks ago, and the cannier Conservatives knew also that victory for them was out of the question. Nevertheless the Conservative party hoped to make a decent showing, and there were many well-informed Conservatives who insisted until the bitter end that a victory for them was possible. The landslide which gave the Liberals 193 seats out of the possible 262 was not foreseen by either party.

• • •

The implications of this remarkable shift of popular support are staggering. The once-great Conservative party will be represented in the next Parliament by a seedy rump, in which there is no discernible germ of re-growth. The greatest concentration of Conservative power is now in the Central Ontario region, of which Peterborough West is the heart. Our adherence to a dying political faith in this district gives us a standing in politics similar to that which is enjoyed in religion by the Coffee-Potters, the Two-Seed-In-The-Spirit Predestinarians, and the Peculiar People. We live in the very heartland of Canadian Conservatism. Ontario remains the chief Conservative stronghold, though sadly weakened; outside this province only 17 Conservative candidates were elected. The parliamentary strength of the C.C.F., also, has dropped from 28 to 12. The party of the centre has gained heavily both from right and left.

• • •

What accounts for the crushing Conservative defeat? More than anything else the personality and campaign tactics of Mr. Drew must be held responsible. Too much vilification, too many unsupported cries of scandal, too much fuss about matters in which the average voter had no concern undid him. There was an angry and at times a querulous note in his campaign which fell unpleasantly upon the ear. In spite of many promises of benefits to come it was plain that his Conservatism was of the negative, rather than the positive kind. In Ontario he reaped the bitter harvest of the attack upon the Toronto Star trust—an attack which roused the anger even of those who have no special love for the Star. He suffered also from the ambiguous support of the Toronto Globe and Mail, the Telegram and the publisher of those papers, who injected himself prominently into Mr. Drew's campaign. The support of these three great forces is now the Kiss of Death for any ambitious politician. The people of Ontario, though patient, will not be bagooned, goaded and bamboozled into supporting any man.

• • •

It is rather shocking to find that even yesterday several Ontario newspapers are suggesting that Mr. Drew's days as party leader are numbered. The search for a leader in the Conservative ranks has reached a point of frenzy. And, as the party's fortunes decline it will be harder and harder to get a man of the first rank to take on that job. We think, however, that the Conservative party might have waited for a few days before sharpening the chopper.

• • •

How did Mr. St. Laurent and the Liberal party win the election? A fine record of performance in the past and a leader of proven worth and great personal charm provide a large part of the answer. And yet there were many votes against the Liberals: they were accused of being high-handed and there was a measure of truth in that charge; it was said that they had had a long term of power and that a change would be healthy, and there was truth in that, too. But they have given this country good government, and there was no sign that the Conservatives could do as well. The Liberal governments of the past seventeen years have been governments of professionals—of experts; there has been a feeling for some time that the Conservative ranks contain too many eager amateurs.

• • •

It has been suggested in several papers that there is something unhealthy about the Liberal victory. That is a matter of opinion. It is surely a sign that Canadians want stable and expert government, which is a healthy thing in the present state of the world's affairs. It is a sign, too, that Canadians recognize that rapid advance of social legislation and social change everywhere in the civilized world, and want a government which understands and moves with that trend, without embracing doctrinaire socialism. It might be argued that it is unhealthy for one party to remain in power for so long, but the answer to that is that the Liberal party has been careful to refresh and replenish its ranks with able young men who have been trained to take responsibility within the party. The failure of the Conservative party to do this has been one of the minor causes of its downfall; admittedly there is not much room for ambitious young men in Opposition, but certainly the chances which exist have not been very carefully exploited.

• • •

We cannot, in fact, see anything particularly unhealthy about the result of the election. The voters were urged to make it decisive, and they did so. The Liberal party will no doubt suffer a little from the gout and heartburn which commonly attend spectacular success, but those are trifles when compared with the wasting disease which afflicts Canadian Conservatism, and has brought it to what may be its deathbed.

Rapid Canadian Press Reporting

For the first time in the history of elections in Canada, the election of a new Federal Government was reported while ballots were still being marked in the three western provinces and Yukon-Mackenzie. By midnight the Canadian Press teletype machines in the Examiner's news room were tapping out the results from all but a half-dozen of the British Columbia ridings, even though the B.C. polls had closed only two hours earlier. Final decisions on all seats from coast to coast were on the wires to the Examiner and 89 other newspapers in the Dominion by two o'clock in the morning. It was the first time that a Dominion election standing was complete and reported completely the same night.

The reason for this remarkably rapid reporting was not entirely that the results were so decisive. No matter how soon returns from a polling booth in the Fraser or the Annapolis valley are given to Returning Officers on the spot, the information does not spread across the country like wildfire without some special agency. The agency was "CP", the "Canadian Press", which is a co-operative news distributing agency of ninety Canadian newspapers, and owned and operated by them jointly. Special telegraph machines called "teletypes" in the ninety newspaper offices which both receive and send news over CP wires sent local results to each other through ten central offices. At these bureaux—the chief one is in Toronto—the news received is sorted, edited and passed along the wires by CP staff. It was because of this co-operative organization and its special facilities that Canadians found out so quickly how their fellow citizens had voted.

So speedy has news coverage become that voters in the Western provinces would be able to learn how the vote in the East had gone even before they have cast their votes. Lest this information influence the way a western voter marks his ballot, the election act was amended in 1938 to prohibit any newspaper report or broadcast in any province before the close of that province's poll. It is an indirect tribute to the rapidity of the news service given this country.

NOTE AND COMMENT

One of the world's biggest problems is that so many $64 questions are receiving fifty cent answers.

"Toronto Barbers See $1 Haircuts", says a news heading. We'll bet they will also see long hair more often than they'll see the dollar for the cut.

Parents named Barr in Port Huron Michigan, have named their first daughter "Kandy". The first boy, we presume, will be christened "Krow".

An Ontario magistrate rebuked a man the other day for wanting five minutes in which to drink a glass of beer. Yet we read of a Cincinnati man who went out for a beer 32 years ago and has not returned home yet! Who says that the pace of life is more leisurely in Canada?

Press Voices Across Canada

(A Survey of Editorial Opinion on the Election Results)

Winnipeg Free Press (Ind.-Lib.): "The victory of the St. Laurent Government in yesterday's election, surprising only in its overwhelming dimensions, shows that the Canadian people approve the present policies of the nation and, with equal clarity, that they reject the lack of policy in the Conservative Party. As for the third alternative before the voters, socialism has met a shattering and, as it may prove, a fatal defeat. Electoral landslides have hitherto occurred only in the crisis of war. Nothing like this has ever happened in peace...."

Ottawa Citizen (Ind.-Lib.): "The people have returned Prime Minister St. Laurent and his cabinet with a solid mandate to press forward their program for social and economic justice for all Canadians....At the same time the Canadian electorate has devastatingly repudiated the negative, destructive, divisive policies of Mr. George Drew... The rebuke to the Drew-Duplessis-Houde-McCullagh forces of reaction was on a scale unprecedented in Canadian politics...."

✧ ✧ ✧

Edmonton Bulletin (Ind.): "The Liberal victory was due entirely to the fact that the Liberal Government was close to the realities and requirements of the people as a whole, while the Progressive Conservatives were remote from them. The Conservatives talked down to the voter. The Liberals talked with the voter. That was the secret of the election."

✧ ✧ ✧

L'Evenement-Journal (Independent): "As the oldest daily of French expression in Canada L'Evenement-Journal claims that the result of this election is the foundation of a new bonne entente of the loyal support of both the French and English speaking Canadians."

✧ ✧ ✧

Kingston Whig-Standard (Independent): "Insofar as this is a tribute to the magnificent record of Canada's wartime government, to the statesmanship of Mr. St. Laurent, and to the ability of the men in his cabinet, it is most satisfactory. It remains for Mr. St. Laurent and his government to accept the unprecedentedly great power given them with all due humility and responsibility, and to use it considerately in the nation's best interest."

✧ ✧ ✧

Toronto Star (Independent-Liberal): "The election is over and the heat which it engendered should be over too. The St. Laurent Government has been given an endorsation beyond what its most enthusiastic supporters, anticipated. It remains for the victors to be 'good winners,' and the defeated parties 'good losers.' There is one cause common to all—the promotion of Canada's welfare. That this is to be an easy task in view of world conditions, no one need imagine."

✧ ✧ ✧

Toronto Telegram (Independent): "The country has spoken and paid generous tribute to Mr. St. Laurent. In the result the Conservatives have no ground for self reproach. They presented the issues fairly and squarely. Their leader, George Drew, conducted a vigorous and straight-forward campaign. That these efforts were not crowned with success may be attributed to a trend all over the world. The people will not vote against Santa Claus."

✧ ✧ ✧

Victoria Colonist (Progressive Conservative): "What will hold the Liberal party in check? Will the Progressive Conservatives reform under Mr. Drew and prepare for a comeback....? Is the C.C.F. way down and out?....Mr. St. Laurent and his cabinet have been given an embarrassing and unhealthy degree of power...."

✧ ✧ ✧

Saint John Telegraph-Journal (Independent): The Liberal gains from the C.C.F., Social Credit and other experimental parties in the West have raised the hopeful possibility that one day in the not too remote future Canada may return to the time-tested and proven system of two strong national parties, each serving as a balance and check on the other when not in power.

✧ ✧ ✧

Charlottetown Guardian (Progressive Conservative): "...Gratifying to both parties is the fact that the results were decisive, leaving no room for third-party manipulation of the balance of power....The results also showed the fallacy of the Conservative strategy of attempting to outbid the Liberals in socialistic panaceas."

✧ ✧ ✧

Niagara Falls Evening Review (Independent): Yesterday's election results quite evidently indicated the people of Canada were not in the mood for a change in government. It is a pity that the opposition will be so weak—and it is probable that the Progressive Conservatives will be looking for a new leader.

✧ ✧ ✧

St. Thomas Times-Journal (Independent): To Prime Minister St. Laurent the election result is a great personal triumph in view of the fact that he is, in length of service, one of the youngest members of the House. His personality had as much, if not more, to do with it than anything else. Mr. Drew spent much time discussing issues that failed to arouse national interest—or cause the public to share his indignation.

✧ ✧ ✧

Oshawa Times-Gazette (Independent): "St. Laurent won because he displayed greater qualities of statesmanship and conducted a campaign which went to the hearts of the people. The rout of the Progressives was a disastrous personal defeat for George Drew. ....The people showed with no uncertain voice that they resented his efforts to dig up scandal and corruption where none existed."

✧ ✧ ✧

Sudbury Star (Independent): Various explanations will be offered for the Canada-wide Liberal victory. The oft-quoted expression is that a government never changes in good times. The Liberal landslide would appear to give support to this idea. The Liberal sweep may have an even deeper significance, the return to the two-party system of government in Canada. The country is not yet ready to embark upon a socialist experiment.

✧ ✧ ✧

Fort William Times-Journal (Independent): "While the victors rejoice over the extent of their gains, there must be among them a considerable number who today are sobered by the very size of their majority in the House of Commons. The numerical weakness of the opposition in the new parliament presents a grave problem to the government and the government supporters in the House—that of preserving democratic administration without an adequate check-rein."

Fredericton Gleaner (Independent): "The endorsations of the Liberal administration has been alike in each province. Undoubtedly there must be a reflection upon the provinces individually and provincial administrations which are linked with the federal administration will be all the stronger. It is very unlikely that some readjustment in federal-provincial relationship must take place."

Halifax Chronicle-Herald (Independent): "The government of Mr. St. Laurent is going to be able to carry on with a clear majority of members who were the accredited candidates of the government party and there will be no need for the kind of political 'log-rolling' that has been practiced so assiduously in other times."

✧ ✧ ✧

Kitchener-Waterloo Record (Independent): "Some Liberal supporters are not sure the best interests of the country are served by such a one-sided government set-up. (The C.C.F. defeat) is a clear indication that Canadians want to stick to free enterprise. The Conservatives have a longer way than ever to come back. It will take a lot of party fence-mending to make the Conservatives a force to be reckoned with."

✧ ✧ ✧

Stratford Beacon-Herald (Independent): "Crushing as the blow was to the Progressive Conservatives, it was almost annihilating to the C.C.F.....and combined opposition at Ottawa will be numerically weak and shaken in the new parliament. The solid Quebec bloc is now buttressed by the Liberal-Ontario—something unique in modern political history in this country. The outcome of the election is a big step in the return to the two-party system—something which is earnestly desired by hosts of people as the best hope for stable government."

Hamilton Spectator (Independent): "The present majority of the Liberal party in the Commons is not a good thing for the country; nor does it accurately reflect the feelings of the Canadian public; it will put a heavy onus on the Conservative party to ask itself—just once more—whether it might not be a good idea to be the Conservative party again, and not the Progressive middle-of-the-road maybe-Liberal-Conservative party that has its followers, and everyone else, confused."

North Bay Nugget (Independent): "Canada is in a period of 'good times'; and the voters apparently give the government credit for this condition. It's human nature, we suppose. If Canada had been suffering from a depression, the voters would have booted out the government just as emphatically as they supported it yesterday. There was nothing flukey about the Liberal victory. It was a definite trend right across the nation. The Liberals have received a tremendous show of confidence from the people and it is now up to the government to show that it was not misplaced."

THE CLOSE OF SCHOOL brings joy to the hearts of thousands of Ontario children today. Before them lies a seemingly endless period of play, with no one to please but themselves. Who would not be a child again?—Well, to be frank, we wouldn't. Childhood is (at times) a magical and golden period, but once is enough.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

The Lord is exalted; for he dwelleth on high; he hath filled Zion with judgement and righteousness. And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the Lord is his treasure....

Now will I rise, saith the Lord; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself.... Hear, ye that are far off, what I have done; and, ye that are near, acknowledge my might ....Thine eyes shall see the king in his beauty: they shall behold the land that is very far off....

Look upon Zion, the city of our solemnities: thine eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tabernacle that shall not be taken down; not one of the stakes thereof shall ever be removed, neither shall any of the cords thereof be broken. But there the glorious Lord will be unto us a place of broad rivers and streams: wherein shall go no galley with oars, neither shall gallant ship pass thereby.

For the Lord is our judge, the Lord is our lawgiver, the Lord is our king; he will save us. (Isa. 33: 5, 6, 10, 13, 17, 20-22.)

And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. (Rev. 19: 6.)

Unconsidered Trifles

A young couple asked the parson to marry them immediately after the Sunday morning service. When the time came the minister rose to say: "Will those who wish to be united in the holy bonds of matrimony please come forward?"

There was a great stir as thirteen women and one man approached the altar.

He was one of those bores who will talk to fellow passengers in trains. For an hour or more he had been wearying his companions.

When the ticket inspector came into the carriage, the braggart did not stop talking—he merely handed a ticket to the collector.

The latter looked at it and said: "Where are you going, sir?"

"Can't you read?" shouted the other. "You've got my ticket."

"I've got a ticket, sir," replied the collector, "but it's for a gold watch."

Two men were drawing up articles of partnership before their lawyer. The lawyer went over the document before the final signing and said suddenly: "But there are no mentions of fire or bankruptcy. These must go in."

"Quite right," said the partners, speaking at once. "Put them in, but the profits are to be divided equally in both cases."

A spinster was stopped on the street by a ragged man.

"Could you spare a dime for something to eat, ma'am?"

"Why are you begging—a big, strong man like you? I should think you'd be ashamed."

"Mademoiselle," he said, removing his hat and bowing courteously. "I am a disappointed romanticist. I have woven dreams of cobweb stuff and the wind has swept them away. And so I have turned to this profession—the only one I know in which a gentleman can address a beautiful girl without the formality of an introduction."

Yes, he got a dollar.

Here and There In Sport

By The Canadian Press

Bill Louth of Oakville Tuesday blazed over the par-72 Mississauga Golf Course in suburban Toronto with an 81 to top a field of 78 golfers in the qualifying round of the Ontario Junior Golf Championships.

His nine-over-par score gave him the honors in the Class A competition, open to boys from 16 to 18 years. A total of 18 boys qualified for the finals in the A division.

Today qualifying rounds will be staged at five other points — Hamilton, London, Windsor, Peterborough and Brockville. Big entry lists have necessitated qualifying rounds being held in various centres. The finals will be held at Weston, July 15.

President Frank Shaughnessy of the International League today will visit Quebec City to inspect the park and playing facilities of Quebec Braves—but he was mum about the chances of the Braves entering the triple-A Circuit.

Rumors that the Newark Bears franchise would be transferred have been common in baseball circles recently. The Bears are far down in last place in the International League and attendance has been low.

The Canadian-American League in which the Quebec team plays, is a Class-C loop.

At Dallas, Pete Gray, one-armed outfielder with the Dallas Club of the Texas League, Tuesday was given his outright release.

Gray, who figured in an incident Saturday which led to his arrest and subsequent release when it was found he was not intoxicated, said he will go to his home in Nanticoke, Pa., where he owns a business.

A former big-leaguer, he said he is uncertain about his baseball future.

At New York, welterweight king Ray (Sugar) Robinson said Tuesday he intends to be a fighting champion from now on. That depends, of course, on his defeating Kid Gavilan of Cuba in their 15-round title bout in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium July 11.

The Harlem flash, through manager George Gainsford, said he doesn't have trouble making the 147-pound welter limit and, besides, the middleweights won't have any part of him.

A 15-round return bout between Joe Maxim of Cleveland and Gus Lesnevich of Cliffside, N. J., for the NBA recognized American light heavyweight boxing crown was approved formally Tuesday by the Cincinnati Boxing Commission. The bout will be staged by promoters Sam and Benny Becker at Crosley Field Sept. 19. The Beckers are reported to have lost $40,000 when Maxim won the title from Lesnevich here a month ago.

At Westbury N. Y., William H. Cane's Good Time stepped the mile in 2:04 flat—fastest time in the history of Roosevelt Raceway for a three-year-old pacer—in winning the first division of the Village Farms Stakes Tuesday night. The second division went to L. M. Brown's Royal Blackstone, which was timed in 2:05 1-5.

Each division was worth $7,800, with the winners netting $3,510 apiece.

Minor Lacrosse

Siver's Shoes defeated Firestone 11-3 in a juvenile lacrosse game in Miller Bowl. Batley sparked their attack with five goals and an assist as B. Robinson got four and an assist, and G. Robinson had a goal and two assists. Teams:

Firestone — Nicholls, Alberico, Basciano, O'Donnel, Buchan, Caccavella, McConnachie, Vincent, McIlmoyle, Martin, Smith, Burns, Searle.

Silver's — Batley, Fitzgerald, Crough, Howson, Belsey, Collins, Telford, Kimball, B. Robinson, G. Robinson, Morrissey, Barker.

Cavanagh's copped a 6-2 midget win from Kiwanis, who were short on subs. Outwater, Fontaine, Daniels with two, Vondette and Dewar scored for the winners Doris and Buott tallied for the losers. Woodgate and Daniels each had one assist. Teams:

Kiwanis — Buott, Armstrong, Doris, Dunn, McTague, Hope, Chapman.

Cavanagh's — Fontaine, Woodgate, Dewar, Daniels, Scriver, Parry, Outwater, Legrow, Vondette, Batley, Crough, Noble.

All Saints' bantams beat Legion 11-4 in a free-wheeling fray. Goals were scored by these winning players: Kearns 3 Drury 4, Delahaye 2, Frizelle and O'Connell. Carleton with two, and Crowe and Mullen scored for the Legion. Mullen and Delahaye each assisted on one. Teams:

All Saints — Kearns, King, Fitzpatrick, O'Connell, Smythe, Frizzele, Delahaye, Drury, Ketcheson, Finn, Pearson, Sutherland.

Legion — Wilkinson, Heffernan, Burns, Mullen, Crowe, Blodgett, Sutherland, Carleton, Hillier, Goodson, Saunders, Ryan and Robbins.

Bethany Contests

BETHANY, June 29 (ENS) — The girls' softball senior team with Walter Price, the manager, played their second game of the league series at Yelverton on Monday night to win by a 13-7 score. Alta McGill, pitcher, Marie Carr, catcher, and Crystella Rowan took the honors knocking a home run.

Grace Kerr did a nice job at catching for the Yelverton girls, with Aileen and Madge Kerr, alternate pitchers.

Russell Kerr was umpire at the plate; Harvey Ginn on bases.

Next scheduled game is at Millbrook on Friday afternoon.

Bethany lost their game to Bailieboro on Monday night. In the second, Bethany got three runs. At the end of the third Bailieboro tied it up and scored four more in the fourth. In the fifth Bethany ran up another three, and in the first half of the seventh the score was tied again 7-7. Bailieboro got a break in the last half to win by an 8-7 score. E. Hie pitched for Bailieboro with M. Woods and Gerald Anderson catchers. A. Jackson starred for the Bailieboro team catching seven fly balls in right field.

M. Lowes pitched the first half for Bethany, and R. Edmunds the last half with Lloyd Capstick catcher.

J. McNeil was umpire at the plate; B. Dawson on bases.

Quakers Triumph

Quakers defeated Westclox 14-6 last night at Quaker Park in a fastball fixture. Their 13-run outburst in the first frame fixed it up right there, and they added one in the second. Westclox got three in the first, one in the fifth and two more in the eighth. Ash pitched steady ball for the winners and had good backing.

Teams:

Westclox—Heffernan, 1b; O'Donoghue, cf; Casey, 3b; McMasters, lf; Quigley, r; Guerin, ss Shearer, c; McElroy, 2b; Murdock p; Trennum, rf; McDonald, rf.

Stirling Victors

CAMPBELLFORD, June 29 — (ENS)—Stirling squeezed out Russ Ayrhart's nine by 5-4 in a TVL softball tussle Tuesday night before a large crowd. Don Holmes was a standout performer on the mound for the locals, going the whole route. Potts started hurling for the visitors but was relieved by Ray in the seventh with Rogers taking over before the finish. It was the best game seen here this season.

The teams:

Stirling—Bastedo 3b, Dafoe 1b, Kreh c, Rogers cf, Montgomery 2b, Donohue ss, Mason lf, Stocker rf, Potts p.

Campbellford—D. Robertson ss, Bibby 2b, D. Holmes p, J. Robertson lf, O'Sullivan 1b, G. Holmes c, Saunders rf, Robinson 2b, Herrington cf.

Today we Live in a Greater Canada

New Names in the NORTH

THERE's new activity in Ontario's bushland north of Lake Superior. Marathon and Red Rock, Terrace and Heron Bay: they all tell the same story. New towns have arisen, old ones expanded. Only five years ago on the site of Marathon, for example, there was nothing but bush; today a new community beside a new pulp mill is contributing millions to Canada's export trade.

Such spectacular developments in the north are matched by continuing industrial expansion in the older established communities. Throughout Canada today ever-widening avenues of opportunity await the enterprise of young Canadians.

With newsprint production 50% above prewar levels, Canada today has an output five times that of any other country, and accounts for three out of every five newspaper pages in the world.

"Canada is a land of opportunity . . . There is a field for almost anything one can think of, and anyone with a willingness for hard work has a good chance to achieve success", says Donald J. Smith, President of Hornet Industries Limited, Guelph, Ontario.

Hornet Industries Limited, which was founded in 1945, has in this short time achieved remarkable success in the manufacture of chain saws and combustion engines. More than half the production of the plant reaches markets outside Canada. From a staff of only a half dozen men in 1945, Hornet Industries Limited has expanded to three plants in Guelph, employing 296 workers.

Uniteds Grab A Shutout Over Outlaws

Bob Greenlaw hurled four-hit ball at the Bowl last night to earn an 8-0 shutout for Uniteds against Outlaws. The win jacked the Hancock-Fontaine team into a top-place tie with Cosmos in the City Softball League, pushing Outlaws further into third place, with Knights in second. After a slow start, it was a fairly fast fray before a good-sized gallery. Greenlaw allowed but one man to reach third as he whiffed 11 and walked only two. Three twirlers saw action for the Irwin-Godson gang, Eakins getting the loss.

George Sullivan led the winners at bat with a triple, double and single in four, hustling well on the paths. Scriver hit a homer and single in four, Bill Sullivan a double and single in four, and White two singles in four tries. Anderson got two of the Outlaws' four safeties in four appearances, one of the hits being a two-bagger.

Back from some stiff competition in top talent at the Canadian Open, the two local pros, Lex Robson and Gord Harrison, are keeping busy these days. The junior qualifying round for this OGA district goes today at the Peterborough Club, with local entries as well as a number from Port Hope, Cobourg and Belleville. Seven districts in the province. Qualifying round for the junior club championship is there this week-end. First round for the Glover Cup and first round for seniors for the McRae Cup are to be completed at the Kawartha Club by Monday. Club championship qualifying round goes till Monday, too, on the west side links.

Two former NHL defencemen made the St. Laurent Liberal team in the elections the other day. Bucko McDonald, former Toronto and Detroit blue-line bumper, went back again in the Parry Sound-Muskoka riding. While Lionel Conacher, former all-around athlete, won in Toronto Trinity. The Big Train, now a successful Toronto business man, once starred in hockey, rugby, lacrosse, boxing, swimming and track. Dit Clapper of this borough, one of the NHL all-time greats, made a real bid here but didn't quite make it in his first try at politics. Doc Ames, CCF, former puck star with Varsity, lost out in Timiskaming, and Walt Martin—oldtime ace tennis player—ran second in York East.

Loop Leaders Busy

Senior Petes, now leading the COBL—and loop winners last season—play four games in the next three days. They tackle the bearded House of David team under the lights at 8.30 in Riverside tomorrow night, the visitors bringing along a first-class set of arcs. Canisius College, that classy Buffalo squad, comes on Friday, July 1, for an afternoon double-header. At two and four on the holiday, for one admission price. And then the locals trek to Bella Villa on Saturday to tangle with the Batawa Shoemen. They'll feel like a rest by Sunday, no doubt.

Manager Eddie Murphy says he might yet have to take over second base for a time. While the team is still atop the heap, he is worrying about Oshawa Merchants and trying hard to get a real winning combination on the field. Recently he sat out Cack Pagett and Bob Crowe, as the work around the keystone sack wasn't just up to par. Either or both may be back shortly, but Eddie is still experimenting. Likewise in the outfield, and you may yet see Joe Lowrey, Tommy Foley and Pat Wilson the regular gardeners. His pitching isn't too bad, nor his catching, but Bill Edger's return would be a big help. Edwardson hasn't been hitting too well lately, either.

Two Tied Atop Heap

Some good men's softball seen by a hefty gallery at the Bowl last evening, especially in the opening game. It was a 3-2 win for Cosmos against Knights, and anyone's tilt till the last out. Dalton and Guilfoyle hooked up in a neat mound duel, with Wyatt and Vic Griffin leading the hitters. Errors cost Knights the game, but none of the runs were earned. Uniteds blanked Outlaws 8-0 in the nightcap on Bob Greenlaw's four-hit hurling chore. Red Sullivan and Anderson led the stickers in this one. That leaves Cosmos and Uniteds atop the heap in a tie, a full game in front of Knights, who lead Outlaws by three. Games there tomorrow night: Knights vs. Outlaws, and Jewellers vs. Cosmos.

St. George's won the Church Softball League peewee title and St. James are bantam champs. So now these teams will playoff in suden-death games for the city church titles against Catholic Softball League winners. George Sullivan is putting up a peewee trophy and the Jaycees will give a bantam cup for city supremacy. St. George's tangle with St. Petes at seven tonight on the Orphanage diamond, while St. James play St. John's there at seven p.m. tomorrow to settle these championships. These playoffs have been arranged this season for the first time by Ted Naish and Max Board. Junior and senior church playoffs continue this week.

LAWN BOWLING

By HERB MARTIN

With 26 first-year players entered, the annual competition for the P. J. Giffen Trophy got under way last evening. And while it was called a novice event, from what we saw of some of the games, they were anything but novice.

The competition creates a lot of interest and this year with such a large entry, there seems to be more interest than usual.

Likely some of the boys reached as far as the eights and the games will be continued sometime early next month. Ron Knox and Walter Perks are the conveners and they are doing a swell job.

We see by the papers that notices for the annual Globe and Mail doubles—ladies' and gents—have been sent out.

There is only room for 10 more pairs in the big Lift Lock doubles tournament, set for Wednesday, July 13.

The draw for the ladies' club singles has been made and is posted up in the clubrooms.

Don't forget the big mixed rink tournament this evening. Bob Hendry and Geo. Soulby will be on hand early to receive your phone call. Be on time. It's 7.30 o'clock.

Today's thought—Have the best; or make the best of what you have.

Cosmos Take 3-2 Win From Knights

Cosmopolitan Club edged out a 3-2 win over Knights of Columbus at the Bowl last night to go into a first-place City Softball League tie with Uniteds, with Knights dropped to second spot. They are now a full game back of the two leaders, but three games in front of Outlaws. A good-sized crowd saw a snappy scrap last evening, with none of the runs earned, and Knights' errors costing them the contest.

Howie Dalton had a slight edge on Ken Guilfoyle in the box, but both gave up just eight hits each, and Ken's support wobbled. Wyatt led the winners at bat with three for four as Thomson and Dalton tripled and Mackness had a double and single. For Knights, Vic Griffin had two in three tries, and Conlin two for four, no one getting an extra-base blow. The victors pulled off one nice double-play.

Red Wings Defeat Syracuse 7-0

By The Associated Press.

The chief fault of Tom Poholosky, young righthander of Rochester Red Wings, is his penchant for throwing home run balls.

Poholosky leads International League pitchers in tossing home run pitches with 18 but when the 19-year-old rookie leaves his gopher pitch in the club house, he's a tough man to beat as Syracuse Chiefs found out Tuesday night.

The big recruit turned in his best game of the season in pitching the Wings to a 7-0 one-hit triumph over the Chiefs in the second game of a doubleheader. The victory was his ninth of the season as against four defeats.

Dick West ruined Poholosky's bid for a no-hitter with a two-out double in the seventh inning. Poholosky walked only one batter and fanned ten.

The Wings also won the opener 3-2 in nine innigs with Dick Burgett driving home the payoff run to give Dav Dusak his fifth triumph. The scheduled seven-inning game was sent into overtime when husky Steve Bilko parked his 14th homer with a mate on in the sixth inning.

Bob Hooper pitched the pace-setting Buffalo Bisons to an 8-3 three-hit triumph over Baltimore Orioles to extend his winning streak to seven games.

Swamp Giants

The runner-up Montreal Royals swamped Jersey City Giants 11-5, to remain four games back of the Bisons. The Royals broke a 5-5 tie with a pair of markers in the fifth and were never headed.

Sam Jethroe was the big gun in the Royal triumph. The Negro speedster cracked out two doubles and a single in as many trips, drove home three runs, scored two, and stole two bases. Turk Lown, who relieved starter JoJhnny Van Cuyk in the second, received credit for his first victory. Lown has dropped seven games.

Skeeter Webb singled home pinch-runner Bubber Church with the winning run in the first game to extend Newark's losing streak to seven games. Joe Valenzuela went all the way for Newark and suffered his seventh loss compared to one victory.

The Bears jumped on Al Porto and Max Peterson for seven runs in the second inning of the nightcap but the Leafs got back into the game and it took some nice relief pitching by Frank Lamanna to save the Bears' hide. Ed Sanicki poled his 21st homer for the Leafs in the fourth inning.

MANDY'S IN VANCOUVER—Mandy, the dog that worried airline officials in Goose Bay, Labrador, so much last week, has arrived in Vancouver. Mandy, a friendly dog who like to be talked to, escaped from airline keepers on a stopover at Goose Bay and was recaptured. Last week Goose Bay officials said the dog could run faster than huskies and they were unable to get with 50 feet of him. The mongrel was shipped to Dr. Z. Urbanek in Vancouver. He is shown above with stewardess Billie Stewart.

DiMaggio Back In Action Helps Yanks To 5-4 Win

By JOE REICHLER,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Two things became clear today. Joe DiMaggio, ailing heel and all, still is the most electrifying figure in baseball and the New York Yankees are definitely the team to beat for the American League flag.

It will be a long time before the 36,228 Boston fans lured out Tuesday night to Fenway Park by the prospect of seeing Joe back in action, will forget DiMag's 1949 debut. They saw Joe cover himself with glory as the Yankees defeated their favorites 5-4. They know now that the Red Sox face a herculean task to overcome New York's six game bulge.

DiMag, who missed the Yankees' first 65 games because of an inflamed right heel, wasted no time proving that he had lost none of his greatness. Facing 20-year-old Maurice McDermott in the second inning Joe lined a single to left centre. Two outs later, he and Johnny Lindell scored ahead of Hank Bauer's home run to give the Yankees a 3-0 lead.

DiMag came up for his second time at bat in the third. There were two outs and one on. He rifled a fast pitch into the left field screen for a home run to put his team in front 5-0. That was the ball game, as the Red Sox came back to knock out Allie Reynolds in the ninth and come within one run of tying it up.

DiMaggio had six chances in the field and gobbled them up neatly. He drew one of McDermott's three bases on balls and grounded out in his fourth appearance.

Tougher Now

The question now confronting not only the Red Sox but the other contenders as well is: if the Yankees were tough to beat without DiMaggio, how are they going to be beaten with him?

The runner-up Philadelphia Athletics remained 4½ games behind New York, whipping Washington Senators, 6-1, behind the seven-hit pitching of Alex Kellner. The rookie lefthander won his 11th game to join the Yankees' Vic Raschi as the top winning pitcher in the majors.

Cleveland moved into third place by a few percentage points over the Red Sox and Detroit, defeating the Tigers 4-2. Bob Lemon bested Virgil Trucks, helping his own cause with a double to score the run that broke a 2-2 tie.

Johnny Sullivan's double and Gerry Priddy's single gave the St. Louis Browns a 12th inning run that beat the Chicago White Sox, 7-6.

Brooklyn retained its one game lead over St. Louis in the National League. The Dodgers defeated the Phils at Philadelphia 5-3, while the Cards shut out Chicago Cubs in St. Louis 5-0. New York Giants shaded the Boston Braves, 2-1. Pittsburgh and Cincinnati were rained out.

Duke Snider's three-run homer off Robin Roberts in the seventh broke a 2-2 deadlock to give the Dodgers' Preacher Roe his seventh victory.

Queenston Man Lions President

QUEENSTON, June 29.—(CP).—Walter C. Fisher of Queenston, who will assume the presidency of Lions International July 18, is a successful peach farmer in this Niagara district town, seven miles southeast of St. Catharines.

The 43-year-old, 200-pound business man is a junior partner in the family's fruit business, which produces peaches on 100 acres of the most valuable agricultural land in Canada.

Mr. Fisher joined the St. Catharines Lions Club in 1933, and eight years later became president. He became an international director in 1945 and the following year was elected third vice-president. He moved upward to the second and first vice-presidencies and this year takes over as international president.

He is the second Canadian to hold the office in the 32-year history of the organization. First Canadian president was Harry Newman, Toronto barrister, who took office in 1924.

"THE 10 GALLON TEST CONVINCED ME!"

R. H. NOBLE, Automobile Dealer
Brantford, Ont.

"The Ten Gallon Test proved to me that Dynafuel is a superior gasoline. The ten gallons I used in the test gave me extra miles of smooth driving and generally pepped-up engine performance. I'm now a permanent Dynafuel user."

B. B. KENNEDY, Builder
Toronto, Ont.

"Until I made the Ten Gallon Test, I was dubious about the claim that Dynafuel is different from ordinary gasoline. But that ten gallons was a revelation! My car is performing with a bonus of high knockless power and running sweeter than ever before. You can take my word for it . . . Dynafuel is the best value for your gasoline dollar."

J. E. HAMILTON, Railroad Agent
Montreal, P.Q.

"I wish I'd made the Ten Gallon Test with Dynafuel years ago. I'm getting more satisfaction out of driving than ever before, because I have the feeling that my car is giving its best performance. I notice a decided improvement in accelerating power particularly . . . and I get instantaneous starts in all weather."

MERLIN J. GILROY, Electrician
Myrtle, Ont.

"In my opinion, Sunoco Dynafuel is decidedly superior to ordinary gasoline. When I made the Ten Gallon Test, I noticed the difference immediately. I get 28 miles of smooth, knockless performance from every gallon of Dynafuel with a standard size 6-cylinder car. No wonder I'm a regular Dynafuel customer now!"

THOUSANDS OF NEW USERS SAY...

"I'LL NEVER GO BACK TO ORDINARY GASOLINE"

SUNOCO DYNAFUEL

Make the 10 Gallon Test in your car and prove for yourself . . . that no other gasoline gives

1. LONGER MILEAGE
2. HIGHER KNOCKLESS POWER
3. FASTER ACCELERATION
4. QUICKER STARTS

AND REMEMBER... For best results, don't dilute Sunoco Dynafuel with other gasoline. Wait until your tank is nearly empty—then put in 10 gallons of Dynafuel. Compare its action against the best gasoline you ever used.

10 GALLONS OF SUNOCO DYNAFUEL WILL CONVINCE YOU!

More Telephone Workers...

AND HIGHER WAGES HAVE GREATLY INCREASED OUR COSTS

IN THE PAST five years the number of employees has doubled and our payroll has gone up from 20 million dollars to over 50 million dollars. Yet, up to now, despite rising costs on all sides there has been no increase in the basic telephone rates established 22 years ago.

To meet unprecedented post-war demand for more telephones, our expansion and improvement of service have of necessity taken place in a period of rapidly rising costs. Most businesses have offset their higher costs by higher prices for their products. We have not yet done so.

You can be sure we will keep on doing our best to provide you with adequate and constantly improving telephone service — and to provide it at the lowest rates consistent with a fair return to our investors and employees.

Herwig of Ottawa, left, chairman of the memorial award committee, presents the Canadian Women's Press Club award for 1948 and 1949 to Miss Lotta Dempsey, centre, of Toronto Globe and Mail and Miss Dorothy Howarth of Toronto Telegram. Miss Dempsey won her "Oscar" for a feature story "We The People vs. The Sex Criminal" written in 1948 when she was a staff writer on Chatelaine. Miss Howarth's series on Newfoundland, written prior to that province's entrance into confederation, won her the 1949 award.

Feet Sheared Off

RENO, Nev., June 29 (AP) — Deputy Sheriff F. W. Brenzel Tuesday identified the pilot of a speedboat that sheared off the feet of a young girl swimmer in Lake Tahoe Monday as Phil Davis, wealthy Oakland, Calif., automobile dealer. Davis said he was "flabbergasted" when he learned of the incident as he was docking his speedboat.

NEW YORK, June 29 (CP) — The New York Times says today in an editorial that if Monday's election in Canada proved anything it "showed that a large plurality of Canadians want a moderately left-of-centre government." The Times adds that the election also showed "full confidence" in Prime Minister St. Laurent.

To Remove Poles

TORONTO, June 29 — (CP) — A three-year project for removal of 43,408 wooden poles and overhead wiring from downtown Toronto streets was approved Tuesday at city council meeting. Cost to the city is estimated a $290,000, with about $80,000 to be spent this year.

Bus Connection With Train Off

Several complaints have been lodged by CNR train passengers that there is no longer a Peterborough bus to meet the Montreal-Toronto pool train at Port Hope on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

Colonial Coach Lines Ltd. has purchased the business of the Collacutt Coach Lines which operated a bus to meet the 9:31 DST train on those particular days. Colonial has discontinued this service.

On week nights there is the regular bus for Peterborough leaving Port Hope at 8:10 DST and arriving 9:31 DST. This leaves before the Montreal train gets to Port Hope. But on holidays and Sundays Colonial has continued thee special bus leaving Port Hope at 10:55 p.m. DST.

Week night passengers object that they must stop over night or catch a taxi if they wish to reach Peterborough, and even on holidays and Sundays there is a long wait.

A couple of years ago a similar situation arose on the Port Hope line, but a solution was found after the Chamber of Commerce used its influence to restore the service.

On Sundays and holidays the Collacutt Lines had a bus to meet the 9:31 p.m. train and the special Toronto-Peterborough run, which stopped to pick up passengers for Peterborough at the Port Hope depot at 11. The latter bus continues to run under the new management.

Fight Klu Klux Klan

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 29 (AP)—Alabama Tuesday ripped the mask off the Ku Klux Klan and kindred organizations in a move to halt a wave of hooded terrorism. Legislation to prohibit the wearing of masks in public was signed into law by Governor James E. Folsom within minutes after it passed the House of Representatives.

Aussies Freeze While Coal Stays On Ship

SYDNEY, Australia, June 29 (CP)—While Australians go short on hot meals, hot baths and winter heating to save coal, 7,000 tons of it have been lying for four months in the holds of the Canadian-owned collier, Haligonian Duke, in Melbourne.

The Canadian ship yesterday was the subject of a sharp exchange in the Federal House of Representatives at Canberra between Prime Minister Chifley and Robert G. Menzies, Liberal leader of the opposition.

After Menzies criticized the government for not producing coal at a time of crisis, caused by the wages-and-hours strike this week of all Australian coal miners, Chifley said the state government of Victoria—a Liberal administration—which chartered the Haligonian Duke to bring coal to Victoria, was unable to get waterfront workers to unload the coal.

Start Talks

From Melbourne it was reported that secret negotiations have been started in an effort to end the deadlock which began when the Haligonian Duke arrived in Melbourne from India Feb. 22. The Victoria branch of the Australian Seamen's Union, at the request of the Canadian Seamen's Union, at that time refused to work the ship because it carried a non-union crew.

The Australian Waterside Workers' Federation also imposed a ban and tugs refused to tow the ship from her pier. Suggestions by Australian unions that the crew be repatriated and a new Canadian crew sent out were rejected by the owners as too expensive. However, demurrage charges and harbor dues probably have topped £30,000 (about $97,500) already.

SCAN RESULTS — Although the landslide victory of the Liberal party became evident at an early hour Monday night, Mr. and Mrs. George Drew scanned returns with interest until a late hour. Here Dick Bell, centre, national director of the Progressive Conservative party points out a salient fact in returns and the PC leader and his wife look on.

Illegal Entry To U.S. Charged

BUFFALO, N.Y., June 29 — (AP)—Charles A. Doyle, former international vice-president of the United Chemical Workers (CIO) was seized last night on a warrant charging illegal entry into the United Sattes.

United States District Aorney George L. Grobe said Doyle probably would be charged wih violation of the immigration law and entering the country illegally.

For more than a year, the government has sought to deport Doyle to his native Scotland as an alien with alleged Communist connections.

He was denied re-entry to the United States at Niagara Falls in January, 1948, while returning from a labor meeting at Windsor.

A month later he appeared in New York City and surrendered. In March, 1948, his deportation hearing in New York was adjourned subject to recall by the government.

Doyle came to the United States about 20 years ago. Authorities claim he has never become an American citizen.

Hold Six Seamen Following Riot

PORT ALBERNI, B.C., June 29 —(CP)—Police said last night they are holding without charge six unidentified seamen following a riot in this Vancouver island town.

Hospital officials said four other seamen, also unidentified, have been admitted for treatment and that two still are in the operating room suffering stab wounds and other injuries.

It is believed the seamen involved are from the eastern-owned S.S. Triland and the S.S. Canam, both in port here. The former is manned by Canadian Seamen's Union men and the latter by the rival Seafarers' International Union (A.F.L.) men.

First reports said a fight broke out in a downtown hotel and that it kept on in the street.

Port Alberni is situated at the end of Alberni Inlet, leading out to the west coast of the island 80 miles northwest of Vancouver.

Do You Know...

Rice-throwing is a survival of ancient Oriental rites. In the East rice is a symbol of health and prosperity, and rice-throwing symbolizes the bestowal of wealth and happiness on the bridal pair.

Do You Know . . . that in Saxon times wheat and barley were scattered for brides to walk on and many believe that rice-throwing is an adaptation of this custom?

Do You Know . . . that ancient superstition has it that spirits hovered about weddings and rice was thrown to them as food in order to pacify and satisfy them?

Stewardess Tells Dockers To Work

LONDON, June 29—(SP)—Stewardess Mary Lecompte of Verdun, Que., the only woman involved in the Canadian Seamen's strike here, is back aboard the Beaverbrae.

"If the strikers want me off this ship again they will have to carry me," said the plump 45-year-old stewardess.

"Tell the dockers to go back to work and let us go back to Canada. This dispute has been on long enough."

Mrs. Lecompte's 19-year-old son, Henry, assistant pantry man on the Beaverbrae, went back with his mother.

The Beaverbrae has been tied up in London docks by the strike since April. Mrs. Lecompte, who went to sea to support her sick husband, said the strike has hit her hard financially.

The C.S.U. called the strike March 31 when Canadian ship owners in the east signed contracts with the rival Seafarers' International Union (A.F.L.)

Drove Dangerously Shooting Golf, Movies

ISLINGTON, June 29)CP) — An Ottawa movie executive was warned in court Tuesday to place public safety above professional expediency.

Charged with dangerous driving, while shooting scenes at St. George's Golf and Country Club during the Canadian Golf Open, Roderick Sparks was verbally scolded in court. He was then ordered to pay a $40 fine.

Roderick told the court he was hurrying to get an interview and splashed mud over pedestrians and skimmed a policeman. "In our business we can't be too polite or we'll never get anywhere," he said.

Toronto Man Wins Naval Scholarship

TORONTO, June 29 — (CP) — C. Stanton Stevenson of Toronto, only Canadian student ever to win the Princeton University Naval Scholarship and Columbia University National Scholarship, will accept the Princeton award, it was learned today.

The 17-year-old graduate of Upper Canada College will be enrolled in the American Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps. The Princeton scholarship is for a four-year period.

Stevenson won general proficiency prizes during his five years at the Toronto college and has received numerous academic and extra-curricular honors.

Car Fails To Stop

Two cars collided Sunday night at the corner of George and Argyle Sts. resulting in $420 worth of twisted grills and fenders.

One car, driven by Irene Wicks, 712 Victory Crescent, travelling west along Argyle St., was hit just as it crossed the George St. intersection by a car operated by Thomas E. Barton, Lakefield.

Barton told investigating police he had failed to see the stop sign. Skid marks from the Barton car were 30 feet long.

Damage to the Barton car were, a caved-in grill, a burst radiator, dents on both front fenders and a bent bumper amounting to $280.

A bent right front wheel and fender was the damage suffered fender and a dented rear right by the Wicks car with a total estimated cost of $140.

Biologist Tells Game Assoc'n Of Creel Census

Peterborough Fish and Game Protective Association had a well-attended meeting at the K. of C. Hall on Monday night. It was their last gathering of the season until Sept. 6. President Campbell Rowatt in the chair and past projects were reviewed.

Charles Weir, biologist for the Department of Lands and Forests, Kawartha district, spoke on the importance of fishermen keeping a rigid creel census. From the information plotted on these cards, the Government is able to determine an all-over picture of fish populations in various lakes in the district which in turn would be their basis for restocking programs.

A new subject for the club to deal with was pollution problem in lakes and streams of this area. The Association decided to set up a fact-finding committee to study polluted areas and eventually to encourage communities to control such nuisances for the improvement fish conservation.

Regrets Short Hunt

A study was made of amendments to the 1948 Fish and Game Act, chiefly the shortening of the deer hunting season in 1949 from Nov. 14 to 23rd inclusive. Members regretted that these new dates will allow only nine days hunting since a Sunday is included in between dates.

Norman Bradley gave an extensive report on the Association's reforestation program. He reported the seedling trees planted around May 1st at Buckley's Lake were doing well regardless of the recent drought and thanked the Peterborough Boy Scout Association for their fine assistance in the program. Mr. Bradley was appointed acting chairman for their revived Rifle Club section to further promote rifle, pistol and skeet shooting.

In closing the meeting, Mr. Rowatt urged all members that when the association drafted future resolutions for ultimate legislation, that conservation should be the foremost feature and to be in interests of the majority rather than a few members.

5,000 Children On Holiday As Schools Close

Summer begins officially for the 5,000 pupils in Peterborough's Public and Separate Schools today. To them summer is not here until they can play games and swim without the interruption of the ringing of the school bell.

At 2 p.m. or thereabouts they flocked from the doors of the schools, some sorrowful and others (the great majority) happy as larks.

In small ceremonies in each classroom of the schools in the city the teachers presented reports and promotions were made. In the Separate schools a report is sent home through the year four times. At the end of the term the report is signed by the teacher noting whether the pupil passed. If the pupil did not pass, a statement by the teacher tells the parents the reason for the failure.

Public school pupils are given report cards to be taken home four times through the year. On the closing day promotion cards are given the pupils signifying the passing of the pupil. In case of a failure a letter is sent home to the parents explaining why the pupil failed and the teacher's reasons for the pupil repeating the grade.

In the Public schools there are 3,700 pupils. In the Separate schools 1,204. The number of children to be promoted to the next grade is about 4,500. One school official said the average number of failures each year is about 10 per cent.

In the Separate schools parents have started to register their children in grade I for the coming term as there are no kindergartens.

In preparation for kindergarten in the fall 372 pre-school children recently had medical tests, P. D. Windrim, Public school inspector, explained.

At the Collegiate yesterday and today 91 pupils from the grade VIII classes of the city schools have been writing examinations. They are pupils who failed to attain high enough marks to be recommended for promotion.

Untagged Dogs

The 550 city residents who have not yet bought tags for their dogs are likely to come up against the law within the next few days. Dog licenses were due June 1 but so far only 750 of the 1,200 tags have been bought.

Lakefield situation is much the same. Chief Garnet Samis has sold only 35 of the 200 for the village.

$1,500 Upstair Fire, Smoke Damage Brock St. House

Fire that badly-damaged a second-storey bedroom and destroyed the contents broke out Tuesday night at the residence of Hugo A. Elkie, 209 Brock St. Loss is set at $1,500. Cause of the blaze is not known and is being investigated by Fire Chief George Smith.

Had the walls not been insulated the fire would have broken through into the attic of the house and caused an even heavier loss, Chief Smith told the Examiner. As it was the bedroom was seriously damaged and the contents—a bed, table, clothes and other minor furnishings—were charred.

Heavy Smoke

There was also a loss due to heavy smoke in the second floor and attic, and in a couple of places water dripped down through the ceiling into the room below.

The bedroom was occupied by J. Romaniuk. He told firemen he left his room shortly before 10 p.m. and when he came back about 10 minutes later the fire was well under way. He stated he was unaware how the blaze began.

Mrs. Ruby G. Brooks, Dalhousie St., owns the duplex.

Large Crowd

As the scene of the fire was so close to the downtown area it attracted a large rowd of curious onlookers. Firemen helped clean up he debris and mess and did not get back to the Station until shortly before midnight.

There seemed to be more excitement among the crowd than on the balcony of the smoking house. On it, which was next the smouldering room, a man sat placidly during the whole affair, seeming to be as interested in the crowd as the crowd was in the fire.

Boys' City Camp To Be Held

The annual YMCA Vacation Club for boys who stay in the city during the summer months will be held for two weeks this year from July 4 until July 15. This club provides a varied program of activities suitable for the hot summer days, being much the same as those at a lakeside camp. The program runs from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Other YMCA's call this camp their "City Camp."

Swimming is featured, with lessons for both the beginner and the experienced swimmer. A swim period is being held each morning and afternoon. Also in the morning there will be a general assembly with a program of entertainment supplied by the boys. Each day a period will be held for craft work. Other things included in the program are hiking, canoeing (on Little Lake for experienced swimmers), an overnight trip, archery, and tours through some of the local factories.

Boys from 8 years to 14 years are allowed to join. Registration will commence Saturday at the YMCA. Al Clark, physical director, will be in charge of the club.

97 Per Cent Use Vote

Ninety-seven per cent of the residents on St. Catherines St. and Arndon Ave. who were entitled to vote in the Federal election went to the polls Monday.

Traffic Control In City To Be Studied

Mayor Max Swanston of Peterborough is writing to Mayor Hiram McCallum of Toronto to ask for help in devising a system for controlling traffic in this city. Traffic problems have been the concern of Mayor Swanston, members of city council and the Police Commission for many months. The Police Commission whose responsibility it is to have traffic controlled efficiently in this city, has already sought and been assured of sufficient funds from the council to increase the police force by three men.

Peterborough's mayor is asking Mayor McCallum to send one of his best traffic control sergeants to this city to make a survey on traffic control here and to work for a time with city police on point duty.

If the Toronto police sergeant comes to Peterborough, his suggestions for better control of traffic will be considered by the Police Commission before it is decided whether to form a special traffic squad within the city police force.

Special Traffic Squad?

Formation of a section of the force to deal only with traffic was recommended to the Commission recently by Chief John Thompson. At the moment there are two traffic officers, he told the Commission, and they are often serving summonses and performing other duties instead of controlling traffic.

The city force was brought up to full strength of 31 men Tuesday, when the Commission appointed John Alfred Conlin, 505 Aylmer St. as a constable, to fill the vacancy caused by the recent retirement of Inspector James Reid.

The Inspector was replaced by Inspector John Naples, who is now Deputy Chief Constable and the new sergeant is Leo Murphy, a former first class constable.

Force of 33

Mr. Conlin is aged 22 and is six feet tall. He served in the Army and Navy during the war and has since worked as a clerk. Having lived in Peterborough for several years, he played football last season for the Peterborough Panthers. Before coming to this city he lived in Hamilton.

The Police Commission decided Tuesday to advertise for two additional constables, bringing the strength of the force up to 33 men.

Rev. J. J. O'Leary Named Monsignor

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., June 29—(CP)—Two Sault parish priests Rev. Father L. Belcastro and Rev. Father J. J. O'Leary have been made domestic prelates with the title of Right Reverend Monsignor according to an announcement today by Rt. Rev. Monsignor T. J. Crowley.

Word of the elevation by the Holy See was received recently by Most Rev. R. H. Dignan, Bishop of Sault Ste. Marie.

Father Belcastro has been parish priest at Mount Carmel Church for 32 years. He was ordained in 1903 in Italy. Father O'Leary was born at Peterborough and ordained in 1918. He has served as a priest for 31 years at Lindsay, Sudbury and Sault Ste. Marie.

George S. White Majority Over All 1,179

Late arriving election results from the outlying northern districts of Hastings-Peterborough riding confirmed the substantial majority returning Progressive Conservative George S. White to a lonely parliament seat in the Liberal-packed house.

The final totals were: J. Haffey (CCF) 726; J. W. "Duke" Munro (Liberal) 4,661, and George S White (PC) 6,566. Giving White a lead of 1,905 over Munro and a majority of 1,179.

Final figures were delayed in arriving to Returning Officer H. W Sabine, editor of the Marmora Herald, in his Marmora office.

Four entire townships were not heard from until noon today. Many of the deputy returning officers did not have phones by which they could flash their tabulations. Instead they sent them in by mail which follows a roundabout route from Bangor, Wicklow, McClure and Mayo. The vote from these was too small to affect the standings of the candidates appreciably.

Following is the record of the vote in townships just completed:

UE Local Meet To Press Points

Another membership meeting has been called tonight by the UE-CIO to consider a further course of action in the union's dealings with the CGE on present contract negotiations.

Last Sunday the members of Local 524 passed a resolution that if the company made no substantial contribution toward meeting the major union rquests, a meeting to decide on the next course of action would be held tonight.

The mass rally will be held in the Brock Street Summer Gardens at 7:30 p.m. C. S. Jackson, district president, and the Peterborough members of the UE-GE Joint Negotiating Committee will be present.

Union's Four Points

Four major points have been put forward by the union: 40-hour week with increased take-home pay; union security; seniority protection and improved grievance procedure; and a health and welfare plan.

According to the union the company has made little or no contribution to resolve these issues, hence tonight's meeting.

The Joint Committee and the company met again early today at Queen's Park with Louis Fine, OLRB mediator, presiding.

WIRING SHORT CIRCUITS

Firemen had a minor call Tuesday night. Defective wiring in an electric fixture at the residence of William E. Foster, Townsend St., started to smoke and the Fire Department was called. Only slight damage was reported.

SKULL OF FEMALE FOUND

The skull of an unidentified female, found buried near the village of Coboconk, has been sent to Toronto for investigation. Provincial police said the skull and other bones were discovered by employees of a construction company. Police are checking lists of missing persons in the district.

HOLD OPEN MEETING

The regular quarterly meeting will be held tonight by the Chamber of Commerce to discuss four civic matters, the city manager, parking meters on the market square, the ward system and the closing of gas stations at 7.

FREE HOLIDAY GIFT

The City and District Branch of the United Emergency Fund for Britain has received a donation from the Junior Red Cross of Room 6 at Central School, another has also been received from Peterbprough Chapter No. 486, Women of the Moose, per Mrs. Marion Baindwin.

IN COLLISION

Riding east on Hunter St. Tuesday afternoon Donald Stewart, 496 Mark St. collided on his motorcycle with a car driven by William Shearer of Birdsall. No damage was done to the car but the crash guard on the motorcycle was bent. Mr. Stewart received two small cuts and bruises behind his left ear. Skid marks on the pavement showed that Stewart had tried to turn the motorcycle around. But it apparently grazed the front door of the car. Const. Harold Mesley investigated.

Provincial police at Peterborough headquarters are no longer envying the city police constables their shirt sleeves. Orders were issued Tuesday permitting provincial constables to go without their tunics in hot weather.

FRACTURED LEG

William Steele, RR 1, Keene, suffered a fractured leg in a motor accident Tuesday evening on the Otonabee Road. He was taken to Civic Hospital and treated by Dr. J. D. Forde. His condition today is reported to be "satisfactory."

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

Crown Attorney Lorne Jordan of Lindsay said Tuesday that A. S. Davies, 43, of Toronto, has been charged with manslaughter in connection with a level-crossing accident Monday in which Elsie Pryor, 18, a Toronto model, lost her life. Davies is in hospital in Linday with minor injuries.

LIQUOR STORE OPEN

During July and August the local Liquor Control Board store at Water and Brock streets will be open on Wednesday afternoons. This follows a decision of the LCBO to serve the tourists who often are unaware that Wednesday afternoon is a closing day. It is not believed that a larger staff will be required. To compensate employees for losing the half day a full day off will be granted on a rotation system.

No Pitchforks Grassland Day

The figure of the farmer pitching hay will be soon dissolved into the past with his heroic grandsire who cradled it.

That progress in the mechanics of forage farming is one of the significant features of Central Ontario's first Grassland Day which opened this morning on the farm of F. W. Rowland, fourth line of Smith.

The farmer with the cradle swinging through the harvest fields, and his brother with the scythe swathing through hay fields are only memories in the agricultural practice of today.

There is no more of that laborious job of pitching hay. The mechanical baler has taken the place of the man with the fork heaving heights of a wagon.

Bailing on Field

The hay crop is cut and laid out in windrows. Then the baling machine travels down the row, gathers the grass into its arms and rolls it tight into coils. The coils are automatically tied to preserve their manageable form, and are then dumped out on the field, one bale after another.

The bales are eventually heaved up onto a truck, and stacked in the barn with substantial economy of space in the mows. The man with the pitchfork has vanished from that operation.

That is the modern method. It was virtually forced on farmers by the scarcity and high cost of labor during and since the war.

The mechanics of Grassland Day are the main part of the demonstration program, but just as important is planning and seeding of pastures. That basic feature does not lend itself to objective presentation. It is discussed in the several talks that are given by Hon. T. L. Kennedy, Minister of Agriculture, Prof. R. G. Knox of Ontario Agricultural College and J. D. Lanthier of Gormley.

Essentially Grassland Day is to bring more graphically to the attention of farmers the new economies of the production of beef and dairy cattle. The wide variety of machines used in doing the job is only a major detail.

CGE Pipe Band To Visit Hamilton

There is no need to travel across the sea to Scotland to enjoy one of the traditional Highland gatherings, famous throughout the world as Scotland's national sports event. The 14 players in the CGE Pipe Band, together with a number of others, are leaving Friday for Hamilton to take part in the three-day Hamilton Scottish Regiment reunion.

Bagpipes and sports events are the main features of the Scottish games, which is an event similar to the Scottish Highland gatherings held in villages throughout Scotland.

The Peterborough band will take part in the tattoo and is expecting to play with the massed bands on Saturday. There will be 23 pipe bands present.

300 Commuters From Lindsay Work In City

Approximately 300 people whose homes are in Lindsay are working in Peterborough. That is the estimate of one of them who commutes every working day in the week, and has been making the trip daily for about two years.

Add to the Lindsay contingent of workers the others from Omemee, Lakefield, Warsaw, Norwood, Havelock, Keene and probably Millbrook, and it is evident that the industry and business of this city is supporting a numerous group of people who are getting most of the advantages the property owners are paying for, without any of the costs.

They are living elsewhere for various considerations, one of them being the scarcity of houses here. They have factory, shop and office jobs, and probably many of them would like to move in to Peterborough if the matter of domicile could be easily arranged.

"If things went flat here, the most of those people would be out of luck in Lindsay," the Examiner's informant said. "Some of them come by bus, that is the way I do, and others by car. One car owner may pick up four or five others for the daily trip."

Enough For A Village

Assuming the 300 figure to be correct, the Lindsay commuters have sufficieht numbers to set up a village of their own. Tack on the commuters from the other places outside the city, plus their wives and families, and the village expands into quite a town. Such a reckoning does not incude the suburban folks who have built or are renting out beyond the city's border. Many of them are working in the city, too. The odd one has retired after accumulating a competence in Peterborough.

Reserve Finding On Union Plea

TORONTO, June 29 — (CP) — The Ontario Labor Relations Board Tuesday reserved judgment in the application of the Port Colborne Refinery Workers' Union (CCL) to be certified as bargaining agent of employees of the International Nickel Company plant in Port Colborne.

The CCL is attempting to remove the bargaining rights from the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers which was suspended from the CCL earlier this year for being Communist-led.

Following an earlier application by the CCL, the board ordered a vote by employees. Of 1,305 workers, 1,259 cast ballots with 631 favoring the CCL.

Failure of the applicant to obtain a clear majority resulted in the application being heard again.

Dies In Chute Fall

PICTON, June 29 (CP) — Jon Milton Vandusen, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Vandusen, of Picton, died Tuesday of head injuries suffered when he fell head-first down a chute in his parents' canning factory. The child plunged 15 feet to a cement floor. He suffered a fractured skull.

Youngest MP Trims Veteran

TORONTO, June 29 (CP) — Paul Hellyer, Canada's yungest member of parliament, has another distinction—he beat out in the Federal election a veteran parliamentarian in a riding so tough his party bosses regarded it as lost.

Victor over John R. MacNicol, Progressive Conservative who represented Toronto Davenport for 19 years, Mr. Hellyer, 25, says he plans to make his voice heard in parliament.

His first concern will be with housing. On this subject he has a copyright report, the result of a cross-Canada inspection tour carried out at his own expense. He hopes to present it in parliament soon.

His interest in housing comes naturally. After he was married four years ago, he lived with his wife's people and three other families because of lack of housing.

Mr. Hellyer, a native of Waterford, Ont., served for a short time in the RCAF. He was discharged as surplus aircrew, then enlisted with the Royal Canadian Artillery. On his discharge he entered the University of Toronto and graduated this year with an Arts' degree.

Hope Welcomes Chance To Do Serious Acting

By BOB THOMAS.

HOLLYWOOD, June 29 (AP)—If Crosby can win an academy award, why not Hope?

This proposition is getting more sensible with each new Bob Hope picture. He is now making "Where Man Are Men," a remake of "Ruggles of Red Cap" in which he sports mutton-chop sideburns and a British accent.

The comic glowed with the news that the Gettysburg address scene, which Charles Laughton did memorably in the original film, now will be included in the new version.

"When I suggested a few months ago that I recite the address, they laughed at me," Hope said. "Now they've decided to leave it in.

"You know what changed their minds? It was the 'Sorrowful Jones' reviews, which indicated I might actually be able to act."

It's Murder

Hope lamented the fate of a comic who wants to do something fairly dramatic:

"It's murder. People look at me and they automatically start laughing. I walk down the street and they say: 'There's Bob Hope—ha ha ha!' "

He added that "Sorrowful" helped make a transition for him. "Working with the kid gave me a chance to do something serious without being too obvious," he said.

Bob still hopes to get away for a two-week vacation in Jasper Park, Alberta, Canada, but he said a few days in the local mountains revived his spirits before starting the picture.

"The air is pure ovaltine up there," he said. "One deep breath and the bellboy catches you and puts you to bed."

Capsule Review

"House of Strangers" (TCF) is a strong hunk of drama. A hard-boiled tale of warfare within an Italian banking family, it is absorbing and powerful. Susan Hayward and Edward G. Robinson are fine. But the real news is Richard Conte's emergence as a star.

ELECTS PRESIDENT

The Rev. Dr. D. Bruce Gordon, Trinity United Church, was elected president of the Peterborough Ministerial Association Friday afternoon. He succeeds the Rev. Ivan C. Morgan of Murray St. Murray St. Baptist Church.

High Road Skunk Mortality Makes Highways High-nose

Mister, if your wife wants an Alaska sable coat, don't flinch. Just send her out on any of the highways around Peterborough and she can literally pick up the makings of a fine neckpiece for nothing. Alaska sable is nothing more or less than skunk fur, and at the rate the striped kitties are being killed these days, lots of coats could be made.

Skunks, the bane of delicate noses, are one of the most valuable animals the farmer knows. They eat all kinds of mice, grubs, grasshoppers, crickets, or snakes. But they also have a liking for chickens and all ground-nesting birds and their eggs.

They are spread over the length and breadth of North America, from Alaska to as far south as Guatemala, from Atlantic to Pacific. A gentle and affectionate animal if domesticated, they breed freely in confinement and become a very intelligent pet.

One local man, commenting on the death rate of the little stinkers of late, said that he saw seven or eight of them Sunday afternoon on the roadbed between Peterborough and Haultain, all odoriferous corpses. Numerous have been smelled and seen on Highway 28 both north and south of the city. Provincial police claim that they don't notice such things on the highways, and admitted that perhaps their noses were better acclimatized than the ordinary person's.

Fur coats made from skunk pelts haven't been in style for at least 15 years, and this could quite possibly account for the plentiful supply of the stripers on the roads. At one time a good skunk pelt sold for up to $10.

In these days of high-priced meat, it is wonderful to note that some North American Indians have acquired a taste for skunk roast. The flesh is said to be very tasty, somewhat like chicken.

It would seem that if it weren't for the skunk's habit of wandering out on the highway with his family trailing behind him, there would be a lot more of them. Their natural enemies: wolves, coyotes, foxes, badgers and great horned owls, evidently don't take a toll as heavy as the automobile.

Several of the dead animals have been noticed in a position that would indicate they were headed for water when struck. Whether the drought has anything to do with this is not known, but it is known that if many more are slaughtered, the highways will never be the same again.

Hold Anniversary At Springville

SPRINGVILLE, June 29 (ENS)—Special anniversary services were held on Sunday at Springville United Church with Dr. C. S Reddick, the minister, in charge, assisted by Dr. Archer Wallace of the staff of the United Church Publishing House of Toronto. Dr. Wallace brought the message at both the morning and evening services. Special music was rendered by the choir of 16 voices, with Mrs. Harry Bothwell as pianist and Henry Batten as guest soloist.

At the evening service Mr. Batten and Bernard Preston sang a duet. At the close of the evening worship service Dr. Wallace presented a travelogue, "A Tale of Two Cities," London and New York. Beautiful pictures of historic and modern scenes were shown on the screen, with Dr. Wallace's humorous stories, and there was also hymn singing, Clifford Johnston was in charge of the lantern.

Aviatrix Pays Fines

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 29 (AP)—Mrs. Richarda Morrow-Tait Tuesday took another step toward resuming her 'round-the-world flight. The 25-year-old British housewife gave a $300 money order to the Civil Aeronautics Administration to prevent confiscation of her plane, "Tomorrow's Child." The money represented fines imposed by CAA for violation of three regulations.

Rev. W. Bagnall Becomes Youngest Bishop

HAMILTON, June 29—(CP)—A 45-year-old Anglican clergyman Tuesday became the youngest bishop in the history of the diocese of Niagara.

Very Rev. W. E. Bagnall was elected on the third ballot at a special session of the diocesan synod, held here in Christ Church Cathedral. One of his first acts as bishop was to warn of the uneasy state of the christian world today.

"The day may come," he said, "when we here may have to bear what Christians in other lands are bearing now. We will need fearlessness and singleness of purpose in God's service, and not otherwise can we achieve our destiny."

The former dean of Niagara thanked delegates for their trust and described the diocese of Niagara as a "great diocese with a great future.

"I accept the post to which God has called me in great humility," he added. "And I bespeak the assistance of you all."

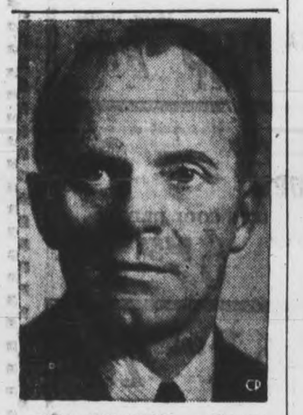
He received the degree of Doctor of Divinity at the University of Western Ontario in 1928, and held posts at London, Preston, Hamilton and St. Catharines before becoming dean of Christ Church Cathedral here.

The bishop-elect succeeds Rt. Rev. L. W. B. Broughall, who retired recently as head of the diocese after 17 years service.

It is believed the consecration service for the new bishop will be held in September.

Not Alarming

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—Paul G. Hoffman, Marshal Plan administrator, said Tuesday there is no basis for considering the current British financial crisis as anything other than a "perfectly normal readjustment." Britain has called a London meeting of Commonwealth finance ministers to discuss ways of dealing with a continuing drop in British gold and dollar reserves.



NEW SENATOR — Former Premier Adelard Godbout was one of five men whose appointment to the Senate was announced Saturday by Prime Minister St. Laurent.

TEARS OF JOY—A happy reunion kiss brings tears of joy to the eyes of 83-year-old Mrs. Tereza Bayer as she meets her son Joseph in Vancouver after flying from her native Hungary. Travelling alone, she managed to reach the United States zone of Germany from Budapest and finally made her way to Canada to live with her son whom she had not seen for 22 years.

Harwood News

Harwood school students and teachers held their picnic at the week-end at Burrison's Old Homestead.

Mr. Rae Brownsell left this week for his home in Trent River after teaching two years in this school. Miss Elizabeth Wright left for her home in Norwood after completing her second year of teaching at Harwood School. Both teachers have resigned to take similar positions nearer home.

Mrs. M. Meadows, Mrs. Sarah Meadows of Brandon, Manitoba, are visiting their brothers here, and are guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Young.

There will be a progressive euchre party in Harwood Hall on Friday evening, at 8.15 p.m. Five excellent prizes will be awarded and there will also be refreshments.

G. Barton Fisher, of Montreal, made a brief visit with relatives here this week.

Harwood resident attended the free chest clinic at Gore's Landing Library on Thursday evening, which was one of the largest clinics held in some time in a rural place.

Bernard Blastorah was taken to St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, by his son, Dr. Wm. Blastorah, with pleurisy, and is much improved. Mr. Blastorah expects to return home at an early date.

The service next Sunday at Bethesda United Church will be at 11 a.m., preceded by Sunday School.

The service at St. John's Church, Harwood, will be at 3 p.m.

The July meeting of the Harwood Branch of the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Robson, on July 7. The Institute eachre party will be on July 14th, in the Community Hall, when the summer visitors will be guests of the Institute.

DELICATE STOCKINGS: "Is there any way in which heels and toes of nylon stockings can be strengthened? My daughters won't wear cotton stockings, and go through nylons like paper. Any way to save them?"
A light starching of the foot of the stocking saves wear and tear to a great extent. A piece of adhesive tape pasted to the inside heel of the shoe does the same thing. A second piece of adhesive tape pasted over the great toenail helps reduce damage at that end.

STAMMERING: "My husband has stammered since he was a small child. Is there anyone in Hamilton who can help him? We have heard of a school in Toronto, but cannot locate one in our city."
Hamilton Chamber of Commerce say that classes formerly conducted by Y.M.C.A. have been discontinued. Why not contact "Y" officials for individual help?

SUNBURN: "I am a girl of seventeen with auburn hair and a fair complexion. I am a playground supervisor for the summer and my face doesn't tan, it burns. What can I wear to prevent this? Suntan oil is not good for my skin."
Our skin experts say you need a good protective coat for your face. They suggest first a special astringent, then a cover-up coat of liquid powder base, after that a very thin coat of cream powder base. This should do the trick and keep your face from burning. You will also get a fair tan filtered through this protected coat.

Directions

This is a good souffle recipe to add to your files. To make the Salmon (or crabmeat or lobster or shrimp) souffle melt 4 tablespoons margarine in top of double boiler. Stir in 1/3 cup flour, then stir in 1 1/3 cups hot milk, 1 teaspoon salt and shake of cayenne Stir until thick. Add this hot mixture to 4 beaten egg yolks, stirring. Add 1½ cups flaked fish and then when it is mixed, fold in 4 stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into buttered baking dish and bake at 350 deg. Fahr. for about 50 minutes. Serve at once.

Try this Lamb Stew—it is a specialty of a famous restaurant: Cut 2 lbs. boned lamb shoulder into 1¼-inch cubes, and roll in flour mixed with salt, pepper and M. S. G. (Have you read about M. S. G.-mono sodium glutamate?—this is the pure protein of wheat, looks like salt but is a flavour-developer, and gives a finished product reminiscent of chicken.)

Brown floured meat in 2 oz. fat or drippings. Add ½ cup chopped onions 4 cups boiling water and let simmer 2 hours, covered. Then add ½ lb. whole or quartered carrots, 6 small whole onions, ¼ lb. fine turnips strips, 4 medium potatoes cut in 1-inch pieces, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce and simmer until vegetables are tender. Just before serving add ¼ cup finely chopped parsley. Some of you may want to serve this with dumplings—if so add them 12 minutes before serving time, and do not lift lid while they are cooking.

Chocolate Bread Puding

Combine 1½ cups stale bread-crumbs with 3 cups of hot milk in which 2 squares chocolate have been melted (or you may use ½ cup cocoa), 2 beaten eggs, 2/3 cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon margarine which has been softened. Mix well. Add ½ teaspoon vanilla and ½ cup chopped nutsor raisins or both. Pour into greased Pudding dish and bake at 350 deg. Fahr. for 35 or 40 minutes. Serve with.

Foamy Sauce: Mix ¼ cup sugar, 2 tablespoons flour and ½ teaspoon salt together. Add 1 cup milk, 1 beaten egg yolk and cook over boiling water, while stirring until thick. Add 2 tablespoons sherry flavoring, shake of nut meg. Just before serving fold in the 2 stiffly beaten egg whites.

Hamburg-on-aBun Supper

Panfry large flat hamburgs and place on buttered half bun; on other half, open beside it, place large thick slices tomato, and rings of either raw or sauteed Spanish onions. Pass castup. If you have a toaster besides your one-burner toast the buns first to keep the whole supper hotter when served.

Social Situations

SITUATION: A long-winded caller is taking up too much of your time during business hours.

WRONG WAY: Feel there is no way to get him out of your office without being rude.

RIGHT WAY: Rise and thank him for stopping to see you. If you do this in a gracious manner you can dismiss a person without their quite realizing that they are being dismissed.

The bride wore a blue crepe dress trimmed with matching lace on the yoke and peplum, a bandeau of pink and blue flowers and a corsage of red roses. She was attended by Miss Lulu Crew wearing a similar dress of pink crepe, flower bandeau and corsage of tea roses. The groomsman was William Deck. After a reception the bride and groom left on a motor trip to Vancouver. They will return in two weeks to live in Peterborough.

Seven Attend June Bride In Cottesloe United Church

In Cottesloe United Church Saturday Shirley Roberta June, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cuffe, Cottesloe, became the bride of Earnest Lorne Beavis, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Beavis of Hastings. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Wilkinson of Oakwood.

A profusion of spring flowers, banked with fern, decorated the church. Mrs. J. Limburger of Warsaw played wedding music and Mrs. R. K. Tedford sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white bridal satin trimmed with Chantilly lace styled with a net yoke and draped shoulder interest. The skirt extended into a train that was edged with lace. Her veil of French illusion was train length and fell from a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried Bettertime roses with bouvardia and fern.

Bridal attendants were Miss Marjorie Patterson, Warsaw, maid of honor, and four bridesmaids, Miss Edna Nelson, Warsaw; Miss Muriel Monk, Norwood; Miss Hazel McGee, Peterborough; Miss Greta McGee, Norwood. They were similarly frocked in dresses of net, over taffeta, in a rainbow of colors, pink, blue, yellow, pale green and mauve. Each wore a finger-tip veil to match and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Two small flower girls were Diana and Leona McGee of Hastings, cousins of the bride, wearing identical ankle-length frocks of white net over satin, trimmed with lace, and carrying nosegays of pink and white rose.

The groom was attended by his brother Jack Beavis, and the ring bearer was little John McMillan of Norwood, cousin of the bride, dressed in a white sailor suit and carrying a white satin cushion with the ring lying on a white lily. Ushers were Ellwin Clysdale of Brantford, cousin of the bride, and Albert Thistlewaite of Norwood.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Cuffe chose a gown of grey crepe with lace, white straw hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother was also in grey and wore a blue mohair hat and pink carnations. Both received with the wedding party in the Warsaw Community Hall.

When leaving later on a wedding trip to Detroit and Chicago, the bride was wearing a dress of sea blue with over-lace trim and white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Beavis will live in Peterborough.

Teach Child Amps Use of Limbs

OTTAWA, June 29 (CP) — Ruth McKinnon, physiotherapist at the Veterans Affairs Hospital in Saskatoon, has been appointed to the Unitarian Service Committee's war-mutilated children's home at Villepatour, near Paris, France.

Miss McKinnon will give special amputation care to 58 French war victims (boys and girls between the ages of 6 and 18) who lost a leg or an arm during the Second World War. From funds raised for this purpose by the USC of Canada, these children are receiving artificial limbs and Miss McKinnon will train them in their use. She also will teach the children English.

Russian Fashions Displayed By State Number

MOSCOW, June 29 (CP) — It costs about $1.80—the price of a good movie seat—to see the style show at Moscow's house of fashion. And it's a lot more fun than any film.

Anyone can go, and no one feels embarrassed to be seen in last season's clothes. The new fur coats in the audience are worn by the wives of high-ranking officials. Most of the women wear shawls over their heads and padded jackets.

The mannequins are natural and model everything from overalls to evening gowns.

First it's overalls and house frocks, with the mistress of ceremonies explaining the attractions of each and giving the state number. This is because the Moscow housewife prefers to make her own dresses. Only if her husband has a well-paid state job does she employ a dressmaker.

So the women ask "how many metres of material for that one?—what kind of material for this?"

Hit of the show was a double-purpose number. It starts as a long-sleeved black silk afternoon frock—but unbutton the sleeves and it is suitable for evening wear. More Buttons are undone and the top half falls down and can be tied around the waist as a hip peplum, leaving a black skirt and white blouse which can be turned into an all-black back and white front.

"We have even had inquiries from Australia for this one—and it is popular with our Soviet actresses," says the MC.

This is a good sales point as the Soviet actresses are wearing longer skirts much nearer the western new look.

Design Rainwear Despite Drought

LOS ANGELES, June 29 (AP) —Outside a 90-degree sun was beating down, but California designers had their minds on fall rainwear.

Raincoats and weighted hemlines to keep the coat down no matter how hard the wind blows —featured the display.

The coat is made of shiny velon and has a braid trim around the yoke, sleeves and belt. Hat and bag match.

In the lingerie department, strapless slips with built-in bras scored a hit. A strapless night gown is held up by elastic in the back and around the top.

Necklines, it seems are coming back up, on both dressy and casual clothes. The plunging neckline will remain for afternoon and evening dresses but usually will have a convertible collar.

In short necklines will be very high or very low.

Skirts lengths were from a half to one inch shorter. Dressy dresses still have back interest, but elaborate bustle effects have given way to more simple lines.

DOROTHY DIX

Selfish Mothers Unjust May Wreck Family Life

Dorothy Dix

DEAR MISS DIX: I am in my early 20s. Have been at work for four years. Pay board at home and am always buying something for the house and for every member of the family yet no matter how tired I am, when I come home my mother expects me to help with the housework. She also expects me to stay at home and take care of something of an invalid and who is spoiled to death. Nothing is expected of her though she is able to do anything she wants to do. I often have to break my dates to stay at home with this sister because mother wants to go out. If I object to anything mother flies into a rage and tells me how ungrateful I am and how sorry I will be when I see her cold face lying in her coffin. This nearly kills me. I love my parents. That is why I have to put up with being sacrificed to my sister all my life, but can you say a word to help me?

PUZZLED DAUGHTER.

ANSWER: I certainly can, but I doubt whether you will have the courage to try it. The only remedy for the situation is for you to leave home for a while. Get a job in another city if you possibly can. You and your mother and your sister have got on one another's nerves and you will end up by hating one another unless you have the good sense to part.

Probably there is no other one thing in the world that has brought about so much misery and wrecked so many lives as the old superstition that families had to live together, no matter how uncongenial they were and that children, especially daughters, must stay under their parents' roof until they got married no matter how badly they got along with their brothers and sisters or how tyranically their parents treated them.

Fortunately, we are acquiring more sense and looking at this problem from a saner viewpoint. We perceive that not all parents and children are congenial, for many an old hen hatches out a swan and pecks the very life out of it trying to keep it out of the water for which nature destined it. Also, many brothers and sisters are so temperamentally different that they fight by instinct like cats and dogs.

Separation is Salvation

So now, when families are at odds and live in perpetual strife, we see that their only salvation from rate ways. This does not kill family affection. It strengthens it, because when mother and Julia are separated by a thousand miles they forget each other's maddening little ways and remember only is to separate and go their separate the good points.

You can see the beneficial effect of separation by noting how much better mothers love their daughters after they are married than they did before and how fond brothers and sisters are of each other when they meet once or twice a year instead of three times a day at the family table.

Certainly your mother is very unjust in sacrificing you to your younger sister, but lots of mothers play favorites and especially are they prone to spoil a child who has been sickly.

The old parable of the prodigal son is the truest story ever told. Practically no parents appreciate their good children who work and slave for them and do their duty as children. Always fathers' and mothers' hearts go out to the renegade, the selfish, predatory one who takes the best of everything and who never even gives a thought to the heartaches that he or she is causing father and mother.

I do not think that any girl who works and who pays her board should be expected to do any more housework than any other boarder would.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am married to the best man on earth and I worship him. When I was just a young girl about 16 years of age I had a sweetheart with whom I acted indiscreetly. Since I have become a mother I worry a great deal over that. I have never done anything else in my life to regret. I have been a model wife and mother, but my conscience tortures me so that I hate myself. What shall I do? Shall I tell my husband or not?

X. Y. M.

ANSWER: Certainly not. Don't buy your own ease of mind by forever destroying the peace of mind of your husband. He has been good and kind to you. Show your appreciation of that by locking your secret in your heart and never saying one word that will destroy his faith in you.

There is nothing so cowardly as confession. There is nothing so craven as for a woman to lay the burden of her sin on the shoulders of an innocent man and wreck his happiness by telling him something in her past that will forever disillusion him and kill his faith in her.

Whatever wrong you did in your youth you have atoned for by your repentance. Forget it. Never speak of it. Never think of it. You have earned your right to happiness. Take it. And make up to your husband for the thing he does not know and should never know by your tenderness and goodness to him.

DEAR MISS DIX: What do you think of a man who always criticizes his wife's bridge playing every time he becomes her partner at a party and shows his anger if she makes what he considers a bad play, thus humiliating his wife and embarrassing the other people?

ANSWER: Why, I'd say he was just a regular husband of the common or garden variety. They all do it. Any man who didn't criticize his wife's bridge would probably have a monument erected to him by popular subscription and wives would make a holy pilgrimage to gaze upon it.

Quints' Mother Visiting Vatican

NORTH BAY, June 29 (CP) — Mrs. Oliva Dionne, mother of the Dionne quintuplets, will leave her Corbeil home early next week for a trip to Rome, Mr. Dionne said to-day.

It is expected that Mrs. Dionne will have an audience with the Pope while visiting the Vatican.

She will be accompanied to Europe by Soeur Aimee Des Anges, Superior of Villa Notre Dame, the quints' school.

Mrs. Dionne will carry a letter from her world-famous daughters sending greetings to the Vatican.

This is Mrs. Dionne's first trip abroad and excited preparations are being completed in the busy Dionne household. All of the children are home for the summer holidays now, and 21-year-old Rose will take charge of the domestic affairs of the family until her mother returns. She will have able assistance from her younger sisters, Therese and Pauline, and, of course, from the quints, who have already proved themselves capable cooks. When Mrs. Dionne made a trip to Ottawa this spring it was the quints who teamed up to operate the household for their dad and brothers.

Mrs. Dionne is taking a train to New York and will travel to Europe by boat, taking a week for the Atlantic crossing.

Mr. Dionne said his wife would be visiting France — probably Paris — during the trip.

Asked if his wife was besieged with wheedling requests from her daughters for Paris souvenirs and especially dresses, the father of the quints chuckled: "That is too much in the feminine world for me . I am leaving that to the girls."

Testing Coins In England Very Involved

By NORMAN CRIBBENS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, June 29 — (CP) — With ancient ceremonial a verdict was delivered recently at the Goldsmith Hall in what for centuries has been known as the Trial of the Pyx.

For weeks previously the jury, consisting of members of the Goldsmiths' Company, had been testing the treasury coinage of last year to ascertain if "it is of proper weight and fineness."

Originally the jury had to test the silver and gold, but as coins today are made of cupro-nickel the onus on the jury is to ensure that coins comply with the standard laid down.

Origin of the Trial of the Pyx is lost in antiquity, but the first known writ for a trial is dated 1281.

This year's trial was the most extensive ever held. The mint is compelled by law to set aside for trial one specimen from each "journey weight" of silver coin struck—which in value is about £200 ($800).

Last year the mint struck —22,400,000 in silver, so over 110,000 coins had to be tested. Each coin is not assayed separately however; samples only are taken.

Provide Scales

The trial takes place before representatives of the treasury and the mint. Board of Trade officials are there, too, as they provide the scales and weights for weighing the coins, and the standard plates of the alloy whereby the fineness is tested.

Before the First World War the verdict was handed to the King's Remembrancer in the presence of the Master of the Mint and Government officials, and was followed by a banquet in the ancient hall.

Today it is delivered to the King's Remembrancer (now an official of the Supreme Court of Justice) about midday and a lunch follows. In due course the "verdict" is handed to the Treasury and the result is formally published in the London Gazette.

The trial of the pyx derived its name from a box in which the coinage was deposited, known as the pyx. Today the coins are taken to the goldsmiths hall and scientifically examined.

This year the goldsmiths also "tried" coins from New Zealand and Southern Rhodesia, the Royal Mint being responsible for the coinage of both countries.

Victory For Premier

LONDON, June 29 (CP)—The Times says today in its leading editorial that Canada's Liberals "can scarcely give too much credit" to Prime Minister St. Laurent for the party's election victory. "He has been accepted as the national leader of Canada" the Times says. During the campaign his reception has been such as "only given to leaders who understand the people and are trusted by them."

Voted Illegally

PORT COLBORNE, June 29 — (CP)—Albert St. Pierre, 29, Tuesday was fined $100 and costs of $32 on a charge of personation in Welland riding in Monday's dominion election. Mrs. Fern Thompson, Deputy Returning Officer, said St. Pierre entered a polling station and was refused a ballot because his name was not on the voters' list. He later returned and voted under the name of Real Labross.

Seek Missing Man

PENNIAC, N. B., June 29 (CP) —Guides and local residents are continuing a search for Cecil Whitlock, 22, missing from his home here since last Tuesday. The number of searchers has decreased from a peak of 200 who combed woods of the area.

Await Final Figure

VANCOUVER, June 29 (CP) (CP)—Results in the closely-contested federal riding of suburban Burnaby-Richmond won't be known officially until today, Returning Officer M. M. Reigh said Tuesday night. He declined to release figures obtained from the latest count but said the vote was "very close." Latest count available—from 222 of 223 polls — showed Liberal George Goode with 13,566 votes compared to Mrs. Dorothy Steeves, CCF, with 13,544.

Catches 38-Pounder

SHAWVILLE, Que., June 29 — (CP)—Jack Steacy of Westboro, Ont., hauled a 38-pound pike out of the Ottawa River near here Monday. It is one of the biggest fish to be caught this season in this district which lies 30 miles west of Ottawa. The pike was 52 inches long and had a girth of 21 inches.

Gets 10 Years

MONTREAL, June 29 (CP) — Edwin McKasky, 53, no fixed address, who pleaded through counsel that he blacked out under the influence of liquor, Tuesday was sentenced to 10 years in penitentiary for armed robbery. Police said he robbed a west-end store of $34 after threatening a woman employee with a wrench.

You are eligible to apply if:
1. You are a Canadian citizen or other British subject.
2. You are single and between 17 and 30 years.
3. You have a minimum of one year less than Junior Matriculation for Radio trades and two years for all others . . . or equivalent in both cases.

There are many branches in the clerical field in the R.C.A.F. . . . Clerk administrative, Clerk engineering, Supply technician, Intelligence specialist and Meteorological observer, to mention only a few . . . which are now open to keen, ambitious young Canadians. Canada's security in the air demands a high standard of efficiency among the men who 'keep 'em flying', for the Air Force is as good as the men who man it.

When you enter the service of the R.C.A.F. you will receive a thorough and intensive trade training which you will always be able to put to good use; and you will earn while you learn, at full rates of pay. Special consideration will be given to graduates of commercial schools and business colleges.

WEEDS

NOTICE is hereby given to all Occupants and Owners of Property within the City of Peterborough that the provisions of the Weed Control Act will be rigidly enforced.

Section 4 of the Weed Control Act states: "Every occupant of land or if the land is unoccupied the owner shall destroy all weeds designated noxious by the Regulations as often in every year as is sufficient to prevent the ripening of their seed."

Occupants and Owners of Land are advised to exercise great care in destroying all noxious weeds before they mature seed. If these precautions are not taken the Weed Inspector may exercise his authority and may enter on property for the purpose of destroying noxious weeds.

The co-operation of everyone is solicited in a general cleanup of noxious weeds.

A. E. CHALMERS,
Weed Inspector.

Last 2 Bishops Arrested By Romanian Gov't

VATICAN CITY, June 29 (AP) —A Vatican source said today that all Roman Catholic bishops had been suppressed in Communist Romania.

This source said reports have reached here that the last two Roman Catholic bishops still free to perform religious duties had been placed under arrest. Charges against them were not explained.

They are Msgr. Aaron Marton, 53, Bishop of Alba Julia, and Msgr. Antonio Ducovici, 61, Bishop of Iasi. It was reported that Msgr. Marton was arrested June 21 and Msgr. Durcovici June 26.

The official press in Romania recently reported that both were removed from the church payrolls for threatening excommunication of church members and instigating the peasants against the government.

The Vatican informant said the other three Roman Catholic bishops previously were deposed by the Romanian Government. They are: Msgr. Alexander Cisar, Archbishop of Bucharest; Msgr. Agostino Pacha, Bishop of Timisoara, and Msgr. Ion Scheffler, Bishop of Satu-Mare (Szatmar).

This and other recent Vatican reports of activities against church leaders in Romania coincided with the current church-state tension in Communist Czechoslovakia. There Catholic Archbishop Joseph Beran has been kept under police guard for opposing government efforts to control the church and split its ties with the Vatican.

Back Yard Fight Related In Court

A fracas between three North Monaghan families was recounted Tuesday in city Police Court for three hours, and the story is to be resumed Thursday. As a result of a skirmish between Kenneth Logan, the McCarrells, and William Richard Booth, four charges of assault were laid, two against Logan and the others against Booth and McCarrell.

The Logans and Booth live in separate parts of the same house and the McCarrells have a tent in the same grounds. Conflicting accounts of how the argument started were recounted in court.

Logan said that Mrs. McCarrell was "cursing and swearing" because she thought his car was too near the water pump. Booth was nearby and he told him to go to his own side of the house. He claimed that when he went up to Booth to tell him to move from his section of the land, Booth hit him with a saw.

Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC, found Booth guilty of assaulting Logan, and fined him $7, with $19.50 costs.

A counter charge by Booth against Logan was not heard on Tuesday. The case was adjourned to Thursday.

Logan also faces a charge of assaulting Mrs. McCarrell, which was adjourned to Thursday. She claimed that Logan jumped over a woodpile to where she was standing with her husband and Booth and "shoved her down" with his fist.

David McCarrell, Mrs. McCarrell's husband, admitted assaulting Logan, and was fined $10, with $2.50 costs.

Few Issues Active On Stock Exchange

TORONTO, June 29 — (CP)— Activity was practically at a standstill as a few issues climbed slightly here to-day. Support entered in gold producers halting the two-day decline and a few selected industrials edged ahead fractions. Base metals were mixed.

Support in golds first appeared in juniors with a few seniors climbing as the session progressed. Only a trickle of orders was necessary to start the upward movement. Lake Shore, and Kerr Addison rose fractions in seniors, while Sylvanite, Preston, Chesterville, Cochenour and Giant Yellowknife showed gains ranging up to 10 cents in juniors.

Steel Industry Faces Letdown In Summer

NEW YORK, June 29 — (AP)— The impending summer letdown may "dig deep into the operating rate" of the steel industry, the Iron Age, metalworking trade weekly said today.

The publication added this "does not mean that things are going to pot in steel." Lower operations had to come as the industry went into a normal pattern, it noted.

Declines in output and orders were attributed to seasonal factors, working off of inventories "just in case," waiting for outcome of labor negotiations, and wholesale shutdowns for mass vacations.

OBITUARIES

RICHARD WALSH

Richard Walsh, 80, died in Hastings Tuesday after a short illness. Born in Asphodel Township, Mr. Walsh was the son of John Walsh and Elizabeth Cleary. He had lived in Hastings for the past 40 years, where he was a drover and agent.

Survivors are three daughters, Mrs. Earl Buck (Laura), Brantford, Mrs. James Torpey (Margaret), Warren, Ohio, Mrs. John Condon (Marie), Hastings, and five sons, Redmond, Toronto, Harry, Calgary, Alta., Richard (Tiny), Timmins, William and Gordon, Hastings.

Also surviving are four sisters, Sister M. Fidelio, Mount St. Joseph, Peterborough, Mrs. Emma Lee, Belleville, Mrs. Harrison Cook, Princeton, NJ, Mrs. H. G. Lewis, Amarillo, Texas, and two brothers, David of Hastings, and John of Peterborough. His wife, Mary Doherty Walsh, predeceased him.

Requiem mass will be held on Friday at 9 a.m. in Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Hastings. Rev. J. J. Garvey will say the mass, and burial will be in Our Lady of Mount Carmel Cemetery, Hastings.

WILLIAM ERSKINE GILLOTT

A resident of Peterborough twenty years, William Erskine Gillotte, 198 Charlotte St., died early today at his home after a short illness. He was stricken two weeks ago with a heart attack.

Mr. Gillott was born in Millbrook and for many years was the funeral director in that community, and also carried on business as a furniture retailer. He was widely known throughout the Peterborough-Millbrook district, although his acquaintances and friends were largely of his own generation, many of them having died before him.

Some of his Millbrook friends have described Mr. Gillotte as a business man of the old practices of his day. He was generous with credit and was usually trusting in his retail business, and sympathetic in his funeral affairs. At his retirement he finally closed his books and sent out many receipts in full for which he had not received payment. In his unassuming way he had done many kind acts.

Mr. Gillott leaves his wife, the former Ijeenia Irwin. He was a member of St. Paul's Presbyterian church and previously of Grace Presbyterian Church, Millbrook. The body is resting at the Comstock Funeral Home until Thursday at 2 p.m. when there will be a service conducted by Rev. W. A. Smellie of St. Paul's. The funeral will proceed to Millbrook with service at 4 p.m. by Rev. W. W. Patterson of Grace Church. Burial will be in the Presbyterian Cemetery at Millbrook.

SAMUEL G. QUACKENBUSH

Samuel Guilford Quackenbush died in his 80th year at the home of his son, Raymond, Lot 17, Concession 17, Ops Township, Tuesday. Mr. Quackenbush was born in Seymour Township, the son of Andrew Quackenbush and Jane Van Volkenburg. He has lived with his son for two years. He formerly resided in Havelock.

Survivors are his wife, the former Matilda Henderson, five daughters, Mrs. Alex. McArthur (Viola), Havelock, Mrs. Edward Dulmage (Agnes), Newark, N.J., Mrs. Fred Weatherup (Beatrice), Norham, Ont., Mrs. Jack Cameron (Helen), Toronto, Mrs. William Etu (Leafa), Fort Edward, N.Y.; four sons, Raymond; Orville, Havelock; George, Buffalo, N.Y.; and Frank, Fort Edward, N.Y. Also surviving are a sister, Mrs. Mark Clarke, and a brother, Ernest, both of Havelock.

Mr. Quackenbush, a retired farmer, received his education at Trent River. He was a member of Havelock United Church.

The body is resting at John Anderson Ltd., Peel St., Lindsay, from where it will be taken to arrive at Havelock United Church at noon Friday. Funeral service will be at 2.30 p.m. at the church, and Rev. F. R. Vanderbugh will officiate. Burial will be in Maple Grove Cemetery, Havelock.

Scores Of Boys Learn To Swim At YM Classes

With the closing of the schools for the summer holidays today the annual YMCA "Learn to Swim" campaign for Public School boys closed Monday. This year in order to have large classes, as the most of children in the three top grades are able to swim, the YMCA enlarged its campaign to include the non-swimmers in Grade V. A similar program has been in operation at the YWCA. Classes were held from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m. once a week.

Seventy-one boys enrolled for this campaign and after six weekly lessons the following passed the 60-foot test for the beginners' certificate: Bud Hunter, Tommy Hughes, Ronald Oliver, Paul Johnston, Ronald Mace, Jack Cuffe, Sidney Dinsdale, Robert Hutton, Jack Parsons, Peter Carveth, Raymond Johnson, Tommy LeSurf, Walter Dainard, Kenneth Latchford, Keith Latchford, Tommy Nice, Kenneth Wagar, Jerry Williams, Ivan Wright, Tommy Briggs, Gerald Dew, John McDonald, Bob Thompson, Clayton Chalmers, Bob Park, Donald Ferguson, Stewart Ferguson, Gordon Harding, Melvin Innes, Lester Williams, Robert Corp, Ronald Genge, James Orr.

In addition to these nearly all the rest of the 71 boys are swimming a few yards. Al Clark, Physical Director, said that most of these boys would probably be able to swim before the end of the summer.

Ovaltine Plant To Take Vote

The Ontario Labor Relations Board has granted permission for the UPWA (CIO-CCL) to hold a vote among the eligible employees at A. Wander Co. Ltd., to see if they wish that union as bargaining agent.

About 30 employees are eligible. The vote excludes foremen, persons above the rank of foreman, and office staffs.

A specific date has not yet been arranged for the vote but it is expected to be sometime in the near future. Balloting is expected to be close.

Fred Hannah, CCL representative, received th communication from the OLRB granting permission early today.

Houde Guards Ballots

SEVERAL times a candidate for a Federal seat, Camillien Houde, the rotund Mayor of Montreal, is taking no chances now on losing his objective.

On Monday he won the Montreal-Papineau seat by the slim margin of 85 votes and a recount is expected. To make sure nobody interferes with the ballot boxes he has placed a police guard around them.

Will Preserve Beauty Of Falls

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 29—(CP)—An American official said Tuesday night that forthcoming recommendations on providing additional power from Niagara Falls "will be made very carefully with a view toward preserving the scenic value of these wonderful falls."

Col. E. Robert de Luccia, chief of the Bureau of Power of the United States Power Commission, made the statement as a group of Canadians, United States and New York State authorities ended a two-day field study.

"Our report will most likely be ready in July," de Luccia said. "Final conclusions have not been reached on any specific formula as a result of our inspections."

The report is expected to be made in Washington.

To Open Wednesdays

TORONTO, June 29 (CP) — Liquor stores in Ontario will remain open all day on Wednesdays, starting today and continuing through July and August, the Liquor Control Board of Ontario announced Tuesday. It was decided to suspend the regular Wednesday afternoon closing as a "goodwill" gesture to the thousands of tourists who may be inconvenienced by their lack of familiarity with store hours.

Bit Constable

WINDSOR, Ont., June 29 (CP) —Two police officers were needed Tuesday to subdue a fighting, scratching woman who they believe was trying to smuggle narcotics to a prisoner in the headquarters cell block. Eileen Rogowski, who scratched and bit Constable Grant McIvor of the RCMP in a fight at headquarters, was charged with possession of narcotics a few minutes after her boy friend, Richard Dowsett, was sentenced to two years in Portsmouth Penitentiary on a similar charge.

The bank across the street . . .

DID YOU EVER notice how often banks do business right across the street from their competitors? Of course it happens because of competition . . . because each bank tries to get into the busiest locations in town.

That certainly doesn't make things very easy for us! There are 10 chartered banks in Canada, all operating under government regulation, and with roughly the same services to sell. So the only way we can stay in business is to be on our toes at all times. That means keeping modern premises, hiring efficient, pleasant personnel, making loans wherever it is to our mutual advantage, and performing a lot of little extra services that we hope will make you like us better than the fellow across the street.

Frankly, we like it that way. Competitive banking keeps us from getting stodgy, and provides you with freedom of choice and an all-round better banking system.

BLOWOUTS STRIKE WITHOUT WARNING!

No tire is blowout-proof!

BUT GOODYEAR LIFEGUARDS MAKE BLOWOUTS HARMLESS

Because of the terrific punishment they must take, not even the best tires are blowout proof. What will happen to you if you have a blowout tomorrow? In that split second will you be ready to wheel-fight your way to safety? Will you swerve out of control into the ditch, or crash into oncoming traffic? Or will you bring your car to a safe, gradual stop—like any other motorist with LifeGuards in his tires?

LifeGuards give far more protection than mere "puncture-sealing" devices. They actually make a blowout harmless after it happens—and it can happen to any tire, any place, any time.

Remember, too, that LifeGuards are the most economical tubes you can use—frequently outlast 3 or 4 sets of tires. In sizes available, they fit any make of tire—new or now in service. They're easy to get—see your Goodyear dealer! You can't get better protection to save your life!

Liberal trade-in on your present tubes!

1. "Travelling along a mountain road at a good speed," writes a motorist of Nelson, B.C., "I struck a rock, causing a blowout at the very edge of a sheer drop!"

2. Here's what COULD have happened! A vain fight with the wheel . . . then a plunge over the 125-foot drop at the road edge!

3. Here's what ACTUALLY happened, in the driver's own words: "I was able to bring my car to a safe stop, thanks to LifeGuards."

HOW LIFEGUARD SAFETY TUBES CAN SAVE YOUR LIFE

ORDINARY TUBES

1. Ordinary tubes have but one air chamber. When tire blows, tube blows too.
2. Instantly both tire and tube go flat, frequently throwing car out of control.

LIFEGUARD SAFETY TUBES

3. The LifeGuard Tube has two air chambers. In case of blowout, only outer chamber gives way.
4. Reserve of air in strong cord fabric inner chamber supports car long enough for a safe, gradual stop.

FOR THE SMOOTHEST, SOFTEST, SAFEST RIDE YOU'VE EVER ENJOYED SWITCH TO

Super Cushion by GOODYEAR

Super-Cushions run on 24 pounds of air. They're the best of the new tires for super comfort . . . super safety . . . super mileage.

For all the power you want when you want it, install a Goodyear "Factory-Fresh" Battery in your car.

Jap Prisoners Become Reds

MAIZURU, Japan, June 29—(AP)—Russia Monday repatriated 2,000 more Japanese war prisoners, who showed every evidence of having been well indoctrinated with Communism.

Half of those interviewed said they intend to join the Communist party at once. 'First thing I will do when I get home," said one former soldier.

Repatriation of Japanese prisoners from the Soviet Union has been proceeding slowly and with long winter interruptions since the end of the war.

Russian slowness in resuming repatriations this year has been criticized by Gen. MacArthur, and even by the Japanese Communist party. The occupation commander has said 408,000 Japanese still are held. The Russians have claimed they had only 95,000.

Monday's first shipment of the year arrived aboard the hospital ship Takasago Maru from Nahadka, Siberia. They were obviously well-fed and clad in rough but sturdy clothing.

CRIPPLED CARRIER—This jagged gap was ripped into the keel of Canada's 18,000-ton aircraft carrier Magnificent by an uncharted rock off the south coast of Nova Scotia. On a cradle in drydock at Saint John, N.B., the Magnificent will be under repair for three months. The bow section of the keel was ripped away, with damage extending 200 feet along the hull. The captain and navigating officer will face court-martial charges as a result of the grounding.

Cripps Opposes Finance Plan Of Belgians

LONDON, June 29 — (CP). — Sir Stafford Cripps, veteran of many international conferences, faces one of his toughest struggles of his career to-day when he resumes talks on European trade in Paris.

For the last few weeks, the Chancellor of the Exchequer has been under increasing pressure to accept in some form or another a Belgian plan for handling international credits in Western Europe.

Sir Stafford has stubbornly refused on the ground that the scheme would impose a disastrous drain on Britain's reserves of gold and dollars, already considered below the safety level.

The situation concerns Canada because:

1—The system Sir Stafford wishes to maintain is part of Britain's bilateral trading policy which Canadians have criticized as restricting the free flow of trade.

2—Anything that affects Britain's dollar position is of interest to Canada. If the situation worsens, there may be a further cut in dollar imports, including those from Canada.

The crux of the present dispute is the "Little Marshall Plan" scheme of credits which Western European countries fixed up among themselves in addition to the United States European recovery plan. The agreement lapses June 30.

Under the European payments scheme, Britain contributed £70,000,000 ($280,000,000) to help countries like France keep up its imports for which they couldn't pay. But the money was in sterling and had to be spent on British goods.

Most European countries, as well as the United States, are pressing Britain to make the scheme more flexible. They say France should be able to spend British credits in Belgium or the United States if she finds that she can get goods there more cheaply.

This would encourage competition in European trade which the United States would like to see now that production is responding to Marshall plan credits. But Sir Stafford is afraid the payments if agreed to with Belgium would permit that country to draw gold from Briain if Belgian accumulates more than £27,000,000.

Dollar Gap Bogey

The dollar gap has been the persistent bogey since the end of the war and even the desperate efforts of Britain have been unable to bring it into balance. Last year the deficit was covered by Marshall aid .

In opposing the scheme for 'limited convertibility" Sir Stafford can recall what happened two years ago when, at the urging of the United States, Britain made the pound convertible to dollars. There was such a run on the pound the whole thing had to be called off.

Sir Stafford has suggested as an alternative to the Belgian scheme a more generous arrangement of import quotas. Critics contend this would simply freeze trade in its present bilateral pattern.

No one can force Britain into the agreeemnt she doesn't want and the chances are that if a compromise cannot be worked out the present arrangement will be continued for a few months when the world financial picture may be clearer.

In the meantime, London financiers are worried that United States goodwill toward Britain may suffer through Sir Stafford's adamant attitude.

July Assignments For Mission Band

SPRINGVILLE, June 29 (ENS) —June meeting of the Mission Band was held at the home of Nelson Edgerton with an attendance of 18 boys and girls.

Lorraine Paddock, the president, opened the meeting with the Mission Band Purpose and the Lord's prayer.

Lila Seymour, pianist and secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting and the roll call was answered by a Bible verse.

Eileen McCall gave a Temperance recitation entitled "My Pledge."

Arrangements were made for the next meeting to be held on July 9 at the home of Joan Kemp, with Billy Kellar, Billy Whitfield and Mrs. C. Johnston as lunch committee.

The Mission Band has been invited to provide the program for the WMS meeting on July 13 at the home of Mrs. Clifford Johnston. It has also been asked to take the worship service at the church service, Sunday, July 10.

The leader, Mrs. Clifford Johnston, assigned the children their parts for these two special services.

Mrs. Raymond Kelk took the study book chapter. Joy Seymour led in prayer and the scripture was read by Joan Kemp. The meeting closed with the Mission Band prayer and a vote of thanks to the hostess, Mrs. Mervin Edgerton. Lunch was served by Nelson Edgerton, Nancy Johnston and Mrs. R. Kelk.

Vote For "New Deal"

WASHINGTON, June 29 (CP) —The Washington Post says today that Monday's federal election in Canada was "an unequivocal endorsement of the Canadian 'New Deal' program and of the men who have moved Canada into a positive role in world affairs." The editorial says the election, "perhaps as much as anything . . . was a vote of personal confidence in Mr. St. Laurent, who has proved himself a leader of great ability and wisdom.

ABBOTT TO DISCUSS U.K. DOLLAR CRISIS

Grasslanders Becoming Hay-Minded

Hon. T. L. Kennedy Opens Ontario's First Grassland Show

The first Grassland Day in Central Ontario held on Wednesday at the farm of F. W. Rowland Peterborough-Lindsay highway achieved all the ends for which it was designed, and in spite of the adverse season it was a gratifying success. The attendance appeared to be around 3,000, and although the committee had been hoping to attract up to 5,000, everybody was quite happy with the arrangements of demonstration, and its general success.

Forty-four entries in the bale competition were actually more than were expected in recent anticipations, and the commendations of Prof. R. G. Knox of Guelph and his observations on the signs of improved methods were a tribute that in itself justified the show and all the effort that was put into it. The hay show committee was composed of Jerry Mahoney, chairman, Henry Batten of North Monaghan and Robert Armstrong. They seemed to be about the busiest trio on the Rowland farm.

Opened By Minister

Hon. T. L. Kennedy, Minister of Agriculture, formally opened the district's Grassland Day. He complimented the men who had undertaken this demonstration of present day haying operations as one of the fundamentals of agriculture.

GRASSLAND DAY IN SMITH Township was attended by 3000 spectators on Wednesday, the first affair of its kind to be held in Central Ontario. It demonstrated that the Machine Age had arrived for the farmer with only two horse-drawn machines among the hundreds of mechanical devices shown. TOP photo shows Minister of Agriculture and fromer Premier, the Hon. T. L. Kennedy, left, discussing prize baled hay with W. W. Dawson, president of the Peterborough Crop Improvement Association, Centre, and N. J. Thomas, BSA, Soils Department, OAC, Guelph. India's Premier To Visit Canada

NEW DELHI, June 30.—(Reuters). — Prime Minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru of India has accepted an invitation to visit Canada in October, it was announced here today. The invitation was made by Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent. Nehru is visiting the United States prior to going to Ottawa.

St. Laurent's message extended a "cordial invitation" to Nehru on behalf of the Government and people of Canada, and added:

"The Canadian people would appreciate the opportunity of welcoming you as prime minister of a sister nation of the Commonwealth, and as the distinguished leader of the people of India."

Nehru said in his reply:

"It will give me great pleasure to visit Canada, and I look forward to fitting this in with my trip to your great and friendly neighbor, the United States of America, next October.

"The Government and people of India entertain the friendliest feelings towards Canada and her people, and it will be both an honor and a pleasure for me to bring to you all in person their greetings."

Says Negroes Suffer 'Jim-Crow' Conditions

BRANTFORD, June 30—(CP) — Rev. Frederick O. Stewart told delegates at the 93rd annual convention of the British Methodist Episcopal, Church in Canada, Wednesday that in Canada "Negroes are jim-crowed, segregated and pushed aside in many instances."

"Shocking conditions make not only our Negro children, but adults as well, virtually outcasts in society. Coloured children are not allowed to attend youngster's summer camps, and girls of our group are not given the same assistance as is given to their white sister.

'Appalling narrow-mindedness makes it impossible for our teenage coloured girls and women to secure employment. In some instances, our men, although very well educated, can secure only employment of the lowest standard.

"Negroes are expected to do the dirtiest, lowest and most laborious jobs in society today, and this practice, we must conclude is most unjust.

Detective Gets Demotion

TORONTO, June 30 — (CP) — One of Toronto's most popular city police detectives, Det. Sgt. Arthur Keay, today was reduced the rank of first class constable following a special commission investigation.

A commission report on the conduct of the 48-year-old athlete did not outline the charge in view of the fact "the inquiry dealt with purely departmental discipline."

The board found that some of the allegations against Keay were uncorroborated and dismissed them. But the detective was found guilty of "disputable conduct" in relation to his police duties.

The commission report said that facts revealed in the probe justified Keay's dismissal but he

Possible New British Loan Considered By Cabinet

OTTAWA, June 30—(CP)—The government is back at work again—and up to its ears in the world's trade problems. Prime Minister St. Laurent and about a dozen of his triumphant cabinet met Wednesday, for the first time since Monday's election.

They found on their desks a request from the British government for a conference on Commonwealth finance ministers in London next month to discuss the Sterling area's critical dollar shortage.

There were no announcements made after the three-hour meeting. But it is believed the Cabinet discussed whether Finance Minister Abbott will go to the conference. Mr. Abbott went to Montreal after the meeting, but he is expected back in Ottawa today.

U.S. Files Suit Against Du Pont

WASHINGTON, June 30—(AP) —Attorney-General Tom Clark today filed suit to break up the du Pont industrial empire.

The attorney-general announced that the action, under the United States anti-trust laws, was filed this morning in the United States district court at Chicago.

Among he major demands of the civil suit are a divorcement of the E. I. du Pont de Nemours Company of Wilmington, Del., from General Motors Corporation of Detroit.

The suit names as defendants: E. I. Du Pont de Nemours, General Motors, United States Rubber, Christiana Securities Company, Delaware Realty and Investment Corporation, Pierre S. Du Pont, Lammot Du Pont, Irenee Du Pont, and all members of the Du Pont family related by blood or marriage to Pierre, Lammot, or Irenee Du Pont who hold voting stock in either United States Rubber, Christiana Securities, or Delaware Realty and Investment Corporation.

Clark's statement announcing the suit said that Christiana and Delaware Realty "are personal holding companies of the members of the Du Pont family."

"This case is directed to the breaking up of the largest single concentration of industrial power in the United States," Clark said.

"The growth of Du Pont, General Motors, and United States Rubber to positions of market dominance in their respective fields has been marked by the elimination of many independent businesses and a decline in the strength and vigor of those that survived...."

Plan Dominion Day Events

Horse Races, Regattas, Carnivals Arranged

By The Canadian Press

Canadians will ski, swim and try to win cupie dolls at carnivals as the Dominion celebrates its 82nd birthday with a free holiday spirit tomorrow.

Although the weatherman says it's too early to predict week-end weather accurately, early indications are that fine weather will prevail in the east while conditions may be unsettled in the west.

A sombre note will be injected into celebrations in Newfoundland when Canada's 10th province observes Dominion Day for the first time. Islanders will recall the day in 1916 when the Royal Newfoundalnd Regiment was decimated at the Somme.

Next Sunday is set aside as Newfoundland's day of mourning for her war dead. Defence Minister Claxton and a Canadian army band will participate in the ceremonies, which include a flypast by R.C.A.F. Lancasters over the national memorial to the island's dead in two world wars.

Elsewhere in Canada, the July 1 holiday will be a bang-up affair. Most businesses will shut up shop Saturday leaving the way clear for sports, fishing trips, travelling, or just plain relaxing.

Weather is the all-important factor for the summer's first extended holiday week-end, but the weatherman says it's still a little early to predict week-end weather accurately.

Holiday entertainment in Ontario will take various forms. Trotting races, regattas, an Indian pow-wow at Dryden, a carnival at Port Arthur and bathing beauty contests will attract their share of holidayers. A royal 21-gun salute will be fired at Toronto.

Transportation and travel officials expect a traffic boom next Monday when holiday traffic will be a two-way affair. While thousands of Canadians journey south of the border, record numbers of American are expected to pour into Canada to celebrate July 4.

Will Fly To London Next Week

Preliminary Talks With Secretary U.S. Treasury Planned

OTTAWA, June 30 (CP) — Prime Minister St. Laurent today announced that Finance Minister Abbott will fly to London next week to discuss the dollar situation with the United Kingdom and other Commonwealth finance ministers.

Mr. St. Laurent said at his first post-election press conference that the decision to send Mr. Abbott overseas came as a result of an invitation from the UK.

When Mr. Abbott goes overseas next week he will have with him as advisors his Deputy Minister Dr. W. C. Clark, Norman Robertson, Clerk of the Privy Council, as well as L. D. Wilgress, Canadian High Commissioner in London.

Dr. Clark and Mr. Robertson have already left for London, Mr St. Laurent said.

In a statement issued at the conference, the Prime Minister pointed out that because Canada is not part of the sterling area—and has specially close economic and financial relations with the United States—Mr. Abbott will hold preliminary informal talks with the UK and the US prior to the Commonwealth meeting.

The US talks will be carried on with John W. Snyder, U. S. Secretary of the Treasury, who is leaving shortly for Europe and will meet Mr. Abbott in London.

No Cabinet Shuffle

Mr. St. Laurent said that no post-election cabinet shuffle has been made and added that when one is made "it will be announced immediately." He could not say whether any cabinet changes will be made before the next session of parliament.

"I can't tell you what will be history before the events occur," he said.

The session will be called "quite early." The last parliament has voted a sufficient supply of money to cover administrative costs until the end of September. He hoped that it could be arranged so that the session could be called and a further supply of money voted before the end of September

Mr. St. Laurent said he was pleased to accede to a request for a press conference and asked if there was anything special that newspaper men wished to ask him.

A series of questions followed and to one of them he replied that appointments will be made to the Senate, but none have been arrangd so far. He could not say when they will be made.

Examiner To Publish On Friday, July 1

The Examiner will publish as usual on Friday, July 1 (Dominion Day, but will not be publishing on Monday, July 4. This change is being made this year to give the staff the long week-end holiday. Features that would ordinarily appear in Monday's paper will be found this week in Saturday's.

Right On The Nose

MONTREAL, June 30—(CP) — All you political forecasters will please move well to the rear and make way for H. B. Cook of Montreal.

His election guess was right on the button. He bet a friend the Liberals would take 193 seats and the Progressive Conservatives 42.

Last night Mr. Cook collected his bet—one quart of milk.

Plan Clean-up Of Ontario's Beverage Rooms

TORONTO, June 30 (CP) — Transferance of the Liquor Licence Board from the Ontario Attorney-General's Department to that of the Provincial Secretary, under Liquor Commissioner Welsh was announced today by Premier Frost.

The Premier said that the purpose of an order-in-council passed was to improve, facilitate and quicken the administration of the Liquor Control Board of Ontario and the Liquor Licence Board.

The LLB controls beverage rooms and other "by-the-glass" outlets in the province. The LCBO controls the purchase and sale of bottled spirits.

"We are determined that in beverage rooms there shall be no drunkenness, no sale to minors, no dirt on the premises, or misconduct on the part of patrons, or evasion or violation of the regulations," said Premier Frost. "We intend to be tough.

At present the government was discussing the "whole matter of beverage-room operations" with Judge W. T. Robb, chairman, and others of the LLB.

"The government has no criticism generally regarding the running of licenced premises," declared Premier Frost, who said further details of control would be announced next week. "Some beverage rooms are not up to standard and they have to clean house. There is a heavy onus on any licensee. He has a duty that is more than an ordinary duty to see that not only the law but the spirit of the law is scrupulously observed.

Walls Ripped Off But Tenants Stay

MONTREAL, June 30 (CP).—Twelve families on downtown Seigneurs Street, served with eviction notices three months ago, continued their holdout battle to-day against landlord Victor Villeneuve although part of the rear walls of their flats have been ripped out.

A brief flurry occurred Wednesday when police were called as wrecking crews appeared outside one of the flats, but although police noted the names of the tenants no action was taken.

Meanwhile, the families are living in the partly-demolished building with only a few boards across the gaps in the walls to screen them from public view.

The tenants claimed that demolition of the flats began after they had gone to court with the eviction notices, effective June 1. Villeneuve declined to comment.

Alleged Slayer Of Farmer Charged With Murder; Had Been Sought For Thefts

Alfred Childs, 20, Due To Appear In Court Today At Napanee; Acquaintances Say He Was Crack Rifle Shot

SELBY, Ont., June 30—(CP)—Alfred Childs, 20, today faces a charge of murder in the hayfield rifle-slaying of Elijah McQuaig, 57, and the wounding of McQuaig's helper, 20-year-old John Ross. Childs is expected to appear in court today at Napanee, five miles south of this hamlet 25 miles northwest of Kingston.

McQuaig was blasted from his hayrack Wednesday by a fusillade of bullets fired by a marksman hidden in a barn 250 feet away. Bullets caught Ross in the groin, right leg and left arm as he dashed for cover.

Another shot ripped through an automobile in which Harry Thompson, another district farmer, was sitting near the McQuaig barn. Thompson, unhurt, picked up the injured Ross and drove him to a nearby farmhouse for first aid. Ross was taken to hospital in Kingston where his condition was described as serious but not critical.

Two neighbors, driving along a highway a mile north of here, found Childs walking along the road. The youth, unarmed, entered their automobile without a struggle and went with them to police headquarters at Napanee.

Police then disclosed that Childs, known in this district as John Nelson, was wanted for the theft of a razor, pillows and clothing from Ephraim Robinson, on whose farm he had worked since March. He had been missing from the Robinson farm since Tuesday.

Police said Childs bought 200 rounds of ammunition for a .22-calibre rifle in Selby Tuesday, and spent most of that day in the bush, firing round after round. He is believed to have spent Tuesday night in the McQuaig barn.

Acquaintances said Childs was a crack shot with a rifle. He used to throw bottles into the air and smashed them with rifle fire before they hit the ground.

Friends of Childs said he once told them he came from Calgary and had been travelling around since he was 12. He worked on another Selby district farm and at a sawmill near here before taking the job on the Robinson farm.

Leave For Europe

QUEBEC, June 30—(CP)—With a summer of work, travel and study in Europe ahead of them, 1,450 Canadian and United States students boarded the liner Volendam today.

More than 100 Canadians are making the voyage, among them a group of 48 whose trip is sponsored by the International Student Service of Canada, a voluntary education organization with headquarters in Toronto.

The national secretary of the Canadian ISS, Matt Saunders, of Toronto, said today the 48 students, including 10 girls, would hold a five-week seminar at Kasteel-Bouvigne, a social education centre near Breda, in Holland. The seminar opens July 11 to close Aug. 13. The over-all theme of discussions will be "the individual and society."

New Low Mark In Britain's Gold Reserves

LONDON, June 30 (AP) — Britons may get a jolt next week when their financial chief, Sir Stafford Cripps, tells them how far Britain's gold and dollar reserves have sunk in the last three months. Estimates place the decline at $160,000,000 to $200,000,000.

John W. Snyder, United States Treasury Secretary, is expected to confer next week with Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Prime Minister Attlee, on Britain's monetary plight.

Elsewhere vital talks are going on or being scheduled between high Western economic leaders.

In Paris, the "cabinet" of the 19-country organization for European economic co-operation is debating on the immediate future of Western Europe's financial and trading policies.

Sir Oliver Franks, Britain's Ambassador to the United States, has been told to speed a scheduled trip home for talks with Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Sir Stafford on the over-all economic situation.

Send Ministers to London

The British Government has called on seven Commonwealth Governments and Southern Rhodesia to send Finance Ministers to London by mid-July to study the situation brought about by the sinking dollar resources of the whole sterling area.

An official source took a grave view of the British economic picture.

Britain's reserves stood a little under the £500,000,000 ($2,000,000,000) government-set danger line at the turn of the year. In the first quarter they sagged by £20,000,000.

Two More Seats May Go To CCF

VANCOUVER, June 30—(CP) —Mrs. Dorothy Steeves, C.C.F., has won the Burnaby-Richmond constituency—unofficially. In the only British Columbia riding in doubt following Monday's federal election, Returning Officer M. M. Reigh, at the end of a preliminary count yesterday, found the C.C.F. candidate 16 votes ahead of Liberal rival Tom Goode.

Figures released showed Mrs. Steeves with 13,650 votes; Goode, 13,634. Final official figures will be released later today.

Mrs. Steeves would be the only one of 15 women candidates to be elected.

Overtakes Liberal

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., June 30—(CP)—The possibility arose Wednesday that the C.C.F. might win Melfort constituency where Liberal T. R. MacNutt appeared to have been elected in Monday's Dominion election.

Results announced Wednesday for 128 of the constituency's 132 polls gave P. E. Wright, C.C.F., 7,078 votes, Mr. MacNutt 7,036 and A. M. Campbell, Progressive Conservative, 2,226. Election night returns from 100 polls were Campbell 1,989; MacNutt 6,066; Wright 5,713. Mr. Wright held the seat in the last House.

Should the C.C.F. take the seat when the count is complete it would give them 14 seats in the House and make the standing of other parties: Liberal 191; Progressive Conservative, 42; Social Credit, 10; Independent, 4; Independent-Liberal, 1; Total, 262.

Opinions Divided On Council Of Press

Newspapers Say Report Complete Vindication of British Press

LONDON, June 30 — (CP) — The British Press today either rejects or accepts with strong reservations the royal commission's recommendation that a "voluntary" general press council should be set up.

The report of the commission, published Wednesday after more than two years of deliberations, recommended that the council should be set up as a central body "to safeguard the freedom of the press, maintain and improve its standards and foster integrity and responsibility towards the general public."

Almost every newspaper, with the single exception of the Communist Daily Worker, regards the report as a complete vindication of the British press.

But many newspapers in editorials emphasize the need for a full parliamentary debate on the commission's findings.

The Liberal News Chronicle calls the report "a disappointment" with "few helpful suggestions for reform where reform is needed."

The newspaper adds:

"The investigators have failed to come to grips with the real problem of the press... The commission was aware freedom of the press needs protecting and enlarging but as to what this freedom precisely means or how it can be safeguarded its report says little.

"A general council of the press is advanced as a watchdog without any very definite idea of what it's supposed to watch."

Other editorial comment includes:

The Times (Independent): "It remains to be seen what advantages by way of better standards the press and its public could hope to derive from a council, if set up. On the face of it except as a mirror of the striving of the industry itself... It is hard to see beforehand what practical ends the council could serve."

Daily Telegraph (Conservative): "'How far a body so constituted can achieve anything in a functional way is open to serious doubt. Moreover, the right which it is proposed to give it of considering and dealing with any complaints it may receive about the conduct of the press opens the door to legislative control."

Daily Express (Imperailist):

"The commission has blown this whole fabric of spleen and falsehood sky high. The honor and honesty of British newspapers are completely vindicated.

"The contention of the need for a general council is illogical. The argument of the commission will be thought by the people to lead to a totally different view—that the British press is sound, vigorous, responsible and should be left to serve the public unimpeded."

27 Counties To Celebrate Centenaries

TORONTO, June 30 —(CP)— Twenty-seven of Ontario's 43 counties this year mark their 100th anniversary. The first to stage a celebration is Lambton, which today holds special festivities at the southwestern Ontario city of Sarnia.

Middlesex has set Aug. 17 as the date for its observance at London. Some others have yet to announce whether they will take special notice of the close of their first century under the present system of municipal government.

The counties which date their existence from passage of the Baldwin Act in the parliament of the province of Canada in 1849 are: Carleton, Essex, Kent, Frontenac, Lennox and Addington, Hastings, Huron, Lanark, Renfrew, Leeds and Grenville, Lincoln, Lambton, Haldimand, Welland, Middlesex, Norfolk, Northumberland and Durham, Oxford, Peterborough, Prescott and Russell, Prince Edward, Simcoe, Waterloo, Wentworth, Halton, York and the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry.

Since the act was passed, 16 additional counties have been created. All 43 counties have county councils on which sit the township reeves and other heads of smaller units of municipal government in the county.

The Baldwin Act—it took its name from its sponsor, Hon. Robert Baldwin, Attorney-General of Canada in 1849 — realized the hopes of men who saw that the pioneering regions of early Ontario could best develop under the unifying guidance of a county council rather than under the disinterested supervision of a central government. The act went through in the face of some opposition.

But the years that followed proved the wisdom of the far-sighted Baldwin and his supporters. All the eastern half of what is now Canada was evolving from a struggling beginning under colonial rule to the brink of a sturdy independence—and the youthful Ontario counties led the way.

would be kept on the force in view of his previous good record and length of service with the force.

One of the best athletes on the Toronto force, Keay was suspended June 14 and the only indication of the nature of the charges came from Mayor Hiram McCallum ,chairman of the police commission, who said they were "serious."

Keay was rated as an ace investigator an one of the most competent men on the force. He was active in the prosecution of drug addicts and runners. Circumstances of the death of a narcotic addict were reported to have been reviewed at the hearing. Th detective's connction with the death was not revealed except that he was called o the house following the death.

When informed of the Board's decision, Keay said he would return to his duties as a first class constable.

"I was exonerated in everything except my personal conduct," he said.

T. B. Horkins, who represented Keay, said there was no suggestion that Keay had committed any illegal act. His demotion had come because the Commission felt he was guilty of "indiscretion" in his personal conduct.

Churchill Rated As Having Leading Theatrical Voice

NEW YORK, June 30—(CP)— Winston Churchill has the most theatrical voice in the world and Trygve Lie the most sincere.

At least, that's the way the National Academy of Vocal Arts rated them yesterday in a list of the 10 outstanding voices of the world.

Movie actress Lauren Bacall, the only woman named, has the sexiest voice, the academy said. The most effeminate is that of Emperor Hirohito of Japan.

The remaining top 10: Suavest, Dean Acheson, United States state secretary; most authoritative, Ben Grauer, radio commentator, reporter; most paradoxical, Sir Stafford Cripps, Britain's chancellor of the exchequer; most explosive, Leo Durocher, fiery manager of the New York Giants; friendliest, Dan Seymour, radio master of ceremonies, and most pugnacious, John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers Union.

Churchill, Britain's wartime prime minister, rated as having the most theatrical voice because he is "always the actor playing to an audience," said Arthur Lessac, director of the academy. The secretary-general of the United Nations won the nod in the sincerest voice category because he speaks in a "simple, direct and believable manner."

Miss Bacall? Her voice was characterized as "sexiest" because of its subtlety, said Lessac.

He said Sir Stafford won the most paradoxical category because his appearance leads people to expect a basso profundo and instead they are "confronted with a sandpaper coloratura."

Grasslanders

Col. Kennedy said Ontario farming could not afford to be static and satisfied with itself. Its history was a long and extremely interesting story of progress in ideas and methods, and also in its mechanics. It had advanced from the sickle to the cradling days, and then to the reaper, the binder and the combine. Recent years had brought forth great changes in the implements of farming, and the Minister said it was an encouragement to him and his Department to see the general response to the recommendations of the Department and the Ontario Agricultural College.

Improved pastures demanded more recognition by farmers of the basic importance of soil fertility and its maintenance against erosion. He cited an example of a farmer who had cropped excessively without putting back into the land the mineral content the grain and grasses had extracted from it. At length that man realized that he had been impoverishing his farm, and had to set about replenishing it with fertilizer and humus. Col. Kennedy spoke of the effect of new pasture practice, in protecting moisture in the soil, and told his audience that the Grassland lessons would reward them, if put into practice.

Incidentally, the Minister said that by 1950 more than 80% of the farmers of the province would have electricity in their homes and buildings.

George A. Gillespie, general chairman of the grassland affair, was chairman of the early afternoon speeches from a convenient truck, and with benefit of a vocal amplifier. Hon. Harold R. Scott spoke briefly after the Minister congratulating the district committee on its enterprise.

Mr. Lanthier's practical talk on hay-making is reported elsewhere. The last speaker was Prof. Knox, following his long job of selecting the winning bales from the 44 entries.

Parade Of Machines

Prof. Knox and Mr. Lanthier discussed the principles of modern haying, and were followed by various demonstrations of the implements of practice. A long row of machines paraded across the field to the explanatory accompaniment of James R. Scott of the OAC department of engineering. They were all tractor-drawn, with the conspicuous exception of several mowers using teams. This mechanical show included mowers, delivery rakes, hay loaders, forage harvester, buckrakes, hay balers, suction blowers, and also several spraying machines that were displayed in action during the morning.

Machines In Operation

Following the parade the machines went to work on the Rowland farm's hay. Most of the field had been cut several days ago as a preliminary to the operation of the loaders, rakes, forage harvester, balers and so on. A small area had been left in standing hay for the mowing machines.

The crowd shifted around from one stage of demonstration to another. Tripod curing attracted general attention off in one corner, as several of the big loading machines backed up to the tripods on to which their picked up hay was transferred in the ordinary way of that method. The operation of the forage harvesters which pick up hay, chop and load it into a following wagon was one of the big features of the practical demonstration of the machines in action.

Most of the work was finished by four o'clock in weather that appeared to promise rain. Clouds overcast the sky both morning and afternoon, excluding the sun and its direct heat, a favorable circumstance for the Grassland crowd. Most of the spectators had left for home when rain began to fall.

Reeve M. H. Johnston was vice-chairman of the general committee, F. C. Paterson, secretary, and Wilson Gemmell, treasurer.

Robert McAdam was chairman of the grounds committee with Vern Campbell, R. Armstrong, Alex Huston, Cliff Curtis, Wes Wilson, Omemee, W. Sutton and J. R. Scott of OAC.

The members of the machinery committee were: Art McIntyre, S. Hall, C. Curtis, H. Ball, R. Wright, W. R. Godson, Wm. Winslow and Basil Ball of Campbellcroft.

A. G. Douglas was chairman of the publicity committee with Graham Eastwood, vice-chairman; reception committee: W. W. Dawson, chairman and Warden Wm. Darling, vice-chairman.

Prize Winners

William J. Murphy, of Katmur Farms Ltd., Lindsay, won the $100 prize for the best bale of 1949 crop hay. This prize was contributed by Canada Packers Ltd., and was presented by Graham Eastwood representing Gordon S. Matthews, general manager of the Peterborough plant.

Donald Cathcart of Cavan township was awarded the second prize one ton of fertilizer donated by Peterborough District Co-Operative Services.

Mr. Murphy is one of the leading members of the Holstein cattle fraternity in this district. and is widely known among breeders. His prime bale was a mixture of alfalfa and timothy, and the second prize entry was of the same combination.

Forty-four bales of this season's crop were assembled from a wide area of Central counties in the morning feature of Grassland Day.

Third prize of $25 went to E Oliver of Otonabee for a mixture of timothy, alfalfa and grasses. Four prizes of $10 each were awarded, in order, to: Will J Seymour of Cavan for a bale of alfalfa, alsike, red clover, timothy, and orchard grass.

Leitchcroft Farm, Gormley, alfalfa and timothy, entered by J. D. Lanthier, one of the afternoon speakers. Setting out for the district Grassland Day, he put a bale in the back of his car, and it was good for a $10 prize.

Albert Pearson of the Weston area of York county was next with alfalfa and timothy. In seventh place was Stewart Dawson of Otonabee, with alfalfa and a mixture of grasses. J. G. Mann of Smith was in the next position with a bale of clover, alfalfa and timothy; Harley Cathcart of Cavan, alfalfa and timothy; and Earle Brown of Newcastle, also alfalfa and timothy.

The general range of territory from which the competing bales were brought to the show was indicated by the following geographic names: Picton, Milliken, Fenelon Falls, Woodville, Stouffville, and nine counties were represented in the array of bales of fragrant grasses and legumes.

Expert's Compliment

The judge of this competition was Prof. Knox of the animal husbandry department of OAC. In a comment to the Examiner on the quality of the hay specimens,, he said: "The entries were all of excellent quality. The most of them were obviously harvested in the right state of maturity and dryness, and also had proper mixtures of legumes and grasses.

So far as the judging is concerned, it was very difficult as evidenced by the fact that only 6.75 points separated the first and tenth awards, on the basis of 100. Fewer than half a dozen bales had too much moisture. There was every indication of sound practice in the cutting and baling of the hay in the right condition."

Prof. Knox said he was impressed by the evidence that the grasslanders of central Ontario are becoming more "hay-minded" as compared with "pasture-minded". He explained that farmers generally throughout the province had made rapid development in good pasture practice in recent years, but they had been a little tardy in adopting the more advanced ideas and methods in haymaking. The 44 bales in the competition had shown to him that farmers of the central counties were following modern procedure as recommended by the OAC and department authorities, backed by field and barn experience.

Strikers Picket 23 Print Shops

TORONTO, June 30 — (CP)— Five hundred lithographers in three Ontario cities plan to picket 23 plants, 21 of them in Toronto.

Workers in four Toronto plants went on strike Wednesday for a new working contract. Employers retaliated by closing the remaining 17 plants in Toronto, one in Hamilton and one in London.

The Amalgamated Lithographers of America (CIO) called the four-plant strike after negotiations for a new contract bogged down. The old contract expired last Jan. 1.

Main union demands are 37½ hour work week, a 10-per-cent wage increase, sick and accident insurance and a pension fund. Employers have offered a 15-cent hourly increase, a welfare and pension fund, but no change in hours.

Union secretary Harold Keenlside said Wednesday night "conditions were bad" in the four plants where 56 men left their jobs. The plants involved are Alexander and Cable Lithographic Co. Ltd., Bridgen's Ltd., Offset Print and Lithograph Co. Ltd. and Strathmore Press Mr. Keenlside said 350 men in Toronto are affected by the strike and lockout.

H. D. Holden, general manager of Offset Print Company, said the lithographers, who print labels, cheques, calendas and posters, are among the top-paid trades, with the average minimum wage at $1.58 an hour, but majority of workers made more. With over-time a top-paid craftsman could take home more thon $100 weekly, he added.

Say 82 Killed In Raid On City

SHANGHAI, June 30 (CP). — The Communists announced officially to-day that the toll in the Nationalists' first heavy bomber raid on Shanghai Wednesday was 82 killed and 99 injured. No foreigners were reported among the casualties.

The Red garrison headquarters said all the casualties were in the Chapei district, crowded Chinese quarter of the city. One of those killed was a Communist soldier, the announcement said.

An earlier casualty check by the newspaper Sin Wan Jih Pao put the dead at 43 with 65 seriously injured and 126 slightly hurt.

(The garrison announcement apparently included only those killed and seriously injured.)

Early Housing Action Predicted By Frost

LONDON, Ont., June 30.—(CP).— Mayor Ray Dennis said yesterday that Premier Frost predicted to him that the Ontario and Dominion governments would reach an early agreement to provide increased housing aids.

Premier Frost came to London to lay the cornerstone of a new Anglican church and later he and the mayor held a conference on the housing situation.

Mayor Dennis said the Premier advised against precipitous action in any municipal housing scheme that would involve subsidization of would-be home owners.

Tourist Dollars To Offset Unfavorable Trade Balance

OTTAWA, June 30 — (CP) — The tourist dollar this year is expected to play a bigger part than ever in Canada's fight to stay out of the red.

Government officers say that invisible earnings through the tourist trade likely will offset the recent decline in Canada's international commodity trade position.

This position has worsened to the point where Bureau of Statistics figures show a Canadian deficit of $3,000,000 for the period January-April, 1949.

It is the first unfavorable balance for that period in recent years. Favorable trade balances for the months January-April stretch right across the trade picture from 1935 to 1946.

However, the commodity trade figures do not take such invisible earnings into account as those obtained from tourist business. Last year this business netted Canada $150,000,000 in hard-dollar currency. This year she expects to do even better.

As indications, the Dominion Tourist Bureau reports ever-increasing numbers of requests for tourist information, while the Bureau of Statistics notes an increasing stream of United States cars crossing the Canadian border.

For the first five months this year, there was an increase of 12 per cent over last year in the number of motor permits granted to U.S. travellers.

Drowns In River

BROCKVILLE, June 30 (CP)— Roger Larocque, 14, was drowned Wednesday when he hit an electrically charged pipe while swimming in the St. Lawrence River. A companion, Bill Lindridge, also came in contact with the pipe but managed to drag his friend ashore. The water pipe ran into the river from a summer cottage near the west end of the city.

Final Result Still In Doubt

LONDON, Ont., June 30 (CP)— The official totals of eight subdivisions still are missing in Monday's Dominion election mixup in Middlesex East, Returning Officer Charles Cousins said yesterday. Eleven were missing at first, but three reached him by mail Wednesday.

He thought that the remainder might be enclosed in the official envelopes in sealed ballot boxes, and he hoped to straighten out the riding's tabulation by the end of the week.

Meanwhile latest recheck of polls in the urban-rural riding decreased to 46 votes the lead of Harry O. White, Progressive Conservative, over Fred O. Kime, Liberal, Tuesday, his lead climbed to 58, compared with the unofficial figure of 48 on election night. About a score of deputy returning officers failed to report directly to Mr. Cousins on Monday night, resulting in erroneous totals that gave Mr. Kime pluralities up to 1,200 votes.

The servicemen's vote remains to be counted, and the result will not be known until Monday. It is estimated there are up to 200 service votes to be tabulated for the riding.

Mr. St. Laurent later called on the Governor-General, Viscount Alexander, a post-election formality.

Six of the Cabinet were on hand when Mr. St. Laurent returned to Ottawa from Quebec where he heard the results of Monday's election when his party captured an unprecedented majority in the Commons.

It was learned the Cabinet decided on further discussions with United Kingdom officials before making a final decision on the London conference. A formal announcement is expected within a few days.

To Reduce Imports

The discussions, it is believed, involve the possibility of reduced British imports from Canada because of the dollar shortage. That possibility, in turn, raises the possibility of a new Canadian loan for Britain.

This exchange of views with the UK is aimed at finding out what the conference may mean to Canada's dollar holdings and her earnings.

Mr. St. Laurent is the only party leader in the capital but Solon Low, Social Credit chief, is expected to return today. George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, who stayed in Ottawa during the election, left for a northern Ontario holiday Wednesday while M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader, is expected Saturday from Rosetown, Sask.

Speed Hunt For Boy Lost In Bush

Find Footprints Believed Those Of Missing Youth

VAL D'OR, Que., June 30.—(CP).—Gaston Marquis, leader of one of the parties looking for 16-year-old Gollis Grey, missing since Saturday, late Wednesday found footprints believed to be those of the missing boy, approximately four miles southwest of where he was last seen.

Experienced bushmen said the footprints were made by a size seven rubber boot and they think the wearer was staggering, possibly from fatigue.

Searchers said the tracks indicated young Grey was heading southwest further into the muskeg and bush area between Lakes Bourlemaque and Marnet.

Chief A. D. Riddington of the Bourlemaque police organized 60 new volunteers from nearby mines into parties to follow the new clues.

The search is rapidly growing in pace despite belief openly voiced by townspeople that the lad is not lost. They say he knew enough about the bush country near his home not to become lost.

Finding of the boy's brown jacket in the bush Wednesday spurred on the searchers and helped to assure them that the boy is actually somewhere in the bush.

Young Grey was last seen shortly after noon Saturday when he set out from home saying he was going fishing in nearby Lake Blouin. He had no money and was to have begun work at Lamaque mines Monday.

Metered Market Joke Proposal C of C Informed

Parking meters in the market square, open hours of gasoline stations, a ward system in the city, and a city manager form of government all received a going-over by members of the Chamber of Commerce at its last regular meeting of the season Wednesday night.

The meeting had been called by President Wilson M. Gemmell partly to present amendments to the chamber's 30-year-old constitution for members' approval or disapproval. There were not sufficient members present to hold a vote. President Gemmell said he would call a special meeting immediately to have the constitution amendment ratified.

Instead of having a guest speaker for the meeting, the chamber members themselves discussed several questions considered of importance to the city.

Metered Market Joke

One member who is familiar with the city council's meetings, said he thought the proposal to have parking meters on the market square had been nothing but a joke at the beginning. "It sure caused a furor though," he observed.

One member asked the group whether the meters had been introduced as a measure to ease the parking situation or to get revenue.

He was answered by a man who had been on the council which introduced the meters that the council's only consideration had been the parking problem.

Discussion of the meters closed with one member stating if the council's proposal had been merely a joke, it was time the people of the city and surrounding country were told about it.

Service Station Hours

A service station operator who attended the meeting said the loud arguments about keeping service stations open all night had been stirred up by a few people motivated only by self-interest. The organization of service station operators was merely trying to defend itself from distatorship by oil companies, he said. He pointed out only a few operators in the city owned their own stations.

"We don't want to work 24 hours a day," he said. "We want to live like human beings." He went on to tell the Chamber that the gas station operators' organization had agreed among themselves to suply gas, wrecking service, and repair service in emergencies. Tourists finding themselves in difficulties have only to call the police station to get this service.

Ward System Discussed

The merits and demerits of the ward system of city government were discussed with demerits most prominent in the discussion. One man suggested the only organization in the city promoting the ward system was the Allied Labor Council, and he had yet to find out why it wanted the system.

Criticisms of the ward system as it had operated some time ago in the city were offered by two former council members. One said it had been difficult at times to get men in some wards to run. On some occasions, said the other ex-council member, ward councillors had promoted the selfish interests of their own ward without any regard for the city as a whole by agreeing to support the measure of some other ward in exchange for support for their own proposal.

Disapprove City Manager Plan

The question of having a city manager to run Peterborough for the council was generally disapproved by the chamber although the plan had some strong supporters. One veteran of civic affairs said the idea was good where there were strong pressure groups as in the United States with many city council members merely appointees of the major federal political parties.

"I don't know what the city manager can do, the council can't do," he said. "As far as Peterborough is concerned, the city has been very well governed," he declared.

A film promoting free enterprise as a way of life entitled A Letter From America sponsored by a rubber manufacturing company was shown.

Raid Kills 43

SHANGHAI, June 30 (AP) — Forty-three persons were reported killed Wednesday in the Nationalists' first raid on Shanghai with heavy bombers. The casualty figure appeared today in the newspaper Sin Wan Jih Pao, which also reported 65 persons seriously injured and 126 slightly hurt.

Circle Conducts Sunset Service

MILLBROOK, June 30—(ENS).—Last meeting of the Golden Links Mission Circle this season took the form of a sunset service at the home of Miss Estella Hetherington. From Miss Hetherington's verandah the Circle members had a fine view of the sunset and also saw a rainbow.

Mrs. Edmund Ball conducted the worship service, the theme of which was Faith. It was based on the Scripture reading about faith, like a grain of mustard seed removing mountains. Mrs. Ball closed this part of the service, comparing a child's faith in his father to faith in God.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by the recording secretary, Miss Betty Lunn. The treasurer, Miss Edith Thorn, reported more than $50 in the treasury.

Mrs. B. E. Ingham was appointed delegate to the school for leaders to be held at Whitby in the latter part of August, with Miss Marjorie Skitch as alternate delegate.

Miss Jean Winslow sang. Mrs. Homer Ouelette, temperance secretary, presented a report on the work of alcoholic anonymous.

A farewell address was read by Miss Jean Burnham to two of the members who are moving away. Mrs. George McQuade was presented with a chatelaine, whose gold chain it was hoped would remind her of the Golden Links Circle. Mrs. Gordon Powell was presented with life membership in the Circle.

The story of the "Rebirth of Tony," dealing with the need for understanding and friendship of newcomers to Canada, was read by Mrs. B. E. Ingham.

Mrs. Henry Gray, Mrs. David Lunn and Mrs. Kenneth Pennington were supper hostesses. Refreshments took the form of hot-dogs and coffee.

Says Drinking Cause Of Theft At Cobourg

COBOURG, June 30 (ENS) — Frank Linton of Cobourg was allowed on suspended sentence for two years when he pleaded guilty to theft of a skill-saw and theft of cement from the construction company working on the local sewage disposal plant.

Chief Carey said that on June 16 he learned that 200 bags of cement were missing from the construction company warehouse and that he and Constables E. Butler and H. Pearse investigated.

Also assisting in the investigation was Constable H. Seale who recovered 84 bags that had been sold to a farmer by the acused. Another farmer was contacted who had bought 40 bags and had used all but three of them.

Chief Carey said that Linton had co-operated with the police in recovering most of the stolen cement. Through information supplied by Linton, 30 more bags were found, leaving all but 48 bags recovered. The skill-saw was recovered in Oshawa where it had been sold by Linton, the Chief said.

Russell Manning, chairman of the veterans' rehabilitation committee of Cobourg, said that Linton had always behaved himself as long as he left liquor alone. He had a family consisting of his wife, whom he married overseas, and two children. The Legion had obtained a job for him if he was allowed on suspended sentence.

Chief Carey concurred in the opinion that liquor was the root of Linton's troubles. Magistrate W. Gee accordingly allowed him on suspended sentence for two years.

Recreation Centre Contract Awarded

COBOURG, June 30—(ENS)—The contract for the new recreational centre was let yesterday afternoon to the Hipel Construction Co. The building is to cost $100,000. Artificial ice and some extras will bring the total up to around $150,000.

Within the next 10 days Mr. Hipel will be in Cobourg to sublet the various contracts and let the tenders. Mayor Joe Smith stated that where possible all tenders for plumbing, etc., will be let locally. The official ceremonies marking the construction of the building will take place during the civic holiday weekend.

Teacher Receives Gifts On Leaving

OMEMEE, June 30 (ENS)—Miss Lorna Graham, teacher of grades five and six at Omemee Public School, was honored Wednesday by her pupils with a presentation on the occasion of her leaving the school.

The presentation was made by Beverly Linsdell after Mary Ann Pooley had addressed Miss Graham as follows:

Dear Miss Graham—We are sorry that you are giving up teaching school. You have been most patient with us and we feel that you have not only been our teacher but also our friend. We regret your departure but are happy to know of your approaching marriage. In asking you to accept these small gifts we wish you happiness in the years that lie ahead.

Beverly Linsdell, on behalf of Grades 5 and 6 pupils, presented the teacher with an electric iron and some small linen gifts.

New Legislature Called To Meet July 11

By JOE McSWEEN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., June 30 — (CP)—Newfoundland legislators face a busy summer.

Premier Joseph Smallwood announced Wednesday night that the 28-member house will open July 11. It is likely that the session will last about six weeks, perhaps longer.

This first provincial legislature will have to deal with many problems arising from the March 31 confederation and it is probable the scores of important bills will be put through before the session breaks up.

Mr. Smallwood also announced two shifts in his 11-man cabinet.

Health Minister Quinton, member of the seven-man commission government that ruled the island before union, also will assume the portfolio of finance. He succeeds Gordon A. Winter, interim cabinet minister who did not seek election in Newfoundland's first provincial contest May 27.

Home Affairs Minister Philip Forsey will become acting minister of supply as well. He replaces interim minister Addison Bown, defeated in last month's election.

21 Liberal Members

Liberals have 21 members in the 28-member legislature. Progressive Conservatives will occupy five seats and an Independent one.

Campaigning now is underway in Labrador where polling was deferred to July 25 because of weather conditions. The Labrador member probably will be able to take his seat in the house before the session ends.

The Progressive Conservatives have not yet announced who their house leader will be. Party Leader Harry Mews was defeated in the election.

Premier Smallwood said previously that he intends to introduce a labor bill at the first session. The house may also take up Dominion-Provincial relations.

The 28 members represent 25 constituencies. There are three dual ridings—St. John's East, St. John's West and Harbor Main-Bell Island.

HELPS FRENCH CHILDREN—Ruth McKinnon of Cupar, Sask., physiotherapist at the Veterans' Affairs hospital in Saskatoon, has been appointed to the Unitarian Service Committee's home for war-mutiliated children near Paris. Miss McKinnon, who served three years with the Canadian Army overseas, will teach 58 youngsters who lost arms or legs during the war how to use their artificial limbs.

A Near Miss

CAMPBELLFORD, June 30—Five minutes after Chief Constable George H. Hardy had left the CNR station early Wednesday morning, thieves broke into the baggage room by pulling the staples on the door. They fled empty-handed when the night operator, Bill Mowatt, spotted them entering the main office through a window.

CNR police George Foster of Belleville and Provincial Constable Arthur Kellogg, Hastings, are assisting Chief Hardy in the investigation.

School Pupils Picnic At Grant Kerr's Home

BETHANY, June 30—(ENS)—Pupils of Franklin School, with their teacher, Mrs. Mansell Wright, were entertained by Grant Kerr at a picnic at his home on Monday. Reports were given out and after a hike and games, lunch was served on the lawn.

Alberta and Keith Heasman, who will be attending Omemee school, beginning with the fall term, were presented with parting gifts from their fellow pupils. Marie Neil read an address to Alberta and Muriel Neil presented her with a refreshment set. James Freeman read the address to Keith, and Grant Kerr presented him with a leather billfold.

Further Dominion-Provincial Agreement?

The Liberals campaigned on their governmental record, and made no new large promises. Nevertheless, it can be expected that early in the new Government's career renewed attempts will be made to reach agreements with all the Provinces on social and taxation measures, either through a new Dominion-Provincial conference, or severally through negotiations between individual provinces and the Dominion Government. Social and financial progress in Canada is impeded and the country's life as a strong federation is blighted by overlapping taxation authority and the Federal Government's lack of power to legislate on many matters which are truly national.

* * *

The British North America Act of 1867 under which this country became a nation alloted specific governmental powers to the Provinces, and all others not specified in the Act to the Federal Government. However, the intentions of the framers of Canada have been modified by events. These are, first, judicial interpretations which have successively restricted the Federal Government's scope in the last fifty years; secondly, new social and industrial developments not foreseen in 1867, and thirdly, the intransigence of certain Provincial leaders who, to the national detriment, would concentrate more and more power in Provincial hands.

* * *

Dominion-Provincial relations are the most important matters facing Canadians today. The problems of the modern world and of an increasingly important northern half-continent in it cannot be coped with by a loose confederacy of eleven sovereign powers. The St. Laurent Government and the King Government before it attempted through Dominion-Provincial conferences to bring harmony out of constitutional, political, social and cultural chaos. It is to be expected that another attempt will be made by the Federal Government, now that Mr. Drew is in Federal politics as Leader of the Opposition and should be able to take a more national view than he did as Premier of Ontario. Mr. Duplessis, still in the saddle in Quebec, cannot speak on these matters with the authority he had in 1946, for in the recent elections Quebec Conservative candidates, campaigning with nearly official support from Duplessis' Union National Party, were repudiated at the polls. Mr. Drew and Mr. Duplessis were the two men most responsible for the breakdown of the 1946 Dominion-Provincial Conference.

* * *

The cry of "centralist" thrown at the St. Laurent Government was an electioneering bogey. Mr. Wilfrid Eggleston, a reporter who has made a close study of Dominion-Provincial relations, says in his book The Road to Nationhood that "anyone but a student on the subject might be astonished to discover that precisely the opposite trend (opposite toward centralization) has been evident since 1867.", and he remarks further that:

"In an age when the surrender of some national authority to supra-national agencies appears inevitable, it would be anachronous that the residue of rigid autonomy left to individual provinces should be so potent as to thwart and baffle steps toward effective international agreement."

We would add "and effective Dominion-Provincial agreement."

Who Knows Best?

During the recent election campaign it was said many times that the Liberal party had become a socialist party, and several examples of advanced social legislation were given to support this argument. But we think that the people who said so were shaky in their ideas of what socialism really is; very briefly, socialism means the nationalization of the means of production, distribution and exchange and all that such nationalization implies. What it implies, in fact, is a considerable degree of interference with many aspects of private life.

We have been struck by a passage in a book called The Socialist Case by Douglas Jay; talking about food and the socialist attitude toward the national diet he says:

First, housewives as a whole cannot be trusted to buy all the right things where nutrition and health are concerned. This is really no more than an extension of the principle according to which the housewife herself would not trust a child of four to select a week's purchases. For, in the case of nutrition and health, just as in the case of education, the gentleman in Whitehall really does know better what is good for people than the people know themselves.

This is a good line of argument. Most social workers and doctors will agree that there are hundreds of women in every community who know next to nothing about the proper feeding of their families. By no means all of these women are found among the poorer classes. And it seems reasonable to argue, as Mr. Jay does, that as public officials know best about education, and control it, they also know best about feeding, and should control that. A well-meaning mother may stoke her children with bread and jam when what they need is green vegetables; why should the children suffer for her ignorance?

No doubt the government experts know best about many things. But where is this process of "knowing best" to end? Undoubtedly a ministry of health could do a wonderful job of improving the national physique by telling everyone whom they should marry, rather than by allowing a free choice in that matter. And perhaps government advisors could increase national efficiency by directing everyone into the work which they are best fitted to do, instead of allowing people to try a variety of jobs, many of which are obviously ill-suited to the capacities. And it is an easy step from telling people what they should eat, whom they should marry, and what they should work at, to telling them that the government knows best how they should be ruled, and that they have no further voice in the matter.

Such suggestions are not as absurd as they seem. These things could happen. Belief in "the gentleman at Whitehall" (or Ottawa, or Canberra) can lead to almost any excess of government. The deification of the expert is the great danger of socialism and all forms of government which are influenced by it. Now although there can be little doubt that in most cases the trained man is better fitted to deal with a particular situation than the untrained one, it has been shown time and again that experts can be wrong, and that experts unchecked by intelligent non-experts are highly dangerous people. Experts are too often technicians, too rarely philosophers. Experts are too often concerned with small achievemnts, rather than with great ones. And even such a matter as nourishing a nation properly can be called a small achievement, if it costs that nation its will-power and sense of responsibility.

And what has all this to do with Canadian Liberalism? Merely this: the Liberal party, entrusted with the government of a great country in a period when no government can escape the socialist influence, or neglect the importance of expert advice in many spheres, has always avoided the deification of the expert, and has used common sense as a brake upon theorizing. This is one respect, and a most important one, in which it has never slipped into the socialist morass.

Government Without Quebec

It has been said ever since this country was formed that no Federal Government could hold power without Quebec. That has theoretically been disproved in Monday's elections. Although the Liberal party did receive overwhelming support in Quebec, Mr. St. Laurent would have been able to form a government without relying on a single Quebec member. There were 68 Liberal candidates elected in Quebec, 192 in the whole Dominion. Without the 68 Quebec Liberals Mr. St. Laurent would still have behind him 124 Liberals from the rest of Canada, enough to form a Government. These 124 are only nine short of an absolute majority (133), and outnumber by four the 120 Conservative, C.C.F., Social Credit and independent candidates elected.

The point we make is completely theoretical, of course, but it does shatter the theory that a Canadian Government cannot be formed without solid Quebec support.

We learn that Russian newspaper readers are now being told that it was Soviet equipment alone which defeated the Germans. Such claims will undoubtedly be interpreted as an unwarranted invasion of the U.S.A.'s sphere of activity.

A London Letter from

CONRAD FROST

SUDDENLY it is summer and "flaming June". Suddenly this week, all England is a Garden. The suburban front plots bloom out in a riot of rose. The window boxes of the city flats blaze with geraniums. The biggest window box in the world, along the entire length of the Amalgamated Press building just off Fleet Street, is exotic with hundreds of hydrangeas.

❖ ❖ ❖

BUT the flower show to beat the lot takes the breath away at the Colonial Exhibition in Oxford Street, where a 1,500 square foot jungle is so like the real thing that people come out feeling sunburnt! The whole thing is starched cotton and paper. Thirty factory girls from Bow Street wrought this tropical magic when the tall order to make a jungle in Oxford Street came along. Samples of jungle flowers — bougainville, oleander, hibiscus and dozens of others — were sent from Kew Botanical Gardens as specimens.

❖ ❖ ❖

EVERY new blueprint for London's future has the accent on brightness and gaiety. My word, but Paris will have to look to its Boulevards, pretty soon! The Government has a national plan up its sleeve to turn bombed sites all over the country, and especially in London, into colourful gardens. All the rubble and weeds will be replaced by trim little lawns and gay little flower beds by 1951, in time for the Festival of Britain Exhibition.

❖ ❖ ❖

THERE'S a plan to turn Battersea Park, now rather uninviting, into a great "Tivoli." There will be open air restaurants, side-shows, Continental style cafes fully licensed, orchestras and dancing. A fleet of water launches will take visitors from the 1951 Exhibition to the park. Three-quarters of a million people are expected at the Exhibition. The organizers are agitating for a special fleet of planes to carry the 250,000 visitors who, it is expected, will want to fly to Britain. There just aren't enough planes and ships available to bring all the expected visitors, and more ships cannot be built in time. But the Ministry of Civil Aviation is doubtful whether it can put on a passenger air lift on such a scale. Anyway, they say, the organizers are planning for more visitors than the hotel industry can cater for. Even camps in Richmond Park, special Festival hostels, and an appeal to householders to take in visitors, will not provide enough beds. Summer nights, our Embankment is quite a place to sleep!

❖ ❖ ❖

BUT all this overcrowding is quite a temporary thing. If the Royal Commission on Population, whose report is out today, is to be believed, there will be plenty of room for visitors to any Exhibition planned for the London of 2001. By then, they say, the elderly will vastly outnumber the young. There will be too few workers. For the first time in history, there will be more men than women. The report is alarming. They ask that the Government should do everything to encourage larger families. They recommend a State allowances of 10/- a week for every child. They recommend that the tax-free £60 allowed for a child should rise to £150 a year.

❖ ❖ ❖

BUT none of these suggestions answers the state of mind that says: "But we don't want more than two children." Chief political alarm centres around the Commission's prediction that soon emigrants from this country will only fulfil a quarter of Commonwealth needs for new population.

❖ ❖ ❖

MEANWHILE, here and now, visiting any but five of London's West End Theatres, you might suppose "it" had happened already. Most theatres are half empty. Jack Hylton has had to deny a rumour that the cast of hi. "Ann Veronica" have offered to take a voluntary salary cut. Evelyn Laye's "Two Dozen Red Roses" have wilted on her. At the Ambassadors "Dark Of The Moon" is about to be eclipsed. At the New Theatre, "Champagne For Delilah" is a little flat. The cinemas are not doing well, either. And the publishers are biting their fingernails, although of course Author Winston Churchill is not worrying about the sale of "Their Finest Hour", second volume of his war memoirs, tardily due for publication on Monday. The Churchillian epic is already doing very nicely in America and the Continent, a curious state of affairs caused by the fact that, to protect rights, export copies have to go out very early. And since the American edition was beginning to flood the continent, it was decided to release the British edition overseas in advance of the home release.

ONE reason for everybody's troubles—ranging from the Royal Commission's concern about the falling birth rate, to the theatrical manager's moan about empty seats—is the shrinking value of the pound in terms of cash purchases.

Here is an example of what has been happening over here. Three years ago it was proposed to repair the unique Norman church at Hadleigh in Essex, one of the Luftwaffe's first targets. The estimate was £700 but a building licence could not be obtained. Now at last the builders are on the job. The repair bill in 1949 will be £3,000!

MAN of the week, 80-year-old Samuel Taylor of Isleworth, London, is cutting a new set of teeth. His white hair is turning brown again, and he is walking 80 miles a week for exercise. Two years ago he hobbled. The doctors are baffled. Maybe Samuel is the answer to the population problem. At Wimbledon this week, tennis stars are finding Television sets installed in their dressing rooms so that they can watch opponents and colleagues in privacy. And, at last it has happened. Spectators who find they have a poor view from their seats will be permitted to look-in on special sets. Prowling around London with a somewhat frightening stare is director Jules Dessin, who made "The Naked City," which "starred" New York. Dessin will make Gerald Kersh's book, "Night And The City" here, with photogenic London as the background. "I have to look at cities as if they were actors" said Dessin. He finds the place still pretty crowded!

MORE and more bylaws will put another 50 streets out of bounds for parking cars. And more and more enforcement of a lot of little laws has caused 24 'barrow boys', street sellers, to be arrested in the swank Park Lane district. Scathingly commented one Cockney after his Black Maria ride and half crown fine. "Five blinkin' million laws, and still they don't improve on the Ten Commandments."

Exercise Foil, a nine day air exercise on "Battle Of Britain" scale begins this weekend, with American Superfort squadrons taking part. Everything, including 8,000 reserve "observers" playing their war time part, will be on a full war-scale. Significantly, night raiding will be done by the R.A.F. and the Americans will fly by day alone.

❖ ❖ ❖

AS soon as the ack-ack smoke clears, Field Marshal Lord Montgomery will be on his way to sea with the Western Union Fleets to take part in massive exercises, biggest ever in peace time. A soldier on the Admiral's Bridge of an aircraft carrier, Monty has overall command of sea, air and land forces of the Western Union armies. It's a big job. Who knows, if peace could be guaranteed, maybe all the taxation inducements wouldn't be needed to persuade people to have families. The Royal Commission ignored this aspect.

Letters To The Editor

A CALL TO ACTION

Sir: Citizens of Peterborough—we are trying to start a campaign. Will you not help us? We beg you—consider your duty as a citizen of Peterborough, consider your responsibility to the children of Peterborough.

We all know the deplorable condition which permits filthy sewage to drift down the river. We moan and groan about the unhealthiness and unpleasantness of such a situation among ourselves but that is not enough. The responsibility lies with each one of us. If a child dies from those contaminated waters, you and I are responsible because we failed to do what we might have done. Do not look around and try to point a condemning finger at some one else—we are to blame. If we leave one stone unturned in the campaign for a new sanitation plant.

What is it that we can do—we who call ourselves citizens? We can write, write, write, every night, night after night, to the Examiner in order that others may be aroused; to the councillors, in order that action may be taken. If they refuse to take responsibility we can write the Provincial Health Department in Toronto and force action. Do not feel that it is enough that someone else writes; write yourself. It may take hundreds of letters to bring action and yours may be the one that is the turning point.

Do the Councillors feel that they are God that they dare to meddle with life as they are doing? How can they live, knowing that because of their negligence, lives, precious lives may be lost?

When we put those Councillors in as leaders of our city it was because we had confidence that they were fit to be leaders not "hanging dogs". Yet that is what they are in a matter that is of vital importance to the welfare of all. Must we lose that confidence?

And do not feel that you are not in danger if you live in the west, east or north end. Any day your child may linger a moment to play in that inviting water, forgetting that danger lies in those calm ripples. He may never be able to walk again, he may not live, for those pleasant waters are infested with millions of bacteria. An epidemic will not respect the division between the "ends" of a city.

Do we want to be responsible for even the loss of one life and live with the knowledge that you've failed when the challenge was thrown to us? Councillors, we challenge you, do you dare longer to meddle with life which is God-given and should only be taken by God.

The time has come to stop bewailing the filthy condition to our neighbours. The time has come to write and demand action to keep writing and insist upon action.

Past letters brought comments at the Council meeting. We want more and with God's help we shall have action.

"ANOTHER SOUTHENDER."

TRIBUTE TO MARTIN CHENHALL

Sir: It was a great personal shock to hear of the sudden death of my beloved predecessor at St. Paul's, Martin Chenhall. In him Peterborough has lost a fine musician, a courteous gentleman and a game fighter. He led a full and active life to the very last, and I am sure that the end came as he would have wished.

His memory will be kept green for a long time to come by those who knew and loved him.

Yours,
CHRISTOPHER GLEDHILL.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying, Thus speaketh the Lord God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book. For, lo, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the Lord: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it....

For thus saith the Lord; We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace ..Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him: but they shall serve the Lord their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them. (Jer. 30: 1-3, 5, 7-9.)

And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward: not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God; who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life....

Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. (II Cor. 3: 4-6, 17.)

Unwanted Leisure

He was a go-getter, had been a self-starter all his life. He was a top-notch executive, had lived for, on and with the job. Until he reached the age of 65. Then—it seemed abruptly—came the saw-off. He became a forcibly retired executive. Within the year he was dead.

Maybe you knew him. Chances are you did. For he was no one individual, he was the prototype of many who strut the business stage today. And it could be you.

One major Canadian company with a long-established pension plan finds that on average its men die 18 months after retirement.

Every day this year about 230 Canadians will come to the 65th milestone along the road of life. Fully half will be men. And the great majority will be abruptly uprooted from their life's work whether they like it or not whether they're behind the executive desk or at the factory bench.—Cyril Bassett in Toronto Financial Post.

A Contract Lost

A Canadian who well understands the importance of boosting British imports recently had occasion to buy half a million dollars worth of special equipment for a new building.

He directed that British suppliers be asked to bid for the business. Full specifications were sent with the invitation.

Over a month later he received a reply, apologizing for the delay, saying the firm "might" be interested, asking if an engineer could come over to investigate in about two months.

What happened? The Canadian hit the roof, telephoned a U.S. supplier. An engineer was here about 24 hours later and in 48 hours the contract for U.S. equipment was signed.

JUBILANT SUPPORTERS—Liberal supporters, friends and neighbors packed Grande Allee, the broad street on which Prime Minister and Mrs. St. Laurent live in Quebec City, as news of the Liberal victory spread throughout the old city Monday night. Here the prime minister, scarcely visible as the crowd presses in around him, waves in greeting as he emerges from his home for a triumphal tour around his home city.

Claims Industry Great Suburban Planning Asset

TORONTO, June 30 (CP). — Anthony Adamson, architecture professor at the University of Toronto, disrupted discussions of the Ontario Community Planning Association Tuesday when he blasted Protective Planning Legislation, especially at Port Credit.

"Industries are vital to us," he told the 30-odd delegates. "Five industries pay half the taxes in Toronto. Without them you'll have homes and children to send to school—but no playgrounds, no sidewalks, nothing else."

Prof. Adamson said industries must get tax concessions to attract them to the suburbs. Without industries there could be no neighborhood planning.

P. Alan Deacon of Toronto was elected Association chairman for the coming year, succeeding W. H. Clark, Toronto. Dr. Albert Rose, Toronto, was named vice-chairman.

New committee members are: David Jamieson and Mrs. I. Francis, Hamilton; Robert Revie, Cornwall; Roy Coope, North Bay; Campbell Calder, London; Prof. A. Adamson, Port Credit; G. F. Koch, Guelph; J. S. Allin, Arnold Ward and Prof. Kent Barker, Toronto.

Are To Discuss New Liquor Plan

TORONTO, June 30 (CP). — A new liquor policy for Ontario will be discussed when the Provincial Cabinet meets to-day, it was learned in government circles here on Wednesday.

It is understood that decentralization of the present Liquor License Board is one of the main items up for consideration. Disbandment of the board, set up under legislation in 1946, would result in its replacement by local liquor boards in the various districts of Ontario, it is reported.

A clean-up of the beverage room situation, about which complaints have been increasing, is also predicted. But what steps will be taken in this connection are not yet known. Informed sources say that Col. Arthur Welsh, Chief Liquor Commissioner for Ontario, is considering suggestions which would make Canadian beverage rooms more like English pubs.

Toronto Lawyer 26, Appears Before Privy Council

By NORMAN CRIBBENS

LONDON, June 30 (CP). — Ronald C. G. Wilson, 26-year-old Toronto lawyer, has practically started his career at the top.

Only nine months after graduating from Osgoode Hall, he gained the distinction of appearing, in traditional wig and gown, before the law lords of the Privy Council — highest court in the British Commonwealth.

Wilson represented Mrs. Minnie Mead May, elderly Vancouver woman, in her unsuccessful claim to the ownership of a mining property in British Columbia. He took on the case despite the fact that for 33 years numerous Canadian lawyers have pleaded it unsuccessfully.

Youthful Figure

A youthful-looking figure in austere, time-honored surroundings, Wilson spoke clearly and forcefully and was afterwards thanked by Lord Simonds, Council chairman, for his presentation of a "very sad story of litigation."

Although her petition was rejected, Wilson said afterwards: "It was a valuable experience. Their Lordships gave me a full and fair hearing."

But for an accident of the war, Wilson might never have become a barrister. In 1945, while serving at Guam as a radio officer of the merchant marine, he caught a tropical disease and was transported home via San Francisco.

"Doctors advised me I was not well enough to return to the service as I wished," he told The Canadian Press. "I decided to take up law instead, and disregarding their advice, enrolled for a law course at Osgoode while still in the convalescent stage.

"There were times when I regretted this. The first year was heavy going. Several times my examinations were interrupted by internal bleeding, but somehow I managed to sweat through and get my degree."

Soon after leaving school, Wilson became a licensed commercial radio operator and started an amateur radio station, VE 3 EAN —later used to train Royal Canadian Sea Cadets at North Toronto.

On Radar Units.

During the war, as technical inspector of radio units for the Allied Forces, he worked on naval radar units. His main interests, apart from law, are radio, sailing and fishing, farming and boys' work.

Wilson came to London in December, 1948, to study at London University and the London School of Economics with a view to specializing in shipping, naval and international law.

He goes to The Hague in July to attend the International Conference on Current Matters of International Law at the Peace Palace. He plans to visit Paris and is seeking a permit to enter Germany "in order to take back to Canada a first-hand account of what is going on there."

Hollywood Celebrities Planning New Playhouse

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, June 30 (AP). —Los Angeles will have a new legitimate theatre, promises Gregory Peck.

This metropolis has long had but one regular legit theatre. A group of stage-minded filmites, headed by Peck, hope to alter that situation. They plan to build a playhouse in Beverly Hills.

"But it may take two years," Peck said.

Jottings

Joan Davis, making a film return in "Turned Up Toes," tells me she turned down a tempting television offer because it had to be done in New York. . . .

Charles Bickford think "Whirlpool" will be his last picture for this year. Income tax, you know . . .

Puzzle of the week: How the Screen Writers Guild named "Treasure of The Sierra Madre" as the best "Western" of 1948. Maybe it should be classed a "musical" because Walter Huston did a jig in it. . . .

Mario Lanza's next film will be "Kiss of Fire" with Ava Gardner and Kathryn Grayson. Big things are planned for the lad. His studio has even been dusting off "San Francisco" for a possible remake with music. . . .

More Notes

Bob Hope is being urged by Simon and Schuster to compose another book, this one to be on Hollywood. The comic is toying with the idea. . . .

There'll be a gala opening for the younger set next week. Jane Powell's Pa is opening another malt shop. Jane, Roddy McDowall and Claude Jarman, Jr., will be there to help throw in the first egg malted. . . .

Betty Hutton has spent weeks rehearsing dance numbers with Fred Astaire for "Let's Dance." Her comment: "Now I know why Ginger Rogers turned to dramatic roles" . . .

A sign before an apartment house on Wiltshire Boulevard is drawing raised eyebrows: It advertises: "Furnished bachelors."

Kingston To Build Propane Gas Plant

KINGSTON, June 30 (CP). — The Public Utilities Commission has decided to build a propane gas plant here, following a recent visit to a similar plant in Peterborough. From plans submitted the estimated cost is between $55,000 and $68,000. The gas plant here has been operating at a deficit for some years because of increased costs of materials.

EYE TOPICS

SUN GLASSES

Few people realize the scientific difference between cheap, blown lenses and scientifically ground optical lenses which have no refractive power or may be ground to the individual prescription of the wearer. Cheap blown lenses have no optical property whatsoever and are full of triae and chromatic aberration both of which are very harmful to the eyes.

In recent years many people who already wear glasses are having their prescriptions made up in absorptive lenses. This is an ideal arrangement and the cost of these lenses is very little more than a good pair of sunglasses.

If you wear glasses and do a lot of driving or engage in swimming, boating, golf, skiing and so on ,we recommend that you have your prescription made up in any of the following lenses: Calobar, Ray Ban or Tone-Ray.

Should you desire further information about these lenses we would be pleased to discuss them with you, or any other visual problems that you may have. Enquiries should be addressed to A. Ward Smith, Optometrist, 341 George St., Peterborough, (Over Selkirk's). A personal visit to Mr. Smith at this address would be even more desirable.

Leafs Beaten By Newark; In Fourth Place

By The Associated Press.

Newark Bears are a weak last-place outfit in the International League pennant race but when it comes to belting home runs, the Bears tip their hats only to Toronto Maple Leafs.

Wally Hood, thanks to a trio of roundtrippers, pitched Bears to a 11-6 triumph Wednesday night over the Maple Leafs.

Lou Novikoff started the Bears' home run parade with his 15th of the season in the second inning off Bill Smith. Smith left the game in the fifth when the Bears pushed over five runs to clinch the game.

Bud Heslet accounted for three of the runs with his 10th homer and Hank Workman for the other two with his 13th four-bagger of the season. The three barrier blows boosted Newark's output to 67. The Leafs lead the league with 79 homers.

Collect Seven Hits

Toronto collected seven hits off Wood including two homers by first baseman Bill Glynn. The homers were Glynn's 15th and 16th of the campaign.

The defeat dropped the Leafs from third to fourth place in the standing in favor of Jersey City Giants who trounced the second-place Montreal Royals 17-3.

George Bamberger coasted to his ninth victory of the season as the Giants supported his eight-hit pitching with a 20-hit barrage against a trio of Montreal pitchers.

Neal Watlington paced the Giant drive with five hits. Watlington slammed two doubles and three singles, drove home five runs. Shortstop Hank Thompson chipped in with two homers, his 13th and 14th of the season and Monte Irvin with his eighth.

A scheduled doubleheader between Buffalo and Baltimore was rained out and a carded single game between Rochester and Syracuse was postponed because of wet grounds.

LAWN BOWLING

By HERB MARTIN

Just a little sunshine,
Just a little rain;
Just a little laughter,
Just a little pain.

Those 6:00 o'clock showers that came on Wednesday were just enough to force the cancelling of the rink tournament. However, bowlers are not registering any protest—those showers are badly needed.

The program for the balance of this week is:

Tonight — scheduled games

Friday—1:30 p.m., mixed rink, open tournament for the Ovaltine Trophy.

And on Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m., the ever popular Family Hour tournament.

CGE Rubs Out Petes In Cup Play

CGE are district representatives in the Ontario soccer cup after defeating the Petes 3-1 Wednesday evening at King Edward Park before a fair attendance in spite of rain that ceased before the kick-off. Charlie Murduff, at centre-forward, CGE scored all three goals to climax a perfect performance. Best for the losers were E. Dane, J. Hennessey and W. Cribbis.

Right from the kick-off the Petes concentrated in long swinging passes that upset the combination of CGE but they weathered the pressure with Craig being injured temporarily. Then Cotton beat four men in a row to miss his objective by inches. Petes retaliated with a series of raids that finally terminated in Cribbis opening the scoring with a free kick that bulged the net. Strong, Cotton and Gourlay played the dominant part in an effort to gain the equalizer, and Strong rattled the cross-bar only to witness the ball bounce back into play. Craig smashed the cross-bar from a free kick to end the first half.

New Attack

On resuming, CGE introduced a new attack in Charlie Murduff at centre-forward and they were rewarded a little later when he accepted a perfect pass from Gourlay to even the count. Both teams steadied themselves down to await the break and it went in favor of CGE as Strong broke fast on the wing to make a beautiful centre into goal where Murduff connected with his head to make it 2-1. George and Newt Downer made their presence known as they harassed the CGE full backs. Exchanges thereafter were keen with the CGE making the decision positive on a break-away by Cotton-Strong wing with the latter sending a perfect cross to the waiting head of C. Murduff and make it read 3-1.

Petes—G. Foster, goal; T. Foster and D. Downer, full backs; K. Downer, E. Downer and N. Lane, half backs; L. Payne, H. Payne, E. Lane, W. Cribbis and N. Downer forwards: subs., J. Downer, G. Downer, J. Hennessey.

CGE—J. Chamberlain, goal; S. McGann and S. Murduff, full backs; H. Steel, J. Craig and H. Booth, half backs; R Strong, E. Cotton, C. Murduff, D. Gourlay and J. Goodhew, forwards; subs., F. Attard, R. Tollinton and J. Titshell.

Referee, Tom Garland; linesmen, T. Foster, Sr., and Ed. Woodcock.

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

Eight national junior championships will be decided in connection with the British Empire games regional swimming trials at Vancouver July 26-28. Games officials said Wednesday they decided to allow the juniors to swim alongside the seniors during the trials. Junior events will be the 100-yard backstroke, breast stroke, and free style plus the medley relay for girls and boys. Any sensational times recorded in these events will be given every consideration for a berth on Canada's squad to the games in New Zealand.

Reason for the juniors' inclusion in the trials is that there hasn't been a national title meet for youngsters in years.

The British Empire games wrestling trials and Dominion championships will be held at Montreal Oct. 21 and 22, it was announced Wednesday by Frank Saxon, chairman of the committee in charge of the two meets.

Dick Dougherty, 16-year-old golfer from St. Thomas, carded a 77 over the par 72 rolling Sunningdale Golf Club course at London, Ont., Wednesday to top all youthful golfers competing in the Ontario junior qualifying trials.

Dougherty's five over par was one better than the 78 carded by another St. Thomas golfer, Don Pullen, 17. Both players qualified to compete in the Ontario junior championships in Toronto July 15 in the 16, 17 and 18-year-old group.

A total of 63 entries from Hamilton and district played over the par-63 Chedoke course here at Hamilton Wednesday in the district qualifying round for the Ontario junior golf championship. Of the 10 players qualifying in Class 1 (16-18 years) nine turned in scores under 80. Jim Neale, of Dunnville, was low with 75 while Ramsay McDonald, Glendale, Don Zeigler, Rockway, and Jack Tweedle, Fergus, were but one stroke behind with 76.

Ouilla Hanover and Our Time were winners Wednesday in the two divisions of the Abbedale Stakes for two-year-old pacing fillies at Roosevelt Raceway, Westbury, NY, winners' share of the $15,675 divided Grand Circuit purse were $3,526.86 each.

Lefthander Max Lanier, the National League's leading pitcher when he jumped to Mexico in 1946, notified St. Louis Cardinals Wednesday that he is rejoining the club. Lanier, recently reinstated by Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler, will receive a contract calling for the same amount he signed for in 1946. Lanier's salary at that time was $11,500.

The Vancouver team of Walt Stohlberg and Lorne Maine scored a decisive 6-2, 6-2 victory over the Montreal duo of Percy Bennett and Ellies Tarshis Wednesday in the doubles event of the Quebec Provincial open senior tennis championships at Montreal. In another match, Laird Watt and Pierre Dessaulies of Montreal were upset 6-4, 3-6, 6-3 by Montrealers Jean Jacques Desjardins and Jean Paul Cofsky.

Leo Bertuzzi of Hamilton on Wednesday night hammered out a five-round decision over Glen Dafoe of Oshawa in the inaugural boxing card of the newly-formed Westinghouse War Vets' Boxing Association at Hamilton. Bud Pipher of Oshawa won his action-packed five-rounder by belting Jerry Boileau of Kitchener into submission after 1:36 of the third round.

Chicago White Sox Wednesday announced the return of pitcher Alex Carrasquel, who jumped to the Mexican League in 1946.

Navy Chief, owned by E. P. Taylor of Toronto, Wednesday scored his fourth triumph and first stakes success when he captured Aqueduct's $15,000 added Great American for two-year-olds. The War Admiral colt led home his Tremont Stakes conqueror, Vera S. Bragg's Fox Time by 1½ lengths to earn $11,850 and boost his total to $24,850.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Lots of senior baseball for the fans here these days. House of David touring and bewiskered pros play the Petes at 8.30 tonight in Riverside under a good set of lights. Standards are 40 feet high and will give folks an idea of the sort of arcs we should have. Canisius College of Buffalo—those college chaps who show here every summer and are always popular—make up the holiday attraction tomorrow aft with the Petes. A double-header for one price, the teams playing at two o'clock and again at four. If the weather keeps clear and warm, these tussles should draw big crowds. The Petes then trek to Belleville for a game Saturday.

* * * * * *

While the Petes are curently atop the COBL pile, they look for lots of opposition the rest of the schedule. Most particularly from the strong Oshawa Merchants, this Gingerich hurler having buffaloed them three times so far this semester. Bataws Shoemen will be bolstered, too, with Trenton dropping out of the Belleville and District Baseball League. The locals are through with Brockville now, unless meeting in playoffs, but the eastern club will no doubt affect the standing considerably ere playoff time. COBL schedule runs until Aug. 20, with top three teams going into playdowns, the Petes of course hoping to make the "A" series as they've done the past two years when they won loop titles.

* * * * * *

Into The Back Stretch

Men's City Softball League schedule has barely a month to go, as it winds up on July 28, with playoffs following. Naturally, there's quite a dogfight now, with three clubs battling hard—and at times bitterly—for top spot, and another club within striking distance. Cosmos and Uniteds are tied for first, one game in front of Knights, who in turn lead Outlaws by three tilts. Spencer of Uniteds has served his one-game suspension and can play again, while Harrison of Uniteds and Don Griffin of Knights will sit it out in the July 5 fixture between these clubs. Games tonight: Knights vs. Outlaws, and Jewellers vs. Cosmos.

* * * * * *

Owen Sound Crescents, looking about the pick of the OLA senior "A" group at present, play the Armstrong-sponsored Petes at 8.45 Friday night in Miller Bowl. Yes, a holiday eve game, and it should pack the outdoor arena to the skyline. The Creighton crew has been coming along good lately, especially at home, and will give the Crescents a busy evening, win, lose or draw. It's mighty hot work for the padded players puffing around and smacking each other about, but an ideal summer sport for fans on a warm e'en. And they're seeing some swell lacrosse served up this season since the senior "B" champs of '48 stepped up.

* * * * * *

Gave Them The Works

While Mimico beat the Petes 35-16 away last night, the locals lost three of their aces early. Milne of the Mounties was in mean mood and started a fight in the first minute of play with Dootch Vitarelli. The fight resumed in the cooler and Lou Vitarelli, who tried to make peace, was attacked by Milne. All three drew match penalties and Milne again started a scrap as they left. It touched off a free-for-all among players and fans. A wild go for a space. A little later, Em Creighton was cut over the head with a stick and had to leave the game, having a five-stitch job. So Mimico had things their own way then. Gair led with six goals for the rough homesters. Teatero had five for the weakened Petes, McNulty and Jerry Creighton three each, Foote two, with Thorpe, Magee and Dugan each counting one. Suspensions may follow the big fight.

* * * * * *

Referee Barnard is generally blamed for balling things up when Milne went wacky. The Petes will protest if the OLA suspends Lou Vitarelli. He didn't touch Milne, but merely told him to take it easy when he started the second time on Dootch. Milne then laid him flat with an unexpected punch. Again, Milne turned on Lou as they were leaving the field with match penalties and smacked him again. Dootch evened that up with a dandy, though. Following the Petes' win o'er Hamilton Tigers, it looked like the Mounties decided to soften the Creighton crew up early last night and stop any chance of another upset. Their plan clicked okay.

Mimico Gains Victory Against Petes

By The Canadian Press

Peterboro' Lumberjacks were trampled in senior Ontario Lacrosse Wednesday night when Mimico Mounties handed them a 35-16 defeat. In a second game Hamilton Tigers squeezed into overtime with Weston West Yorks with a last-minute goal and went on to win 15-14.

Top scorer for Mounties was Gord Gair with six goals while Ken Dixon and Doc McKay each picked up five and Mickey McDonald and Doug Beatty potted four apiece. Williams, Peterson and Hewitt each scored three and McPhail tallied twice. Leo Teatero with five goals and Jim McNulty and Jerry Creighton with three each were Lumberjacks' top scorers. Foote, with two goals and Thorpe, Magee and Dugan rounded out Peterborough's scoring.

Top Scorer

Jack Dorney, with four goals was Hamilton's top scorer, while Jamieson picked up three. Jack Gair, Black, Welch and McDonald each tallied twice. Ted Downer pelted in five goals for Yorks while Venner and Purdue each scored twice. Other goals were by James, Hill, Skhordoff Gair and Harold Downer.

Weston had a 4-2 lead by half-time, with Hamilton taking an 8-7 edge of the third quarter. Dorney gave Hamilton the tying goal just before the end of regulation time and the teams were tied 14-14 with only one second remaining in the overtime period when McDonald scored the winning goal.

Mounties had no trouble with the Lumberjacks, winding up the first frame with a 9-2 lead and extending it to 25-6 by the end of the third quarter. Peterborough seemed to come to life in the final frame, thumping Mounties for nine goals, but couldn't even win that frame, allowing Mimico 10 goals.

Tonight, St. Catharines play at Owen Sound.

Carleton To Play Cricket Club Here

On Friday, July 1, the Peterborough County Cricket Club meest Carleton County in Nicholls Oval. This is the first round match in the annual counties' competition for the R. C. Matthews' Trophy, emblematic of the Ontario County championship. The Peterborough team won it last year.

Carleton County is a picked eleven from the Ottawa Valley Cricket Council. It is an all-star cast, and after the match here, four of the Carleton players will participate in the Ontario test trials in Toronto this coming week-end.

Last season, these same two teams met in Ottawa, with Peterborough gaining a close victory. In the final game on Sept. 6, the local team beat Wentworth County by nine wickets. The winner of Friday's game meets one of the Southern Ontario counties in August. Local citizens are invited to see the match in the Oval tomorrow afternoon.

Ashby's Take 7-5 Win Over Lindsay

Ashby's pulled out a 7-5 Girls' Softball League victory over Lindsay on the latter's diamond last evening in a snappy encounter. The winners had a slight edge in the hitting and pitching departments but kicked in with one more error. Doris McFadden pitched 10-hit ball, fanning three, while two twirlers saw action for the homesters It was close all the way, with Lindsay threatening to overhaul the Ashby lasses toward the finish. Play was quite even halfway through.

J. Dunk and M. Freeman for Ashby's and P Graham and D Madill for Lindsay shone afield, M Freeman saving a couple of runs with a fine catch in the eighth. Lindsay had two double plays, M. Chase to P. Graham to D. Wakelin and H Deyell to P Graham. M Freeman and R Gilmour led at bat with three hits, including a triple each, and L Jordan hit a homer P. Graham and M. Chase led Lindsay with three hits, and A. MacDonald had a three-bagger

Belleville Boy Wins Out In Junior Golf

Two Belleville boys and one from Cobourg led the way among those qualifying in the district OGA junior golf championships of Ontario held here yesterday. Just 19 entries competed at the Peterborough Golf Club links, including several from Belleville, Cobourg and Port Hope, and the two local clubs.

Four qualified in the group of 16 to 18 years, with Henry Puotinen of Belleville's Bay of Quinte Club and Bryan Sheery of Port Hope tying with 80 each and Puotinen winning first prize on a toss of the coin. Frank Bulger of Cobourg carded 81 and Don Joss of Belleville 83. It is a par 70 course.

In the 14-15 year class William Miller of Belleville was first with an 83, while Ian Whitefield of Cobourg also qualified with a 93 score. Dick Jeffery of Cobourg had 95 to qualify for boys 13 years and under.

While the entry list for this important junior tourney was smaller than anticipated, competition was keen on a fast course. There were 11 in the older class group, five in the next one, and but three in the 13-years and under section. Prizes were presented after by Robert Abbott, member of the OGA executive. Rain came heavily shortly after the tournament finished.

Admit Garson To Ontario Bar

TORONTO, June 30 (CP). — Justice Minister Garson Wednesday delivered the convocation address to 160 new lawyers, largest class ever to graduate from Osgoode Hall Law School, and then himself was admitted to the Ontario Bar.

Mr. Garson, former Premier of Manitoba and a member of the Manitoba Bar, was sworn in as a member of the Ontario Bar by Chief Justice R. S. Robertson of the Ontario Supreme Court.

In his address, the Justice Minister told the graduates that "the rule of law is the very essence of our system of government" and emphasized the importance of the law in maintaining the essential freedoms of democracy.

The 160 graduates, many perspiring freely in their traditional black gowns and winged collars in the crowded room, included four women and 142 war veterans.

BIGGEST LEGISLATOR—The biggest seat in Canada's new parliament will be occupied by John R. Garland, who was elected in Nipissing constituency in Monday's federal election. The new Liberal M.P., who tips the scales at more than 500 pounds, is believed to be the heaviest man ever to win a Commons seat. He is shown being congratulated by his Progressive Conservative opponent, Dr. Avit Seguin.

John James Has Lead Of 318

PORT HOPE, June 30. — With substantial majorities in Port Hope, Darlington, Bowmanville, Clark and Newcastle John James, Liberal, was elected in Durham County on Monday over C. E. Stevenson, PC, of Port Hope. James carried his home town of Bowmanville and also the home town of the Progressive Conservative candidate. The unofficial total is James 7,134, Stevenson 6,818, for a majority of 318. James Kenny, the CCF candidate, polled 1,340 and lost his deposit.

Millbrook, Cavan, Manvers and Cartwright or the northern section of the riding all gave Stevenson big leads. Orono and Clark piled up majorities for the Liberal as did Port Hope, Bowmanville, Newcastle and Darlington.

The vote was:

	James	Kenny	Stephenson
Port Hope	1448	529	1362
Hope Township	584	131	612
Clarke	1005	—	924
Newcastle	275	17	165

Wins Fight To Adopt Chinese Girl

NEW YORK, June 30—(AP)—A six-year-old Chinese girl arrived Wednesday night after a 12,000-mile plane trip from China to be adopted by a former United States soldier

Frank J. Chisori, 24-year-old radio technician, wept as he greeted the child he found four years ago beside her mother's body and cared for in the fuselage of a wrecked plane.

The meeting ended a long fight by Chisari to bring the child to the United States.

The girl, known only as Ann, were flown here by a reporter and photographer for the New York Daily News, and an army nurse.

The newspaper's aid was enlisted by Chisari after, he said, reveral agencies gave him "the cold shoulder" in his attempts to get permission to bring the girl here.

The state department later gave the child special consideration to get her in under the Chinese immigration quota.

A thousand people watched as Chisari picked up the girl and hugged and kissed her.

Ann, who was still almost a baby when Chisari left her in a Lutheran orphanage, was impassive during the meeting.

Chisari said he planned to bring Ann up as his daughter, and in a strictly "American way."

Chisari, and his wife, Antoinette, 25, have two other children, a girl the same age as Ann and a boy, 2½.

Declares Bribe Was Offered Him

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 30 (CP). — W. A. Bustamante told the Jamaica House of Representatives Wednesday that World Radio Corporation of America had tried to bribe him. The Minister of Communications, Labor Party Leader and virtual Prime Minister, said representatives of the corporation offered him a large share of stock in the company if he obtained a broadcasting franchise for it.

Opposition members objected to a Bill granting a francise to a Kingston company. They asked that all applicants for a licence state terms of their offers before the House.

Bustamante later agreed to this and the matter will come up again on Tuesday.

Headquarters of World Radio Corporation are in Elkhart, Ind. It has a branch in Brooks, Alta.

Must Be Segregated

OWEN SOUND, June 30 (CP)—Welfare Minister Goodfellow of Ontario said Wednesday that the segregation of residents in homes for the aged is a necessity. Addressing the Ontario Association of Managers of Homes for the Aged and Infirm, he said: "Mentally deficient patients get into the homes with senile cases and we must keep these types saparate. It is deplorable to see mentally deficient people thrown in with intelligent old people."

Prices Show Drop

OTTAWA, June 30 (CP) — Wholesale prices of building materials dropped in May along with a general price decline in the wholesale price structure, the Bureau of Statistics reported on Wednesday. Calculated on the basis that 1926 equals 100, the general wholesale price index stood at 156.4 in May, compared with 157.5 in April and the all-time high of 159.6 last December. The index still was six points above the level in May last year.

Urges Improvements

WINDSOR, Ont., June 30 (CP) —Dr. Harvey Agnew, executive of the Canadian Hospital Association, told a Royal Commission on Wednesday that a psychiatric section and extended social services should be included in expansion that is immediately necessary at Metropolitan General Hospital. "Plans should be laid right away to expand the hospital," Dr. Agnew said reporting on a recent investigation he made at the city-owned hospital.

India Engines Christened

MONTREAL, June 30 (CP).—An impressive dockside christening ceremony here Wednesday marked the first shipment of 33 heavy duty locomotives which are being built in Canada for the Government of India. A total of 200 locomotives will be shipped to India.

From a silver urn, Sardarni Malik, wife of India's High Commissioner to Canada, poured sacred water from the River Ganges on the last of 33 locomotives loaded on Wednesday.

As she poured the sacred water she christened the locomative "Asoka," in memory of India's famed humanitarian ruler of the third century BC.

The 137-ton engines are destined to replenish India's war-depleted railway equipment.

The ceremony was witnessed by members of the Indian diplomatic corps, including His Excellency Sardar Hardit Singh Malik, Indian High Commissioner to Canada. Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe Minister of Trade and Commerce, represented this country.

$50 Insurance For Each Pupil Board Suggests

Adoption of an accident insurance policy covering all children attending city schools has been recommended by the Finance Committee of the Board of Education.

Under this plan public school pupils and PCVS students would be insured for $50 against accidents occurring on school premises or even outside the premises if under teacher supervision.

The $50-a-pupil insurance would be used to provide for medical expenses, doctor's bills and other necessary incidentals in the event of injury.

Parents To Pay Cost

Cost of this scheme would be borne by the parents. Rates for a year's protection for the child are set at 25 cents a public school pupils; 35 cents a high school student not taking shop work; and 50 cents a student taking shop work.

Several of the committee members stated they thought the rates very reasonable in view of the protection afforded.

All children must be included before a company will grant insurance and members emphasized that if the parents did not sufficiently support the scheme it could not be undertaken.

The accident insurance is in addition to the liability insurance already in force.

Chairman G. W. Craw stated that every year a boy breaks his leg playing football, and there are other minor accidents caused by that game. He pointed out that this is a financial blow to the parents and the insurance plan would be a help in such cases.

Same Plan Other Cities.

The policy would not cover mishaps to rural children going to and from school on the school bus. But if a bus were hired by the school and an injury occurred the child would be eligible for the benefit.

Similar plans are in force at Belleville, Chatham, London, Ottawa and Stratford.

A. Pitchford said the best recommendation for the plan was that it had been in force at London since 1941.

"It is a forward step," said Frank Jobbitt. "We can try it for a year and if it don't work out then we can discontinue it."

"It's worth trying for a year," agreed the committee chairman. "We'll endeavor to collect as much as we can."

If the committee's recommendation is accepted by the Board it will go into effect at the beginning of September.

Mrs. Louie Jane Graham, 561 Weller Street, died at her residence Thursday after an illness of several years. Mrs. Graham was born in County Wicklow, Ireland, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marlboro Douglas. Her husband, George Parke Graham, predeceased her.

Mrs. Graham had lived here for six years, coming from Toronto. She was a member of the McDonnel Street Gospel Hall.

She leaves one daughter, Miss Amy M. Graham, of Peterborough.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Belleghem Funeral Home, 190 Hunter Street, with Mr. A. G. Shantz of the Gospel Hall officiating. Burial will be in Little Lake Cemetery.

Friday The Big Fish Day Bass, Muskie Season Opens

Why is it, in fishermens' homes, you see mounted trophies of small mouth bass and lunge, occasionally a fine specimen of trout and seldom, if ever, a pickerel? The answer is very simple because the fighting qualities of the first two types put them in a class of their own, trophy types, if you like.

People in the Kawarthas are in an extremely fortunate position, living in the very midst of the finest muskie and bass fishing grounds on the continent. The waterways are a natural for their breeding requirements, so natural in fact that the Department of Lands and Forests find it their most prolific spot for gathering spawn for distribution throughout the Province.

The Big Day

July the 1st is the day fishermen have dreamed about for many months, the day on which they will go to their favorite fishing haunts to battle with threshing muskies and black bass that explode from the dark water on the end of taut lines.

Trophies are for the taking for men in all walks of life. The operator of a Chinese laundry knows just as much about good fishing possibilities somewhere down along the Otonabee River as an industrial executive who owns a two-mile water front and a cruiser. They may not talk in the same tongue but, when bitten with the bass-muskie bug, race, creed or color is forgotten and mutual admiration for each other's prowess links them.

Fish Limits

So that every person may have his share, there are naturally a few restrictions. Each may catch two muskies a day providing they are 30 inches in length from the snout to the fork of the tail. With bass, either large or small mouth, the limit is six per day and minimum length of six inches. On tario residents pay no fee for the privilege of taking these finny fighters. And it is a great privilege when you stop to think about it.

There is no use anyone predicting at this date how fishing will be this season because experience has taught us that forecasts can be so wrong. However, some of the well-known spots in the Trent chain can be reviewed, and there is every reason to believe that this year will produce some all-time records.

Good Fishing Spots

If black bass is your quarry, fast water and rocky shoals is your best spot, providing you pay out plenty of line. Your chances for large mouth bass, casting with plugs, will be best along the edges of weed beds and lily pad areas.

So, take your choice of Stony, Kosh, Katchewanooka and White Lakes. There is also Pigeon, Balsam, Cameron and Sturgeon and the thirty-mile stretch of Rice Lake, through Bradley's Bay, East of Campbellford and further along the Trent River. You may fancy the Belmont chain, Round, Crowe, Belmont and the Crowe River. They are waiting for you in the Stoco at Tweed and north of Kaladar. And at the risk of far fields looking green do not overlook the fighters in the Otonabee River from Nassau to Bensfort Bridge including Litle Lake in the shadow of the City clock. Surely no district in Canada offers more than this.

Seven Wolf Cubs Shown In Lindsay

LINDSAY, Ont., June 30 (CP) —Seven wolf cubs, not the drug-store variety, are getting a look at city sights.

The family of seven wolf cubs was found by two veteran bushmen.. The two, Charlie Titus and Lorne Barry of West Guilford, discovered the lair after spotting the mother wolf.

Game overseers captured the family alive and shipped them to Toronto, where they'll be exhibited this fall in the Ontario Government's lands and forests display at the Canadian National Exhibition.

78 Per Cent Of Eligible Vote Polled While 82 Per Cent Voted In 1945

The percentage of dutiful voters in Peterborough Monday was 78, as compared with 82 in the general election of 1945.

That is a deduction from the figures kept by A. J. McClellan, returning officer.

The number of eligible electors on Monday was: 23,462 in the city and 7,999 in the rural section (including Lakefield). So the revised total was 31,461.

The corresponding figures for 1945 were: 19,052 voters in the city and 7,279 in the rest of the riding; total, 26,331.

And the number of ballots cast in 1945 was 21,642. So the percentage, 21,642 over 26,331, is 82.

For 1949, it is simple to compute the percentage which 24,553 is of 31,461. And that is 78.

So, inspite of all the recent appeals to the men and women of the riding to make use of their franchise, there was actually a decline in the percentage of voting.

Here is another numerical fact. The increase in the number of eligible voters in the four years was 5,130; but the increase in the number of ballots issued and marked was only 2,891.

BROKEN SPRINKLER PIPE

A broken sprinkler pipe at the J. J. Turner Co., 280 George St., caused an automatic alarm to be sent into the Fire Hall Wednesday noon. It was the only call received by the Fire Department during the day.

76% VOTE IN OSHAWA

More than 10,000 of the qualified voters in Ontario county riding did not go to the polls Monday. The number of ballots cast was 32,496, or fractionally more than 76 per cent of those eligible to vote. Oshawa is the big urban centre of the constituency.

DIED IN BRANTFORD

William John McLaughlin died suddenly Tuesday evening in Brantford. He was born in Peterborough 35 years ago, and had been a resident of Brantford 32 years. During the war he served with the 10th Dragoons. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church. Funeral will be Friday to Mount Hope Cemetery, Brantford.

RETAIN PARKING SPACE

A main streeter yesterday suggested that the city council need not get too excited about parking space as Peterborough would probably continue to have the use of the area on Charlotte St. that was bought for a new postal-customs building. So, on the credit side of the account there will be relief to all the members of the council that the parking problem is not likely to become more acute in the near future.

HARRY STEVENS THIRD

In answer to the many enquiries from Peterborough citizens interested in the career of the Hon. H. H. Stevens, who was well-known in the city, the results of his bid for election in Vancouver Centre are as follows: R. O. Campney (L) 10,102; M. Rush (Lab.-Prog. 984; Hon. H. H. Stevens (PC) 5,993; Rodney Young (CCF) 6,364; Harold M. Young (Ind) 584. The seat was formerly represented by a CCF candidate.

8 Playgrounds Opened For Boys, Girls

After three days of briefing and instruction, 15 supervisors went to the city playgrounds today to start a ten-week session with the children of the city that will end on Labor Day.

The eight playgrounds opened on schedule, although some of them are lacking some facilities and equipment because there are no places available on the grounds to lock and shelter the equipment, according to Jack Dane, Recreation Director. Water had not been put in King Edward Park wading pool this morning, but Mr. Dane expected that it would be in by this afternoon.

The eight areas that opened are at Fleming Place, McKellar, Confederation, King Edward, Riverside, Inverlea, Hamilton Park and Turner Park.

Supervisors engaged by the Recreation Commission have been instructed in the function and rules for playground and equipment, leadership, first aid and discipline and sports such as track and field, basketball and softball. Mr. Dane has been assisted in the teaching of the course by Quirt McKinney, Al Clark, Mrs. S. Shields, Mrs. D. Rostocky, Bev Goulding and Albert Watkins.

Activities scheduled to start today for the 4900 students of public and Separate schools included art instruction under Stafford Collie, and swimming instruction under the director of swimming, Pill Simons.

Crazed Shooter Victim Has Son In City

Robert McQuaig, 570 Rose Avenue, Peterborough, is a son of Elijah A. McQuaig, who was shot by a crazed youth near Selby on Wednesday afternoon. The elder McQuaig farmed near Selby, which is five miles north of Napanee. Also surviving him in this city is Ronnie, a grandson.

Mr. McQuaig, who was in his 56th year, is a former Reeve of Richmond Township. He is survived by his wife, the former Mae McDonald of Camden East, one daughter, Mrs. Bruce Reid (Mildred), Kingston, and the son Robert, who is employed in the drafting room of the Canadian General Electric Company. Also surviving are his grandson Ronnie here, and two other grandchildren, Robert and Brian of Kingston.

The funeral will be held Friday at 2:30 p.m., with burial in Napanee Cemetery.

BANK CLEARINGS

Bank clearings for Peterborough for the week just concluded totalled $2,404,031.

LOST LICENSE PLATES

Police Sergeant Percy Sexsmith is becoming alarmed at the number of lost license plates piling up in the police station. Since March, 28 have been turned in and are still waiting for their owners to claim them One of the plates is a dealer's license. Eight belong to commercial vehicles and 19 have fallen from passenger cars. Provincial police also have a number they wish the owners would claim.

UE Approves Plan To Settle Contract Negotiations Through Conciliation Board

More than 2000 members of Local 524 UE-CIO acting on the advice of their Negotiating Committee on Wednesday night voted to take their current contract negotiations with CGE to conciliation. Talks at Queen's Park under Louis Fine, Chief Conciliation Officer for the province, ended Wednesday without the major issues resolved. Today is the anniversary date of the two-year contract. Mr. Fine said he would recommend to the Minister of Labor the setting up of a Conciliation Board in an attempt to settle the dispute between the union and the company. The company signified its willingness to enter this stage and the Peterborough Local at the membership meeting voted in favor of it as well.

President Reports

President Jack Morton reporting on behalf of the Negotiating Committee told the union members that the issue at this stage was conciliation. He stated ... involved "the right to strike legally at a later date or an illegal strike now."

"Our recommendations are based on what we believe to be in the best interests of GE workers at this particular stage," he said. "Therefore your Joint Board recommends that we immediately proceed through conciliation on the basis of our original demands and that we serve notice on the company that unless a satisfactory settlement is reached through conciliation we will exercise our legal right at that time to decide on strike action."

District President C. S. Jackson emphasized that the recommendation before the membership to go to conciliation did not constitute a retreat from the union's claim for a 40-hour week and increased take-home pay, union security, health and welfare protection and improved seniority provisions.

The membership of Local 524 which jammed Brock Street Summer Gardens participated vigorously in the discussion. Speaker after speaker stated that while the membership accepted conciliation machinery it reserved the right to take strike action if this failed.

It is expected that the Conciliation Board will be ready to function at the beginning of August, immediately after the CGE plant shutdown over the vacation season.

(A Conciliation Board consists of one member appointed by the union, one by the company, and a chairman mutually agreed upon by the two parties. If there is no agreement the chairman is appointed by the Minister of Labor. Its duty is to hear representation by both parties and where there is no agreement on contract items, substitute a recommendation.)

Union officials say seven days after the Conciliation Board has presented its report and recommendation to the Minister, the union is legally entitled to take strike action if no agreement has been reached.

Fall Wheat Fields Turning Golden Color

The fall wheat crop in Peterborough County is approaching maturity, taking on a dark golden color, and may be ready for cutting before the end of the week W. W. Dawson of Otonabee told the Examiner today.

"It is nothing like the grand crop we had throughout this area last year," Mr. Dawson said. "Farmers are not expecting either the quantity or quality we had in 1948. The same applies to oats. The crop has almost burnt up in some places. The quality of grain is not going to be good. However, corn is coming along well. We put in an extra field this year when the other grains began to look doubtful."

Otonabee farms south of No. 7 Highway received only a sprinkle of the rain that fell over the city Wednesday afternoon.

GIVE UE CASE

A four-page pamphlet setting out the case for the UE in its present contract negotiations with the CGE has been put in the mails. A copy is expected to reach every householder in Peterborough not later than today. It is entitled "How CGE Negotiations Affect You" and reports on the progress reached to date in talks with the company, and what failure of union demands will mean to the average citizen.

40th Wedding Day Celebrated

NORWOOD, June 30 (ENS).—Mr. and Mrs. William Russell of Rock Mills recently celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary. Twenty-seven close relatives were at their home for a party to mark the anniversary.

The table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake made by Mrs Russell's sister, Mrs. Sam Buchanan of Norwood, bridesmaid of 40 years ago. Walter Russell, the groomsman, was also present.

Later in the evening, much to the surprise of Mr. and Mrs. Russell, a large crowd of neighbors and friends gathered. The evening was spent with M. S. McLeod of Flesherton and Chester Cameron of Maxwell playing the bagpipes. J. W. Cook of Flesherton was in charge of the PA system. Several other assisted with music and calling for dancing.

An address was read by Mrs. Ernest Acheson, sister of Mrs. Russell, and the presentation of studio couch was made. Several other gifts were received, among them being a beautiful tablecloth from friends in the Wareham district. Guests were present from Warkworth, Norwood, Peterborough, Shelbourne, Collingwood, Dundalk, Maxwell, Kimberley, Markdale, and Flesherton.

Seeks Reinstatement

TORONTO, June 30 (CP) — J. L. Cohen, Toronto lawyer, disbarred in 1947 after being sentenced to six months in jail for assaulting a woman, is seeking to regain his status as a barrister and solicitor. Officials of the Law Society of Upper Canada said Wednesday that Mr. Cohen's petition for re-instatement will have to be reviewed by a convocation of the society before action can be taken.

Strikers To Meet

ASBESTOS, Que., June 30 — (CP)— Rodolphe Hamel, president of the Federation of Asbestos Workers, said Wednesday night that nearly 2,000 Asbestos workers will decide today whether they will return to work and end thir four and a half-month-old strike. A meeting had been originally called for Wednesday night, but was cancelled when the Canadian Johns-Manville Company failed to answer the Union's latest proposals to end the dispute.

Women Discuss How To Observe Lord's Day

BETHANY, June 30 (ENS) — Evening Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church met at the home of Mrs. Otto Spencer. Mrs. T. Jackson presided and the theme of the meeting was "Keeping the Lord's Day."

Mrs. Jakeman read the scripture lesson. Mrs. Clarence Rowan reported several items of interest on missionary work in Africa and Mrs. Jackson for Trinidad.

Plans for the sectional rally to be held in Bethany were discussed. A special leaflet on the "Keeping of the Lord's Day" was used for the program with Mrs. Rowan, Mrs. Coppins, Mrs. M. Finney and Mrs. Jackson taking part.

This was followed by an open discussion "As United Church Women, how best to observe the Lord's Day." The home influence is tremendous. . . to a great extent the parents and their observance of the Sabbath day can determine community standards, it was decided.

A letter was read from Miss Alice Gleason, Missionary in India.

The hostess served refreshments.

Find Animal In Drain

TORONTO, June 30 (CP) — A soggy and drawn little Hamster-Goldie was discovered in its master's home Wednesday, after spending a week in a six-inch drain pipe. Its owner, 13-year-old Allan Duncan, said the once-pudgy animal, a golden-colored rodent, apparently suffered no ill effects from the ordeal. It was discovered when Allan's father poured water down the drain. The Hamster poked his nose through the opening.

Tax Rate Lowered

TORONTO, June 30 (CP) — City Council Wednesday approved Toronto's 1949 budget, based on a tax rate of 30.5 mills compared with last year's 38.5 mills. City reassessment which raised the overall assessment of city property, resulted in the budget being brought down three months later than usual.

YOUNGEST IN HOUSE—When the new parliament convenes, probably this fall, the honor of being the youngest member will go to Paul Theodore Hellyer, 25, shown here with his attractive wife. Hellyer, who was graduated this year from University of Toronto in arts, defeated the veteran parliamentarian John R. MacNicol, who has held the Toronto riding of Davenport for 19 years as representative of the Progressive Conservative party. Hellyer, a Liberal, is an air force and army veteran.

35th Wedding Day Celebrated

OMEMEE, June 30 (ENS) — Mr. and Mrs. George Magee were honored recently when approximately 150 guests arrived at the Coronation Hall, Omemee, to enjoy a social evening in honor of their 35th wedding anniversary.

Members of pioneer families whose history is intimately linked with that of Emily township, Mr. and Mrs. Magee lived in this community with their family of eight children: Mrs. Hector Morton (Freida) Bethany: Earl of Peterborough; Mrs. Johnny Hutzle (Cora), Toronto; Mrs. Lorne Middleton (Alta), of Omemee; Mrs. Morgan Biglow (Hilda), Bethany; Mrs. Jack Biss (Della), Emily; Mr. Lorne Magee, Peterborough, and Miss Elvira, Peterborough.

At midnight a warm welcome was extended to the couple when they were asked to take seats of honor on the platform which was decorated in pink and white.

The Reeve, Vincent Fee, acting as chairman, called on Harry Deyell to read an address. Laverne Morton presented his grandparents with a purse of money on behalf of the family and a wide circle of friends and relatives.

Mr. Magee, very much taken by surprise, replied on behalf of his wife and himself and after the hearty singing of "For they are jolly good fellows," brief addresses were made by several friends.

Another presentation was the gift of a cake from the family to Mr. and Mrs. Magee, which was cut by Mrs. Magee.

Refreshments were served and dancing continued until the early hours of the morning.

Rioting Unconfirmed

PRAGUE, June 30 (AP)—Reports published abroad saying there has been rioting in Czechoslovak villages were wholly without confirmation here Wednesday night. The reports said the rioting occurred in four villages in the region of Turciansky Svaty Martin in Slovakia. Presumably the rioting was supposed to be related to the State-church fight.

Aid Ailing Seaman

HALIFAX, June 30 (CP) — The Air Force and Navy teamed up Wednesday to save the life of a United States sailor. A tricky ship-to-ship transfer 30 miles off Halifax and co-operation between the two Canadian services brought the seaman to hospital here in the RCAF's powerful crash boat Nootka. The sailor was identified as boatswain Wallace F. Selmon of Jersey City, N.J.

Hit-and-Run Drivers Damaged Two Cars

Hit-and-run drivers damaged two cars in separate parts of the city Wednesday morning.

A car owned by Frank Hughes, RR 3, Peterborough, was scraped along the right side sometime between 9:50 and 11:20 a.m. while parked behind Grafton's store. The right front fender was banged in; the right side of the body received several small dents and the rear trunk door got a bump.

A second hit-and-run accident reported to police occurred in front of 627 Water St. Gerald Lafave, driving a truck owned by A. W. Nelson and Son, parked it in front of 627 Water while he went into the house to do some work. When he came out, he reported he found the right front fender of the 1949 truck had been scraped and the rear vision mirror bent.

CAUGHT AT LAST—Mandy, the elusive little mongrel that eluded Trans-Canada Air Lines employees for six days after slipping her collar at Goose Bay, Labrador on a stop-over while en route from London to her new home in Vancouver, was finally nabbed when she revisited her crate at the airport in search of food. Stewardess Billie Steward is shown with a firm grip on Mandy following their arrival at Montreal.

BILLY COLELLA of Syracuse, N.Y., feeds a cracker to a pet robin, "Cheep-Cheep" as the bird perches on his leg in a play pen. Mrs. Nicholas Colella, the boy's mother, said the bird adopted Billy as his playmate a week ago and is so tame it answers to its name. Billy often holds the bird while feeding it, and his pet loves the attention.

School Awards Given At Children's Picnic

APSLEY, June 30 (ENS). — Pupils of School No. 5 held their annual picnic on Tuesday at Crosley's Beach, Eels Creek.

Lunch was provided by the mothers, and ice cream and other refreshments by the teacher.

Prizes for perfect attendance were won by Elaine Brown, Margaret Lapham, Dora Johnson, Nora Johnson, Roberta Couch, Agnes Reddick, Ben Reddick, Theodore Johnson, Wayne and Philip Holden Blake and Kathryn Woods.

Prizes for perfect spelling were won by Margaret Lapham, Agnes Reddick, Jimmy Reddick, Roberta Couch, Lucille Couch, Nora Johnson, Nora Johnson, Kathryn Woods.

Instead of the usual method of the school giving a gift, each family presented Mrs. Church with a gift, including fancy cups and saucers, Eversharp pencil, towel and washcloth sets, and fancy aprons.

The senior pupils received art portfolios and the junior pupils books from the teacher.

The main attraction of the day was swimming, which was followed by sports. Winners received prizes.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Frank T. Mace

DiMaggio Helps Yankees Tighten League Leadership

By JACK HAND,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

The same old Joe DiMaggio.

Three home runs in two days, six runs batted in and a .500 batting average. That's the stuff that made a $90,000 salary.

DiMag's ailing heel may slice a few yards off his private acre in centre field but he's still Mr. Big with the bat. Ten weeks of fretting in street clothes while his mates led the American League didn't dull his batting eye—at least not in Boston.

Big Joe electrified a giant-sized Tuesday night crowd with a homer and single in his first league appearance since he limped off that same Boston field last October.

Only Beginning

That was only the beginning. Wednesday he hammered two homers, one with two men on base, drove in four runs and personally accounted for the Yanks' 9-7 edge over the Red Sox.

That was the big series for the Sox. They had climbed to within five games of the Yanks. A series sweep and they would have been up there knocking on the door. Instead they trail the Yanks by seven games and are back in the the second division. Joe D. is the man responsible.

Cleveland averted disaster with a six run rally in the last of the ninth inning to down Detroit 8-7 in night game after they were shut out 4-0 by Hal Newhouser in the twilight opener of a double-header.

Bobby Feller let down the sweltering crowd of 65,243 when the Tigers knocked him out in a seven-run fifth inning. But the Tribe bounced back to win for reliefer Steve Gromek when pinch-hitter Bob Lemon doubled off Dizzy Trout with the bases loaded in the last of the ninth.

Carl Scheib finally got himself untracked, breaking a six-game losing streak with a 7-4 edge for Philadelphia over Washington. The result kept the second place A's 4½ games behind the Yanks.

Ned Garver edged Walt Pierce in a tight duel as St. Louis Browns knocked off Chicago White Sox 1-0. Dick Koko's eight inning single broke the scoreless tie.

Keep in Step

Brooklyn and St. Louis kept in step in the hot National League chase as the Dodgers protected their one game margin by defeating the Phillies 5-1. The Cards clung to their heels by bouncing Chicago 7-4.

Ralph Branca let down the Phils with five hits to hit the 10-win mark.

Ralph Kiner had a big day for Pittsburgh with a double and a bases loaded home run in their 7-3 romp over Cincinnati. It was Kiner's second grand slam clout of the year, both against the Reds, and the fourth of his big league career.

Larry Jensen elbowed New York Giants past Boston 9-3 with the help of sloppy infield play by the Braves.

Potato Prices Up

TORONTO, June 30 (CP) — Retailers said Wednesday that because of a temporary scarcity of new Ontario potatoes on the Toronto wholesale market they are paying as much as $3.75 to $4. for a 75-pound bag. Truckers delivering the same potatoes to market get only $3. to $3.35 a bag, they said. The retailers said they expect the prices charged them to drop to between $3.25 and $3.50 when heavier shipments are received early next week.

Lakefield Sea Scouts Attend Lad's Funeral

Funeral services for Peter David Errett were held Wednesday at 2.30 p.m. in St. John's Anglican Church, Lakefield, Rev. J. P. Creegan, Prescott, and Rev. Canon Stout, Gananoque, officiated, and burial was in Hillside Cemetery, Lakefield. He moved to this district from Prescott two weeks ago, and was eleven years old.

Peter was born in Ogdensburg, N. Y. He attended Prescott Public School and belonged to the Anglican Church. He was a Scout Cub of the 2nd Prescott Cub Pack.

Surviving him are his father, Harold Errett, late of Prescott and now of Lakefield, and three sisters, Odile, Ottawa, Jean and Margaret Prescott.

Pallbearers were Lakefield Sea Scouts, under the guidance of Sea Scout Master Kenneth Jenkins. They were Bill Down, Bob Pratt, Wayne Hill, and Murray Edwards. Flowerbearers were Willy Spencer, Peter Spencer, Paul Wannamaker, Harry Rath and Ken Henry.

First Woman To Head AYPA

TORONTO, June 30 (CP) — Hazel Journeaux, 28-year-old office supervisor who has just been named Dominion President of the Anglican Young People's Association, is the first woman to hold that office.

She came to Toronto from Montreal seven years ago, after attending high school in Quebec City and business college in Montreal.

As AYPA head, she will write a president's message for each issue of the Association's monthly publication and will do some travelling in connection with promotion and extension work.

Miss Journeaux was one of six Canadians who represented Canada at the second world conference of Christian youth in Oslo in 1947.

Layman's Medal Conferred On Irene Dunne

SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 30 (AP)—The University of Notre Dame Wednesday night conferred its Laetare Medal on movie actress Irene Dunne as "an apostle of sanity."

Notre Dame annually awards the medal to an outstanding Roman Catholic layman.

Miss Dunne attended the ceremonies with her husband, Francis D. Griffin, and their 12-year-old daughter, Mary Frances.

Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, president of Notre Dame, praised the Dunnes' "ideal Christian home" in a citation accompanying the medal.

Nurse In War I Sees Daughter After 35 Years

MONTREAL, June 30 (CP) — A nurse who served on the battlefields of France in the First World War met her daughter today for the first time in 35 years.

The story goes back to Cardiff, Wales. Soon after war broke out Mrs. F. Sprague decided to volunteer. One night she tiptoed into the bedroom of her 10-year-old daughter and kissed the half-awake youngster goodbye.

In 1918 Mrs. Sprague came to Canada on a hospital ship. For a while she was stationed in Winnipeg, and then Vancouver where she has since lived.

The daughter, now Mrs. A. Allison of Verdun, Que., came to Canada five years later. She decided she would like to stay in Montreal and get a job. She was married in 1929.

Mother and daughter often wrote about visiting each other but somehow the years slipped away.

Then today a pink-cheeked, white-haired figure, with a corsage of red roses, walked through the gate in the big station where Mrs. Allison was waiting. There was no hesitation on the part of either. After one swift glance they were in each other's arms crying happily.

Milne-Flett Vows Of Interest Here

A marriage of interest here took place Wednesday in Knox College Chapel, Toronto, of Margaret Eleanor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Flett, Agincourt, and formerly of Peterborough, and Mr. William George Milne of Ottawa, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Milne, Plattsville. The Rev. Dr. W. M. Mackey officiated. The bride and groom are both graduates of the University of Toronto.

Mrs. Donald J. Flett of Peterborough was at the organ and Mr. D. J. Flett, brother of the bride, was soloist.

A petal white faille gown was the bride's choice. The empire bodice was finely pleated with puff sleeves and decollete neckline edged in soft ruching of white net appliqued in gold Valenciennes lace. The moulded waistline fanned into a full skirt. Her fingertip veil was held with a shirred net bonnet, and she carried a cascade of white roses, gardenias and coral rosebuds.

Given in marriage by her father, she was attended by her sister, Mrs. Hugh C. Keenan, Sarnia, wearing lime green taffeta and carrying a cascade of Talisman roses and yellow marguerites to match her flower halo. Little Barbara Anne Keenan, flower girl, was frocked in yellow dotted Swiss, with wreath of daisies in her hair and carrying a nosegay of roses and daisies.

The groomsman was Mr. Donald M. Britton, Boyce, Va., and the ushers were James A. Flett, brother of the bride, and Roy R. Flett, her cousin.

The reception was held in Annesley Hall where the bride's mother received, wearing a dress of pink mesh with white accessories, assisted by the groom's mother attired in navy. Each wore a corsage of pink gladioli petals and orchids.

Following their wedding trip the bride and groom will reside in Ottawa. The bride went away in a navy taffeta two-piece suit dress, white off-the-face hat trimmed with navy, white accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Vicar Denounces Women Authors

GREAT YARMOUTH, Suffolk, England, June 30—(CP)—Canon L. J. Baggott, vicar of Great Yarmouth, accuses some of Britain's outstanding women authors of turning out "unshamedly salacious" novels.

"Deleterious books have always been with us, and while human nature lasts they will continue," he said in an address to booksellers.

"But it is sad to reflect that of our many women writers a notable few should have lowered the standard by indulgence in work which is unshamedly salacious."

Social Situations

SITUATION: Your child breaks a neighbour's window.

WRONG WAY: Take him over to apologize, and feel that takes care of the matter.

RIGHT WAY: In addition to the apology make some arrangement for paying the cost of having the window fixed.

Sisters Attend Jean Orr Bride of James F. Andrews

A largely attended wedding took place at four o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the Regent St. United Church, Lakefield, of Mary Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Earl Orr, Lakefield, to Mr. James Friend Andrews, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Friend Andrews, Belleville. The Rev. G. S. Kelly officiated as they pledged nuptial vows.

Baskets filled with lilies, delphinium, daisies and roses were banked with ferns to form a charming setting at the altar. Mrs. Wilfred Lee of RR 4, Peterborough, played the wedding music. Soloist was Mr. Jack Andrews of Belleville, brother of the groom. As the bride entered the church he sang the "Lord's Prayer" and while the register was signed he sang "Because."

The bride chose a beautiful gown of parchment satin with Guipuire lace trimming the vee neckline. The moulded bodice, with tight fitting lily point sleeves, was torso length and extended in a panel at the back into a very long train. The skirt front was trimmed with a shaped flounce. Her train length veil of white net was caught into a cap of orange blossom and seed pearls and she carried a cascade of red roses.

Mr. Orr gave his daughter in marriage and she was attended by three sisters, Miss Constance Orr as maid of honor and Misses Winnifred and Florence Orr as bridesmaids.

The bridal attendants wore pretty frocks of frosted English organdy, similarly styled with low off-shoulder neckline, fitted torso waist and full skirt, and Juliet caps of matching net. The maid of honor was in pastel green and the bridesmaids in pink. Each carried a cascade bouquet of blue delphinium, yellow roses and pink gladioli.

Mr. Graydon Rogers of Belleville was groomsman. The ushers were Stewart McIlraith of Stewartville, and John Steinkraus of Peterborough.

The reception following the wedding was held at Dyncourt Manor, Lakefield. The bride's mother received in a dress of blue flowered sheer with grey accessories and a corsage of red roses. The groom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack Andrews, of Belleville, also received wearing navy taffeta with navy picture hat and a corsage of red roses.

Friends of the bride serving refreshments were Misses Helen Kelly, Kay Coughlin, Vetty Millage, Reta Ryan, Maralin Andrews and Mildred Steinkraus.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews left afterward on a motor trip to northern Ontario, Ottawa, and their future home at Dalhousie Lake in Lanark County. Going away the bride was wearing a grey silk crepe dress with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses.

MONTREAL June 30th.—No need to suffer from that "squinty" feeling that too much Summer sunshine is bound to give you! I simply rest and refresh my eyes twice daily with MURINE always marvel at the quick, welcome relief it brings. And even when you don't notice the least hint of eye-tiredness, you'll find that Murine makes your eyes feel better . . . and it's so simple to use. Try it!—just two drops in each eye night and morning! You see, Murine contains seven ingredients that blend perfectly with the natural fluids of the eye—it cleanses and soothes delicate eye tissues in a jiffy! Ask your druggist for Murine today . . . and make a habit of it!

Star Of Many A Summer Meal is luscious strawberry shortcake! And whether the strawberries you use are from your own garden—or big and juicy from the market . . . you'll want to be sure your shortcake is just right. That's why I urge you to try this TEA-BISK recipe:- Tea-Bisk Shortcake

Yield: 8 shortcakes
Oven temperature: very hot (475 deg. F.)
2 cups Tea-Bisk

Cut in finely—4 tablespoons chilled butter or shortening. Make a well in the centre and pour in all at once—2/3 cup milk. Stir briskly with a fork until combined—30 seconds should be sufficient. Turn out on lightly floured baking canvas or board and knead gently for about 10 seconds, to smooth dough. Roll out to ¾-inch thickness and shape with a floured 3-inch round cutter. Arrange biscuits, an inch apart, on ungreased pan. Bake in preheated oven 10 to 12 minutes.

Split hot shortcakes, spread with soft butter and fill and top generously with sweetened strawberries; serve with pouring cream or lightly sweetened and flavoured whipped cream.

Try other Tea-Bisk treats, too! Dumplings—pancakes—puddings . . . all so very easy to make and delicious when you follow the simple recipes on every Tea-Bisk package!

Which Of These Two Vacationers Will Be YOU? It's up to you whether you'll spoil half your vacation worrying about what might happen "back home" . . . or leave things behind in such good order that you'll be happy as a lark! You can forget so much in the rush of getting away. Did you turn off the bathroom tap? Did you tell the paper boy and milkman not to call? Are your bonds, jewellery and other valuables safe? Well, there's no need to worry about your valuables at any time . . . if you rent a Safety Deposit Box at the BANK OF MONTREAL! For just a cent or two a day, you can "buy" year-long protection and worry-free holidays! It's a wonderful B of M "bargain" you can't afford to miss!

Here's A "Special Treat" Dish that Junior will love! More and more mothers are discovering that one good way to make sure a youngster will eat every last bite is to give him 5 Minute "CREAM OF WHEAT"! He'll love it—it's so good! And it's so good for him! Cooks to complete digestibility—even for babies—in just 5 minutes of boiling . . . and it contains Iron and provides Calcium and Phosphorous for diets deficient in these elements! So when you're marketing, ask your grocer for 5 Minute "Cream of Wheat". And for the "grown-ups" in your family . . . serve "Cream of Wheat" like this for breakfast . . . topped with raisins, apricots or prunes . . . and lots of brown sugar and milk! M-mmm!—it's a truly smo-o-oth dish!

Tip To The June Bride! . . . now that you're beginning the adventure of housekeeping in your very own home—and cooking for your man every night of the week . . . you'll want to start off "right as rain" That's why I urge you to cook with LIBBY'S EVAPORATED MILK! It's, literally, so rich it whips and it makes every dish calling for milk or cream just twice as good! Imagine turning out feather-light cakes—creamy-rich soups—mouth-watering desserts—first try! Well, Libby's will help you to do just this . . . and so very economically, too! Ask your grocer for Libby's Evaporated Milk tomorrow . . . and remember—Libby's is pure, country-fresh milk with all the original cream left in—half the water removed. It's a cooking "discovery" I'm more than pleased to tell you about!

Here To-day . . . Gone Too Soon... that's the story of the season's fruits. But there's a fine way to have year-'round enjoyment of summer-ripe fruits—thanks to CERTO Fruit Pectin. For with Certo you can preserve all the choice, rich flavour of fully-ripe fruits in jams and jellies, so quickly, so easily. Because Certo recipes cut the boiling time to just 1 minute for both jams and jellies. And results are always sure—even for beginners—if they follow exactly the tested recipes in the booklet under the label of each Certo bottle.

Summer Picnics Call For Food With Lots of Pep . . . and a prize "pepper-upper" is HEINZ PREPARED YELLOW MUSTARD! You'll find it at your grocer's now in the new 9 ounce economical size jar . . . and you'll like the handy plastic mustard spoon attached! There's no doubt about it . . . plenty of "plain-Jane" dishes step right into the "glamour" class when you use Heinz Mustard as a flavour flatterer! This genuine, stone-ground mustard adds rich, peppy zest to countless foods. That's why I urge you to order Heinz Prepared Yellow Mustard now . . . so budget-wise in its new 9 ounce jar!

EVERYONE'S Talking About this wonderful food! Freshly delicious HARVEST MARGARINE is so budget-wise—so flavour-right, you can't afford to miss it! Yes, it's truly a taste treat . . . it's golden, sparkling freshness is obvious the moment you look at it . . . its wonderful flavour will delight you the moment you taste it! Use it as a spread for bread . . . or try this intriguing "Harvest" recipe . . . Prune Nut Spread—

Combine ½ cup creamed Harvest Margarine, ½ cup prunes, pitted and chopped, ¼ cup chopped walnuts, and ¼ cup marmalade. Ask your grocer for nutritious "Harvest" (contains Vitamin "A", the "body-building" vitamin)! But be sure to shop early for Harvest Margarine is so good—it always goes first!

Tightwads Poor Husbands Stingy Men Hard to Cure

DEAR MISS DIX: Why are lonely people lonely? If they are women who are unmarried, they think they are lonely because they are old maids. If they are married people, they think it is because their husbands and children don't understand them. If they are poor people, they think they are lonely because they lack money. If they are rich, they think they are lonely because nothing is worth while. If they could only shuffle themselves around in each other's places, would they be less lonely? Why don't the lonely get together and console each other?

A READER

ANSWER: I think loneliness is a state of mind and not a condition of life, and that the lonely would be lonely under any circumstances. They are what the psychologists call "anti-social" and they lack somehow the ability to fraternize with their fellow creatures. They are not, as the phrase goes, good mixers. They have no approach and do not know how to make friends. There is a certain aloofness about them that is like a barrier of ice that separates them from their kind.

This trait of character manifests itself often very early in life. You see even small children who have already developed the lone-wolf trait. They come and go to school alone. They never have any intimate chum. They are never chosen for the school games, while other children are always the center of the gang and live in mobs.

Certainly not getting married does not predestine a woman to loneliness, and the tears we are supposed to shed over lonely old maids are so much wasted brine, for we all know plently of old maids whose lives are so overcrowded with friendships, with interests, with work and pleasures that they consider it a positive treat to get an hour off in which to commune with their own souls.

Nor need any married woman be lonely just because her husband doesn't come up to all of her romantic dreams, for there are several millions of other people among whom she can find congenial companionship, to say nothing of her children. Nor is age nor the lack of money a cause of loneliness. Many of the most popular people I know are long past their youth and have little of this word's goods, but they are so human, so kindly, so interested in every one else's joys and sorrows, such little brothers and sisters to all the world, as Kipling says, that the feet of their admirers wears a pathway to their doors.

Of course, there are solitary souls who dwell apart and who have nothing in common with their fellow creatures. These have no desire for companionship and ask only to be let alone.

Shut Themselves in Shells

The great majority of people who complain of loneliness have only themselves to blame, and their loneliness is the result of selfishness and vanity. There are those who for some unknown reason think themselves so desirable that every one should run after them and seek their society. They never make advances in acquaintanceship. They don't meet you even halfway. They shut themselves up in their shells and expect you to work patiently and faithfully until you have pulled them out of them.

That sort of person is always lonely because not many of us are willing to take the trouble to cultivate such an unpromising prospect.

Another large class of people, who are always wailing and beating upon their breasts because they are lonely, are those who are not willing to pay the price of society. It takes time and money and effort to cultivate friends. To have people desire your companionship you have to make yourself pleasant and agreeable and entertaining You have to sacrifice a lot of your tastes and opinions and soft-pedal a lot of your theories, and they will not do this.

They go to parties, but give none. They try to dominate every gathering they are in. They never learn to dance or play a good game of contract. They are eternally starting arguments on every subject. They talk about themselves and their affairs endlessly. And the result is naturally that they are left alone.

And, finally, people are lonely because they have no resources within themselves. They have never learned how to read or think. No one who is a good companion to himself or herself is ever lonely.

DEAR MISS DIX: Should a girl tell the man she is to marry everything? Suppose, when in her teens, she stepped off the straight and narrow road to follow the path of excitement and cheap romance and what she considered thrills, but in a very short time realized that this wasn't what she wanted of life and traveled back to self-respect. Now she is engaged to a fine man, who tells her that he loves her because she is so pure and innocent. What shall she do?

GEM

ANSWER: As she had so many companions in sowing her wild oats, the man is sure to find out about it, so probably she had best beat others to it by telling him herself, but without going into details. Deal with glittering generalities and let it go at that.

There is no more reason why a girl should tell a man everything that has happened in her past than there is why he should tell her about all his escapades. I think that post-mortems are always a mistake and that engaged couples do well not to pry into each other's lives. What concerns a man or woman is what the other is going to do, not what they have done.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: Wouldyou marry a man who always let the other fellow pay the check, when you went out with a group, although he is able to? He has never given me a present, although we have been engaged for some tim I don't care, except that it is a proof that he is not generous-natured. I have always been independent financially and would be unhappy married to one who did not make me feel that what was his was mine to make the best of

A WOMAN

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: I certainly wouldn't marry a tightwad. Stinginess is about the worst fault a husband can have, and is hardest for a wife to endure. And it is incurabled.

Students Say Social Climbing Slowing Down

By LLOYD BRADY

CHICAGO, June 30 (AP) — Have you ever said, "He's from the wrong side of the tracks?" or "She's one of the 400?"

If you have, a group of university sociologists say, you've recognized that our democratic society has developed social class.

This group, headed by W. L. Warner, professor of anthropology and sociology at the University of Chicago, has published studies locating and defining United States class structures. The studies were made in a New England community and a city near Chicago. Similar material was available in another study of class in the deep south.

More than 20 years of research was done. This is the picture presented:

We have a six-class system—"which we don't like to admit"—and it is growing more rigid as our society gets older. Hence the great United States sport of Social climbing is showing signs of "being slowed considerably" by this structure.

Other Consequences.

There are other consequences outlined. The authors feel class is "at least one major reason" for the growth of labor unions, that it lies behind "many apparently senseless strikes," and that much of our "social unrest" can be traced to it.

The study found that the system, "necessary to get the work of society done," grew into its present form as a result of the disappearance of free western lands, and the change from a handcraft production system to factory-machine methods.

The net result was the formation of the six more or less exclusive social classes. These are the commonly recognized upper, middle, and lower classes divided into their respective upper and lower segments.

Groups Recognized

Each segment, the study found, has its own special characteristics. The upper-upper group consists largely of first families. "They live in neighborhoods of large houses surrounded by well-kept grounds. Their furnishings are antiques handed down from generations, and they "tend to think that birth and breeding" are the prime hall marks of social standing.

The lower-upper may live in the same kind of neighborhood—but its homes have been purchased recently and furnished with "boughten" antiques. Members of this group have large cars, heavy with chromium, and tend to discount the value of birth and breeding. They are very rigid in imitating behavior of the upper-upper.

The two middle classes—and largely the upper strata—supply most of the office holders of politics, particularly on school boards, as well as three-fourths of the teachers. They live in smaller houses in neat neighborhoods, are active in community work and participate fully in church affairs.

The upper-lower and lower-middle generally are factory workers, clerks and operators of small businesses. Their houses are small. The upper groups "usually speak of them as good, substantial people."

At the bottom of the social scale are the casual workers and transients. Their homes are apt to be tarpaper shacks.

The studies found that education, in the 20th century, has become the main bridge between classes. By it, children born into one of the lower groups find means to climb. It offers a ladder of association with the right people and provision of socially acceptable skills.

DEPARTMENT'S HELP

From Col. Tom Kennedy down the line, the Department of Agriculture and the O.A.C. gave the Peterborough district Grasslanders unstinted support. There were: Arthur H. Martin, director of the crops, seeds and weeds branch of the Department, and Ken Fallis also of that branch; Dr. McCrostie, Norman Thomas, John R. Scott of O.A.C.; D. A. Parks, agronomist of Kemptville Agricultural School; seven or eight of the agricultural representatives of the district including M. W. Cockburn of York county; Walter Reynolds of the weeds and seeds branch was also here. There were others, also. The Department had tent display illustrative of good pasturing methods.

REPAINT MANY SIGNS

With the main rush of the tourist trade almost here Peterborough merchants are busy slicking up their premises to appeal to the summer visitors. Painters are doing a booming business touching up signs in front of shops and repainting the exterior woodwork.

LOMBARDO PILOT

Orchestra leader Guy Lombardo, a native of London, Ont., said Wednesday he would pilot his own Tempo VI in the Gold Cup races at Detroit this weekend. Previously he had indicated he would drive Henry Kaiser's Aluminum I. Tempo VI has been remodelled since it flipped over in last year's Gold Cup event.

Labor Charges Manufacturers Mislead Public

OTTAWA, June 30 (CP)—The Canadian Congress of Labor charged today that the Canadian Manufacturers Association is trying to mislead the public about "the extent of profit-making in Canada."

A statement by Pat Conroy, Congress secretary-treasurer, accused the CMA of making a "deceptive" claim that the average Canadian Company makes a profit of only 6.2 per cent.

His statement referred to a speech on June 7 by Hugh Crombie, chairman of the CMA's education committee, at the Association's annual meeting at St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, NB.

Mr. Crombie said a survey of more than 800 firms showed Canadian industry made a profit of 6.2 cents on each dollar of sales and only three cents of this went to shareholders.

Mr. Conroy said the profits of the 800 firms were actually at least 8.7 per cent.

". . . The whole case advanced by the Canadian Manufacturers Association is deceptive and is based, at its best, on half-truths," he said.

Return on Investment

The CMA had picked a "lopsided" sample of 800 firms that were not typical of Canadian manufacturing—they were large firms which relied on mass production and a small unit of profit on each unit sold rather than higher profits on smaller sales.

The recent Royal Commission on prices pointed out, Mr. Conroy said, firms of thsi type could "still make a handsome return on investment."

"The accepted method of measuring profit is not on a percentage of sales but on a return of investment or the capital put into the enterprise . . .

"If the total profits admitted by the CMA—$227,094,000—were calculated as a percentage of total investment—$2,608,632 the result is 8.7 per cent, instead of the 6.2 per cent . . ."

In addition, the prices commission reported that depreciation and reserve accounts "are a favorite device for hiding profits."

Mr. Conroy termed "fallacious" the claim that dividends total only three cents on the sales dollar.

"The Income Tax department does not accept that kind of arithmetic. Neither does the investor. Neither did the Minister of Finance in his 1947 budget speech when he referred to profits as 'abnormally high'—whereupon they promptly went higher."

Funeral At Listowel For Margaret Cleland

LISTOWEL, June 30 (ENS)—Funeral services for Miss Margaret Olive Cleland, 55, librarian of Peterborough Normal School who died in a Toronto hospital Monday after a long illness, were held here Wednesday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Robert Cleland, RR 2, Listowel. The Rev. H. A. Pritchard, minister of Atwood Presbyterian Church, officiated and interment was in Elma Centre cemetery.

A former teacher in the Hamilton district and at Sturgeon Falls, Ottawa, Miss Cleland had also served as assistant public school inspector in Hamilton.

A native of Elma township, she was born February 1894. Besides her mother she leaves two sisters, Mrs. Stewart Chafee, Embro; Mrs. Kenneth Sager, Toronto; three brothers, Roy Cleland, Guelph; James Cleland, Toronto; William Cleland R 2 Listowel.

Lift Restriction On Cheese Exports

OTTAWA, June 30 (CP)—Effective immediately, permits for the export of all types of cheese to any destination will be granted freely, the Trade Department announced today.

This lifts restrictions which had been imposed in order to assure that Canada met her 50,000,000-pound contract with the United Kingdom.

The announcement said the decision resulted from an increase in production of cheddar cheese over last year and the fact that there is every indication the UK contract will be filled "in the near future."

The contract for the 1949-50 fiscal year runs to the end of next March.

NOT MOVING

Charles A. Stoneham, general manager of the Jersey City Giants in the International Baseball League said Wednesday night in a statement at Montreal that "the New York Giants have never had the slightest intention of moving out of Jersey City." He was commenting on a statement attributed to Frank J. Shaughnessy, president of the International Baseball League, that the Giants were ready to relinquish their Jersey City franchise.

Medium quality weighty steers sold for $20.50-$21.50. Stockers were $17.50-$19. Heifers were $17.50-$19.

Calves were steady at $21-$23 for choice with plain to medium from $15-$20.

Hogs were steady at $31 for grade A and $30.60 for grade B1.

Gold Stocks Provide Only Life On Market

TORONTO, June 30 — (CP) — Gold stocks featured an otherwise dull session on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Eldona Mines continued to attract a large amount of the trading as it climbed ahead. Base metals improved while industrials and western oils balanced gains and losses.

Volume for the first three hours was 306,000 shares, about 99,000 shares more than Wednesday's similar period.

Senior and junior gold producers climbed steadily in the preholiday market continuing their second day of advance. Eldona turned over some 77,000 shares in three hours for a five-cent advance befor profit-taking set in and pushed the price back slightly. Donalda, with property adjoining Eldona was also strong. Reports from Eldona say that copper and galena are indicated at the 1,000-foot level.

Junior gold producers were ahead as much as 15 cents.

Early strength in base metals gradually disappeared.

Say Trade Pact To Aid Shipping

BUENOS AIRES, June 30 — (Reuters)—Maritime circles here believe the new Anglo-Argentine trade agreement will give British shipping, which already provides a quarter of all vessels entering Argentine ports, an even more dominant position in River Plate trade.

Argentina's acute dollar shortage and decreased foreign trade have greatly reduced the amount of United States shipping entering the country's ports. The new trade agreement was signed on Monday.

In April only 94,000 tons of United States shipping entered Argentine ports, compared with 152,000 tons of British shipping.

The new trade agreement is expected to accentuate the trend away from the United States and toward Britain. Factors which affect this development include the resumption of grain shipments to British ports, increased meat deliveries, and the fact that Argentine will in future import much more petroleum from British sources.

Jury Sent Back In Coplon Case

WASHINGTON, June 30—(AP)—A federal jury tries again today to agree on Judith Coplon's "intent" in carrying government secrets around in her purse, after failing to reach a verdict in its first effort.

The jurors in Miss Coplon's espionage trial quit for the night at 11:40 p.m. Wednesday after nearly 9½ hours of deliberations.

Federal Judge Albert L. Reeves returned to the courtroom late Wednesday night, in response to a request from the jury, to elaborate on his instructions on "intent."

Foreman Andrew H. Norford, 34, a telephone company employee, asked the judge for "more instructions on count one dealing with the subject of intent."

The judge said the jury must decide whether Miss Coplon intended to deliver government secrets to Valentine A. Gubitchev, a Russian or whether she intended to use the papers—found in her purse when she and Gubitchev were arrested—in a civil service examination or as memoranda for a book she said she had started writing.

Miss Coplon, a former justice department political analyst, has been on trial since April 25 on charges of taking secrets from the department's files with the intent of injuring the United States and aiding a foreign power, Russia.

Soft Coal Miners Contract Expires

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W.Va., June 30 — (AP)— The contract between John L. Lewis United Mine Workers and the United States' soft coal operators expires at midnight tonight without a sign of a new one to take its place.

The 400,000 bituminous coal miners are on vacation, however, postponing the deadline for a strike until July 5. In the absence of a contract the miners traditionally walk off the job but this year Lewis is reported willing to keep the pits manned— at least in the north and west— for a uniform work week of three days.

Negotiations here with the representatives of the north and west, producing about 300,000,000 tons a year, were described by Lewis as "healthy," but there was no progress to report either.

Former Commander Toronto Scottish Dies

TORONTO, June 30 (CP). — Lt.-Col. Frank E. Odlum, 60, former commanding officer of the Toronto Scottish Regiment, today collapsed of a heart attack at his office desk and died on the way to hospital.

Col. Odlum, a First War veteran, became head of the Toronto Scottish in 1936 tnd retired in 1938. He voluntarily reverted to the rank of major to command the 28th Veteran Reserve Company during the Second World War after he was rejected for active service. He won his commission on the field during the First World War.

His widow, two daughters and a son survive.

Russians Again Snarl Berlin Truck Traffic

BERLIN, June 30—(AP)—German police today reported Russian sentries have refused to let some 80 west German truck cargoes enter Berlin in the last 24 hours, because of alleged irregularities in their travel papers.

The Russians, however, have not completely stopped incoming trucks. Several dozen were allowed to go through this morning.

The Russians claimed that the truckers required a Soviet signature underneath the Soviet stamp which was put on their travel orders when they crossed into the Russian zone at Helmstedt.

The British military government today sent a transport official to the Berlin boundary checkpoint to investigate the new snarl in the city's commerce.

Labor Leader Given Warning

SYDNEY, Australia, June 30 — (Reuters) — Idris Williams, Miners Federation President, reported to the police today that his life had been threatened as Australia's country-wide coal strike entered its fourth day.

Police said Williams handed them a letter made up of single words cut from newspapers and pasted on a sheet of paper which said: "Warning Williams. You will be held responsible with your life if the strike is not finished by July 5. Regard this as no idle threat. Seven unionists."

"No form of threat can end this coal strike," Williams said.

Sydney docks were congested today because coal-burning ships —mostly coastal vessels—were short of coal and unable to sail.

In Canberra, Prime Minister Joseph Chifley today told the House of Representatives that the possibility of importing coal from Britain and other countries was being examined.

Reds Told To Work With Capitalists

NANKING, June 30—(AP)—Communist leader Mao Tze-tung broadcast from Peiping today a message to Chinese workers telling them they must co-operate with capitalists so that maximum production can be attained.

Mao urged Communist party members to continue their close co-operation with labor. He said failure of Sun Yat-sen's policies and those of the Kuomintang was due to their neglect of the proletariat.

The Red leader declared in a statement commemorating the 28th anniversary of the Chinese communist party that success of the party resulted solely from its close alliance with the peasants and labor masses.

But he warned that the party's present labor policy called not for unrestricted license but rather for control and co-operation with capital.

Choir Picnic Wallace Point

The choir executive of St. Andrew's United church held the annual picnic for junior and intermediate choirs at Wallace's Point on Wednesday afternoon. About 50 were taken there in buses. A program of games, races and swimming was arranged. Prizes were donated by the Women's Association. Mrs. A. M. Laing was in charge of serving refreshments.

Race winners were:

Boys, 8-10, Murray Mann, Harold Holman; 11-12, Johnny Mann, Brendon Lincoln.

Juniors, 8-10, Catherine Magee, Catherine Lewis; 11-12, Helen Rusk, Sheila Nicholls; Intermediates, 12-14, Margaret Munro, Janet Merrett; 15-18, Rolene James, Betty Murphy.

Winners of novelties were:

Boys, 8-10, Harold Holman, Bruce Putnam; 11-12, Bobbie Hunter, Johnnie Mann.

Juniors, 8-10, Catherine Lewis, Sharon Hutchinson; 11-12, Helen Rusk, Marie Hughey; intermediates, 12-14, Margaret Munro, Marion Crawford; 15-18, Clarabelle James, Dorothy Watson.

Changes In Powers Of Investment Urged

ST. ANDREWS-BY-THE-SEA, N.B., June 30 —(CP)—Rapidly changing conditions have made it highly desirable that consideration be given to further changes in the investment powers of insurance companies, Harry L. Guy of Waterloo, Ont., said today.

Mr. Guy, president of the Canadian Life Insurance Officers Association, said the objective of such changes would be to enable the companies to aid further the economic progress of the country without loss of over-all security. Insurance has certain recommendations. He added that the Department of Insurance has under consideration.

In an address to members of the Canadian Fraternal Association he reviewed the investment situation and said: "Changing economic conditions of the past 20 years have presented many problems to life insurance companies, to whom security of principal is the paramount principle in the investment of policyholders' funds."

In the "golden '20s" insurance companies had no difficulty in earning a gross rate of interest of 6.48 per cent, compared with the gross rate of 3.61 per cent in 1948, Mr. Guy said.

Early Cutting Of Hay Said Essential For Quality

"The early cutting of hay is essential to its top quality," said J. D. Lanthier of Leitchcroft Farms, Gormley, in his talk of the importance of hay and grass in modern farming on the Grassland program Wednesday afternoon.

"Anybody can make hay of a sort, of alfalfa and clover, if they don't cut it until July when it has become stemmy and woody. If you wish good quality hay, however, you have to cut these crops when they are immature and succulent, when they still retain most of the leaf, and when they are highest in protein, minerals and other valuable plant foods.

"I know it can be most discouraging to have an early cut piece of alfalfa hay partly dried, only to have a heavy June shower soak it thoroughly. That is something we have to gamble on. It doesn't happen to all early hay, of course, and besides the damage is often more apparent than real. You may have some badly discolored early hay but it will probably retain most of its goodness, and your cows will like it, and do a lot better on it than late cut woody stuff, even though that latter hay may have much better color."

What Is Good Hay

"Our ideas of what constitutes good hay have undergone considerable change in recent years. To the majority of us, there was a time when hay was simply hay.

"It didn't seem to matter whether it was cut early or late. If it was nice and green or badly weathered, it didn't make much difference with us as long as the cows ate it and survived the winter. Hay is still looked upon by some people in the same way, no doubt, but to those farmers and stockmen who have come to know by experience the exceptional nutritive value of good quality hay, haying is a very serious operation. It calls for the very best thought to overcome the many problems involved.

"Furthermore, there is probably no other farm crop in which the human element becomes such a factor as in the making of hay.

"Has it ever occurred to you that we don't say "harvesting hay", and the reason for this is because, unlike corn, wheat or potatoes, hay is not a finished product when we first begin to handle it or cut it. It is not even hay. It is nothing more than cut green grass or clover, and has to go through a drying or curing process over a period of several days before it can be termed hay and be fit to store as such.

"Just how expert the operator is in manipulating his hay over this period, the care and thought he puts into the effort, coupled, of course with the kind of weather he is favored with will determine to a large degree the quality of hay he is able to put up."

Legumes in Hay

For good hay making, said Mr. Lanthier, there should be a large percentage of legumes such as alfalfa and clover.

"We know that such hay is much richer in protein and minerals than is hay made largely from timothy or other grasses, and consequently of much greater feeding value. Experience also shows that only with leguminous hays can we obtain from our hay lands the tonnage we require today for the efficient, economical production of milk or beef.

"Don't go too heavily, however, on alfalfa or clover. I like a hay mixture of not more than 60 to 75% alfalfa and clover rather than straight alfalfa or clover. Such a mixture is not only a lot easier to cure, but it is also more palatable than straight legume hay."

Hay-Making Methods

"From the standpoint of putting up quality hay there is a lot to be said in favor of the familiar plan of coiling or cocking hay in the field. It should retain all its leaves and most of its original moisture. But the big disadvantage of coiling is the amount of labor involved where there is a large volume of hay.

"The alternative to curing in cocks is to gather hay directly from the windrow after a combination of swath and windrow curing. This is the system mostly practised today. There is the choice of four methods: the hay loader, the buck rake, the pick-up baler, and the forage harvester or field chopper. Their main point of difference is in the amount of labor involved.

"The loader and buck rake will gather hay efficiently in the field, but with both machines you still have the rather heavy job of putting away long hay in the mow. For speed and efficiency in handling large acreages the pick-up baler is probably tops. But as designed now, it is chiefly for the large scale operator or the man who does custom work.'

The Pick-Up Baler

I say this because it takes a lot of help to follow the pick-up baler so as to get the most out of it. The baler will handle up to forty or more tons a day, but it only bales hay. The bales are still in the field, and although the bales are easier to load and store away, forty tons is a lot of hay—far too much to have cut in your fields if stormy weather is in prospect.

If Rain Comes

"If you have good curing weather this system will give you good hay but of course you will run into rainy days, which will delay drying, and there will also be those heavy dews followed by a hot searing sun when the leaves will dry to a crisp and break off with the slightest handling. Is there anything you can do to improve your hay making under such conditions? There are still two additional steps you can take. Both of them involve that period of time required for the natural curing of the hay in swath and windrew before it is fit to draw in.

In spite of all our modern hay handling equipment this is the one spot where we are still dependent on the vagaries of the weather. We can't change the weather so our only recourse is to cut down the extent of this field curing period or time that elapses between mowing and the removal of the hay from the field.

This can be done in two ways. By the use of the stem crusher, a relatively new machine that follows directly behind the mower and by passing the thick alfalfa and clover stem between two heavy rollers, crushes them so that they will dry more evenly with the leaves. Some say that this machine will cut field curing time by a half although I am not prepared to say if that is entirely so.

Drying In The Barn

"The other plan with which I am more familiar is to install a mow drier and haul your hay in in a semi-green condition and complete the curing of it in the protection of your barn. With a mow or barn drier you can reduce the time your cut hay has to stay outside subject to all the hazards of the weather to as low as thirty-six and even twenty-four hours. Furthermore, you are not loading or baling crisp dry hay that loses leaves with every handling, but a semi-dry, tough hay which holds every bit of its leaf right to the mow. At Leitchcroft Farm we have a barn equipped with a mow drier, and early in June of this year, on two different days, we stored away in this new mow bales made from hay that had been cut just the day previously."

"The quality of hay you make with any machine will depend almost entirely on the quality of the hay lying in the windrow when you pick it up. To that end see that you have prime quality hay in your windrows when you come to hauling it in. See that it is cut early, watch the weather, and if fast drying conditions prevail, do not let it lie too long in the swath, but rake it while it is still quite green and before the leaves become crisp. The biggest part of the curing should take place in the windrow. If rain comes before curing is completed, the windrow may be turned over once it dries on top. Be careful, however, to disturb it as little as possible so as not to shake off any more of the leaves than necessary.

"The forage harvester or field chopper is more adapted to the medium sized farm where help may be more of a problem. It picks up and chops the hay into wagons in the field to be delivered to the barn where it can be blown into the mow. Unloading can even be done by mechanical means so that the entire haying operation may be completely mechanized. As the forage harvester will handle both grass and corn silage from the standing crop to the silo, it looks to me to be a machine that will eventually be much in favor on farms where a variety of forage crops are grown.

Recommends Driers

"We also have a second drier in which we stored chopped hay, also cut but 24 hours. In both cases moisture tests taken as the hay was stored ranged from 49 per cent down to 35 per cent. This is the third year we have used our driers and from the results we have obtained with them I would say that they are the last word in modern hay making aides. With them we have made hay of a quality which we could not have matched in any other way.

"I am not going into detail about them here other than to say that a system of mow drying is well within the reach of any practical farmer. No artificial heat of any kind is required. The system consists simply of a large electrically driven fan which drives air through a mow of hay resting on slats laid over your regular mow floor. Hay may be piled to a depth of 12 feet with as much as 30 to 40 tons in a mow. Drying time takes from 10 to 14 days, and the hay may be stored as long hay, cut hay or even in bales. I would not say that everyone could use mow driers to advantage, but to those who feel that they would like a better hay than their best efforts are now giving them, I would say that it would be well worth their while to look into this idea of mow drying hay."

OUTSIDE THE REFORM CLUB, Liberal Club of Montreal, D. Durocher, a Liberal enthusiast, raised cheers and laughter from the crowd as he brandished a broom which, during the campaign, was used as a symbol in advertising posters by the Progressive Conservative party, indicating that the Liberals would be swept from power at Ottawa.

British Conservatives To Learn How To Speak

LONDON, June 30 (CP.) — Determined to be in the best possible voice for Britain's next general election campaign, Conservative candidates are going back to school to learn how to speak the King's English.

Their school-marm is 40-year-old Miss Marjorie Hellier, a slender, red-haired speech specialist who once played on the stage with the Old Vic Company.

Appointed by Conservative headquarters on a non-party basis Miss Hellier is coaching candidates to put new punch in their platform techniques and new verve in their vowel sounds.

"I don't care what they say but how they say it," she said.

"Our aim is to speak pure English untouched by any dialect." you know Oxford and Cambridge English is a dialect just as much as the speech of a cockney or a north countryman."

Appropriately enough, the King's English is the best example of pure English. And in Miss Hellier's opinion, members of the Royal family speak perfect English.

"You don't hear any la-di-da from them."

Asked what she thought of Canadian accents, Miss Hellier did not try to duck.

Breezy Sound

"The accent is pleasing in its own way," she said. "It has an open-air, breezy sound about it. I always get the impression of a broad-minded and friendly person when I hear Canadians"

The voice depends largely on the shape of the mouth and in the case of Canadians the shape is that of a smile, she added. This resulted in a wide, flat sound.

Miss Hellier described Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, former Prime Minister of Canada, as a clear speaker who wrung the full meaning from each word. But he was not in a class with Winston Churchill, Britain's wartime prime minister, and Sir Ralph Richardson, the actor.

"Richardson is just an ordinary Englishman in appearance," she said. "But his speech illuminates his whole personality."

Churchill broke a lot of rules. But when he said "rascal" people knew he meant a real rascal. And the way he said "Nazis"—drawling out the first syllable with a "naw" sound—was classic.

Woman Sent To Prison For Spying

Judith Coplon Gets 40 Months To 10 Years; To Appeal

WASHINGTON, Jul (AP)—Judith Coplon today w sentenced to 40 months to 1 years in prison for spying for Rus ia.

The tiny brunette former justice department work heard the sentence unflinchingly.

A short time before ring her penalty, she made an passioned statement to Federa Judge Albert L. Reeves, but did not ask for mercy.

Actually, Judge passed two sentences—40 ths to 10 years on the first ing) count of the indictment a ther, and one to three years the second (theft of secrets) c

He stipulated, however, that the sentences be served concurrently.

Just before passing sentence, Judge Reeves said:

"I thoroughly approve of the verdict of the jury."

Judge Reeves ordered Miss Coplon to post a new bond of $20,000.

Her old bond ee—$10,000—automatically expires with the passing of sentence.

Faces N.Y. Trial

She also is under $20,000 bond in an espionage conspiracy case in New York.

Under to-day's sentence, Miss Coplon would be eligible to apply for parole, in 40 months, should she lose the appeal her lawyer announced would be made.

Judge Reeves rejected a demand by Prosecutor John M.

Arrest Priest In Bingo Raid

ROCKFORD, Ill., July 1—(AP)—Rev. Raymond Patrick Gordon, a Roman Catholic priest, was arrested last night after 12 policemen raided a church to halt a bingo game.

The priest, pastor of St. Bridget's Church in suburban Love's Park, was charged with being a keeper of a gambling establishment. He was released on his recognizance after appearance before a justice of the peace.

Police Chief Roy York of Love's Park led the raid and said several pieces of gambling equipment were seized in the church's basement. He said Andrew Pozzi and two other unidentified men were arrested on a charge of operating a gambling establishment. They were released on bonds of $120 each.

Some 50 patrons were at the church, York said, but were not taken into custody.

Frank Larson, mayor of the community of 500,000, said he had warned Father Gordon the chruch would be raided if the bingo games were not halted.

Father Gordon said the church's regular Thursday night bingo game was played, with payments to players going to the church's building fund.

Two Communists Beaten To Death In Czech Riots

PRAGUE, July 1—(AP)—At least two Communist policemen were beaten to death and an undetermined number injured in rioting between Roman Catholic faithful and government adherents in Slovakia recently, reliable reports reaching high diplomatic sources here said.

These sources added that the situation in this intensely-Catholic province now appeared "quiet on the surface." But they were inclined to give credence to reports that at least small partisan bands of Roman Catholics had been formed there to stage violent resistance to the Communists in the church-state fight.

To hush up the situation, diplomatic quarters said, the government was restricting travel into Slovakia.

Other developments in the church-state war were:

1. Disclosure that the Czechoslovakia foreign ministry so far has ignored a protest delivered by the diplomatic corps here about the forcible detention earlier this week of Msgr. Gennaro Verolino, Vatican diplomat.

2. Msgr. Joseph Beran, Archbishop of Prague and the country's primate, is staging a virtual "sit-down strike" in his palace, refusing government suggestions that he leave for a summer holiday.

The trouble in Slovakia was said to have started when the Roman Catholics oranized to protect their priests from arrest. These volunteer protective bands clashed with the police in various towns.

Dominion Day Message Forwarded By Truman

WASHINGTON, July 1—(CP)—President Truman today sent Dominion Day greetings to Prime Minister St. Laurent of Canada.

His message said:

Rail "Slowdown" Suspended

LONDON, July 1—(AP)—Leaders of 460,000 British railwaymen have agreed to suspend a "slow-down" originally ordered to begin at midnight Sunday. Labor Minister Isaacs announced in the House of Commons the decision of the National Union of Railwaymen. The Union had ordered the partial work stoppage June 28 to support demands for wage increases.

The decision to withhold the slow-down followed a day of negotiations in which Union leaders were warned that the action threatened Britain's economic security.

The workers of Britain's state-owned railways seek wage increases of 10 shillings ($2) a week.

Isaacs read a resolution from the union's executive committee which expressed hope that the Minister "will find himself able to take very early action to assist in resolving the dispute."

Earlier the Conservative party had urged a direct House of Commons appeal to transport workers to end a growing threat to the country's life or death export program.

A work stoppage continued on London's docks. Eighty-one ships —half the vessels now berthed in the port of London—are idle.

25,100 Families Obtain New Homes During 1949

OTTAWA, July 1—(CP)—The Canadian housing picture brightened for 25,100 families during the first four months of this year. The Bureau of Statistics yesterday reported this was the number of dwelling units completed during that period, an increase of 6,800 over the corresponding months last year.

Many of the lucky householders had awaited homes since 1948. The bureau said the gain was the result of the high carry-over of houses under construction at the end of the year.

At the end of April, Ontario was leading the rest of Canada in the home-building race. There were 18,600 units under construction in the province at that time. Quebec followed closely with 12,000, and British Columbia had 6,900. Nova Scotia had 2,100 in the making, Manitoba, 1,900; Saskatchewan, 1,600; New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island lagged with 800 and 100, respectively.

Montreal earned the title of "City with the most units under construction" at the end of April. It led with 8,000 units, to be trailed by Toronto with 4,800. Vancouver showed with 4,000; Winnipeg with 1,600. Hamilton boasted 1,100 under construction; Victoria, 850, and London, Ont., 820.

Thinking of building a house? The job still takes a bit of time The bureau reported that the average number of months required to build the dwelling units completed in April was 7.9 unchanged from the March figure.

Holiday Sees Thousands Join In Exodus

By The Canadian Press

Canada's 82nd birthday celebration is under way, with weather forecasts almost everywhere favoring an outdoor celebration.

The start of the long holiday week-end was marked by an exodus of hundreds of thousands of persons from towns and cities—and by the entry into Canada of many United States residents launching their Independence Day week-end.

Despite the unusually-heavy volume of traffic on the highways and on all travel facilities, no serious accidents were reported at the outset of the celebration.

In Central Canada, holiday travellers fled from sweltering cities to cool beaches and resorts. Steamship cruises were booked solidly for the week-end.

Everywhere, school was out and children's camps prepared to start their season. Safety officials issued special warnings to motorists to use extra care to avoid injuring children and renewed appeals to holidayers to take precautions against swimming and boating accidents.

There was wide variety in programs prepared for today.

Some British Columbia residents planned to celebrate by skiing on Red mountain, near Rossland. Manitoba emphasized the Dominion Day sports angle with horse racing and soccer. New Brunswick started the four-day St. Croix Valley International Jubilee, a program intended to promote happy relations between communities on the boundary between Canada and the United States.

Newfoundland, which entered confederation only a few months ago, is celebrating its first Dominion Day as a Canadian province. But in that province, a solemn note is injected into the celebrations for on July 1 the islanders recall the day in 1916 when the Royal Newfoundland Regiment was decimated at the Somme.

Settlement Negotiated By Archbishop Roy; Strikers To Be Re-Employed Without Discrimination, Company Pledges

ASBESTOS, Que., July 1—(CP)—The Asbestos strike came to an end early today when 2,000 strikers unanimously accepted a settlement proposal negotiated personally by the Archbishop of Quebec. This small eastern township's industrial city, built around the asbestos mines of the Canadian Johns-Manville Company Ltd.—went wild when news of the settlement came. It was 1.30 a.m., after exactly 137 days of idleness, marked last May by police-strikers' clashes that resulted in injuries to scores and nearly 100 arrests.

The agreement was forwarded by Archbishop Maurice Roy to the union yesterday, signed and approved by Johns-Manville officials. The workers approved it with enthusiasm.

It gave the workers a good portion of the benefits they had been seeking: A 10-cent-an-hour increase, seniority rights, re-employment of all strikers without discrimination and four paid holidays a year.

Only strikers convicted on charges arising from the violence last May may be dismissed.

In return the employees were scheduled to start working tomorrow.

For the additional five cents an hour the union sought originally, to bring the basic wage rate to $1 an hour, the company agrees to enter into direct negotiations with the union.

If these fail then the company agrees to settlement by an arbitration board tribunal to be presided over by Judge Thomas Tremblay of Quebec. Other points such as industrial security and a social-security fund will be argued later before an arbitration tribunal, if necessary.

"I am happy that the strike is over to the satisfaction of the miners," Gerard Picard, president of the Canadian Catholic Confederation of Labor, said when he announced the settlement today.

"I am confident that relations should better themselves between the two parties and that a collective bargaining agreement will follow from negotiations between the Federation of Asbestos Workers (C.C.C.L.) and the Canadian Johns-Manville.

Settled Earlier

Although other separate settlements were effected earlier in the case of 2,500 miners employed at Thetford mines and about 125 others at St. Remi de Tingwick, the Johns-Manville dispute was the crux of the big walkout and settlement there marks the end of the asbestos strike.

The settlemet was signed at the mass meeting which ended early this morning before a packed hall. Union officials signed in front of the assembled strikers to the thunder of applause.

Then, in a mood of festivity after the 4½ month tension of idleness, the strikers invaded the

Berlin Facing Bankruptcy Due To Strike

BERLIN, July 1 — (AP). — Berlin was threatened to-day with municipal bankruptcy as a hangover from East-West strife.

A prospective budget deficit of 321,000,000 West marks ($96,300,000) plagued the Allied-recognized city government just as its railway-strike troubles ended.

Soviet-controlled elevated passenger trains resumed operation in Western sectors early to-day, 41 days after they were tied up by the strike of an anti-Communist rail union.

The railway management said interzonal traffic between Berlin and Western Germany was being restored gradually, with pre-strike schedules to become effective again Monday.

After two days of harassing tactics, Soviet Autobahn Guards began passing into Berlin all West German truck cargoes which had been cleared at the Russian zone frontier.

But the Russians tightened a blockade of foodstuffs which East German farmers were trying to slip into Allied sectors to sell for West marks, now worth more than five times as much as East marks.

City officials blamed Berlin's financial plight on the consequences of a year-long "fight for freedom" against the Soviet Union.

Allied military government sources admitted the emptiness of the city treasury was "an extremely serious matter," but called on Germans to pare the new annual budget to the bone.

Liberal Back In Lead Again

VANCOUVER, July 1 (CP). — Tom Goode, Burnaby-Richmond constituency's in-again-out-again Liberal, is in again.

First official preliminary returns from returning officer M. M. Reigh give Mr. Goode a 282-vote lead over his nearest contender, CCF candidate Mrs. Dorothy Steeves

Earlier, unofficial counting placed Mrs. Steeves in front by a 16-vote margin. Mr. Goode had been declared elected before that on the basis of incomplete election returns.

The official count now reads: Ferguson (PC) 6,116, Goode (L) 12,841, McEwen (Lab.-P) 1568, Steeves (CCF) 12,559.

Violate Treaty, Reds Informed

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—The United States to-day accused Russia of disregarding Balkan peace treaties.

A State Department note said the Soviets are trying to block action by the Western Powers on charges of human rights violations in Communist dominated Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria.

The charge was made in the latest of the long series of attacks by the Western Powers on alleged denials of religious, political and other rights in the three countries.

The State Department announced the note was delivered to the Soviet Embassy here yesterday. It accused Russia of disregarding peace treaty provisions by refusing to join with Britain and the United States in handling disputes which arise under the peace treaties.

Charge Americans Sponsor Birth Control In Japan

VATICAN CITY, July 1 —(AP)—American experts are pushing an "unscrupulous campaign favoring birth control in Japan," the Catholic Information Service Fides charged today.

The charge was published in the June 30-July 1 edition of the Vatican newspaper Osservatore Romano under the heading: "The Problems of the Japanese Population."

Fides, which describes itself as an independent agency with close contacts in the Vatican Office of Propaganda Fide(Faith), quoted numerous Japanese publications to support its charge

It said that population experts had long awaited a favorable occasion to practice their theories in Japan. Now, it added, they have found "a favorable field of action."

Fides said Japan is being turned into "a scientific laboratory" and its people into instruments of American experts who are attempting to spread the idea of artificial birth control . . . "

Fides alleged that "the obsequious attitude of Japanese officials is being used to push an extensive birth control program, at the same time guarding against any unpleasant reaction on the part of public opinion abroad by making sure that the Japanese government alone shoulders the whole responsibility."

"To obtain this double end," Fides continued, "the Japanese press is the obedient tool."

The agenc ysaid the Japanese officials, with the approval of occupation authorities, are preparing legislation authorizing birth control practices.

(In Tokyo, Gen. MacArthur said the birth control question in Japan is a matter "for individual judgment and decision." In a memorandum to the Allied Catholic Women's Club of Tokyo, he added that he is "not engaged in any study or consideration of the problem of Japanese population control.")

3,000 Roman Catholic Clergymen In Jail

VATICAN CITY, July 1 (AP) —An unofficial Vatican informant estimated today nearly 3,000 Roman Catholic priests and members of religious orders are imprisoned in Soviet-orbit countries. He said he obtained his figures by canvassing sources in Rome.

Romania heads the list, with 600 priests and members of religious orders thrown into jail since the Communists came to power.

Poland is close behind with 500, according to the Vatican source, who gave the following breakdown for the other countries: Hungary, 450; Czechoslovakia, 200; Yugoslavia, 200; Bulgaria, about 30; Lithuania, Estonia and Latvia, 1,000, most of them in Lithuania.

Offer Chickens, Calf, Apples For Capture Of B.C. Killer

MISSION, B.C., July 1.—(CP).—Neighbors of the Silver Hill killer, Ivar Johnson, have offered a reward for his capture—dead or alive.

Living in daily fear of their lives, they have decided to offer all they have—which isn't much financially—in an effort to avenge the lives of two of their kin, and end the reign of fear.

Between them, the simple folk in the Swedish community have offered 1 chickens, a calf, $2, an apple crop, and the yield of two pear trees.

Another neighbor, Mrs. Anna Tholander, will knit a pair of socks for the man who finds Johnson.

This reward is in addition to the $200 offered by the municipality.

Seven days now have passed since Johnson, a 70-year-old bachelor-farmer, shot two of his own neighbors, Mrs. Maria Lindberg and Mrs. Charlotte Barrett. The shootings climaxed a dispute over a road allowance. A twin murder charge stands against him

The organized search by police and posse has been called off, and police believe he is either dead — a suicide in the dense forest—or has fled the district.

Loan Canada Made To France Paid Back

PARIS, July 1 -- (Reuters) — France has repaid a Canadian loan amounting to $3,675,000, it was announced today by the finance ministry.

The money, loaned to France after her liberation, was repaid yesterday along with three loans to the United States.

In all the finance ministry paid $41,375,000 in loans.

Western Europe Moves Step Nearer Free Trade; U.S., Britain Compromise

Economic Differences Which Threatened Political Harmony Resolved; Plan Small Amount of Competitive Trade

PARIS, July 1—(AP)—Western Europe moved one small step today towards free competition in trade. W. Averell Harriman, United States ambassador-at-large to the Marshall Plan countries, announced early today that a midnight session of Europe's top economists had reached a compromise between American demands for freer trade among European countries and British demands for continued stringent regulation.

The economic differences between the free enterprise United States and Socialist Britain, which many diplomatic observers had feared might effect Anglo-American political harmony, were resolved on a basis which eased—but did not abolish—restrictions.

A small amount of trade—less than two per cent of the normal $8,000,000,000 yearly volume—will be conducted on a multilateral competitive basis. Since the war most European trade has been conducted on a barter system between two countries at a time.

Last year, when distributing Marshall plan dollars, the United States was careful to make no moves which might upset this delicate barter balance. This year, however, the men running the European Recovery Program felt the time had come to loosen up trading practices.

Britain, her dollar and gold reserves dangerously low, argued that Europe's economy was not sufficiently recovered to be set free of rigid safeguards.

Views Clash

The opposing points of view clashed at the annual policy meeting of the Organization for European Economic Co-operation—a group which suggests how Marshall plan money should be split up among the European states.

The OEEC operates the complicated intra-European payments plan—an ingenius scheme sometimes known as the "Little Marshall Plan."

It provides that those European countries which sell more than they buy from other European countries lend their debtors currency to keep trade moving. As an example—Britain might lend France pounds to buy British goods.

In return the United States would give Britain the equivalent in dollars of the pounds she loaned France. Marshall plan dollars thus dispensed are called "conditional aid." Since they are given on condition that the recipient make an equal grant of its own currency to another country.

Last year these "conditional" dollars represented a little more than 10 per cent of the total United States appropriation for the European Recovery Program.

The new compromise plan provides that 25 per cent of the loans given by one European country to another may be transferred by the recipient to still a third country. Twenty-five per cent of the dollars involved will be transferrable too.

Man Remanded On Murder Count

NAPANEE, July 1—(CP)—Alfred Child's, 20-year-old itinerant farm-hand, yesterday was formally charged with the hayrack rifle-murder of Elijah McQuaig, 57, in a shooting affray in which another man was wounded.

Childs appeared briefly in court in this town five miles from Selby, where McQuaig was felled and John Ross, 20, was wounded three times by a hidden marksman while they worked on a hayrack.

At the request of Crown-Attorney Kenneth S. Ham, the hearing was adjourned and Childs was remanded in custody.

Hospital authorities said the condition of Ross, shot through the wrist, the groin and the stomach, is not critical.

Telegraph Companies Up Rates 15 Per Cent

MONTREAL, July 1 (CP). — The Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railway Companies announced Thursday that effective July 4 telegraph rates to and from points in Canada with the exception of the Province of Newfoundland will be increased aproximately 15 per cent.

The announcement said the increase will restore domestic telegraph rates to the general level prevailing prior to last March 22.

(A 15 per cent tax was eliminated when the Federal budget was announced at that time.)

Yangtze River Ship Bombed Three Times

SHANGHAI, July 1 (AP) — The 300-ton river steamship Kiangsing was bombed three times on the Yangtze last Tuesday, the newspaper Sin Wan Jih Pao said today.

The ship was en route to Hankow with 1,500 passengers and cargo.

The newspaper said that in the first bombing the ship escaped damage but 58 crew members leaped over side and swam ashore. Four bombs narrowly missed the ship on the second attempt. On the third a medium bomb struck the starboard side of the vessel but failed to explode.

The strike started Feb. 13 at the Johns-Manville plant and spread from there to Thetford mines where the Asbestos Corporation, Johnson Mines and Flintoke Limited were shut down Feb. 15.

The strike crippled production in this largest asbestos belt in the world, producer of more than 80 per cent of world asbestos production. In all 5,000 miners were on strike.

Propane Price Down

Price of liquid propane which is converted into gas at the plant of the Utilities Commission has been reduced another three-quarters of a cent a gallon, R. L. Dobbin reported to the commission Thursday. That is a drop of three cents, from 14 to 11 cents, a gallon since the new type of gas was brought into use about a year ago.

Kingston Public Utilities Commission has decided to install a propane gas plant, following inspection visits to Peterborough and Brockville. It appeared likely that the contract would be let to Salem Engineering Co., who were engaged by Peterborough commission.

Canada Enjoying Record Year In Investment

OTTAWA, July 1 (CP)—Canada is spending a record-breaking $3,400,000,000 for capital goods this year, the Trade Department estimated today.

The new estimate, compiled after a mid-year review of business activity, is an upward revision of three per cent over a forecast—$3,300,000,000—by the department earlier this year. It means an increase of 11 per cent over the estimated $3,000,000,000 invested in capital goods in 1948.

Higher prices in 1949 accounted for six per cent of the increase over 1948. The department said the other five per cent represents added expansion in physical volume.

"If these investment plans are realized," the department added, "it will be a record year of investment activity in Canada."

Most of the increase grew out of greater availability of materials and labor and improved deliveries of machinery and equipment.

The mid-year survey found little change in total demand for capital goods, but noted there was great variation between the investment plans of individual firms.

Details of the investment expenditures show that an upward revision of the earlier forecast comprises an increase in construction expenditures of two per cent to $2,000,000,000, and a hike of six per cent in machinery and other equipment to $1,400,444,000.

Commission To Raze Old Kingan House

The 24-inch water main on Bethune St. should be connected with the pumps in three weeks, Ross Dobbin told the Utilities Commission Thursday.

That reference relates to the temporary restrictions on the watering of gardens and lawns. Pipe is arriving in ample supply for the progress of the work.

Commission decided to raze the old Kingan house at the northwest corner of Aylmer and Dalhousie Streets. It was recently bought from J. Arthur Robinson.

R. L. Dobbin estimated at $3,000 the cost of renovating the building for rental or office use. The alternative was to advertise the house for demolition and invite bids. That is what the commission decided, to get a price for wrecking the place, with some revenue to the commission. For the present the corner property, when cleared, will be left vacant, but it is intended for eventual use for an office extension.

Bumper To Bumper

Stroyan Leith motored home from Cobourg last night with a believe-it-or-not yarn that it took him an hour and a half to make the trip.

Cars were almost bumper to bumper between Cobourg and Port Hope. That stretch accounted for 30 minutes, partly caused by a tractor and a train. The mobile line northward offered some open spaces, but they were few. It was a typical Dominion Day highway stream, including many US tourists.

Bewdley was congested with motorists, and many sportsmen at 11 p.m. were impatiently waiting for midnight and the official openings of the muskie and bass season.

Police Fined Car Jammed In RR Switch

P. C. Andre Dalton and Sergeant Leo Murphy found on Thursday night a car jammed between the switch and the east railway tracks on Bethune St. near Brock St. The car had a cracked windshield and the left and the left front fender was torn off.

The two constables had to act swiftly to prevent a north-bound freight from running into the trapped vehicle. By waving their flashlights they managed to bring it to a halt but traffic was held up for about 20 minutes on Brock St. until a wrecking truck arrived to drag the car.

The freight then continued north.

WORTH THE CANDLE?

Thoughts of marriage have entered the mind of more than one bachelor these last few days. And the city is responsible. Not that the Civic Fathers have set themselves up as Dan Cupids; far from it. The simple explanation is that Poll Tax forms are being delivered by mail to the residences of bachelors who do not own property. And five dollars in the holiday season seems a precious bundle to part with—for a bachelor as well as anyone else. Hence loud squawks from the male unattached. A skeptical section of the community (mostly married men speaking anonymously) feels that a five-spot is a bargain price to pay for a man's freedom . . . Readers are not invited to send in their opinions. —D.W.

FOR WANT OF A SHOE

For want of a shoe a sale was nearly lost the other day. A local shoedealer put on a bargain sale including a large quantity of women's footwear. Complications could be expected. In the hustle and bustle of trying on and taking off, two women sitting side by side accidentally picked up one shoe from the other's pair. The mismates were of similar design and were approximately the same size, and one of the women left the shop unaware that a mistake had been made. The other customer, when she discovered her loss, was neither pleased nor philosophical. She demanded that the proprietor return the right shoe and threatened to cancel her order if it could not be located. After much effort the frustrated salesman managed to prevail upon her to buy the pair she had already chosen. But he still has a mis-mated shoe and hopes that the unknown woman will realize her mistake and return the missing one so everybody can be happy.—D.W.

The June page came off the calendar today with what will be long memories of its persistent heat, drought and discomfort for all those who have to work by the sweat of their brows. FISHING LIMITS

To-day heralds the opening of muskie and bass fishing and bag limits are as follows: For muskie, two fish per day measuring 30 inches from tip of the snout to the fork of the tail. A total of 14 fish is the total season's take. For bass, the limit is six fish per day and the minimum length 10 inches. Pickerel fishing which commenced on May 14, allows fishermen to take six per day, minimum of 13 inches.

WHERE DO CHILDREN GO?

Where do school children of the earlier grades go in vacation time? It is a little soon yet to generalize on the question this year, but the first few days of the two-months layoff would indicate that the playgrounds come first, with the matinee shows running a fairly close second, as mothers seek to unburden their offsprings and proceed with necessary housework. Shortly, many youngsters will be spending time out of the city at cottages, resorts and with country relatives.

Kidnapper Gets Prison Release

BOSTON, July 1 (AP)—Kenneth Buck, 44, has been released from State Prison where he spent 16 years for the sensational kidnapping of 10-year-old Peggy McMath.

The crime ranked second only to the Lindbergh case in national interest.

Buck was sentenced June 24, 1933, to not less than 24 years at hard labor. He was paroled seven days ago.

Parole came automatically under a law which permits a prisoner to seek freedom after serving two-thirds of his minimum term.

Peggy the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil McMath, wealthy Detroit, Mich., couple, was kidnapped May 2, 1933. She was bound, gagged and blindfolded before being driven to a hiding place. The child turned up six days later.

At Buck's trial it was testified that $60,000 in ransom was paid.

Kelley, Jr., that Miss Coplon be held in bail of $100,000.

He did go part way with the request by doubling her bail here.

Long speeches by the 28-year-old Barnard College honor graduate and by her lawyer, Archibald Palmer, delayed the sentencing.

The petite, five-foot 100-pound brunette defendant heard the jury's verdict—which could bring her a miximum sentence of 13 years in prison and a fine of $12,000—with no visible emotion except a slight nervousness.

Palmer said the conviction will be carried to the United States Court of Appeals and, if necessary, to the Supreme Court.

In his appeal, Palmer said, he will contend that Judge Reeves committed "substantial error" in denying a motion for a directed verdict of acquittal, thus allowing the case to go to the jury.

Palmer also complained, as he had done many times before, that Prosecutor John M. Kelley's closing plea to the jury was an appeal "to prejudice and to motion picture ideas of patriotism."

"She was sacrificed to the interests of a quarrel between two branches of the government," Palmer told reporters.

This referred to his oft-repeated statement that the case against Miss Coplon was "arranged" to offset congressional criticism that the Justice Department failed to move aggressively enough against Communists.

S. Africa Calls For Strict Cuts In Import Trade

CAPETOWN, July 1 (CP)—In an effort to make South Africans live within their means and thus strengthen the Union's gold and currency reserves, the Union government has drastically cut imports for the second half of 1949.

As warehouses are heavily stocked as a result of overbuying following a government hint of import restrictions in September, 1948, the government considers that the import cut will not entail hardships for the public.

The currency quota for imports for the second half of the year has been reduced from £85,000,000 ($340,000,000) to £55,000,000, representing a reduction of £45,000,000 to £30,000,000 in the dollar quota for imports and from £40,000,000 to £25,000,000 in the sterling quota. The figure of £55,000,000 for imports in the second half of the year represents about a half of the value of the yearly export of merchandise from the Union, excluding gold.

Strengthen Reserves

In addition to merchandise the Union exports gold to the value of about £100,000,000 a year. It is estimated that after providing for the payment of invisible imports and for government stores some £60,000,000 or about £5,000,000 a month will be available for strengthening the Union's gold and currency reserves which have been dwindling steadily for some time.

The effect of the cut in imports will probably not be felt immediately because there is still a considerable backlog in overseas payments caused by last-minute buying. There will probably be a further drop in the Union's gold and currency reserves before the turning point is reached and import cuts are reflected in the country's gold and currency reserves.

Cuts Severity

The severity of the imports cut can be judged from the fact that the £55,000,000 quota for the second half of the year is about a third of the money spent on imports in the same period last year, when total annual imports totalled £326,000,000.

The figure of £326,000,000 in turn is about three times the total value of imports in 1945, giving some idea of the spending in which the country has indulged since the end of the war. It is estimated that the country has at least two years' supply in hand of certain imported articles, including textiles.

Oddly Attired Woman Found Dead On Road

HELENA, Mnt., July 1 (AP) —The body of a fantastically-clothed woman was found along a highway in rugged mountain country south of here.

Police said today the body of the unidentified woman, believed dead since June 11, was found Wednesday night.

The woman wore men's outer clothing—but several women's undergarments, including 11 slips and six pairs of panties. She also wore a woman's leather belt, men's garters, two men's shirts and overalls. She was about 38 to 40 years old.

Small Boy Runs Out In Front Of Car

Gene Martin, 14, of 91 Park St. was walking along the west side of Park St. shortly before 10 p.m. on Thursday with his sister. Suddenly he left her and ran out onto the road directly in front of Robert Hunt, 307 Townsend St. who was driving north at the time.

The boy was knocked down and was later carried to his home a short distance from the accident. Dr. Herbert Young attended to him and found him suffering from shock and bruises, but he had no broken bones.

Canada's Lopsided Senate May Become Major Problem

By MAURICE JEFFRIES

OTTAWA—Senate reform is bound to become a live subject of discussion in the weeks and months ahead. Through its long domination of federal politics, the Liberal party has piled up a record majority in the Senate. There are now 73 Liberals as against 15 Progressive Conservatives. Fourteen seats are vacant.

Might Be All Liberal

With the Liberals given another five year mandate by the voters on Monday, there is the possibility, if the system is not changed in the meantime, of the upper house having a solid block of Liberals by the time the next general election rolls around.

There have been no Progressive Conservative appointments since the last Tory government went out of office in 1935, and six of the present 15 senators named by that party are now past the age of 75. The average age of all the senators is 67. Sir Allen Aylsworth, 97, is the oldest.

The mortality table for Canada's senators shows there are from five to six deaths a year.

Senate seats normally are vacated only by the death of the occupant and are then filled by the government of the day. Even if the Progressive Conservatives had won power on Monday, they would have had to remain a second and perhaps a third term before they could regain the majority they enjoyed during the 1930's.

Bennett Named Liberal

There is nothing in the constitution to make it obligatory, but it is the rule for prime ministers to appoint members of their own parties.

There have been exceptions to the rule, the last during the Bennett government days. The late Viscount Bennett named a personal friend and Liberal, the late Patrick Burns, to the Upper House. Some of the party faithful never forgave him.

The fact that Mr. St. Laurent didn't fill the 14 Senate vacancies before Monday's election indicated to some observers here that he may have plans to help restore some of the traditional balance of the "other place," as members of the Commons call the Senate. It is unusual for a prime minister to go into an election with Senate vacancies. In 1935 Viscount Bennett appointed 17 senators between dissolution of Parliament and voting, and in 1940 Mr. King named 19 after Parliament had been dissolved.

Senate appointments are the personal patronage of the prime minister of the day and he could, without any new law being written name members of opposing parties or those with no partisan leanings. No doubt he would lose the friendship, as Viscount Bennett did, of a large number of party followers whose hopes would be disappointed, but the consensus is prime minister St. Laurent would do that if he thought it offered the best solution to the problem.

Reform Often Discused

Senate reform has been debated in the Commons a number of times during the last quarter of a century. Even Senators themselves, who have seen the danger of a lop-sided Upper House, have proposed changes in the system.

Senator A. K. Hgesson for Montreal, for examp, suggested a retirement age of 5 be set for senators and his propsal evoked wide support. Senator W. A. Buchanan of Lethbrige, Alta., proposed that direct Senate representation be given universities, labor and indurial, scientific and farmers' ganizations regardless of party alliations.

There are some wo hold the view, once shared by the former prime minister, Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, tha the Senate should be abolishi. Others think it is undemocitic as long as its members are ppointed for life by the federal overnment. Some favor appoinent for a term of 10 years anstill others believe that Senator should be elected, probably, fa similar period.

Another plan that s advanced was the appointment of senators by the various provinal governments.

Could Be Improved

Those who have studied parliamentary procedures al practices down through the yes seem to be agreed that even presently constituted the Senate is far from useless. But they belve its usefulness is limited if is only a haven for retired or successful politicians.

Senate committees ke a valuable contribution to ublic affairs by debates on foign policy and special subjects. Sate rules now permit cabinet isters to initiate legislation in e Upper House. This enables e Senate to share the driver's se with the Commons to some ext.

Several bills were induced in the Senate the last sion of Parliament, and this relieved some of the burden of e House of Commons. One pie of legislation included a numb of Senate amendments.

Garden Party Hd By Bonarlaw Clrch

BONARLAW, July 1-(ENS)—With ideal weather prevailing the annual garden party of St. Mark's Church was held on the church lawn Wednesday evening with a good attendance. The grounds and booths were pretti decorated with coloured streamers and Union Jacks and strings of electrict lights made a gala appearance. The nine-piece Kelock Kilties Band entertained.

The refreshment boo (ice-cream, soft drinks, candy, gum, cigarettes, etc.) did a go business, and there was also a hot dog stand, home made cak, free lunch, and games.

Prior to the garden par ball game was played on the arby diamond, Rylstone vs. Ringbrook. The score at the end of nine innings was tied, both 11 to 11, but a tenth gave Rylst the winning run.

Assault Follows Horse Riding Spree In Field

A horse riding spree on a North Monaghan farm ended in a $15 fine for assault for Arthur Lindsay, 291 Rubidge St., in police court Thursday.

Lindsay was found guilty by Magistrate W. R. Philp K. C., on a charge of assaulting Frank Whitfield, 55, a North Monaghan farmer June 4.

The story as told by Mr. Whitfield was that two young men were chasing some horses in a field by a river on the Whitfield farm. One was riding one of the horses. Whitfield's son, Garnet, went down to the field to order the men off. Just as he got to the field, Jim Nicholson, was thrown from the horse.

Garnet said he told Nicholson to get out of the field. A discussion followed which ended when the elder Whitfield arrived. He told his son to "help" Nicholson off if he didn't want to go.

Garnet pushed Nicholson toward the fence without much difficulty until they came up to Nicholson's companion, Lee Pike. At this point, Lindsay arrived on the scene and according to Mr. Whitfield, sprang at him without a word, striking him twice on the face. Mr. Whitfield fell to the ground where Lindsay again struck him on the back of the head.

In the meantime the other two had been tusseling with Garnet. Mr. Whitfield called to his son who broke away and yanked Lindsay from his father's back. Garnet then went to the nearby road to get the licence number of the men's car.

Lindsay and his two friends who acted as witnesses for the defence all agreed Lindsay had not touched Mr. Whitfield, but their stories conflicted as to who had hit the older man. Each denied he had done it. Lindsay said Pike had hit Mr. Whitfield.

Crown Attorney John A. Bradshaw said he thought the court couldn't believe anything the defence witnesses had said because their stories conflicted. Magistrate Philp said he accepted the story of Mr. Whitfield.

In Hospital Bed As Charge Read

LINDSAY, July 1 — Propped up in his hospital bed, A. S. Davies of Toronto Thursday heard Crown Attorney L. W. Jordan read a charge of motor manslaughter against him. The charge was a sequel to an accident east of Lindsay last Monday in which Elsie Pryor, 18-year-old model, was killed.

Injured in the accident, Davies will have one knee in a cast for seven or eight weeks. Date for the preliminary hearing was set for September 7. He was granted $500 bail.

Davies and Miss Pryor were in a car which crashed the side of a CPR train at a crossing on No. 7 Highway. The girl was thrown from the car and received fatal injuries.

Town Subscribes Sick Boy's Drug

BELLEVUE, Alta., July 1 (CP)—A 12-year-old Czechoslovak boy lying in a Prague hospital is going to get a supply of the drug streptomycin needed for treatment of his tuberculosis, thanks to the people of this Crow's Nest Pass town.

The boy, Jiridich Topic, is a patient in the Masarykovy Clinic in Prague where Dr. Victor Hoppe, a United States tuberculosis specialist, is treating him. He needs between 40 and 60 grams of streptomycin for treatment of tuberculosis of the feet.

A sister of John Skarydko, who lives in this district, wrote her brother telling him of the little Czech boy's plight. Mr. Skarydko asked for more information and Dr. Hoppe wrote him to say that the drug might help cure Jiridich of the crippling disease.

Organize Dance

Mr. Skarydko and a Bellevue doctor, Dr. C. Ross, got together with the detachment of RCMP here. They organized a dance and raised funds to send the drug to Prague. They needed $85.

The boy's parents are able to pay for the drug, but due to currency restrictions they cannot send any money to Canada. The family still does not know that the drug soon will be on its way to help Jiridich.

Army Calls Artist Gentleman Of Leisure

LONDON, July 1 (CP)—The Army didn't think much of E. Halliday's description of himself when he joined the emergency reserve in 1938.

Halliday, vice-chairman of the Chelsea Arts Club, speaking at the recent opening ceremony of Chenil Gallery in Chelsea, said he gave his occupation as "artist."

The officer who was filling in the form replied:

"I don't think we can say that. We'll put down 'gentleman of leisure'—it won't look so damn silly."

ELMER PUTT, the Old Guide and Trapper, makes his first appearance tomorrow on our Feature Page, and thereafter once a week. Drawn by Gord. Bailey, the cartoon series will have a local flavour and be as timely and amusing as line and word can make it.

Advised To Move Tent, Put End Family Fights

A fine of $15 ended a three-family fracas in North Monaghan as far as the Police Court was concerned, but Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC, Thursday advised Dave McCarrell and his 'teen-age wife to move their tent somewhere else to put an end to the continual disputes.

Kenneth Logan was found guilty of assaulting Mrs. Florence McCarrell on June 10, although said Magistrate Philp, "it is difficult to say what did happen." He said he accepted the story of Mrs. McCarrell.

In all, four assault charges resulted from the mixup. Wednesday Magistrate Philp found William Richard Booth guilty of assaulting Kenneth Logan with a Swede saw.

Withdraw Charge

A counter-charge by Booth against Logan was withdrawn by Booth, because said Booth, Logan assaulted him, but did not hit him — "whatever that means," commented the magistrate.

David McCarrell was found guilty of assaulting Logan on his own plea of guilty Wednesday.

Logan testified the affair started when Mrs. McCarrell cursed him for having his car too close to the house, although the car was on the part of the yard marked off as Logan property by a cement flower pot three feet in diameter.

The Logans live in one half of a house while Booth and May Collins live in the other half. The McCarrells live in a tent in the adjoining yard.

When Mrs. Logan, mother of the accused, Kenneth Logan, heard Mrs. McCarrell cursing her son, she came out of the house and told Mrs. McCarrell to move to her own side of the yard. Mrs. McCarrell refused and Booth came across the yard to get into the argument. When Kenneth Logan told him to get back to his side of the yard, Booth hit him with a Swede saw. As Logan was staggering to his feet, McCarrell, who had just arrived on the scene, hit Logan with his fist.

Kenneth Logan, his mother and a brother George, 16, all denied the charges that he had hit Mrs. McCarrell at any time. Defence counsel W. J. A. Fair said he thought the whole McCarrell story had been concocted.

Magistrate Philp observed the people apparently spent about one-quarter of their time in disputes which from time to time erupted into scenes such as had taken place June 19. He advised McCarrell to move away.

AUSPICIOUS DEBUT—Ronald C. G. Wilson, 26-year-old Toronto lawyer, lost his first important case, but he couldn't have lost it in more auspicious company. Unsuccessfully appealing before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, highest court in the Commonwealth, on behalf of the claim of Mrs. Minnie Mead of Vancouver, to a mining property in British Columbia, Wilson was praised by Lord Simon, council chairman, for his presentation of the case. Son Takes Axe To Father's Car

Pleading guilty to a charge of smashing his father's car with an axe, Harry Dunford, 181 Murray St., on Thursday was given a year's suspended sentence on condition that he pay his father, Clayton Dunford, $50 to cover repairs to the car and that he find a job immediately.

Clayton Dunford testified his son had asked to use the car June 24. When Mr. Dunford had refused to let him have it, the son grabbed an axe and smashed the radiator and the headlights. Mr. Dunford said there was no evidence his son had been drinking.

Magistrate Philp said young Dunford should get a job and stop sponging off his parents. He said there was scarcely a day went by that some young fellow didn't land in court who had a record of working a couple of weeks at a time when sponging the rest of the time on his parents.

Say Mass Of Thanks For End Of Strike

ASBESTOS, Que., July 1 (CP) —Father Louis Philippe Camirand, parish priest and chaplain of the Asbestos Workers' Syndicate here, expressed his thanks today that the Asbestos strike had ended.

Father Camirand said solemn mass of thanks in St. Aime Church, packed with the miners who earlier had celebrated the end of the strike that started Feb. 13.

Bells of the church rang from 7.30 to 8 a.m., calling the miners to mass. There was no sermon, but Father Camirand later expressed hope that all would join in re-establishing the town's prosperity.

Both Drivers In Crash Face Charges

Careless driving charges resulting from the collision of two cars early on the morning of June 12 on Park St. near Elm were heard before Magistrate W. R. Philp, K. C., in police court Thursday.

The magistrate adjourned the hearing until July 8 before giving his verdict. Both were defended by W. J. Arthur Fair.

The cars, driven by William Rickard, 558 McCannon St., and Adrian Devlin, 474 Park St., smashed into each other in the centre of the road, although each said he was driving well on his side of the pavement. Rickard was driving north with a passenger, Robert Quinn in the back seat. Devlin was driving south. Each said he had seen the other zigzagging as they approached. Constable Clare McGillen testified both had been drinking, but neither was drunk.

There was evidence that there were cars parked along the street near the scene of the smash, but the defendants differed on where they were and how many there were. Mr. Fair suggested there had been an accident because the cars were only about two or three inches too close.

He said he thought both had made a miscalculation about how far they were from the centre of the road. He said it was an "accident and an accident only." He said "things like that will happen' without any need for charges being laid. Crown Attorney John A. Bradshaw said there was evidence against both of careless driving.

The Cement Shortage

Mergers are not all they are cracked up to be, and the big merger of cement companies in Canada a generation ago has had severe disadvantages to Canadians, even if one distinguished Canadian secured great advantages from it. That Canadian was, of course, Lord Beaverbrook, who made his first fortune and laid the foundations to his fame and titles by concocting the merger. The Beaverbrook merger resulted in an exclusive combine. The local Beaverbrook monument to the merger is the large, rather handsome cement factory outside Lakefield which was immediately closed, and has not made an ounce of cement since.

• • •

Lord Beaverbrook contrived this magnificent manipulation before he was thirty years of age and while he was still plain Max Aitken and not so very long out of his father's parsonage. One wonders if now that he is of riper years he has repented of this manipulation? There is much evidence to show that there may be cause for repentance. The shortage of cement stares most Canadians in the eye, even if it does not meet Lord Beaverbrook's.

• • •

Before the merger a host of small factories in towns and villages across the country made cement. After the merger, during which they were bought up or forced out of business, the majority of them closed. Even big ones like the then-new Lakefield cement plant were closed. That situation might not have been grievous had the industry continued to meet Canada's own cement requirements. It has failed to do so, particularly in the last three years. Cement is being imported from Belgium and Britain—which is a ridiculous and one would think, a completely unnecessary import.

• • •

This country has a great abundance of the raw material from which cement is made. It is everywhere except in western Ontario and the southern part of the prairies. Canada has mountains of potential cement. But it has now not enough cement factories, or the operating cement factories for one reason or another, have not been producing enough to fill Canada's needs. We are tempted to wonder if the cement companies which monopolize the industry have found that a shortage, real or artificial, helps to sustain prices and profits?

• • •

If all the cement plants in operation before Lord Beaverbrook took a financial hand in them were now open, Canada might not need to import cement from the United States, Britain, and Belgium.

Noisy Studio Audiences

The British Broadcasting Corporation has made a rule that it will not permit noise or applause during broadcast shows; studio audiences may clap at the end of a song or at the end of an act, but not otherwise. The radio comedians are making a fuss about this rule, but the B.B.C. is standing firm.

We think that it is right. It is irritating to have to listen to the guffaws of two or three hundred people in a radio studio when one is oneself sitting alone in one's home, perhaps not uproariously amused by the program. And the button-bursting of the studio audience tends to make the home listener feel that he is being left out—that something funny is happening which he cannot see and from which he is being excluded. Radio is, after all, for the listening audience, and not for the studio audience.

This point of dispute does, however, throw light upon one of the sore points of radio: it cannot be seen, and comedians miss the quick response of a visible audience. In spite of its claims, radio has never taken the place of visible entertainment, just as the movies have never taken the place of the stage.

Television hopes to bridge this gap, presenting broadcast entertainment which can be both seen and heard. But there is something which takes place in a theatre—a sympathy between actors and audience—which no mechanical device can catch, and we have not yet heard that television has overcome this obstacle. What is more, a visit to a theatre is an occasion; very few people approach it casually. Drawing-room entertainments by radio or television are not likely to take its place, just as recorded music has not replaced the visit to the symphony or the opera.

Disraeli's Home A National Trust

Hughenden Manor, near High Wycombe in Buckinghamshire, once the home of Benjamin Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield and great Victorian Prime Minister, was given to the National Trust at the first of June. Thus another stately home of England and a memento of a great man and a great age becomes the property of the British people.

The National Trust is of inestimable value to the present and future generations of Britons and all who love fine buildings and gracious countryside. It has become a vast repository of Britain's beauty, through its acquisition by purchase or gift of parks, forests, manors and venerable and venerated homes which owners are unable to keep up because of high taxes and succession duties, and must either let decay or subdivide for sale. When the National Trust accepts a title-deed to land or buildings it undertakes to maintain them in perpetuity. This it can do through the generosity of donors of property and money, and because it does not pay taxes or duties.

Canada has a sort of National Trust in its Provincial and Federal parks departments, and its Historic Sites Board. These are, however, very directly government agencies. The British National Trust is not. The time may be at hand when something like the National Trust should be established in Canada to preserve not only vast tracts of land and specific historical sites, but to foster and secure pathways and lakeshores, pioneer farm buildings and mills of special interest, and the grounds and fabric of what few stately buildings we have. Taxes on private property are mounting in Canada too.

Disraeli's home was a gift to the nation from the Disraelian Society and various private persons. His study, bedroom, library and dining-room where he once entertained Queen Victoria to luncheon are as he left them with one addition, an odd one, which might have tickled Disraeli's quick humour. It is an aerial photograph of the Eagle's Nest at Hitler's Berchtesgaden.

No More Cobblers?

A resolution was passed recently at a meeting of the British National Federation in England, requesting the public and the press to speak of "shoe repairers", instead of "cobblers". The latter word, it was said, was "derogatory, a stigma, and unworthy of skilled men belonging to an ancient craft."

Perhaps that is so, for the word "cobbler" means not only a mender of shoes, but "a clumsy workman". However, the word has been in our language since around 1400, and we do not think that most people regard cobblers as clumsy; if a cobbler is clumsy, he soon loses his business. It has always been our impression that cobblers were good fellows, esteemed by their customers and their friends. Elizabethan drama is full of handsome references to cobblers; Greene, in one of his plays says of them "yours to the world's end shall be called the Trade of the Gentle Craft". And Thomas Dekker devoted the whole of his play The Shoemakers Holiday (1599) to them, and Simon Eyre, one of their craft, becomes Lord Mayor of London in it.

To call a man a "shoe repairer" instead of a cobbler is to take away an old, honourable and pleasant-sounding name and replace it with a name which seems dull and lifeless in comparison. If the shoe repairers do not like "cobbler" why do they not revive the ancient term 'cordwainer" for themselves? It means "a worker in fine leather". What could be better than that?

NOTE AND COMMENT

Transjordan has now changed its name officially to "The Hashimite Kingdom of the Jordan". Headline writers will no doubt shorten that to "Hash"

An article on circus life says that many contortionists are now out of jobs. And don't know which way to turn, we suppose.

Toronto, having supported the Government for the first time in many years, now brashly asserts its right to a man in the Cabinet. What Toronto lacks in charm she makes up in gall.

Notes And Queries

By ALPHA

Questions are solicited for this column, particularly those relating to local lore and tradition.

DEAR ALPHA: Do you know that famous painting called "The Fathers of Confederation", which appears in nearly all Canadian school history text books? The one showing Sir J. A. Macdonald and all the rest of them framed against arched windows which give a view over the Ottawa river? I have seen reproductions of it a hundred times but never the original. Where can I see the original? In Ottawa? In the Parliament Buildings there, in the National Art Gallery?

ANSWER: You cannot see the original because it does not exist. It used to hang in the Parliament Buildings in Ottawa, but it, with the Parliament Buildings was destroyed in the fire of 1916. The painter, though alive then, did not attempt a replica. He died in 1919, in Montreal.

Perhaps not a thousand Canadians know who the painter was. He was Robert Harris, a native of North Wales, where he was born in 1849—one hundred years ago. (Incidentally, your question turns out to be very timely—the centenary of Harris' birth, and also the anniversary of Confederation, July 1st, 1867. I deliberately postponed answering your question last week, so as to have it appear today.)

❖ ❖ ❖

HARRIS came to Canada with his parents when he was seven years old, to Charlottetown, P.E.I. Here again is another good coincidence, since his famous painting of the Fathers of Confederation showed them at the Charlottetown Conference of 1864, the first of the three important conferences leading to Confederation (the other two were Quebec, 1864, and London, England, 1867). Harris took artistic license, by the way, in painting those round-topped windows. The windows in the Charlottetown chamber were square. And the water seen in the painting behind the windows is of course the Gulf of St. Lawrence, not the Ottawa River.

Robert Harris studied art in London, Paris, Madrid, Rome, Munich, Holland and Belgium. He painted portraits of celebrated Canadians like Sir John A. Macdonald, Lord Strathcona and Lord Mount Stephen. "The Fathers of Confederation" was painted in 1883, when many of the Fathers had disappeared from the scene, although Sir John, the central figure of the painting, lived until 1891.

The Government paid $4,000 for the painting, which was quite a tidy sum in those days, although for a man of Harris' training, technical skill and reputation, and for such a large, detailed painting which required about a year's work, it was not a large sum.

Harris died in 1919, as I said, at the age of 70, and with no great fortune. He got not a penny of royalties for the thousands of reproductions made of his painting.

SIR: Is it true that the oldest man who ever lived in Peterborough city or county died at the age of 119, outlived four wives, got his income from selling moonshine, and himself did not have a sober evening from the age of fifty until the evening he died? That is the story that I heard my father tell.

ANSWER: I have no knowledge of this man. Had I a little more precise information—for instance, what year he died—I might be able to find out something about him for you. I have heard of a local ancient whose fondness for the bottle was notorious, and who lived more than a century. But my story is that he was 107 years old when he died. Has any kind reader any information to offer? Incidentally, who is the oldest person in city and county today?

SIR: How many brewer's retail stores are there in Ontario? How many liquor stores?

ANSWER: The latest figure I have is for last year. Then there were 138 brewers' retail stores in operation. Two of them are in Peterborough. There were then 140 liquor stores open for business—one of them in Peterborough.

The brewery warehouse stores are operated by the breweries jointly, and not by the Liquor Control Board of Ontario. The L.C.B.O. staffs, operates and gets the profit from the liquor stores.

The L.C.B.O.'s Chief Provincial Analyist periodically analyses all brands of beer sold in Ontario to see that it is good. During 1948, 68,153,924 gallons of domestic beer were sold in the Province, and, I suppose, consumed. In the same year 2,212,118 gallons of domestic wines were sold in Ontario wine shops and Liquor Stores. In that year 2,966,456 gallons of domestic and imported spirits (whisky, gin, rum etc.) were sold in the liquor stores of Ontario.

Total sale of spirits, beer and wine, from the liquor stores for the twelve months amounted to $76,454,339.27. The gross profit from the liquor stores was $29,169,150.48 for the fiscal year ending March 1948, a net profit of $25,231,261.90 which is not a bad profit for 140 modest-sized stores to make. That is a net profit of $180,223 per store! If other small stores in other lines of retail business made that kind of profit, people would say that their prices were too high, and that competition was not keen enough.

The net earning of the Liquor Control Board of Ontario for the fiscal year ending March 1948 (that is the latest figure I have) from all sources was $36,807,802.57.

IS IT TRUE that the darkest hour is just before the dawn?

ANSWER: Most of the time, because just before the dawn the moon has reached far into the western horizon and the sun is below the eastern: I would not risk a philosophic discussion on the metaphorical truth of the phrase. (For instance, which party's darkest hour was just before Monday's dawn, and for which did it dawn?).

There is a host of such figurative expressions, of the same sentiment: "When bale is highest, boot is nighest"; "The longest day will have an end", "After a storm comes a calm". In French, "By dint of doing wrong all will become right"; in Italian "Ill is the eve of well"; in Persian, "It is at the narrowest part of the defile that the valley begins to open".

FOR THE RECORD: This week I must of course note the election results of last Monday; the return of G. K. Fraser, Progressive Conservative, for his third session, and the Liberal sweep of the country by Prime Minister St. Laurent (192 seats out of 262). The most startling election newspaper slogan I saw was the Toronto Star's three-line large headline last Saturday—"KEEP CANADA BRITISH, DESTROY DREW'S HOUDE, GOD SAVE THE KING". From the Star's point of view God did save the King, though Drew's Houde, despite his girth, did squeeze by, narrowly.

DISTRESS CALL

"This Drives Americans Crazy With Fear"

(KINGSTON WHIG-STANDARD)

A CARTOON was published the other day, depicting four Communists sitting around a table, plotting against the people of the United States. The caption under the cartoon read: "Our job is not to get secrets but to get caught. This drives the Americans crazy with fear." It was an exaggeration, of course, but the manner in which the spy hunt in the United States has in some instances degenerated into a witch hunt would appear to indicate that the exaggeration has a basis in truth.

It is doubtful if anyone knows the truth about all of the many bits of hearsay evidence, recorded gossip, and unsubstantiated information that has been introduced in one of the spy trials in the United States, that of Miss Judith Coplon. Her attorney at first strenuously rejected the proposal to introduce evidence from Federal Bureau of Investigation files. Then, when the prosecution continued to insist on the submission of excerpts, he reversed his position and demanded that the complete files be brought before open court. Prosecution and F.B.I. then pleaded that the presiding judge read the files and mark relevant matter for introduction in court. This the judge refused to do, and the complete files were submitted in evidence.

Our readers know what happened. The names of people in Hollywood and elsewhere were in those files, linked with Communists or the Communist Party. The F.B.I. could hardly be blamed, for it is part of the duty of such a police organization to investigate gossip and rumours, when they are related to national security, and it must keep records. The complete contents of the records were never intended for public reading, yet they have now become so. It seems obvious there must be a flaw in the system or method of procedure which so rudely subjects citizens to the possible harm done by gossip and rumour that may be utterly without foundation.

Another aspect of the witch hunt in the United States that seems fantastic is the lengths to which the search for Communist affiliation is being pushed by regional loyalty boards. In a case recently quoted by Columnist Marquis Childs, a Mrs. Alling had been examined. Mrs. Alling is a government typist. She is almost blind, and types from dictaphone records. All her typing was about veterans' insurance, hardly a secret matter or one involving national security. But Mrs. Alling had visited France and had met and talked with Communists there. Although she denied ever being a member of the party, she was examined exhaustively by a regional loyalty board.

Excerpts from the record of that examination would be no more than absurd, were it not for the fact they reveal how far people can be pushed by fear. From the 100 pages of the examination record we quote two questions and answers, typical of many others transcribed therein:

QUESTION: Do you remember whether or not you told her (a woman suspected of being a Communist in 1942 when Mr. Alling could not recall) that you were knitting for the Russian war relief and volunteered to teach any comrade how to knit?

ANSWER: No, I don't remember anything about that, and I don't remember knitting for the Russian war relief. May be I did knit a sweater. I think I did that for England, too; not just for Russia. Maybe I did but I can't remember that, but I could have....

QUESTION: Well, almost all of us were knitting for the Red Cross and the things were channeled through to various places. I wondered why Mrs. Alling knitted especially for Russia. That was what I was trying to determine.

ANSWER: I wasn't just interested in Russia.

We recall that at the time of the Canadian espionage trials there was spirited criticism of the procedure of Canadian justice and of the tactics used by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. There may have been certain aspects of each not wholly in accord with general democratic practice, but the accused eventually had their day in court and there were none of the carnival performances now being staged in United States courts. Since then, there have been loyalty checks on occupants of Government posts, with very little publicity and no extremes of conduct such as that revealed in the Alling case. We hope Canada continues to show sanity in dealing with its Communist problem.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day.

The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him. (Luke 13: 11-17.)

Bears Were Bears In Those Days

Several weeks ago a black bear was killed by farmers a few miles south of Owen Sound between Marmion and Desboro. It was one of the first bears to be shot in this area for a number of years, and as Eastern Canadian black bears go he was a pretty fair specimen.

But this fellow would have made a pretty poor showing against a prehistoric bear, the skeleton of which was discovered recently in the Ligurian Alps, behind the Italian Riviera. It was found at the rear of a long series of caves and rock chambers on a cliffside 1,600 feet above the sea, where the bear had apparently gone to die perhaps hundreds of thousands of years ago.

The skeleton was hidden under a pile of boulders and was identified as that of a giant cave bear which existed in Europe in the time of the sabre-toothed tiger and the hairy mammoth. From measurements made of some of the bones which have been brought to the surface, it is estimated that the huge prehistoric beast was 15 or 20 feet long, and in life would weigh several tons.

This would be one bear we wouldn't tackle on foot with nothing more lethal than a 38.55 calibre single-shot rifle at our disposal. Such armament was sufficient to dispose of the black bear at Marmion, but it wouldn't have proved very effective against the prehistoric ancestor of his in the Italian Alps.

Exiled Leaders May Return

JOGJAKARTA, Java, July 1 (AP).—The Indonesian Republic is back in its capital today after an absence of six months.

Sultan Hemengko Buwono, the Security Co-ordinator here, said he will invite the exiled Republican leaders, President Soekarno and Premier Mohamed Hatta, to return to Jogjakarta July 6 to take over the reins of government.

The change over from Netherlands control was peaceful and orderly. Two thousand Republican guerrillas marched into the city Wednesday as the Netherlands units moved out.

The guerrillas fitted their movement perfectly to the timetable set up through the United Nations.

Last month Netherlands and Republican representatives, negotiating under auspices of the United Nations Commission on Indonesia, reached a compromise agreement.

The Netherlands agreed to allow the Indonesian Republican Government to re-establish itself in Jogjakarta. In return the Republicans agreed to order their guerillas to stop shooting and to urge Indonesian participation in a round-table conference in The Hague.

CANADA'S U.N. DELEGATE — General A. G. L. McNaughton, Canada's representative to the United Nations and one of the U.N.'s foremost figures, is shown in these candid shots as he participates in the organization's deliberations. Canada's delegate to the U.N.'s Atomic Energy Commission and to the Security Council, he believes the U.N. has pointed up problems and divergences of thought for world opinion in a manner that could never have been achieved under older, traditional forms of diplomacy.

Soviet Piano Falls Apart

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP). — This is the story of V. Konstantinov and his piano, as related in The Literary Gazette of Moscow:

"I liked the piano very much in the store. But as soon as the instrument was delivered to my apartment, disillusionment and chagrin set in. First of all, the key was badly fitted to the lock and only yielded to very strong pressure.

"The woodwork facing of the left leg fell off. Examining the body of the piano in bright light I discovered small cracks and uneven lacquer. In the course of a week several keys began to stick and others utterly ceased to produce sound."

The piano, it seems, was manufactured by the Red October factory in Leningrad.

The Literary Gazette has been conducting a campaign against "unattractively and poorly made goods." Konstantinov's plaint, printed among letters from readers, was translated by the current Digest of the Soviet Press.

Lake Erie Skipper Loses His License

CLEVELAND, July 1 (AP). — A Lake Erie skipper has lost his master's license because of a collision involving his ship, the Coast Guard reported Wednesday.

The action was the result of a hearing against Capt. Guy L. Smith of the freighter Frank Armstrong.

A seaman was killed in the crash of Smith's ship and the freighter J. J. Boland near Colchester Light in Lake Erie last November 2.

Smith was accused of failing to operate the vessel at a moderate speed in a period of low visibility and failing to navigate with caution when he heard the fog signal of another ship. He pleaded innocent.

The skipper will remain in command of his ship pending the outcome of an appeal.

Ontario Fruit Crops Reported Average

TORONTO, July 1 (CP).—Ontario Agriculture Department officials said Thursday that apple, pear and peach crops will be an average of 34 per cent greater in volume over last year.

Basing their estimates on field reports to June 15, the spokesmen said the drought which hit Southern Ontario did little damage to the deep rooted tree fruit crops.

They estimated that apples will be 38 per cent over last year's $3,500,000 total crop; peaches 19 per cent over $2,716,000, and pears 47 per cent over $385,000.

An increase in the grape crop was also predicted. Officials said the crop this year will be about 12 per cent above the $2,383,000 crop of last year.

Plums are expected to be down about 6 per cent in volume and sweet and sour cherries down 10 and 19 per cent, respectively.

Seeking To Reduce Great Lake Pollution

DETROIT, July 1 (CP).—The International Joint Commission on Water Pollution yesterday summed up two days of hearings with a resolution requesting the State Department to set up a permanent pollution board in the Great Lakes area.

Criticism of federal pollution work was voiced by representatives of Lake cities from Ecorse to Sault Ste. Marie, many of them under court order to install garbage disposal plants.

Copper Mining To Be Resumed

BRUCE MINES, Ont., July 1 (CP).—A new copper-mining era may be in store for this Northern Ontario town where copper was king in the days when sailing vessels carried the ore to refineries.

Ray Bond, who heads some Detroit interests, announced yesterday his group has decided to proceed with an intensive development program after eight years of geological surveys in this area 80 miles west of Sudbury. He said the discovery of new lodes indicates the copper fields again can be made productive.

The Bruce Mines copper fields were closed in 1875. From 1846 until then thousands of tons of ore were shipped by sailing vessels to Swansea, Wales, for refining but the finding of rich fields around Hecla and Calumet in Michigan spelled their doom.

Methodist Reformer Aged 94 Will Retire

LONDON, July 1 (CP) — Dr. John Scott Lidgett, 94, warden of the Bermondsey Settlement since 1891 and a minister of the Methodist Church since 1876, is to retire shortly.

At 88, Dr. Scott Lidgett gave up wearing spectacles because he no longer needed them. A year later he defended the right of young people to dance on church premises.

Among other things he had been joint editor of the Contemporary Review, vice-chancellor of London University, president of the National Council of the Evangelical Free Churches of England and Wales, president of the Wesley Methodist Conference and president of the first united conference of Methodism.

Paid $1 For Mine Now Worth A Million

ST. BONIFACE, Man., July 1. —(CP).—Alexander Desaultels of this city once gave $1,000,000 away for $1, because it takes money to make money.

Now 84 years old, Mr. Desautels said in an interview that he discovered a vein of gold when he was prospecting with a former R.C.M.P. inspector on the shore of Rice lake, in northern Manitoba.

"When we got to Winnipeg, the inspector asked me if I was going to work the claim or sell it. I told him I had no money to work it and offered the deed for 10 cents. The inspector gave me $1 and we went to the bar and celebrated the deal. I had 75 cents left so I didn't lose anything," laughed Mr. Desaultels.

His strike now is known as San Antonio Gold Mines and he figures he would have made $1,000,000 if he could have developed the mine.

Russian Firmness Forced Western Retreat--Vishinsky

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

LONDON, July 1 (AP).—Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Russia's Foreign Minister, disagreed sharply Thursday with Western-powers analysis of the Paris Big-Four meeting and declared Russian firmness forced a Western retreat.

Vishinsky said the agreements reached at Paris differed "seriously" from the original proposals put forward by Britain, France and the United States.

On the other hand, he added, after careful reading of the communique issued by the Big Four, "it is not difficult to see . . . the basic ideas of the proposals submitted by the Soviet delegation in the Council of Foreign Ministers during the very first days of its work."

In a 4,200-word statement distributed in London through the official Soviet News Agency, Vishinsky differed with Dean Acheson, United States State Secretary, on the progress of the Marshall Plan and whether it was Russia or the West who wanted to give the German more freedom.

Acheson told a Washington press conference after his return from Paris that Russia had been put on the defensive in the struggle for Europe and was afraid to relax its iron grip on Eastern Germany because they knew they would no longer be able to control the German people if they did so.

Progress Achieved

Acheson said the reason for the strength of the West in the Paris sessions was "the progress that has been achieved in the restoration of Western Europe."

Vishinsky, taking a complete opposite view, said:

"I think that precisely the failures of the Marshall Plan should be regarded as one of the reasons for the departure of the three (Western) Ministers at the Paris session from their original so-called "firm policy."

The Russian leader said the Paris conference came about because of mutual concessions over Berlin by East and West and added:

"I think that in the future too, it will be necessary to make certain mutual concession compatible with the principles of the Potsdam agreement."

Vishinsky charged Acheson with a "groundless" assertion in saying the Russians were afraid to grant freedom to the Germans.

"How," he asked, "is one to explain the fact that both he and his Western colleagues resolutely objected to all the proposals of the Soviet delegation directed precisely at restoring the unity of Germany and giving the Germans freedom in their own affairs?"

Inquiry Into Affairs Credit Union Asked

VAL D'OR, Que., July 1 (CP). —A group of 200 depositors of the closed Val d'Or Credit Union Wednesday night signed a petition asking Premier Duplessis to appoint a Royal Commission to probe the institution's affairs.

The Credit Union, which closed June 8, was found to have only $1,800 in assets to cover deposits of 1,200 depositors totalling $195,957.

The petitioners said that most depositors are people of small means who entrusted their life savings to the Credit Union, not knowing that it was not a member of the Quebec Credit Union League.

Windsor Housewives Scramble For Bread

WINDSOR, July 1 (CP). — Housewives were scrambling for bread today as a strike of 120 workers at the Wonder Bakeries, Ltd., went into its third day with picket lines surrounding the company's plant.

The men struck Wednesday following a breakdown of negotiations for higher wages.

An estimated 8,000 loaves of bread are due to spoil unless moved from the interior of the plant.

Planning Survey Of Wild Life

TORONTO, July 1 (CP). — Fletcher Thomas, Progressive-Conservative member of the Ontario Legislature from Elgin and chairman of the select committee on conservation, announced yesterday that plans have been completed for an extensive conservation survey in the province.

The committee, which has had preliminary discussions with officials of provincial departments, will visit strategic points in the province where public hearings will be held.

Mr. Thomas said county representatives of the Departments of Agriculture and Lands and Forests have been asked to bring together all interested groups such as farmers, hunters, conservationists and member of Boards of Trade.

Subsidized Housing Not Yet Considered

OTTAWA, July 1 (CP). — Prime Minister St. Laurent yesterday told a press conference that no subsidized housing plan has yet been considered on the ministerial level.

Mr. St. Laurent said possibly government officials are preparing such plans, but so far they have not come to the attention of the ministers.

Windsor Lawyer Blames Mayor

WINDSOR, Ont., July 1 (CP)— Bruce J. S. Macdonald, counsel for several city organizations at the Royal Commission probe into affairs of Metropolitan General Hospital, blames Mayor Arthur J. Reaume and "his majority group on the board of governors" for the situation which required an inquiry.

Evidence and argument of counsels was completed Thursday, ending the probe into affairs of city-owned hospital that has dragged on nearly two months.

Judge Eric Cross, one-man Ontario Royal Commissioin, said he may make public a preliminary report in August in order that full membership in the board of governors may be facilitated.

Four lawyers summed up their cases briefly, but Mr. Macdonald took more than an hour to review evidence and make recommendations.

Keith Laird, counsel for Mildred Maybee, whose resignation as superintendent of nurses at the hospital touched off the probe, said his client does not wish to return to the hospital in her former capacity.

Earlier, Harold A. Scarff, auditor, made 10 recommendations designed to improve the purchasing, recording and other business methods at the hospital.

Lewis Orders Miners To Work 3-Day Week

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W.Va., July 1 (AP).—John L. Lewis yesterday ordered soft coal miners east of the Mississippi River to work a three-day week starting next Tuesday, abandoning his traditional "No contract, no work" policy.

The contract with the soft coal industry expired at midnight, but Lewis directed his miners to stay on the job for a short work week "to remove the stresses and strains which could cause industry and public irritation."

Underground Cables Pipeline For Music

MONTREAL, July 1—(CP)—The city executives committee has agreed to rent space in underground electric-cable conduits to a company which will pipe music and other radio entertainment direct into subscribers' homes.

The company proposes a distribution station in Montreal, connected by wire to radio stations in Canada and the United States.

In homes the service will be connected to radios or will be provided through a leased loudspeaker. By pushing buttons the subscriber can have his choice of programs.

Wind Dies Down Saving Lumber

WYOMING, Ont., July 1 (CP). —This thriving mill and lumber town was saved from possible destruction Thursday when firemen of four municipalities and equipment from two cities brought a $250,000 fire under control.

The blaze was in the James Milling and Supply Co., Ltd., in this centre 10 miles east of Sarnia.

A strong wind blew the leaping flames from the mill towards thousands of tons of lumber piled across the street.

"Then a miracle happened," said Cline Moore, a company official.

"Just when the fire was at its height, with glowing cinders flying 200 yards or more, the wind suddenly died down. There wasn't a man or woman in the town who thought they had a chance of saving their homes until then."

Fifteen employees inside the two-storey frame structure escaped uninjured.

Newark Bears Defeat Royals 4-2

By the Associated Press.

The maligned Newark Bears are getting plenty mad.

Those down-trodden, brow-beaten International League cellar-dwellers to-day boast an unprecedented three-game winning streak. They are only 20½ games behind the league-leading Buffalo Bisons and are now setting their sights on a lofty seventh place perch.

It may be some time before the Bears challenge the Bisons for the lead, but from the way they have been performing for the last three days one would think they were pennant contenders.

Last night, the Bears won their third straight for the first time this season, defeating the Montreal Royals 4-2 behind the steady pitching of Duane Pillette.

The strong righthander went the distance in recording his fourth victory. Home runs by Fenton (Muscles) Mole and Harry Heslet eased his job. The Bears are a half-game behind seventh-place Baltimore.

Jersey City Giants went into a second-place tie with Montreal Royals, 4½ games off the pace, by blanking Toronto Maple Leafs 2-0.

Rochester Red Wings won their sixth straight game, downing the Baltimore Orioles 5-1.

The Syracuse Chiefs handed Buffalo its worst drubbing of the season, hammering five Bison hurlers for an 18-7 victory. Frank Drews, Sammy Meeks and starting pitcher Jim Prendergast hit homers for the winners

Present Gifts To Teacher

FOWLER'S CORNERS, July 1. —(ENS).—Pupils and parents of School Section No. 2, Smith, enjoyed a pleasant evening in the school house Friday night, where all gathered to bid farewell to their teacher, Miss Jean Fairbairn, who has been here for the past four years.

The evening opened with a program consisting of the following numbers, with Harry Archer as chairman: Sing-song, led by Mrs. Jas. Young; chorus by the school, accompanied by the music teacher, Mrs. Killburn; reading, Jessie Moncrieff; solo, Herbie Johnston; solo, Mrs. aJs. Young; reading, Herbie Johnston; chorus by the school.

An appropriate address was read to Miss Fairbairn by Mrs. Max Archer, and the presentation of a magazine table and table lamp was made by Boc McAdam and Charlie Westlake. Miss Fairbairn expressed her thanks for the gifts and all joined in singing "She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, music being supplied by George Rutherford, Mrs. C. Westlake and Muriel Willis.

English Oarsmen Beat Crew From Princeton

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, England, July 1 (CP) — Britain's Thames Rowing Club crew today defeated the Cottage Club of Princeton, a United States crew, by 2½ lengths in the semi-final of the Grand Challenge Cup at the Henley Royal Regatta.

The Thames club—which won the cup last year—led all the way and showed too much experience for the crew from Princeton.

The winning time was six minutes, 49 seconds.

Jack Kelly, jr., reached the final of the Diamond Sculls when he beat C. T. Neumeier, of Amsterdam, by three lengths, in eight minutes, 12 seconds.

ONE-HITTER — Gunner Ed Whitehill hurled one-hit ball to give the Petes a 2-1 exhibition win over House of David in a nifty senior ball game here yesterday. He whiffed six.

Gunner Beats Davids In 2-1 Game

By FRED MAYBEE

Ed (Gunner) Whitehill, veteran of many COBL campaigns, rose to new heights last night at Riverside as Peterborough defeated House of David 2-1 in a thrilling exhibition of senior baseball, before a fine crowd.

The foxy control artist held the highly-touted bearded travellers to one hit and struck out six, to earn the verdict against John Cathay. The left-handed ace of the visitors had speed and a sharp breaking curve to hold Ed Murphy's boys subdued most of the way. Each team managed to score an unearned run in the fourth but excellent work on the hill by both twirlers made it apparent the breaks would eventually decide the issue.

The Winner

With two away in the last of the eighth, Fred Garvey caught one of Cathay's fast balls and drove it to the fence in deep left centre over Hershock's head for a clean double. Lowry then walked. Al Menzie, who had nicked Cathay for a sharp single in the sixth, again came through with a ringing drive through first base territory to score Garvey with the winning marker. Whitehill was steady in the top of the ninth to hold the visitors.

It was a great game under the best lighting system seen here to date. Fielding features were supplied by Dalton at third with four assists and an errorless game and Estlick in left with three put outs, one a sparkling running catch in the eighth off Cudemo. House of David had a record of 32 victories against 10 defeats for this year prior to yesterday.

LAWN BOWLING

By HERB MARTIN

Despite the extreme hot weather bowlers, ladies and gents, turned out almost 100 per cent last night to play their schedule games. And it was hot. So keen was the competition all across the greens that no less than three games were not decided until the boys went into overtime. The first report of that kind came when A. Black won out by one shot on the extra end over Ernie Wall's quartet.

The next extra end game went to Geo. Gimblett over R. Burns. George came from behind to tie the game in the 18th end and then helped himself to two points on the 19th end.

Charlie Clarke did the same thing to Walter Perks, only he got three points in the overtime period.

It looks to us as if the boys are playing for keeps.

Offhand we would say that Group No. 1 is supplying the best competition. It's all tied up in a real hard knot.

Today's thought—In a motorized age, there's still a place for horse sense.

Dodgers, Cards To Be In On Photo Finish

By HARRY GRAYSON, NEA Sports Editor.

NEW YORK — NEA — Billy Southworth was discussing the Cardinals' heat wave.

"They have some ball players," said the manager of the Braves, not meaning to be funny.

"They're getting good pitching, and pitching dresses up any club."

Billy the Kid can't split out the St. Louis and Brooklyn Nationals.

"The Dodgers have such an abundance of young fellows who can hit, run and scoot," he said.

Southworth expects to see the Cards and Brooks in another photo finish, similar to the one which led to the play-off in 1946.

And despite all the things that have happened to them, Southworth hopes to make it a triple dead heat with the Beantowners.

Southworth lost a power hitter when Jeff Heath couldn't turn on the ankle he broke last fall.

The Bostons were left without a first baseman when Earl Torgeson suffered a shoulder separation after Ray Sanders broke a small bone in his wrist.

Johnny Sain, who won 65 games the past three campaigns, couldn't get anybody out, and when he did in his last start in St. Louis he developed a blister on a pitching finger.

Pete Reiser's hitting was on the disappointing side when he was sent home with a pain in his chest.

The batting averages of Alvin Dark and Bob Elliott are below what they were a year ago.

Gave Up a Catcher

Southworth became so desperate for a right-hand hitting center fielder who could throw that he gave the Pirates a Grade A catcher, Phil Masi, for Ed Sauer and cash. The idea was obtain Sauer, whom the Cardinals refused to deal the Braves, although he was nothing more than a bench warmer and pinch-hitter.

When left-handed Johnny Antonelli pitches, the Braves have a 19-year-old battery.

Southworth turned to the good old Giants when it became necessary to shift outfielder Marv Rickert to first base. And the good old Giants thought they were putting something over on him when they peddled the 32-year-old Elby Fletcher of their Jersey City branch.

Fletcher had been given up on by everybody in the National League, but under Southworth, the Ol' Clos'man, the home-bred not only showed he still was a mighty fine gloveman, but hit well as well.

Meanwhile, when Johnny Mize went into a slump, the good old Jints used Joe Lafata at first base.

"You would have thought the Giants could have made good use of Fletcher," someone remarked.

"I would have suspected as much," replied Southworth.

Sibby Sisti filled in neatly for Eddie Stanky and Billy the Kid nursed his pitching along, with Vern Bickford and Warren Spahn as his one-two punch.

Southworth had what for him was a frightful western swing, the Braves winning no more than six of 14.

But Torgeson is working out again, Stanky is bouncing around on two good ankles, Reiser is breathing normally, and Sain's blister is healing. And Dark and Elliott are likely to break out in an epidemic of base hits any day or night.

And the Braves are still within easy striking distance of the leader.

Billy Southworth sticks 'em together.

He does it with shears and paste pot.

INTERFERENCE—Third Baseman Bill Johnson rushes to the assistance of big Johnny Lindell, taking a bad tumble attempting to catch a fly ball hit down the left field foul line by Paul Campbell. The fan reaching for the ball was ejected from Yankee Stadium for interfering with the play. The umpires ruled that he touched the ball, so First Baseman Campbell was automatically credited with a double that might otherwise have been a single or triple. Johnny Lipon and Don Kolloway scored, but to no avail, for the New York Americans edged the Tigers, 5-4.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Oldtime grid followers will regret to learn of the recent death in Dundas of Ross Craig at the age of 65. He starred in rugby here when Gene Hurtubise and such notables were in flower. Then Ross went to the Big Four where he shone for years, being a great plunging middle wing, one of the best of all time in Canadian football. Ben Simpson, Pete Campbell and, later, Dick Sheehy were other Peterborough stars who made a name in Big Four circles. Craig wasn't a really big man physically, just medium sized but chunky—yet he had a terrific drive on the line. A decade or so ago we met him here when he came up to see his son playing for Dundas against our intermediate Orfuns.

Glen Carson informs us that the Legion Hockey Club isn't resting on its laurels or forgetting that cold weather follows the summer season. Several new puckists will be added to the 1948-49 OHA senior "B" championship lineup. While the club looks pretty solid up front for the next campaign, a couple of defencemen and a goalie are needed. Or so the club management figures now. Lindsay is expected to ice a senior "B" squad next winter, and Ross Nicholls as a resident would be lost to the locals. Ned Vitarelli is going to Montreal, so there are at least two big gaps to fill. Anyway, Legionnaires are looking around right now. No word yet on the Petes' plans.

Gutted-Stick Action

Owen Sound Crescents, presently leading the OLA senior "A" race, play the Petes at 8.45 tonight in Miller Bowl. And a huge holiday eve crowd is expected. The way the Petes have been going at home lately is helping them draw some of the best crowds of the entire grouping. The Creighton crew may not win this one, but they'll give the Crescents a right rugged evening, and they might just pull it out. If the refereeing is right, and the Crescents don't try Mimico's softening-up tactics, a fine fray should result. Otherwise, there'll be blood on the moon as the Petes can play it rough, too. We look for a swell lacrosse scrap this gloaming.

Senior and intermediate baseball on tap today and tomorrow in Riverside Park, weather being right. A twin bill this aft, at two and four bells, between Canisius College of Buffalo and the senior Petes. Glad to see some baseball booked for the July 1 holiday, as that's practically a Peterborough tradition and the many stay-at-home fans appreciate it. The Petes then go to Belleville tomorrow for a COBL fixture with Batawa Shoemen. At 6.30 tomorrow eve, a Lakeshore League encounter between Newcastle and Young Petes, piloted by Art Pagett and George Masters. Corkery, Sullivan and Wade available for pitching, and it ought to be a keen contest.

Gunner Gunned Them

Under bright lights in Riverside Park last night, a goodly gallery saw a swell senior ball exhibition. The Petes pulled out a 2-1 victory o'er the touring House of David bearded wonders, mainly through the mound efforts of Ed (Gunner) Whitehill. The veteran came up with one of his better efforts to throw a one-hitter, fanning six, to demonstrate why he led the COBL pitchers last year. Certainly a grand slab chore. Rest of the Murphyites were hustling, also, and Fred Garvey counted the winning run in the eighth with a ringing double, scoring on Al Menzies' second single of the close contest. Howie Dalton and Paul Estlick went good in the field. Lefty Cathay on the Davids' hilltop was tough onions, too, limiting the locals to six safeties.

Two men's melees at the Bowl last eve with Knights edging Outlaws 4-2 and Cosmos smearing Jewellers 18-5. Hinton and Hunter hurled well in the first one, both sides being short of players. Woods and Hunter leading the hitters. Parsons threw steady ball for Cosmos in the nightcap as Jewellers used three twirlers. Play was loose in this one. Pagett topped the losers at bat, as Thomson, Walton, Crowe and Robson punished the pill hard for the victors. Cosmos are now on top by half a game, and Knights are just half a game out of second place. Outlaws are slipping some and Jewellers are away back. Games tomorrow: Jewellers vs. Uniteds, and Cosmos vs. Outlaws.

Joe DiMaggio's 3-Run Homer Give Yanks Win

By JACK HAND, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Better check those all-star votes son. The name Joe DiMaggio seems to be missing.

If there is any legitimate 100-per-cent all-star in the baseball business today, Joe D. is it. No matter that he missed the first 65 games. Off his showing in three ball games, he belongs on the team.

Ask the folks up around Fenway Park where he led the New York Yankees to three stunning victories over the Red Sox. He'd be elected by acclamation there.

Lou Boudreau as manager of the American League team in the July 12 all-star game at Brooklyn has the privilege of naming the rest of his squad after the eight non-pitching starters have been selected by fan vote. He can use the Yankee Clipper, if only as a pinch-hitter.

When Lou picks his squad, you'll find jolting Joe right behind the first three outfielders picked by the fans—Ted Williams, Tommy Henrich, and brother Dominic DiMaggio.

Familiar To All

The DiMaggio story of 1949 is familiar to all by this time. How he sat out 65 games, played one exhibition and then catapulted into a starring role at Boston.

Jolting Joe did it again yesterday, crashing a three-run homer in the seventh inning to provide the winning 6-3 margin over the dazed Red Sox.

In the three games he played against the Red Sox, DiMaggio went to bat officially 11 times, collected five hits including four round-trippers for a .455 average. He batted in nine runs. In the field he handled 13 putouts and didn't commit an error.

Yesterday's victory enabled the Yankees to increase their margin over the Sockers to eight full games.

Washington Senators gave the Yankees a little more breathing room by knocking off Philadelphia 8-6 in the only American League night game. The loss left the second-place A's 5½ games behind New York. Dick Weik won his first major league game as a reliefer for Joe Haynes. Toronto-born Dick Fowler was the loser.

Detroit cut loose with a 17-hit attack on Early Wynn and the other Cleveland pitchers for a 12-6 triumph that moved them into their place ahead of the Tribe.

Art Houtteman who was forced to leave the game in the ninth because of the heat, helped himself to his fourth victory with three singles. Vic Wertz did even better with his ninth homer, two doubles and a single.

Dodgers Game in Front

Brooklyn and St. Louis both lost in the National League, leaving the Dodgers out front by a full game. The Phils' veteran lefty, Ken Heintzelman, tamed the Dodgers 4-2 and Chicago Cubs bombed the Cardinals 12-5 with Hank Edwards hitting two homers, scoring five runs and driving in four.

Heintzelman scattered five Brooklyn hits for his ninth win, downing lefty Joe Hatten. Dick Sisler and Del Ennis knocked in the winning scores in the eighth.

Bill Voiselle and Glenn Elliott hurled Boston Braves to a double victory over New York Giants 3-0 and 6-2.

Pittsburgh bunched three of its four hits off Howie Fox in the sixth inning to shade Cincinnati 2-1.

Chicago and St. Louis were not scheduled in the American.

PMLA Tilts Staged

Three minor lacrosse fixtures were staged last evening in the Miller Bowl. Silver's defeated Queen's 8-5 in the juvenile joust, American midgets won 4-2 from Kiwanis, and United Electric bantams blanked Legion 4-0. Next week's schedule is published tonight. The Silver's and Queen's juvenile squads will play this evening between periods at the senior game.

Minor Lacrosse

Following is the minor lacrosse schedule at Miller Bowl for evenings next week, and players should clip it out:

Monday

Convener: W. Firth. 6.15 p.m. Bantam, J. K. Hughes vs. All Saints; 7.15 p.m. Midget, T. J. Cavanaugh vs. Irwin Godson; (Secondary Box) 7 p.m. Practice (under supervision of Jack Foote) for Kiwanis; 8.00 p.m. for Americans.

Tuesday

Convener: J. Cooper. 6.15 p.m. Bantam, United Electrical vs. All Saints; 7.15 p.m., Midget, Kiwanis vs. Irwin Godson; 8.15 Juvenile, Firestone vs. Silvers.

Wednesday

Convener: G. Hill. 6.15 p.m. Bantam, Legion vs. J. K. Hughes; 7.15 p.m., Midget, American Hotel vs. T. J. Cavanaugh; 8.15 p.m. Juvenile, Queens vs. Firestone.

Cosmos Move To Top Of Men's Loop

Cosmopolitan Club romped to an 18-5 victory over the Peterborought Credit Jewellers at the Bowl last night to take over top spot alone in the City Softball League. It was their 10th win in 14 starts, while the cellar-place Jewellers absorbed their 12th loss against one win. They used three twirlers while Tom Parsons pitched eight-hit ball and fanned seven in a fair showing in the loose joust. Hawkes hurt his knee early and had to retire.

Thomson, Crowe, Robson and Walton were the big stickers for Cosmos with four bingles apiece. Parsons and Robson hit homers, Walton a triple, Thomson two doubles and Mackness one. Pagett led the losers with three for four, one a double. Byrnes had a double and single, Sanderson a two-bagger. Each side ripped off a twin killing in the slow struggle.

US. And Czech Stars In Final

LONDON, July 1 (CP) — Ted Schroeder of the United States met Jaroslav Drobny, hard-hitting Czech lefthander, today in the men's singles final of the Wimbledon tennis championships.

Schroeder ruled a solid favorite before the match but the Czech, whose only weakness is a rather uncertain backhand, took the first set, 6-3.

A capacity crowd of 17,000 including Queen Mary, the Duchess of Kent, Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh, gave the players an ovation as they came out to bow to the royal box and face an array of 30 photographers.

Drobny started off in terrific form. He took the first game with two outright aces and then aced the Californian again with the three opening services of the third game.

Schroeder levelled the match, winning the second set, 6-0.

Knights Take Close One Over Outlaws

Knights of Columbus yanked out a 4-2 City Softball win over the Irwin-Godson Outlaws at the Bowl last night before a small crowd in a tidy tilt. Both teams were shy of regulars but turned in a good game. The win put Knights half a game back of Uniteds and a full game behind Cosmos, dropping Outlaws down further, four full games behind them. Two extra-base blows along with wild pitches gave Knights their slight margin. They had two more erorrs, but pulled off two double plays.

Hinton and Hunter both hurled fine ball, Hinton giving up but five hits to seven, though Hunter fanned 11 to seven, and had two wild pitches to Hinton's seven. Woods led Knights at bat with two for four, as Conlin and Evans tripled. Hunter led his side at bat with two in three appearances. The game went five minutes over the hour.

Quebec Braves Beat Amsterdam

By the Associated Press.

Quebec Braves are still bumping off the chief threats to their lead in the Canadian-American League.

Frank McCormick's club, behind Hal Erickson's three-hit pitching, blanked Amsterdam last night 8-0, dumping the Ruggers from second into third place.

The win preserved the Braves' lead to 5½ games over Oneonta, which climbed back into second place with a 3-0 decision at Three Rivers. Bob Pray blanked the Royals

The Sox had been in a virtual tie for second but actually trailed Amsterdam by two points.

Pittsfield at Rome was rained out. Schenectady and Gloversville were not scheduled.

Quebec's win over Amsterdam came after the Braves had taken two out of three from Oneonta. The Red Sox had gone to Quebec early this week in second place, only 2½ games off the pace.

While Erickson fanned nine and walked only two Ruggers, Quebec pounded Herman Vick for 13 hits. Vern Sheller capped the attack with a two-run homer in the eighth, when the Braves scored five.

U.S. Proposals On Trade Win Approval

By HARVEY HUDSON

PARIS, July 1 — (AP) — An agreement on liberalization of trade among western European countries appeared possible today on the basis of compromise proposals to reconcile opposing British and United States views.

The net result of the agreement probably would be small in terms of actual trade but the principle of more competition, favored by the United States, would be gained.

Officials attending the meeting of the organization for European economic co-operation were spurred by a proposal Wednesday of Paul-Henri Spaak of Belgium, president of O.E.E.C., which has been accepted for discussion by Britain's Sir Stafford Cripps.

The points for compromise are known to be the same which Sir Stafford, Chancellor of the Exchequer, refused to accept last week at a four-power meeting in Brussels. His apparent acceptance Wednesday led to the hope that he would relent to some degree.

Competitive Trade

Actually Sir Stafford has always insisted he was not opposed to the principle of multilateral trade. The United States has been insisting on the introduction of competitive European trade.

Sir Stafford has said, however, that Britain was not in a position now to take any risks which might result in further loss of dollars or gold from her dwindling reserves. As a result, Sir Stafford was put in the position of defending restrictive—but more easily controlled—bilateral trade agreements.

It was considered probable that, in deference to Britain, proposals for multilateral trade might be watered down, with safeguards to shield Britain against the losses she fears.

The whole issue revolves around the renewal of the intra-European payments plan which expires today. Under this plan European creditor countries supplied grants of their own currencies to debtor countries. In return, the creditor countries were reimbursed with Marshall-plan dollars.

82 Candles Lit On Canada's Birthday Cake

By ALAN DONNELLY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Canada is having a birthday party today.

There are 82 candles on her birthday cake, and for Canadians "from sea to sea" much of the cake's frosting is being found in the summer's biggest holiday.

School's out for Public school youngsters; doors are slamming and locking on factories, stores and offices; communities in 10 provinces are taking a breather before facing summer's two hottest months.

The hum of automobile tires on highways, cool splashes from swimmers, a murmur from countless picnics and cheers from sports events are the chief sounds heard from the lively octogenarian.

Canadians aren't noted for looking back over their shoulder, but a few holidayers are pausing to remember the British Parliament which passed the act creating Canada on July 1, 1867. Even more Canadians are paying tribute to the "Fathers of Confederation"—Sir John A. Macdonald among them—who conceived the idea of the Empire's first self-governing member and brought their dream to reality in a series of history-making conferences at Quebec, Charlottetown and finally in London's Palace Hotel.

It was at this last conference that Canada's title of "dominion" was chosen. Delegates found their text in the biblical quotation: "He shall have dominion from sea to sea."

Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia were joined in the first Confederation. But Canada's architects determined they must not be the last.

McGee's Prophecy

Thomas D'Arcy McGee, whose eloquence fired the nation, caught a vision when he said: "I see in the not remote distance one great nationality, bound like the shield of Achilles by the blue rim of ocean. I see it quartered into many communities, each disposing of its internal affairs, but all bound together by free institutions, free intercourse and free commerce. I see within the round of that shield the peaks of the western mountains, the crests of the eastern waves, the five-fold lakes, the winding Assiniboine, the St. Lawrence, the Ottawa, the Saguenay the St. John and the Basin of Minas."

Manitoba—half its present size—entered Confederation in 1870; British Columbia followed in 1871; Prince Edward Island became the seventh province in 1873. Then in 1880 all the rest of British North America except Newfoundland and Labrador were annexed as territories.

From these were carved Alberta and Saskatchewan in 1905 and Quebec, Ontario and Manitoba were given their present northern boundaries in 1912.

The final step of the Confederation prophecy was finally taken this year and the Dominion of the North became complete with Newfoundland and Labrador as the 10th province.

Canada gained its highest official recognition in the Statute of Westminster, 1931, as one of the "autonomous communities within the British Empire, equal in status, in no way subordinate."

Today Canada has fulfilled the prophecy of its first prime minister, Sir John A. Macdonald: "And when by rapid increase we become a nation of eight or nine millions, our alliance will be worthy of being sought by the great nations of the earth."

House Of Lords Bucks Labor On Steel Bill

LONDON, July 1—(AP)—A rebellious House of Lords voted Wednesday night to delay government efforts to nationalize the iron and steel industry. But the move had little power to stop the government from going ahead with its program.

The Peers voted 89 to 22 over strong Labor Government objections to postpone the date for taking over industry from May 1, 1950, to Oct. 1, 1951. A general election must be held before 1950. It would give the Conservatives a chance at taking power. They are publicly pledged to kill the bill.

In effect, however, there is nothing the House of Lords can do to stop government plans to bring steel into state hands. The government plans to take over the industry by May 1, 1950.

The Lords' powers to delay passage of bills for two years will be cut to one year by December when a heavy Labor majority passes for the third time a bill to trim powers and makes it law. The Commons already has passed it on two readings.

The bill is retroactive to the time the steel bill was introduced. After passage of the Lords bill, all the Commons will have to do is reject the Peers' amendments and pass the original steel bill once more to make it law.

State ownership of steel will be an election issue because voting must take place so soon after the vesting date, that the government will not have time to actively take over the industry.

The vesting date is when the shares of the 100 major steel companies due for nationalization are taken into public ownership.

26 Plates Destroyed

OTTAWA, July 1 — (CP) — A survey of damage to the hull of the Magnificent, now in drydock at St. John, NB, indicates it will cost "somewhat less" than $275,000, the Navy said today. The aircraft carrier entered the drydock June 18 after running aground off Halifax. It will be necessary to replace 26 plates in the ship's hull.

Legion Lays Wreath RemembersComrades

APSLEY, July 1—(ENS)—Canadian Legion Branch 382, accompanied by members of Women's Auxiliary, Sunday observed Decoration Day and church parade. They assembled at Legion Hall and marched to the cemetery to place a wreath on the grave of Comrade Henry Edwards, who died in March this year.

The wreath was placed there also in memory of all comrades who died in the two World Wars.

The Chaplain, the Rev. C. A. G. Spence, gave the address. The service was conducted by Donald Hester. Lessons were read by George Booth, B.A., and music was supplied by Donna Lean.

Mr. Spence set forth the achievements of members of the local branch. The reeve and two municipal councillors of Chandos township, one municipal councillor, assessor and tax collector in Burleigh and Anstruther.

Another member, George Booth, has obtained the degree of B.A. from Queen's University.

Fred Tanner, another member, was decorated last week, having been awarded the DFC for successful flights during world war II.

Two members were in the Women's Division of RCAF.

While he praised the members' achievements, Mr. Spence pointed out the opportunity of further work, especially with the young people.

Catholics Rioting Against Reds

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, July 1—(AP)—Roman Catholic and diplomatic sources reported that loyal Catholics are rioting against Communist groups in Slovakia in the spreading church-state conflict.

In some areas of intensely Catholic Slovakia it was necessary for Communist authorities to impose martial law for a period of about 60 hours, a diplomatic source here said.

"Persistent reports about trouble keeps coming in," said a reliable source in Britislava, the capital of Slovakia.

The Communist government's ministry of interior in Prague did not deny the reports. The information ministry said "the ministry of interior says it has no official report on these matters. It gives no confirmation, nor is there any official denial."

Police in one of the areas reported affected, Turciansky Svaty Martin, Wednesday night denied the reports and said they were experiencing "exemplary quiet."

The Roman Catholic and diplomatic informants here said that in the town of Nitra in southwest Slovakia, 20 persons were injured in clashes and one policeman was severely beaten.

Other reports reaching these informants told of similar outbreaks in the northwest section of the province.

Details were lacking on the clashes because of government restrictions and monitored telephone lines. It is known that tension has been boiling up in Slovakia during the long church-state controversy, now apparently heading toward a climax. Archbishop Joseph Beran in Prague is virtually a prisoner in his palace.

According to the last pastoral letter of the Catholic bishops, scores of monasteries have been closed in Slovakia and priests and monks have been hauled off to jail or sent away to other areas.

Hold School Picnic At Inverlea Park

FAIRMOUNT, July 1—(ENS)—Fairmount School SS 3 held a picnic at Inverlea Park, Peterborough, on Wednesday afternoon. The pupils enjoyed games and swimming. Highlight of the afternoon was presentation of two lamps and a box of chocolates to the teacher, Miss Dorothy Harker, who is leaving the community. Margaret Hooton read the address and Billy, Minnie and Allan Johnston made the presentation. A picnic lunch was served.

Woman On Path Suddenly Dies; Probe Ordered

Police are investigating the death, believed to have occurred at about 1 a.m. this morning of Clara Dwyer, 37, of 489 Rogers St. A post-mortem is being made today by Coroner Dr. Herbert Young.

Her body was found lying near a footpath, the continuation of Driscoll Terrace, north of Douro St., on Quaker Oats Co. property.

James Grisdale, 36, of 152 Dufferin St., told police he was walking with Miss Dwyer along the footpath running parallel to the east bank of the river when she complained of being ill. Shortly afterwards she collapsed and he went for help.

Goes For Help

He knocked on the door of the residence of Joseph Astles, 96 Douro St., and asked for Mr. Astles. As Mr. Astles was sleeping, his wife answered and complied with the request to phone for the police and an ambulance.

Mr. Grisdale directed them to the place the stricken woman was lying. According to Mrs. Astles she was motionless from the moment the investigating party arrived until Dr. J. M. O'Brien pronounced her dead.

The body was taken to the Belleghem Funeral Parlor to await the post mortem.

Man Questioned

Grisdale was taken into custody for questioning and later released.

Drs. C. B. Waite, L. Zacks and J. M. O'Brien made the post-mortem examination early this afternoon. They had not completed their analysis at the time of going to press, but the routine report will be given Coroner Dr. Herbert Young this evening.

Miss Dwyer was born in Douro, daughter of Jeremiah Dwyer and the late Margaret Casey. She lived there most her life and came to Peterborough about 18 months ago and has been employed at domestic work.

She was a member of St. Joseph's parish, Douro, and since living here the Immaculate Conception, Peterborough.

Besides her father, she leaves three sisters, Mrs. Adelard Vinette (Eileen) of Peterborough; Alphonsus Condon (Kathleen) of Douro; Mrs. Richard Heffernan (Marie) of Norwood; and three brothers, John and Vincent of Peterborough, and Frank of Calgary.

Funeral will be from the home of Mrs. Condon, Concession 3, Douro, at 8.45 a.m. Monday for Requiem Mass at St. Joseph's Church, Douro, 9 a.m.

Burial will be in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

THE VOYAGEURS' RETURN to New York City, ending a canoe cruise almost 1000 miles long for Nicholas Power, LEFT, and Sidney Picker. They left Peterborough in two new canoes on June 6 and arrived home in 19 days paddling all the way, except for the portion from Cobourg to Rochester. Ready To Discuss Ashburnham Services

Utilities Commission is ready to talk with the Council terms of a contract for the laying of the parallel lines of pipe between Burnham's and McDonald's Points. One line is the commission's projected water connection with Ashburnham to boost pressures across the river. The other is a sewer crossing, leading from the trunk sewer on George St. across the river, along the lake front to Maria St., linking with the Ashburnham swerage system.

When that job is completed, it will transfer the treatment of Ashburnham sewage from their glorified septic tank to the disposal plant on the Otonabee shore of the river opposite the foot of Park St.

City Council was willing last winter to let the commission arrange for the contract, and assume half the costs. The two lines of pipe will be laid fairly close together.

Council has not yet placed full authority with the commission. That stage of agreeing and financing will be reached next Monday night with the sending of a letter from the commission to the Council.

CLEAN UP CREEK

About 20 members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce attired in rubber boots and carrying shovels, crowbars, hatchets and other tools will rendezvous at Park and McDonnel Sts. Saturday morning. This force of Jaycees has been organized to clean out Jackson Park Creek from McDonnel St. to its point of entry into Little Lake. Old logs, branches, garbage, glass, bottles, and other junk will be removed.

2 Modern Voyageurs Paddle Peterboro To New York City

By NICK NICKELS

Two small colored children were paddling in the water of the Albany River about two weeks ago at a spot 15 miles south of the city of the same name. Flashing double-paddle blades of two canoeists caught their attention and they stopped gambolling in the water to watch. Their racial sense of rhythm was kindled as they watched the cedar-strip canoes gliding along and the bolder one called to the men for a ride.

As they came closer the more cautious piccaninny brought his pal up sharply with the warning, "Man, don't talk to him that-a-way. Can't you-all see they is Indians!"

And Indians they were to all appearances. Nicholas Power and Sidney Picker were tanned to the color of deep mahogany on the eighteenth day by canoe from Peterborough to New York City. They were travelling in the time-honored way of the aborigines too, but they were just two boys from the Bronx on a vacation. They had a wonderful trip, according to a letter recently received from Nick Power.

Two Canoes From Peterborough

The story of their departure from Peterborough was told in The Examiner on Monday, June 6. They had arrived here by noon train from Toronto, picked up two new canoes at the Peterborough Canoe Company in the afternoon and started their trip about 5 o'clock that same afternoon. After pushing down the Otonabee River, the canoeists turned west on Rice Lake, and portaged over to the north branch of the Ganaraska River to Port Hope. Coasting along Lake Ontario, they boarded the ferry at Cobourg for Rochester and struck along the south coast of the lake until adverse weather held them up at Irondequot Bay for a day and a half.

Through Erie Canal.

Picker and Power got a life from a kindly boat club owner at that point to the Erie Canal. The water mileage at this time totalled 452. The trip to Albany, via the Erie and New York State Barge Canals was a series of ups and downs, in numerous locks that let them down at some points as much as 40 feet at one time. They caught up with some of the American Canoe Association fellow members at Kingston, N.Y., where a regatta was in progress. It is little wonder they declined to enter any of the water sports.

At 5 p.m., 19 days out of Peterborough, the two modern voyageurs, which the name of their Association section, by the way, arrived at their club boathouse where a host of friends and photographers from three metropolitan papers hailed their landwing.

In view of the timidity of local paddlers who are averse to promoting a short marathon somewhere in the Kawarthas as a district tourist attraction, these ACA boys have pretty well shown them up. They did it for fun and it is a safe bet, they would paddle from New York to Peterborough, any old time to participate in some event of this nature. They, at least, have given the continent's canoe-building centre, our own Peterborough, something to think about.

KENORA (CP). — The Manitoba highway post committee has extended its activities into Ontario. Six first-aid posts have been set up on district highways.

Deserted City Full Lakes On National Day

If you want to see a nice quiet place today take a look around the city streets. It seems as though the plague had hit the place and certainly there is some contagious germ in the air. By nine o'clock this morning the few remaining cars were streaking along the deserted streets for different resort areas. Our country's birthday is being celebrated in the open as usual and a survey of the resort areas proves that tourist publicity slanted at the Kawarthas has been a huge success.

Down Rice Lake way at George Robertson's Lodge, near Hiawatha there is a full house of 80 guests, mostly from Ohio and Pennsylvania. Along the lake at Bewdley, merchant Don Sidey reports extremely heavy highway traffic which started on Thursday morning and reached congestion density in the evening.

They are still rolling through and a great many stopped at his store. Being an experienced shopkeeper his tourist supplies are adequate. He said that the long strings of tethered boats on the waterfront have disappeared over the lake, well filled with fishermen.

Burleigh Falls Way

Further along Highway 28 at another narrow neck Bob Beal at Burleigh reported the same heavy stream of traffic passing his store in greatest numbers between 8 and 10 o'clock Thursday evening. He estimated that there were more than 100 boats of all types afloat on both Lovesick and Stony Lakes.

At South Beach on Clear Lake, hotel operator Tom Lawlor says his establishment is fairly well filled and he expects his rooms will be all taken by this evening. Although a great many of his guests are from Ohio, Mr. Lawlor finds a great number of Ontario license plates in his parking lot.

There are 125 guests registered at Viamede Hotel on Stony Lake, according to the management, chiefly from Ohio. They expect this condition to continue until the first of August. Sixteen boats in their livery have been out on the fishing grounds since daybreak. During their busy morning's rush of work, things were further complicated when their power supply was shut off from 6 until 9.30 p.m.

The largest assortment of American tourists is to be found at Camp Cleveland on Pigeon Lake. Mrs. Frank Lawrie told the Examiner today that there were guests from Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia and a few from Toronto. The camp proprietors were busy directing their fleet of ten boats to likely looking spots near the wild rice beds. They promise some good fish stories early in the week.

Two liveries in Lakefield were cleaned out of boats by 7.30 today as kickers loaded with fishermen headed for Lake Katchewanooka.

Queue for Food at 5 a.m.

None was busier than Peterborough restaurant operators who reported that crowds of tourists were lined up before their doors at 4:30 a.m. and the first seatings of customers upon opening the doors, filled the establishments completely. Although crowds thinned out and took to the open road early, there were still many later morning comers demanding food at 11 o'clock to-day.

PETERBOROUGH'S OLDEST active baseball fan at 92, Charles Morgan can be seen almost every night watching the double-headers under the lights at Riverside Park. While daylight lasts he can follow the score on the board across the playing field, but when the floodlights are turned on he needs a little help.—(Examiner Staff Photo)

Charlie Morgan At 92 Years Oldest Active Ball Fan

By ROBERT HATTON

"I don't play anymore," Charlie Morgan chuckled. "I just watch them." Every night at Riverside Park when the umpire calls "play ball" 92-year-old Charlie Morgan is there to see the ball game start. He's one of the last to leave after the final play has been made. The flood lights are turned off and it's time to walk home, to 315½ Murray St.

He is Peterborough's oldest active ball fan. He has been a fan ever since he played second base for a Renfrew team more than 60 years ago. No other sport has the appeal that baseball has for him. He has never seen a game of lacrosse. He has gone to a hockey game only once in recent years and doesn't think he could stand the excitment of a wrestling match.

When he is watching a ball game which is well played and the teams are evenly matched, he gets excited. His dark brown eyes light up even as he tells about it.

Mr. Morgan prefers hardball to softball, but he sees mostly softball now. The evenings are cooler and more pleasant for watching a ball game than the hot early afternoon.

Modern baseball is better than was played 60 or 70 years ago, Mr. Morgan believes. The conditions under which the ball players now play are much improved. There is better equipment, better playing fields and players now have more time to spend on the game. In the old days, the men worked 12 or 14 hours before there was time to play ball. In those days there was no such thing as softball; there was only hardball and it was a hazardous sport. Often only the catcher wore a glove. Players wore smooth-soled shoes and it was difficult to get traction on the grass playing fields. But they played to win. Every play was handled as if it were the crucial play of the game.

The Renfrew team played towns around the district such as Arnprior. Renfrew had a pitcher by the name of Pat Dunn who was almost impossible to hit. He had a curve which made a batter practically break his back trying to hit it. Pat used to tie a handkerchief around his arm just above the elbow because he thought there was a danger of his right bicep being wrenched down out of place with the force of his pitch.

Mr. Morgan's eyes sparkle as he tells stories of the old days. His face, mahogany hued from his days spent mostly out of doors, is as expressive as the face of a man 30 years younger who takes an active interest in all that goes on around him. Mr. Morgan has spent most of his life working in the open.

Worked in Lumber Camp

He got his first job when he was 15. He worked in a lumber camp for $9 a month. But before that he helped his father clear the forest back farther from the log cabin in which he was born, 15 miles north of Renfrew. Their nearest neighbor was seven miles away. His schooling was scanty because the school was three miles through rough bush land and there was plenty of work to be done helping his father.

His work with lumber took him all over Ontario. When he was 18, he travelled down the Ottawa and the St. Laurence to Quebec city with a ship load of timber he had helped to cut square.

Although pay was small, living was cheap by present standards. For $10 a month he got room and board which included four meals a day with four whiskeys, sometimes with beer chasers. And it was good liquor, Mr. Morgan recalled. In spite of the cheap liquor, Mr. Morgan didn't drink a great deal. That's

Some Watering Permissible By Next Week?

Water for home gardens is causing concern to the Utilities Commission, and some schedule of local timing may be arranged next week.

George A. Macdonald proposed Thursday afternoon that it should be possible to find some time in the circle of the clock to permit householders to dampen their lettuce and beets, and also their flowers.

Chief thought of the Commission is to maintain water pressure for domestic and other necessities, hospitals, industries and so on, but Mr. Macdonald said the Commission should be able to make some water concession to the residents.

Sectional Times

Gordon Matthews, chairman, suggested that probably the night hours would be suitable to the Commission's arrangements, and Mr. Macdonald said it might be advisable to adopt last year's plan of dividing the city into two or three sections for allotted watering time.

R. L. Dobbin, manager, was asked to draw up a schedule of that kind probably by the middle of next week.

Commission believes that the great majority of citizens are complying with the order to suspend watering of lawns, but pedestrian ears at night occasionally hear the trickle of water from unnozzled hoses.

"We had the most complaints about the lawn bowling club," Mr. Dobbin reported, but that wasn't news to the Commissioners. They also have telephones.

"The threat has been to cut off water at the street lines if the request was not carried out," said Mr. Matthews, "but we don't want to do anything like that."

"I think," said Mr. Macdonald, "that we would satisfy nearly everybody if we could arrange some watering time once or twice a week."

The Commission is hoping that Mr. Dobbin will be able to make a satisfactory announcement to the householders next week.

Patriotic Airs

Richard Ford, sexton of St. John's Anglican Church, played a program of tunes appropriate to the spirit of Dominion Day on the church chimes this morning.

He opened his half hour of music from the tower with O Canada, followed by the Red, White and Blue, God Bless the Prince of Wales, the Maple Leaf Forever; several Scottish numbers Flow Gently Sweet Afton and the Blue Bells of Scotland; and he included two old Irish songs, Killarney and Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms; concluding with the national anthem, God Save the King.

Scots Of India Visiting Canada And Peterboro' Find Our Ways More British Than American

The friendliness of Peterborough people has won for Canada the admiration of Mr. and Mrs. David Carstairs, who arrived in Canada a few days ago on their first visit to this continent.

Mrs. Carstairs, whose husband is in the jute business in Calcutta, is the sister of Art O'Halloran, the McDonnel St. garage proprietor, whom she has not seen for 30 years.

Although they have been in Peterborough only a week, Mr. and Mrs. Carstairs already feel sure of enjoying their two months stay here. "From what I have seen in such a short time, I think Canada is the best place we have visited," Mr. Carstairs said today when trying to sum up his impressions.

This was a generous observation from a Scotsman—Mr. Carstairs' home is Dundee—but there is no doubt that the disposition of Canadians has won the hearts of both Mr. and Mrs. Carstairs.

Like The U.K., Not U.S.

A keen golfer, Mr. Carstairs is already an active member of the Peterborough Golf Club. He is probably one of the few people in the city who are taking the hot weather "in their stride."

"After travelling all the way from India one might expect the Canadians to be foreigners," Mr. Carstairs said, "but they are very much like the English people. You might almost be walking down a street in the United Kingdom instead of being on the American continent," he thought.

Mr. Carstairs met a number of Americans during the war and it was apparent that however friendly, the American and English people were foreigners to one another. Not so with Canadians, however.

Changes In India

Referring to the situation in India, Mr. Carstairs said, "It all sounds very bad when you read in the papers, a long way away, about rioting and disturbances, but when you are there life goes on much the same as usual."

Handing over the government of the country to the Indians has done a great deal to create a feeling of friendship for the British, Mr. Carstairs says. "They want the British business men to stay and they welcome British technicians."

The Indians' trust in Britain was shaken before the government was transferred, but since then, they regard an Englishman's word as good as his bond. They have a great respect for goods manufactured in Britain and will choose them in preference to Indian or American made articles.

On their way to Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Carstairs visited England. The U.K. is still going through a very difficult time, they found, but were impressed by the lack of complaining. Even a man earning £12,000 ($48,000) will go to bed having had only tomato and lettuce, because there is nothing else, Mr. Carstairs remarked. He thought the children were being cared for exception-

McManus—Green

MARMORA, July 1—(ENS)—A quiet wedding was solemnized in Toronto by the Rev. J. Phillips Jones, BA, BD, assistant minister of Bloor St. United Church when Gladys Lucille, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Green, Marmora, became the bride of Hugh Desmond McManus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McManus, Toronto.

The bride was wearing an embroidered dress of white street-length, and a white hat of taffeta ribbon. Her corsage was of American Beauty roses and corn flowers. The couple will reside in Cooksville.

Mrs. Pallant Heads Lodge

Annual meeting of the local Chapter Women of the Moose held this week in the YWCA elected the following officers for the coming year: graduate regent, Mrs. D. Bell; senior regent, Mrs. W. Pallant; junior regent, Mrs. C. Withers; chaplain, Mrs. B. Jones; treasurer, Mrs. J. Liscom; sentinel, Mrs. B. Gash; argus, Mrs. M. Raine; guides, Mrs. J. Beggs, Mrs. K. Curtain; pianist, Mrs. M. Reid. The installing guide was Mrs M. Saunders and installing regent, Mrs. J. Glaum. A presentation was made to Mrs. D. Bell, retiring regent, in appreciation of her work in the past year. Plans for a joint picnic with the men's lodge, to take place in August, were discussed.

"BIKINI" WAS NEVER LIKE THIS—That much-discussed, wispy "Bikini" bathing suit is apparently on its way out. Now the French are going in for a little more in swimsuits as these two, shown at a Paris pool-side fashion show, plainly reveal. Georgette Mannand, left, wears a trim two-piecer generously studded with nailheads. Betty Toutard's suit is considerably more feminine with its organdy frills on trunks and strapless bra.

Marie Clark Pledges Vows On Parents' Anniversary

In a lovely double ring wedding ceremony at seven o'clock Thursday evening, June 30, in St James' Unitel Church, Marie Jane Clark became the bride of Mr. Allan Ernest Burdett. The date also marked the 22nd wedding anniversary of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hector G. Clark of 267 Prince St. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burdett of Point Edward.

Tall standards of beautiful summer flowers formed the setting, the centre basket filled with white delphinium and Paul Scarlet roses, and others with regal lilies, roses and a variety of blooms, and these were banked with ferns. The exchange of rings and vows was conducted by the Rev. F. W. Craik. Wedding music was played by Mrs. C. Renaud, organist, and Mrs. Harry Fowler was soloist. Before the wedding she sang "God hath not promised" and while the register was signed, "Because."

The bride was lovely in the traditional satin gown made in Queen Anne style with net yoke trimmed with rosebuds that were centred with seed pearls. Tulle veiling fell to train length from her matching style headdress set with pearls, and she carried a bouquet of red roses and bouvardia. Mr. Clark gave his daughter in marriage.

The maid of honor was Miss Viola Moncrief, cousin of the bride, and Miss Ono Clark was her sister's junior bridesmaid. They were wearing pretty frocks of blue and green moire made on princess style with bertha collars, coming to points in the back, and had hats of matching material. Each carried a Colonial bouquet of snapdragon and cornflower.

Tiny flower girl Gwenyth Hancock wore a frock of pink taffeta with white net yoke and a poke bonnet trimmed with lace and matching flowers. She carried a basket of pink carnations and blue cornflowers. Terry Clark was the small ring bearer and carried two rings in a miniature white church. Both children are cousins of the bride.

The groom was attended by Mr. Fred Soctt of Point Edward. Ushers were John Clark, uncle of the bride, and Keith Fairbairn.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the YWCA. Mrs. Clark received the guests in a rose crepe dress with Swiss lace trim, and wore black accessories and a bouquet of yellow roses and cornflower. The groom's mother also received, wearing French embroidered navy sheer with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Later the bride and groom left on a motor trip to Toronto and points west. For travelling the bride wore a royal blue suit of gabardine with grey accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Burdett will live in Peterborough.

Successful KC Housewife, Mother, Gardener

LIVERPOOL, July 1—(CP)—"Rose, K.C., Wins," sang out the newspaper headlines.

In the courtroom at Liverpool assizes, bewigged barristers crowded around a slim, dark-haired woman.

Miss Rose Heilbron, 34-year-old lawyer, housewife and mother, had won another case for the defence.

Congratulations were in order for two reasons.

Rose had been a King's Counsel only since April. It was her first big success since taking silk. And she had gained an important legal point, one that would add a precedent to the common law of England which in itself is nothing more than a long string of precedents.

She had won the acquittal of a young window-cleaner accused of harboring a murderer. She argued successfully that statements the defendant allegedly made because of a police ruse were inadmissible as evidence.

Miss Heilbron's career is twofold.

As Miss Heilbron, the lawyer, her earnings run as high as £5,000 a year. She has defended in a dozen or more murder cases.

As Mrs. Nathaniel Burstein, wife of a Liverpool surgeon, she is the mother of a five-month-old daughter, Hilary.

"And apart from her legal work and the baby," said her husband, "she works in the garden, plays golf, reads a lot and is fond of music.

Good looking, with twinkling eyes and a quick sense of humor, she argues at the bar incisively and clearly, her lawyer's wig perched at a jaunty angle.

She is never at a loss for a reply when the judges interject on points of law. Indeed, she is so trigger-fast that she often has her reply started before the judges has finished.

Endurance? She can argue all day, surrounded by heavy law volumes from which she frequently quotes to back up the point she is making. And at the end she is as fresh as when she started.

Faulty Fabrics Often Cause Cleaning Griefs

OTTAWA, July 1 — (CP) — Dresses that shrink, spots that won't come out, colors that fade—the cleaning griefs of the nation usually end up sooner or later at the National Research Council. In the laboratory of the council's textiles, laundering and cleaning section lies an assortment of gadgets calculated to test the durability of every type of cloth from the finest bit of silk to the toughest piece of tarpaulin.

Here's a fade-o-meter which tells—to the last decimal point—how much color a fabric may lose when exposed to sunlight; a reflectometer which detects the presence of tattle-tale grey in white cloth; a launderometer which tells whether colors will fade or "bleed" in laundering or dry cleaning.

While the work of scientists in this textile "lab" covers a wide field, at the present time a large part of their labor is confined to ironing out the cleaning wrinkles of the laundering and dry cleaning trade.

Under an agreement with the Canadian Research Institute of Launderers and Cleaners, the Council has undertaken to check regularly the work of institute members.

Sometimes the fault is in the fabric. "In the past we have had problems with unserviceable types of taffetas going limp and with certain moires losing their pattern as a result of normal dry cleaning or spot-removal treatment," said Miss S. S. Tweedie of the textile "lab".

"People should be warned to exercise care in handling storage batteries so that the acid in them does not come in contact with clothing," said Miss Tweedie. "We see more damage from sulphuric acid on men's suits and raincoats than just about anything else."

Two Sites Needed To Accommodate CGIT Campers

Registrations for the CGIT summer camp have been so heavy that a second site had to be engaged. Mrs. D. B. Gordon and committee have arranged for intermediate girls to use Camp Kawartha on Clear Lake from August 24 to September 3, through the courtesy of the Y's Men's Club and the YWCA. The senior girls will congregate simultaneously at Pestoria Camp, which is north of Oshawa.

All accommodation for the intermediate camp is now filled. A few more registrations of senior girls can be taken.

Miss Mildred Jacobs of Marion College, Indiana, will direct the Kawartha Camp with Mrs. Bruce Wright as business manager and Mrs. Reuben McDonald as nurse, both of Peterborough.

Others on the intermediate staff are Misses Marion Pogue, Anna Edmondson, Alberta Anderson, Marion Brown, Helen Beatty, all of Peterborough, Miss Phylis Dulyea and Miss Joan Allen of Belleville, and Mrs. Mavis Vingoe of Verdun, Quebec.

Seniors at Pretoria will be under the direction of Mrs. Bessie Maxwell of Toronto. Miss Betty Brown and Miss Norma Timlin of Peterborough, and Miss H I n Scrimgeour, returned India missionary, will be on the staff. with other asistants yet to be engaged. Miss Lena Dewart of Peterborough will be crafts instructor.

Claims Freedom For Natives Upsets Business

By LESLIE BRODIE

RABAUL, New Britain, June 30 (CP).—People who dream of leisurely life on some palm-fringed South Pacific isle would be rudely awakened if they were taken to the islands today.

Life for the Europeans in these parts has not been easy since they returned after the war years. Most of their plantations and homes were ruined by the war and the jungle and in place of the abundant labor they left they have found a few indifferent natives who demand wages and conditions far in excess of their actual worth.

The natives of the South Sea Islands are probably the only people who actually benefited by the last war. They gained advantages that would have taken them at least a century under the old order.

Before the war they lived a most primitive life, working in their squalid villages with an occasional job from the white man to help out. Those who worked full time for Europeans were indentured for three years.

Then the war came to the islands. In contrast to their treatment by former masters, the natives were allowed to mix freely with the soldiers, who tried to teach them the habits of the white man.

The soldiers paid high prices for souvenirs, specimens of native "art," and gave them city prices to wash their clothes.

Some of the smarter boys "washed" for up to 25 soldiers a day at $1 each. For a native who previously earned less than $3 a month this money meant a new life and with it independence. Some of them saved thousands of dollars.

New Demands

The old traders and planters returned to their plantations and trading stores soon found that the "boys" would not return to the old routine. They demand good money, blankets, accommodation, and food that is better than the British people are getting.

The Australian government backed their stand. External Territories Minister Edward J. Ward, as minister in charge of the islands under trusteeship to Australia from the United Nations, introduced a new policy after the war that demanded the emancipation of the natives.

Ward's plan is one of the most elaborate Socialistic plans ever attempted with colored people. But the people who know the natives say it is doing more harm than good.

"How can you make a boong comfortable in a collar and tie overnight when he has been walking around practically naked all his life?" one man asked.

"Educate him and raise his standard of living by all means—but not overnight," he added.

It is claimed that the External Territories Department operating from Canberra has placed so many restrictions in the way of Europeans that it is almost impossible for them to continue. The Australian Government refutes these allegations.

It cancelled the indentured labor system and replaced it with a contract system that has no benefits for the Europeans. The new system makes it even harder for the Europeans to get labor.

Copra and cocoa, two of the main plantation products, are at a record price but many of the plantation owners are still waiting for sufficient labor to clear the wartime growth of jungle from their properties.

SPECIAL POLICE

VANCOUVER (CP)—Some 100 members of the Legion of Frontiersmen will be enrolled as an anciliary police force here. They will be used, as in the past two years, for traffic duties on special occasions such as Hallowe'en.

GLORIA'S MEDAL—Young Gloria Fairen has reason to be proud of the medal she is showing her two-year-old brother Larry. The Girl Guides Association presented the 10-year-old girl with the Gilt Cross for gallantry and life-saving in rescuing Larry from a fire in their home in York Township, near Toronto.

England's Aged Go Vacationing

LONDON, England, June 30 (CP).—A vacation by the sea is brightening the lives of many old people this year — for some of them their first vacation in 70 or 80 years of life in towns and cities.

More than 200 have left their homes in southwest London for a week's holiday at Bognor Regis, Sussex, arranged by Cyril Black, former mayor of Wimbledon.

Their expenses will be £3 ($12 and they will have real comfort and rest — breakfast in bed every morning and a three-course dinner at night. Bognor Council will let them use deck-chairs and the pier free of charge and they will not have to pay to use the bowling green or the miniature golf course.

Others Follow Suit

Other treats for old-timers: Paddington, West London, Council has bought Kincardine, a house in Bexhill, Sussex, one minute from the sea with rooms for 16 guests. One party of eight has already arrived by motor coach after a civic send-off at Paddington.

A de luxe hotel with all modern conveniences, one minute from the sea, is planned for old people by Yarmouth (Norfolk) Welfare Services' Committee.

There will be room for more than 30 guests, paying only about 21 shillings a week. Only one rule will be made: Guests must be accompanied if they go out at night.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Family Division of Labor Makes Male Provider

DEAR MISS DIX: If a man and woman love each other, why should the man provide for the woman

A. B. C.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Primarily because if a man loves a woman he desires to provide for her and protect her from all of the hardships of life. A man's chivalry instinctively expresses itself in a desire to shield his own woman and keep her soft and warm.

Dorothy Dix

Besides this, the husband provides for the wife because for the man to bring home the bacon and for the woman to fry it seems the natural division of labor in family life. Our cave ancestors established the custom when the male foraged for his hairy mate and fetched back the wild animals which provided the food and clothing for his wife and offspring.

The idea of the man being the bread-winner and the woman the breadmaker is based, of course, upon the conception of its being the woman's function to bear and rear the children, and that while she is doing this she has neither the strength nor the time to do anything else, and that theory, in my opinion, still holds good.

Having babies and bringing them up properly is a full woman-sized job, and all that any woman has the health and intelligence to accomplish. Therefore, during this important time in her life when she is making her most important contribution to the world she should be provided for and have her material wants supplied.

Often Necessary To Work

Of course, it is often necessary for a woman to work both inside and outside of the home and not only to bear the children, but to provide for them, but this is always a great misfortune. No woman can work to the limit of her strength every day at some job without defrauding her children of the vitality that she should give them, nor can any mother be away from home all day and give her children the rearing that they should have.

We have satisfactory substitutes for almost everything else under the sun, but human ingenuity has not been able to devise a synthetic mother that is as good as the real thing. It takes a mother's patience, a mother's understanding, a mother's influence, a mother's never-wearying care to form little characters and coerce little sinners into walking the straight road.

Of course, if a married couple have no children and if the woman has a trade or profession by which she can earn enough to support herself or if she has a private fortune, that alters the case. Then there is no reason why her husband should provide for her if she is amply able to provide for herself.

But most men like to have their wives dependent upon them and enjoy providing for them, and I should certainly hesitate a long time before I married a man who is balking at this before marriage.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: A girl, a young college graduate, said to me the other day: "I want to get married some time, though not yet. I want more contacts, to see more of the world. When I marry, and I have a notion I would like to be a minister's wife, I expect my husband to agree with me, sympathize with me, respect me and love me. I suppose I will have to feel superior to my husband." Do you get that? I am all fed up on this feminine superiority. There is no Mrs. B. yet, but I will never think of marrying a woman who believes in sex superiority. Women are as good as we are. We are as good as they are. How about it?

G. H. B.

ANSWER: It's news to me that women entertain any idea of sex superiority. I thought it was the other way about and that every man thought that he was better and wiser than any woman.

Isn't the deadliest insult you can pay a man to accuse him of being feminine and isn't "sissy" the fighting word among boys? Go to, brother. This little nitwit of a girl may entertain some idea of sex superiority, but it isn't shared by the balance of her kind. That is why it gives us a laugh when men talk about putting women on a pedestal. We know they do it with their tongues in their cheeks.

As for any woman thinking that she is going to get a husband who will always agree with her and accept her opinions and tastes, that is the dream of a girl child who still believes in fairy tales. When she is married she will wake up and find out there isn't any Santa Claus, nor any husband who doesn't dispute his wife and expect her to kowtow to him.

Equally mistaken is the young woman's desire to have a husband who is her inferior. Happiness does not lie that way, either for him or for her. When nature made man of a bigger stature than woman, it intended her to look up to him, not down upon him, and the only successful marriages are those in which this happens. As long as a wife regards her husband as an oracle and admires and respects him, all is well, but when she thinks that she is wiser, more cultivated, with better judgment, and elects herself the head of the house, she is miserable and so is he.

A man can carry an inferior woman and be happy with her. We often see a brilliant man apparently contented with a Dumb Dora wife, but when a woman marries a stupid and loutish man of whom she is ashamed her marriage is an utter failure.

So I should advise any girl in picking out a husband to scrap the idea of getting one to whom she would feel superior, and to choose one whom she admires more than she does herself.

DOROTHY DIX.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: Why do the older generations use this phrase: "We never had that when we were young." Why are they also always throwing up to us all the time how hard they worked when they were young? These things seem to be their main conversation. Why is it?

BORED EIGHTEEN.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Doubtless the old refer to these things because the difference between what they had when they were young and what they young have now is so great that it is a matter of constant amazement to them. Also, it is true that in olden times there were not so many soft snaps for the young as there are now. But kindly reflect, my dear, that you bore the old just as much as they bore you. There are not many topics of mutual interest to 18 and 80.

Mickey Rooney Will Make Tour With Band

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, July 1—(AP)—Mickey Rooney, who can't seem to stay still for long, goes out on an appearance tour next.

The shortstuff star tells me he'll soon take a band and make auditorium appearances up the coast. Many show business personalities have been eyeing that field, conscious of the vast amount of lettuce Spike Jones has raked in with concerts.

Rooney has plunged into the independent field and is making his second feature, "The Big Wheel." He still is committed to one picture a year for his old home lot, MGM, but predicts he'll never be called. He'd prefer it that way, since he agreed to a $25,000 picture fee in order to get out of his contract. He can make much more than that on the outside.

Holiday Notes

Now that John Barrymore Jr., is making his film debut, folks have been wondering about film ambitions of his sister, Dolores Ethel. She is 19 and a beauty . . .

Shirley Temple was giving onlookers a jolt on the "Kiss For Corliss" set. She was playing a scene in which she imitated a nine-year-old, with nightshirt, Yo-Yo and all . . .

Now look who's getting temperamental—Randy Scott, of all people. He's playing hard-to-get on "The Fighting Plainsman" set. In that picture Scott knocks out Lou Nova, who plays a heavy. That scene will take some acting . . .

Thomas Mitchell goes to Chicago to star in "Death of a Salesman." He'll be absent from films for at least a year. . . .

Tom Drake, free from his Metro contract, heads east for summer stock.

Robert Mitchum drew a big hand from the crowd at the "You Are My Everything" world premiere at Grauman's Chinese. . . .

Girl Headache To Dogcatchers

BALTIMORE, July 1 (AP). — Two dogcatchers testified they stopped chasing canines and took out after pretty 17-year-old Ruth Stewart when she loosed their day's bag.

When they caught her, the dogcatchers said in Police Court, she proved a handful. One of them said he had some well-kicked shins.

Miss Stewart said the two SPCA agents had picked up a dog belonging to a friend of hers. When she opened the cage of the truck to get her friend's dog, six others popped out, too.

Charges of interfering with the dogcatchers in the "lawful performance of their duty," disorderly conduct, and assault by kicking, all were dismissed.

The SPCA agents said they rounded up six of the seven escapees. Whether Miss Stewart's friend's dog was the one that got away was not disclosed.

Canning Stocks Cut By Drought

TORONTO, July 1 (CP).—The prolonged Ontario drought has reduced stocks available for canning in Southern and Eastern Ontario, officials of the Provincial Department of Agriculture said Thursday.

The situation has been further aggravated, officials said, because the acreage devoted to canning stocks was cut because of a surplus in these commodities last year.

Prince Edward County reports the tomato crop in that area will be 57 per cent of last year's amount, with peas at 65 per cent. Canners there say they are clearing 1948 stocks at a loss because of the large surplus but believe the poor prospects this year will steady prices.

Acreage Dropped

Total vegetable acreage in Eastern Ontario has dropped, officials say, although slight increases are reported in root vegetables and corn acreages.

Canning of asparagus in Western Ontario is finished, but deliveries were light, necessitating large imports from the United States. Spinach and wax and green beans are in good condition after a poor start.

June frosts in Middlesex, Huron and Lambton counties damaged early potatoes, tomatoes, peas, corn, beets, cauliflower, cabbage, spinach, celery and mint.

Social Situations

SITUATION: Your young child keeps climbing over a visitor.

WRONG WAY: Smile complacently and say, "Junior certainly has taken a liking to you."

RIGHT WAY: Give the child a toy to play with so that he won't be climbing all over the guest. (Most adults dislike having a child climb all over them when they are dressed up.)

YWCA Presents Certificates To Swimmers

Mrs. Jessie Powell, YWCA swimming instructor, has now completed a full schedule of classes for the winter and spring season. Certificates were presented to those successful in passing tests on their work from January to June 24.

Children's Hotel To End Mothers' Problems

WASHINGTON, July 1—(CP)—If things work out, Lima's baby-sitting problem should be all but whipped by 1951.

The plan is to build in the Peruvian capital a children's hotel where expectant mothers can leave their youngsters while keeping that latest rendezvous wih the stork. But little Juan and Maria will be able to register under other conditions, too:

When mother is ill at home and unable to care for them;

When there is a communicable disease in the family or when mother and father have to travel;

When their parents are tourists who wants to take in Lima's sights.

The hotel will be built beside a new, five-storey maternity hospital. Plans for both buildings have been financed without government aid, although the project has the approval of the Peruvian Ministry of Public Health.

Except for limited backing and financial advice for a few men, the venture is "all feminine," they added.

6—In Memoriams

COLLINSON—Mr. Joseph Collinson who passed away June 29th, 1944.
Gone into that light
That shines so fair,
Gone from the earth
Of sorrows and cares.
Resting in those hands
That toiled their best
Gone dear Dad,
Gone to rest.
—Sadly missed by wife and family.

COLLINSON—In loving memory of Joseph Collinson, who died June 29.
I have only your memory, dear father,
To remember my whole life through,
But the sweetness will linger forever
As I treasure the image of you.
—Sadly missed by William, Della and children.

FORD—In loving memory of Wesley Ford, who died July 1st, 1942.
I seem to see in the soft, dim light,
A face I loved the best,
And think of him when the sun's last ray
Goes down in the far off west.
I miss you no less as the time passes on
Than I did on the day of your going —Fondly remembered by his wife.

FORD—In loving memory of a dear father, Wesley Ford, who died July 1, 1942.
Farewell dear father, thy work is o'er,
Thy willing hands will toil no more,
A loving father kind and true,
No one on earth we'll find like you.
—Always remembered by the family.

GARRETT—In loving memory of our dear father and husband, who passed away three years ago, July 1, 1946.
He had a cheery smile, a pleasant way,
A helping hand to all he knew.
He was so kind, so generous and true,
On earth he nobly did his best,
Grant him Jesus heavenly rest.
—Ever remembered by wife and family.

Declares Strike Caused Hardship

ASBESTOS, Que., July 1 (CP) —George Foster, vice-president and mines manager of Canadian Johns-Manville, said in a statement today after the end of the long Asbestos strike: "We are very happy that an agreement at last has been reached."

He said the strike brought "real suffering and hardship to many of our people" but the company had kept in force employee benefits and more than 80 sickness and accident claims had been paid during the strike.

He hoped negotiations for a new contract with the workers "will be conducted in a spirit of mutual respect and consideration for all concerned and without further costly unnecessary stoppage."

Madoc Doctor Tended 5,000 Births

MADOC, July 1.—To have been the attending physician at more than 5,000 births in this district is the proud record of Dr. Samuel Eagleson, Madoc family physician for half a century.

Many of the children he ushered into the world are now grandparents, but the 78-year-old doctor has no intention of retiring.

"Why should I quit?" he asks. "I am still strong and my health is good. My work is my life and if I quit, I would only be miserable. I have been hearing rumors of my retiring for the past 15 years."

The doctor, who travels nearly 35,000 miles each year attending patients, is being public honored today by a community that believes half a century of service should not go without reward.

Born on Farm

Born on a farm near Queensboro, a village 10 miles north of Madoc, Dr. Eagleson went against the wishes of his parents when he decided to become a doctor. His heart was in medicine, not in farming. He taught school for seven years before entering medical college at the University of Toronto.

He was gold medalist at university and, silver medalist at Trinity College, he graduated in medicine in 1899 with the highest standing of any student. He practised for a few months in Arnprior, then decided to hang out his shingle in his own home town of Madoc.

General practice did not quite satisfy Dr. Eagleson. After postgraduate courses in Edinburgh and London he became an eye, ear nose and throat specialist. In 1917 he built the home on the main street in Madoc, where he still resides and has his office.

Abreast of Times

Dr. Eagleson keeps abreast of new discoveries in medicine. New drugs are vastly superior, he admits.

"Years ago," he says, "we used to give a patient chloroform and he was sick for four or five days. Today we give them a local anaesthetic and they hardly feel the effects."

Twice married, Dr. Eagleson's second wife died last December. He has one daughter, Mrs. Owen Shields of Detroit, and two stepdaughters. But the apple of his eye are his two young grandchildren, Arthur Shields, nine, and Margaret Shields, 11. Arthur already has his eye set on medicine as a career and is receiving every encouragement from his grandfather.

Sodality Meets At Summer Home

MARMORA, July 1—(ENS)—The Sodality of Sacred Heart Church held their June meeting at the summer cottage of Mrs. Bernard Hughes Wednesday afternoon. The president, Miss Barbara Hughes, welcomed the members. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Miss Veronica Shannon, secretary. The treasurer's report was given by Miss Patricia Clairmont. A discussion was held on ways and means of raising funds during the summer months. Rev. H. J. Farrell then addressed the meeting.

The program consisted of: Reading, Verna Black; flower contest, won by Eva Johnston; reading, Joan Belanger; song title contest, won by Janet Hughes; reading, Audrey Black.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Hughes by Verna Black. The past president, Verna Beach, was presented with a gift. The presentation was made by Patricia Lynch.

The girls then enjoyed a swim in the lake after which lunch was served.

Hold Seamen's Strike As Evidence Of Unrest

MOSCOW, July 1 — (CP). — Red Fleet, the Russian nacy newspaper, says to-day that the Canadian seamen's strike is "evidence of the growing international solidarity among workers, who have thrown from their midst traitors and betrayers of the working class."

The paper says the entire Canadian merchant fleet is at a standstill and that the strike is being supported through the world by sailors' and dockers' unions.

"Continuance of the strike of Canadian sailors is clear evidence of their firmness in the struggle for their legal rights," Red Fleet says.

The strike to which Red Fleet refers was called three months ago by the Communist-led Canadian Seamen's Union after Canadian shipowners signed contracts with the Seafarers' International Union (AFL).

A number of Canadian-flag ships are strike-bound, particularly in the United Kingdom and Australia. Many others, however, are operating normally.

CHARMING JERI SAUVINET —Young Canadian actress who is the leading lady in "George and Margaret," Peterborough Summer Theatre's next play which takes the Queen Mary Stage Monday evening for a week's run. Miss Sauvinet moved from Vancouver to California at an early age, has played on the New York stage in Lady Windermere's Fan, Crime and Punishment, and other plays.

Gayest Comedy In Rehearsal For Next Week

When the curtain rings down Saturday night on last performance of the Peterborough Summer Theatre's opening play, Fortune My Foe, work on the stage will begin immediately to prepare to present the second play of the series. It is an English farce, George and Margaret by Gerald Savory.

This offering on the theatre menu will be all laughs. Where Fortune My Foe treated many subjects seriously, George and Margaret will use serious matters only as an excuse to make fun.

Many of the actors who brought characters to life in Fortune My Foe will have parts in George and Margaret. The man who played Buckety Murphy, the drunk, will be in this production. Frank Perry who was the young reporter, Edward Weir; Anne Cameron who was the young girl, Vanessa Medway; and Michael Lynd, the young professor Nicholas Hayward will all assume their new parts Monday night.

New Players

Jeri Sauvinet will head the new group making their first appearance for the summer theatre here. Jeri is a beautiful young brunette born in Vancouver who has had a wide and promising stage career in the United States and Canada.

Also one of the other newcomers is Christine Thomas, who has had years of experience in the well-known London Little Theatre both as an actress and as a director. Paul Horton and Gladys Sproule will take other parts in the play.

First Produced 1935

George and Margaret was first produced in 1935 and has been a hit ever since. It ran more than a year on Broadway and about two and one half years in London, England. The action revolves around the unconventional antics of the children of a father who has succeeded in ignoring them for years. The mother has tried desperately and unsuccessfully to cope with her daughter's theoretical belief in free love and other modern pastimes of young people.

Rehearsals for the play started Monday with the theatre's managing director, Michael Sadlier, directing.

Martha Jamieson who did such a praiseworthy job on the Fortune My Foe set has been working all week in the basement and behind the Queen Mary auditorium preparing the set for next Monday night. She is having a little difficulty finding props for the new play. Martha needs a set of silverware and feels there may be someone in the city with silverware that is not used much who would be willing to lend it for the play.

Canada Gives Chair To Abbey

LONDON, July 1 (Reuters) — The King and Queen to-day attended a Canada Day service at Westminster Abbey and used for the first time chairs and faldstools—kneeling stools for prayer—presented to the Abbey by the Canada Club.

C. B. Cowley, honorary secretary of the club, addressing the Dean of Westminster, said the gift was in memory if their Canadian comrades who died on active service.

"It is our hope that these gifts may be reserved for the use of the King and Queen or other members of the Royal Family when attending divine service," he said.

The Dean accepted the chairs and faldstools and dedicated them "to be treasured here as an adornment of this sanctuary and as a symbol of the loyalty to the throne of the oldest of His Majesty's Dominions."

Australians Salute Canada On Birthday

SYDNEY, Australia, July 1 — (CP)—The Australian Broadcasting Corporation tonight broadcast a special recorded Canadian program to mark the Dominion's 82nd birthday.

Included was a message from Kenneth A Greene, retiring High Commissioner who sailed for home yesterday. He said he would watch with particular interest the progress of Australia's plans to produce more food and goods for the starving peoples of the world.

G. A. Rau, acting Canadian High Commissioner held a reception at Canberra tonight to mark Canada Day. In the Sydney and Melbourne, Canadian business men met for Canada Day luncheons.

Bears On Rampage In Forest Reserve

PINCHER CREEK, Alta., July 1.—(CP).—Bears again are on the rampage among the cattle in the Twin Butte forest reserve south of this southern Alberta town.

Hungry after the long winter, the bruins killed three young calves the first day herds were taken to summer range. They are believed to be a pair of grizzlies working together and an old bear working alone.

Bounties of $50 have been placed on the bears and they probably will be raised to $100 for each killer that is caught.

Newfoundland Starts To Pay Income Taxes

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., July 1 — Newfoundlanders, who have for the past six months enjoyed the privilege of not having to pay income tax, to-day end the generous moratorium allowed by the Federal Government and the island's Commission of Government that bowed out of existence March 31, when union was consummated.

Owing to the confusion seen last year-end when final plans for union were being worked out, it was decided by the government that it would not collect from January to March and the federal government said it would forget the other three months.

Although Newfoundlanders have had an income tax act since 1918, they have been paying annually three months after the year expired with an extended period for instalments if the levy should prove onerous.

Now they will pay as they earn, this system apparently proving very effective in the other nine provinces. All wage earners will henceforth find a percentage of their earnings docked weekly or monthly.

For the past couple of years Newfoundlanders have been turning in about $10,000,000 annually from inome and corporation taxes. In fact this source of revenue apart from its great assistance to the country has clearly shown the amazing economic recovery of Newfoundland.

For example, in 1938 income tax yielded $1,188,567, in 1947 $10,578,350, and at the moment with over $5,000,000 collected on last year's earnings it looks like 1948 will top the previous year.

Charlie Morgan

why he's still going strong he says. His meals were mostly bread, salt pork, and beans. Back in the lumber camps they were a healthy crew. Often they could get water only from the lakes and rivers. In the spring, Mr. Morgan recalls, he and his friends used to get a drink of water by spreading their handkerchief on the water, on top of frog spawn and suck water up through the handkerchief. He never knew a case in which a man got a disease from drinking this water.

With the log drivers in the spring, came the hardest work of the year. Sometimes to clear a jam they worked neck-deep in the swirling current to keep the logs moving to the mill.

Carry Barrel of Pork

There were no railroads or motor transports to carry their supplies. Everything was shipped by canoe through the back country. And when they had to portage, it was a poor man who couldn't lift a 300-pound barrel of brine and pork and carry it one or two miles over the rough portage trail.

You'll never see the men today, there used to be 70 or 80 years ago," Mr. Morgan said with a wry grin. They were great fighters. A man who was top dog in one district, hearing about a great fighter in some other town, would make the trip just to see if he could beat him.

Mr. Morgan has worked at many jobs. He worked on many of Ontario's northern rivers about 18 years. For 16 years he was a railroad man. Anything that came to hand, Mr. Morgan did. For several years he worked for the city of Peterborough.

Mr. Morgan has had 14 children. They are actually two families of seven each. His oldest is 57 and the youngest boy 23.

I could tell you stories of the old days till daylight and longer, said old man, but I've got to have some supper and get over to the ball game.

Defense Undersecretary Well Equipped For Task

By GEORGE RONALD
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, July 1 (CP)—Steve Early, the efficient, hot-tempered Virginian who handled press relations for President Roosevelt, has a wealth of top-level experience for his new assignment as undersecretary of defence.

And his army of friends show him a warm, honest respect which is bound to help him do a good job as "general manager" of the national military establishment.

Part of Stephen Tyree Early's success as FDR's press liaison officer was attributed to the fact that he was no mere publicity man. A seasoned reporter in his own right, he understood a reporter's problems and needs — and acted accordingly.

Quebec Prize Example

Newspaper men covering the Quebec Conference in 1944 got a prize example of Early's good sense. British press attaches clammed up on the doings of Roosevelt and Winston Churchill. Then Early appeared on the scene.

He went before a tense press conference and promptly gave frustrated reporters samething to write home about. No secrets—just "human interest" items about the food the two statesmen were eating, the suites in which they worked, and so on.

Before dashing for telephones and teletypes, the newspaper men took time to applaud Steve Early. It was a rare tribute.

Scored Famous Beat

Early, now 59, had some 20 years' experience as a reporter for the Associated Press and the United Press before taking the White House job when Roosevelt was elected in 1932.

In 1923, covering President Harding on a cross-country tour, Early was arrested as a "Communist" in St. Louis as he tried to push through a crowd to reach the Presidential party. The AP was preparing a suit for false arrest when Early scored a famous six-minute beat on Harding's death in San Francisco. He received a bonus—and the suit was dropped.

Early had steadfastly rejected suggestions that he write a book about his inside knowledge of the Roosevelt administration. He argues that Roosevelt's death did not give him any right to reveal official confidences entrusted to him as a friend.

Since 1945, as an executive of the Pullman Companies, Early had received a salary well up into five figures.

Asked if he would resign the Pullman position if the nomination was confirmed, Steve Early said:

"Yes, sir, it is my duty."

Aged Pensioner Beaten, Robbed Of $40

ALVINSTON, July 1 —(CP)— An old-age pensioner was beaten and rober here yesterday as he neared his home in an isolated part of the village after cashing his monthly pension cheque of $40. Alvinston is about 30 miles outheast of Sarnia.

The thief, believed to be wearing a plaid shirt, escaped in a new model automobile.

Harry Thorne, 75, told village constable James Dean he was almost home when the thief drove up beside him and jumped from the car.

"He said 'Give me your money'," Thorne reported "When I told him I had none he hit me in the chest, knocked me down and then took the money from my pockets. There was almost $40."

Police said the man whose description tallied with that of the thief had watched persioners enter and leave the bank for more than an hour before disappearing.

Mr. Thorne said that after cashing cheque he made a few small purchases, including a can of coal oil and then started for home. When the thug attacked him the coal oil spilled over Mr. Thorne's clothing.

Provincial police are assisting in the hunt for the fugitive.

Use Bloodhounds In Search For Lost Youth

VAL D'OR, Que., July 1—(CP). Two bloodhounds owned by A. V. Seymour of Rushton Rd., Toronto, arrived by seaplane yesterday and were taken to areas where searchers hope to find Gillis Grey, 16, lost since Sunday in the bush.

All but 60 of the most experienced bushmen were withdrawn from among the 200 searchers. The smaller party will go along with the dogs under direction of R.C.M.P. officers.

Footprints made by size seven rubber boots have provided the latest clues. The first prints were found by Gastin Marquis, one of the searchers. It was believed the wearer was either staggering or had become lame.

Bob Bruce and Jim Creighton found the same kind of tracks about two miles away. They were more firmly placed and were believed to have been made Sunday.

Searchers thought these discoveries meant young Grey must have been wandering about, becoming more exhausted or injured as he tried to find his way out.

Dr. R. S. M. Fisher and a staff of nurses at nearby Bourlamaque Hospital are ready for any emergency if the boy is found. When his discovery is reported, the hoarse whistle of Lamaque mines will sound three long blasts.

Young Grey was last seen about 8 p.m. Sunday when he said he was going to Lake Blouin to fish. He also intended to go to Lamaque Monday to take a job.

Mrs. Ernest Grey, his mother, is confined to bed at her hme suffering from shock. Gillis' father and three brothers have all taken part in the search.

Lodge Members Receive Jewels

MARMORA, July 1 (ENS). — At a meeting of Marmora Lodge, LOBA, No. 600, Tuesday evening, in the Orange Hall, the Most Worshipful Grand Mistress Sister Pilling, Sister Benton, Deputy Grand Mistress, and Sister Sexsmith, Grand Secretary, all of Peterborough, and Br. Palmer, Grand Master of Frankford, and Bro. Bateman(Deputy Grand Master of Stirling, paid a visit to the Lodge. Frankford degree team initiated two members. Stirling and Havelock Lodges also visited the local lodge. Sister Langley, a Past Mistress of Peterborough Lodge, and former member of Marmora Lodge, was present.

Sister Pilling presented Past Mistress Jewels to six Marmora members: Sisters Potts, Shaw, Morrison, Wiliams, McFarlane, and Osborne. Sister Potts was presented with an honorary certificate in recognition of 25 years' membership in the Lodge. Refreshments were served to about 80 guests in the Parish Hall.

CHARGE HOSPITAL PATIENT BEATEN UP

Accidents Kill 27 On Holiday

Ten Lose Lives In Ontario; One Killed By Baseball

By The Canadian Press

Thousands of Canadians today continue their Dominion Day celebration, marred so far by comparatively few fatalities on roads and waterways.

A Canadian Press survey shows that 27 persons died from midnight Thursday until early today —16 were drowned, eight died in traffic accidents and three others were killed in other mishaps.

Quebec and Ontario reported the highest number of fatalities—10 each—while Alberta had three. Two drownings occurred in Manitoba, and Nova Scotia and New Brunswick each reported one fatal mishap.

Struck on the head by a pitched baseball while practising at St. Marys, Donald Beasley died Friday while being taken to hospital. In Toronto, Irving Feder, 45, collapsed and died while watching a ball game.

Robert Hendry, 21-year-old technician at radio station CHML in Hamilton, was found dead at the station's transmitter and preliminary investigation indicated he had been electrocuted.

At New Liskeard, 17-year-old Marcel Brillon was drowned while launching a canoe, and Rock Rethier, 22, of Sudbury, was drowned after he plunged off a high diving tower into Lake Ramsay. Clarence Jenkinson, 17, a non-swimmer, was drowned when he fell from a raft on Lake Timagami.

The Ottawa River claimed the lives of Lorenzo Malette, 22, formerly of Lac Pelletier, Sask., and Leslie McNeilly, 18, of Hull, Que.

Three-year-old Gordon Murray was killed by an auto when he crossed a downtown Stratford street and Charles H. Farquharson, 40, of Toronto, was charged with manslaughter. Scott Chalk of Cobourg died from injuries suffered when the motorcycle he was driving went out of control and crashed.

Train Strikes Truck, One Dead

CHICAGO, July 2—(AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad's "Kentuckian" passenger train and an empty oil truck collided early today, killing one man and injuring another. Four cars of the train were derailed and the locomotive overturned and burst into flames.

Killed in the accident was Theodore Walinski, 33, driver of the truck.

No injuries were reported among train passengers. Two of the derailed cars, the baggage and mail cars just behind the locomotive, were telescoped. The other two mail cars were knocked from the rails by the impact.

The train later continued the run to Indianapolis and Louisville.

Beauty Queen To Wed Can't Represent Town

BELLEVILLE, July 2.—Thursday night, before a crowd of over 1,000 people in the Belleville Memorial Arena, Eileen Palmer, 20, was chosen Miss Belleville. The second and third place honors fell to Miki Thibideault, 19, and Audrene Martyn, 20, respectively.

Among the judges was Charlie Spivak, the orchestra leader, who was appearing here with his band under the joint sponsorship of the Belleville Kiwanis and Optimist Clubs. The winner rated a kiss from the band leader after he had crowned her Belleville's beauty queen.

Miss Palmer will be unable to accept the traditional privilege of representing this city in the Miss Canada beauty pageant at Toronto in August as she is getting married on July 16. Married women are not eligible. It is believed that Miss Thibideault, runner up, will represent this district in the national beauty competition.

Czechs Put Ban On Diplomats Making Trips

By RICHARD KAISCHKE.

PRAGUE, July 2 (AP)—Foreign diplomats have been warned by the government not to make any unannounced trips into Slovakia, scene of bloody rioting between Roman Catholics and Communists officials.

The Foreign Ministry said it would be a "demonstrative" act against the Czech government "and gross interference with internal affairs of Czechoslovakia."

This new ban—against western diplomats at least—was disclosed in the Foreign Ministry's rejection of a diplomatic protest against police detention of Msgr. Gennaro Verolino, Charge d'Affaires of the Papal Nunciature in Prague.

Informed church and diplomatic sources said Friday night that at least two Communist policemen were beaten to death and an undetermined number of persons injured during recent clashes in Slovakia between Roman Catholics and government adherents.

Meanwhile, the Communist government moved to take over the big national religious holidays which start today and extend through Tuesday.

Pilgrimages

They will be marked by Catholic pilgrimages and celebrations honoring the missionaries, Sts. Cyril and Methodius, and the Monk, St. Prokop.

July 4 the country also marks the burning at the stake of the religious reformer, John Huss, in 1415.

Thousands of Communist adherents will be making the pilgrimage to Straznice, Moravia, today

Celebrate End Of Long Strike

ASBESTOS, Que., July 2 (CP)—Peace and quiet today reign over this eastern townships industrial town which Friday rocked with wild celebrations marking the end of the long, violence-ridden strike of Asbestos workers.

Monday 2,000 workers will return to the jobs they left Feb. 13 in protest over the refusal of the companies to grant a 15-cent pay increase and improvement in working conditions.

The 2,000, all employees of the Canadian Johns-Manville Company, are the last of the Asbestos strikers to return to work. Last month 2,500 employees of four smaller companies in the Thetford mines area reached an agreement with their employers and went back to work.

The agreement provides for: An increase of 10 cents an hour to bring the basic hourly wage to 95 cents; seniority rights; re-employment of all strikers without discrimination, except those now before the courts who are found guilty; four paid holidays yearly. The remaining five cents of the workers' demands will be negotiation.

Judge Grants Government Permission To Freeze Funds

SYDNEY, Australia, July 2 —(Reuters)—Justice W. R. Kelly today granted an injunction restraining four unions from spending funds which it was alleged they drew from banks to aid coal miners in their country-wide strike.

The injunction was granted in Arbitration Court on four government applications, in the first action under the emergency coal strike act passed the same day the unions were said to have withdrawn the funds.

The four unions named were the Miners' Federation, Federated Ironworkers' Association, the Dock Workers' Federation and the Amalgamated Engineering Union.

A. E. Taylor, industrial administrator of the arbitration court, applied for the injunction. Taylor alleged that "certain unions" had withdrawn about £100,000 Australian ($320,000) from banks June 29, the day the act was passed.

"This appears to be Communist-inspired and a conspiracy against the Commonwealth," Taylor said in an affidavit. He added that the Communist-controlled unions had decided to appoint a committee to organize support for the miners."

The injunction, in seeking to restrain the two unions from paying strikers, alternatively sought repayment of money withdrawn to the banks or to the arbitration court.

The affidavit alleged that the Federated Ironworkers' Association cashed a cheue for £25,000 and that the Dock Workers' Federation cashed one for £4,000.

Meanwhile, the emergency committee of the Australian Council of Trade Unions conferred here, seeking a way to reopen negotiations to end the stoppages.

A. E. Monk, secretary-general of the council, said before the meeting that the position "looks grim" but the committee would continue to strive for a setlement formula.

Governor-General Leaves On Plane Trip To Arctic

OTTAWA, July 2—(CP)—Viscount Alexander takes off from Ottawa's Rockliffe air station today on a flying trip to the north that will take him well inside the Arctic circle.

He'll be accompanied on the trip by Field Marshal Viscount Alanbrooke, wartime Chief of the Imperial General Staff who now is a director of the Hudson's Bay Company, and Brigadier Geoffrey Walsh of Brantford and St. Catharines, former Commander of the Northwest Highways System.

The trip in the islands in Hudson Bay, the Yellowknife mining district, the Yukon and the Mackenzie River Basin. The Governor-General is due back in Ottawa next Saturday. Viscount Alanbrooke will leave the party Friday and go on to Fairbanks, Alaska.

The Governor-General is scheduled to arrive at Winnipeg tonight. Viscount Alanbrooke will join the party Sunday when it flies to Churchill, Man.

After inspecting Army and Hudson's Bay Company posts at Churchill, they will go on to Coral Harbor on Southampton Island in the north-west corner of Hudson May.

On Monday the tour calls for a flight to the Yellowknife district and Whitehorse and Dawson in the Yukon.

He will be the first Governor-General to go inside the Arctic Circle since the late Lord Tweedsmuir who sailed down the Mackenzie River while serving in Canada from 1935 to 1940.

Viscount Alexander tried to reach Dawson a year ago. But his plane was turned back by poor visibility resulting from the forest fires in the area.

He will inspect defence installations at Aklavik Tuesday and go on to Norman Wells, site of a large oil refinery during the war and will spend the night in Whitehorse.

He will try the fishing in Pon Lake—one of the Yukon's prize fishing spots — Wednesday, returning to Whitehorse Thursday and to Winnipeg Friday.

Four Men Who Fled Reformatory Caught

TILLSONBURG, July 2.—(CP).—Four men sought in connection with break, entry and theft from an Otterville store June 3, have been arrested at Sault Ste. Marie, provincial police said today.

The four, Ralph Giles, 18, Vanessa; Donald F. Generaux, 21, Carrying Place, Paul Parent, 20, Toronto, and Lloyd Kilbourne, 18, Komoka, escaped from the Ontario reformatory, Guelph, June 2.

Kilbourne was driving a car stolen from Albert Williams, Tillsonburg, when they were caught. They will be brought back to Tillsonburg to face charges of theft and breaking and entering.

Border Traffic Unusually Heavy

By The Canadian Press

The Dominion Day week-end celebration continues to roll along, with a heat wave in central Canada driving thousands of persons to the cool pleasures of beach and cottage.

Despite heavy traffic on highways and the general rush to lakes and rivers, the fatality toll for the start of the week-end has been light. A Canadian Press compilation showed that, from midnight Thursday until early today, in all Canada 16 drownings were reported, eight traffic deaths and three fatalities from other causes.

With the July 4 celebration in the United States falling on Monday, thousands of U.S. residents are thronging into Canada to spend the week-end. At the same time, many Canadians are celebrating by travelling to the States. Border-crossing traffic—in both directions — is reported unusually heavy.

For Dominion Day proper, the weather was good almost everywhere. The temperature soared to 92 degrees in Ottawa, 88 in Toronto, but it was cooler in the Maritimes and in the West.

Some 12,000 Scots from Canada and the United States attended Highland Games in Hamilton. In Ottawa, 4,000 persons, including cabinet ministers and diplomats, went to a garden party given by the Governor-General, Viscount Alexander. Canadian diplomats abroad held special receptions to mark Dominion Day.

2 Bloodhounds Unable To Aid In Hunt For Boy

VAL D'OR, Que., July 2 (CP)—One of two bloodhounds being used in the search for 16-year-old Gillis Grey was lost in the dense bush north of here Friday and the other fell ill from the effects of intense heat.

The dogs, owned by A. V. Seymour of Toronto, were brought here by air from Toronto Thursday but had to be withdrawn from the search after a short time in the bush when thousands of black flies and mosquitoes swooped down threatening to worry them to death.

At the same time, all but 60 of the most experienced bushmen were withdrawn from among the 200 volunteers taking part in the search, which is being directed by R.C.M.P. officers.

Young Grey disappeared about noon Sunday after he set out on a fishing trip to nearby Lake Blouin.

Searchers, under the guidance of experienced bushmen, began combing the insect-ridden woods Monday. Twice they found footprints which they believe were made by the missing boy.

Mrs. Ernest Grey, mother of the missing boy, is confined to bed suffering from shock. Gillis' father and three brothers have all taken part in the search.

18 Die In Crash

PERTH, Australia, July 2 (AP) — Eighteen persons were killed when a DC-3 transport plane bound from Darwin crashed in a blinding rainstorm early today at Guildford Airport, eight miles from Perth. All aboard the plane were killed instantly.

New Investigation Promised By Goodfellow Into Operation Of Hospital

Letter Claims Mental Patient Was Beaten Into Unconsciousness For Violation of No-Smoking Regulation

TORONTO, July 2—(CP)—A new investigation is to be made into treatment of mental patients at the Ontario Hospital in Whitby. It arises from a charge that a mental patient was beaten into unconsciousness by attendants last Sunday morning for breaking a no-smoking rule. Hon. W. A. Goodfellow, acting Health Minister, announced Friday night that he was granting a request from the Mental Patients' Welfare Association of Toronto for an inquiry into conditions at the institution at Whitby, 25 miles east of Toronto.

The Association made a similar request last May and, as a result, Mr. Goodfellow and Dr. J. T. Phair, Ontario Deputy Health Minister, were conducted on a tour of the hospital by the Superintendent, Dr. D. S. Fletcher.

Mr. Goodfellow, announcing the new investigation, said:

"The government will investigate any specific allegation. Previous complaints made by the Association were of a general nature and, when I visited Whitby to see conditions for myself, I found no support for the charges. I do not think for a moment that harsh treatment of patients is a general practice."

Give Details

Details of the alleged beating were given in a letter sent to Mr. and Mrs. Edmund R. O'Hearn by a man described as an alcoholic who has been confined at Whitby for five years. Mr. and Mrs. O'Hearn told a meeting of the Association that the patient concerned is their son, a war veteran confined to the institution as a schizophrenic.

Association officers said that since the record of the letter writer shows no mental illness, they place full credence in his report.

The letter said that two attendants apparently caught the patient smoking just before the lights came on last Sunday morning. It gave this account of how they handled the patient:

"They threw him on his back on the floor, twisting his arms and legs and abusing him in the most ridiculous and disgraceful manner that any human being could possibly stand.

"By hammering his head on the hard floor, slapping his face and driving their fists and knees on his chest and in his stomach, they made him unconscious."

U.S. Deficit Zooms Over Billion Mark

WASHINGTON, July 2—(AP)—The United States government ran $1,811,440,047 in the red for fiscal year 1949, which ended Thursday.

Treasury Secretary John Snyder today announced final figures showing: Spending increased to a peace-time high of $40,057,107,857.

Treasury receipts, going the other way, fell to a five-year low of $38,245,667,810.

Announce Death Of Premier Of Bulgaria

LONDON, July 2 (AP) —Moscow radio announced today that Premier Georgi Dimitrov of Bulgaria is dead.

He was 67 years of age.

Dimitrov had long been ill with diabetes and liver trouble.

In mid-April he was granted leave from his job in Sofia to go to Russia for medical treatment. Vassil Kolarov, vice-premier and foreign minister, became acting premier at that time.

Just before the Moscow announcement of his death, the Bulgarian Communist party's central committee in Sofia issued a communique saying:

"The condition of Comrade Georgi Dimitrov has grown worse during the last two days. The condition of Comrade Dimitrov is serious."

The Moscow broadcast said death came at 9:35 a.m. (2:35 a.m., EDT).

Conflicting reports on the seriousness of his illness came from various places in Europe during June.

Turkish papers reported he was dead or dying June 11. Moscow at the time said he was in a sanatorium near there; Sofia reports said he was recovering.

Moscow radio said death was caused by diabetes. He died in the Bordikha Sanatorium.

His death has caused "profound grief" in the Communist party and the Russian cabinet, the announcement said.

Second Proposal By Ford Spurned

DETROIT, July 2—(AP)—The United Automobile Workers (CIO) yesterday turned down a second Ford Motor Company proposal that wages be left as they are for 18 months.

Ken Bannon, UAW Ford director, said, "we are sticking to our present demands despite the attitude of the company."

Ford hinted that the company could reduce prices if the UAW would agree to a wage freeze.

Bannon declared that Ford's proposal would make the company's 106,000 production workers vote even more overwhelmingly for a strike. UAW Ford locals throughout the United States are preparing to hold strike votes in advance of the July 15 deadline when the present contract runs out.

Gold Reserve Increased Surplus Less, Says Abbott

OTTAWA, July 2 (CP)—Finance Minister Abbott yesterday reported a surplus of nearly $252,300,000 for April and May—the first two months of the current fiscal year. That was nearly $3,000,000 less than the surplus for the same period of last year.

At the same time, he announced Canada's reserves of gold and US dollars totalled $977,000,000 at the end of June, an increase from the reserve of $742,000,000 at the end of June last year, but a drop from the reserves of $1, 067,000,000 held at the end of March this year.

The drop in US dollar reserves was due to the transfer of 1948 profits of foreign-owned companies in Canada, he said. These companies were permitted to take their profits out of the country three months after the end of the fiscal year in which they were made.

The budget surplus resulted from expenditures of $230,700,000 and receipts of $483,000,000 during April and May. During the same period last year expenditures were $212,800,000 and receipts were $468,000,000.

Mr. Abbott said the large surplus for the two months could not be taken as any indication of the surplus for the whole year.

May revenues of $301,400,000—compared with $271,800,000 last year—did not reflect the tax cuts which came into effect earlier this year, and were boosted by final settlements of 1948 income tax payments.

May expenditures were $155,900,000, compared with $146,200,000 for May, 1948. The surplus for May, 1949, was $145,000,000.

Mr. Abbott said the effect of the tax cuts on government income would not become apparent until budget figures for June are available.

Cargo Of Molasses Flows Into Harbor

BELLEVILLE, July 2—(CP)—A legal tangle involving three different companies and the city of Belleville may result from the loss of 250,000 gallons of molasses, valued at more than $30,000, during the unloading of a lake ship here last Friday.

The liquid, shipped to the Canadian Industrial Alcohol Company at nearby Corbyville by a United States manufacturing firm, was pumped from the boat through a 10-inch underground pipeline to a 350,000-gallon storage tank inland. It was later discovered the pipeline sprung a leak. The molasses seeped through the ground and flowed into the harbor.

No official announcement has yet been made concerning liability for the loss.

36 Horses Flee Burning Stable; Race Over City

HALIFAX, July 2 — (CP). — Thirty-six fear-crazed horses, some with their coats ablaze, were led from a flaming stable here early to-day. One of the horses died from burns. Another suffered serious burns but will probably recover.

Many of the horses bolted after they escaped the building—stable of the Halifax Riding and Driving Club—and galloped through city streets and across Citadel Hill. It was hours before they were all rounded up.

Among the burned horses were mounts of the Halifax Junior Bengal Lancers, now polishing their famed musical ride for presentation at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto. The 36 Lancers were to receive their colors to-day from Lord Cornwallis, visiting Halifax for the be-centenary celebrations.

Robie Lewis, 23, a fireman, was kicked in the knee by one of the animals after he led it from the burning stable. He was taken to hospital for observation.

M. B. (Dick) Zwicker, manager of the riding club, burned his hands when he dashed into the burning stable to lead out four horses.

Coats of many of the horses were blazing as they charged out of the stable. Firemen and volunteers chased them with blankets trying to extinguish the flames, but it was difficult to catch the fear-crazed animals.

How the fire started was not known. Much equipment of the driving club was destroyed and the loss was estimated in the tens of thousands of dollars.

The fire raced like lightning through the stalls. Flames licked 10 feet into the air and billows of smoke rolled across the old fortress and the harbor.

Firemen rushed into the stable as the flames devoured the second-storey hayloft. They untied as many horses as they could and let them find their way out. These bolted into the yard and then into the street. Others refused to budge and had to be led out. Minutes after the last horse was led out—its coat burning—the roof fell in.

GROUPED AROUND the piano accordionist, Miss Marian Bigelow of Peterborough, are some of the younger members of the Warsaw Gospel Mission which held its annual picnic Friday at Jackson Park. After games were through a short service was conducted. Here are a crowd of vocalists singing an old favorite hymn.

Legion Backs Celebration At Havelock

Havelock park was crowded with ball players, children and parents Friday as the Canadian Legion, Belmont Branch No. 330, sponsored Dominion Day celebrations for the third time. The Legion, under its president Harold Smith, organized a parade of floats, foot races, three ball games a street dance and a carnival.

The parade moved off from the Town Hall between 1.30 and 2 p.m., with the Havelock Kiltie Band, which has been formed in the past year, leading the way. There were four floats entered, by the following: Bob Hill, the float driven by Lena Scott; J. H. Jewell, Jewell Garage, driven by himself; Buck Hamilton, driven by himself; and the Legion float, on Don Menzies' truck. The band, 11 pieces, was under the direction of Harry Anderson.

Winner of the $10 first prize money for the best float was J. H. Jewell, with his daughter, Shirley, dressed in a drum majorette's uniform, sitting on the front fender. Second prize was divided amongst the other contestants. Judges for the contest were Ernie Leeson and Bert Harryett.

Foot and bicycle races were held for the children, with members of the Legion and town police officiating. Following are the results:

Boys, 8 and under—Billy Watson, Jim Quinn, Robert McKenzie.

Girls, 8 and under—Clare Borland, Ann Cavanaugh, Bernadine Logan.

Boys, 12 and under—Jack Rowatt, Len Aldred, Bill Buchanan.

Girls, 12 and under—Lorraine Thompson, Wanda Woods, Gail Sanderson.

Boys 15 and under—John Bird, Bruce Cook, Frank Hill.

Girls 15 and under—Joan Aldred, Vera Matthews, Edith Van Allen.

Boys' bicycle race, 1¼ mile: 1st heat—Donnie Mutton, Maybin Esler; 2nd heat—Aldon Paterson, Jack Rowatt.

Two Ball Games

There were two baseball games in the afternoon and one in the evening. In the first game, Marmora edged out Norwood 8-7. Hegadoren of Marmora received a cut under the left eye that required one stitch as a Norwood player slid into him at second base. He also received scratches on the left cheek.

In the second game, Havelock trounced Campbellford 11-5, with Kennedy pitching good ball for the home squad.

The final game was between the winners of the first two, Marmora and Havelock. Marmora won this game 12-2.

The lineups:

Marmora—Gray, ss, Cousins, c, Leonard, 1b, Drummond lf, McInroy, 3b, Trumble p, Borland, rf, Hegadoren 2b, Loveless cf. Sub: Darr.

Havelock: Kennedy, c, McCabe, ss, Thompson, rf, Bill Laing, 2b, Harold Kennedy, p, Cosgrove, lf, Heath 1b, Jim Laing 3b, Pollock cf. Subs: G. Laing, Vaughn, Bales, Harryett.

In the evening a street dance was held on George St., with a bingo, carnival and wheels.

Three Nations Combine For Manoeuvres

PENZANCE, England, July 2 (AP) — Warships of Britain, France and the Netherlands massed in Penzance Bay today as the foundation of a great, combined Western European fleet.

With additions coming from Belgium, more than 100 ships of the four seagirt countries are going on blue water manoeuvres from the English Channel to the Bay of Biscay, beginning Monday.

While the British, French and Dutch admirals exchanged compliments on the flagships, British ratings, French matelots and Dutch seamen were busy getting their signals co-ordinated—the biggest job in three-tongued naval operations.

The three countries had previous — and at times disconcerting —experience with inter-commutions when they formed up the Allied Eastern fleet based on Ceylon during the war for barracks and carrier-borne air strikes at the Indian Ocean islands on the Japanese perimeter and Sumatra and Java.

Signal flags ran up and Morse lamps blinked in the brilliant sunshine of Penzance, hard by Land's End, as the three navies began knitting themselves into a unified battle fleet.

Farther East, in the English Channel, smaller craft of the Belgian navy carried on independent exercises with British mine sweepers.

United States B-29 Superfortress bombers meanwhile prepared to renew their mock raids on key British cities tomorrow in the finale of "Operation Foil," which is testing Britain's defenses against atom blitzing.

ANTI-ANT

One of the most effective means of ant control is dusting surfaces with sodium fluoride which ants dislike.

Sizeable Run Of Cattle Sold On Market

TORONTO, July 2— (CP) — Cattle prices were steady to strong in trading on the Toronto Livestock Market this week, the Dominion Marketing Service reported to-day. Hogs and lambs gained $1 a hundredweight while trade was strong on calves and sheep.

A sizeable cattle run of 6,696 head was cleared with the exception of a few stockers. Exporters bought 700 beef cattle for shipment to the United States.

Top prices for choice steers was $22.65 for one lot with others from $22-$22.50. Good light steers were $21-$22 and good heifers mostly $20.50-$21. Medium to good cows were strong at $15-$16.50.

Canners and cutters were mostly $11-$13.50. Prices for fed yearlings ranged from $20-$28. Good bologna bulls were $18-$18.50, with plain lights downward to $16. Small lots of plain to good stockers sold at $16-$18.50 a hundredweight. Ordinary quality milkers and springers were $140-$190 each.

Salves totalled $2,226 head. Exporters bought 500 head of good to choice calves and prices on the top were strong at $22-$23 for choice vealers. Other kinds sold steady at $15-$20 a hundredweight for plain to medium grades.

Hog receipts totalled only 1,816 head. Prices gained $1 a hundredweight to $31 for Grade A and $30.60 for Grade B1. Sows held steady at $21 dressed.

Sheep and lambs totalled 1,381 head. Good spring lambs were up $1 a hundredweight at $28. Good light sheep sold at $11-$13 with cull sheep downward to $6 a hundredweight.

The buck lamb discount of $1 a hundredweight will be effective from Monday, July 4.

Say Sloop Released

HONG KONG, July 2 (AP) — A reliable source said today the British sloop Amethyst, hit by Chinese Communist artillery in the Yangtze had been released by the Communists, but naval authorities doubt it. The source said the sloop now was proceeding down the Yangtze on its way to Hong Kong.

Canada My Canada

(Tune: "America the Beautiful")

O Canada, my Canada,
Dear land that gave me birth;
Thy sons so true, they skies of blue,
Are fairest in the earth.
O Canada, my Canada,
Thy very name I love!
Thy vast domains, thy fertile plains,
Are blest by heaven above!

O Canada, my Canada,
My country and my pride;
From sea to sea thy bound'ries free,
To all the earth a guide!
O Canada, my Canada,
In peace thy ways pursue;
Thy freedom hold with purpose bold,
And to thy God be true!

O Canada, my Canada,
To all thy Sons a shrine;
United now we make our vow:
"Our hearts are ever thine!"
O Canada, my Canada,
Thy glory shines afar—
By God's decree a nation free,
With Brotherhood thy Star!

E. D. Loney, 50, Journalist, Dies

TORONTO, July 2.—(CP). — Edward Dowd Loney, 50, editor of the Northern Miner Press and a prominent figure in newspaper circles, died at his home Friday following a heart attack.

Representing the Sudbury Star, he was the first newspaper man to report the Red Lake mining boom. He was also the first reporter to tell the story of discovery of radium at Great Bear Lake.

Born in Mornington township in Northern Ontario, he first joined the staff of the Woodstock Sentinel-Review and later served as a reporter with the Hamilton Spectator, the Toronto Daily Star and the Toronto Telegram. In 1920, he returned to Northern Ontario as editor of the Cobalt Nugget and later moved to North Bay, before accepting the post as managing editor of the Sudbury Star.

He was appointed financial editor for the Globe in 1933, a position he held for several years. More recently, he was Canadian mining representative of the Manchester Guardian and the London Financial Times and Ontario correspondent for the Canadian Mining and Mineralogical Bulletin.

His widow survives.

Picnic Program Includes Devotions, Sport

With both field sports and devotions, 55 members of Warsaw Gospel Mission—more than 40 of them children—enjoyed their annual picnic Friday afternoon at Jackson's Park.

Perfect picnic weather combined with the enthusiasm of the participants ensured the success of the outing.

There was an afternoon of strenuous games and racing and at the close a devotional period. Several hymns and choruses were sung with Miss Marion Bigelow, 14, of Peterborough accompanying on the piano accordion.

The service and races were in chargeof Clifford McFaul of Lakefield, leader of the Warsaw Gospel Mission.

Glen Crapp gave a brief message from the Scriptures.

Following are the race results with prize winners in order:

Five years and under—Murray Redpath and Gary Whitmore.

Six to eight years—Bob Clements, Alice McMillen and Elva Dunford.

Eight to 11—Shirley Clark and Doreen Little.

Boys 11-13—Vern Dennis and Don Robinson.

Girls 13 and over—Dora McMillan and Marian Bigelow.

Boys three-legged race, under 13—Ronnie Knox and Bob Clements; 13 and over—Don Robertson and Vern Dennis; Lawrence Bigelow and Jim McFaul.

Girls three-legged race, 13 and over—Dora McMillen and Grace Third, and Sylvia Hudson and Marian Bigelow.

Balloon race—Lawrence Bigelow and Vern Dennis.

In the over 10 years tug-of-war Vern Dennis' side defeated that of Marian Bigelow, two to one. And his side also won in the under 10 years.

Percy WI Branch Meets English Family

WARKWORTH, July 2—(ENS) —Percy Women's Institute held the June meeting at the home of Mrs. Norman Gummer.

The branch met the English family which is visiting a daughter in Norham. The president, Mrs. Harwood of Isley Zion Institute brought greetings from her branch.

Mrs. Percy Windover, program convener, conducted a program, the motto being "A little quiet is the best of all." The subject "Social Success for Your Child" was given by Mrs Craighead. Mrs. W. Honey gave a reading.

A vote of thanks was extended to the hostess, Mrs. Gummer, by Mrs. Young. The Home Economics and Publicity conveners each gave a two-minute paper.

$100 will be sent to the Kinsmen Club as a donation towards the playground equipment on the grounds back of the community hall.

Mrs. W. Shaw, Mrs.N. McCubbin, Mrs. Craighead, Mrs. G. Arkils and Mrs. Puffer gave brief accounts of the district annual.

Gifts were presented to the children at the close of the meeting.

Afternoon tea was served by the lunch committee.

Laud Relations Between Canada And U.S.

WASHINGTON, July 2, (CP).— Canada and the United States must strive to maintain and improve their "uniquely happy relationship," the Evening Star said Friday in an editorial.

Noting that July 1 signifies Canadian independence and self-rule and the formation of "a sovereign state in full control of its own destiny," The Star says:

"As the Canadians celebrate their Independence Day, they hardly need to be told that the American people, by tradition and instinct, are dedicated to the proposition of maintaining the friendliest possibilities with them now and forever . . .

"Nowhere else in the world is there anything quite like the relationship that exists between us. . . .

"Yet nothing should be taken for granted. The good neighborliness of Canada an dthe United States has not come into being of its own accord. It has been cultivated and nurtured.

"Politically, culturally, economically, militarily and otherwise, the Canadian and American peoples have to keep working at the task of not merely maintaining but also improving their uniquely happy relationship."

and Sunday. There they will hear an address by Rev. Josef Plojhar, a priest who is health minister in the Communist government.

Sunday at Prokop, the government will offer another program at which the Communist education minister, Professor Zdenek Nejedly, will be the main speaker.

Nejedly's ministry has been closing down Roman Catholic monasteries, suppressing the religious press, and otherwise enforcing restrictions upon the church.

Prague informants said Communist headquarters passed out money to pay the fares of their adherents to the pilgrimage spots.

The idea, apparently was to make a good showing for the Communist-sponsored Catholic action movement which advocates church-state peace on government terms and disavows the hierarchy led by Archbishop Joseph Beran.

Dig Powerful Well

ST. THOMAS, July 2—(CP)— An artesian spring of unusual force was struck Thursday by well-drillers at the site of a drive-in theatre under construction three miles south of the city. The spring was struck at a depth of 42 feet. Motorists travelling the busy Port Stanley highway were surprised to see a spout of water suddenly shoot into the air. A trench had to be hurriedly dug to a drainage ditch until the powerful well could be capped.

US Plans Census Of Population Starts In 1950

WASHINGTON, July 2 (CP)—What is the population of the United States?

A small army of men and women will knock on 40,000,000 doors next year to get the answer to that one. Their job is the 17th United States census, a mammoth task undertaken every 10 years.

They will check every dwelling in the country—from the apartments of New York to the farmhouses of the Prairies—and find out how accurate is the current population estimate of 150,000,000. The enumeration will start April 1, 1950.

Coupled with the census next year will be a survey of some 6,500,000 farms to get up-to-date facts on agricultural crops and practices, irrigation and drainage. This is done every five years.

For Representation

The population count will have a bearing on the size of the House of Representatives, the Lower House of the United States Congress. House seats are apportioned on the basis of state populations.

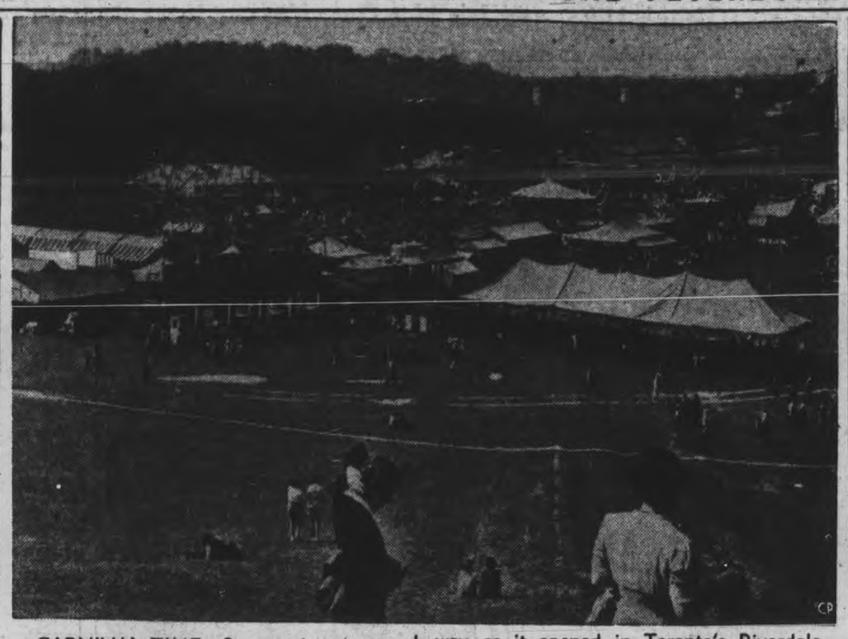
Preparation for the census is a huge job in itself. Proposed questions are being tested in sample surveys in counties across the country. Similarly, various methods of enumeration are being tried. The results of these tests will be studied by census bureau experts before final decisions are made on form and type of questions.

Draw Up Maps

About 1,000,000 maps showing the boundaries, streets, roads and location of houses are being drawn up. Census-takers will have additional help — aerial photographs of certain crowded areas.

First phase of the tabulation work will be to prepare the figures relating to the size of the House of Representatives. This information must be completed in time for President Truman to submit it to Congress in January, 1951.

The rest of the compilation and publication of census results will take 2½ years.



CARNIVAL TIME—Summertime is carnival time across Canada and the "gazoonies" (carnival talk for hammer-swinging muscle men) are busy setting up layouts similar to this Conklin Shows midway as it opened in Toronto's Riverdale Park in 1942 as the largest outdoor carnival in the world. Through the show—"Fair for Britain"—Producer Patty Conklin raised $100,000 in two years for war victims.

Nab Two, One Escapes

HAMILTON, July 2 (CP) — Archie McKenzie and James Butterworth, both 21, were charged with shopbreaking Friday after constable Jen Lightheart captured them at the Electric Transport Company offices. The officer fired five shots at another man, who escaped. Investigation established that a safe containing $100 had been removed from an office and dropped from a second-storey window onto a truck.

Carnival Workers Possess Own Colorful Vernacular

By ROBERT MARJORIBANKS
Canadian Press Staff Writer.

TORONTO, July 2 — (CP). — "Are you with it?" is the challenge that bars the "nardy" from the all-wise fraternity of the carnival.

If you are "with it" you are part of one of the travelling carnivals which at this time of year are setting up tents in vacant lots and exhibition parks across Canada. If you are not, you are a "nardy"—the carnival workers' designation for the millions of Canadians who each year are enticed to spend their nickels and dimes in the hope of winning assorted dime-store china, Indian blankets, or "a great big bucket of groceries."

The carnival workers (they call themselves carnies) consider themselves "show people" and faithfully subscribe to such theatrical publications such as "Variety" and "Billboard." Like show people they have a colorful vocabulary of their own.

Origin of carnie vernacular is apparently forgotten, but the big-chested husky who drives tent pegs and carries the ferris-wheel girders has become known as a "gazoonie" or, in the United States, a "roughie." The "stick" is the man who, on a dull afternoon, plays the game with his employer's money to attract the "nardies" who are shy about approaching a deserted game. When he gathers a crowd he calls it a "tip." If you ask him what his job is he will tell you he "sticks the wheel joint."

The carnival provides lucrative employment for university students who are called, with a touch of derision, the "rah-rahs."

The proudest kid in any town is the youngster who by pleading and cajoling induces the carnies to hire him (he might get $1 a day) to fetch cigarets, hot dogs and keep at a respectful distance the hordes of his less fortunate, admiring playmates. He is a "gunsle."

Known As "Joints"

Most carnival attractions, except the "rides," are known simply as "joints"—the bingo joint, the ring joint, etc. But the tent in which the gypsy with her brass earrings reads the future in your palm is known as the "mitt camp," the big tent that houses the bearded lady, the crocodile boy and their colleagues is the "ten-in-one" and the refreshment booth where hamburgers, hot dogs and ersatz lemonade are bought is the "juice joint."

Most carnival joints are on the up-and-up, their profit assured by the simple calculation of the ratio between players and winners and the value of the prizes. Those joints that are not, the ones where an unwitting "nardy" may fall prey to a "fast count" or a little unofficial sleight-of-hand, are known in the business as "strong joints." The carnies say they are "gaffed."

Most carnivals plan to arrive on their location, by train or trucks and trailers, on a Sunday morning when they have a day free to set up their joints. After "set-up," the routine is to "flash the joint" (put up the prizes, advertising and decorations), "spring the joint" (open for business) and, when business drops off, "slough the joint" (close up) and finally "tear-down"—the worst night of the week.

After the last lost sticky child is restored to his parents and herded by the ear to bed and the merry-go-round organ has wheezed its last wheese, the carnies work far into the night. Within four or five hours the show is taken to pieces and packed for shipment.

Then, if they are with a railway-borne show, they retire, often soaked with rain, to the "pie car" (the carnie's name for the buffet car), for two-inch steaks and French fried potatoes, and to swap stories about the "Big Wind in St. Louis in '22 that blew the mitt camp clear into the next country."

Unproductive Mine Closed After 40 Years

By J. C. GRAHAM

WAIHI, N.Z., July 2—(CP)—One of the world's richest gold mines is being closed down after producing about $100,000,000 worth of gold and silver over 70 years.

This is the Martha mine which was responsible for and has sustained the prosperity of Waihi in the Bay of Plenty district of New Zealand. The mine reached its peak 40 years ago when it was producing nearly $4,000,000 worth of gold and silver a year.

Since then the output has declined. Many times it seemed that the mine was doomed but each time a new strike or payable reworking of old sections has postponed the closing. Now, however, many miners are being laid off and all underground working is expected to cease within two months.

Quartz First Found

Discovered in 1878, the mine at first gave little hint of the riches that lay beneath the surface. The original owners worked it for years with only small returns. The Martha is a quartz mine and the introduction of the cyanide process of gold extraction in 1894 brought a period of great prosperity to the mine and to Waihi.

Other mines in the region which brought thousands to the area in a series of gold rushes closed down comparatively quickly, but the Martha continued to give rich returns. It extended for great distances on 15 levels, some of them honeycombing the ground under the town itself. Over the years it has paid out more than $24,000,000 in dividends to shareholders.

Profits Decrease

The working of the richest reefs, rising costs, shortage of labor, inrushes of water, subsidences and the reduction of underground working hours to 35 a week have all contributed to the closing of the mine, which has returned steadily decreasing profits in recent years.

The decision has brought a crisis to the town of Waihi, which has nearly 4,000 inhabitants. It is not a mushroom settlement like many mining centres Many of the miners have lived there most of their lives and own their homes. Determined efforts are being made to find work for them and prevent Waihi declining into a ghost town like other former gold mining centres in New Zealand.

The government has stepped in and promised that there will be no unemployment. Temporary work is being found in state forest plantations, highway and government - subsidized borough work. Vigorous efforts are being made to attract manufacturing industries to Waihi to use the labor available. Several factories are already being established and there are prospects that Waihi will take on a new lease of life as an industrial town.

Remove Bullet From Victim

TORONTO, July 2 — (CP) — Norman Adamson, 22-year-old Toronto waiter, today was "as well as can be expected" after a bullet was removed from his spine Thursday. Hospital officials said one leg is paralyzed.

His beautiful model-fiancee, 18-year-old Audrey Stuart, formerly of Montreal, continued to watch at his bedside. She donated blood for transfusions.

The youth was wounded Monday when a rifle accidentally discharged during a boating trip on Lake Simcoe with Miss Stuart, his brother and his sister-in-law. The bullet punctured his stomach and intestines and lodged in his spine.

A constant smirk upon the face, and a whiffling activity of the body, are strong indications of futility. Whoever is in a hurry, shows that the thing he is about is too big for him.

Food For Thought In Quebec And Ontario

In the recent general election a striking bid for national power was made by Premier Maurice Duplessis of Quebec; his friendship with Mr. Drew was the subject of much comment, both favorable and unfavourable, and the zeal with which his Union Nationale machine supported the Progressive Conservative cause was boundless. Mr. Duplessis himself did not appear at any time as a Drew supporter, but it was quite plain that he was giving all the behind-the-scenes assistance in his power. The failure of Mr. Drew in Quebec must have surprised Mr. Duplessis, for it looked like a blow at himself.

• • •

The Duplessis government is a strong one and came to power with powerful popular support. But since that time a teachers' strike and an asbestos strike have shown the Duplessis ministry in an unflattering light, and it may be that its power is waning. Certainly it is clear that the people of Quebec keep their national and their provincial politics in separate parcels.

• • •

Incidentally, Premier Leslie Frost of Ontario may consider the election results with some dismay. He is regarded by many people as Mr. Drew's locum at Queen's Park. The failure of Drew support in Ontario must be disquieting to him, particularly as much of that failure appears to have sprung from the ill-advised and vindictive Charitable Gifts Act, for which Mr. Frost acted as sponsor. The people of Ontario, like those of Quebec, do not mingle their provincial and national sympathies, but some of the disaffection which unseated Conservative candidates in Ontario seems to have sprung from an Ontario affair in which it was thought that Mr. Drew had a hand.

• • •

Both Mr. Duplessis and Mr. Frost will have to reconsider their attitude before they attend another Dominion-Provincial Conference. Other provinces have shown that it is possible to reach a tax agreement with Ottawa without surrendering any provincial rights. Mr. St. Laurent has shown himself eager to settle matters with the provinces, as a move toward a greater national unity. A similar eagerness on the part of the premiers of Ontario and Quebec would do much to repair the prestige which they have lost through their indirect connection with Mr. Drew's decisive rejection last Monday.

Canadian Artists In Paris

Gertrude Stein opens her entertaining biography of Picasso with this sentence: "Painting in the nineteenth century was only done in France and by Frenchmen, apart from that, painting did not exist, in the twentieth century it was done in France but by Spaniards". Her Spanish Picasso is still alive and still in France, but the names of Matisse, Bonnard Braque, Andre Marchand, Fernand Leger and Georges Rouault suggest that there are others than Spaniards painting in France in this century. It is to them all that art students the world over are attracted, and to Paris, their cultural home. Paris may not be France, but for painters it is, and Paris is still the Mecca of young painters. As one of them, a Canadian student, Alan Harrison, wrote in the current issue of Canadian Art:

> "Those who claim that Paris has been replaced as an art centre would do well to reflect, for to replace it, you must first find its equivalent. I believe in the fulfilment, when possible, of the average young artist's dream of a visit to Paris. It will give him or her confidence in years to come for he will have seen much of the best of art, and witnessed the life of artists in a city where they are respected as an integral part of the community.

Some thirty Canadian artists and art students are now living in Paris. They study at schools such as the Academie Julian, the Ecole des Beaux-Arts, the Academie Grande Chaumiere. They go to established artists like Marchand, Leger and Rouault for criticism and tuition. They frequent the Louvre, the Tuileries museums (Musee de l'Orangerie, the Jeu de Paume), the Musee d'Art Moderne, and a host or others. And they inhabit Montparnasse (but not, apparently, as constantly as American students who are keen seekers after la vie de boheme), and Boulevard St.-Germain in the Latin Quarter, with their cafes, bars and bistros. Talk is high, personalities as numerous as painters and Paris relishes them as they relish Paris.

One or two of the Canadian painters there are permanently resident, and are making sales in France. Some of the students have gone on veterans' grants, three or four are on Quebec government scholarships, and some six or eight hold, or did hold, French government scholarships.

And so the Canadian painters continue to go to Paris, as they did in the generations of Paul Peel and J. W. Morrice. That is good, for students of art, like students of history or philosophy or science, should study outside their own countries at some time in their careers. It is not enough merely to go to the United States, notwithstanding that country's fine collections, painters and teachers. Canadians need more than North American yeast to leaven their culture.

Painters like Paul Peel became European in their view. Later Canadian artists have assimilated the European training and atmosphere and returned to interpret this country more vividly and authentically than ever before. Such a painter was the great J. W. Morrice of Montreal.

Canadian culture is enriched by its artists who are able to study abroad. It is a tribute to French-Canada and a reproach to all other provinces, that Quebec alone awards government scholarships so that its better students of painting may study in Europe.

Failure Of The Hansard Society

We are sorry to learn that the Hansard Society of Canada has failed because of lack of financial support. It was unable to recruit more than 300 members, and that is too few to carry on its work.

The Hansard Society was an organization which attempted to organize groups of people in cities and towns for the purpose of studying public questions by following the work of Parliament. It was truly democratic in its purpose, and if it had survived it might have been extremely useful in arousing and informing public opinion. The Hansard Society in Britain has been successful in this work, and it is a pity that it was a failure here. We hope that its organizers will try again later.

The newspapers keep their readers informed on the work of Parliament, and a citizen who reads his paper regularly will never be in the dark on public questions. But newspapers cannot publish the text of all the bills which come before Parliament, nor can they provide the information which is needed for a close study of all the legislation, great and small, which marks the growth of our nation. It was this work that the Hansard Society undertook.

Such work is necessarily private, and in Canada we still like societies and clubs which do their work very much in the public eye. Quiet study and discussion is not popular. But in time we will realize that we can only counter the keen study groups which oppose democracy by equally keen groups which favour democracy. The failure of the Hansard Society is a symptom of complacence.

Ice Impeded Voting!

Perhaps as Lampman says, heat makes for clarity of thought. We have just had a thought about how big this country really is, but the thought was due to the contrast between our heat and the cold of other parts of Canada, not to the inherent virtue of heat as an impetus to ratiocination.

On June 27th—election day—reports were sent to the chief electoral officer at Ottawa that heavy ice along the Labrador coast had prevented the delivery of ballot boxes to twelve settlements in southeastern Labrador. So emergency plans were put in motion, and duplicate sets of voting equipment were flown in to the ice-bound settlements by R.C.A.F. planes based on Goose Bay. The same voting day we were, if we can properly distinguish one day's heat from the next's, crawling to the poll in shirt sleeves and larding the dry pavement with perspiration as we crawled.

It's a large country in which ice floes and heat bedevil voting at the same time.

'A Scotsman Writes Home About Lacrosse

By W.A.S.

AS a matter of direct observation lacrosse is a game which has only just swum into my ken. In the remote days before the war it is true that the newspapers of Britain never swelled to the gargantuan obesity of their North American counterparts. Yet they were, then, at least lush and luxurious enough to find room, on Monday mornings, for a generous allowance of antic and athletic pictures. Of these, I recall, lacrosse was allowed a parsimonious quota. It was from these pictures that I gathered all my hitherto indifferent and unimpassioned knowledge of the sport.

❖ ❖ ❖

THOSE pictures were invariably pictures of ladies. But to put it baldly like that is to do less than justice to the surmises which arose in my mind as I beheld them. I examined them and I certainly saw flying skirts and leaping legs. But, above the skirts there were always blouses, immaculately white; and above the blouses faces of classical, imperturbable lineament and aristocratic mould. They always seemed to me to be pictures, not just of ladies, but of very gentle and elaborately educated women practising, remote from the vulgar throng, highly civilized and complex eurythmic movements, which it would have been most serious sacrilege for the common herd to emulate, or even to understand.

❖ ❖ ❖

A FEW nights ago, all these genteel illusions were blasted out of existence; for, a few nights ago, I found myself in the Miller Bowl in Peterborough. The Miller Bowl is, in fact, a square stockade: the insides are the bastions against which forms rise in tiers to the topmost summit of the enclosing walls. The forms were packed with Canadians of both sexes and every age; all drenched in a fierce and shadowless light which streamed down on them from great electric floods. Shouts floated through the tense, preliminary air as sellers of Coca-Cola, Roasted Peanuts, Popcorn and Potato Chips advertised their wares amongst the unjacketed, white-shirted, impressively clean and tidy multitude. In the centre was the dusty arena, as like the ice-hockey arena as makes no difference: the goals or cages begirt with wire netting, the boards, the penalty-box were all there, recognizable and familiar.

❖ ❖ ❖

INTO this arena there advanced no staid procession of statuesque and finely-bred womanhood. But there pranced through the gate a horde of braves, than which I have never seen anything more ferocious and warlike. Round their naked knees and calves what seemed like medieval gyves and caps were firmly thonged. Grey and crimson jerseys bulged with the intimation that underneath them were breastplates, strong to turn even the most mortal bayonet into a mattress-spring. Baleful eyes flashed in the glaring light through elaborately woven and daunting helmets. Into the den behind this formidable crew followed two white-clad umpires. A whistle blew. At once, in the centre of the pitch, a Redskin and a Greyskin knelt down, face to face, with weapons abased; and at their side there also knelt one of the two Whiteskins. The attitude of these three was very like that of a trio engaged in humble and reverent prayer; and the universal hush which supervened over the assembled throng seemed to confirm the fugitive notion that perhaps strange but definitely pious practices were in train. Then the stillness was rent by another whistle-blast. Instanter there was a wild scuffling where the two or three were gathered together, and a cloud of dust arose, as when chargers paw the ground. A white ball shot high into the night, and underneath it the central Greyskin and Redskin met in precipitate clash, waving their apprehensive flails. Grey trapped the bounding rubber in his net and set off, with loping stride, in the direction of the Red goal. Up ran the Reds around him, some lunging at his shoulders, other with contorted and terrible visage applying their staves with violence to the region of his kidneys. With deliberate instancy and many a well-judged kick at hostile shins, Grey pursued his course with the captive ball until in the very instant when all his limbs in frenzied gesticulation were flung flying into the side-boards, he tossed it with most exhilarating speed and accuracy into the uplifted net of a fellow-warrior standing where, in another game, the corner-flag would be. Thence it zig-zagged in front of the goal, its lighting and elusive flight and its confident arrest alike most admirable. Within seconds it had shot between the posts and the Petes were one down, the Mimicos one up. From the Petes' goal-tender, fat, diminutive and wobbling, screams of embittered but unattended protest proceeded, as he thrashed the ground in front of him with his incensed fishing-net. As I watched him, there seemed to be something vaguely familiar in his movements. When he raised his visor to wipe his offended brow, vague impression became certain recognition. Here, most astonishingly, was none other than Mr. 'Whitey' Frick whom often, in the past, I could have sent from Perth to Jericho (if no further) when, as a Dundee Tiger prowling on Scottish ice, he exercised his occasional ability to send a fast one in to discomfit the Perth Rangers; but for whom, now, I had nothing but applause, so flexibly agile was he in keeping the fast ones out.

❖ ❖ ❖

SO, until near enough midnight, the noise of battle rolled. The wounded retired for first-aid and returned, or were carried flaccid and helpless away; while from the rim of the Bowl, some shouted "Send for a doctor", and others, less compassionate, "Send for an undertaker". When referees would be surrounded here by wrathful disputers, unobserved antagonists there would be setting about one another as in the spring-cleanings of my boyhood, and with an equal amount of dust, I and my cronies, wielding similar beaters, used to set about my mother's carpets.

❖ ❖ ❖

LACROSSE, I am told, was invented by the Red Indians; by whom, I am not now in much doubt, it was devised for keeping their hand in during the close season for scalps.

Tough Hike, and It's Not Over Yet

Books At The Bar

(CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR)

EVEN when the House Committee on Un-American Activities tries to be good—and it has been trying recently—it seems doomed to stub its toe. Some members are angry because Chairman John S. Wood of Georgia (who has been, up to now, quite circumspect) did not consult them before asking certain colleges and universities for lists of their textbooks. The Republicans on the committee disclaim any part in the request. And the colleges and universities appear none too happy.

As a matter of fact, there is no good reason why a committee of Congress shouldn't look over a stack of textbooks used by a typical American colleges if—but it is the ifs which trouble us as well as the colleges.

If the sampling of colleges approached has been truly random, hence presumably typical. We would like to know more about that sampling before we could be sure. All un-American teachings do not lie at the Communist end of the doctrinal spectrum.

If the Un-American Activities Committee will evaluate these textbooks as a whole. What we fear is "proof-texting"—the lifting of a book or a passage from a book out of its context to make a horrible example.

Karl Marx belongs in a required reading list if that list also includes some works of Jeremy Bentham, for instance. There is sharp but wholesome self-criticism of American culture in Robert S. Lind's "Knowledge For What?" which a student can bring into balanced perspective by reading something like Albert G. Keller's "Brass Tacks."

We wonder whether Mr. Wood realized that literally thousands of titles would make up the list of just one university. We wonder whether his committee has a staff adequate in either quantity or quality to survey these mountains of books and to arrive at an informed judgement, or whether the sheer magnitude of the job and the need, now, to get off the limb will drive it into scanning for juicy morsels.

What bothers us most is the fear that prompted this inquiry into the academic diet of young Americans, a fear that forgets that the most dangerous ideas are suppressed ideas.

Letter To The Editor

MORE ABOUT PROFITS

Sir: I am not a CCF-er, and I have never been a socialist, or a communist, not even one of the lower variety called anticommunist: Democracy, which Aristotle designated a depraved form of government, is bad enough, and much too expensive to suit me; but I have no reason to believe that merely permitting politicians to change the name would provide us with a government that is more efficient or less costly.

In my comment on profits I consider the social welfare is more important than the political puzzle. In the Examiner, June 20, I read two editorials designed to give "profits" a pleasant gloss; also I have since read the "Letters To The Editor" which express contrary views.

Economics, a somewhat integrated and confusing web of schemes used to trap wealth on the premises of the engineer and the handyman and distribute it to the professional hoarders, is neither a science nor a superstition, so we are not bound to interpret its mysterious signals as either scientific or gospel truths; and I know some sensible workers who don't take much stock in the profit motive, but many of them probably yield to the idea that there is little they can do about it; but when the class that benefits most from the profit system is inculcated with dogmatic views of the subject it is enabled to keep its ethical chin up, even if its moral backslide is dragging.

When you take the manufacturers breakdown of the dollar, six cents don't seem to be a large amount, yet the six point two per cent., their profits, amounts to more than one quarter of all the wages and salaries paid-out to those employed, and six cents on the dollar of three and one-half billions is two-hundred ten million, which would provide a wage of two thousand dollars if one-quarter, or one hundred thousand of the four hundred thousand workers were laid-off for a year.

If I need to ascertain a mechanical measurement, the length of a rafter ferinstance, I know that I can depend on the Pythagorean theorem, of twenty-four hundred years ago, to always give the correct solution of the problem, yet I can't take seriously what I read in last weeks newspaper regards business profits, because I have observed that the application of profits acts to prevent a sensible solution of human welfare conditions.

Respectfully,
W. H. ROSEBUSH.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Behold, the day of the Lord cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee....

And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark: but it shall be one day which shall be known to the Lord, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light....And the Lord shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one Lord, and his name one. (Zech. 14: 1, 6, 7, 9.)

❖ ❖ ❖

And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband ....And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. (Rev. 21: 2, 23.)

❖ ❖ ❖

And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever. (Rev. 22: 5.)

A Murdered Judge

Judge B. J. McKitrick was a peace-maker above all else. As presiding officer of the Juvenile and Family Court in Fort William and Port Arthur he had to dispense justice. But behind an exterior of quie. dignity and somewhat solemn mien, he had a warm heart and a mind of great understanding.

He never lost an opportunity to reconcile man and wife if there was a way left open. Soft of voice, reasonable in his approach to any problem, he appealed to the better instincts of troubled men and women who were forced to bring their marital differences to his official desk.

That a man of this type should become the victim of violence is a matter of deep regret. A young man, he had before him a great opportunity to give further service to the lakehead communities. — Fort William Times-Journal.

Alberta Crop Disaster

The magnitude of the 1949 crop disaster is growing greater daily. In some areas the failure is already complete. Over about a quarter of the crop belt of the province, including the richest and usually most productive land, the situation is desperate. Over another third or half of the province rain is urgently needed. And only in the southwest and the Peace River country are the prospects fair to good.

On top of the drouth, frost has been causing extensive damage. Over wide areas of the province from Calgary north, many fields are showing large patches of yellow. Rain would restore the crop, but the continued dry weather simply means that in these areas the crop is virtually killed.

Extensive heavy rains this week would mean Alberta still had a chance of salvaging a partial crop in many regions. Continued dry weather, on the other hand, will spell the biggest catastrophe in the history of the province.—Calgary Albertan.

NICK NICKELS

School is out and summer has really begun. As I heard one group of kids chanting early in the week, "no more G-eorge-E-dward's-O-old-G-randfather-R-ode-A-P-ig-H-ome-Y-esterday." GEOGRAPHY, get it? No, no more lessons lie ahead for two blissful months and older people will recall their releases from the same bondage in their school years. In my own case, and it seems a long time ago, it meant leaving for the cottage at STONY LAKE. Everything at home was timed to a nicety. The day after school was out my grandmother and I started on the trip. Why the oldest and youngest members of the family were sent as vanguard, will always be a mystery to me.

To Stony In Victorian Style

Grandmother was a sedate Victorian lady who wore the Old Queen's traditional bonnet and weeds and we got along splendidly. Living in Otonabee, we had to leave home early in the morning by horse and democrat. No buggy ever built could hold the duffle we took with us each summer, and brought back again each Fall.

There were boxes, trunks, cartons, blanket rolls and lunch baskets, securely roped down and covered with a duster. Billy the hired man always had trouble with the frisky horse which shied at the Jersey bull tethered behind the house. We took off, figuratively, on three wheels and raced up the Highway to Lock 20 in Ashburnham.

MR. CALDER, lockmaster and church warden, helped unload the montrous pile of baggage and finished just in time to man the lock gates as the little steamer "MANITA" tooted warning from Little Lake.

Four Hours and Four Locks Later

Passengers went aboard, when the the steamer had been floated to canal level, and settled on the upper deck on camp chairs, the elders, that is. Children swarmed everywhere and were roundly cussed by the deckhands.

The trip through the LIFT LOCK was a thriller. There was the mysterious hollow roar of unseen machinery and the immense lifting sensation as the pontoon inched up the tall towers. The MANITA was soon over the Hump and gliding along between high banks. It barely seemed to scrape under the Norwood Road overhead bridge, and past the swing bridges at the Warsaw Road and Nassau, although there was all sorts of room to spare.

Four hours and four locks later we arrived in LAKEFIELD, as the noon whistle screamed from the Cement works. We stopped for more freight at the Government Wharf and chugged north through the rice beds on LAKE KATCHEWANOOKA. By one o'clock the boat started to lock through YOUNG'S POINT, the last point where ice cream cones could be wheedled from protesting guardians. You had to hustle to the store at the risk of missing the boat. But no one was ever marooned.

The Cry of Loons at Dusk

By mid-afternoon our steamer was met at the upper end of CLEAR LAKE by a sleek sister-steamer, the "EMPRESS." The Manita's complete load was transferred to it and Grandmother was assisted along the joining planks by the Purser and Captain, personally. And so the trip was resumed in the Empress by way of BURLEIGH, McCRACKEN'S, JUNIPER and VIAMEDE and many private stops in between.

The supper lunch basket was opened as the steamer slid through the BOSCHINK NARROWS into upper Stony Lake. We could see our cottage three miles down the lake on a high poplar bluff. Unloading at the dock was a tricky affair and searching for numerous keys was a frustrating experience. But we had arrived. At dusk, in a hot stuffy bedroom, the cry of a pair of loons off SALMON ISLAND foretold of many carefree days ahead. I flew over the same course a few weeks ago in 15 minutes without any lasting impression whatsoever.

March of Progress Along Causeway

Opening of the Chemong Causeway last Wednesday afternoon was significant of the march of progress and so was the arrival of several boatloads of Indians from CURVE LAKE RESERVE. They came down the length of Chemong Lake in the trough of a stiff west wind, under outboard motor power, in 20 minutes. None of them was old enough to recall the days before the first Floating Bridge was strung across the same site, in 1870, but when that structure was opened, their forefathers paddled both ways and thought nothing of it.

Proprietors of Camp Cleveland, FRANK LAWRIE and GEORGE CHRISTIANSON were in the thick of things operating both movie and still cameras, and as happy as clams in knowing that the Causeway project would put their fine lodge in the easily-accessible position that they had hoped and worked toward for so long. They told me that they had installed hot and cold showers this spring and are now busy on a large stone pier. Looks like they will be in there firstest with the mostest when tourists start rolling into their district, this week-end.

Complaint From Dominant Sports

Twenty-five million holders of hunting and fishing licenses in the USA and Canada prove that this group is dominant in the general sporting field, according to ARTHUR CARHART of Denver. He said that hunters and fishermen are being slighted by the sport pages of most metropolitan papers by skimpy reporting.

Attractions of Good Fishing

Good fishing attracted Europeans to Canada 450 years ago. In the words of John Mason in 1498, "the cod was so thick by the shore (off Newfoundland's Grand Banks) that we hardly have been able to row a boat through them." We don't ever expect to report anything like this, but are glad nonetheless to tell of each week's best catches. BILL CUMMINGS, 302 King St., for instance, took a 6½-pound pickerel at Young's Point last Sunday on minnows. DON FOWLER, Mount Julian, did better the same day with one that scaled over eight pounds.

Lake Athapapuskow in Northern Manitoba means nothing to people in Eastern Canada, but its fishing may soon put it on the map. Last Sunday DR. F. E. WEED of Park River, N.D., landed a 34½-pound northern pike after a half-hour struggle. The record for pike entered in the Field and Stream contest last year weighed 35. This lake also came through in 1930 when it produced the world record lake trout, a 63-pounder. Its a big lake (I flew over it in 1942), and may hold many more surprises.

Fishing Trip Ends With Baby

DR. H. G. CARLETON, county coroner, came up with a good fishing yarn last Sunday. He was summoned to a city address, met at the door by a worried husband, and found a sick lady in bed suffering from stomach pains. "We have just come down from a fishing trip at Burleigh. My wife got cramps up there," said the husband. "Could be labor pains," suggested the doctor. "Oh, no," replied the man firmly, "not until August, at least." But the doctor was right and the little chap was born in the back seat of his car as he raced the family to Civic Hospital. "A bit undersize," the doctor told me today, as though speaking of a fish, "but everything is going along quite nicely."

We can hardly wait till next week to report a good muskie and black bass fishing story. The season opened last night and the big ones are waiting to be caught. We make no predictions, whatsoever, but if our trip to the 'lunge spawning beds in April foretold anything, the catch of both species should be better than average.

Pithy Tongue Of 1846

(Note: The following is reprinted from the Peterborough Gazette of Saturday, October 17, 1846. It is a pungent, captious editorial obituary by the editor of Peterborough's Conservative newspaper of the time on the death of the "Chronicle", the Liberal newspaper of the town more than a century ago. However, like the Phoenix rising from the fire, the "Chronicle" was to be replaced by a new paper called the "Dispatch", as the editor of the Gazette noted. He did not believe that much would come of the "Dispatch", but he was wrong, as today's Examiner shows! The "Dispatch" lasted for a decade, and then was succeeded by the Examiner, as the masthead of this newspaper says every day on its editorial page.

The editorial of 1846 shows that the editors of a very small-town paper could be men of learning, wit and skilled pens. How many papers in Canada today in Canadian towns of less than 5,000 carry editorials as stimulating and well-phrased as the one we print below? For that matter, how many readers today are sufficiently educated to understand the literary allusions the editor of the Gazette used?)

The Peterborough Chronicle is dead, Requiescat in pace — We hope to stand excused for not putting our Columns in mourning, when it is considered, that the said paper never cultivated a particular friendship with our junior sheet, and was not even polite enough to announce to the world its existence, as a contemporary journal. But "de mortuis nil, nisi bonum"—

Of those, that are dead,
Let nothing be said,
Unless we can speak in their praise,
Because that men dead
Cannot be men-ded

By anything that a man says—

This doggerel translation of the above Latin Adage we remember to have heard in our boyhood, and, in later years, we met with a gentleman, rather rusty in his Classics, who volunteered to a lady the following interpretation —There is nothing left of the dead, but bones!—Far be it from us to jest on a grave subject. But, in point of fact, the demise of the Chronicle is not a matter for sighs and tears.

It is only nominally defunct. For some potent reason, unknown to the world at large, it expires only to revive under another name. A Weekly Despatch is announced to take its place. The bones of the Chronicle will be reset, and its spirit breathe again in fresh pages of liberal and enlightened doctrine.

To use the brilliant and magniloquent phraseology of the Prospectus, THE WEEKLY DESPATCH shall ever be found amongst the advocates of the just and immutable principles, refulgent throughout that imperishable

A PLEASANT RESORT NEAR ENGLAND'S LAKE DISTRICT in North Lancashire. Four hotels, repainted and redecorated, have re-opened recently after wartime requisition by the Government. Carefully-tended gardens line the coast.

Britain Bright With Flowers

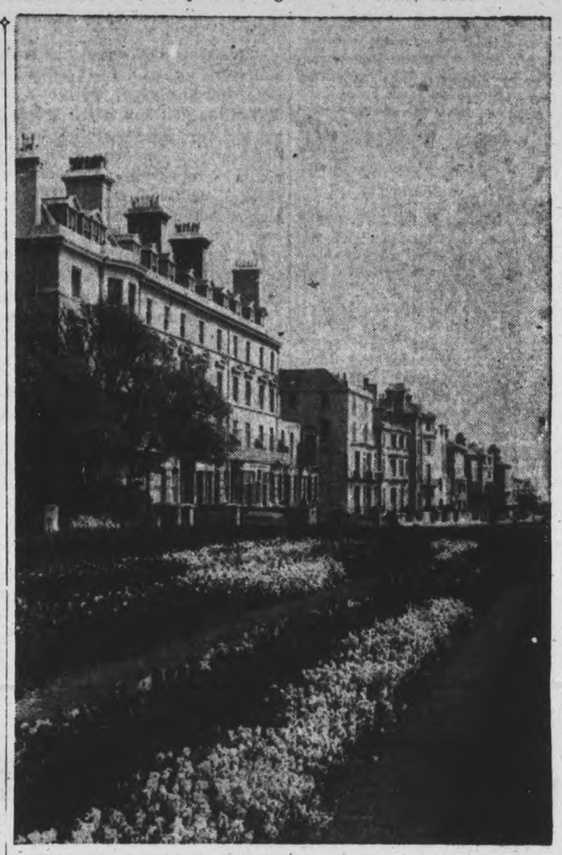
Britain's coastal resorts and inland tourist centres are looking brighter than at any time since the war. Hotels have been redecorated, many historic buildings are floodlit and local authorities have planted thousands of bulbs and flowering shrubs on promenades, in parks and in open spaces laid bare by bombs.

The record number of visitors expected at all holiday centres this season is being greeted by a riot of colour. At Eastbourne and Folkestone on the south coast, for example, the promenades are gay with flowers. On Lancashire's bracing coast, 400,000 flowering plants give Morecambe its biggest and brightest-ever floral display, and at nearby Blackpool (Britain's "Coney Island") the promenade has been torn up at several points along its seven-mile length to make way for new shore-side gardens.

Inland spas such as Turnbridge Wells in Kent, Cheltenham in Gloucestershire, Buxton on the fringe of the Peak District of Derbyshire, and Royal Leamington Spa, are renowned for the beauty of their tree-lined streets and public gardens.

Leamington, popular centre for touring the Shakespeare country of Warwickshire, planted thousands of bulbs sent from the people of Holland in the parks and along the avenues.

In London itself, window boxes, public squares(gardens and parks are already bright with flowers and shrubs in accordance with Britain's aim of making the whole country a blaze of color during the tourist season.



FOLKESTONE, SOUTH-EAST COAST GATEWAY TO BRITAIN, is preparing for a large-scale holiday invasion this year. The resort's many hotels have been painted and decorated and along the 'Leas', famous cliff-top promenade which was a Battle of Britain grandstand during the war, gaily-coloured flowers make a brilliant display.

Simcoe St. Inn Century Old Its 1849 Keystone Shows

By GEORGE COFFIN

One of Peterborough's most historic landmarks, the building on Simcoe St. now known as the Queen's Hotel, is 100 years old this year, as one of the stone blocks on its facade bearing the figures "1849" attests. This hotel played a leading part in the early history of the city, a perusal of records on file in the Public Library gives evidence.

The Examiner of September 22, 1903, records the fact that Edward Phelan, who died September 21, 1903, "began conducting the Phelan House hotel about the year 1854." Research has failed to reveal the nature of the activity carried on in the building between 1849 and 1854, but it is presumed that it was under construction for part of this time.

Mr. Phelan spent nearly the whole of his life of 74 years in Peterborough and is "credited with being one of the three men who built up Simcoe St. in the early days." He was born in Ireland and for many years was in the lumbering business, having piloted the first timber down the back waters to Peterborough, receiving for his services $16 per day.

The Examiner account of Mr. Phelan's death said this of the hotel operated by Mr. Phelan: "which has been so long and widely and so creditably associated with his name, as a model hotel of its class— always admirably conducted and noted for its strict observance both of the law of hospitality and the law of the land."

The account proceeds: "The late Mr. Phelan was, what it is rare to find among the generality of men in active life half a century ago—not to speak of hotelkeepers—a lifelong total abstainer from intoxicants. With his thrifty, industrious habits and with a hotel conducted in so excellent and law-abiding a manner, it was no surprise that Mr. Phelan prospered in business and amassed considerable means. He conducted the hotel continuously until 1882, and after a brief retirement, for some time subsequently."

Mr. Phelan did not actually purchase the building until 1870 after which he constructed several additions to it.

According to records on file at the Registry of Deeds, the original grant of land on which the hotel stands was made by the Crown to Connell T. Baldwin on August 9, 1847, at that time it being half an acre in size. He deeded it to Richard Winch on November 3 of that same year, who in turn deeded it to Patrick Smith on February 2, 1859. The heirs of Mr. Smith deeded it to Mr. Phelan on November 2, 1870, and the executors of Mr. Phelan's estate conveyed it to Frank Montgomery on Feb. 28, 1907. Mr. Montgomery and his heirs operated the hotel as the Montgomery House until April 11, 1939, when the executors of his estate deeded it to Oliver R. Edwards and Nelson D. King. On May 1, 1942, Mr. Edwards conveyed his interest to Mr. King, who is now sole proprietor.

City's Swimming Places Are Few and Not the Best

By DON GRANT.

Sewage from East City is ruining the only sandy swimming beach in Peterborough. This sandy stretch is between the Mark Street Wharf and the outlet from the East City sewage tank. The possibilities of this being serviceable as a beach are as remote as remodelling the city's sewage system. Even if the proposed sewer were put in this year it will take three years to clean the water for swimming and to prepare the beach for picnics and parties

As the beach is now, it is 60 feet wide by 600 feet long. The water, when this reporter was there, was very low. At high water the wading beach would be at least 35 to 45 feet wide. The water deepens quickly.

At present with the wind blowing in the wrong direction the East City beach would be unbearable. The sewage particles are visible the length of the sandy beach and down the other side for 400 feet. Other beaches on Little Lake are in the same unsanitary condition.

Swimming is supervised at the only two sizeable, approved beaches in Peterborough. They are Inverlea Park and Riverside Park beaches. At Inverlea the beach is clearly marked out both for non-swimmers and for swimmers. A string of blocks has for years been the outer boundary for the non-swimmers. This string stretches from Inverlea bridge to the cement wall halfway up the shoreline of the park. The water at the blocks is generally about three feet deep. The bottom is sandy for 10 to 15 feet, gradually becoming stony. The water becomes deeper rapidly outside the blocks.

The quarrels of lovers are the renewal of love.
Terence (185-159 B.C.)

Rafts for experienced swimmers were placed outside the blocks. The depth of the water at the rafts varies from three to six feet. The rafts, four in number, are about six feet wide by 30 feet long. Because of the strong current swimming to the piers of the bridge is prohibited.

Facilities for diving were few last year. In fact, there were none. The bridge offered the only high place to dive from. But this was prohibited because of the traffic hazard on the bridge. A diving tower constructed in 1947 was not used last year. This year the Recreation Commission hopes to build three diving towers out of the steel in the large unused tower. These will be placed between each of the four rafts.

Diving and swimming were prohibited from the cement wall at the north end of the park also last year. This took the really deep swimming area away from the swimmers.

Riverside Park offers less to the swimmers than Inverlea. On the east side of the river is a wading pool which is enclosed by a boom. Although longer and wider than the Inverlea beach, the wading beach at Riverside has a rougher bottom and the current is a little stronger. Outside the wading pool area the river becomes even stronger.

Further down the river at the point where the ball park juts into it is an H-wharf. Here is the deep swimming area. There the river forms a natural basin for three-quarters of its width. The current is so swift that the weaker swimmers must stay near the shore. Last year only the wharf and a one-meter board could be used for diving. This year the same provisions are being made, although the H-wharf may be abandoned for a permanent pier 60 feet long.

Both the swimming beaches are supervised by lifeguards employed by the Recreation Commission. This year the Commission plans to give swimming lessons at the two swimming areas. A director and assistants will supervise it.

Hamilton Park on Bonaccord Street will have a wading pool. The water from Jackson Park Creek will be blocked to form a wading pool. It is planned to make further use of the creek by the formation of a pool for deep water swimming.

The Trent Canal has always been a popular place for swimming in the early spring. Since the water is nearly stagnant, it warms up faster than other waterways around the city, but by midsummer the weeds make the swimming miserable.

In Welland the locks in the canal are used as swimming pools. It has been suggested that the same use of them could be made of ours. All swimmers could be cleared quickly from the lock if boats wanted through. Should a swimmer be in difficulty, the locks could be emptied.

With all the potential resources for swimming and diving it seems a shame that only two beaches are usable.

Owen Sound Gains Victory Over Petes In Keen Game

Finishing a little stronger, Owen Sound Crescents pulled out a 16-12 OLA senior "A" victory over the Petes before some 2,000 fans in Miller Bowl last evening. The score was 4-2 for Crescents in the first quarter, but 8-6 for Petes at the half, 11-all going into the last heat, and 12-12 halfway through the fourth. The Petes missed several scoring chances then on erratic shooting and Crescents clicked for the verdict. It tightened their grip on top spot and left the locals in the cellar. They go to St. Catherines tonight.

Play was close, speedy and rugged over most of the route. The checking was stiff, with a number of roughing penalties and two fights drawing majors. Slater and Foote exchanged blows in the third, and Kazarian and Howse in the fourth. Of the 17 penalties passed out, the Petes were guilty nine times. The refereeing definitely wasn't good as both arbiters missed a lot.

The Scorers

Campbell, A. Smith and Ashbee led the winners in scoring with three goals each, as Kazarian aided on three. F. Smith and Slater sniped home a couple each, with Gillespie, Shortridge, Kazarian each getting singles. Jim McNulty led the way for the Armstrong-sponsored Petes with four goals and an assist. Dootch Vitarelli and Leo Teatero each scored two and had an assist. Jack Howse had a goal and an assist, with Bob Thorpe aiding on three and Mick Magee two. Ron Horton, Lou Vitarelli, Jack Foote were other scorers. Whitey Frick turned in a good effort in the cage and Thorpe was solid on defence. The Petes hustled their experienced opponents all the way in a fine fray.

The teams:

Owen Sound: Goal, Wootton; defence, Allum and Woods; centre, F. Smith; wings, Kazarian and Campbell; rover, Slater; alternates, Ashbee, A. Smith, Shortridge, White and Gillespie.

Petes: Goal, Frick; defence, Chute and Thorpe; centre, E. Creighton; wings, D. Vitarelli and L. Vitarelli; rover, Foote; alternates, Magee, Teatero, Horton, McNulty, Howse, Dugan and J. Creighton.

Referees—W. Anthony and W. Arthur.

St. James Winners City Bantam Group

St. James' bantams defeated St. John's 22-9 in a sudden-death playoff to win the all-city church bantam championship. They captured the church trophy and the cup presented by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Manager W. E. Bell's team looked good all the way, scoring six runs each in the third and fifth frames, one apiece in the first and seventh, and two each in the second, fourth, sixth and eighth. St. John's counted one each in the third, fourth and fifth, with two apiece in the sixth, seventh and ninth. Homers were hit by Smyth, Corbett, and Drummond. Teams:

St. John's — Walker, Corbett, P. Masterson, D. Masterson, Forbes, Prindible, Drummond, Buckley, Grose.

St. James' — Smyth, Beggs, Bryan, Peters, Frizzelle, Dugan, Ball, Hunt, Wright, McIntyre, Hobart, A. Phillips, Johnson, J. Phillips, Hill.

Umpires—T. Naish and C. Smith.

Petes Divide Twin Bill With Buffalo

The senior Petes of the COBL split a twin bill with Canisius College of Buffalo in Riverside Park yesterday afternoon. They took the opener 7-4 but dropped the later seven-inning struggle 4-3 before a crowd of about 400. Both were neat exhibitions but the oppressive heat kept many fans away from the uncovered bleachers.

Doug Plunkett hurled steady ball in the opener and had good backing afield and at the plate. He gave up nine hits and two walks, striking out nine. Fitzgerald on the other slab fanned six as he walked three and was nicked for 11 bingles. It was 4-3 for the locals on earned runs. Joe Stewart had three hits for three and drove in three runs. Howie Dalton had a double and two singles in four, with Al Menzies hitting two for three, Murphy, Foley and Garvey each singling one. Lynette led the losers with three for four, and they pulled off one double play.

Canisius ..... 020 000 2—4 9 5
Petes ..... 200 023 x—7 11 1
Batteries — Fitzgerald and Cook; Plunkett and Menzies.

Second Game

Buffalo took a 4-0 lead in the first frame and carried it till the seventh when the Marine-sponsored Petes got three runs and had the tying and winning run aboard at the last out. Joe Lowrey went good on the home mound after a wobbly first heat, while Walker was good for the other side till he weakened in the seventh. The fielding and hitting were pretty even. Lowrey fanned three and walked two, as Walker issued two walks, whiffing none. Fred Garvey had a lovely running one-hand catch and the Petes pulled off a double play. Singles were gained by Foley, Fitzgerald, Edwardson, Lowrey and Dalton. Cook and Stewart got two for three each for Canisius.

Canisius ..... 400 000 0—4 7 2
Petes ..... 000 000 3—3 5 2
Batteries—Walker and Cook; Lowrey and Fitzgerald.
Umpires—Calladine and Whatley.

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

A classy field of nine speedboats was tuned up for the 42nd annual running of the Gold Cup today at Detroit. Several other boat owners hurriedly sent their craft through qualifying trials in hopes of winning a starting berth in the race, oft-referred to as he "Kentucky derby of American speed boat racing."

The qualifying tests left Wild Bill Cantrell's My Sweetie as favorite for the gold cup. Cantrell qualified earlier this week with a 92.402 mark and hit well past the 100-mile-an-hour mark on the straightaway.

Band leader Guy Lombardo, a native of London, Ont., qualified with 73.127 in Tempo VI.

The race will be a 90-mile affair, staged in three 30 mile heats, over the Detroit river course. The winner will be adjudged on a point system.

The sleek-lined Killua, owned and skippered by Bill Binch of Toronto, Friday captured the Queens Cup, emblematic of top honors in the annual Royal Canadian Yachting Club's Toronto-to-Hamilton sailing race.

Quest, owned by Lorne Corley, crossed the finish line about 20 minutes ahead of the actual winner but placed fourth on corrected times. Second place in the 26-mile jaunt went to Stormalong, owned by Jack Wardrop, while Laurel ended third with owner Marty Lampart at the helm.

Struck on the head by a pitched baseball while practising with the St. Mary's Intermediate O.B.A. team, Donald Bradley, died Friday while being taken by ambulance to hospital in London. Decision on an inquest awaits a post-mortem report.

Eddie Waitkus, the Philadelphia Phillies' wounded first baseman, has been placed on the 60-day disabled list. To fill the roster position left vacant with the removal of Waitkus the Phils announced at Boston the recall of pitcher John (Jocko) Thompson from their International League farm at Toronto. Thompson, a southpaw, has won four games and lost one for Toronto.

At Chicago, Eddie Waitkus, Philadelphia Phillies' first baseman, left the operating table Friday still carrying bullet near his spine, but with both lungs working. Waitkus, wounded June 15 by a mentally-deranged typist, underwent two hours of surgery to re-inflate one lung. The lung had been partially collapsed by blood released by the bullet.

Proximity, the world's biggest money winning trotter, Friday night set a world's record of 2:11 1 1-16 miles on a half-mile track over the Buffalo raceway track. The eight-year-old brown mare broke the previous mark of 2:11 4-5 set in 1947 by Sidney Hanover. She was driven by Whitey Dennison of Rochester, N. Y. The owners are Ralph and Gordon Verherst of Victor, N. Y. Proximity's winnings, with her share of Friday night's purse, total $115,054.67.

At Panama, a one-armed, one-legged angler Friday was credited with catching the largest black marlin ever boated with a rod and reel. The fish weighed 1,006 pounds. The International Game Fish Association issued a special certificate for outstanding achievement to Louis Schmidt, Jr., a United States citizen low living at Ancon in the Canal Zone.

At Sherbrooke, Forrest Keene, general manager of Sherbrooke St. Francis in the Quebec Senior Hockey League, Friday announced the trade of forward Herbie Carnegie for players, Jimmy Planche and Guy Labrie of Quebec Aces. At the same time, it also was announced that Manny McIntyre and Ossie Carnegie will not be signed by Sherbrooke this coming season and will "likely be declared free agents."

All arrangements have been satisfactorily completed for Winnipeg Blue Bombers' exhibition football games in Hamilton Aug. 17 and Toronto Aug. 20, E. A. Armstrong, club president, announced Friday at Winnipeg. Bombers plan to fly east for both games.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

The senior ball-playing Petes—who are sponsored through Hugh Campbell by the Outboard Marine Co.—split evenly in two exhibition tilts here yesterday. They beat Canisius College of Buffalo 7-4 in the opener at Riverside yester aft, but they dropped the second one by a 4-3 count. Both were seven-inning scraps and that was enough for the sun-baked fans in those open bleachers. 'Twas a mighty warm day, you know. But the boys played hard and earned the first one handily, besides nearly pulling the other out of the fire. Got three runs in the final frame and left a couple aboard on a close call for the last out. Lowrey pitched well after the first inning.

* * * * * *

Plunkett was steady on the Murphyites' mound in the first fray as he struck out nine. His support was okay, also, and the Petes hit in timely fashion. Especially Joe Stewart and Howie Dalton, with Al Menzies having a couple of blows. Joe had three for three and drove in three. Best bit of fielding was seen in the second struggle when Freddy Garvey raced out back of third to take a one-hand fly on the gallop like a big leaguer. Yes, the Petes haven't been drawing too well—due to hot weather and uncovered stands—but they're playing good ball against all comers. You can't ask for more.

They Had To Work

Crescents of Owen Sound still lead the OLA senior "A" league after yanking out a 16-12 verdict o'er the Petes in Miller Bowl last e'en. But they really worked for it, and only went ahead in the last part of the fourth quarter. It was 12-12 halfway through the fourth, but our guys missed the net several times in close and they didn't. The big crowd enjoyed the hot tussle throughout, and there were plenty of fans from out of town helping swell the gathering. Petes go to St. Kitts tonight and to Owen Sound on Wednesday, with Mimico here Friday.

* * * * * *

The players didn't spare the gad at all in the heat of battle, and there were 17 penalties. Refereeing wasn't so good at all. Couple of fist fights kept tempers up, also. Jim McNulty turned in another nifty chore for the Creighton crew with five scoring points, Dootch Vitarelli, Leo Teatero and Bob Thorpe also being prominent on the attack. Latter checked well, too, and Whitey Frick did okay in goal. Campbell, Ashbee, A. Smith and Kazarian went best over the distance for the husky visitors. Yeah, it's a rugged game and we'll take it from the sidelines.

Close In Cricket

That must have been quite a cricket match yesterday in the Oval, as reported by Charlie Ireson. It was the first competition for the Matthews Trophy in the Ontario county championships—the local club winning the title last year—and Carleton County, an all-star Ottawa aggregation just won by a single run here. The final score was 110-109, and while we don't know cricket we do know that such a score is close in any sport. Bright of us, eh? Three of our chaps batted well but the rest didn't do so good, and that was the difference, as local bowling was all right. A good time after for both clubs, and three from here, H. Pyle, W. Wright and F. Booth, will try for the all-Ontario team this week-end.

Carleton Wins In Cricket By Single Run

By C. H. IRESON

Carleton County defeated Peterborough 110 runs to 109 in the first round of the competition for the R. C. Matthews Trophy, emblematic of the county championship of Ontario. The match was played in Nicholls Oval on Friday, and the defending champions lost by the narrowest possible margin.

Following the match, the two teams were dinner guests of the local club at the Empress Hotel. An enjoyable evening was spent. Three members of the Peterborough-Whitaker team, H. Pyle, W. Wright, and F. Booth have been chosen to take part in trial games in Toronto this week-end when an all-Ontario team will be picked to play Toronto on July 16.

Batted First

The locals batted first Friday, and good batting by F. Booth 38 and H. Pyle 33 took the total to 57 for two wickets. B. Roberts scored 16, but the others did little. The score was 103 for three and the total only reached 109. Pyle's 33 included two sixes and four fours. R. Hardy was the best Carleton bowler with seven wickets for 46.

Carleton made a poor start, losing three good wickets for four runs and nine wickets were down for 65, owing to fine innings of 39 by Snipper. And then a fine last wicket stand by D. Whitfield 43 and R. Sharpe 5 added 45 runs, beating the Peterborough total of 109 by one run. H Pyle's six for 55 and F. Dyer's three for 37 were the best bowling figures, F. Booth having one for nothing, and Roberts nothing for 12..

Following were the scores:

Peterborough County — W. Wright 1, F. Booth 38, H. Pyle 33, A. Harris 6, B. Roberts 16, F. Dyer 2, R. Rollwagen 0, W. Rashleigh 0, S. Jennings 1 not out, W. Freeman 0, E. Tomsett 0, extras 12—total 109.

Bowling: H. Snipper 1 for 6, H. Little 1 for 0, H. Williams 0 for 13, R. Hardy 7 for 46, H. Robinson 0 for 7, W. Edge 1 for 2, and G. Stacey 0 for 1.

Carleton County — E. Scott 4, G. W. Stacey 2, H. Snipper 39, W. Edge 1, H. Robinson 0, H. E. Williams 0, H. Little 11, R. Hardy 1, W. Whitfield 44 not out, R. Sharpe 5, extras 6—total 110.

Bowling: F. Dyer 3 for 37, H. Pyle 6 for 55, F. Booth 1 for 0, and B. Roberts 0 for 12.

Minor Lacrosse

Following is the daytime schedule at Miller Bowl next week for minor lacrosse: Monday at 10 first tadpole loop game, with the peewee Petes playing Tigers at 11. The peewee Terriers tackle Cyclones at 1:30, as bantam Legions practise at 3:00. Tuesday has tadpole team No. 1 drilling at 10, peewee Petes practise at 1:30, Tigers' peewee practise at 3:00.

Team No. 1 of tadpoles drill on Wednesday at 1:30, UE bantams workout at 3:00. Thursday has Petes playing Terriers at 10, and Tigers meeting Cyclones at 11. Hughes bantams drill at 1:30, as All Saints' bantams practise at 3:00. Teams Nos. 1 and 2 of the tadpoles play at 10 Friday morning, followed by Petes vs. Cyclones. At 1:30 Tigers play Terriers, while Legion bantams workout at 3:00. Other periods this week are open.

R. Burns' Rink Captures Cup

With only 12 local rinks entered, Ralph Burns' rink won their three games with the greatest score and therefore took the Ovaltine Trophy.

Alex Aitkenhead was second with three wins. R. Renaud, high two game winner, and D. Anderson who never skipped before, piloted his rink through for the high one win.

It was the smallest open tournament ever sponsored by this club and just what is the reason is something that has to be figured out. Some of the bowlers offered their opinion and others could not understand it.

However, those who did play, seemed to have a good time and that's the main object of lawn bowling.

Tonight, the Family Hour tournament at 7:30 o'clock sharp.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press.

In a tense finish George Fazio, of Los Angeles won the Canadian Open golf championship at Beaconsfield, Que., three years ago today, defeating Dick Metz of Kansas by a single stroke in an 18-hole playoff. The pair had tied with 278 each on completion of the regulation 72 holes medal play. The playoff was an uphill fight, but the real climax came at the 18th hole when Fazio, with five strokes against him, had one more left for a win and two for a tie. He made no mistake with the final putt.

Train 5 Hours Late

MONTREAL, July 2 (CP) — Engine failure on one of three sections of the crowded Toronto-Montreal Canadian National Railways pool train resulted in a five-hour delay in the train's arrival here early Friday. The train was scheduled to arrive at Windsor Station at 11:15 p.m. Thursday night. Owing to the engine failure which occurred at Trenton Junction it did not reach Montreal until 4.30 a.m. Friday.

Cardinals Muff Chance To Tie League Leadership

By JACK HAND,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

What happened to Harry Brecheen's after dark magic?

The wiry little St. Louis Cardinal southpaw was poison at night last season. Under the lights he had a 14-3 mark en route to his fine 20-7 season.

After winning three night starts early this season, he lost his touch.

With a chance to tie Brooklyn Dodgers for the National League lead by whipping Cincinnati Friday night, the Red Birds flopped, 10-2. Brecheen started, but faded for a pinch-hitter in the fourth. St. Louis trailed 3-0 and the lowly Reds had four hits off the cat who walked five.

Brooklyn stubbed its toe on New York's Dave Koslo in an afternoon setback 4-1 that gave St. Louis a chance to close the gap. Don Newcombe was unable to hold an early 1-0 lead and finally was knocked out for the first time in a month while the Giants were en route to a three-run rally in the eighth.

Control Third Place

Vern Bickford gave Boston Braves control of third place as he hit the 10-win mark with a 12 inning decision over the Phillies, 2-1. The young righthander singled to start the 12th, rode to third on Eddie Stanky's single and scored on Al Dark's game-winning single.

Bob Muncrief, recently sold by Pittsburgh to Chicago for the waiver price, pitched the Cubs to a 6-5 edge over the Pirates in a relief role. Muncrief came on after Dutch Leonard was knocked out in the fourth.

Charley Keller, another one of Casey Stengel's cripples, took his turn at giving New York Yankees a lift. He hit a pinch triple with two men on to climax a four-run rally in the ninth inning. The Yanks came from way back to nip Washington 5-4 with Joe DiMaggio confining his activities to one single and a walk in four trips.

Eddie Joost, Philadelphia A's sparkplug, drove in five runs with three hits, including his 17th homer, in a 11-5 romp over Boston. The victory left the A's 5½ games back of the leading Yanks

Cleveland took over third place by dumping St. Louis Browns 3-1 on Al Benton's six-hitter, while Detroit was being blanked by Chicago's Bill Wight 4-0.

Havelock Boys Drop Game 22-12

CAMPBELLFORD, July 2 (ENS).—Jack Cowell's boys won a 22-12 decision over Havelock in the first home game of the Trent Valley Juvenile Baseball League at the Fair Grounds, Wednesday night. It was a free-hitting and loose-fielding tilt but with more experience the kids will be playing better ball before the end of the season.

Macoun was a stand-out for the home team, playing steady ball and clouting a homer. The batteries of Petherick and Bennett for the locals and Vaughan and Smith for the visitors will teamup well with more coaching and practice. Teams:

Havelock — Bales, ss; Thompson, 3b; Laing, 2b; Cosgrave, lf; Pollock, cf; Heath, 1b; Smith, c; McCabe, rf; Vaughan, p.

Campbellford — Bennett, c; Simpson, ss; Macoun, 1b; Dunk, cf; Jeffs, lf; Dooker, 2b; Petherick, p; Hay, rf; McFarlane, 3b.

RT. HON. LOUIS S. ST. LAURENT, Canada's Prime Minister, waves to the crowd gathered in Ottawa's Union Station as he returned to the nation's capital to take up the reins of office following his party's unprecedented victory at the polls this week. At left, behind Mr. St. Laurent, is Hon. Brooke Claxton, Minister of National Defence. Immediately behind the Prime Minister is Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Canada's Gift Helps

WELLING, England —(CP)— More than 700 food parcels from Canada were distributed to old age pensioners and blind persons in this Kent county town.

Personal Visit Planned

TORONTO. — Fifty thousand men and women of the United Church of Canada from Labrador to the Queen Charlotte Islands will be enlisted for the week of Nov. 20 to 27 to make personal visits to other United Church adherents and members for the purpose of securing 100,000 new contributors to the home and overseas Christian services of the United Church of Canada.

The forward drive is a part of the 25th anniversary observances of the United Church and is leading up to the raising of $3,000,000 in 1950 for the Missionary and Social and Educational phases of the church's work. The three million dollar goal is double what the Church raised in 1940, and is about 20 per cent higher than the present contributions.

There are 2,000,000 people in Canada who are registered in the census enrolment as belonging to the United Church of Canada, Rev. D. G. Ridout, D.D., said today. Dr. Ridout is secretary of the Missionary and Maintenance Committee of the United Church, responsible for directing this great advance in the church's givings He is optimistic that the campaign will be successful.

"The object of our personal visitation is to inform, interest and encourage co-operation of all families, members and adherents, in the life and work of the church, both locally and in the Dominion and world-wide fields," Dr. Ridout said.

Half a million homes will be visited during the campaign week.

Book Of Psalms Remains Israeli's Great Song Book

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.

Israel's great song book is, of course, the Book of Psalms.

We have written of its marvelous variety in exploiting every phase of human emotion and experience, and of its glory and inspiration as a book of praise, worship and devotion.

It is not the form or structure of the Psalms that is of chief importance; it is their contents and message. But it may help to add an appreciation and understanding of them and their rich beauty if the nature of Hebrew poetry is realized.

Many people associate poetry with the idea of rhyme, or in so-called "prose poems," or blank verse, with rhythm. There is rhythm, often rich cadences, in the poetry of the Psalms, but no rhyme. Instead, the structure of Hebrew poetry consists in some form of parallel statement, in similarity, contrast, or in some extension or amplification of the thought.

A few examples will make this plain. Similar parallel statements and a parallelism in contrast are alike exemplified in the very first Psalm:

"Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly,

Nor standeth in the way of sinners,

Nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the Lord."

A similar example is in Psalm 5:

"Give ear to my words, O Lord;

Consider my meditation."

An example of the amplified thought is in Psalm 19:13:

'Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins;

Let them not have dominion over me;

Then shall I be upright and I shall be innocent from the great transgression."

Strict adherence to these forms is not always found, but they are everywhere throughout the Psalms, and an appreciation of the form and structure of this poetry will dispel an impression of undue repetition that one might otherwise receive. The apparent repetition is intended, and one may judge for himself how it not only gives a sense of rhythm, but adds to the emphasis of the thought.

In the Psalms is a strong sense of life and movement, typical of the history of Israel and the religious life. Pilgrimage was of the very essence of that history—the pilgrimage of Abraham to Canaan, the descent into Egypt and the return through the wilderness, the Exile to Babylon and the return to the homeland.

And "going up" was of the very essence of worship—ascending to "the hill of the Lord," going to Jerusalem for the religious festivals. The Psalms are poems of religion on the march.

Increase Onion Duty

OTTAW A,July 2 (CP) — A seasonal readjustment of tariff to protect central and western Canada onion growers from United States competition was announced Friday by the Revenue Department. Under authority of order-in-council, it fixed the value for duty at an advance of three-quarters of a cent a pound on true invoice value, increasing the duty from about one to two cents a pound.

Premier To Have Liberals On All Sides

By HAROLD MORRISON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, July 2 (CP).—Liberals who conquered in the election will be making a second conquest when the next session of Parliament begins.

About 56 of them will be invading seats formerly held by Progressive--Conservatives. They will be squeezed right next to George Drew, Progressive-Conservative chieftain who once more will take his seat as leader of the Opposition.

Staff officers in the Commons now are juggling the seating capacity of the next Parliament expected to open some time in September or October.

Big Problem

They say they've never tackled a bigger or more touchy problem. The problem embraces not only the record number of Liberals to be seated but also the question of where to place two heavyweights, Camillien Houde, Independent member for Montreal Papineau, and J. R. Garland, Liberal member for the Ontario riding of Nipissing.

Mr. Garland is believed to tip the scales at the 500-pound mark. Mr. Houde's exact weight is unknown, but his jolly round figure leave little to the imagination.

Both will need extra-wide seats and the decision appears to be that rather than build new structures, both members will be given back seats right next to the corridor where desk chairs are moveable and can be pushed into the corridors.

This seating arrangement is expected to create a slight bulge both on the Government and Opposition sides since Mr. Houde, sitting as an Independent and known to be dead set against the Liberals, likely will cast his lot with the three other Independents elected for the next five years.

Overflows

Commons officers have had to contend with government overflow before but never on such a scale. There are altogether 272 seats in the Commons, half on the Government side.

That takes care of 136 Liberals. The others, 56, as indicated by tradition, will take their places to the immediate left of the Speaker. That means they likely will take the first five rows of seats—the sixth row is where Mr. Drew sits—and then swing behind the P.-C. leader, using some of the seats behind him.

That means that Mr. St. Laurent, rising to address the House, will ha Liberals to the left of him, Liberals to the right of him, Liberals behind him, and of all things to the front of him.

Cornwall Man Heads Firefighters Group

PERTH, July 2—(CP)—Fire Chief Corley Moore of Cornwall Friday was re-elected president of the Eastern Ontario Firefighters Association at the association's annual meeting. The meeting continues Saturday and Sunday.

Other officers elected were: W. G. Howie, Perth, and Leo Emo, Gananoque, vice presidents; Jerry Hampton, Gananoque, secretary-treasurer.

Bury Murder Victim

SELBY, Ont., July 2 (CP) — The Funeral of Elijah McQuaig, killed Wednesday in a shooting affray, was held Friday. Hundreds of district residents attended. McQuaig was shot while loading hay and his helper, 20-year-old John Ross, was wounded by rifle fire. Alfred Childs 20, known in this district as John Nelson, faces a charge of murder in connection with McQuaig's death.

Says Press Must Receive Wire Priority

PARIS, July 2 (AP). — The Director-General of the United Nations Education, Scientific and Cultural Organization has recommended preferential wire facilities for newspaper men.

In a statement addressed to the International Telegraph and Telephone Congress meeting at UNESCO, Director-General Jaime Torres Bodet said the world press must have preferential treatment to provide adequate information for the public. The Congress is revising the International Telephone and Telegraph regulations in force since 1938.

Torres Bodet said:

1. The Press should obtain priority over private wire messages and preferential allocation of teleprinter circuits, since it provides a service to the general public.

2. New dispatches should be transmitted at reduced rates,

3. Such dispatches should be understood to cover a larger field than merely political and commercial information.

"To obviate restrictions in the use of wire services because of foreign exchange difficulties, the 'collect system' permitting payment at the receiving end should be extended as far as possible," he said.

Tory Candidate Ups Lead In Recount

LONDON, Ont., July 2—(CP)—A recount of ballots cast in Monday's federal election in Middlesex East riding Friday night gave Harry O. White, Progressive Conservative candidate, a 76-vote lead over Liberal Fred O. Kime.

The figures for the riding, however, will not be final until Monday when the servicemen's vote is announced.

Tabulations election night gave Mr. White a 48-vote lead, but a recount was ordered when Mr. Kime refused to concede. Mr. White represented the riding in the last Commons.

New Gambling Racket

LOS ANGELES July 2 (AP)—A new racket has sprung up in Los Angeles to harrass police—television baseball gambling. Casinos are springing up in various sections of the city. Croupiers stand behind long green tables singing out frequently-changing odds on all the standard possibilities in the game being televised.

Hidden From World

BOSTON, July 2 (AP) — A 14-year-old boy whose mother is charged with hiding him from the world since his birth tearfully refused to rejoin her. Gerald Sullivan made his refusal when lawyer Daniel J. O'Connell, representing Mrs. Anna Sullivan, 45, offered to take the boy to his mother. He has been living at a convalescent home.

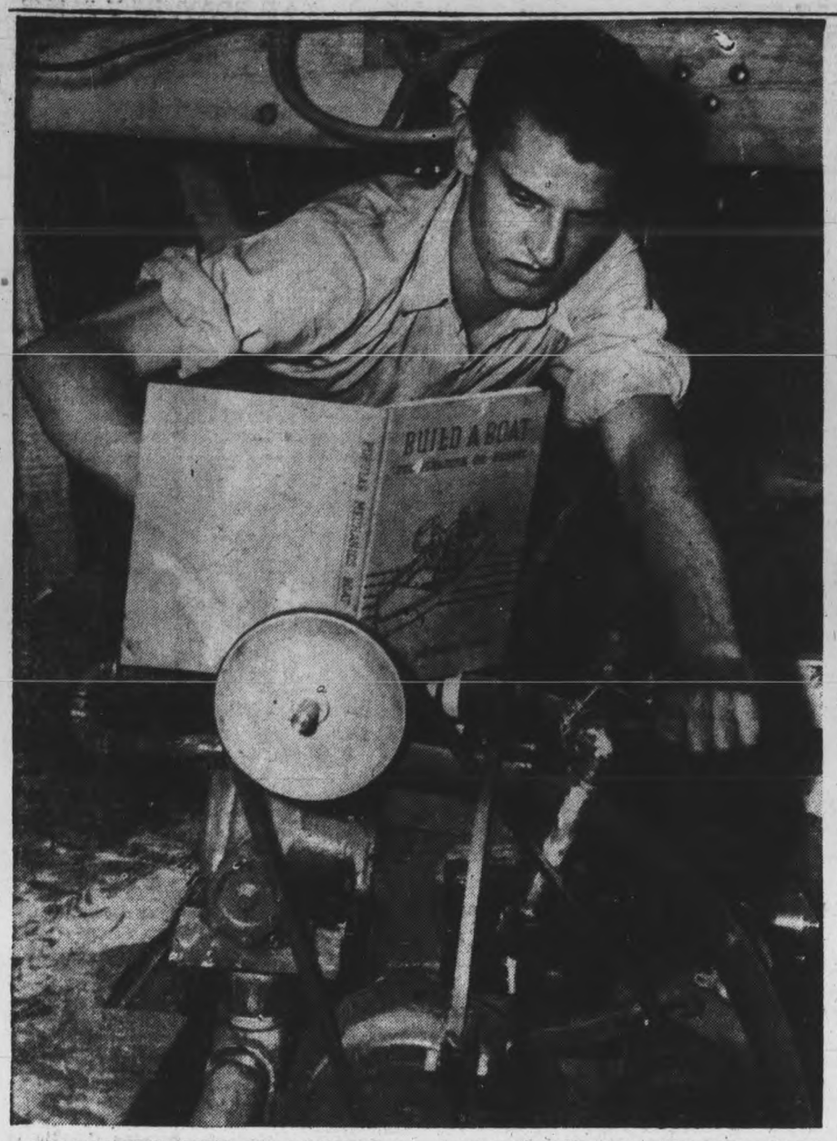
VOL. XCIX, No. 2 — SATURDAY, JULY 2, 1949



SIX MONTHS' WORK will end Saturday for Joe Campanaro (ABOVE), and Doug Long, when they launch a cruiser at Lake Chemong. The two young fellows built the craft by working every night, Saturday and Sunday since Christmas. The engine shown in the picture is a converted, reconditioned car motor that they hope will push their 'dream boat' 30 miles per hour.

49-lb. Sturgeon Outnibbled Bass, Muskies

With the Kawarthas literally swarming with boatloads of fishermen on Dominion Day, there were only two outstanding fish stories in the district. The first had to do with a 20-pound muskie taken in Lake Katchewanooka by Bob Freeman in the evening just before dusk. In company with Reginald Parsons, an all-day try produced a couple of small bass until the big one hit Freeman's line. The 'lunge's lair was in front of Dawson's cottages about a mile south of Young's Point.

The second fish story of note has to do with a foreign fish in the Trent River near Campbellford. Edward Brown and David Phillips, both of Alliance, O., snagged some monster on a 15-pound test line. It towed their boat for some distance before breaking water to reveal a huge sturgeon fighting for its life. After a 45-minute free ride and an hour of battle, they succeeded in landing the fish which scaled 49 pounds. It measured four feet, 9½ inches in length.

Muskies Striking

From a survey of resorts in a considerable surrounding area it was generally proven that although muskies were striking, hardly any were in the keeper class, black bass were making moderate catches with fish going two to three pounds and pickerel fishing was excellent.

From Rice Lake, Pigeon and Stony, comes the same story for the opening day of bass and 'lunge season; few keeper muskies, a little better on the bass beds and pickerel gave limit catches.

There are 'lunge in Buckhorn and of that Mrs. Arthur Lewis and Mrs. Vern Selkirk are sure. With the husbands in two boats, the first lady lost two fighters and the latter, one. It is a safe bet that they will be trying for them again in the near future.

Men of the Ray family in Bridgenorth made the best showing in the bass roundup. Starting at 5 o'clock on Friday morning, Gordon Sr., and Jr. and Fred took a total of 15 black bass between them from the Smith side of the new Chemong Sauseway. The largest was 2¾ pounds and the average 1½ pounds. For bait they used helgramites, and they stopped fishing at 6:45 a.m. to go to work for the day.

Woman's Death Found Due To Natural Causes

The death of Clara Dwyer, 37, of 489 Rogers St. was due to "natural causes" it was decided at the post mortem held Friday afternoon. One of the chief causes was "acute edema of the lungs," Coroner Dr. Herbert Young told the Examiner today.

Miss Dwyer was walking along the Otonabee River on the Quaker Oats property in East City, early Friday morning when she became ill and later collapsed. James Grisdale, 36, of 152 Dufferin St. who was with her at the time, went to a nearby residence to phone for medical aid.

When Dr. J. M. O'Brien arrived he pronounced her dead. It is not believed she regained consciousness.

The post-mortem was performed by Dr. C. B. Waite, with Dr.'s L. Zacks and O'Brien assisting.

Playgrounds In Big Demand

Unable to escape into the country on Dominion Day from the hot city hundreds of adults and children made use of the playground facilities at Inverlea and Riverside parks. Lifeguards were continually warning children of the dangers of pushing and running on the rafts. One of the main worries of the guards were the children with rubber tubes and balls. Despite warnings and the recent drowning due to a tube many children had tubes or balls in the water.

In the morning swimming instructors started to sign children for the swimming lessons.

Playground supervisors on the eight supervised parks found the children anxious to play softball and other games despite the heat. At one time during the afternoon at Inverlea all the playground equipment was in use. Adults as well as children were playing basketball and volleyball. The older people gradually slipped out to rest in the shade of the pines.

At suppertime about 35 to 50 small groups were scattered throughout the park eating their lunches. Late into the night the splashing and yelling of swimmers could be heard.

Old Engine, Hard Work, Dream Launch 19-Ft. Cruiser Today

In a small garage behind Hamilton's Grocery at 654 Stewart St., two young chaps have been working every night, seven days a week, every hour they could spare. In addition, they have worked 14 hours every Sunday. They worked when it was so cold they had to wear fur coats, hats and mitts, with only a coal-oil heater for warmth. At that, they used the heater for melting glue. Now they are working in the intense heat, with nothing to cool them but the thoughts of a riffling breeze moving across Lake Chemong.

Joe Campanaro, 553 Elm St., and Doug. Long, 298 Edinburgh St., are now getting to the stage where they are set to baffle the experts.

Last Christmas they started to build "just a boat." They had an engine, and that was all. It was a converted, reconditioned Chrysler six-cylinder job that had been sitting in the cellar at the Goodwin Tool Machine Works for eight years. And with that only they started on a job that Joe admits "we'd never do again."

19 Feet Long

The boat these fellows built in that short time staggers the imagination. It is a cruiser, 19 feet long, with a four foot depth and a 7 foot 3 inch beam. It's made of cedar, and to date 10,000 screwnails have gone into it. It was so long that they had to build an addition to the garage they were renting from Doug. Hamilton, to accommodate it.

This is a real "dream boat." There were no plans, no blueprints, no experts around to show them how. Everything came out

Pig Takes A Bite

ROSENEATH, July 2—(ENS)—Six-year-old Kenneth Martinell of Kendal, who is holidaying on the farm of his uncle, Harold Blodgett, near Burnley, had a miraculous escape from serious injury when bitten by a pig.

The lad was watching the brood sow eating her evening meal. Next thing he knew, the pig had bitten him between the eye and the nose. The injury was not serious, but will leave a scar the child will carry for many years.

Fresh Fruits More Plentiful

Fresh fruits made their appearance today in quantity for the first time on the farm market. Cherries were general at 25c a pint, 45c a quart, and $2.25 for a six-quart basket. Strawberries varied between 35c and 45c a quart, being in good demand. Red currants sold for 40c a quart and gooseberries went at 35c a quart. A six-quart basket of gooseberries went at $2.

Peas were 60c a six-quart basket or 15c a quart. Cauliflowers varied between 5c and 35c depending upon the size. Onions, leaf lettuce, and radishes were all 5c a bunch. English mint remained firm at 15c for two bunches as did the parsley at 5c a bunch. Beets were general at 10c a bunch or three bunches for 25c. Tomatoes were two pounds for 50c. Old potatoes were $2 for a 75-pound bag with new potatoes going at $4 for a 75-pound bag. Wax beans were slow at 20c a quart. Head lettuce were fairly general at 10c a head.

selling quickly and mostly in

Flowers were in good demand, bouquets. Bouquets sold for 35c to a dollar depending upon the kind and size of blooms.

Eggs were selling generally at 50c for Grade A medium, 55c for Grade A large and 60c a dozen for extra large. Some booths were offering their eggs at 53c for pullets, 55c medium, 58c large and 60c for the extra large. Chickens varied between 45c a pound and 55c.

Suffers Broken Wrist When Struck By Car

Mrs. Edna Miller, 60, of 360 Brock St., received a broken left wrist Thursday afternoon when she was knocked down by a backing car as she attempted to cross Hunter St.

Driver of the vehicle was Mrs. Stanley Northrop, 548 Gilmour St. Mrs. Northrop had parked her car on the north side of Hunter St., just west of Water St. to do some shopping. When she backed up her car before pulling away from the curb she struck Mrs. Miller who stepped off the sidewalk to cross.

The injured woman was taken to Dr. Rodger Chenoweth who found she had a broken left wrist.

Powell Named Chief Engineer

Utilities Commission confirmed this week the appointment of W. H. Powell of Kingston as chief engineer under Mr. R. L. Dobbin, utilities manager, at a salary of $4,200 a year.

Mr. Powell has been employed with the Kingston Utilities Commission. His appointment is effective July 1. Increasing activities of the Commission recommended the engagement of an assistant, gradually to become familiar with the details of Peterborough waterworks, gas and electricity.

Estimated cost of the laying of water and sewer pipes was mentioned at something around $60,000 at the Utilities Commission meeting Thursday. The information about the McNamara Construction Co. bid on this job is being forwarded to the city council for their consideration Monday night. One of the items of cost is $2,000 to bring a dredge to Peterborough by way of the canal.

City Had Share Of Hottest June

The meteorological records for June agree with the frazzled sensibilities of the people after more than a month of almost unrelenting heat, humidity and dearth of rain.

Rainfall in Peterborough last month was .72 of an inch, about three-quarters of an inch, as compared with 3.15 inches last year. The crops underline the effects of that difference in moisture.

And the average temperature was five degrees higher than last year.

Here is the comparison: Last month — maximum temperature 89 degrees on the 20th; minimum 35 degrees on the 8th; average 67. And in June last year: maximum 83; minimum 40; average 62.7.

Passenger Burned

FENELON FALLS, July 2 — (CP)—Arthur Barbonr of Toronto suffered severe burns to the arms and head when fire broke out in an automobile in which he was riding near here, Friday.

Charles E. Murray of 790 Eglinton Ave., Toronto, driver of the motor-car which was damaged considerably, escaped injury.

Fenelon Falls is 15 miles north of Lindsay.

WRONG ADDRESS

Robert McQuaig, whose father met his death Wednesday afternoon near Selby, does not live at 570 Rose Ave. as reported in the Examiner Thursday. He resides in one Wartime Housing area.

Plan Building New Hospital

The city of St. Thomas and the County of Elgin are considering the building of a 220-bed hospital at an estimated cost of $2,000,000. Hon. W. A. Goodfellow, Minister of Welfare, told a joint committee of the two municipalities they could expect approximately $343,000 from the Ontario and Dominion Governments.

The minister said there might be a further $90,000 which might be appied from the Federal grant in the event of the present Memorial Hospital being converted into a 60-bed hospital for chronic patients.

Dr. J. T. Phair, Deputy Minister of Health, suggested a campaign to raise $500,000 by public subscription as a means of reducing the sum that would have to be raised by debenture issue and taxation over a period of 20 years. Doubt was expressed by the committee as to the possibility of the auxiliary grant from the people of the county and city.

If no money was raised by public subscription, the county's contribution on a 40-60 basis with the city would be $640,000. That would require $32,000 a year for 20 years on the principal. The first year's interest at 4 per cent would be a little more than $2,500. A mill on the county rate raises $31,771. Thus, one and one-twelfth mill would have to be raised the first year to pay the county's part of principal and interest, with the rate reduced each succeeding year as the principal diminished.

Work Is Progressing On New Ice Plant

While the city swelters in heat, work on installing the new artificial ice plant in the Civic Arena is proceeding rapidly.

Ald. Hurrell Dodds, chairman of the rink committee, said it was expected the ice plant would be completed by the end of August, in plenty of time for the hockey season.

Some of the machinery from Toronto has arrived and the rest is coming shortly. At the moment workmen are welding together the inch and one half pipe which will be imbedded in five inches of cement for freezing the ice surface.

Over the cement will be laid a metalliciete surface for dancing and roller skating.

Tourists Throng The City For U.S. Holiday Week-end

There's an old song that probably is not sung in the very best of circles, but that has one verse that tells the tourist story for Peterborough his week end. The verse goes something like this:

They came by twos and they came by fours,
They came by tens and they came by scores,
They came by car and airplane too, . . .

The United States visitors were certainly in that category this morning. A quick survey of cars downtown showed guests from Ohio, Michigan, Pennsylvania, New York, Illinois, New Jersey, West Virginia, and even one from Nova Scotia.

They're all heading back to the land of the fighting black bass and muskie, and although they don't like the heat, they're willing to put up with it just to do battle with the fighters of the Kawartha Lakes.

Restaurants Busy

City restaurants have seen a parade of Americans since early this morning. One well-burnt chap was heard to say that he had spent money in the past two weeks "as if it were river water."

Some of the visitors have no accommodation reserved, and according to reports, they will have a job finding a place to sleep over the weekend. Reports are that some guests are sleeping in garages in the lake country.

Women Suffer Minor Injuries

Two women received minor injuries shortly before midnight as the result of a collision at McDonnel and Aylmer Sts.

Miss Helen O'Reilly of 508 Parnell St. received lacerations to her right side, and Mrs. Norman Sylvester of 308 Grace St., Toronto, slightly injured her knee on the dashboard of the car in which she was riding.

Aleric Courneya, 162 Aylmer St., was the driver of the car in which Miss O'Reilly was passenger. He started through the intersection, going west on McDonnel St. when the car driven south on Aylmer St. by Norman Sylvester, husband of the other injured woman, collided with the right side of his vehicle.

Miss O'Reilly was sitting on the right side and received the heaviest impact of the collision. She was taken to Dr. C. F. Cahill for treatment.

Mrs. Sylvester injured her left knee on the dashboard but did not require medical attention.

Courneya's car had the right running board smashed and the right door crumpled. Damage to the other vehicle was left front fender buckled, front bumper broken, left headlight broken and the rad smashed in.

Both cars are insured.

P.C.'s Andy Dalton, V. O'Donoghue, and Sergeant Leo Murphy investigated.

Motorcyclist Dies Following Crash

COBOURG, July 2 —(ENS)— Scott Chalk, 21, of Belleville, son of Mrs. Myrtle Chalk of Cobourg, died last night from injuries received in a motorcycle accident Friday. He was taken to Cobourg General Hospital with multiple fracture of the skull. Chalk's motorcycle hit some loose gravel on the curve just west of the town and went out of control. Leonard Stringer, passenger on the pillion seat, escaped with a shaking up.

MISS MARGARET GRACE LANGLEY and Mr. Robert Hamilton Carley whose marriage will take place on July 9 in St. Luke's Anglican Church. Miss Langley is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Langley, and Mr. Carley is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Carley, all of Peterborough.

Blanche E. Elmhirst Wed To Robert E. Jackson Groom's Mother is Soloist

In St. Andrew's United Church at Westwood this afternoon, Blanche Eunice, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen M. Elmhirst of Indian River, became the bride of Robert E. Jackson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Jackson of Peterborough. The Rev. N. Cole performed the wedding.

Setting for the ceremony was a floral background of blue delphiniums, red and white roses, and ferns. Miss Doreen Graham played the wedding music. Mrs. Jackson, mother of the groom, was soloist. Before the bride entered the church she sang "O Perfect Love," and during the signing of the register, "I'll Walk Beside You."

The bride was lovely in a gown of pure white satin which had a deep scalloped yoke with Brussels lace insert and short cap sleeves. The skirt was full and gathered and had a lily point train. She had long lace mittens and a fingertip veil of imported net caught to a headdress of white satin and wore her grandmother's heirloom locket. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli with a sprig of heather.

Miss Mary Elmhirst, sister of the bride, and Miss Grace Shelley of New York, cousin of the groom, as bridesmaids were frocked alike in gowns of coral taffeta with soft rolled bertha collars. They wore crownless hats of the same material and short mittens of matching lace, and each carried a bouquet of white gladioli sprinkled with blue cornflower.

The groom was attended by Mr. Jack McDonald. Ushers were Dick Elmhirst, brother of the bride, and Harry Shelley of New York, cousin of the groom.

The reception was held on the lawn at the bride's home. Mrs. Elmhirst received her guests in a dress of cameo blue faconne sheer and wore a picture hat of black mohair and black accessories. Mrs. Jackson, mother of the groom, was dressed in periwinkle blue and had a black straw hat with tulle and flowers and black accessories. Each had a corsage of dark pink roses.

For going-away the bride chose a dress of figured Chinese blue silk, natural Italian straw hat and navy accessories and carried a shortie coat in oatmeal shade. The couple are spending their honeymoon motoring to the Laurentians, eastern States and New York City. On return they will live at 1306 Monaghan Road.

Ketcheson-Manning Union In St. John's Church Setting

Baskets of blue delphinium and pink carnations at the altar of St. John's Anglican Church this afternoon formed the setting for the marriage of Yvonne Georgina, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Manning, to Mr. Maxwell Earle Ketcheson, son of Mr. Maurice E. Ketcheson, and the late Mrs. Ketcheson, all of Peterborough.

The ceremony was performed by the Ven. Archdeacon C. W. Balfour. Mr. Fred Mann played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Karl Dorrington when she sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

The bride was wearing an original gown of white lace and bridal satin styled with a full sweeping train. The yoke and sleeves with points over the hands were of lace, and the fitted bodice featured a dropped waistline. She wore a Mary Queen of Scots headdress of matching lace with full length veil of embroidered French illusion and carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses and white gypsophilia. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. K. Lake as matron of honor was wearing a gown of mauve moire, styled with dropped waistline, short puff sleeves and full flared skirt. Her small bonnet, flower trimmed and fastened with an under-chin strap of mauve velvet, and her mittens were of the material of her dress. Miss Emma Dorrington, senior bridesmaid was similarly attired in lime green moire, and they each carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Miss Marilyn Cross, junior bridesmaid, wore yellow with mauve trimming on her bonnet, and carried pink roses. Little Mary Blodgett was flower girl in a gown of pink faille with slight train, bonnet and mittens to match, and she carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

The groom was attended by Mr. Reginald Maxwell. Ushers were Edward Dorrington and J. Parnell.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Manning wore a dress of grey lace over grape, a picture hat of navy lace straw and corsage of red roses. She received with the wedding party at the reception held in the Empress Hotel, assisted by the groom's sister, Mrs. Jack Waldon of Toronto. The latter was wearing blue crepe with matching hat and a corsage of pink roses.

The bride and groom left for Port Elgin to spend their honeymoon, the bride going away in a dress of honey taffeta, matching hat of lace straw with green trim and green accessories. She carried a purse of Labrador needlepoint and a summer white shortie coat.

Mr. and Mrs. Ketcheson will live at 586 Water St.

Groom's Brother Marries Teresa Crough, F. J. Garvey

Sacred Heart Church, decorated with blue delphinium and lilies was the scene of a pretty wedding this morning when Teresa Bernadette Crough became the bride of Frederick John Garvey. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Crough, 223 Perry St., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garvey, 454 Driscoll Terrace.

The couple were united with saying of the nuptial mass by the Rev. R. Garvey, brother of the groom. Paul Crough, brother of the bride, and Frank Farley served as altar boys. Mr. C. Armstrong played the wedding music and Mrs. D. Campanaro sang "On This Day" and other hymns during the mass.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white with fitted bodice of lace, featuring a round neckline, leg-o'-mutton sleeves coming to a point over the hand, and the skirt with peplum effect, falling into a long train of lace with panels of net. Her veil was caught to a halo of lace and she was carrying a cascade of red roses.

Miss Doreen Crough was bridesmaid for her sister, wearing a frock of evening blue made with a fitted torso and double bustle on the full skirt. She wore long white mittens and a matching hat and carried a cascade of pink roses. Little Frances Lustic, niece of the bride, was flower girl, dressed in blue net over satin with a pink sash and matching bonnet trimmed with tiny pink flowers and ribbon, and white lace gloves. She carried a nosegay of roses and small summer flowers.

Mr. Edward Primeau was groomsman and the ushers were Jack Crough, brother of the bride, and William Sullivan.

The reception was held at the Empress Hotel where the bride's mother received in a navy sheer dress with white figuring and white accessories. The groom's mother also received, wearing grey crepe with navy accessories. Each wore a corsage of red roses.

Later the bride and groom left for a trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo. For travelling, the bride wore a grey jersey dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Garvey will live at 82 Sophia St.

Machinist Turns Dressmaker At Wife's Challenge

PORTLAND, Me., July 2 (AP)—A pipe-smoking, golf playing tractor-parts handler has a new hobby—dressmaking.

Six months ago Murray A. Howard's attractive wife, Virginia, said it couldn't be done by a man. Since then the 27-year-old former navy machinist's mate had made her: A cotton percale house dress, a pink taffeta afternoon dress, and a lightweight rayon cord skirt.

"I'm not a seamstress," said Howard indignantly as he pieced a matching jacket for the skirt.

He doesn't use a pattern. He's a "modiste," draping the cloth on his wife, rough-cutting the material and using pins liberally.

What started him sewing? It was Mrs. Howard's challenge when he remarked that dressmaking was easy.

Doesn't Want $100,000 Legacy

LONDON, July 2 (Reuters).—Lawyers are waiting to hand over £20,000 ($100,000) to 69-year-old Alice Davies of London. But Miss Davies does not want the money.

A notice from a legal firm in New York appeared in a newspaper here some months ago calling for next-of-kin of Miss Ethel Davies who died at 91, leaving $200,000.

The deceased was the aunt of Alice Davies. Friends have tried to persuade her to claim her share, but she has refused.

Her reason: "I'm too old to worry about claiming the money, and I'm happy as I am. America is a long way and there would probably be a lot of trouble involved in getting the money."

Miss Davies for 40 years has been a nursemaid to London families.

"It's a fine life and I don't want to change it," she said.

Gummer-Huycke

The marriage of Doris Lilian, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Huycke of Morganston to William Owen, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gummer of Warkworth was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. J. E. Griffith. The wedding march was played by Jack Peterson.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white brocaded organdy fashioned with fitted bodice, nylon yoke with portrait neckline and long sleeves. Her full skirt had a bustle back and bow. She wore a full length embroidered veil and carried a bouquet of Bettertime roses.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. John Fitchett, gowned in baby blue net and Miss Zella Gummer, sister of the groom wearing pink satin. The matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Glenn Peterson wearing blue sheer. All carried pink carnations and wore matching headdresses.

Little Dianne Gummer, niece of the groom, was flower girl and was dressed in pink and white organdy and carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

The groom was attended by his brother, Melford Gummer. During the signing of the register Miss Lorna Darling sang "Because."

The bride's mother, wearing a grey flowered crepe with black accessories received the guests with the groom's mother wearing pink and black crepe with black accessories. Both wore corsages of rainbow sweet peas.

A dainty lunch was served by friends of the bride, Misses Leona Reid, Arlone Cain, Katie Moore, Eunice Turney and Mabel Bradley.

For travelling the bride chose a navy gabardine suit and hat, wine shoes and gloves. They will live in Peterborough.

Bride Widely Honored

A host of friends have feted Miss Blanche Elmhirst in honor of her marriage to Mr. Robert Jackson which took place today in the St. Andrew's United Church at Westwood. A cup and saucer shower was given by Mrs. Jack Thirnbeck and Mrs. Stewart Fife at the latter's home in Otonabee. Office girls at Canada Packers met at Mrs. Jean Cuthbert's summer cottage at Lake Chemong and presented blankets and pillow cases to the bride-elect. Mrs. Jack McDonald was hostess for a miscellaneous shower. Mrs. Eric Mason, Misses Kay and Eleanor Cameron of Peterborough entertained at the home of their mother, Mrs. R. Y. Cameron, Indian River, a shower of articles for the kitchen and pantry was given. Mrs. Charles Elmhirst, Indian River, entertained for the bride and groom and they were showered with miscellaneous gifts.

EXPERT'S CLINIC DOES WONDERS FOR THE HARD-OF-HEARING!

PETERBOROUGH, May 30.—Having seen the Free Hearing Clinics advertised . . . we decided to interview the hearing specialist conducting these tests.

Mr. H. Ellis' reply to our opening remark, "How's business?" . . . was quite unexpected. In fact, he revealed our ignorance of the remarkable service Acousticon renders without charge or obligation to the heard-of-hearing.

"Like many others, I'm afraid you have the wrong impression of us. We are not salesmen . . and, don't pretend to be. We are hearing specialists, primarily interested in doing everything humanly possible to help those with a hearing loss regain a rich, active, normal life.

"The modern Acousticon makes this possible, yes . . . but, it's important that people realize the need of a specialist to ensure the correct fitting. That's the reason for our clinics . . . we want to see those people who now wear a hearing aid, regardless of make . . . as much as we do those who need one.

"You see, there are many different causes of deafness . . and, each requires a different hearing aid fitting. Because of an efficient 'speech-hearing' analysis, I can ensure your obtaining the one fitting that will return your hearing as close as possible to normal. Our main objective is to have you benefit from our experience, knowledge, and the sympathetic understanding we give to each individual hearing problem.

"Examine for yourself these new Constellations . . . notice that there are 36 different models. Acousticon engineers and scientists spent seven years and over a half-million dollars to achieve 'Balanced Hearing' . . . a factor which is so vital to your health and happiness.

"Then too, there's our new 'Invisible Hearing' which allows you to hear the way people with no impairment do . . . in a way that's so completely unnoticeable that even your closest friend can't spot it."

We certainly urge you to spend a few minutes with Mr. Ellis and, our hat's off to Acousticon who provide this nation-wide service to help the hard-of-hearing come out of their world of silence.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Old Age Brings Freedom Teen Troubles Forgotten

THE OTHER DAY a woman of 70 astonished a group of her friends by saying:

"You don't know how I am enjoying my age. I am literally having the time of my life."

To the exclamations of amazement and disbelief that greeted this statement, she replied: "Oh, I know you think this can't be true, because the one thing we women fear most is age, and we use up most of our strength and energy in fighting it off, but when it finally comes we discover that it is a time of peace and quiet happiness such as we have never enjoyed before. It is like arriving at the end of a long, hard journey. It is like sitting down in the twilight after the stress and rush of the day's work is over and folding your hands and having time to think and philosophize and get a perspective on things and trying to find out what they were all about.

Dorothy Dix

"We are so full of fears when we are young and so worried about little things. I can remember how, when I was a young girl, I used to keep myself in a state of chronic nervous prostration almost over my anxiety over having dates, only we called them beaux then, and over whether I would be asked to every party as if I'd have plenty of cut-ins at the dances and if my frocks would be as pretty as the other girls' and if I missed getting to go to a ball I went down into the seventh hell of despair and felt that there was no use in trying to live on in a world that was so filled with disappointments.

"But I am immune from all of that suffering now, because life has taught me that most of the things I was afraid of happening never happened at all, and if they did happen, they weren't half so bad as I thought they were going to be and that if I can't do the one particular thing I want to do, there is something else just as amusing and entertaining that I can do. Age has virtually no disappointments, and that alone would make it worth the price.

Worry, Suspicion Take Toll

"Then I remember that as a young married woman I lived in perpetual dread of losing my husband's love. The poor dear was as domestic as the house cat, but that didn't keep me from having palpitation of the heart over wondering if I still thrilled him if he thought I was the ONLY woman nor did it keep me from getting green-eyed over every pretty girl he enjoyed dancing with or with whom he got into a really animated conversation at a dinner. Believe me, my dear, no woman ever gets any real happiness out of being married until she has been married to a man so long she knows she can lose him or else she has got to the place where she doesn't care whether she does lose him or not. And that is why old wives never have that harried look in their eyes that young wives have.

"Then age is the great emancipator. Only the old are free. When you are young you are bound by a million conventions and policies and social necessities and restrictions. You have to run with the herd and do the things that is expedient to do and generally keep up with the procession, but when you are old you can snap your fingers in Mrs. Grundy's face and do exactly as you please.

"You dress as you choose, and if you want to wear red flannel underwear and flat-heeled shoes, it is nobody's business. If you are a frump when you are old, you are merely individual, and you can get a reputation of being a smart dresser on a tenth of the money it costs a young woman, because everybody notices it when an old woman wears Paris frocks and hats that don't look as if they belong to the 1920 era.

"And blessed be Allah for all his mercies to us, when you are old and don't have to follow all the new fads and take up with the new theories and change your politics and religion and try to improve yourself for fear you will be thought a back number. Because you already are a back number and that gives you the privilege of indulging your tastes and sticking to your old carved mahogany and having pictures on your walls and listening to the old operas instead of having to go modernistic and jazzy and sexy.

And because you have already read the improving books and seen the uplifting plays you are free to go to musical comedies and like mystery stories.

"And, above all, when you are old you don't have to go places that bore you nor endure the people who get on your nerves. Youth has to keep in the running and cultivate those who may advance its fortunes, but when you are old you have no ax to grind, so you can just consult your own tastes and inclinations about where you go and gather about you only the people who are congenial and entertaining.

"But the chief value of age is that it is the most perfect alibi in the world and excuses you for everything you want to do or don't want to do. Especially for a woman. For when a woman is old enough to do anything without criticism if she wants to do it, but if she doesn't want to do, she is too old to do it. I, for instance, am old enough to go around the world alone, but I am too old to be bothered taking care of my grandchildren.

"Believe me, age is such a graft, it always surprises me that women don't get in on it earlier in life, if you get what I mean."

British Fashion Use Canadian Fur For Export Show

By MURIEL NARRAWAY, Canadian Press Staff Writer.

LONDON, July 2—(CP)—Canadian ermine, squirrel and ranch mink made an enticing contribution to the fur fashions shown during Britain's Fashion Fortnight—the export drive show sponsored by the clothing manufacturers and the Board of Trade.

A jacket in Canadian squirrel had a neat waist, long couched peplum with back pleating, cavalier collar and big sleves caught in a long tight wristband.

A loose, ripple-back coat with pointed shawl collar and wide-cuffed sleeves was in dyed Canadian ermine.

Canadian ranch mink made a loose, wide coat with a three-ripple back, cape collar and interlacing cuffs on a wide sleeve.

Black tulip was the shade of the sheeny, blue-black Canadian squirrel hip-length jacket with cuffed back, cape collar and infold reverses to the hem, dolman sleeve and tight cuff.

A sun-ray cape jacket of Canadian ermine could tie in front as a fitted jacket or hang loose with cape-sleeve panel. Ermine was used again in a straight, loose coat with wide cuffed sleeves and the deep, yoke-shawl collar of the '20s.

A dyed Canadian squirrel hip-length jacket with shawl collar had a sunray back and sleeves giving a rippling bat-wing effect.

Match Fox, Lame

A natural blue fox three-quarter length cape was worked in alternate panels of fox and a dull gold lame.

In early '20s style was the coney evening coat with high stand collar, flaring three-quarter length skirt and single diamante catch buckle at the waist. Sleeves were leg-of-mutton with wide high shoulder line.

Natural white coney with black markings made a flared, button-front housecoat with gold threaded black satin pockets and revers.

Bead-embroidered satin or grosgrain was used for shoulder yokes, panels, or collars in evening capes and short coats. Kimona sleeves were used in a fitted black tulip Canadian squirrel coat with matching muff.

Civet cat, snow leopard and ocelot supplied showier coats while phantom beaver and beaver lamb were popular for moderately-priced garments. Moleskin was the fur most noted for dyeing—in dark navy, purple and blue-black shades.

Russian ermine, Siberian squirrel, mink, embros, and Indian lamb, American broadtail, South American skunk, pony and sealskin were other furs used. But the nearest thing to chinchilla was the natural chinchilla coney cape-coatee with its fan-shaped three-quarter sleeves.

Canadian Novel Adapted To Become Play

By PAT USSHER
Canadian Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, July 2 (CP). — "Earth and High Heaven," the successful novel by Canadian author Gwethalyn Graham, is being turned into a play by John Patrick, author of "The Hasty Heart."

The adaptation of this story in a Montreal district setting is being sponsored by Russell Lewis and Howard Young. They are considering trying to engage Margaret Sullavan for the leading role. The script is due to be in the hands of the producers by the end of August but apparently no production date has been set.

Raymond Massey, Toronto-born actor, is mulling over a bid to appear in London in "Billy Budd," an adaptation of the Herman Melville novel. Massey said the other day he hasn't made up his mind about accepting the part. Jack Hylton and Jack Wildberg are producing the play, in which Charles Nolte will play the title role.

Astute Business Man

Harold Lloyd, the man with the tortoise-shell glasses who delighted millions with his film comedies in the 20s and early 30s, is back on Broadway. He is supervising the return engagements of many of his pictures. Lloyd says he wants to go into movie production again next year. After studying the reaction of today's teen-agers to one of his old pictures, "Movie Crazy," he said he was happy at the laughter it evoked. The film was billed as "A comedy that made your father and mother laugh." The comedian says Harold Lloyd, Jr., is following in his footsteps and may appear in his next picture.

Noel Coward's new comedy, "South Sea Bubble," will not be seen on Broadway next Autumn after all. Producer Richard Aldrich said the other day that Coward and Gertrude Lawrence, who was to have the female lead, concluded it would be better if the play were produced first in London in 1950. Aldrich in private life is the husband of Miss Lawrence.

Mother Entertains At Trousseau Tea

Mrs. Stephen Elmhirst, Indian River, entertained at a trousseau tea Wednesday evening for her daughter, Miss Blanche Elmhirst, whose marriage to Mr. Robert Jackson takes place today. Mrs. George F. Jackson of Peterborough assisted to receive. Mrs. Jack Stewart of Norwood, aunt of the bride, was at the door. Miss Mary Elmhirst showed the gifts and Miss Kay Cameron displayed the trousseau.

Tea was poured by Mrs. C. S. Clarke, sister of the groom, and Mrs. F. Patterson, Mrs. C. B. Elmhirst and Mrs. A. R. McGee, all aunts of the bride Serving were Mrs. Hugh Manley, Mrs. Eric Mason, Mrs. M. Shortt and Miss Madeline Manley.

150 Attend Tea Of Millbrook WA

The Women's Association of St. Andrew's United Church, Millbrook, held an afternoon tea in the Sunday School room Wednesday. The room was tastefully decorated with baskets of roses, delphiniums, peonies, and hydrangea. The hostess table was covered with a lovely hand-made lace cloth. The centrepiece was a crystal bowl filled with red roses, surrounded by four white candles in crystal holders. Mrs. George McQuade and Mrs. P. I. Bentley poured tea from the silver tea service.

The 150 guests who attended were served by the following hostesses: Mrs. H. Argue, Mrs. W. Kennedy, Mrs. H. D. Bigelow, Mrs. A. Fallis, Mrs. W. Armstrong, Mrs. J. McKnight, Mrs. E. Fallis, Mrs. Barringer, Mrs. Aubrey Fallis, Mrs. C. Ball, Mrs. M. Ball, Mrs. Stuart, Mrs. Ridge, Mrs. P. Stinson, Mrs. B. E. Ingham, Mrs. Fred Winslow, Mrs. B. B. Dawson, Miss Josie Sutton, Mrs. L. Winslow, and Mrs. Edmunds.

President, Mrs. A. Payne and Mrs. W. E. Ball received the guests and they were placed by Mrs. F. Smith, Mrs. D. Lunn, Mrs. also assisted in the serving.

J. Roland and Mrs. I. Hatherly

During the social hour Mrs. G. A. Spicer sang "Land of Long sor sang "In The Garden of To-Ago" and Mrs. Lawrence Windmorrow." The guests also enjoyed two recitations given by Miss Helen Ingham.

Search Pearls By Airplane

By LESLIE BRODIE
Canadian Press Correspondent.

DARWIN, Australia, July 2 — (CP): — Eric McIlree, a former Royal Australian Air Force pilot of Sydney, is making plans to become the world's first "flying pearler."

McIlree bought two Walrus amphibian planes from the Australian government to fly out over the Indian Ocean in an effort to discover the rich pearl beds known to exist off the north-west coast of Australia.

He will operate from here down the coast to Broome, the famous pearling station on the West Australian coast. His crew will watch for clumps of dugong grass on the sea bed which usually indicate the presence of pearls.

Gasoline and food dumps are being made along the coast so that the aircraft may refuel and head for the open sea without returning to base.

The planes will alight on the sea near dungong grass patches and expert divers will make preliminary search of the area. If pearls are found a radio message will bring waiting luggers with their full equipment to the spot.

Japanese Hold Secret

In the past, the Japanese did most of the deep-sea pearling off the Australian coast. They took the secrets of their pearling beds back to Japan with them when war broke out. The Australian government has been trying to obtain the location of their richer beds, but so far they have not been successful.

Most of the better known beds were practically stripped out by 1939, but the war years gave them time to grow again.

Some Australian luggers are at sea again with divers combing the old beds with considerable success. The industry's main trouble is the absence of good divers.

The Japanese were the only divers who could go down in the deep waters and the Federal government refuses to allow them to return.

Immigration Minister Arthur A. Calwell stated he was prepared to see the industry die out rather than re-admit Japanese divers to Australia.

The government, however, knows the industry to be a great potential dollar earner, and is doing everything possable to boost it.

School Teachers Answer Critics

BOURNEMOUTH, England, July 2 —(CP)—English schoolmasters are taking strong exception to magistrates and business men who accuse them of turning out delinquent illiterates.

Harry Meigh, London school principal and president of the National Association of Schoolmasters, used government figures to spike the guns of modern education's critics.

Addressing the association's annual conference, he said Home Office figures showed that 98% of school children were free from any imputation of delinquency. War Office records showed that 98% of the men called up for National Service did not require special educational treatment as illiterates.

Deplores Slum Schools.

He charged that "conditions in many schools as regards to sanitation, lighting and heating are deplorable."

"How could anything but the perpetuation of slum mentality be expected from the child from the slum home who spends his life in the slum school? Unless drastic action is taken there is little hope that the supply of spivs and drones will fail."

There was no substitute for the three Rs taught under the proper conditions — fancy theories notwithstanding. Teachers should not shrink from corporal punishment until satisfied that their pupils had learned to control themselves.

SLAUGHTER 'HOPPERS

WINNIPEG (CP).—Manitoba's war against grasshoppers, involving 25 communities, has been successful in its first stages. Casualties were reported by Agriculture Department officials to be as high as 100 a square foot in the heavily-sprayed areas.

6—In Memoriams

AGNEW—In loving memory of my aunt, who passed away one year ago today, July 2nd, 1948.
From our happy home and circle,
God has taken one we loved,
She is borne away from sin and sorrow
To a nobler rest above.
No one knows how much we miss her
None but aching hearts can tell.
Lost on earth but found in heaven,
Jesus doeth all things well.
—Lovingly remembered by her niece, Mrs. J. Balfour and family.

BATHGATE—In loving memory of Mrs. George Bathgate, who passed away July 2, 1941.
Calm and peaceful she is sleeping,
Sweetest rest that follows pain,
We who loved her sadly miss her
But trust in God to meet again.
—Remembered by Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Bathgate and Bobby.

CAMPBELL — Loving thoughts of Gertie who passed away on July 3rd, 1947.
May the sunshine she missed on life's journey, be found in God's haven of rest.
—Freda.

7—Cards of Thanks

Red Wings Win 6-0 Shutout Over Orioles

By Canadian Press

Cloyd Boyer, who was a standout in the Texas League in 1948, is moving into the ranks of the International League's ace pitchers.

The freshman righthander of Rochester Red Wings who opened the season with the parent St. Louis Cardinals, has won seven out of his last eight decisions after losing three straight games.

Boyer came up with his first shutout Friday night, pitching the red hot Wings to a brilliant three-hit 6-0 victory over Baltimore Orioles. The victory was Boyer's eighth as against four setbacks and the Red Wings' seventh straight.

The triumph enabled the fifth-place Wings to pull to within a game of the fourth-place Jersey City Giants who dropped a Dominion Day doubleheader to Toronto Maple Leafs.

Bubber Church pitched the Leafs to a 3-0 five-hit triumph in the opener and the Leafs grabbed the scheduled seven-inning nightcap, 3-2 in nine innings.

Oscar Judd, who relieved Lou Posshel in the sixth, scored the winning run in the second game, racing home from second on Ed Sanicki's long single.

The second place Montreal Royals celebrated Dominion Day by taking both ends of a twin bill from the last-place Newark Bears 10-2 and 6-3.

Dan Bankhead scattered nine Newark hits in hanging up his eighth victory in the first game.

Clyde King hung up his tenth victory as against only one loss in the finale.

The Royals rapped out nine hits with Bob Morgan and Sam Jethroe contributing home runs.

Buffalo's league leading Bisons downed Syracuse Chiefs 9-6. Workhorse Ernie Silverman opened for Buffalo and received credit for his tenth victory with relief ace Bob Hooper finishing up.

Oid Engine

of their heads. The only drawing they had to go by was in a book called "Build a Boat"; they used it for the angle of the prow, and then modified it to suit their own needs.

The boat was built in an upside down position until they had done enough on it that they could turn it over and work on it right side up. There is so little room in the shack that you have to squeeze by the stern to get in the door. At the bow, there are about 12 square feet of space.

Entirely Own Work

Everything in the boat was done by the two of them alone. They bought the shaft and propeller and installed them, bought the steering gear and installed it. The engine has a marine transmission on it, with three gears, forward, neutral and reverse. They figure that the engine rates about 30 horsepower, and have hopes that it will do 30 miles per hour.

A man who has built boats for some years told them in January that they wouldn't have it done until January, 1950, if they had luck. They themselves hoped for July of this year. Now that they have confounded one expert, they hope to fool the others who say they won't get more than 12 miles per hour out of the engine.

Sink or Float?

Joe confessed that they haven't any idea whether the craft will sink or float, but they are going to try it today at Chemong. All that remains to be done is to build a long racy cabin over the top of it, and "a few more miles of seam-filling." They plan to add the cabin at Chemong, for the simple reason that there just isn't room in the garage.

Total cost of the cruiser to date excluding labor, is around $500. They estimate that if they had had to buy the motor and transmission, it would have cost them another $600. The boat at present weighs approximately 1,500 lbs.

Launch It Today

A friend of theirs, a boatbuilder, has agreed to take it out for them to Chemong Saturday morning. They plan to launch it at Long's cottage on the Ennismore side, ¼ mile north of the causeway, and to build a boathouse this summer.

The "Yawana," named after a boat in a cartoon in a national magazine, will be christened with water. Joe says that they couldn't afford even a bottle of beer to smash against her bow, let alone champagne.

This boat, built by two fellows who had never built anything of its kind before, with its gleaming white hull, is enough to brighten the eye of the deadest landlubber. And it is a credit to two chaps who, though very modest about it all, are still very proud of it.

OTTAWA DIESEL SHUNTER

Canadian National Railways put into operation this week a diesel engine for shunting in the company's yards in Ottawa. Incidentally, this improvement was mentioned as a practical step toward the elimination of smoke nuisance.

Only Solution Said To Cut U.K. Spending

LONDON, July 2 (Reuters)—It seems increasingly obvious that the real issues to be discussed at the conference of Commonwealth Finance Ministers this month will be sterling releases and British budgetary retrenchment rather than direct dollar questions.

There is scope in Britain and other Commonwealth countries for further efforts to earn and save dollars. But they all have been trying to do so for at least two years.

It has ben the experience of all that mere cutting of dollar imports in itself is a sterile policy which aggravates rather than cures. It merely aggravates internal inflation.

Some continental economists feel the situation reuqires not fewer dollar goods but more of them, simply because they are the cheaper.

It appeared to observers today that some Commonwealth finance ministers, supported by a great body of unofficial British and continental informed opinion, might press the argument that the only solution is a cut in government spending.

There were reports today that Britain's loss of gold and dollars during the quarter just ended would prove to be nearer £400,000,000 ($400,000,000) than £70,000,000.

A NEW SET OF TEETH and patches of color in his grey hair are causing doctors here to wonder if maybe 80-year-old Samuel Taylor has a fountain of youth in the recipe for his grandmother's elixir. Sam, of Isleworth, London, England, was at first reluctant to talk about all the ingredients of grandma's brew. He revealed it included stinging nettles, dandelions, fresh green shoots, Australian honey and yeast plus "a few more things I can't tell you about, because grandma said certain ingredients must not be revealed outside the family." But Sam finally broke down and admitted the missing ingredients were elderberry blossoms (or berries in autumn) and red clover blossoms. Here Sam pours himself a draft of the potion before taking one of his daily long walks.

Murdered At Party

EDMONTON, July 2 (CP) — With one man already charged with murder, police today sought another believed involved in the death of a 60-year-old warehouse worker whose body was found in a shallow grave in suburban West Jasper Thursday night. Police said Thomas Lee has been charged with the murder of William M. Mackay who was killed and robbed of $170 following a drinking party at Lee's suburban home Thursday. His body was dug from Lee's garden.

Rothschild Dies

PARIS, July 2 (AP)—Baron Edouard de Rothschild, 81, member of the noted international banking family, died Thursday at his home. After the capitulation of France in 1940, Baron Rothschild left France with his wife and daughter. They reached New York by plane with more than $1,000,000 in jewels and spent the war years there.

TORONTO HOGS

TORONTO, July 2 — (CP) — Hog prices at Stratford today were: Grade A, $30.85 from farmers and $31 from truckers.

Other markets unavailable.

Visitor Comments On Lack Of Airport

Joseph Killoran of Drummondville, P. Que., told the Examiner today it seemed strange that a city of the industrial enterprise of Peterborough should fail to realize the importance of a commercial airport.

"The city fathers must be very conservative," said Mr. Killoran, who made the trip by plane. "May be they overlook the fact that thousands of people are consulting aerial transport maps these days, particularly people of the United States who are increasing their air travel every year. I looked up the folders expecting to find that a place the size of Peterborough provided a place to land, but it was a conspicuous omission."

Mr. Killoran has come to Lakefield to visit his brother, Mr. Walter Killoran.

4 Held After Brawl

TORONTO, July 2 — (CP) — Four young men were in police cells Friday night without bail after an hour-long street battle which was finally quelled with the arrival of six police cruisers. The four were involved in a brawl with an undetermined number of others outside a restaurant and are charged with creating a disturbance and obstructing police.

Three Men Pass Medical Council

Three Peterborough and district men passed Medical Council of Canada examinations in Kingston and London, it was announced Friday in Ottawa. The examinations were held at various medical schools last May.

Warren Gamble wrote his examinations at the medical school of the University of Western Ontario in London, where he just completed his course.

William C. Wedlock, also of Peterborough, and Herbert G. Parkin of Norwood tried the examinations in Queen's University in Kingston.

Among the 495 successful doctors across the dominion were a few displaced persons, British doctors taking up residence in Canada and a few from the United States.

All those who passed will be given diplomas which will allow them to obtain a licence to take up practice in any province in Canada.

Given Observer Role

GENEVA, July 2 (AP)—Germany was granted modified observer status Friday by the International Labor Organization. The governing body of the ILO approved a British resolution authorizing German observers to take part in those meetings and activities "which are of interest and concern to Germany."

Hold Financial Talks

TEL AVIV, July 2 (Reuters)—Anglo-Israeli financial talks opened here Friday with a 45-minute inaugural session. In short formal speeches Moshe Sharret, Israeli Foreign Minister and Sir Alexander Knox Helm, British Minister to Israel, expressed their hope for a successful outcome of the conference.

MAPLE LEAVES SEARED

Maple trees on Park St., north of Wolfe St., appear to be turning a rusty yellow in most of their leafage as if stricken by some blight. The color is approaching the autumn shade of late September.

STUDENTS' THANKS

Mr. Arnold Olmstead's pupils at Confederation School wrote their own letter to the Utilities Commission thanking them for the opportunity of visiting the filtration plant, and complimenting them on the courtesy of the staff.

WAR ON DOGS

A careless canine in Port Hope has all free-running dogs in the dog house, so to speak. This uninhibited pooch made the mistake of biting Constable Lloyd Coughlin on the wrist, with the result that Chief C. W. Graham has announced open warfare on dogs running at large in that town. The Chief points out that police have the authority to shoot unlicensed pets.

DRIVES WITHOUT LICENCE

Minor damage was caused to cars driven by Percy Barton, 61 Hunter St., and Lawrence Legere 278 Brock St., Friday afternoon as a result of a collision at George and King Sts. Barton's vehicle had both left fenders and the running board damaged. The car driven by Legere was owned by Fred Russell, 278 Brock St., a passenger at the time. Police report that Legere did not have a driver's licence.

VIGILANTES ON THE JOB

The Utilities Commission now has 1,000 unofficial inspectors, as remarked the other day by R. L. Dobbon, in a reference to the telephone complaints about customers who flout the restriction on the use of water for lawns and gardens. The Utilities telephone confirms that remark. The law-abiding neighbors expect that this temporary prohibition is to apply impartially—to all domestic taps in the city.

FLORAL NOTE

The climbing roses are having their hour of full bloom. In fact they have been brightening the local scene for weeks. It used to be that Dorothy Perkins had the estate all to herself, but newer varieties have been appearing around houses that follow the horticultural ideal. Blaze and New Dawn are two of them, and they are probably as hardy as the tough-fibered Perkins when the snow is on the ground.

These, unless we are much mistaken, were the very terms, in which the Chronicle itself was heralded to the world, either on its first appearance or when, about 18 months ago, it rose "like a Phoenix from its ashes", after a conflagration of the Press and Types caused, as the then editor declared, by some unknown incendiary, but which we rather imagined to have been the result of spontaneous combustion.

The name of the Editor of the forthcoming Liberal Organ does not appear in the Prospectus, but the Printer and Proprietor is the same, who superintended the typographical department of the deceased Chronicle. We sincerely wish for it all the success, of which it may be found deserving.

Confiscate Property

MUNICH, Germany, July 2 (AP)—A German denatzification court ruled Friday that all property left by Eva Braun should be confiscated to aid victims of German persecution. The blonde, who was reported to have married Hitler a few hours before both committed suicide, left a bank account of 35,000 marks (about $10,500) and a mansion in Munich.

Two Boys Drowned

MONTREAL, July 2 (CP) — Two boys were drowned in four feet of water Friday after slipping past police guards to go swimming in the treacherous St. Lawrence River currents on the south side of St. Helen's Island. Police identified one of the victims as Edgar Racette, 13, while morgue authorities said the other was not immediately identified.

Obituaries

MRS. STEWART BROWN

Mrs. Stewart Brown died Saturday in her 92nd year at her home near Nassau.

The former Mary Jane Stewart, she was born in Haldimand township, the daughter of the late John Stewart and Mary Willis. Her husband predeceased her in 1936.

She had been a resident of the district 63 years. Mrs. Brown is survived by a daughter, Helen, at home; two sons Charles and Allen, Peterborough; and two brothers Willis, Tyrone, and Ben, Haldimand township.

The funeral will be held at her late home Monday at 3.30 p.m., Rev. Dr. Bruce Gordon, Trinity United Church, officiating. Interment will be in Little Lake cemetery.

RICHARD HENRY NESBITT

Richard Henry Nesbitt, 89, of 581 Walnut St., died suddenly at his home Friday.

Mr. Nesbitt was born near Ballieboro and has been a resident of the district all his life. His parents were the late Richard Nesbitt and Isabella Bowels.

He is survived by his widow, the former Sarah Jane Ferguson; and three daughters, Mrs. Norman Millis[illegible] on Alta.; Miss Mary [illegible] and Mrs. Stuart Hall, Peterborough.

Mr. Nesbitt was a member of St. John's Anglican Church. The funeral will be held from the funeral home of A. Comstock and Sons, Monday at 2 p.m. Archdeacon C. W. Balfour will conduct the service. Interment will be in Little Lake Cemetery.

MARTHA JANE PUFFER

After a long illness Martha Jane Puffer, 88, of 38 Stewart St., died in hospital Friday. She had been a resident of Peterborough for the past 20 years.

The former Martha Jane Fergusan, she was born in Northumberland County, daughter of the late Daniel Ferguson and Jane Tweed. She was educated there and resided there until coming to Peterborough 20 years ago.

She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Frederick Norman (Luella) of Peterborough, and two granddaughters—Dorothy Norman of Peterborough and Margaret Norman of Toronto. Her husband, the late Robert Puffer, died previously.

Mrs. Puffer was a member of the Free Methodist Church.

Funeral will be from the Kaye Funeral Home, Monday at 2 p.m., the Rev. W. B. Greenwood of the Full Gospel Pentecostal Church officiating. Burial will be in Little Lake Cemetery.

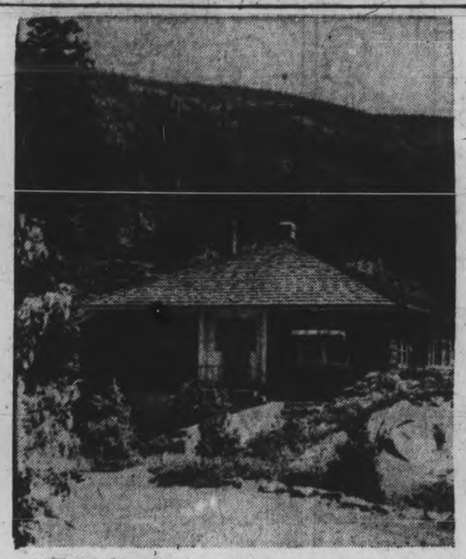
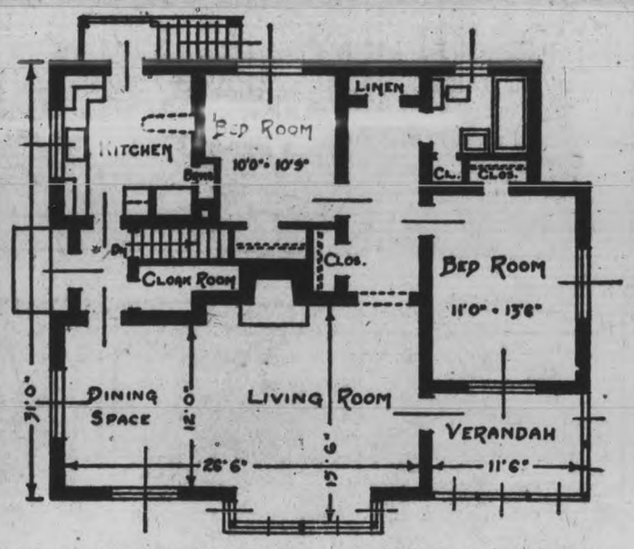
PRACTICAL PLANS FOR THE HOME YOU WANT AND HOW TO PLAN IT





HOUSE NO. 84—In the Brakenhurst section of West Vancouver, British Columbia, Mr. and Hrs. E. W. Templeton decided to build their dream cottage. They chose a rocky site on the mountain slope overlooking a great sweep of water, and the City of Vancouver in the distance. Clearly visible is the famous Lion's Gate Suspension Bridge, which provides quick access to the city. House contains five rooms, and large glassed-in verandah. Exterior walls are of stained cedar siding. For further information, write Home Building in Canada, 372 Bay St., Toronto.

Efficiency In Chimneys Guided By Correct Design

A chimney is an integral piece of masonry from its foundation to top and may contain one or more flues and fireplaces. A flue is a space or passage in a chimney provided for the purpose of conducting smoke, fumes of gases to the outside air. The fireplace is the opening built into a chimney to contain an open fire and so designed that it will radiate heat into the room and deliver all smoke into its flue.

The effective operation or draft of a flue is influenced by its size, height and freedom from leaks and obstructions. The minimum height of a chimney is established by its relation to nearby structures and, therefore, the top of a chimney should extend at least 3 feet above an adjoining flat roof or parapet wall and at least 2 feet above the highest ridge of a pitched roof, unless otherwise required by the local building ordinance. This is to prevent down drafts resulting from air currents curling over walls and roofs. Nearby trees will produce the same results and consideration should be given to this condition.

Chimneys located entirely inside a building are more efficient because they do not become chilled by outside air but retain their heat and consequently give a better draft. For this reason, chimneys built in exterior walls may be made more efficient by increasing the thickness of the blue walls to retain as much heat as possible. No change in size or shape of the chimney should be made within 6 inches above or below the roof construction where they intersect.

Flues should be built as straight as possible, since offsets increase friction, collect soot and may create a fire hazard. If offsets are necessary, their slope should not exceed an angle of 30 degrees from the vertical and the full area of the flue should be maintained throughout. For the safest and most efficient operation, flues should be smooth and contain as few joints as possible. Fireclay flue lining is excellent and is required in many building ordinances. It produces smooth inside surfaces, few joints, is highly fire resistive and simplifies the construction of the chimney.

Not more than two flues should be built in the same chimney space and additional flues should be separated by a smoketight dividing wall of brick, 4 inches thick. When two linings are set together, their joints must be staggered at least 7 inches apart. With flue serving a heating boiler, furnace or fireplace should be separated or surrounded by at least 4 inches of brick masonry. The best chimney design provides for the separation or surrounding of every flue with 4 inches of brick, which provides more satisfactory draft, greater fire safety and increased stability of construction.

Careful consideration should be given to the size of fireplace best suited to the room in which it is located, not only from the viewpoint of its appearance but of its operation as well. If it is too small, it may function properly, but will not produce a sufficient amount of heat. If too large, a fire that would fill the combustion chamber would be entirely too hot for the room. Moreover, it would require a larger chimney and induce an abnormal infiltration of air through doors and windows to supply the needs for combusion and so waste fuel.

A room with 300 square feet of floor area is well served by a fireplace with an opening 30 inches to 36 inches wide. For larger or smaller rooms the width may be increased or decreased proportionately.

The building of a fireplace that will perform properly and satisfactorily is not a mysterious operation nor dependent upon luck, On the contrary, the essentials of correct design are but few and simple. The principal results to be achieved are:

1. Proper combustion of the fuel.
2. Delivery of all smoke and other products of combustion up the chimney.
3. Radiation of the maximum amount of heat into the room.
4. Simplicity and fire-safeness in construction.

Fireplace openings should not be too high; for the usual width of opening, the height above the hearth is seldom more than 32 inches. This dimension may be varied slightly to meet regular brick courses and joints, especially where the facing or trim is of brick.

Ol' Sol's Rays Tabbed By Meter

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., July 2 —A "suntan meter" which tells sun bathers how long they may expose themselves safely to Ol' Sol's rays is now available.

Hoyt Scott, General Electric lamp department engineer, says the meter measures the erythemal or the tanning energy of both sunlight and artificial light.

The dial on the face of the meter is calibrated in arbitrary units and a reading is translated in terms of minutes in which a slight pinking of the skin will be produced.

The meter, Scott said, consists essentially of proper correction filters, light-sensitive cells and a sensitive recording device.

He explained the cells become sources of electrical energy, activating the indicating hand on the meter, when struck by ultra-violet suntanning radiation.

The cells and filters absorb all wavelengths of light in the spectrum except those from 2,800 to 3,200 engstrom units in the tanning ultra-violet band.

Former Chorister Now Archbishop

LLANDRINDOD WELLS, Wales, July 2 (CP).—Rt. Rev John Morgan, a Welsh-speaking Welshman, who once sang in the choir in Llandaff Cathedral where he later became bishop, is the new Archbishop of Wales.

He was elected by the six diocesan bishops of Wales and representatives of clergy and laity to succeed Most Rev. D. L. Prosser, who resigned.

Dr. Morgan, 63, has been Bishop of Llandaff for 10 years and will be enthroned as archbishop in bomb-wrecked Llandaff Cathedral during the late summer.

Check These Features!

The development of Gar Wood Tempered-Aire dates back to 1927 when Gar Wood originated the oil-fired burner unit. This means that more years of experience and research have gone into the making of Tempered-Aire than any comparable heating unit on the market. The result is obvious. Today's complete, highly coordinated heating unit is not necessarily the easiest or most inexpensive to manufacture, but it does incorporate every desired quality skillfully engineered to attain the highest level of performance. Here are a few of the important features: (1) Application of the COUNTER FLOW principle . . . the most efficient means of achieving heating economy. (2) UNIT-DESIGNED oil burner and cylindrical fire bowl. (3) Economizer made of NARROW FLAT TUBES located beneath the fire-box. (4) Generous amount of HEATING SURFACES for longer life, more effective heat transfer and unusual economy of operation.

The fact that Tempered-Aire is a complete unit is of vital importance to you as a home owner. It means that EVERY STEP in the process of changing cold air into comfortable, clean warm air has been carefully engineered by experts with years of experience. Each part that goes into the making of the complete Tempered-Aire Heating Unit has been designed to perform its particular job in the most efficient manner and to function in perfect coordination with all related parts. This is your assurance of dependable, balanced heating performance, and here is an important fact to remember . . . Gar Wood was the first to design and build an integral furnace-burner unit, and today GAR WOOD BUILDS THE COMPLETE HEATING UNIT!

County Farm Notes

By HARRY THEOBALD

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS TO MEET AT NORWOOD JULY 15 — PROFESSOR R. G. KNOX ON ECONOMY OF HAY — INTERNATIONAL FARM DELEGATES REACH VANCOUVER.

On the morrow of Dominion Day, the year has passed its calendar meridan. Harvest time is near at hand, and the burden of the season comes to full weight.

June has departed in the dampness of men's sweat, trailed by disappointment and frustration of lean acres to which it denied moisture for lush meadows and for abundance in the fields of grain.

In the agricultural record of this district, June will be traced with an inverted peak of production. Crop deficiency is of obvious prospect. Even this week some farmers were still buying makeshift seed for emergent sowing. Rural philosophy accepts the leanness of the field, levelling it with the surplus of 1948, and immediately attempting to overtake the expected shortage with grains and grasses that may yet mature before the frost comes.

Grassland Day is already only a memory of June. Its accomplishment was compounded of the goodwill of a host of farmers, represented by men like Harold Cathcart and Ferd Rowland, and by the organizing committees who drew active support from many men of the city. With that combination Peterborough city and county can achieve just about anything they undertake. They are accustomed to success, although they hardly recognize that facility themselves. The Grasslanders deserve a big measure of congratulation for accomplishing this project in spite of the handicaps of an adverse season for making hay.

WITH B.C. JUNIORS

James Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Moore, Smith township, attended the Junior Farm Clubs field day at Agassiz, B.C., last Saturday. About 400 persons attended the event at the Dominion Experimental Farm. Mr. Moore is public relations officer, Canadian Council of Boys and Girls Clubs, Ottawa.

E. F. Pineau, associate chief, livestock production services, Ottawa, told the young farm people that voluntary local leadership was the only way to obtain maximum results in the boys and girls division of progressive agriculture. Such leadership is necessary to club work because of the rapid strides in the development of scientific farming. While governments might be in a position to provide paid leaders beyond the present force, the enormous sums which would be required could not be taken from the public purse.

He said, however, that those who enter local leadership obtain much personal development, become recognized in their districts, and have opportunities to carve attractive careers for themselves.

PROF. KNOX SPEAKS

"Pasture improvement and high quality hay production on a volume-per-acre basis should be the aim of all persons interested in good nutrition of livestock, particularly cattle," said Prof. R. G. Knox in the Grassland Day program this week.

"Pasture and hay occupy more than 50 per cent of the total crop acreage in Ontario which involves three million acres of arable land, 3½ million acres of rough land in pasture. In addition there are 3¾ million acres in hay, the aftermath of which furnishes pasture.

Because of the large areas available and the low cost price of land, we have been inclined down through the years to seek the line of least resistance by increasing our acreage rather than the carrying capacity per acre.

Until recently we did not concern ourselves about the relationship between soil fertility, hay and pasture mixtures and their management. Now, we consider pasture planning and management in all of its aspects as being of vital importance as related to the profitableness of enterprise.

Notwithstanding this fact, it is still safe to suggest that our live stock producers across the province are not as hay-minded as they are pasture-minded. It is to be hoped that in the near future the value of the place of hay will be appreciated still more and more by our people as we progress in the economical production of live stock, and live stock products that must be sold on a competitive market."

✦ ✦ ✦

HOG PRODUCTION

Ontario is supplying almost half of all hogs being marketed.

In all Canada marketings for the week ending June 11th were 72,959, of which Ontario supplied 33,404. In the previous week total marketings were 71,146 with Ontario supplying 31,507. Marketing for the corrseponding weeks of 1948 were 91,574 and 87,021, with Ontario supplying 36,117 and 33,898.

Total hog marketings to date for 1949 in all Canada are three quarters of a million hogs less than for the same period in 1948.

✦ ✦ ✦

WANT OUR MACHINES

The I.F.A.P. delegates to the convention at O.A.C. a month ago have completed their tour of Canada. They represent a huge market for Canadian tractors and all types of farm equipment manufactured in this country.

Surrendra Reddi of India said in Vancouver: "We would like to buy 7,000 tractors from Canada as soon as possible to produce the food our country badly needs."

R. G. Buckleton of New Zealand said his country was desperate for equipment of all kinds. "We want to spend $10 million for farm machinery, because our equipment was badly depleted by war needs."

Canadian Federation of Agriculture has been introducing the I.F.A.P. delegates to the industrial and agricultural establishment of this country, and thereby may be helping to get business for some of the branches of Canadian manufacture.

The goodwill in which the O.A.C. convention was conducted has remained with the numerous party in their trip across Canada. British, Germans, Chinese, Japanese, were among those travelling together in amity.

2-4D LEVELS MUSTARD

Wild mustard in a field of oats on the farm of Walter Brown, North Monaghan, has been snuffed out by a spray of 2-4D. A custom spraying operator fixed that weed of high nuisance rating, and Mr. Brown is an enthusiastic witness of the effectiveness of the new chemical herbicide.

Claims of the operator and also of the agricultural chemists assert that the grain crop is not injured, but will actually be benefitted from the 2-4D treatment. This method is mentioned by Mr. Brown as relayed by Frank C. Paterson as a promise to other farmers of what they may expect in getting rid of weeds by the spraying attack.

✦ ✦ ✦

NORWOOD MEETING

Holstein breeders are holding a twilight meeting at Norwood armouries July 15. Ralph Banbury, Brighton, agricultural representative in Northumberland, will be the speaker. The executive is hoping to stimulate more interest in the association by members in the eastern section of the county. Stanley Wood, secretary, is sending out announcements of this meeting, and is asking for a large attendance.

✦ ✦ ✦

A BLUE SEAL HOLSTEIN

Snowflake Alcartra Tensen, noted purebred Holstein owned by Elmhurst Bros. Birdsall's, Ontario, has added another to her string of outstanding yearly records, thus bringing her lifetime total production for six lactations to 131,025 lbs. milk containing 4,334 lbs. fat. All her records were made on twice-a-day milking and she has qualified for a blue seal certificate of longtime production as presented by the Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada.

Snowflake has three times been an honor list leader and in her first lactation as a two-year-old completed an honor list record. Her senior three-year-old 365 day record of 23,239 lbs. milk containing 814 lbs. fat still stands sixth for milk and 10th for fat for all time in Canada in the class. As a five-year-old she produced in 365 days 25534 lbs. milk containing 851 lbs. fat and as a six-year-old 28272 lbs. milk containing 916 lbs. fat. This latter record is the fourth largest for milk ever completed on twice-a-day milking in Canada. As an eight-year-old she gave 555 lbs fat from 18003 lbs. milk and as a nine-year-old 635 lbs. fat from 18838 lbs. milk. Snowflake has been classified as Very Good in selective registration.

HOLLANDER'S ADDRESS

Mr. Linthorst Homan, president of the National Federation of Dairies, and director of National Planning for Holland, was a speaker at the joint field day of Peel and Halton Holstein and Jersey Breeders June 11 at O.A.C. He attended the IFAP conference.

Chairman was Bruce Beer, formerly of Manvers, agricultural representative in Peel.

Although Holland has a dense population, no country in Europe has a larger percentage of land devoted to farming, Mr. Homan said. Two-thirds of the agricultural land is used for pasture. Traditionally Dutch cattle have been bred as dual purpose animals, but in the last generation the trend has been to differentiate into dairy and beef breeds, with dairy herds more prominent.

The average livestock man in Holland has a holding of 15 acres. On the average 247 acres will support 210 cattle. Two-thirds of the dairy products are sold through co-operatives. Cheese producers sell all their output that way.

Mr. Homan quoted the following figures for the average production of Dutch Friesians on test: junior two year olds in milk, 328 days, 7480 lbs. milk, 3.66% butter fat; three year olds in milk, 346 days, average production 9,224 lbs., average test 3.61% fat; four-year-olds in milk, 324 days, average production 10,340 lbs. milk, average test 3.59% butterfat.

Holland has been accustomed to buying her feeding stuff from countries in the dollar area. Lack of foreign exchange has forced her to reduce the level of these imports, while attempting in every way to improve her own production of feed.

Mr. Homan said Holland was over-populated, and that her most important export was men and women. During his current tour of Canada he interviewed many recent arrivals from the Netherlands, and found them well satisfied with conditions. It is hope that many other Hollanders could find a new home in Canada.

HERD FROM LIVING COW—Most unusual is the Holstein herd of Alex McKinney, Brampton, Ont., since 58 of the 60 head are descendents of Pioneer Lodge Dora Aggie (above) who is still hale and hearty at close to 16 years old. "Dora Aggie" has a ten lactation lifetime record of 184,848 lbs. milk containing 6678 lbs. fat, which is the second highest lifetime total for fat and the third highest for milk ever made in Canada on twice-a-day milking. She and her daughter Pioneer Lodge Aggie Pontiac have a combined lifetime total of 332,759 lbs. milk and 11,915 lbs. fat, far exceeding the standing of any other daughter-dam pair ever developed in the Dominion.

Qualifies For Gold Seal Certificate

"Dora Aggie" has recently completed her tenth consecutive lactation on Official Record of Performance Test with a total production of 184,848 lbs. of milk containing 6,678 lbs. fat, average test 3.62 per cent butterfat. She has thus qualified for a Gold Seal Certificate of Longtime Production presented by the Holstein-Friesian Association. All her records were made on twice-a-day milking and her lifetime total is the second highest for fat and the third highest for milk ever completed in Canada on twice-a-day milking.

At the ripe old age of 15 years, Dora Aggie is surrounded by her descendants, 58 of the 60 animals in the Pioneer Lodge herd being directly descended from her. Eight of the nine Class XX bulls that were used by Mr. McKinney to qualify for a Master Breeder award were from the Dora Aggie family. According to him, Dora Aggie has never been an exceptionally large producer, having given on her best day on test 86 lbs. of milk. However, she has been a very persistent milker and has passed this ability along to her descendants. Mr. McKinney emphasizes that she has always been carried along under the same conditions as the rest of the herd except for the past two or three years when she has had a box stall. She has, however, always gone to pasture with the rest of the herd. Noteworthy is the fact that she has never had a day's sickness in her life. Dora Aggie is a good sized cow.

DESERONTO MOB BESIEGES POLICEMEN

Missing Girl Discovered In Hamilton

Gone For Two Days Child 12, Found Staying At YWCA

TORONTO, July 5 (CP) —Delphine Wharton, 12-year-old resident of suburban Swansea who disappeared Saturday, has been found safe in Hamilton, police said today. She vanished after leaving home with $20 to buy groceries.

Police said they had received word that the girl had been found staying at the Hamilton YWCA.

Earlier today police picked up a false clue.

Police said a girl answering Delphine's description bought a dress at a midtown Bloor Street store about 5 p.m. Saturday. They said the girl paid for the dress with a $20 bill.

Search at Coboconk

Search for the girl spread to the Coboconk district today when her parents suggested she might have gone to visit friends there.

Police said the girl was described as being in good spirits when she left home but had been scolded over a family matter before going to the store.

They said recent letters to the girl, who has several "pen-pals," are being checked to ascertain whether she had been invited to visit one of them out of town.

Fraser Majority Finally 243

The election recount, a final check which must be carried out by the returning officer after a Federal election, revealed today that Gordon K. Fraser, Peterborough West Progressive Conservative candidate who was re-elected had a majority of 243 votes over Dit Clapper, the Liberal candidate. Before the check it was announced by the Examiner that Fraser's majority was 241.

The soldiers' and veterans' votes which have only recently become available, make no difference to the result of the election in Peterborough West. Clapper led with 43 votes, Fraser polled 41 and John Miles, the CCF candidate had six.

Final figures in Peterborough West riding are: Fraser 10,981, Clapper 10,738, and Miles 2,804.

The recount started in the returning officer's office above the Post Office at 3 p.m. Monday and was not finished until noon today. Mr. McClennan opened the 120 ballot boxes and checked the slips of paper in each box announcing the result with the chart on which the votes were recorded by him as they were received over the telephone on election night.

The chart published in the Examiner June 28 listing the results from each poll, was checked today with the returning officer's final record. Minor differences in the results from five polling stations were found, these being at polls 9, 17, 21, 39, 42.

Those at the recount, either taking part or watching the interests of the individual candidates were Arthur J. McClennan, returning officer; Mrs. M. G. McCartney, election clerk; Gordon K. Fraser, successful candidate; Alex. Elliott, K.C., representing Dit Clapper and John Miles.

5,000 Help Battle Fire Menacing Town

BUCHANS, Nfld., July 5 (CP) —Townsfolk in this mining centre of some 5,000 turned out en masse today to battle a fire menace that began in tinder-dry brush.

Firemen and volunteer workers were unable to check the flames at first but then a wind shift came to their rescue and averted the destruction of homes or other property.

Although the fire was still burning this afternoon it was believed immediate danger had passed and only skeleton crews maintained watch near the railway station. No injuries were reported. The blaze began Monday.

Hold Toronto Man For Damaging Church

Upsets Candles, Fires Altar Cloth, Then Breaks Piece Off Statue

TORONTO, July 5 (CP) — Police today arrested a 35-year-old Toronto man on a charge of maliciously damaging St. Helen's Roman Catholic Church in the west end of the city.

Police said the man, arrested in a nearby beverage room, upset candles, set fire to the altar cloth and smashed a window when he was approached by the Rev. Frank Voorweck.

Father Voorweck said he thought the man was a workman doing renovations. He said the man swung at him, knocking over the candles and then tried to pick up a fan weighing 150 pounds to throw at the priest.

Father Voorweck hurried to get help and call police. While he was gone vestments from a cupboard were torn up and candles were upset. A brass candle holder was thrown at a statue, knocking a piece out of it.

Persons walking by the church said they saw a waste-paper basket come through a window and the man crawl out and run down the street.

When he was arrested at the beverage room the suspect vigorously denied being in the church. Police said the suspect is a Toronto Hospital orderly.

Experts Discuss Dollar Crisis

LONDON, July 5—(CP)—Financial experts of Britain, Canada and the United States will discuss Britain's grave economic situation at talks here starting late this week, it was learned today. The talks are preliminary to the conference of Commonwealth Finance Ministers due to start at the end of next week.

Canada will be represented at these talks by Finance Minister Douglas Abbott who leaves Ottawa tonight. The Canadian cabinet minister is expected to arrive in London Thursday.

He will be assisted by Norman Robertson, secretary to the cabinet and formerly Canadian High Comissioner to Britain. Robertson is due in Britain tonight aboard the liner Queen Elizabeth.

Canada, occupying the key position among Commonwealth powers in relation to the dollar area of which she is a part, is regarded as the most important single factory on any Commonwealth attempt to alleviate the crisis caused by Britain's dwindling dollar and gold resources.

The talks will start Thursday between financial leaders of Britain and the United States, it was learned in Paris Monday. Taking part in the opening discussions will be John Snyder, United States treasury secretary; W. Averell Harriman, roving ambassador for the Marshall Plan, and Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the Exchequer.

Disclosure of the forthcoming talks came after London newspapers Monday estimated that Britain' dollar and gold reserves have been reduced to £400,000,000 ($1,600,000,000).

This figure is £100,000,000 less than what was considered a few months ago as the danger level.

Edmonton Man Buried Alive Then Murdered With Axe

EDMONTON, July 5—(CP)—The man being held for murder in the strange axe-slaying of William McKay, 50-year-old warehouse worker, was disclosed today to be a former Edmonton policeman who was discharged for "unsatisfactory" service after only 34 days on the force.

Police said that Michael Joseph Hayes, who has been charged with McKay's killing last week in a dingy converted box-car home on the city's outskirts, served as a constable here from Oct. 5 to Nov. 8, 1943. He is said to have joined the police department under the alias of Michael J. Hayes Lee.

The investigation of the slaying of McKay, believed to have been hacked to death with an axe after being buried alive in a shallow potato patch grove, was investigated further today by police as whereabouts of Hayes' pretty 23-year-old wife remained a closely-guarded R.C.M.P. secret.

An eye-witness to the killing in their box-car home, she is said to be in "protective custody." Police said the slaying followed a beer-drinking party.

Police first learned of the killing from Mrs. Hayes, who said she was held prisoner in her home for half a day before being able to evade her husband and telephone information which led to his arrest.

Held As Witness

Al (Buster)' Robbins, 40-year-old railroad worker who allegedly held Mrs. Hayes back while her husband beat McKay over the head with a length of pipe, is being held in police custody as a material witness. He will testify at McKay's preliminary hearing this Saturday.

McKay, widower and father of three children, was dragged from the shack and placed in a shallow ditch in the back yard. Police said they believed that when he struggled to rise out of the loose dirt covering him he was attacked with an axe.

"I've seen a lot of this sort of thing," commented one investigating officer, "but I have never seen a case worse than this."

Hayes, who had been unemployed lately, is slated to appear in court for preliminary hearing Saturday.

148 More Dockers Join London Strike

LONDON, July 5—(Reuters)—Another 148 London dockers ceased work today, raising the total involved in the stoppage to 8,484, with 92 ships idle and eight under-manned, the Dock Labor Board announced.

Some workers resumed duty in St. Catharines dock, but groups in other dockland areas came out this morning, the announcement said.

Union officials, seeking to persuade the men to return to work, attended a series of meetings, but in each case the talks broke up without taking any decision.

Deadlock continued after the dockers decision to maintain their refusal to unload the strikebound Canadian ships Beaverbrae and Argomont on which the dispute centres.

2 RCAF Fliers Killed At Picton

PICTON, July 5—(CP)—Two R.C.A.F. airmen were killed today when their Harvard training aircraft crashed and burst into flames three miles from nearby Mountain View airport. Names of the dead were not immediately available.

The aircraft was believed to be from the R.C.A.F. station at Trenton.

Eyewitnesses said the plane appeared to fall into a tight spin from a great height. It spun downward, hit the ground and burst into flames which immediately touched surrounding grain fields afire.

Responding to an emergency alarm, RCAF firefighters from the Mountain View field raced to the scene and quickly rounded up some 300 farmers to help them fight the flames

They no soner had the scorched field about the charred aircraft under control when they were called to fight a second fire, believed to have been caused by a flare dropped by the falling plane, in fields a mile away.

Eating through drought-dried grainlands, the second blaze spread over six acres before it was controlled. At some points, the flames approached to within a few feet of district farm houses before they were subdued.

Expect 36,000,000 People Live In Canada By 1980

OTTAWA, July 5.— (CP). — Canada isn't going to be crowded —not for a long time anyway— but if immigration continues at the present rate there should be more than 36,000,000 people here by 1980.

This estimate i based on the recently-published British Royal Commission report on population which says Canada needs 110,000 immigrants annually to double her population in 35 years.

Still a country with a relatively narrow population belt and plenty of wde iopen spaces, Canada has been welcomng immigrants at an ever-increasing pace since the Second World War ended.

Last year was the first, however, that immigration rose over the 110,000-mark mentioned in the Royal Commission report. During 1948 the total number of immigrants entering Canada was 125,414 and 43,724 were from Great Brtain.

That meant that something like 60 per cent of the immigrants came from countries outside Great Brtain and and apparently bears out the suggestion in the report that the British element in commonwealth countries such as Canada is likely to diminish.

From Jan. 1, 1945, to the end of March this year immigration was 307,247, with 146,340 or slightly more than 48 per cent coming from Great Britain.

Despite the record mmigration there's still plenty of space in Canada. Canada's population averages about 3½ persons to a square mile, and if the immigration pace continues there will still be a spacious one-seventh of a mile a person in 1980 with present population doubled.

Europe Breathes Easy As Drought Broken

LONDON, July 5 (CP)—Most of northwest Europe, breathed easier today in the wake of the first rain in weeks.

London Monday welcomed its first rain in 21 days which broke the official drought, but was hardly enough to dampen the ground. Temperatures fell sharply however, from the year's high of 82 reached at noon.

In churches throughout Britain, millions had prayed Sunday for rains as the drought caused hardships.

In the Netherlands, thunderstorms broke today over large areas bringing the first rain since June 14. Netherlands' farmers had become anxious about the drought.

Frankfurt, Germany, today had its first rainfall in 23 days. Rainfall for June in the area was 40 per cent below normal.

Tourist Industry Gives Britain $188,000,000

LONDON, July 5,—(Reuters). —Britain's tourist industry, the country's best dollar earner, brought in £47,000,000 (188,000,000) in foreign exchange last year, when 504,000 visitors came from overseas, it was announced today.

Of the total earnings, £33,000,000 represented expenditure in the United Kingdom, the British Tourist and Holidays Board said in its annual report. Fares were also included in the total figure.

Most of the tourists—332,000—were Europeans. There were also 75,000 Americans, 25,000 Canadians, 55,000 commonwealth and colonial visitors, and 17,000 from other countries.

Expenditures by the Board on tourist activities this year is estimated at £416,500 the report said. The Board will receve a government grant of £425,000.

Gets Off Easily

ROSENHEIM, Germany, July 5 (AP) — Former Lt.-Gen. Ernest Masiel Monday was convicted of Nazism for helping the Nazis force Field Marshal Erwin Rommel to commit suicide in 1944. He was handed a two-year jail term.

One Onlooker Shot In Leg During Battle

Fight Way Through To Town Hall, Wait Reinforcements

DESERONTO, Ont., July 5—(CP)—Chief Constable Albert Marks and an RCAF mess orderly were besieged and beaten by an angry mob early today in a melee which climaxed the first day of an old home week celebration.

Eyewitnesses said between 300 and 400 men, most of them from the Tyendinaga Mohawk Indian Reserve outside Deseronto, were involved in the affray in this town 18 miles east of Belleville.

The disturbance started when Chief Marks attempted to remove a drunken man from the street.

Chief Marks was taken to hospital in Belleville with head and neck injuries. AC. J. P. Theriault of the RCAF suffered leg injuries. Neither was in serious condition.

Joseph S. Maracle, Indian resident of Deseronto, was shot in the leg when the angry crowd knocked the chief to the ground with his revolver in his hand. Maracle claimed he was an innocent by-stander and threatened to "sue somebody" for his injury.

George Baptiste, another Indian resident, was held in custody after Chief Marks identified him as the man who first interfered when he was removing the intoxicated man from the street. It was not immediately known what charge would be laid.

Fight Way to Hall

When the crowd attacked Marks the service policeman went to his aid. The two men then fought a rearguard action to the town hall and barricaded themselves inside until Provincial police arrived from Kingston, Napanee and Belleville.

Police squads are patrolling the town today and order prevailed among the 1,500 residents.

An eyewitness, May Kenneth Jackson of Deseronto, gave this account of the occurrence:

"Chief Marks undertook to get an intoxicated Indian home. . . He did not arrest the man and was trying to avoid trouble by getting him away from the mob."

She said "a small, bad element from the Indian Reserve" started the trouble because of their disdain for law and order."

Chief Marks took over as police chief here four months ago after coming from Kingston last year.

18 Homes Stoned In Asbestos, Que.

ASBESTOS, Que., July 5.—(CP).—Several minor disorders were reported Monday night in this asbestos capital, strike-bound since Feb. 13, and Mayor Albert Gaudreau issued a plea for patience and understanding as a back-to-work movement progresses.

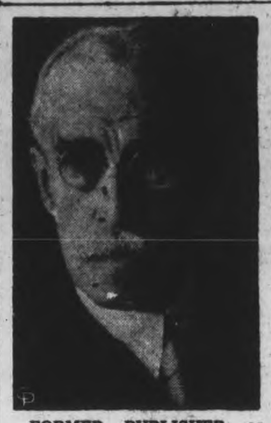
The disorders, occurring after nearing 2,000 miners had decided to end their wage strike against Canadian Johns-Manville Company, came during the week-end.

Eighteen homes, mostly of men who continued to work during the long walkout, were stoned, a number of gardens were trampled and there were a few street fights.

Predict Hay Yield 25% Of Normal Crop

TORONTO, July 5 (CP)—Haying operations now are general throughout most sections of Ontario but the yield will be only 25 to 50 per cent normal, the provincial agriculture department reported today in its weekly crop report.

Only in Northern Ontario, where considerable rain fell while the rest of the province experienced a prolonged drought, were hay and grain crops reported satisfactory. Farmers in the Cochrane South area said the yield of hay will be higher than any year during the last five years. In the Sudbury district, grains are growing well, but farmers reprted losses on low-lying lands because of flooding.



FORMER PUBLISHER of The Ottawa Journal, Philip Dansken Ross died at his home today after a long illness.

Philip D. Ross Publisher Dies In Ottawa

OTTAWA, July 5—(CP)—P. D. Ross, President of the Ottawa Journal and one of Canada's oldest working newspaper men died at his home here this morning. He was 91 years old.

Death had been expected for several days when Mr. Ross failed to rally from the latest of a series of heart attacks which had kept him inactive for months.

For more han 60 years he was President of the Journal which he bought a few months after it was started in 1886.

Last March he disposed of the paper to a group of his editorial associates but remained as President.

Mr. Ross was born in Montreal Jan. 1, 1858, and was educated at McGill University as an engineer. But after only a few months in that profession he became a newspaper reporter and remained one throughout his life.

He was an ardent golfer and a supporter of athletic activities, particularly organized hockey, golf and curling.

His parents were Philip Simpson Ross and Christina Chalmers Dansken who came to Montreal from Scotland. Mr. Ross was named Philip Dansken, for his parents, but to all his great army of friends and associates he was "P.D."

Helped Found C.P.

Mr. Ross was a promoter of the Canadian Associated Press in 1904 and one of the founders of The Canadian Press. He was a former president of the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association.

He started his newspaper career in 1879 as a $5-a-week reporter on the Montreal Star and in six months was city editor.

After short periods with the Toronto Mail and Toronto News he returned in 1885 as managing editor of the Montreal Star.

In 1886 he bought a half interest in the Ottawa Journal which had been operating only a few months. It cost him $4,000. The next year he completed the purchase with another $4,000.

Last March he turned the newspaper over to a group of journal men headed by E. Norman Smith, vice-president of the company and Mr. Ross' close associate for 32 years.

Pays Tribute

TORONTO, July 5 (CP)—Gillis Purcell, general manager of the Canadian Press, said of P. D. Ross's death:

Has $2,000,000 Fortune Chooses To Die As Beggar

PHILADELPHIA, July 5. — (AP). — Authorities disclosed Monday that a gloomy, junk-jammed house was the home of an elderly woman recluse, with a fortune at her command, who chose to live like a beggar.

Police found the body of the woman, Mrs. Catherine S. Ritter, 79, Thursday, or nearly 30 years she had lived alone in the dark, forbidding, nine - room house, subsisting on bread and milk.

An assistant fire marshal, Joseph Heffernan, and two deputy coroners said they probably were the first persons outside her family to enter the house in half a century.

The house in the once-fashionable Strawberry mansion section was stuffed with five-foot-high mounds of rubbish. In that mass of junk, police said, they expect to find a clue to the whereabouts of some $2,000,000 Mrs. Ritter is said to have hidden.

Police were called to the house by neighbors, who complained of bad odors emanating from the house. The coroner's office said Mrs. Ritter apparently had died from natural causes and had been dead several days when found.

There was no heating system. Hinged shutters kept the entire house in complete darkness.

A niece, Mrs. Lillian Kinkel, told police Mrs. Ritter was separated for many years from her husband, whom the neice described as a "gentleman's tailor."

It was at least a year since anyone had seen the recluse emerge from the building.

Predict Heat Wave To End In 24 Hours Across Southern Ontario

Estimate $50,000,000 Damage to US Crops During 43-Day Drought Across Eight of Northeastern States

Polar air flowing into southern Ontario is expected to bring relief by tonight from five weeks of hot weather. The cool air is not expected to reach as far southwest as London and Windsor, where today's maximum temperatures are forecast at 90 and 96 respectively. But elsewhere in the southern sections of the province, where drought and heat wave prevailed since late May, it is expected to shake the grip of a warm air mass that drifted in from the Gulf of Mexico.

The temperature in Toronto today is expected to reach 90 degrees before the cold air reaches that city, possibly preceded by thundershowers. The Ontario capital Monday sweltered in 93-degree heat which was held a factor in two deaths of elderly persons.

Weather observers at Malton, near Toronto, said Monday night that the heat wave has been one of the longest in recent years. They said such a prolonged spell of high temperatures ns unusual in southern Ontario in June and July, although hot spells lasting several days often are experienced in August.

Damage $50,000

NEW YORK, July 5 (AP) — A scorching, 43-day long drought apparently has killed or spoiled more than $50,000,000 worth of crops in the farmlands of eight northeastern states.

Farm experts warn that damage in the area's rich fruit, vegetable and dairy regions will soar to a vastly higher figure if rains do not come in a few days.

The parched drought region stretches from southern New Jersey's truck crop areas up through the dairies and farms of New York State, and then fans out over almost the whole of southern New England.

New Jersey's drought damage has reached an estimated $28,000,000. Loss in the potato crop alone accounts for $4,500,000.

A storm that hit some parts of New York State yesterday was termed a "million dollar rain."

Scattered parts of the state got the slaking rains, while the New York Metropolitan area was whipped by a violent wind and rain storm.

Medical Expedition Sent To Northland

OTTAWA, July 5.—(CP).— A seven-man medical expedition from Queen's University in Kingston, will leave here by air today for Canada's northland to study the health and ailments of people in northern latitudes.

The expedition, the fourth to be sent out by the University in the last three years, will make its headquarters at Coral Harbor on Southampton Island, at the northern end of Hudson's Bay.

Members of the expedition, to be headed by Dr. Malcolm Brown of the medical faculty at Queen's, will study the effects of climate on health, the high incidence of certain diseases among people living in northern latitudes, the lack of certain vitamins in their foods, and the prevalence of parasitics infections among the Eskimos.

Lawn Watering Permitted In Certain Hours

Limited watering of lawns and gardens in the city will be allowed according to a schedule because of the large demand, the Utilities Commission announced today.

Hosing lawns has been illegal in Peterborough as in other cities throughout Ontario for the past three weeks. The only exception was two Sundays ago when the amount of water used was so great a record was set and the experiment was dropped like a hot dry potato.

Hereafter Mondays and Thursdays, all East City will be able to use hoses from 9 p.m. to 10 p.m., Tuesdays and Friday all on the west side of the Otonabee and north of Sherbrooke St. will be permitted to water lawns between 9 p.m. and 10 p.m. and Wednesdays and Saturdays all those living on the west side of the river and south of Sherbrooke St. will have their turn for the same hours. In each case only the one hour will be open.

Sunday is still a forbidden day.

Girl, 9, Drowned At Young's Point

Catherine Woodruff, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Woodruff, 21 Kimberley St., Toronto, was drowned on Monday afternoon while playing on the cement pier at Young's Point. The little girl, along with Mary Bristow, 334 Hamilton St., Ottawa, were throwing pebbles into the water when she suddenly lost her balance and toppled into the canal.

Calls for help brought Cecil Pelton and Don Nicholson of Young's Point. Both dived into the water and Nicholson sighted the girl but was not able to reach her in the 16-foot water. Walter Queeden of Akron, Ohio, brought the girl to the surface, where she was handed to Russ Brooks of Young's Point who was in a boat.

Members of the Lakefield Fire Department, the Peterborough Fire Department and the Provincial Police worked on the child for two hours but were unable to revive her.

The child, along with her parents and two other children, Michael, 11, and a baby a year old arrived on Sunday at the cottage of their aunt, Miss A. Breen, to spend their holidays.

Building Collapses Neon Sign Kills Four

PITTSBURGH, July 5 (AP)— The top of a building thundered down on a group of pedestrians out for a stroll on Federal Street Monday night. The barrage of bricks, mortar and heavy Neon signs killed four and injured seven.

Four of the injured were listed as 'critical" at hospital.

"It was a terrifying thing," said Joe Deveny, 32, who suffered a compound fractured leg. "I looked up and saw those two big signs coming at me. Then the whole building seemed to come down."

The dead were T. J. McGee, 60; Charles Schmidt, 29; Donald Hanlon, 22; and Mrs. Viola Dickson, 39.

Critically hurt were John McDonough, 27, broken back; Rose Grandee, 22, fractured pelvis, leg and hip; Forest McCallister, 40, fractured skull; and David Stevens, nine, arm and leg fractures.

Cost Of Living Hits New High Across Canada

OTTAWA, JJuly 5 — (CP). — After idling along for several months, Canada's cost of living was accelerated by rising food prices during May to climb to an all-time high.

The Bureau of Statistics reported Monday that at the beginning of June Canadians were paying more for their basic needs than at any time since the first cost of living records were kept back in 1913.

Between May 2 and June 1 the cost-of-living index jumped a full point from 159.5 to 160.5 to beat by 9-10ths of a point the previous high of 159.6 established last October and equalled in November and January.

Food stood alone as the cause of the cost-of-living increase.

A seasonal rise in meat prices was chiefly to blame for the increase in the food index. There were a number of other food price increases as well, most important of which were for fresh vegetables and oranges.

While the cost-of-living index was rising in the Dominion, the US recorded a drop of .3 to 169.2.

The two categories which showed decreases in Canada were home furnishings and services and light and fuel. Both dropped .4, placing home furnishings and services at 167.7 and fuel and light at 128.7.

Restore Iron Mine

OSLO—(CP)—A crew of 700 men are engaged in rebuilding mines and processing plants at Syd Varanger, Norway's largest producer of iron ore. Retreating German forces destroyed the mines and as a result, ore production dropped from 1,475,000 tons in 1938 to a mere 300,000 tons in 1948.

Warrant Issued

A warrant was issued by Magistrate W. R. Philp, K.C., at city police court Monday for Peter Kearns, who faces a charge of vagrancy. Kearns failed to appear in court Monday, and Crown Attorney John Bradshaw said this was the second time he had not answered to the charge.

NO SWIMMING ALLOWED

Until the wharf at Riverside Park is in better condition there will be no swimming there Recreation Director Jack Dane said Monday. At present a permanent pier is being built to replace the old H-wharf used last year. A top has yet to be put on the pier leaving sharp stones jutting up.

FISHING AT HOME

Johnny Russelle had the laugh on hundreds of tourists travelling home fishless Sunday night. With two sons and a visitor from Ottawa in an hour and a half he londed 14 bass, including one small mouth weighing 4 pounds, and an eight-pound muskie. Other fishermen in the area were having poor luck. All the fish were caught just below the Filtration plant dam, with helgramites.

SCOTCH COLLIE FOUND

Humane Society Inspector Gerald Dunford is looking for the owner of a Scotch Collie he found on Rogers St. a week ago.

A female thoroughbred, the collie is being cared for by Mr. Dunford, whose enquiries to find the owner have so far been unsuccessful.

Another collie met his death Monday morning when he was run over by a car on the highway near the Locks Bridge.

GET SPRUCING UP

The corner of Water and Simcoe Sts., is taking on a greatly improved appearance these days, thanks to two buildings at this intersection receiving a new coat of yellow paint. Work of painting the main Civic Building was begun Monday morning, while the building across from it on Water St. received a new dress last week.

NATURE'S WORKS

A rose, natural hybrid white and pink petals, was a passing topic of conversation in Smith and Freeman's Barber Shop Tuesday morning. The rose was from a bush in the garden of Sid Mason, Armour Rd. Jack Smith said that his hybrid lilies are now in full bloom three weeks ahead of last year.

SEND INFORMATION

The Rev. William McDonald, former minister at Knox United Church, asked the Chamber of Commerce to send information about the Peterborough area to 12 families in California. He has just returned from a visit there where he found the people knew little of Canada, except of popularly famous names like Banff and Niagara.

HEAVY TRAFFIC

Traffic through the village of Lakefield during the holiday week-end was the heaviest Chief Constable Garnet Samis can remember. And yet there was not a single accident — not even a scratched fender, he told the Examiner today. There was plenty of traffic but it was not racing through. Motorists were driving at reasonable speeds and with care.

RICHMOND ARENA

Peterborough's Civic Arena is likely to have an imitator in Richmond, Ont., near Ottawa, according to Hugh Wilson, builder of the city's arena. He met with a large group of people from the town's council and fair grounds commission Sunday. They propose to build an arena similar to Peterborough's and are erecting a town hall in an area in front of the arena.

DISCUSS UNEMPLOYMENT

The subject of layoffs and the general level of employment is expected to be discussed tonight when the Allied Labor Council holds its bi-monthly meeting at 8 p.m. Several other items of business are on the agenda.

Holiday Traffic Breaks Record

By The Canadian Press.

The two-way flow of traffic between Canada and the United States during the holiday week-end has established an all-time record at Ontario's international boundary points.

Although final figures have not yet been computed, Travel Minister Decile of Ontario said Monday that the influx of United States tourists will create a record. And D. Leo Dolan, Travel Director for the Federal Government, said the flow of Americans into Canada was the greatest in history, withm most of the visitors coming to Ontario.

At Windsor more than 100,000 tourists in 34,000 automobiles entered Canada to celebrate their Independence Day holiday. No figures are yet available on the number of Canadians who headed south for the long Dominion Day week-end, but immigration officials say the 1949 total is up at least 10 per cent over last year.

The total number of cars handled at the Peace Bridge, Fort Erie, passed the 25,000 mark and continued to mount today, while all available police officers dericted snarled traffic.

More than 10,000 persons crossed into Ontario from the United States at Sault Ste. Marie, an increase of 30 per cent over last year. More than 5,000 Canadians headed south at that point, compared with less than 3,836 during the 1948 holiday.

Find Farmers Forced To Stable-Feed Cows

TORONTO, July 5 — (CP).— Lack of pasture has forced some farmers in Southern Ontario to stable-feed cows to help reduce a drop in milk production, the Ontario Department of Agriculture said Monday in a weekly crop report.

In Halton County pastures have dried up on many farms. In Perth County dairy cows are getting supplementary feeding because of the short grass conditions. Stable feeding usually starts in the fall.

Feed supplies will be short this fall and winter in Simcoe County also, the Department said. Conditions in the counties of Haldimand and Wellington are about the same.

While the quantity of hay has been light, the quality is good. Hay is bringing as much as $25 a ton.

Canadian Scientists Hunt Magnetic Pole

OTTAWA, July 5 —(CP).—For the third time in three years, Canadian scientists will hunt the elusive North Magnetic Pole. They'll take off today in an R. C.A.F. Canso flying boat on the first lap of the eight weeks' hunt.

The North Magnetic Pole — mysterious part of the earth's crust that makes compass needles and magnets act the way they do—keeps shifting its location. An accurate pin-point is necessary for navigational maps.

It's now believed to be somewhere on Prince of Wales Island, some 2,000 mile north of Winnipeg.

Ralph D. Hutchison of Toronto, a member of the Dominion observatory's magnetic division, heads the 10-man expedition, sponsored jointly by the R.C.A.F. and the Resources Department.

RECORD TELEPHONE USE

A record number of long-distance telephone calls was made through the Peterborough exchange over the holiday week-end. The number surpassed even that of Christmas time. Thursday was the peak day with people making arrangements for the holiday. On calls to Toronto there was a delay of from one to two hours until late in the afternoon. After 7 p.m. the delay was still anywhere from a half to a full hour.

The Weather

.05 rain.

Cooler air spread into Southern Ontario Monday night to bring some measure of relief from the spell of torrid heat. Present indications are that this air will persist over the province throughout Wednesday. There is a risk of thundershowers in the Lake Erie, Lake Huron and White River regions, but elsewhere it is expected to remain generally sunny, with afternoon temperatures in the eighties.

Forecasts:

Lake Ontario, Niagara and Northern Lake Huron regions: Sunny and a little cooler today and Wednesday. Occasional cloudy intervals Wednesday. Winds light except east 15 both afternoons. Low tonight and high Wednesday at St. Catharines 63 and 82, Wingham 60 and 85, Trenton 60 and 78.

Summary for Wednesday—Sunny and cooler.

Kirkland Lake, Georgian Bay, Haliburton, James Bay regions and Sudbury City. Sunny today and Wednesday. Occasional cloudy intervals Wednesday. Not much change in temperature. Winds light. Low tonight and high Wednesday at Earlton 45 and 82, Sudbury 55 and 82, Muskoka 53 and 2, Killaloe 50 and 82, Moosonee 40 and 70.

Miners Return To Work Without Getting Contract

PITTSBURG, July 5—(AP)—The United Mine Workers (Ind.) today scrapped their "no contract, no work" policy. They started back to work without a contract. John L. Lewis, unpredictable president of the U.M.W., ordered his duespayers to resume digging after their 10-day paid vacation ended. He emphasized the soft coal miners east of the Mississippi would work only three days a week until further notice. A few thousand U.M.W. members west of the Mississippi will remain on a five-day week for an undisclosed reason.

Lewis and the soft coal operators resume talks July 12 to try to reach a new agreement. The mine contract ran out June 30 while the miners were in the midst of their vacation. Lewis is set to confer with the anthracite (hard coal) operators for the first time at Philadelphia Thursday.

Traditionally, the UMW has insisted its miners would not dig coal unless a new contract was signed, sealed and delivered. But last week, Lewis did an abrupt about-face as he sent out his work order.

Most miners agreed they would rather work only three days a week than go on strike. Many had believed Lewis would resort to a walkout to uphold the UMW tradition of "no contract, no work." On a three-day week schedule the miners will average $42.15.

The anthracite industry, which employs about 78,000 miners in Eastern Pennsylvania, has been on a general three-day week in recent months. Anthracite production has been controlled for years by the Pennsylvania Anthracite Committee under a law passed by the Pennsylvania General Assembly.

The committee is made up of representatives of the UMW, the coal operators, and the commonwealth. It fixes weekly production on the basis of market demand.

The contract talks thus far have produced little more than bickering.

Liberals Gain Another NS Seat

ANNAPOLIS ROYAL, N. S., July 4 (CP)—The Liberal party gained another seat in the Commons today as the declaration day count in Annapolis-Kings riding gave victory to A. A. Elderkin with a majority of seven votes over Progressive Conservative George Nowlan.

Final figures gave Mr. Elderkin 13,196 and Mr. Nowlan 13,189. Mr. Nowlan, member of the last Commons was ahead in returns before the official declaration day count.

On election night, he had a majority of 68 votes and the soldier vote cut this lead to two votes.

This makes the standing in the 262-member House: Liberals, 193; Progressive Conservatives, 41; CCF, 13; Social Credit, 10; Independents, 4; Independent-Liberal 1.

MORE ABOUT—

Philip D. Ross

P. D. Ross was prominent among Canadian newspaper men of three generations because of his tireless energy, his sense of fairness and his high public spirit. He gave himself to his newspaper and his community.

Mr. Ross was one of the founders of the Canadian Press as a national news association. In the stormy days 40 years ago, when eastern and western publishers pulled and hauled against one another, Mr. Ross and his Ottawa colleagues stood by the co-operative idea and their efforts led to compromise and the unity finally achieved in 1917.

Obituaries

E. ROSS HALES

APSLEY, July 5.—(ENS). — News was received here of the death of E. Ross Hales in Thessalon on July 1.

Mr. Hales was born in Apsley and received his early education in the school here, going later to Lindsay. There he learned telegraphy and he had been an agent for the Canadian Pacific Railway for about 37 years. He was stationed at Coniston, Romford Jct., Worthington, Sault Ste. Marie, and in later years at Thessalon.

Mr. Hales had been in failing health for some time. He was a member of the United Church and an ardent church worker.

Surviving are his wife, formerly Pearl Van Dyke; three sons, Gordon of North Bay, Bruce and Bob, and one daughter Joan, at home; a sister, Mrs. Elmer Squires (Blanche) of North Bay; his stepmother, Mrs. R. Hales, and two half-sisters, Misses Ruby and Muriel Hales, of Southey, Sask.

Burial took place on Monday in Sudbury.

Mrs. Bert Lean and Miss Mildred Hales of Peterborough and Mrs. W. Lean of Apsley are cousins of the deceased.

PARTRICK QUINN

MARMORA, July 5 (ENS). — The death of Patrick Quinn occurred suddenly at his home Wednesday.

Mr. Quinn appeared in good health and was helping to bring in hay on his farm when he suddenly became ill and in a short time died.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Quinn, pioneer residents of Marmora township, and had resided all his life in Marmora township.

He is survived by two brothers, James and Alex Quinn of Marmora township; and two sisters, Miss Susan Quinn of Marmora township and Mrs. S. Bertram (Kate) of Marmora. The funeral was held Friday at nine a.m. from the residence of his brother Alex to Sacred Heart Church where Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. H. J. Farrell. Burial took place in Sacred Heart Cemetery.

ERNEST HENRY MANN

Ernest Henry Man, 78, of 1794 Danforth Ave., Toronto, died today in Peterborough Civic Hospital following a short illness. He was born in Port Perry, son of the late John Mann and Elizabeth Ann Down. His wife, the former Margaret Beavis, predeceased him in 1946. He leaves no immediate relatives but a brother-in-law, David Beavis of this city.

A real estate broker in Toronto for the past 20 years, Mr. Mann formerly operated a planing mill on Dublin St., until the early 20's. His parents were in the baking business in the past and early in this century and occupied the store on north George St., now owned by T. H. Hooper and Sons. He was a member of the United Church. A short time ago Mr. Mann purchased the old Needler mill site on Cavan Brook, four miles north-east of Millbrook, with the hope of reconstructing the landmark and mill pond. It was originally built by Peterborough's founder, Adam Scott.

Funeral service will be held on Thursday at the Kaye Funeral Home at 2 p.m. The Rev. Dr. D. Bruce Gordon of Trinity United Church will officiate and burial will be at Little Lake Cemetery.

MRS. GEORGE P. GRAHAM

Pallbearers for the funeral Saturday of Mrs. George Parke Graham, who died Thursday after an illness of several years were D. Ephgrave, G. T. Reader, J. Anderson, E. Simmons, S. Leg-Millen. Mrs. Graham is the former Louie Jane Douglas, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Marlboro Douglas. She was the widow of George Parke Graham.

Mrs. Graham is the for-County of Wicklow, Ireland. Before coming to Peterborough six years ago she resided in Toronto.

Surviving her is her daughter, Miss Amy M. Graham of Peterborough.

The service was conducted by Mr. A. G. Shantz, McDonnel St. Gospel Hall, at the D. Belleghem and Sons Funeral Home. Interment was at the Litle Lake Cemetery.

Thousands Seek Lakeside Breeze

COBOURG, July 5 (ENS). — Scorching heat sent a huge crowd to the park yesterday until the beach was dotted like Coney Island. Every street bordering the park was lined with parked cars and the large park was packed with people. It was hot uptown but at the park a breeze helped to cool off the torrid air. It is estimated that at least two thousand people visited the beach and park, a large portion of them being from out of town.

The roads to Rice Lake were almost as busy as the provincial highway, with a steady stream of cars going to and from the lake. Tourist canteens did a record business and the demand for boats was heavy.

Provincial Police said they had eight accidents to investigate from Thursday night until Sunday afternoon and traffic was as heavy as any holiday in the past. There were no serious automobile accidents, but two deaths resulted from motorcycle crashes.

In Cobourg on Friday afternoon, Scott Chalk of Belleville received fatal head injuries when his motorcycle went out of control while rounding the curve just west of the town.

In Port Hope, injured when his motorcycle crashed into a fence during the races there on Saturday, Duart Noardhof of Stratford, aged 19, died Saturday night in Port Hope Hospital. The youth received head injuries when he hit the fence.

A large crowd took in the Kiwanis excursion to Rochester on Dominion Day, going via the local car ferry. On Saturday, several hundred of the Midland Regiment held their reunion in Cobourg. The veterans laid a wreath on the cenotaph in the morning.

Small Boy's Feet Burned On Grating

Grant McBride, two and half-year old son of Stan McBride, 166 Edingburgh St., is wondering what burned him on Sunday. A woman carried the little boy home, having found him crying at the corner of George and Edinburgh Sts. At home he kept saying to his mother to "take it out," pointing at his foot. Thinking he had a sliver in his foot Mrs. McBride looked at his feet to find them badly blistered.

Mrs. McBride said Monday that she thought the boy had stepped with his bare feet on an iron step at the corner grocery store. She added that the sun had been on the step throughout the morning making it hot.

Toronto Man Drowns After Boat Capsizes

MINDEN, July 5—Vernon J. Shaw, of Indian Grove, Toronto, drowned in Soyer's Lake, about 12 miles northeast of here, just after midnight Sturday, when a boat carrying a load of July 1 vacationers capsized in the middle of the lake.

Shaw's wife, with him in the boat, saved her 11-month-old daughter but was unable to help her husband. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wood, and a brother, were kept busy keeping themselves afloat. Neither Mrs. Wood nor Mr. Shaw were able to swim.

Shouts for help from the group were heard on shore by a Mr. Scarrell of Toronto, who went to their rescue with a motorboat. He was unable to locate Mr. Shaw, a former resident of Oshawa.

Shaw's body was recovered from the bottom of the lake at 12.30 p.m. Monday after dragging operations had been conducted under the direction of Provincial Constable A. R. Edwards of the Minden detachment of the Provincial Police.

The body was taken to Oshawa for burial. Crown Attorney L. W. Jordan of Lindsay has ordered that an inquest be held into the drowning.

Mrs. Robert Puffer Buried On Monday

Funeral service for the late Mrs. Robert Puffer, 88, of 38 Stewart St., was held on Monday at the Kaye Funeral Home. Ministers officiating were the Rev. Wesley Armstrong, the Rev. W. B. Mrs. Puffer died in hospital last Friday and before coming to Peterborough 20 years ago, lived in Northumberland County. She was the daughter of the late Daniel Ferguson and Jane Tweed. Her husband, Robert Puffer, predeceased her. She was a member of the Free Methodist Church.

Say 28 Forest Fires Caused By Storms

TORONTO, July 5 — (CP) — A series of scattered electrical storms caused 28 forest fires in Ontario during the week-end, but all now are under control, Lands Department officials said today.

Only one of the fires, in Heathcote township in the Armstrong division of the Soo Lookout district, reached major proportions. A 1,000-acre area was afire before it was controlled.

Districts where fires now are being patrolled are: Soo Lookout 10; Kenora, eight; Port Arthur, three; Geraldton, one; Sault Ste. Marie, three; Timiskaming, one; Trent, two.

Officials said the greatest fire hazard exists in western Ontario, where 21 of the 28 fires occurred.

Plan New Cells For Prisoners In Campbellford

CAMPBELLFORD, July 5 — (ENS)—Mrs. Albert Hollings told the town council Monday night that she had paid $75.60 for the sewer in front of her property on Raglan St. It was always known as the Holling's sewer, she stated. "Because others are tapping the sewer for nothing, I want a rebate of $25.00" she declared. "If you don't give it to me, give it to some organization. I have to fight for everything I get," she said.

A committee, including Councillors Carl Maier, Howard Wilson, and P. H. MacMillan, was appointed to deal with Mrs. Holling's complaint and report at the next meeting.

Joe Poulton complained to Council of the dust on Concession Road. The Council decided to ask Seymour Township Council to equally share the expense of treating the road with calcium chloride.

It was decided that the Division Court be permitted to use the Council chambers at the same fee charged the Library Board.

Councillor P. J. Kelly, property committee chairman, quoted prices on new chairs for council room. He was instructed to purchase a dozen, not to exceed $11 each.

A grant of $100 was made to the Campbellford Softball Association to help defray the expenses of erecting bleachers on the High School grounds.

Won't Affect Tax

Councillor P. H. MacMillan reported that re-surfacing the pavements won't affect the tax rate. The department pays 50 per cent of the cost of re-surfacing No. 30 highway through the corporation. He said that 2,600 gallons of asphalt and 120 tons of stone chips had been used in the canal road and that the cost had been met by a special fund.

Another 50 parking meters had to be ordered because of angle parking on one side of the street. Harry Townsend was appointed to collect the money from the meters and also to service them. J. Birmingham reported that he had already collected $40,000 in taxes.

A letter from Magistrate R. B. Baxter congratulated the Council on the new court room in the Meyer's building, but he pointed out that the prisoners' cells should not be in the police office. A. J. Meyers made the proposition to Council that he erect a building for the prisoners at an extra rental of $10 per month. The property committee was authorized to contact Mr. Meyers, specifying that the building be heated, lighted and that a toilet and wash basins be installed.

An Investigation At Whitby

We are glad that the Hon. W. A. Goodfellow, as Acting Minister of Health, has promised an investigation into the charge that a patient at the Ontario Hospital at Whitby was beaten by attendants. We hope that the investigation will be of the fullest kind, and that its results will be made fully public.

* * *

The people of Ontario have been disturbed for some time by rumours that patients in our hospitals for the insane are ill-used. We like to think that this ancient stain on society has been erased during the past century, or at least since Charcot ordered the chains to be removed from the patients in the Salpetriere. But there are ugly suggestions that brutality is still known in our Ontario hospitals; as these hospitals are over-crowded and understaffed, it is obvious that bad conditions already exist. Let us have reassurance if that is possible; if not, let us have a thorough housecleaning.

* * *

But let us have no more assurances from Ministers of Health who pay a state visit to the hospitals, eat a good lunch with the superintendant and return to Toronto full of bonhomie; let us put a few psychiatrists and humanitarians on the job, and keep them at it until the full truth has been discovered.

* * *

Insane patients need not only humane treatment, but sympathetic treatment. In all investigations they are at a disadvantage because they are insane, and their attendants are supposedly sane. But an insane person is ill, and there is no reason why a sane man should not be a sadist, a roughneck, or an incompetent. Let us find out what really goes on in our asylums. Nobody wants a scandal, but if scandalous conditions exist let us have the courage to reform them.

Four Years of Family Allowances

Four years ago this month the first family allowance cheques were mailed. During the four years this controversial and advanced social welfare measure has secured the approval of Canadians generally and been watched keenly by other countries which may follow Canada's lead. Some people quibble that the "baby bonus" reduces initiative and encourages fathers of large families to be lazy. That may be doubted. Can a father support a family of eight children on $52 a month? That would be his wife's income from the Family Allowance if there were two children under six years, two under ten, two under 13 and two under sixteen, and if all but the two youngest attended school regularly.

Others criticize the legislation by saying that the Government gives the bonus with one hand and takes it away with the other (by taxation and the reduction of the exemption for children). They say that they would be better off financially if there were no baby bonus. It is true that bonus is little financial help to families whose income is $3,000 or more a year. But it is not a burden, for the children's allowance is not taxable, and every parent may claim an exemption of $150 for each dependent child who is entitled to register for family allowance. The restrictive taxation rule which applied in the first year of the bonus by which part of the family allowance had to be repaid if the income was more than $1200, has been discarded.

Total payments for family allowances throughout Ctanada in the first four years have been more than a billion dollars ($1,027,000,000). This seems very expensive, but is less than it seems for the very reason given by taxpayers with higher incomes who complain that the bonus benefits them hardly at all. It is not expensive having regard to its great boon to families of low income, and to its scope. In May of this year 1,787,522 families received cheques on behalf of 4,041,771 children. The children's allowance through the years must benefit Canadians socially and physically. Mothers have more security and more money to spend on their children. The children can have more clothing and more food, and if hard times hit a family, there is no need for the children to starve.

Chinese Problem on Capitol Hill

One of the most serious, although not immediately urgent, problems awaiting disposal by the United States State Department is that of recognition, created by the new regime in China. The problem was made more complicated last week by members of the United States Senate. About thirty of them took the floor to condemn U.S. policy toward China. More than a score signed a demand for assurances that the United States would refuse to recognize the Chinese Communists.

While the State Department will undoubtedly consider the protests of these legislators, other factors also demand consideration; the future course of world affairs may some time make recognition imperative. For the present, however, it will probably be content to leave the matter alone until the Chinese Communists themselves begin to press for recognition. This, according to authoritative Washington opinion, is not expected to happen until September or October, or even a month of so later. One reason given for this prediction is that the State Department could not be expected to recommend recognition without certain guarantees regarding United States citizens and property. The Chinese Communists cannot offer such guarantees until their regime is more securely established and in fairly good operating order.

It is not improbable that China's Communists regard an extended period of non-recognition as a positive advantage. Mexico did. During such a period, Mexico developed its own pattern of treatment for existing property and foreign nationals, and then presented the world with a set of accomplished facts. Shortly afterward, Washington recognized Mexico by the appointment of an Ambassador to that country.

Lack of recognition may not hamper United States trade with China. Some experienced groups are already carrying on trade under practical terms they have been able to make with the Chinese Communists. It was an expected development, for recognition is not regarded in Washington as an absolute prerequisite for doing business, despite the fact that it has been used in the past as a diplomatic weapon, sanction, or favour. However, while trade with China may not add to the State Department's problem, other factors do. Chief among them is the somewhat disconcerting realization that the recognized Government of China becomes a permanent member of the United Nations Council (the Big Five)—with the power of veto.

Queen Of The Bamangwato

A good deal of attention has been attracted by the marriage of Ruth Williams, a London typist, to the king of the Bamangwato tribe of Bechuanaland. Many of the elders of the tribe will not accept her as their queen; Tshekedi Khama, the king's uncle, has retired into exile rather than recognize her. The situation is a curious one; we are accustomed to protests when a white girl marries a black man, but not from the black man's friends and relations. It is good for us to realize that the boot can pinch on the other foot.

The Bamangwato are the most important tribe of the Chwana Negroes; they are found in a rich country north of the Transvaal. They are by no means savages; they live by tending large herds of domesticated animals, and they do a little farming. Their religion is chiefly ancestor worship, and they do not permit marriage outside the tribe.

This is of great importance. How can the Bamangwato accept Miss Williams if they do not know who her ancestors are? The situation is as obviously impossible as that of another young king, who, a few years ago, insisted upon marrying a lady who had no ancestors. We who do not have to face this problem need not sneer at it: we all want to be sure that our sons and heirs marry a girl who comes of "nice people", and we feel a certain uneasiness if her skin is of a colour which is unfashionable in our neighbourhood.

Whether Miss Williams will ever become queen of the Bamangwato we cannot say. She has not been trained to be a queen—particularly not a queen of a tribe of excitable and touchy African tribesmen. And for such jobs a certain training and natural aptitude are necessary for success.

Of Cabbages And Kings

By PETER ELIOT

"ENGLISH is not easy for people whose languages are logical and mean exactly what they say," writes Sir Hughe Knatchbull-Hugessen in Diplomat In Peace And War, the charming reflections of this astute Englishman over the past forty years. He tells the story of the Frenchman who came to England for the first time, and on the train between Dover and London kept leaning out of the window, the better to see the landscape. An Englishman in the same compartment, aware of an approaching tunnel, shouted to him, "Look out!" The Frenchman took the advice literally.

❖ ❖ ❖

SIR Hughe tells a story of his village church. It concerns a lady whose family had a vault in the chancel of the church, and who had a terror of being buried alive. It was her last wish, therefore, that a plate of sandwiches and a bottle of port should be placed within her reach in the vault, when she was laid to rest. The wish was carried out.

Five years later another member of the family died and the vault was again opened. After the funeral someone asked the clergyman:

"By the by, Mr. Holdhard, when you went down into the vault, did you see any trace of the sandwiches and the bottle of port which were put there when old Lady —— was buried?"

"Well, of course," he replied, "the sandwiches were just a heap of dust; but the wine was uncommonly good."

❖ ❖ ❖

"THE dining-room at our Legation at the Hague was apt to be cold in winter," he continues. "Sir Ronald and Lady Sybil Graham were perfect hosts and their parties were universally enjoyed. I remember, however, one evening when there was some confusion. The company were heavy. An elderly lady was making something of a commotion in the hall. Sir Ronald asked me to see what was the matter, so I asked the lady if I could do anything for her.

" 'Oh, Mr. Hugessen,' she exclaimed, 'when I came here tonight I brought with me SUCH A STOVE.'

"This was indeed mystifying. I had seen no stoves except such as were the property of His Majesty's Office of Works.

"With such solemnity as I could command I said to one of the footmen, 'Would you please go and find Madame van X's stove.'

"A prolonged search ensued, at the end of which a hot-water-bottle was discovered under her place in the dining-room."

MENDELSSOHN is one of the composers discussed in volume two of the Penguin series Lives Of The Great Composers, edited by A. L. Backarach.

"Felix," he writes, "received two Commands to Buckingham Palace, and he recounts with some naivete his reception by Queen Victoria and the Prince Consort, the account commencing:

" 'Yesterday evening I was sent for by the Queen, who was almost (!) alone with Prince Albert.' He played the piano to the royal couple, heard the Prince Consort play the organ, and heard the Queen sing. The only blot on this golden page was provided by the royal parrot, which drowned the music with its screams, so that Felix had to carry it out of the room, cage and all."

❖ ❖ ❖

MENDELSSOHN listened to his friend Madame Frege sing to him in the following words:

"Time marches on by night as well as day,
"And many march by night who fain would stay."

"Oh, that has a dreary sound," the composer cried with a shudder, "but it explains now I feel."

He then rose, very pale, and paced the room nervously complaining that his hands were cold.

He died within a month.

❖ ❖ ❖

"WILLIAM Tell" never enjoyed the popular success deserved by the qualities of the music," says Mr. Backarach, who also discusses Rossini in this volume of "Lives".

In spite of the poor quality of the libretto and its excessive length, it received the lavish praises of the musical world; secured for the composer the Legion of Honour and a Serenade from the distinguished conductor Habeneck, and the Conservatorie Orchestra; and achieved five hundred performances in Paris alone during the composer's lifetime. Still, says Backarack, there is no doubt that Rossini, accustomed to the applause of the multitude, was disappointed at the result. William Tell was often given in a mutilated form, sometimes, indeed, only one act. It was on such an occasion, that the Director, meeting Rossini, and thinking to please him, remarked that the Second Act was being given on that very night. To which Rossini, who was as caustic as he was witty, merely replied, "What! the whole of it?"

Seen On A Tombstone At Esha Ness Cemetery, Shetland

"Here lies Donald Sutherland. His death is deeply regretted. He was a quiet man, and to all appearances a sincere Christian. He was killed through the stupidity of Lawrence Tulloch of Clothister, who sold him Nitric Acid stead of Epsom Salts, and he died in the course of three hours after taking a dose of it."

Out Of Gas

The incident of a London surgeon being delayed on an emergency call by inability to purchase gasoline because of the city's early closing bylaw is an illustration of the danger attendant on legislation of this sort.

Even if such incidents do not frequently occur the danger still exists. Once is too often. It should be possible to work out some system whereby those operators who wish to close can do so without pressure from any source, and those who wish to remain open can do so also. And the interest of the public should be kept in mind whatever action is taken.—London Free Press.

NOBODY GETS A 'HOSING' THESE DAYS

There's Always Time For Applause

(OTTAWA CITIZEN)

IT MAY be true, as Ambrose Bierce once remarked, that applause is the echo of a platitude. Nevertheless few, if any, radio artists are inclined to scorn the plaudits of studio audiences. The annoyance of performers at a British Broadcasting Corporation ruling prohibiting "clapping for individual gags or jokes during an act or scene" is understandable. The BBC has drafted the new regulation on the narrowest technical grounds, declaring that such applause "holds up a program and often spoils the scene for listeners." No ham worth his salt could find the BBC's explanation acceptable.

Far from spoiling a performance, the applause of studio audiences only too often gives listeners at home their cue as to whether they should laugh or not. Many an attempted jest spoken into a microphone is lost on listeners until the studio audience starts to laugh and applaud. Thus briefed, the listeners know that a joke has been uttered, and they are more disposed to smile and perhaps even to laugh, than they would be when there is no signal from the studio. The applause and laughter of audiences provides a genuine service to home listeners in helping them to distinguish what is important and amusing in a program and what is not.

Not only would an absence of applause leave listeners at sea; it cannot but have a depressing effect on the performers themselves. If a live audience does not respond suitably to the artist's jokes, then the comedian must wonder what the effect will be on listeners who cannot see him making funny faces as he reads the quip from a script. It can readily be seen that stern enforcement of the regulations will give the BBC a group of comedians despondent, broken in spirit, quite unfitted to discharge the task of making a nation laugh. The BBC would do well to reconsider the order.

Letters To The Editor

VIEWS WITH PLEASURE

Sir: I am writing to congratulate you on Wednesday's editorial page which reads:

"We live, alas, in an age that has lost faith in liberty, much more than it has lost faith in theology. Chesterton. Wednesday, June 29, 1949. Some thoughts on the Election."

This must refer to government by Secret Order in Council.

Yours truly,
C. W. HOLMAN.

VIEWS WITH ALARM

Sir: We have been treated to a continuous paean of praise of the Liberal party in the Peterborough Examiner for the last week, how about hearing some of the other side? After all there is only one local paper and it should, at any rate present the other side of the questions of the day, even if, as one writer suggested: "It thrills at every wag of the Liberal dog's tail".

I attended the Liberal meeting and listened to a couple of sermons on Liberal virtue, and, as is usual in our political meetings, the proceedings finished with a bang of applause and there was no opportunity to question the speaker. One of them said that the Liberal administration had been conducted without scandal. Well that depends on the speaker's interpretation of the word (Dict.: Disgrace). The admission of several Vichy Collaborationists, convicted by their own country, into Canada by secret order in council was a scandal. They had helped the Germans, whose aim at that time was to kill Canadians. There is the scandal of dumping potatoes in the fields and tearing up hundreds of thousands of apple trees. Mr. Smallwood's threats to the electors was a scandal, the Peterborough Examiner belittles this breach of the law, but that is only a local scandal. Perhaps a little Sovietism is a good thing.

We are told that "our adherence to a dying political faith in this district gives us a standing in politics similar to that which is enjoyed in religion by the ..... Peculiar People". Noble Sir, the Peculiar People (Deut. 14: 2) long outlasted the Roman Empire, and the day will come when Conservatism will sweep Liberalism into the garbage cans and gutters of the Dominion of Canada.

Yours truly,
C. W. HOLMAN.

Bible Message

And God spake all these words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other gods before me. (Ex. 20: 1-3.)

❖ ❖ ❖

And he said unto Moses, Come up unto the Lord, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off....

Then went up Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel: and they saw the God of Israel: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the body of heaven in his clearness....And the sight of the glory of the Lord was like devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel (Ex. 24: 1, 9, 10, 17.)

The Nightgown Survives

A government economics department in Washington has been conducting an investigation of the masculine wardrobe; what does the average American wear and who does the buying.

The surprising thing about it is that the enquiries revealed the fact that nearly 50 per cent. wear nightgowns instead of pyjamas. Judging by the advertising and the window displays, we had come to the conclusion that the nightgown had almost become a museum piece. It is, we believe, quite difficult to buy nightgowns. One never sees nightgowns advertised but there are plenty of advertisements about pyjamas.

It would appear that at home, men are quite prone to wearing nightgowns, but prefer pyjamas for travel or visiting. Nobody thinks it amiss to stroll around in pyjamas. Men who wear nightgowns say that taking off a suit of clothes and putting on pants and coat called pyjamas to go to bed in doesn't make sense.

As for the other findings, the investigators report that wives buy nearly all their husband's things except suits and pants, which of course, need to be tried on. Twenty-five per cent. of men have only one pair of pants to a suit, nearly half have no bathrobes, 60 per cent. have no summer suit and 40 per cent. have no raincoat.

—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

Backdoor Eden

The fly fishermen, spinners and wormers of Vancouver Angling and Game Association held their second annual steelhead derby on the North Shore creeks.

If we Vancouverites weren't so used to the idea of going fishing across the inlet we might be able to appreciate the significance of a trout derby right at the back door of Canada's third largest city.

Here, in a metropolitan area of half a million people, within sight of skyscrapers, smokestacks and teeming sidewalks, are three of the loveliest trout streams in the world.

Not only are these rushing creeks idyllically beautiful but they are the home of steelhead, cutthroat trout and, in season the Pacific salmon. Within 20 minutes of downtown Vancouver a smart angler can hook a 14-pound fish.—Vancouver Province.

103 Fatalities Over Holiday

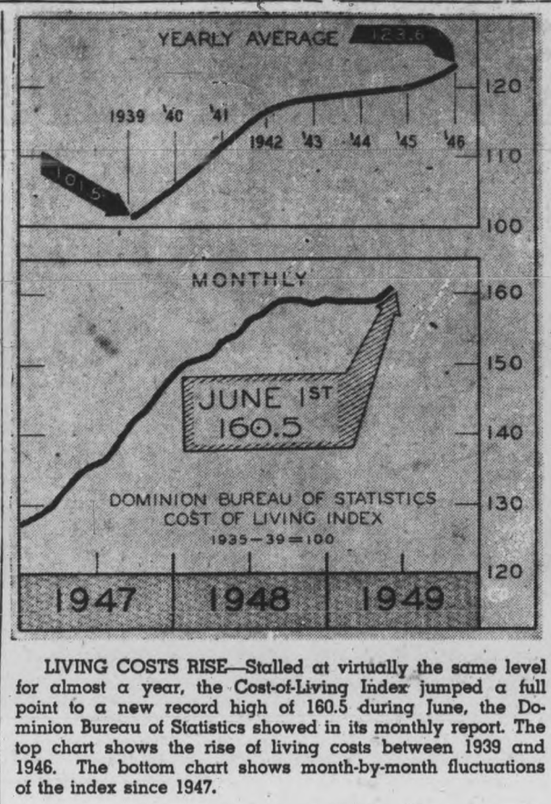
By The Canadian Press

A fatality toll of 108 was recorded in Canada during the combined Dominion Day-Independence Day weekend.

A Canadian Press compilation showed that by early today 59 persons were drowned, 27 died in highway crashes, two in a plane wreck and 15 in other types of mishaps.

Ontario, with 43 fatalities, had the largest number of violent deaths, Quebec had 40, British Columbia eight, the Maritimes five, Manitoba four and Alberta three.

In Ontario and Quebec, particularly, many of the drownings were directly attributed to a heat wave which in many areas pushed the temperature above the 90-degree mark.



LIVING COSTS RISE—Stalled at virtually the same level for almost a year, the Cost-of-Living Index jumped a full point to a new record high of 160.5 during June, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics showed in its monthly report. The top chart shows the rise of living costs between 1939 and 1946. The bottom chart shows month-by-month fluctuations of the index since 1947.

Bathers Report Clothes Vanish

Prior to the opening of playgrounds and swimming areas July 1 notice was received from three of the lifeguards that they had accepted positions at other beaches. For the opening days experienced men and boys patrolled the beaches. Monday the regular lifeguards for the 10-week period on the beaches started.

The lifeguards are Ron Gynane, Inverlea Beach, one of last year's guards; Dave Thomas of Oshawa, Inverlea Beach; Gerry Armstrong, part-time at Riverside beach; Louis McClennan, Riverside Beach. Gordon Buck will be the relief lifeguard.

Guards on the beaches report petty thieving. Last week one woman told the guard at Inverlea beach that someone had stolen her dress. Since then money, shoes, stockings, watches and other articles have been reported stolen. Even the lifeguard's locker was broken into.

Buffalo Lad Drowns

TURKEY POINT, Ont., July 5—(CP)—An angry Buffalo, N.Y., boy today jumped out of a rowboat and was drowned in Lake Erie. Cpl. John Clark of the Ontario Provincial Police said James Van Elk, 12, had argued with his younger brother, Donald, over the handling of the boat when a breeze began to blow them away from shore. James was drowned while trying to swim about 200 yards to the beach.

GENERAL ELECTRIC
with galvanized tanks guaranteed 10 years

Each G-E Water Heater carries this warranty: "If the original tank leaks, fails or breaks down as a result of rust, corrosion or other chemical action of the domestic water supply at any time within ten years from the date of original purchase, Canadian General Electric will supply a new galvanized tank at no charge, F.O.B. factory, with removal, installation and transportation charges to be borne by the owner."

The above warranty is in addition to the normal General Electric one-year guarantee of free repairs or replacements of any parts that break down as a result of defective material or workmanship.

CLEAN: Magnesium alloy rod inside tank prevents corrosion, ensures longer tank life.

Record-Film Concert Presented At Oval

The Peterborough Public Library, Film Council, and Recreation Commission presented a well attended music and film concert at the band stand in Nicholls' Park on Sunday evening.

Selections from Peter and the Wolf, Gilbert and Sullivan, Coppelia Swan Lake and the Nutcracker Suite wove a fantasy of pleasant sound through the tall trees from a record player manned by Wm. L. Graff, Peterborough's Librarian who was assisted by Clarence Butcher, Parks Department, Jimmie Murphy, Joseph Cooper of the Film Council and his son Ron.

Amar Butcher, Superintendent of the Parks and his staff erected a portable screen 9 x 12 feet for the occasion.

The film show commenced with a children's cartoon depicting the antics of a duck and a frog. An educational picture titled "You Bet Your Life" showed a few of the careless methods that are used in driving a motor car. "Peoples of the Skeena" gave a colorful sketch of the life of the B. C. Indian. "The Loon's Necklace" told a story of Indian lore, of how the loon got the white band about its neck. The masks used in this film by the players were authentic Indian masks from the Ottawa Museum.

This film was adjudged the best Canadian picture of the year at Edinburgh in 1948.

The final picture loaned by the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests through their Public Relations Officer Mr. Charles Dill of the South Eastern Ontario Division, received the plaudits of the crowd as it was based on the pollution of water, a subject of great concern to all Peterborough residents.

Protect Union From US Davis Asks Mitchell

MONTREAL, July 5—(CP)—President Harry Davis of the Canadian Seamen's Union Monday night appealed to Labor Minister Mitchell to "protect his union and its contracts against foreign dictation of United States big business."

The appeal, made in a telegram also signed by T. G. MacManus secretary-treasurer of the union, was sent to Mr. Mitchell after Capt. Bruce Angus, operating manager of the Upper Lakes and St. Lawrence Company, allegedly informed the union he was advised by U.S. firms to repudiate the CSU or suffer a boycott of the American Federation of Labor and American companies.

Mr. Davis said that Cap. Angus was further advised to make an agreement with the rival Seafarers' International Union (AFL).

JAM and JELLY MAKERS!
For SURE Results... Greater Yield take your choice of CERTO or "CERTO" Crystals

No fuss . . . no worry . . . no guesswork in making jam or jelly with Certo Fruit Pectin or "Certo" Crystals. You'll save time and work . . . get up to 50% MORE jam or jelly from your fruit!

Please yourself which you use. Both Certo and "Certo" crystals are fruit pectin, the natural substance in fruit that makes jams "jam" and jellies "jell" — extracted and concentrated for better, easier jam and jelly making. The word "Certo" is a trade-mark.

Boil ONE MINUTE only for both Jams and Jellies

That's all you need when you use Certo or "Certo" Crystals . . . one minute's full, rolling boil! What a saving of time and energy. This short boil gives you other advantages, too:

1. Since very little juice has time to boil away, you get an average yield of 10 glasses where old-fashioned, long-boil recipes would give you about 6.
2. Cooking time is so short it cannot spoil the fresh fruit taste or dull the lovely natural colour. They stay in your jam or jelly.

JAMS or JELLIES ALWAYS TURN OUT RIGHT

That's providing you follow exactly the kitchen-tested recipes you get under the label of every bottle of Certo or in every package of "Certo" Crystals. Petes Wallop Batawa By 7-1 Score

BELLEVILLE, July 5.—Pounding out a total of 16 safeties, the Peterborough Marines trimmed the Bata Shoemen, 7-1, in a Central Ontario Senior Baseball League fixture at the Belleville Fair Grounds Saturday night.

Lefty Bill Dadson handled the pitching for the winners and gave up but seven hits. He claimed 10 strikeouts and walked none. The young lefthander retired the side on strikes in the second frame and again in the eighth.

Second baseman Joe Stewart led the slugging parade for the winners with four hits in five trips. Bob Lowrey, Larry Edwardson and Gunner Ed Whitehill were each credited with three safeties.

Mouse Bush and Keith McDonald each connected for a pair of safeties for the Shoetowners, while Beckstead, Aquina and Muffitt got the others.

Electrics Take A Victory From Lindsay

The improving Electrics copped a 10-5 Girls' Softball League victory over the Lindsay lasses at the Bowl last evening before a small crowd. Lindsay played good ball most of the way and it was pretty much of a tossup till the finish, with CGE also going well and having an earlier lead. E. Boyce, R. Todd, D. Wakelin and P. Graham all looked good in the field and there were but three errors apiece.

The victors used two hurlers and the visitors one, with the hits being pretty even and not too many strikeouts, though Marg. Perrin was quite effective on the mound and sent half a dozen or so back after the third strike for a drink of water. M. Batley again led CGE at bat with a triple, double and two singles in five. P. Graham was best for the losers with three singles in four trips to the plate.

Young Petes Victors In Lakeshore

By FRED MAYBEE

Art Pagett's Young Petes, sponsored by H. B. McGinness, defeated Newcastle 5-2 here, Saturday evening in a classy intermediate Lakeshore League baseball fixture.

It was the second straight win over Newcastle and the fouth victory in six games played since June 4 b ythe peppy McGinness squad. Brian Wade came through with another fine effort on the mound.

Sullivan drove in two runs, one with a timely double in the first while Miller, Pagett, and Corkery each accounted for one driven in, the latter also scoring two. Don Bigford caught a fine game. Gilmour clipped a homer in the sixth while Cremer and Alquist both turned in a good chore for Newcastle.

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

At Washington, Sam Snead withstood a gallant challenge by Skip Alexander Monday to win the Washington Star Open Golf Tournament.

Snead shot 70 for a total of 272, 16 strokes under par for the 62 holes. In second place was Cary Middlecoff, the National Champion from Memphis, who also had a 70 for 274.

In third place were Alexander, who had a 69 on the final round, and Chick Harbert of Detroit. Each wound up with a 275.

Alexander started the final round four strokes out of first place, held jointly by Snead and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Little Rock, Ark. Harrison, Canadian open champion, dropped all the way down to sixth, getting 75 for 277.

Dick Metz, of Virginia Beach, Va., was fifth with a 68 for 275.

Calumet Farms' sensational Coaltown and game old armed ran one-two in the $54,800 Stars and Stripes Handicap at Chicago Arlington Park Monday, with Coaltown establishing a track record of 1:48 2-5 for the mile and one eighth holiday racing fixture.

Coaltown, in winning his ninth victory in 10 starts this season, blotted out the old record of 1:49 1-5 established by Armed in capturing the same race in 1947 and equalled by Citation in winning the event a year ago.

Coaltown earned $36,700 for Warren Wright, owner of Calumet Farms, bringing his winnings for the year to $170,825 and $282,475 from two years of racing.

Officials in charge of the Canadian Amateur Golf Championships which will be held at Saint John, N. B., course July 25-30 said today that the Royal Canadian Golf Association has raised the handicap limit for Maritimers from seven to 12. Officials said this was to give as many golfers as possible a chance to play in the national event.

Holes-in-one came in threes on Montreal and district golf courses over the holiday week-end but Ian C. Innes of Wentworth, Que., scored the daddy of the lot.

Innes, son of John Innes, professional of the Thames Valley Golf Club of London, Ont., holed out from the tee at the 252-year par four 16th hole of the Royal Montreal Golf Club.

At Pittsfield, Mass., right-hander Johnny Masuga of Pittsfield Indians pitched an 8-0, no-hit-no-run victory Monday night over Schenectady in a Canadian-American League game.

RECORD SMASHER — Fifteen-year-old Freddie Smith of the Toronto Lakeshore club broke Canadian records for the 100-yard butterfly breast stroke and the 150-yard medley and tied a third mark in the 100-yard breast stroke at the Quebec Swimming Championships at Ste. Adele, Que. Freddie is seen showing off his day's bag of medals to his father.

It is noted where three prominent golfers of the Kawartha Golf Club here are listed for the 1949 Ontario amateur championships at Kitchener's Westmount Club on July 6, this Wednesday. Fraser Dunfield gets away in a threesome at 9.30 a.m., Ned Vitarelli (local club champ) is in a trio teeing off at 11.07, and Merrill Ruiter goes with two others at 2.15 p.m. that day. This is the official draw as given out by Manager E. H. Banks of the Ontario Golf Association. There are 156 entries in the championship competition, and we expect the local golfers will make a fair showing against the pick of the province.

Lou Vitarelli is hotter than recent humidity. On account of the OLA has suspended him for three games for his part in a fight last week at Mimico. Dootch Vitarelli and Sandy Milne (latter of Mimico), who did the fighting, got just two games each on ice. Lou tried to be a peace-maker and he gets bopped in the beezer twice and thrown out for three tilts and he never even threw a punch! No wonder he's sizzling; it's pretty screwy figuring on someone's part. The Petes dropped an 18-8 senior "A" decision in St. Kitts on Saturday, the homesters racking up a hefty early lead and coasting in on it. They are away on the morrow and at home to Mimico this Friday night.

Petes Trim Batawa

League-leading COBL Petes rolled to a 7-1 win over Batawa in Belleville on Saturday eve, though Oshawa almost tied 'em by twice beating Brockville. Manager Ed Murphy was short on players but those he had really came through. Lefty Bill Dadson came up with another nifty hurling chore to give seven hits and no walks whilst whiffing 10. Joe Stewart pounded out for for five hits and Whitehill, Lowrey and Edwardson each got three. Muffitt was knocked from the mound. Locals are at home here this coming Saturday to Oshawa, and that'll be the tidbit to date this senior ball season.

Young Petes beat Newcastle 5-2 in Riverside on Saturday p.m. as the local juveniles agreed to waive use of the park till Monday. Brian Wade was in fine form on the McGinness mound, and his support was oke at bat and afield. They'll be trying for their fifth Lakeshore Loop win at 6.30 Wednesday e'en in Riverside against Bowmanville, with another joust Saturday. Miller leads the Young Petes at bat in six games with an average of .310, according to Fred Maybee. Menzies and Dadson have .430 each but were in just two and three games respectively and Corkery had .375 in three. Others are: Heffernan .309 in four, Thomson .300 in three, Sullivan, Stewart and Floyd in five each for .294, .286 and .235, and Currie .214 in four.

Favorites Make It

In men's softball Saturday night, Uniteds won 7-1 from Jewellers, as Cosmos took Outlaws 7-3. Reid threw four-hit ball in the first one, with Byrnes only giving six on the Jewellers' mound. Bigford came up with a four-hit job for Cosmos as his side hit two rival twirlers in fairly hefty style. Scriver and Harrison led Uniteds at bat, with Thomson and Walton best for Cosmos. Latter are still in front by half a game over Uniteds, who lead Knights by one game. Outlaws are then four and a half back of Knights, while Jewellers are trailing. Tonight, it's Outlaws vs. Jewellers, and Uniteds vs. Knights. Men's executive meets at seven in the "Y" tomorrow night.

Two colleens' contests at the East City Bowl last p.m., despite a brief shower. CGE won 10-5 from Lindsay in a good game, with the winners putting it in the bag in the eighth stanza. The Woollens didn't mind the warm weather as they walloped Lock Co. 17-12 in a loose affair, both sides slugging the over-sized apple hard all the way. Losers were minus a few players and had to get by with a make-shift lineup, but they made it a game. Tomorrow night sees CGE playing the Marines, while Lock Co. and Woollens are again matched. Another twin bill on Friday. The girls' schedule has a month to go yet.

Athletics Gain OLA Tussle Against Petes

St. Catharines Athletics defeated the Armstrong - sponsored Petes by an 18-8 score in their OLA senior "A" fixture in St. Catharines on Saturday night. Short a few regulars, the Petes got off to a poor start, as St. Kitts threw seven straight goals into the Peterborough twine in some five minutes of the first quarter. It was a good game after that, but the damage was done.

The win gave the Athletics a little brighter outlook in their gradual climb up the "A" ladder, and kept the Petes in bottom spot. The Petes are away this Wednesday to Owen Sound and take on Mimico here this Friday night.

The score Saturday night was 8-1 in the first quarter, 9-2 in the second, and 14-3 going into the fourth when the Petes outscored the homesters 5-4 before a small crowd. Harry Wiper, Fred Hildebrand and Pat Smith each scored twice for St. Kitts, and Ken Croft was prominent on the attack also. Leo Teatero and Jack Howse counted a pair each for the visitors, with Jim McNulty, Arn Dugan, Jack Foote and Bob Thorpe getting one apiece.

Woollens Win Over Lock Co.

Woollens defeated Lock Co. by a 17-12 score in their Girls' Softball League encounter last evening in the Bowl. It was a real slugging joust with the brief rain making footing slippery. Lock Co. played pretty fair ball with some players out with injuries and Woollens had a bit of an edge in fielding as both sides got 17 hits in the wide-open fray. Each side used just one hurler and there were few strikeouts, as it appeared to be hitters' night in this tilt.

J. McIlwain and C. Ferguson for the Dominion Woollens, with B. McMahon and B. Amyotte of the losers, looked best defensively. C. Ferguson and J. Walling led the winners with three hits each, one of the former's being a four-bagger. P. Williams led her side at bat with five for five, a perfect night, as M. Stewart hit a homer.

Name Henri Rochon To Davis Cup Team

MONTREAL, July 5—(CP)—Henri Rochon, Canada's little iron man of the tennis courts, was named to the Canadian Davis Cup team for the fourth straight year Monday by the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association.

The 25-year-old insurance salesman, who accounted for Canada's lone victory in the Davis Cup tie last year against Mexico, was the unanimous choice for the No. 1 spot on the team selected by the association's Davis Cup selection committee.

Rochon is the Ontario and Quebec provincial singles champion. He also shares the No. 1 ranking in Canada with Rene Buser of Montreal, now in Europe. Buser, a native of Switzerland and a member of that country's Davis Cup team in 1946, is ineligible to play for another country under the cup rules.

The announcement named only Rochon to a playing position on the squad. Gordon MacNeil of Montreal, former Canadian Davis Cup doubles player, previously was named non-playing captain of this year's team.

Doug Turner, former ace centre with Toronto Argos Football Club, arrived at Calgary during the weekend to take up permanent residence. It is expected he will turn out with the Dominion champion Stampeders for training later this month.

Announce Soccer Draw

TORONTO, July 5.—(CP).—The Ontario Soccer Commission has announced the draw for the semi-final round for the Ontario district playoff for the Dominion Cup. Toronto Canadians will meet Windsor Sterlings in Windsor Saturday night. In the event of a tie, a second game will be played Sunday. Hamilton Westinghouse will play either Toronto St. Andrews or Ulster United in Hamilton Monday night.

Cosmos Take 7-3 Win Over Outlaws

Cosmos kept in front of the men's City Softball League in the Bowl an Saturday night when they took a 7-3 win from Outlaws. They have half a game lead yet on Uniteds, with Knights close behind, but Outlaws slipping further down. Bigford held Outlaws to four hits in a fine showing, though issuing five walks. Gordon went good till the eighth, giving way then to Woods who finished. Outlaws didn't give their twirlers the support Bigford got.

Thomson led Cosmos at bat with a triple and three singles in five; Bill Walton having three hits for five, LaPlante two in four, and Robson two in five, one a triple. Doubles were also hit by LaPlante, Dalton and Pryde, Anderson, McCarthy, Taylor and Elliott got the only Outlaws' hits. It was a pretty fast game with Outlaws threatening toward the end on two walks, a hit and an error.

Uniteds Stay In Second With 7-1 Win

Uniteds kept in second place o. the City Softball League when they took a 7-1 triumph over Jewellers on Saturday in the Bowl. It was a good game, with Uniteds breaking loose for five runs in the sixth to put it on ice. Only a fair-sized crowd saw the struggle. Lefty Reid threw four-hit ball for the winners and fanned six, while Joe Byrnes went good most of the way on the Jewellers' slab. He allowed but six hits, though he issued eight walks. His support was poor throughout.

Bud Harrison and Russ Scriver led the Uniteds at bat with two for five each, Scriver's being doubles and one of Harrison's being a two-bagger. Wade also hit one for two bases. Pagett, Cornwell, Griffin and Crary got the lone bingles for the Credit crew.

Athletics Maul Washington Cleveland Takes Twin Bill

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

The 4th of July has come and gone with New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers still showing the way in the major league pennant races.

Tradition says the night of the 4th is the tell-tale date. If you lead then, you can start building new stands for the World Series. Actually it's right only about 50 per cent. of the time.

The return of Joe DiMaggio to the Yankee line-up continues to spark the American League leaders. Since jolting Joe came back they have won seven of eight, including five straight over the respected Boston Red Sox. They have a 4½ game lead over the Philadelphia A's.

Vic Raschi in winning his 13th game for the Giants, went all the way to win the opener 3-2. In the second inning DiMaggio's homer pulled the Yanks up into a tie in the fifth and Billy Johnson's single with the bases loaded in the seventh provided the winning 6-4 margin for reliefer Willard Marshall over Mel Parnell.

The second game was delayed by a rain storm and finally called on account of darkness after 7½ innings. The second game loss extended Boston's losing streak to eight games.

Trim Washington

The Athletics kept pace by trimming Washington 9-7 and 8-0 with little Bobby Shantz hitching a 10-hit shutout in the second. Sam Chapman provided the big fireworks with two homers, one with the bases full.

Dick Fowler, working on relief, came through with a single that drove in the tie-breaking runs when the A's rallied for six runs in the seventh inning of the opener.

Cleveland, moving strong, solidified its third-place position, seven games behind New York, by beating Detroit 3-2 and 7-3. Bobby Feller squeaked through in the first game with relief help from Satchell Paige after he was lifted for a pinch hitter.

The Indians knocked out Hal Newhouser in the second, finally handing the loss to Freddie Hutchinson with a 14-hit blast that included a two-run homer by Larry Doby.

Homers by Dick Kokos and Berry Priddy gave the St. Louis Browns a 4-2 victory and an even break with the Chicago White Sox who rapped the Brownie staff for 15 hits including two doubles by George Metkovich in the 12-5 first game.

Take Two Games

Brooklyn Dodgers won a morning and afternoon game from Philadelphia, boosting their lead over St. Louis to two full games. Preacher Roe just missed a shutout in the 7-1 morning game when Willie Jones homered with two out in the ninth. It was Preacher's eighth victory, seven in succession. Don Newcombe needed help from Jack Banta in the eighth inning to save an 8-4 decision in the second when Pee Wee Reese, Carl Furillo and Bruce Edwards hit homers.

Max Lanier's return from "exile" in Drummondville, Que., was not a success, but the Cardinals rallied after Max was knocked out in the third inning to take Chicago 9-4. Fred Martin, like Lanier, another re - instated "jumper," was the official winner.

Bob Chipman stopped the Red Birds in the second game with an efficient shutout, 5-0, scattering four hits. Hank Sauer hit a homer in each game.

Pittsburgh Pirates copped two from Cincinnati, 2-1 and 1-0, to move ahead of the Reds into sixth place. Cliff Chambers allowed only two hits in the first game, but one was Walker Cooper's seventh home run. Bill Werle yielded seven singles en route to his shutout victory over Erautt, who took over after Ewell Blackwell bowed for a pinch hitter in the sixth. It was Blackwell's first start.

Boston Braves moved into a third place tie with the Phillies, 5½ games behind the Dodgers, by splitting two with New York Giants. Tommy Holmes' second homer of the day launched a four-run rally in the last of the ninth that pulled out the second game for the Braves, 8-7. The Giants banged out 17 hits in the 11-4 first game.

Baseball, Race Tracks See Slump Beginning

NEW YORK, July 5 (AP) — The holiday is over, and so—temporarily at least—are the days of record-breaking business if you ask big league baseball and race track operators.

Attendance at eight major league ball parks Monday showed a decline of about five per cent from Independence Day last year which was celebrated on Monday, July 5, and 11 race tracks fared even worse, dropping 19 per cent in crowds and betting.

The holiday doubleheaders attracted 256,871 fans, or 13,143 less than in 1948, when the count was 269,924.

A total of 230,003 racing enthusiasts bet $11,325,766. Last year attendance hit 285,332 and betting, $14,089,735 at 10 tracks.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

More than 18,000 persons crowded Wimbledon to see Great Britain's tennis star, Fred Perry, crush Baron Gottfried von Cramm 6-2, 6-4, 6-4 in the all-England men's singles final 15 years ago today. The black-haired Briton capped his amateur career in 1936 by winning the Wimbledon and United States titles for the second straight year.

Excelsiors Edge Hamilton 14-13

(By The Canadian Press)

Brampton Excelsiors have a potent combination in the Madgett brothers in the Ontario Lacrosse Association senior loop.

Last night the Madgett boys—Carl, a defenceman, and his free-wheeling brother, Harvey, a centre—paced the Excelsiors to a 14-13 victory over the third-place Hamilton Tigers at Hamilton. The victory gave Excelsiors a firm grip on first place.

In another league game, St. Catharines Athletics defeated Weston Yorks 14-11 in overtime at Weston.

At Hamilton, Carl Madgett got three goals and an assist while Harvey backed him up with a sterling performance defensively and scored once. The Tigers pressed in the first two periods but the winners drove back in the last quarter firing four unanswered goals to salvage the victory.

Ferri also tallied three goals for the Tigers. Raine scored twice while Cruickshank, Crawford, Sheppard, Bryans and Graham got one apiece. For Hamilton, Dorney tallied four times, McDonald three times, Jamieson twice and Welch, Edmond, Davidson and Grainer added singles.

Paced By McDonald

At Weston, the Athletics were paced by Norm McDonald, who accounted for five goals. The Athletics tallied the only three goals of the fourth quarter and then outscored the Yorks 4-1 in the overtime period.

Other scorers for the Athletics were Frick and D'Amico with two each and Whipper, Whitely, Smith, Hildebrand and Bradshaw with one apiece. Hill got three goals for the Yorks while Reddy, Downer and Gair tallied two each. Venner and James followed up with singletons.

One game is slated for tonight: Peterborough at Owen Sound.

Stars Express Views About Scandals

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, July 5 (AP). — Extra! Extra! Big Hollywood Scandal!

Newsboys have been able to issue this call many times in recent years. Adverse publicity concerning big stars has rocked the town and serious minds have worried about its effect on the public.

The question is: Does scandal affect the popularity of stars? I posed the subject to several famous names and here are their answers for the AP Hollywood Forum.

Mickey Rooney—"Yes, scandal hurts a star. A star gets a big pay-cheque and fancy clothes and other things because people pay to see him. He has an obligation to the public to behave himself; when he doesn't, he suffers for it. However, some players are hurt more than others. I am much more criticized for marrying three times than Bob Mitchum is for smoking marijuana."

Paul Douglas— "I don't see much difference between publicity and notoriety."

Victor Mature—"You came to the right person; I have a Ph.D. on the subject. I think it depends a lot on the type of individual the player is. But any wrong-doing is always bad for Hollywood as a working community."

Charles Bickford—Scandal seldom hurts a young romantic star —in fact, often enhances his popularity. But it can damage a comedian or an older actor. If I did something out of line, I would just be considered a dirty old man."

Joan Fontaine—"They tell me it doesn't make any difference — but I'm not going to try it. Scandal doesn't seem to hurt the men, but I don't know about the women."

Ann Blyth—"Scandal may enhance a star's popularity for a while, but in the long run it is bad business. Eventually the public will look down on the star."

Susan Hayward — "It's my opinion that the public is quick to come to defence of someone in trouble in Hollywood. Whether this is good or bad, I am in no position to judge."

Summer Theatre Presents Unusual Comedy

By ROBERTSON DAVIES

The second play of the season at the Peterborough Summer Theatre is Gerald Savory's pleasant comedy "George and Margaret'.' This is first-rate summer entertainment, and the resident company performs with a degree of accomplishment which is far from common in Canadian summer theatres.

Because it is unusual, it is particularly pleasant to see an English comedy played in the English style in Canada. In New York, domestic comedies like "George and Margaret" are sometimes acted with a liveliness which affects the audience rather like exposure to machine-gun fire; in England such pieces are acted in a relaxed, but not slack, fashion, which is equally effective and, in the opinion of the reviewer, pleasanter for the spectators. They are not, so to speak, amused at the expense of their nervous systems. Mr. Sadlier's production strikes a very happy note of easiness and charm.

All the company played well on the first night; inevitably some were more suited to their roles than others. John Primm was admirable as the absent-minded Malcom Garth-Bander; he was particularly effective in those passages which called for a show of sympathy and understanding with his wayward children Michael Lynd showed fine restraint in a priggish role which might easily have become farcical; it is pleasant to see an actor who has the discretion to resist the temptation to be as funny as he can. As the maid who marries the son of the household, Anna Cameron showed a nice appreciation of character. Jeri Sauvinet was attractive as the indecisive daughter, though both she and Christine Thomas (who played Mrs. Garth-Bander) seemed to understate their roles somewhat in relation to the others. Paul Horton has good attack, and Frank Perry played an ungrateful role with charm and ease.

A special word of praise must be said for Gladys Sproule for the wonderful surprise which she gives the audience in a small, grotesque role in the last act. These vignettes require the most careful preparation, and Miss Sproule showed us all how effective a wordless part can be.

We recommend this to everyone in search of a really good evening's amusement. The laughter on Monday night was continuous.

POLICE STATION PAINT

City Building is being dressed with a new coat of paint. Operations started Monday and the first section to get the "new look" is the police station. Window frames are being painted green. Already the office and club building on the opposite corner has led the way with a new coat of paint.

ONE OF THE MANY LOADS of junk which members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce hauled from Jackson Park Creek Saturday in a drive to clean up the stream from McDonnel St. to Little Lake is seen here. Five of the Jaycees are shown adding to a load of junk being carried to Park St. bridge. The men include President Doug Vaisey, Pat Anglesey, Bill Edworthy, Bernie Morin, and Grenville Lathangue.

Mill Destroyed In Costly Fire North Maynooth

BANCROFT, July 5 (ENS) — Fire Monday night destroyed the lumber mill operated by Karl Goodwin of Maynooth, situated at Duquette's Siding, 18 miles north of here. The loss is at least $14,000.

Cause of the outbreak is not known but it is believed to have originated near the boiler.

The blaze was first noticed when the 16 employees were eating supper. They rushed out to do what they could but the mill burst into a mass of flame and they were able to salvage nothing of value.

Hose Burnt

Firefighting was handicapped as the hose and other equipment was burned along with the rest of the building. By the time the men reached the mill the heat was so intense it prevented any attempt at entry.

Valuable assistance was given by three men from the Department of Lands and Forests who rushed their pumper equipment from Bancroft. Largely through their help the nearby lumber pile was saved.

The Forestry men were Henry Taylor, Julius Gorgerat and John Cole.

Machinery Destroyed

Flames spead from the region of the boiler upwards to the main platform of the building which contained much valuable machinery including adgers, trimmers and saw carriages. All were destroyed.

Part of the loss included a metal roof which had been put on the mill recently. All attempts to check the flames coming from the burning structure proved fruitless, and the efforts of the firefighters were concentrated on saving nearby buildings and the stock of lumber.

This is the second mill that Mr. Goodwin has lost by fire; another one was burned several years ago.

It is believed there is no insurance coverage.

Jaycees Begin Clean-up Of Jackson Park Creek

Broken beer bottles, pieces of linoleum, 50 feet of garden hose and tin cans by the hundreds, all were hauled from Jackson Park Creek Saturday as the Junior Chamber of Commerce began its drive to make the creek something more than a sewage ditch.

"We used to swim in here," one man said as he gazed unbelievingly at the few inches of junk-littered creek water. That was when the stream was a river and young people could skate on it in winter all the way to Mount Pleasant.

The project the Jaycees set for themselves was to restore some of the beauty to what once was a small river running diagonally through the city from Jackson park in the north-west corner to Little Lake in the center of town.

Six Men Start Work

At 7.30 Saturday morning six Jaycees under president Doug Vaisey started at the point where the creek crosses McDonnel St. beside the Bonner-Worth Knitting Mills. By the end of the long day they had worked down as far as a point between Park St. and Donegal St.

Wearing rubber boots, they worked their way down the stream yanking out car parts, brush wood, rusty pieces of metal, old cardboard cartons, and an unlimited variety of junk. They wondered how some of it had ever got in the creek. For instance one of them found a water-soaked white lady's flight boot which obviously hadn't been worn very long by its owner. At another point one of them found a baby carriage. They never knew what to expect next.

Improvised Stretchers

To carry the mounds of junk, they improvised stretchers made of old burlap bags and branches of trees which could be carried by two men. The junk was taken to the McDonnel and Park St. bridges where it was loaded on trucks and removed.

There is no question the Jaycees attempt to clear up the mess was appreciated by most of the people whose property borders the creek. Mrs. Stan Johnston of Park St. gave them all a cup of coffee to refresh them for the job and to show her appreciation.

As they worked, several children of the neighborhood pitched in and helped.

"It's a job that needs to be done and is worth doing, as long as the people of the district will stop throwing their junk in and making it just as bad as ever in a few weeks" one of the Jaycees commented.

The men who did the work were Doug Vaisey, Alderman Pat Anglesey, Bill Edworthy, Bernie Morin, Grenville Lathangue, Gord Patterson and Stewart Lockington.

Cut Speed Limit On Park Hill Rd.

Greater safety for small children who use Inverlea park as a playground was sought by city council in two ways Monday night.

Council passed a by-law reducing the legal speed limit on Park Hill Road bridge to 15 miles per hour which will take effect as soon as the necessary signs can be erected by the engineer's department. Council also asked for a sign warning motorists that there is a children's playground in the park.

The second measure is to move the Tot Lot to some other part of the park away from Park Hill Road.

Both these safety steps resulted from a report made to the council by the Board of Works under the chairmanship of Alderman Hurrell Dodds.

Council Asks $1,200 For Two Northend Lots

Property owned by the city is being put up for sale as a result of the city council's adopting a Property Committee report at its meeting Monday night.

The price set on two lots at the corner of Wolsley and Aylmer Sts. was $1,200 for the two together, or $800 for the corner lot and $600 for the inside lot.

City council asked the Canadian General Electric Company to pay the annual taxes or the council would prefer that the company buy the land described as part of Lot 12 north of Rink and west of George, and part of Lot 12 south of Townsend and west of George.

JUNIOR FARMERS' MEETING

Junior Farmers are meeting Wednesday at 8.15 p.m. in the office of the Department of Agriculture to discuss plans for attending the district field day at Belleville July 29. All members are asked to be present.

Season's Start Odder Fish Than Bigger

After four days of bass and muskie fishing there are no great fishing stories to tell. Bass fishing in general seems good in most areas of the Kawarthas but few 'lunge are being taken. The season opened with the taking of such odd fish as, first, a 49-pound sturgeon by Edward Brown of Alliance, O., at Percy Boom, five miles east of Campbellford on opening day. The second oddity was the catch of a five-pound whitefish by Frank Samis of Bowmanville on Sunday on Lake Katchewanooka. He also lost four others. Bob Freeman landed a 20-pound muskie early Friday morning in front of Jack Dawson's cottages on the same lake, a record this year still to be topped.

The best muskie story following this one comes from W. Blodgett of Nassau. In company with Ed Simmons and Dick Hazlitt on Sunday, they trolled the "Quarry Lake" section of Indian River north of Warsaw and landed three, a 12, a 9½ and a third just over the keeper size. They suspect these fish are practically landlocked now due to low water on the river.

Johnnie Russelle, his two boys and a friend from Ottawa caught 14 bass and an eight-pound 'lunge between the Filtration Plant and the Auburn Dam on Sunday. It is reported that they gave them to a disgruntled American fisherman who stopped at Johnnie's service station.

Numerous Strikes

R. O. Blanchard South Windsor A. Tillotson, East Hartford, and Paul A. Hilli, Hartford, all of Connecticut, had the occasional bass strike at Six Point Lodge, Silent Lake, while trolling for lake trout before the season opened for bass. They had to let them go with reluctance but came back into the limelight on Sunday with a few nice blacks.

Proprietor Art Tompsett, White Pine Lodge, Paudash Lake, reports excellent bass fishing with the largest three pounds, being caught by Mrs. Robert Johnston of Toronto. Down Belmont Lake way at Belmont Lake Lodge, Roger Young says that both bass and pickerel are biting well, and so are muskies. Unfortunately, none of the latter have been keepers to date and the largest bass scaled four pounds.

Council Sets Approval On Lions Club Pool

Lions' Club children's wading pool in Riverside was given the official go ahead signal by city council Monday night with the adoption of the report of the special committee appointed to confer with the Lions Club.

The committee under the chairmanship of Alderman Herbert N. Young recommended that the Lions' Club be given authority to proceed with construction of the $40,000 wading pool in the lower half of the park. It also suggested the city pay for the necessary sewage pump and pipe connections.

Work on the pool was started about six weeks ago.

Welcome U.S. Visitors To Rotary Luncheon

The Rotary Club which met Monday for the first time under the new president, Harley Keefer welcomed American guests to Canada on their celebration of Independence Day, July 4.

Representing the many thousands of American tourists who travel through Peterborough was Dan Barman who has been coming to Chemong 40 years.

Dr. R. A. Kelly, MOH, who was to speak to the club on health was unable to attend owing to illness.

Chairman of the committee on International Service, Harold Deeth, spoke of the international aspects of the Rotary Club. He pointed out that the beliefs in individual freedom which the Declaration of Independence expressed also formed the basis of Rotary ideals.

REMOVED TENNIS NET

Who is the joker who removed the tennis net from the north court at the Quaker Tennis Club in the early hours of Sunday morning was the poser tennis players were trying to fathom when they found the court without a net after leaving the grounds intact Saturday night.

Apparently unaware of the risk of being electrocuted, the prankster—or pranksters—had wound the net round a transformer a few yards away from the court on the river bank.—H.P.

Tourist-Gougers Few But Sharp Spoil Business

In every bright picture there has to be at least one dark spot. Thus, dark spots can be found in one of this district's biggest and most profitable trades—the tourist business. The dark spots are the operators who soak the tourist for as much as he can stand.

An example was the woman who charged a customer $5.00 for parking his trailer on the lakeside of a country road northwest of Haliburton. The rub came when the tourist found that the woman didn't own the land in the first place.

This same woman would not let two young fellows pitch a tent in her field. She was only too glad to rent a boat to them, however, for $3.00 a day. The catch here was that the boat leaked so badly that it filled with water within half an hour.

Brighter Side

The picture brightens on the other side, however, One man near Wilberforce invited the same couple to pitch their tent anywhere on his property, offered them the use of his ice-house, drinking water and all other conveniences. He rented them a boat for $1.50 per day, and offered to direct them to any lakes in the vicinity.

This man had the idea that the land was God-given, and just because there was a deed showing that he owned the place was no reason for him to shut the property off and not allow anyone else to enjoy it.

The same man has been instrumental in forming a tourist and resort owners' association in the district, with a view to eliminating malpractice on the part of some operators. As it is now, he says, some of them depend on itinerant travellers who, in desperation for a place to sleep, will pay any amount for a bed.

The day is coming, he said, when resort men will have to look farther ahead, in an attempt to make the guests come back year after year. His hope is that the men who are charging $75 per week for a cottage that will give them a profit at $35, will find that the golden days are coming to a close.

City Council Cuts Number Of Meetings

Heat and the normal summer slack in city council business has its effect in reducing the number of council and committee meetings from weekly to monthly for the summer months.

Council will now meet the first Monday of each month and the finance committee and the Board of Works the last Monday of each month.

This decision was reached when the council moved adoption of the Board of Works report at the Monday night meeting of the city council.

$1,814,990 City Loan Is Bought Up At Premium By Six Financial Houses

Peterborough debentures for $1,814,990.46 commanded a premium on a tightening money market from two companies wanting to lend money to the city for the new Civic Hospital and other projects. Tenders were opened Monday afternoon and in the evening, city council accepted the highest offer. The winning company will buy the debentures for 100.2116 per cent. of the par value.

Alderman Hurrell Dodds said he thought the council should consider the offers for a time before accepting any one of them. It's a lot of money, he said.

It's simple arithmetic, commented Alderman Adam Sands. Acceptance of the highest offer was moved by Alderman Hugh Waddell and seconded by Alderman James Gillespie.

Its Uses

The money raised by the debenture bonds will be used partly for the Civic hospital which will absorb $1,500,000. The Utilities Commission will use $200,000 for waterworks. Work on sewers throughout the city will soak up another $100,173.78 and sidewalks $14,816.68.

The sewage jobs are covered by eight separate by-laws and new sidewalks by five by-laws. The work will be scattered throughout the city.

Six separate financial corporations banded together to make the successful bid. They were the Dominion Securities Corp. Ltd., H E. Ames and Co Ltd., The Canadian Bank of Commerce, Wood, Gunty and Co. Ltd., Royal Bank of Canada and Gardner and Co. Ltd.

Five other groups bid 100.15, 99.92, 99.73, 99.55 and 99.184% of the debenture value. Interest rates set by the city varied with the component parts of the loan. The rate on the hospital loan was two and three quarters per cent for one to ten years and three and one quarter for 11 to 20 years. The PUC loan interest was three and one quarter. Debentures for sewers and sidewalks carry an interest rate of three per cent.

Ask Council Clean Up City-Owned Lot

Petitions to city council received a sympathetic hearing Monday night.

A request that a city-owned lot at the corner of Monaghan Rd. and Romaine St. described by people in the district as an "unsightly mess" be cleaned up was received. Mayor M. J. Swanston said he thought Dr. Herbert N. Young, chairman of the Parks Committee, should take charge of seeing that something was done about the lot.

A petition for sewers for 12 new houses being built on Montrose Ave. was given the approval of the council.

Residents of the Arndon subdivision, and the south side of Wolsley St. from Bethune to Stewart St. who asked for sidewalks also got good news. Council asked that the engineer make a detailed report and that the necessary by-law be prepared.

SERIOUSLY ILL

It was reported today that the condition of Reg. H. Turner, 515 Water St., who has been seriously ill had not changed a great deal although there is hope he is improving a little.

Guide Drowns Landing Muskie At Healey Falls

(ENS).—Arthur Kelleher, 63, a well-known guide on the Trent River for the past 30 years, was drowned at 8 a.m. Sunday, north of Healey Falls, when he fell backwards from a boat into about 15 feet of water. The accident occurred when he and two United States fishermen were landing a maskinonge. His companions had no chance to rescue him as he sank immediately without a struggle and never came to the surface.

For the past year Mr. Kelleher had been in poor health and it is thought he was seized with a heart attack.

Dragging equipment from Hastings, Trent River and Campbellford was rushed to the scene. More than 50 men in a dozen boats in charge of Provincial Constable Arthur Kellogg and Game Warden Reg. McCulloch combed the river for hours before the body was recovered at 12.45 p.m., about 100 feet from where Mr. Keller fell from the boat.

Known In Campbellford

Born in Seymour Township, the son of the late James Kelleher and Elizabeth Caulkeen, he was a life-long resident of Campbellford and district. At the time of his death he was employed by the management of J. E. Ayrhart's Woodland Estate.

Mr. Kelleher was a bachelor and a member of the Catholic Church. Surviving are one sister and three brothers: Mrs. James McGraw, Warkworth; Joseph, Seymour Township; George of Seattle, Wash., and Ruben of Brandon, Man. The body was removed to Bennett's Funeral Home, Campbellford.

Hoy—Copp Wedding

HAVELOCK, July 5—(ENS)—Amid a setting of blue and white delphiniums, pink roses, variegated canterbury bells and ferns a pretty wedding was solemnized in Knox Presbyterian Church Saturday of Marion Cleo Copp, only daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Copp of Havelock and James Leslie Hoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hoy of Spencerport, N.Y. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. D. Duncanson. Wedding music was played by Mrs. George Kennedy, cousin of the bride. Mr. Fred Bennett sang, "With This Ring I Thee Wed" prior to the ceremony and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of white embroidered nylon marquisette over taffeta, made with moulded bodice, fastened down the back with tiny covered buttons, bertha collar and long sleeves coming to points over the hands. The full skirt fell in a long train and she wore a full-length veil of tulle caught to a coronet of satin trimmed with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a large orchid and a cascade of stephonosis and she carried a white Bible.

Mrs. William Cartwright was matron of honor wearing a gown of yellow taffeta fashioned on princess lines, matching picture hat, and carried a yellow satin basket of pink snapdragons. Bridesmaids were Miss Jean Peters of Havelock and Miss Laurena Wight of Trent River. They were in similar frocks of blue and pink nylon marquisette over taffeta, matching picture hats and carried satin baskets in the colors of their dresses filled with snapdragon and lilies.

William Cartwright was groomsman and the ushers were Douglas Brooks of Toronto and Norbert Gravelle of Spencerport, N.Y.

A reception was held in the church parlor, the bride's mother receiving in a gown of navy sheer with matching taffeta trim and accessories and a corsage of red roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother who wore grey sheer with pink hat and accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoy left for a motor trip to points east the bride travelling in a dress of white figured silk jersey, white felt hat and corsage of white gardenias. They will reside at Spencerport N.Y.

MR. AND MRS. MAXWELL EARL KETCHESON are seen leaving St. John's Anglican Church after their marriage Saturday. The bride is Yvonne Georgina, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Manning. The groom is the son of Mr. Maurice E. Ketcheson and the late Mrs. Ketcheson, all of Peterborough. —Roy Studio Photo

Roy-Crowder

The marriage of Nellie Agnes, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crowder, 61 Edgewater Blvd. to Douglas E. Roy, son of Mr. Aldie Roy and the late Mrs. Roy of Sudbury, was solemnized at seven o'clock Friday evening, July 1, at the parsonage of Mark St. United Church. The Rev. E. W. Rowland performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a dress of pale blue crepe with insert and peplum of white lace, a small white hat trimmed with veiling and white roses and wore a corsage of red roses. Her bridesmaid was Miss Margaret Freeman, wearing pink crepe with pink hat and a corsage of pink roses. Mr. William Crowder, brother of the bride, was groomsman.

A reception followed at the bride's home. Her mother was wearing a flowered jersey dress with matching accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Leaving later on a wedding trip to Sudbury, the bride was wearing a black and white jersey dress and white accessories. Mr. and Mrs Roy will live in Peterborough.

M'Donald-Graham

The marriage was solemnized on Friday by the Rev. P. P. Butler of St. Peter's Cathedral of Helen Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Graham, 404 London St., and Mr. William Clarence MacDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Casey MacDonald of Lindsay.

The bride wore a dress of powder blue moise taffeta, a pink Swiss straw hat, pink shoes and gloves, and a corsage of pink roses and bouvardia. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Harold Sanderson who wore pink moise taffeta, a blue bonnet and blue shoes and gloves. Her corsage was of blue cornflowers and pink roses.

The groom was attended by Mr. M. McGee.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Her mother received a grey printed silk dress with which she wore grey accessories. The groom's mother who also received was wearing navy printed silk with accessories and a corsage of American beauty roses and baby's breath.

Mr. Irvin Tully was groomsman for his brother.

After a wedding trip to Toronto and points east the bride and groom will live at 243 McDonnel St.

June Brown Weds Howard V. Morrow

A background of Madonna lilies, gladioli and ferns in St. Paul's Anglican Church at Bethany, Saturday afternoon, was the setting for the wedding of Betty June Brown, daughter of Mrs. Brown and the late William A. Brown, and Howard Vernon Morrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Morrow of Perth. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. S. Gault. Mr. Norman Lowes played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Mary Robson, Peterborough, who sang "Oh Perfect Love" before the bridal party entered the church, and "Because" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Harry Sutton, Bowmanville, the bride was lovely in a gown of white slipper satin with a full skirt caught up in tiny scallops across the front hemline to show a frilly lace-trimmed undershirt and long train was also edged with lace. Her floor length veil of embroidered nylon was caught to a halo of orange blossoms and she carried gardenias on an ivory prayer book. Miss Velma Brown was her sister's maid of honor, wearing orchid stiffened organdie embroidered with lily of the valley, fashioned with dropped shoulders and bustle effect skirt. Mrs. William Sargent of Donaldson wore a matching frock, made on the same lines of green embroidered organdie. Their bonnets and mitteps matched the dresses and each carried an old-fashioned nosegay.

Mr. Floyd Morrow, Perth, was his brother's groomsman. Manson Cathcart, Peterborough, and William Sargent, Donaldson, were the ushers.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. Mrs. Brown received her guests in a gown of periwinkle blue, navy accessories, and corsage of sweetheart roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother, who wore grey crepe with navy accessories and corsage of red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrow left for a trip through Muskoka, the bride travelling in a light blue gabardine suit with pink accessories and wearing a corsage of pink roses.

Ball-Stephens

In St. Peter's Cathedral on Friday the marriage took place of Iris Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mars. Cecil G. Stephens, and Donald Joseph Ball, formerly of Holdfast, Saskatchewan, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Ball. The Rev. R. J. Garvey officiated.

The bride wore a dress of royal blue crepe and grey accessories, and had a corsage of gardenias. She was attended by Miss Gladys Murphy, wearing an identical dress of light blue crepe with navy accessories and a corsage of baby pink carnations.

The groomsman was Mr. Fred Sullivan.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, London St. Afterward the couple left on a trip to Toronto and the United States. The bride travelled in a navy linen suit and wore grey accessories. They will live in Peterborough.

Tully-McDonald

In Trinity United Church on Friday, July 1st, the Rev. Dr. D. B. Gordon performed the marriage of Jean Marion, daughter of Mr. John McDonald and the late Mrs. McDonald, Peterborough to Herbert Roy Tully, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James D. Tully of Selwyn.

The bride was attired in a two piece dress of heavenly blue crepe and wore a matching hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses and baby's breath. She was attended by her sister Miss Zoe McDonald who wore a cameo dress and hat, wine matching accessories. Each had a corsage of red roses.

Following a honeymoon in the Kawartha district, Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald will live in Peterborough.

Graham-Chorley Wedding Rites

The marriage took place in the Pentecostal Church Saturday afternoon of Alice Louise Chorley, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. F. L. Chorley, Amherst, N.S., to Mr. Earl Graham, son of Mrs. A. A. Graham and the late Mr. Graham of Lakefield. The Rev. W. B. Greenwood officiated.

Baskets of summer flowers, banked with fern, decorated the church. Mrs. W. B. Greenwood played the music and during the signing of the register Mrs. D. Kennedy sang a wedding prayer.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was gowned in white French crepe with a slight train trimmed with ruching of the same material. Her veil of white embroidered net was caught with a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses and gypsophilia.

The bridesmaid was Miss Margaret Smith of Hamilton, niece of the bride, who wore a frock of aqua moire taffeta with bonnet to match and carried a bouquet of Rapture roses. Sharon Louise Roberts of Hamilton was flower girl for her aunt, frocked in pink embossed organdy with matching halo and carrying a nosegay of pink rosebuds and sweet peas.

Mr. Orton Graham was groomsman for his brother. Ushers were Chas. Rayment and G. Morrison.

The reception was held in Hooper's Palm Room where the bride's mother received in coral pink crepe, grey accessories and corsage of pink Delight roses. She was assisted by the groom's sister, Mrs. S. Tedford who was gowned in flowered crepe and wore white accessories and corsage of pink roses.

For going-away the bride chose a pink taffeta dress tand white accessories. After a wedding trip to western Ontario, the bride and groom will reside at R.R. 3, Lakefield.

Gwendolyn Buck Wed At Norwood

The marriage of Gwendolyn Verena, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Buck, Norwood, to Mr. Kurt Frederick Klutentreter, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Klutentreter, Alberta, took place last week at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. R. E. Dargan, of the Free Methodist Church performed the ceremony and Miss Shirley Stark played wedding music.

The bride was gowned in pink faille taffeta and wore a veil of pink silk embroidered net, caught to a halo of orange blossoms and lily of the valley. She carried white roses with lily of the valley and fern. Mrs. J. Nixon as matron of honor wore blue taffeta with matching halo and carried pink roses. Small Eleanor Nixon as flower girl was in yellow taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink and yellow roses.

The groom was attended by Mr. John Nixon.

The couple left later on a trip to Ottawa, Picton and Cobourg, the bride wearing a rose crepe dress with black accessories.

Bridal Pair Feted

HAVELOCK, July 5 (ENS)—Blairton Orange Hall was the scene of a large gathering recently when Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Ellis (nee Joyce Agnew), whose marriage took place in June, were honored with a miscellaneous shower. More than 100 relatives and friends from Havelock and district attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis received many beautiful gifts. The presentation was made by Miss Mildred Ellis. An enjoyable evening was spent in dancing and refreshments were served.

DOROTHY DIX

Love-Surfeited Courtship Results in Bored Husband

DEAR MISS DIX: I read what you said about people finding happiness in simple things. That's the boloney. You are all wet. How can I be happy without a car when I see other young fellows speeding around in their fine sports cars? How can I be happy when I have to take girls to cheap places when other boys can take girls out and give them a big time? How can anybody be happy dressed in hand-me-downs when she sells Paris clothes to other girls? How can anybody be happy without money and the things money buys? They can't. Happiness in simple things. Bah!

MODERN YOUTH

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Happiness is a state of mind, son. It isn't possessions. Some of the most bitterly unhappy people I have ever known in my life had millions of dollars, but they couldn't buy happiness with them. And conversely some of the happiest people I have ever known had almost nothing in the way of money, but they had peace and contentment and joy in living.

The richest man that I have ever personally known was the most miserable. He had a diseased body so that he never knew a moment that was free from pain. He had magnificent homes all over this country and in Europe, but in none of them was there love and tenderness. For his wife had married him for his money and she was a brilliant social figure who flitted here and there, leaving him, a lonely old man, to the ministrations of servants. His children not only showed him no affection, but had gone the usual way of very rich men's children into every sort of scandal.

Now I do not despise money or belittle it. A certain amount of it is absolutely necessary to happiness in our present state of civilization. No one can be happy who is hungry, or cold, or lacks a shelter, or who is torn with anxiety about how to get enough money to live on decently and in a fair degree of comfort, but after you have gotten that you have practically all that money will buy you in the way of happiness. You can eat only so much. You can only wear one suit of clothes at a time. You can endure only a certain degree of heat. You can only live in one house. And the ability to have more doesn't make you able to assimilate more food, or give you a better appetite, or make you able to endure a higher temperature, or superimpose one garment on another.

So we come back at last to the fact that we must find our happiness in simple things. We must get it out of good health—our physical well-being—since no one can be happy who is sick and suffering. We must get it out of human affections, since no one can be happy who is unloved or lacks congenial companionship. We must get it out of finding entertainment and amusement in the passing show of life, in books, in magazines, in the cinema, in all the myriad things that are happening in this thrilling world of ours. We must get it out of our own thoughts and our own attitude toward life. And these things are as free to the poor as they are to the rich.

Once a woman and her little daughter came to visit me. For dessert at dinner we had ice cream which the child greatly desired, but was not permitted to eat. I said by way of consolation: "Well, Annie, we won't have any more ice cream while you are here. To which her mother replied: "Not at all. All her life Annie has to see people having things she wants and can't have without making herself miserable over it, and the sooner she learns this lesson, the better for her."

I have always thought this one of the wisest things I have ever heard anybody say, and that in it was the secret of how to be happy.—DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX: We are two young boys 20 and 23 years old. We each have some amount of personality, make a fairly decent appearance, have cars and a good supply of telephone numbers, but we are both discontented. The reason of this is that no matter how much we like a girl to start with we soon tire of her and find fault with her and can't endure her any longer. We get tired of different dates every night and we get tired of the same girl after three weeks of her company. What shall we do?

LESNER AND THELNING.

ANSWER: It looks to me as if you were fed up on girls so that you have lost your appetite for their society. Why don't you give yourselves a change? Quit going to see the girls every night. Interest yourselves in sports. If you can afford it, go off on a nice long trip somewhere. Camping in the woods or to some other Eveless Eden.

And, of course, the reason you get tired of girls is because you haven't met THE girl yet. When you do she will hold your interest and you won't be able to get enough of her society.

But take my advice on this point, boys. Don't marry while you are still so fickle. The real reason that you tire of the girls you know so quickly is because your minds are in a state of flux, your taste is changing every day. You are demanding different charms and attributes in girls and that is why the next girl you are crazy about one day bores you to tears the next.—DOROTHY DIX.

QUESTION: SOS Mary Moore. Please give me your method of canning raspberries. I will pack them in glass jars. If you cannot print this this week please send me a separate letter "Pete's-mother-too."

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Well, is that so?—how old is your Pete?

Canned Raspberries

Pick over and wash raspberries without allowing the force of the water to crush them, or without allowing them to soak. Pack loosely into sterile jars, without handling top edges of jars. Rubbers should be on jars before filling with raspberries. Pour over boiling hot syrup of 1 cup sugar to each 4 cups water (this is a thin syrup and the one I use) to almost overflowing. Put on sterile glass tops at once, without touching under side, seal, turning metal ring to within one-quarter turn of tight. Stand on broiler pan or flat baking pan having 1 inch boiling water in it. The hot syrup in the jars prevents jars from breaking when they are stood in this boiling water. Over-process at 275 deg. Fahr. for 20 minutes. When these are removed from oven you must be very careful. A cold draught will break the jars. If you have time, it is better to open oven door and let oven cool down to 175 deg. Fahr. before lifting jars from pan. Tighten seal—never loosen it because jars have air space. Invert on cloth on table to cool.

QUESTION—There is a Chinese restaurant in town which sometimes serves what they call Ragout of Beef and it is delicious—my husband has asked me to ask you how to make it. I think I could use stewing beef for it, couldn't I? Needless to say I am trying to cut down on our meat bill too. Harriet.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER:

Ragout Beef (No. 1)

Buy 2 lbs. shin or shoulder beef and wipe with damp cloth and cut into cubes of about 1½ inches. Roll flour to which you have added 1 teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon pepper—about ½ cup flour is needed. Melt two tablespoons bacon fat or margarine in heavy frying pan and saute meat in it until it is brown on all sides. Stir in a tablespoon flour, pour over 1 cup boiling water (or tomato juice) and stir until it boils. Add a little more salt and pepper, 1 finely diced carrot, 1 finely diced onion, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, cover closely and simmer until meat is tender — adding a little more water as it becomes too thick. More vegetables may be added of course, such as more carrots, and onions, plus celery, turnip, potatoes, and green peas—the last two would go in at about 15 minutes before serving time.

Baked Ragout of Beef.

Make same as above, but use larger dish, for this is delicious with whole onions, whole carrots, whole new potatoes and requires about 3 hours in the oven at 325 deg. Fahr. About 2½ to 3 cups water is required before this is finished.

Directions

Place pickerel fillets on pieces of parchment roughly the size of the pieces of fish. Sprinkle with salt and a few drops of lemon juice, then with fine stale crumbs and a sprinkling of cooking oil or melted margarine. Sprinkle with paprika. Bake in very hot oven of 500 deg. Fahr. for about 10 minutes. Serve at once.

Baked Pork and Beef Loaf

(Clip this recipe for it is exceptionally good.)

Have the butcher put through his grinder together 1 pound shoulder pork and 1½ pounds shin beef. (If he will not give you this service you will have to put them through the grinder at home. Add ½ cup stale crumbs, ¾ cup hot milk(2 teaspoons salt, ⅛ teaspoon peper, and 2 slightly beaten eggs. You may add such seasonings as crumbled thyme, sage or curry powder but if you do use very little of them. Shape into loaf, place on dripping pan, surround with parboiled halved potatoes and bake 10 minutes at 450 deg. Fahr., then reduce heat to 375 for 45 minutes. Baste loaf with drippings occasionally—also potatoes. Towards end of baking time, sprinkle potatoes with salt and paprika.

For the compote of sweet cherries or any sweet fruit boil together ½ cup sugar and 1 cup water 5 minutes. Drop in stoned fruit and cook about 5 minutes. Drop in stoned fruit and cook about 5 minutes. Chill thoroughly before serving. These are good with salted chackers and Baumert cheese.

DRIVES OIL TRUCK THROUGH WALL OF FLAME

1. Roy Northrop's truck was supplying oil to town workmen who were re-surfacing a road in North Weston, near Toronto.

2. The oil on the road suddenly caught fire. Flames swept the surface — shooting 15 to 20 feet into the air. The oil truck was in the midst of it all!

3. Quickly, Northrop drove his truck through the flames to a dry spot. He had risked his life — but a disastrous explosion had been averted.

WINS DOW AWARD

ROY NORTHROP
of Woodbridge, Ont., calmly averts disastrous explosion

Workmen were re-surfacing the road with oil from Northrop's truck. Suddenly the oil on the road caught fire . . . flames shot up into the air. Northrop realized that the truck must be moved if an explosion was to be avoided — a blast that would wreck the nearby houses. Calmly, he started the engine and drove the oil truck through the wall of flame to a dry section of the road.

For risking his life to prevent a possibly tragic explosion, we are proud to present Roy Northrop with The Dow Award.

6—In Memoriams

KELLY—In loving memory of Mrs. George Kelly, who passed away July 5, 1945.
No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered, since we lost you
Life has never been the same.
In our hearts, your memory lingers,
Sweetly tender, fond and true,
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you.
—Sadly missed by husband and family.

McMILLAN—In loving memory of Jas. F. McMillan, who passed away one year ago, July 2.
Many a lonely heartache,
Many a silent tear,
Always a faithful memory
For him no longer near.
God gave us strength to bear it,
Courage to fight the blow,
But what it meant to lose him,
None will ever know.
—Remembered by wife and family.

PERRY—In loving memory of our dear brother, Garnet Perry, who was drowned July 5, 1947.
Come to My heavenly garden
And see in perfect bloom
The flower you loved so dearly
And thought that I plucked too soon.
Then you will know My reason
Though you will know it not today,
Why in his promising manhood
I took your brother away.
—Ever remembered by his brothers and sisters.

Cyclist Injured In Street Accident

Ernest Holden, 482 Cricket Place, cycling on Hunter St. early Monday afternoon fell off his bicycle when he started to make the turn into Queen St.

As Holden made the turn, Roy Sanderson of Sandy's Cigar Store applied the brakes of his car to avoid a collision, but the car skidded and Holden fell from the bicycle. The impact of Holden's head dented the hood of the car and a fender of the bicycle was also dented.

Constable Harold Mesley arrived on the scene shortly after the incident and supervised the traffic while Holden was placed in Belleghem's ambulance and taken home.

Another bicycle incident occurred Monday when a car and a bicycle collided on Monaghan Rd. Two lads were cycling along Monaghan Rd. and when W. A. Rowland turned into Monaghan Rd. from Cameron St. he saw the boys zig-zagging along the road.

When he saw an oncoming truck loaded with hay, Rowland tooted his horn but only one of the boys took heed of the warning by pulling into the side of the road. The other lad, Scott Pearton, aged 12 of 597 Monaghan Rd. fell from his bicycle. He was uninjured but the front wheel of the bicycle was broken.

Constable D. J. Farthing investigated the accident.

122 Get Lessons In Swimming At Two Beaches

Sixty lessons have been given by the swimming instructors up to Monday noon reports Recreation Director Jack Dane. Forty of the lessons have been given at the Inverlea beach where there are 122 registered in the four classes. At Riverside Park there are 99 registered for lessons so far with 20 lessons given by the Instructors. The attendance peak at Inverlea is 350 with the peak at Riverside lower at 100.

At Inverlea beach there are 70 in the non-swimmers' class, 38 in the junior class, 2 in the senior and 12 in the beach patrol. In the non-swimmers' class at Riverside there are slightly more than at Inverlea with 78. Other classes are smaller with 16 in the junior class, 2 in the senior class and 3 in the beach patrol.

The program followed at both beaches is: morning program from 10 until noon, half-hour periods, learn to swim group, junior class, games and stunts, and the beach patrol; afternoon program, from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m., intermediate swimmers and games; evening program, from 6 p.m. until 8 p.m., adult classes, diving, speed swimming, fancy swimming and life saving.

Swimming tests will be held Friday morning from 10 until noon at Inverlea and in the afternoon from 2 p.m. until 4 p.m. at Riverside. The tests will be for the junior swimmers and the beach patrol applicants who are registered in the swimming classes.

To belong to the beach patrol the boys must pass the Senior Red Cross Swimmers' Badge and perform one life-saving carry. They will also attend classes throughout the summer in life-saving, artificial respiration and speed swimming.

Police Trying To Find Girl

MINDEN, July 4 (ENS)—Provincial Constable A. R. Edwards of the Provincial Police detachment here is checking on a report that a 12-year-old Swansea school girl, Dolphine Wharton, missing from her home since Saturday night, may have gone to visit friends in the Haliburton district. So far inquiries made by the police have failed to substantiate this report.

Chief Constable Albert Carless of Swansea, near Toronto, said Monday night that the girl is known to have bought a dress on Bloor St. West, Toronto, and attended a movie around 10 p.m. Saturday. The girl's mother, Mrs. John Wharton, had given her daughter $20 with which to do some shopping at a chain store, but the girl failed to return home the police were notified and the afterwards, with the result that search was begun.

Golds Show Minus On Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, July 5—(CP)—Profit-taking of Monday's gains pushed golds into the minus column in one of the most active sessions in about two months here today. Industrials climbed higher and base metals weathered early realizing sales to continue advancing.

Opening prices in golds were higher as the group continued to climb upwards to the best level since late April. However, profit-taking set in and prices began to drop from their high points early in the session. Activity tended to slacken across the general mining list but a few issues attracted considerable attention.

Eldona, Nicholson and Donalda were very active for strong gains. A few producers touched new highs at the opening.

Base metals were under realizing pressure early in the day and then resumed yesterday's late advance in mid-session. Key issues were quite strong in moderate dealings.

Papers led industrials quietly higher. Steels, liquors, utilities and agriculture groupings showed a majority of fractional gains.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

Barley—July 1 higher at $1.19-5/8A; Oct 3/4 higher at $1.10 7/8; Dec 1 3/8 higher at $. 06A.

Rye—July 7/8 higher at $1.32-3/4A; Oct. 1 higher at $1.34 1/2A; Dec 1 1/8 higher at $1.35.

Flax—July not open.

Inspections: Wheat this year 436; last year 266; cars of contract 363; oats 154-113; barley 117-87; flax 73-9; rye 64-0; other grains 4-5; total 848470.

Young-Mumby

MARMORA, July 5 (ENS)—At St. Paul's Anglican Church, Marmora, on July 1st, Phyllis Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Mumby, Deloro, became the bride of Borden Hugh Young, son of Mr. Russell Young and the late Mrs. Young of Consecon. Rural Dean J. M. Brownlie, rector, officiated.

The church was decorated with white lilies, delphinium and roses. Mrs. Alex F. Fraser presided at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory sheer over taffeta, embroidered shoulder veil of imported net and headdress of braided satin. She carried a cascade of red roses.

Mrs. Melvin Carnrike, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Reta Kirkpatrick of Buffalo N.Y., was bridesmaid and little Miss Sharon Steenburgh of Trenton was flower girl. They wore similar dresses of blue and pale yellow taffeta with matching Dutch caps and mittens. All carried nosegays of roses and sweet peas.

Mr. John Mumby, brother of the bride, was groomsman and Mr. Bud French of Consecon and Alan Mumby, brother of the bride were ushers.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Her mother received in a dress of grey mesh with grey accessories and corsage of pink carnations. She was assisted by the groom's grandmother, Mrs. F. French of Consecon, who wore a dress of navy blue needlepoint with matching accessories and a corsage of red carnations.

After a short honeymoon, the couple will reside at a summer cottage at Cedardale, late moving to Trenton.

Zita Herlihey Weds Kenneth T. Scully

DOWNEYVILLE, July 5 (ENS) A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Luke's Roman Catholic Church, Downeyville Saturday morning of Zita Mary daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Herlihey to Mr. Kenneth Thomas Scully son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Scully, the Rev. V. G. McFadden officiated.

The church was decorated with delphiniums and pink roses and the music was played by Mrs. Patrick Perdue, aunt of the bride, who also sang beautifully assisted by Miss Pauline O'Donnell of Downeyville. During the signing of the register Mrs. Perdue sang "Rosewis Ave Maria."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and she wore a gown of 18th century style in white satin embellished with tiers of Pointe de Sonte lace, and sprays of lily of the valley, trimmed with a bertha neckline of nylon and lace, with a circular veil falling into a graceful train, hand embroidered and held in place with a lace crown trimmed with satin. She carried a bouquet of regal lilies.

Wedding attendants were, Miss Ruth Herlihey sister of the bride as bridesmaid and Miss Lorraine Davidson as maid of honor.

The bridesmaid was in a period gown of rose amber taffeta with softly crushed bertha collar and closely fitted bodice. The bouffant skirt was banded with stiffened folds simulating a hoop skirt and she wore long fingerless mittens. Her headdress was of matching taffeta with finger-tip veil, and she carried a bouquet of Talisman roses and gladioli petals. The maid of honor wore cloud blue taffeta quaintly fashioned with stiffened folds of self material forming a tiny turned down collar at the back and front of the low neckline and gathered with ruffles over the shoulders. She wore fingerless mittens and a matching headdress with finger tip veil and her bouquet was of red roses and white gladioli petals.

Groomsman was Leo Scully brother of the groom and ushers were Elton Herlihey and Dennis Scully brothers of the bride and groom.

After the cermony a dinner and reception was held at Benson Hotel, Lindsay where the bride's mother received wearing a gown of gray tissue faille crepe embroidered with gray lace. Her corsage was of deep pink roses. The groom's mother who also received, wore navy figured crepe with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses. A buffet lunch was served at the home of the bride's parents in the afternoon.

The bride and groom left for a trip to Washington, DC, and southern states. For travelling the bride chose a dress of blue crepe, lace trimmed, matching hat of blue lace and grey accessories. Her corsage was of sweetheart roses. They will reside in Peterborough.

Falls Asleep At Wheel

When John Breakspear, 22, of 846 George St. fell asleep at the wheel of his car around 7:15 a.m. today, the next thing he knew the car was off the road and trespassing on the lawn in front of 149 London St.

Breakspear told Constable W. S. Fife, who was called to the scene, that he fell asleep while driving north on George St. The car mounted the curb and travelled round the corner on the sidewalk into London St., coming to rest on the lawn.

In addition to being shaken up, Breakspear cut his chin which required three stitches.

Damage to the car is estimated at $400.

Orangemen Hold Church Parade

Two hundred and twenty-five members of the Royal Orange Association of the LOBA of Peterborough and District attended their annual church service Sunday, before their July 12 celebration. They marched from the Orange Hall on Brock St. to St. James' Church where the Rev. E. J. Whan, pastor of Park St. Baptist church conducted the service. The Citizens' Band paraded the Orangemen to the church.

The Rev. Fred Craik, St. James' United Church, had as his topic for the sermon "Why Are We Protestants". He commented on the good work of the Orange lodge in this district and the need of the work yet to be done.

Soloist for the service was Mrs. Joseph Barry with Adam Hawley at the organ. Edward Payne, a member of the lodge, read the scripture lesson. After the sermon the members of the lodges filed out of the church while the congregation remained seated.

Union Services

The services were the first union services for this summer of St. James' United Church, Park St. Baptist Church and Knox United Church. Other churches throughout the city also began union services last Sunday.

663 Die In U.S. During Holiday

CHICAGO, July 5 —(AP)—A record accidental death toll for the Independence Day week-end marked the observance of this year's extended holiday in the United States.

Latest figures showed 663 killed in violent accidents.

The grim report on the country's celebration of the three-day holiday was: traffic fatalities 289; drownings 240; violent deaths from miscellaneous causes 134. The country-wide survey covered violent deaths from 6 p.m. local time Friday to midnight Monday.

The 1949 toll was the highest ever recorded for any Fourth of July. The previous record of accidental deaths on the Independence Day holiday was 628 in the three-day period in 1941. This year's mark compared with 571 deaths over a three-day period in 1948.

Early District Link Toronto Woman Buried

Funeral service for the late Mrs. Celestia Elizabeth Stevenson of Toronto was held today at St. Simon's Anglican Church. Burial service was at Little Lake Cemetery with the Rev W. J. Gilling of St. Luke's Anglican Church officiating.

Mrs. Stevenson died at her residence, 606 Jarvis St., on Sunday. She was born in Kingston, daughter of the late Dr. James Bingham, one of the earliest graduates of Queen's Medical School, and Harriet Burnham Choate, daughter of the late Thomas Choate of Warsaw. Her father practiced in Peterborough, also serving as medical officer of health and later went to Toronto. Her husband, George Stevenson, prominently engaged in early Cobalt mining developments, predeceased her.

She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Helen Kilpatrick of Orange, N.J., who had been with her mother in Toronto for the past several months.

A devoted worker in the Red Cross Outpost Hospital workroom, Mrs. Stevenson was also a tireless worker in the active service canteen, Adelaide St., during war years. She was a member of St. Simon's Anglican Church, of its Women's Auxiliary and the Altar Guild. She was also corresponding secretary of the Toronto Women's Progressive Conservative Association, and a member of the Chamberlain Chapter, IODE, and the Protestant Women's League.

DOMICILIARY CHARGES

Sanitary Inspector R. M. MacPherson has laid two charges against William Brady for pulling down the notice declaring the premises at 555 Howden Ave. unfit for habitation and for living in the building after it had been declared unfit. Charges were read in city police court today by James Fleming, J.P., in the absence of Magistrate W. R. Philp, K.C. and the case was adjourned to July 12. Mr. Philp is presiding over the court at Haliburton today.

Foote-Rosebush

ROSENEATH, July 5—(ENS)—In St. Stephen's Anglican Church Toronto, on Saturday the wedding took place of Margaret Evelyn Rosebush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin J. Rosebush of Roseneath and Vernon Foote, son of Mrs. Foote and the late Mr. F. A. Foote of Toronto. The Rev. L. E. Ward officated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of ivory satin with a fitted bodice and draped shoulders. Her long veil was of Swiss silk net, held in place by a headdress of seed pearls and carried a bouquet of Briarcliffe roses and sweet peas.

Miss Hazel Foote, sister of the groom was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were, Misses Shirley Rosebush and Hilda Cole, all wearing taffeta dresses of pastel shades and headdresses of matching flowers. Each of the attendants carride a bouquet of Bettertime roses and sweet peas.

The groomsman was Leslie Foote, brother of the groom, and ushers were Messrs Rae Stone and Archie Tilbie.

A reception was held at the grooms home, where the guests were received by Mrs. Foote and Mrs. Rosebush.

Later the bride and groom left for a short honeymoon trip to points west.

They will reside in Toronto, where the groom is a member of the Police Force.

Careless Driver Runs Car Into Rail Switch

A motorist's careless driving Brock Sts. rail crossing Friday held up a train at the Bethune-evening when James Coursey, 289½ George St., drove into the signal switch.

In city police court Monday, Coursey paid fines and costs totalling $35 when he pleaded guilty to careless driving and illegal possession of liquor.

Crown Attorney John Bradshaw said the signal switch was damaged to the extent of $70.

Declares FBI Should Guard Atomic Secrets

SPRING LAKE, N.J., July 5—(AP)—Lt.-Gen. Leslie R. Groves said Thursday the Federal Bureau of Investigation should be put in direct charge of the security of the atom bomb.

The former head of the atomic energy project said the United States now is suffering from a "feeling of insecurity" and that the FBI should be given "power and authority instead of their present position as a mere investigative body."

Addressing the New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police, Groves said the confidence of the United States has been "shaken by the cold war, by the Coplon case, by the Hiss-Chambers story, by the Communist trial in New York, by the disclosures before Congressional committees and by countless other items of public interest."

"If the present feeling of insecurity continues in this country, it is quite possible that a strong sentiment will develop towards a decision that the security of the atomic energy project . . . be turned over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation by amendment of the Atomic Energy Act enacted by the 80th Congress."

Groves said he has predicted previously that the Soviet Union will have an atomic bomb by 1951 or 1952 and he urged that local police chiefs prepare to do something about it.

Phyllis Joyce Gray Married In Double Ring Ceremony

MARMORA, July 5 (ENS). — St. Andrew's United Church, Marmora, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday at 2.30 p.m. when in the presence of a large congregation and in a double ring ceremony performed by Rev. George D. Young, BA, BD, Phyllis Joyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gray of Marmora, became the bride of Gerald Winfred Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fox of Malone.

The church was decorated with delphinium, hydrangea, sweet peas and fern. The organist, Mrs. A. F. Fraser, played wedding music. Before the bride entered the church, Mrs. Percy Gray sang "When Song Is Sweet" and during the signing of the register "Bird of Love Divine."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked charming in a floor-length gown of white satin with lace insertions. Her silk embroidered tulle veil was caught with a halo of braided satin. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Audrey Brown of Harold, cousin of the groom, was bridesmaid. She was frocked in pink moire taffeta with shoulder-length veil and matching gloves and accessories, carrying a bouquet of cream roses.

The flower girl was Betty Deline, niece of the bride, who was attired in blue organdie over blue taffeta wearing an organdie poke bonnet and a nosegay of mixed summer flowers.

The duties of best man were discharged by Everett Gray, brother of the bride. Keith Gordon and Keith Brown of Peterborough acted as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in St. Andrew's Hall with catering by Circle 1 of St. Andrew's Women's Association. Waitresses were Miss Muriel McCann, Malone; Miss Marion Jones, Norwood; Mrs. Verna Howard, Malone; Mrs. Marjorie Gay, Foxboro. The bride's mother received, wearing cameo blue crepe with white accessories and wore a corsage of red roses.

The groom's mother, who also received, was dressed in powder blue crepe with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses.

Later the bride and groom left for a trip to Niagara Falls, N.Y., and points west. For travelling the bride wore blue crepe with white accessories. Gifts by the groom were: initialled lapel pin to the bridesmaid; initialled tie pin to best man and ushers; a china cup and saucers each to the organist and waitresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox will reside in Marmora.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. James Moffatt, Navan, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. James Fox, Eldorado; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Young, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Byrd; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Baker, Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Brown, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jones, Norwood; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gay, Foxboro; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Jones, Stirling; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown, Harold; Mrs. Margaret Cummings, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Ford Chambers; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fox, Malone.

LAWN BOWLING

By HERB MARTIN

The popularity of the "Family Hour" tournament was clearly demonstrated when 16 mixed rinks came out on Saturday evening and enjoyed three hours of lawn bowling. It was the largest entry for this event so far this season.

True, the entry fee is small and the remuneration to the winners is small, but the playing is just as good as in bigger tournaments. The boys and girls play to win and everything is free and easy. We made the prediction some time ago that this tournament would reach the 20 entry mark, and that still holds. The winning skips are: S. Shields, Geo. Shulby and Ralph Burns.

We understand that the entry list for the "Lift Lock" doubles is complete, the objective of 96 pairs having been reached Saturday.

The ladies are holding their annual doubles (open) tournament for the Lincoln shoe store trophy on Friday, July 8.

We have heard nothing about the provincial playoffs for our club. The competitions are rinks, doubles and singles.

At Belleville on Dominion Day Mr. and Mrs. P. Moore, playing in the mixed doubles tournament, each received a nice prize. They won their three games.

New Cattle Breed To Aid Farmers

BRANDON, Man., July 5 — (CP)—A breed of cattle described as the answer to a 50-year-old prayer by Canadian farmers is on display at Manitoba's provincial exhibition.

The breed is Red Poll, which herd owners claim is ideal for small mixed farms. A dual-purpose animal, the cow can be milked and the calves steered for beef.

Wilmott McComb of Hayfield, Man., President of the Canadian years farmers in the Dominion Red Poll Association, said in an interview Monday that for 50 have been looking for such a breed.

In 1944, Mr. McComb said, there were only about 120 pure-bred Red Poll breeders in Canada. Today there are 205, and their numbers are increasing yearly.

The modern Red Poll breed originated 120 years ago in England with a blending of Norfolk beef and Siffolk dairy cattle.

Hogs were $1 higher at $32 for Grade A and $31.60 for Grade B1. Sows were steady at $21 dressed.

Buffalo Trims Maple Leafs In Doubleheader

By The Associated Press.

If July fourth tradition holds, Buffalo Bisons will be the new International League pennant winners.

The Bisons today boast a five-game lead over last season's champions Montreal Royals, and are gaining momentum with each succeeding game.

Monday the herd swept their holiday doubleheader from Toronto Maple Leafs, 10-4 and 5-1.

Home runs turned the trick in both games for the league-leaders. Ray Coleman and the veteran Doc Cramer hit homers in the first game to make Bob Hooper's eighth straight victory an easy one.

Cramer's blow, a pinch-hit in the sixth inning, came with the bases full. Hooper, who has yet to lose, yielded home runs to Johnny Blatnik and Lou Heyman.

George Byam and Lonnie Frew were the home run hitters in the second game. Clem Hausmann spaced eight hits to record his eighth pitching triumph.

Edge Wings

Montreal, meanwhile, edged Rochester Red Wings 2-1 in the first half of a scheduled doubleheader. The game was halted and after five innings because of rain. The second game was postponed.

Sam Jethoe stole home in the first inning for the Royals' first run and Chuck Connors' run-scoring double gave them the winning marker in the fourth. Dick Cole homered for the Wings' only run in the fifth.

Jersey City and Newark divided their doubleheader, the Bears winning the second game in overtime 8-5 after the 'Lil Giants captured the opener 6-4.

Frank Lamanna, third Newark hurler, registered his fourth win in the nightcap. Andy Tomasic kept 10 Newark hits well scattered to pick up his eighth triumph in the opener.

Baltimore Orioles made it three straight over Syracuse Chiefs at Syracuse by taking a doubleheader, 7-5 and 9-5.

Vern Wilson won the first and Ernie Bickhause the second, although neither went the route.

Frank Mancuso hit a three-run homer in the first game for the Orioles and teammate Bob Repass repeated the act in the second.

TORONTO LIVESTOCK

TORONTO, July 5 (CP)—Prices were about steady in slower trading on the local livestock market this morning. Receipts reported by the Dominion Marketing Service were: cattle, 1,100; calves, 400; hogs, 400; sheep and lambs, 100. Held over from Monday were 1,400 cattle.

Good to choice weighty steers were $21.50-$22.50. Good light steers sold for $21-$21.75. Heifers were mostly from $18-$21. Good cows were $16-$16.50. Canners and cutters brought $10-$13.50. Good bulls sold for $18-$19 with plain selling downward to $15. Fed yearlings were $20-$23. A few stockers brought $15.75-$18.50.

Calves were steady at $21-$23 for choice quality with plain to medium from $15-$20.

Lambs were steady at $28 for best ewes and wetthers and bucks at $27. Sheep were steady at $11-$13 for good lights with culls downward to $5.

OrderUnions Return Strike Funds

SYDNEY, Australia, July 4 — (CP)—The Commonwealth Arbitration Court today ordered two trade unions involved in the Australian coal strike to pay to the court registrar money they allegedly withdrew from the banks to help the miners continue their strike.

The Federal Government had made an application under the National Emergency Coal Strike Act which freezes the funds of the miners' federation and forbids other unions to use their resources to aid the miners.

The Government charged that about £100,000 ($325,000) was withdrawn last Wednesday to help the mine strike, which has thrown nearly 450,000 persons out of work in New South Wales.

Australia's 23,000 miners went on strike June 27, seeking a wage increase of 30 shillings (about $4.85) a week and a reduction in the work week from 40 to 35 hours.

The unions involved in the freeze order were the Miners Federation and The Federated Iron Workers Association. Action against two other unions, the Dock Workers' Federation and the Amalgamated Engineering Union was adjourned until Tuesday.

Prime Minister Chifley told a meeting Sunday night at Katoomba 60 miles west of Sydney, that it will be "boots and all" (meaning an all-out fight) as far as the Federal Government is concerned "if the miners' leaders continue to wage unnecessary and callous war on the community."

Applications for unemployment relief in New South Wales, the state most heavily affected by the strike, today totalled 100,000, the number reached during the worst days of the depression in 1932.

Feeling against the strikers boiled up at a meeting at Fairfield, a suburb of Sydney. A sailor disrupted the meeting being addressed by a member of the Waterside Workers' Federation who was urging support for the miners.

"We fought for you—," he said and punched the speaker, who fled.

James Adams Killed As Vehicles Collide

James Fellow Adams, 60, of 150 Balmoral Ave., Toronto, was killed Sunday afternoon when his car was involved in a collision with another car three miles east of Kirkfield. He was killed instantly and his passenger, Sidney Miller, Kirkfield, was taken to Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay, with four passengers in the other car.

At an intersection on Highway 46, Adams' car met a car driven by Mark Crowley, 124 Durham St., Lindsay. Mr. Crowley, his wife, his uncle David Crowley and the uncle's daughter Mary, are all in Ross Memorial Hospital.

Mr. Adams was a son-in-law of the late Sir William Mackenzie.

Provincial Constable L. G. Lyle investigated.

Prayers Answered

LONDON, July 5 (CP)—Rain fell in London today for the first time in 21 days, and temperatures in the city fell sharply from the year's high of 82 which was reached at noon. Millions had prayed for rain Sunday in churches throughout Britain as the drought caused reduction in milk deliveries and possibility of water rationing in some areas.

Asks Understanding

ASPEN, Colo., July 5 (AP) — A plea for greater understanding between the Oriental and Occidental worlds was voiced Monday by Dr. T. M. P. Mahadevan of India at the Goethe Bicentennial Convocation. His lecture opened the second week of the three week festival in commemoration of the 200th anniversary of Johann Von Goethe's birth.

Foolish Prank Costs 15 Days

A foolish prank which started as a bet among a group of men at the McGillis Hotel Saturday evening, resulted in a 15 days' jail sentence for Bertram Holmes, 327 Simcoe St. When Holmes told Magistrate W. R. Philp, K.C., Monday at city police court that he had taken a chair from the ladies' beverage room of the McGillis Hotel as a dare, he was found guilty of stealing the chair and sent to jail for 15 days.

Carl McGillis, proprietor of the hotel, said he was sitting in the dining room Saturday evening when he saw Holmes carrying the chair past the window along Charlotte St. He ran out and told Holmes to bring the chair back, whereupon he took it to the ladies' beverage room and replaced it at a table there.

Celebrate With Drink

After the holiday weekend five people faced charges in city police court of drunkenness. Second offence charges against Leo Grisdale, 152 Dufferin St., Ernest Anstey of Omemee and Noah Taylor of Curve Lake were adjourned for a week. Harry Phillips, 512 Parnell St. and Gerald Howley, 141 Hazlitt St. were each fined $10 with $2.50 costs.

Whipple Lancaster, 598 Chamberlain St. was fined $10 with $2.50 costs when she pleaded guilty to illegal possession of liquor, and the magistrate adjourned for one week a case against Lloyd Peacock, 267 Bethune St. of illegal possession.

Velma Jacobs, 887 Water St., who pleaded guilty to causing a disturbance on Brock St. June 18, was fined $10 and $2.50 costs.

The same charge against Raymond McIlmoyle of the same address was adjourned for a week.

Ray Cannon, 78 Park St., paid a $10 fine and $2.50 costs for causing a disturbance on Patterson St. on June 26.

Refuse To Allow Viscount Addison To Resign Post

By ALAN HARVEY

LONDON, July 4—(CP)—Viscount Addison, who keeps trying to resign as government leader in the House of Lords, celebrated his 80th birthday still in office, and still going strong. The letter of resignation he wrote two years ago stayed in its cubby-hole in Prime Minister Attlee's desk.

For the "learned gentleman on the Woolsack," as parliamentary colleagues call him, is still active and blooming. The government can't seem to get along without him. Some say he will lead the Lords as long as Labor stays in power.

Birthday congratulations to the grand old man of British politics came both from his own party and from the Conservatives. The Manchester Guardian, a Liberal paper, said the opposition had never tried to hide its respect for "this thorough Englishman with his sanquine imperturability and quiet resolution."

A day after his birthday, he showed up promptly for the weekly cabinet meeting at 10 Downing Street. He first attended meetings there nearly 40 years ago—before one of his colleagues, Harold Wilson, 33-year-old president of the Board of Trade, was born.

In his 40-year career as a politician, he has held such posts as Munitions Minister and Reconstruction Minister in the First World War, Britain's first Health Minister, Agriculture Minister and Dominions Secretary.

As leader of the Lords, his stewardship is gentle, almost august. One critic said the ex-doctor brought to parliament "if not the bedside manner, at least the bedside voice."

This would be a typical approach by the pink-cheeked, twinkling-eyed old gentleman who helps make debates in the senior chamber worth watching.

"If the noble lord who has just spoken, and whose earnestness has profoundly impressed us, will consult the figures, he will discover that his conclusions, ably expressed though they were, are based, if I may say so, on a misunderstanding. The facts are . . ."

But his repudiation is not that of a bumbling Col. Blimp. After the fall of Singapore in 1942, he chilled colleagues by calling one of the generals there a nincompoop. Despite all protests, he refused to withdraw the word.

Brantford M.P. In Line For Speakership Of House

By The Canadian Press.

OTTAWA, July 5 (CP). — W. Ross Macdonald of Brantford, likely will be appointed as Speaker of the Commons when Canada's 21st Parliament meets for its first session, probably in late September.

Mr. Macdonald, 57-year-old lawyer, was re-elected as Liberal member for his home constituency of Brantford in last Monday's general election. He served in the last Commons as Deputy Speaker.

Technically the Speaker is chosen by the Commons as a whole, but members almost always accept the nomination placed before them by the government. Under a system in force for many years, there is a French-speaking Speaker in one Parliament and an English-speaking Speaker in the next.

Dr. Gaspard Fauteux, Liberal member for Montreal St. Mary, was Commons Speaker in the last Parliament. He also was re-elected and there has been some speculation that he may be given a Senate appointment or a post in the Cabinet. He was made a member of the Privy Council just before the election.

Mr. Macdonald, well liked by members on all sides of the Commons, was first elected in 1926. He was defeated in 1930 when a Conservative Government took office, but he regained his seat in 1935 and has successfully held it ever since.

His successor as Deputy Speaker will be chosen from among the French-speaking members of the Commons. There has been little speculation as to who will get the post, but in the last Parliament Rene Beaudoin, popular Liberal member from Vaudreuil-Soulanges, was at times called on to take the chair.

More Controls Off

Export controls are expected to be lifted from a new list of commodities within the next few days. The list likely will include cocoa and fertilizer.

Restrictions on exports were imposed during the early days of the Second World War as a means of conserving Canada's supply of vital war material and other goods which were in short supply on the world market.

With world production increasing and the supply picture in better shape, need for these controls are gradually disappearing.

Returns To Work

TORONTO, July 5 — (CP) — Ontario's Health Minister, Russel T. Kelley, absent for nearly four months from a heart attack, will return to work today. He is expected to launch an investigation into the brutality charges levelled against attendants at Ontario's Whitby mental hospital after a conference with Welfare Minister Goodfellow who acted as health minister in his absence.

Cleared of Charges

WINDSOR, July 5 — (CP) — James McKenzie, 35, Monday was cleared of charges of failure to assist a police office in the execution of his duties when crown authorities ruled there was insufficient evidence to warrant the charges being laid. McKenzie was arrested early Monday after he refused to come to the assistance of Constable Paul Morris while the officers struggled with two law-breakers.

Have More Cars

TORONTO, July 5—(CP)—The number of automobiles in the Toronto area averages 227 to each 1,000 persons—and issuing of licenses continues to increase. The total of 223,427 motor vehicle registrations in greater Toronto in 1948 surpassed the previous high, recorded in 1941, when there were 186,287.
